

THE SOLDIERS' BONUS BILL WILL NOT BE PAID FROM THE ALLIED DEBT FUND

Senate Leaders Discuss Advisability of Merg- ing the Two

HARDING "AGIN" IT

OBJECTS TO PLAN, STEPS HAVE NOT BEEN TAKEN TO INSURE REFUND

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The soldier bonus bill will not be made a part of the allied debt refunding bill, Chairman McCumber of the senate finance committee, said last night after a series of conferences had been held between senate leaders to discuss the desirability of merging the two and it had become known at the White House that President Harding did not look with favor upon the suggestion that they be combined.

The foreign debt bill, Senator McCumber said, would be taken up by the finance committee Monday in the hope that it would be put in shape at that time for reporting to the senate. It was the intention, he added, to eliminate some of the features to which the treasury department has objected and which has resulted in the measure being held in committee for several weeks. These include provisions for semi-annual payment of interest and that the interest rate shall not be less than five per cent.

Although the merger plan was originally received favorably by a number of the senate leaders, the president was said to regard it as impracticable and his view was reflected in further conferences yesterday between Senate leaders.

The president's objections to the merger were said by callers at the White House to be based on his desire for the assurance that provisions definitely would be made for payment of the bonus. So far as the refunding bill is concerned, he was said to believe that the refunding process should be developed to insure returns from the Allied loans before steps were taken to pledge them for a bonus.

He was represented, however, as not hostile to the suggestion that the interest or principal of the Allied loans be used for paying the bonus once they were available. It was stated definitely that he also would not oppose a sales tax for the purpose of paying the bonus if congress should decide upon that plan.

The president, however, was said to regard as impracticable a suggestion that over $400,000,000 in the hands of alien property custodian be used for bonus payments. These funds, it was said, were regarded as pledged technically to private individuals whose property was taken.

FRANK MULHOLLAND HERE

Mrs. Willis B. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Nichols, and Frank Mulholland were visitors to the city today coming over from Eustis for the men to take the train to Ohio. Frank Mulholland is the former president of the International Rotary Club and is a well known figure in Florida where he spends his winters in Eustis but visits many Florida cities. The party made the Herald office an appreciated visit and we extracted a promise from Mr. Mulholland to visit Sanford and give us some of that inspiring stuff (not liquid) at one of the meetings of the Chamber of Commerce or the Rotary Club.

"THE BLOOD"

A sermon on this subject will be preached at the First Colored Baptist Church of this city by Dr. A. C. Shuler of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago on Sunday afternoon next Jan. 15th, at three o'clock.

We hereby cordially invite all of the colored pastor's and their congregation and all of our people, in and about the city to worship with us next Sunday afternoon and hear the sermon on this wonderful subject by the preacher who has greatly delighted many of our people in three sermons during this week.

SANFORD HIGH DEFEATS FAST ORLANDO H. S.

The Sanford High School has two wins accredited to her last night, the first time in several years. The Umatilla girls by not coming to Sanford last night forfeited the game to Sanford 2 to 0. The Sanford team has had no satisfaction from Umatilla this year and so when a wire came yesterday morning cancelling the game, the Sanford girls wired back to come or forfeit the game.

The boys surprised Sanford last night by defeating Orlando. Most of the people of Sanford thought the boys didn't have a good team this year or that they would never win a big game. But let me tell you something, these boys are going to give any team in their district a hard run for the championship. The game last night was a hard fought contest in which it was anybody's game till the last whistle blew. Orlando started the scoring by a pretty toss from Tinker, which was followed by one from Moys. From then until the half, one would score and then another, see-sawing back and forth. One team in the lead and then the other until the end of the half, when the score stood 11 to 9 in favor of Sanford. From then on the Orlando team couldn't get ahead of Sanford. The Sanford team outplayed Orlando in passing, team work and guarding, but not in caging the ball. The whole Sanford team couldn't shoot the goal like they ordinarily do. That was why the score was not higher for Sanford than it was.

The Sanford boys learned something on their trip down the East Coast. That was why they put up such a passing game. They were also without a coach this week and that was also why they didn't pile up such a high score. They are now under the coaching of Mr. Wilkinson, who is whipping them into a championship team. Watch the Sanford team go!

The girls play in Eustis tonight and it is expected that they will come back victor.

