

Noon-Day Skies In Southwest Ablaze With Fiery Light

Startling Flash With Trail Of Smoke Is Seen In 3 States

(AP)—A fiery meteor—split the noonday brilliancy of the skies in three Southwestern states yesterday, causing several persons to report they had seen an airplane fall in flames.

The startling flash and trail of smoke was observed at points 150 miles apart in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Kansas.

Last night no trace had been found of the meteor, which possibly disintegrated before it struck the ground.

Numerous witnesses reported seeing the phenomenon at Pittsburg, Kans. They described it as a "ball of fire" which streaked across the south and east at a great altitude and left plume of black smoke.

Tom Lyle, former Okmulgee fire chief, and his family saw the spectacle at their home west of here and thought an airplane had come down in flames. A searching party combed the area before an explanation was obtained.

A Missouri Pacific bridge crew working between Crickett and Bergman, Ark., also believed a burning plane had crashed, "apparently three or four miles" away.

Some children at Muskogee, about 40 miles east of here, reported having seen "a ball of fire in the sky" north and east of Muskogee.

Northwest Arkansas residents around Rogers also reported sighting the object.

Frank Price, weather observer for the University of Arkansas bureau near Rogers, was one of the witnesses.

At all points where the phenomenon was reported, skies were cloudless.

Boys' Boxing Club Resumes Operation In Bouts