Tonight the program at the Parish House will be the Junior Brotherhood vs. DeLand Grammar School. The Brotherhood team is expected to win by a large margin.

CONGRESS MUST PASS ON FORD'S SHOALS PROJECT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Henry Ford's offer for purchase and lease of the government's nitrate and water power projects at Muscle Shoals, Ala., will be referred to congress for final decision, it was announced yesterday at the conclusion of the conference between government officials and Mr. Ford. Accompanying the Ford proposal when it is transmitted, Secretary Weeks said probably would be the two offers received from Frederick Engstrom, of Wilmington, N. C., and C. C. Tinkler of San Francisco.

THIEF STEALS TON OF COAL

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 13.—A shrewd thief yesterday afternoon stole a ton of coal from the cellar of C. B. Valentine's home here, it is known today. Mrs. Valentine, her child and a servant were in the house while the coal was being removed but know nothing about the theft until the supply of fuel upstairs ran low and a trip to the cellar was made to replenish it.

or "Do the Dead Talk Back?"

The Sanford Bible Conference is about to become history. The last meetings of the conference will be held tomorrow in the various churches co-operating in the Conference, addressed by speakers as announced in the program for Sunday.

The Conference has been well attended, and those in charge feel that great good must necessarily result to the churches having part in the meetings. The great doctrines of the Bible, soul-winning, salvation by grace, the Holy Spirit, the Security of the believer, the Church, the Second Coming of Christ, etc., have been discussed by the various speakers of the conference and many of those in attendance on the meetings have expressed themselves as greatly benefited.

Sunday morning and evening the Congregational, Baptist and Presbyterian churches will be addressed by one of the conference speakers.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be held a great mass meeting in the Presbyterian church when Dr. Henry Ostrom will give his famous lecture on "Spiritualism and the Bible" or "Do the Dead Talk Back?"

This address has been given at each of the Bible conferences held in the Southeast, and always standing room has been at a premium.

Don't fail to hear Dr. Ostrom on this timely subject.

With the evening services held in the churches as announced the program comes to a close.

Dr. Rodgers, director, is grateful to the people of Sanford for the way the conference has been received, and especially to the Sanford Herald for the splendid reports of the meetings. "The Herald," said the doctor, "has done a man's part to make the meetings a success, and I am sure all the pastors and church people of the city appreciate such a newspaper. Having been at one time in my life a newspaper man, I possibly can appreciate more fully such a service."

ST. PETER'S MUNICIPAL SEAL

(By The Associated Press)
ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 14.—St. Petersburg has adopted as its municipal seal a design drawn by Miss Margaret Little, daughter of Mrs. Edith T. Little, which took second prize in a contest conducted last summer by the Florida Art School.

The design described a pelican perched on a post with palms and the bay in the background. It is said to better typify the city than the former seal which displayed an antiquated railroad train travelling across mountains.

The design has already been carved in stone and placed over the new city water works building and it is planned to place it over all municipal buildings.

GEORGES AND JACK MIGHT PULL STUNT SOMEWHERE IN EUROPE

HAYS' ACCEPTS BIG MONEY OFFERED HIM

TO LEAVE CABINET AND TAKE POSITION WITH MOVING PICTURE CO.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The announcement that Postmaster General Hays will shortly retire from the cabinet was made at the White House today. After forty minutes conference with Hays, President Harding said he could not well object to Hays' retirement to become head of the National Association of Motion Picture Producers and Distributors.

Hays in discussing the matter informally said no date for his retirement had been decided on, that the matter was being left open waiting his negotiations with the producers. He refused to discuss salary offered but reported it was upward of $150,000 a year. Probable successors mentioned include Senator New, Indiana, Herbert Work, present first assistant postmaster general, Walter Hickey, Kansas City manufacturer and Representative Steenerson, Minnesota.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Postmaster General Hays conferred with President Harding today in respect to the offer made him by the Motion Picture producers to become head of their national organization. Reports were persistent in Washington for several weeks that Hays would accept the offer and retire from the cabinet but he said today he did not think he would be able even after his conference with Harding today to announce "conclusive decision."

Case Attracted Much Attention on Account of City Politics

WAS HARD FOUGHT

COURT GRINDING ON CIVIL CASES TODAY AND WILL HARDLY FINISH

The greater part of the day was taken up with the case of the State of Florida vs. J. A. Killebrew, C. J. Ryan and Ned Harrison, aggravated assault, and did not go to the jury until two o'clock. After about one hour's deliberation the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

The case has attracted much attention from the fact that it occurred about city election time and served for food for the political fans. Chief of Police Killebrew and Ned Harrison the motor policeman, started to the lake front west of the city one night to capture a still that they suspected existed there. On their way they picked up City Manager Ryan and he accompanied them to the home of Fred Fredericks where the still was found and upon approaching it some one jumped and ran and after being commanded to halt he was fired upon by the party and filled with shot. It proved to be Fredericks and he was taken to the hospital where he soon recovered. The three men in the firing squad were arrested and bound over to the circuit court on the charge of aggravated assault and the decision of the jury closes this incident that has taken up so much time and attention of the people and the courts.

State's Attorney DeCottis represented the state while City Attorney George G. Herring and Cary D. Landis, of DeLand, and J. J. Dickinson represented the defendants.

BURGLARY WITH FISH POLE

(From Wednesday's Daily)
LAKELAND, Jan. 14.—Burglary through the medium of a fishing pole and line is said to be the latest crime fed here. Two men thus equipped made several good hauls last Sunday night according to reports made to the police headquarters.

H. D. Carter of 501 South Massachusetts avenue, awoke in time to see his trousers disappearing through the window dangling at the end of a fishing line. Officers arrived promptly on the lookout the two men escaped with more than $70 in cash and a watch.

Marcus Tyre, guest at a local hotel earlier in the night had secured a hold on one of the men but he broke away and escaped leaving Mr. Tyre minus his watch and money.

Two other thefts the same night were reported to the police attributed the night's work to the same pair of outlaws.

EVENING BRIDGE

The members of the Evening Bridge Club were most pleasantly entertained last evening by Mrs. E. F. Housholder, at her home on Ninth street. There being three tables of players.

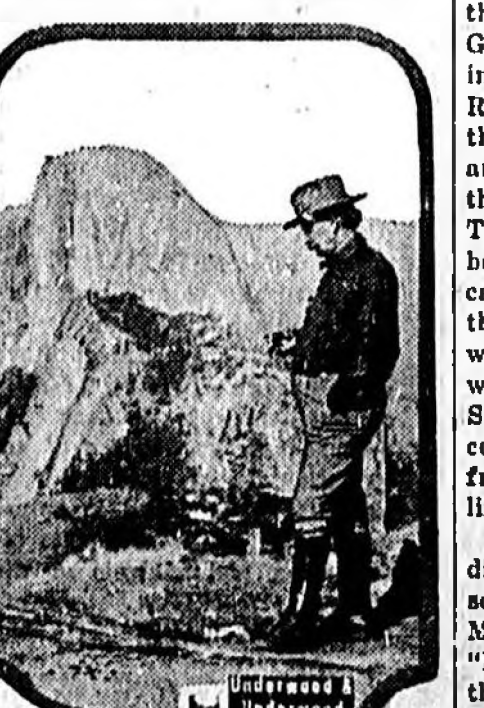

In the rooms where the card tables were arranged, lovely red roses and ferns in baskets were effectively placed.

When scores were counted after the card game, it was found that Mrs. Jacobson, held high score among the ladies, and was awarded a late book. The men's prize, also a late book was won by D. L. Thrasher.

Late in the evening Mrs. Housholder served a tempting salad course and coffee.

Mrs. Housholder's guests included Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson, of Newark, N. J., and Mrs. George Knight, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. S. Puleston, Messrs F. E. Roumillat and E. F. Housholder.

MR. FALL IN YOSEMITE

Secretary of the Interior Fall has been inspecting some of the national parks in the West. He is here seen at Glacier point, Yosemite National park, looking down into the Yosemite valley, 3,254 feet below. In the background is Half Dome.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Seymore Pritchard spent a few days the first of the week at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. F. Westerdick.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Menlor and their two little ones, Myrtle and W. C. Jr., left last Monday in their auto to visit near Okeechobee.

Raymond Henderson, who has been staying with his grand parents at Monroe, spent Sunday at the home of his father, Will Henderson.

Elmer Tyner went down again Sunday to drive a truck at Windermere until the shop work opens up again.

Mr. and Mrs. Christler of Orlando spent Sunday visiting at the home of Charles Cramer and wife and other Grapeville friends. They have four acres in pecans, of which we had a treat, and they were fine. We would also acknowledge a gift of some fine oranges and grapefruit from Alfred Ericson and J. E. Lundquist.

J. E. Lundquist and A. F. Westerdick have sold off their crop of oranges this week.

A number of men folks are off on a hunt, leaving on Thursday for the Wikiwa and Pole-bridge section among them are, Frank Woodruff, Sr., A. F. Westerdick and Barney Beck.

T. O. Tyner served for a few days on the grand jury in Sanford the first of the week.

Geo. Ballinger is having a kitchen reroofed and a back porch enlarged and closed in for a dining room. Forrest West is doing the work for V. C. Collier, contractor.

Mrs. Ballinger regrets very much the loss of a leather bound Bible, a teachers edition and has been hoping whoever picked it up will be kind enough to return it to box 241, route A. It has seen service but our name is on the fly leaf with some verses and many passages double and triple marked.

We will repeat the notice of our last item that Rev. J. S. Clark late of California, and a missionary for 17 years in Alaska is giving Bible studies on Revelation in Lake Mary on Tuesday eve, in Upsala at 7:00 Wednesday and in Sorrento, Friday eve and all are urged to come and hear him.

This is the part that is such a mystery to most of us but to which a special blessing is attached.

He will be with us again on the fourth Sunday also at 3:00.

Sunday school meets after this at 2:00 o'clock. A good attendance.

"Happy Jack" has been camping out on J. L. Lundquist place for a few days in Upsala and has orders to remain here until the 22nd. His wife, Mrs. Carrie Cares of Boston has come down to spend the few days of rest with him, not having seen him for two years and ten months. We understand he is traveling around the world in an endurance test or wager in connection with John Hopkins University. He carries 90 pounds on his back and is not asking for anything but a cup of water and the signatures of the governors and mayors at all the capitals and cities through which he passes and of the crowned heads of other lands. He is a Norwegian by birth and we believe the people here will be glad to hear him lecture at the church after the school next Sunday, especially all the children, as he tries to live up to his name.

OVIEDO

The Oviedo hotel has been taken over by Mesdames Coffee and Hag-an. Mrs. L. A. Sheldon having returned to her home at Geneva.

At one-thirty on January 1st. at the Methodist parsonage, Mrs. Ruth Gordon Scott of Arcadia was united in marriage to Lewis E. Wright, Jr., Rev. L. E. Wright officiating. Only the immediate family of the groom and Miss Ruth Young who played the wedding march were present. The intention of the couple were to be married just as the New Year came in but owing to car trouble on the way from the train the ceremony was delayed. Mr. and Mrs. Wright with their little daughter Ruth Gene Scott left Sunday at noon after receiving the congratulations of many friends who wish for them a long life of joy and happiness together.

On Friday night Jan. 6th, a splendid amateur play was given at the school house under the direction of Mrs. T. W. Lawton. The play "Ruth in a Rush" was presented by the following young people. Misses Ruth and Elizabeth Young, Nell Williams, Catherine Young, Katherine Lawton, Vivian Wright, and Mrs. E. G. Hancock. Messrs. Reverdy Whight, L. W. Lawson, Walter Carter, R. M. W. Sturdivant and Harold Vano. All the parts were well played and deserving special mention were Miss Catherine Young who had had her part of the play and Mr. T. W. Lawton who was persuaded to take the part of the millionaire just two days before the play was to be given, because of the inability of the one who had this character to take part in the play. Mr. Lawton carried out the part most creditably throughly convincing the audience that he cared very little for being a millionaire—in play at least.

WHY COLD TREATMENTS FOR CHILDREN SHOULD BE EXTERNAL

The child's stomach is delicate and nearly all physicians will agree that every upsetting influence should be avoided. Internal medicines are sometimes necessary but invariably they have a bad effect on the child's system. Such slight ailments as coughs, colds and sometimes croup can be very successfully treated externally.

Camthol, an excellent croup and pneumonia salve, especially prepared for children, when rubbed vigorously into the chest, throat and temples and spread in the nostrils and throat will break up the phlegm, clear the air passages, soothe and heal. It stops a cold without the need of internal medicines.

It contains no opium and does not blister the skin as many other salves do. 30c at all drug stores. Southern Drug Manufacturing Co., Jacksonville, Fla., Wholesale Distributors.—Adv.

Sanford band plays in Orlando tomorrow afternoon.

And Sanford and Orlando will talk about the future of the two cities and the ball games of the past.

Don't forget the Merchant's Demonstration Fair next week in Sanford. Bring in your products for this—our own little fair.

The new Republican paper, the Florida Post will issue the first number about the first of February.

Sanford also has a new band but the Celery City is making more elaborate preparations for concerts than Leesburg.

Nowberry has been vindicated by part of the Republican senate. He may think he has been white-washed and he probably has.

Harry Brown, of the Lakeland Telegram, is always going higher up and getting better. He has lately installed the full leased wire service of the Associated Press.

Seventy-five per cent of the veterans of the world war want their cash in the bonus plan and practically all of the four billions would have to be raised at once.

Orlando has purchased the county court house, the county commissioners have purchased a lot from the school board for a new court house and it is now up to the school board to purchase a lot from some other source and build another school building, all of which indicates that Orlando is moving some.

The churches of Sanford should be filled with people tomorrow when the various pulpits will be filled by the excellent preachers who are here all this week expounding the truths of the bible at the Bible Conference at the Presbyterian church.

Just now cabbage and cauliflower have the floor and are being shipped from Sanford in large quantities, bringing good prices and being in first class condition.

Also, with strawberries bringing better than 50c a quart all last week, the production has shown a steady increase every day.

At Plant City, since last Monday, the express company has handled 19,872 quarts of berries in 250 refrigerator boxes from that city.

The farmers have received something like $10,000 from these sales. The total estimated returns to the growers for strawberries this season to date have been $41,000, while the total output has reached 60,750 quarts.

Add to these figures the daily shipment of cars and cans of citrus fruit from the state, and the hundreds of other distinctly Florida products, and it will be seen that vast sums are coming into the state, and largely from sources outside the local exchequers.

Mr. Otera announced his interpretation of a city ordinance prohibiting the obstruction of the sidewalks to mean that the barber poles and supports for awnings must be attached to the building not erected at the outer end of the walk.

The first real bit of work for the City Commissioners will be the finishing of the work of condemning the frame buildings that now stand in the way of progress.

"First car of green celery goes out this morning from the east side," declares the Sanford Herald in a big headline. "Golden celery will probably start next week."

Says the Sanford Herald: "Officials of the Rod and gun club declare that the new building will be ready for use soon and will add another link in the tourist amusement line for Sanford this winter."

"WHILE YOU WAIT" You can wait for the buying public to discover you. Or— You can get right out after it through advertising, and compel the public to discover you.

If you can afford to wait long enough—well, that's your affair. But— If you decide to play the waiting game instead of hustling out after Success, be sure you're or your toes enough to provide the public with something worth seeking.

As a rule, these days, people have learned that the non-advertised business is also the sleepy business. Too slow to be worth hunting for.—The Ad Route.

CELERY AND STRAWBERRIES MOVING NORTH.

The first car of celery from fields around Sanford was started to the northern markets last Saturday, says the Daily Herald.

It is estimated that there will be about 1,200 acres of celery in the Sanford section this year and that when it starts rolling about the first of February, the market will be cleaned up on New York state cold storage celery and California celery and that the Sanford celery will bring a good price.

The Sanford crop is looking fine and the weather is ideal for growing and it has taken a wonderful start in the past few weeks.

Just now cabbage and cauliflower have the floor and are being shipped from Sanford in large quantities, bringing good prices and being in first class condition.

Also, with strawberries bringing better than 50c a quart all last week, the production has shown a steady increase every day.

At Plant City, since last Monday, the express company has handled 19,872 quarts of berries in 250 refrigerator boxes from that city.

The farmers have received something like $10,000 from these sales. The total estimated returns to the growers for strawberries this season to date have been $41,000, while the total output has reached 60,750 quarts.

Add to these figures the daily shipment of cars and cans of citrus fruit from the state, and the hundreds of other distinctly Florida products, and it will be seen that vast sums are coming into the state, and largely from sources outside the local exchequers.

TRUCK

By a Sanford Celery-fed Man

Work is getting too heavy in truck. Help, you fellows with Phunny Phacts.

The people who do the most talking about the money going out of town are seen the most in neighboring towns buying goods.

Felix Frank has figured out that there is one car for every fourteen people in the United States. He sprung it on Frank Miller the other day and Frank said, "Gowan, there's not that many Fordys in the United States."

The oil-stock salesman was perhaps the slickest of his kind. His emotional picture of the kingdoms of the world that must shortly fall into the hands of every possessor of a share of stock of the Goofy Gusher Company was so colorful as to stir the very soul of the seven-year-old eavesdropper at the conference between the philanthropist and his prospective victim.

"Oh, mamma," gasped Johnny, breathless with haste and excitement "please come quick! Santa Claus is down on the front porch with his whiskers shaved off and is goin' to give everything he's got to papa!"

Pussyfoot, Pussyfoot, where have you been? I have been to Orlando to knock out the sin.

Down where the "moonshines" on the lake And the Irish whiskey looks like a fake;

Down where they need me every hour, Down where the orange wine is never sour.

Pussyfoot, Pussyfoot, what will you do After you have eliminated the "stew"? I will go back to old London town Where the booze question will not down,

Where they put it down in dear old "pubs." Where they gave me many hard old "rubs."

Where I always give them the "molly-grubs." And they use water only in the tubs.

A Had Spell (With an ache in every line) When your head begins to ache, And your knees begin to shache, And you feel your body quache, And you freeze and then you bache; When you cannot sleep or wache, And you think your back will brache, It's the Flu. For heaven's sake Go to bed and cure-alls tache. Cure-alls good and cure-alls fache And your will you'd better mache. Too bad you've been such a rache What! Up again? That taches the ache.

PUBLIC FORUM

WHAT SANFORD NEEDS

Hello there Bob: If you believe what we are about to write, print it, if you do not, consign it to the waste basket.

Sanford is already famous for her fertile lands, her flowing wells, her wonderful lettuce and celery fields, her rail and water facilities, her schools and churches and her people.

The self-made town. So far, so good. But the work of building and growth has just begun.

Let no good citizen lose sight of the fact that our town can never be greater nor bigger than her people, and that confidence and loyalty are both the seen and the unseen elements in the building of a great city.

There must be confidence in individuals for individual as well as confidence in the constructive ability and power of the community to put over the thing undertaken and loyalty to every effort and inch of progress made.

The question: Are these two potent factors at work in Sanford? In our sister city, Orlando, yes! In Miami, yes.

Let's whip these factors in line and put them to work for Sanford.

We have every reason for confidence in the future of Sanford and surely pride and love of home town should instill and foster in every Sanfordite's heart, unstinted loyalty to Sanford.

The above is only a hint in a general way in community confidence and loyalty. It might be well for every self-respecting citizen, to ask himself: "Am I one of those persons who is helping to make my home town big and great?"

Pardon it, Bob, if what is about to be written seems to be only a merchant's viewpoint. But there is one form of loyalty which seems to the writer, is not very general, a lack of which is, perhaps a greater injury to Sanford than the casual observer might imagine. We refer to this almost general habit of buying out of Sanford.

The habit of sending HOME MADE money away and out of the home channels of circulation and trade, to markets from which no part of the money ever returns. How does this retard the growth of Sanford? The answer: Why does the drawing of the blood from the body impoverish and weaken the body?

Why does taking flour out of the family coffer and sending it to another, lessen the first family's supply? Why does taking money out of a Sanford bank and sending it to a Chicago bank reduce the cash in the Sanford bank?

Why does taking money out of Sanford and sending it to Chicago reduce the money power of Sanford? Listen, Bob, it's a sad but true fact, we have authentic information that from $500 to $1,000 a day passes out of Sanford, through the postoffice to mail order houses of the northeast.

What does this mean to Sanford and her people? An average of $750 a day, 26 days, $19,500 a month or $234,000 per annum. All taken out of the channels of trade, no part of which ever returns to Sanford. An appalling loss to the people and Sanford. What a difference there would be today in our town if only this $234,000 had been kept in circulation, hard times would not be here. The laborer, the farmer, the merchant and the professional man, would all be busy. The banks would have bigger deposits and bigger sums to let to encourage every firm, industry and enterprise.

Oh, boy, Sanford would be as live and as busy as a bee hive.

It must be admitted that when home people and home institutions have surplus money, that some how it gets into circulation and thereby stimulates business enterprises, and business projects of all kinds, and from the ditch digger to the banker, all get busy together, and prosperity rules supreme.

When one thinks of the constant stream of money flowing out of Sanford it is a puzzle to understand where it comes from or how it happens that Sanford people are not much harder pressed for funds.

Say, Bob, let's get busy and if possible, stop this outward flow of Sanford cash. It's the wise guy who keeps his cash where he makes it. The man who makes his money in Sanford ought to be a booster for Sanford, and if he is he will make his money work for Sanford. Then he'll be a booster, not a grouch; a doer, not a croaker.

How is this, Bob? Sanford people's New Year slogan: "We make our money in Sanford; we'll keep our money in Sanford! Hurrah for Sanford! Yours for a bigger and greater Sanford!"

On Thursday night the guests were entertained with a very informal address by Dr. C. C. Goddard of the Foreign Board of the Church South. He spoke particularly of his experiences in Europe recently and a remarkable religious revival in Czecho-slovakia he conducted as the representative of his board which has work in that and other adjacent countries carved out of the late Austro-Hungary empire, Miss Ruth Wetenhall added to the enjoyment of the evening with her charming voice.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Koumenhover of Brooklyn N. Y. are among the guests at the Inn for the season.

Mrs. John Giltner Inglehart and her son John G. Jr., of Evansville Ind. are at the Inn. They are of the Inglehart family, famous in Indiana annals.

The daily ferry from Sanford is quite a convenience which will be better patronized as its service becomes better known.

On Sunday morning Dr. Goddard conducted a unique service in the new dormitory of the Children's Home. He spoke first to the children on five reasons why young people should be religious, which they will never forget—ending with an altar exercise for a number who expressed a desire to find Christ. He then spoke to the adults naming six things the Holy Spirit must work in and for a person to make "Pentecostal" christians, conviction, conversion, assurance, guidance, intercession and power for witness. It was a service long to be remembered and at night Dr. Fowles addressed the Epworth League and their friends previous to which a song service was held in the social room at the Inn.

I. C. C. TO CONSIDER

RATES IN FLORIDA

Prominent men from different parts of Florida will represent various shipping interests before the Interstate Commerce Commission general hearing in Washington this month. It was declared at the meeting in Jacksonville Monday. The Jacksonville meeting was called by the state railroad commissioners with the shippers of the state, to determine what part the shippers should take in the I. C. C. hearing at Washington, and to what extent the state railroad commission might assist.

C. S. Hoskins, traffic manager of the Tampa Board of Trade, and E. D. Dow, traffic manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange, returned yesterday from the Jacksonville conference.

The meeting resolved itself largely into a commodity discussion, especially as regards fruit and vegetables, in which Floridians are greatly interested, Mr. Hoskin stated. It was finally agreed that home of the large shippers about the state will supply the railroad commission with data on the costs of production, net returns to the producer, etc., and some of these men will accompany the commissioners to Washington to testify. It was believed that the cost to the growers and what the growers get out of their products, will be more impressive than an intricate compilation of comparative rates with which the I. C. C. is already acquainted, said Mr. Hoskins.

Those who will go to Washington include, among others, E. D. Dow, of Tampa, for the citrus exchange; S. J. Sligh, a large fruit grower of Orlando; Mr. Bennett of Bradentown

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION" COMING HERE NEXT WEEK

In bringing D. W. Griffith's institution "The Birth of a Nation" to the Star Theatre for a limited engagement, the management takes pleasure in announcing that the famous spectacle will be offered here exactly as when it scored its initial triumphs in New York.

The revival comes in the wake of its great success in New York City where, at the famous Capitol Theatre which seats over 5,000 people it ran for the longest time a screen production was ever booked in that house and to the greatest receipts ever known for any production in a Broadway theatre for a given week.

This record is the more astonishing as "The Birth" was revived last Spring at a time when four other screen successes were in the very height of their respective runs but none, not expecting Griffith's masterpiece "Way Down East" ever played a week in New York to any such figures. It was an unqualified success in every particular and will be presented here as it was on this occasion with the stirring original score, the effective stage accompaniments, the most wonderful cast ever assembled in a motion picture production and with every attention to detail calculated to make it as appealing as ever.

The story needs no retelling but those memorable battle scenes, the great plantation views, the dreamy life of the old Southland, the romance and heart interest gathering about its love conflicts, the appearance of such mighty figures of history as Lincoln, Grant, Lee, and others of equal prominence who played their parts in writing the most crucial periods of American history when the nation was being welded into a mighty union can never be forgotten or lose their marvelous appeal.
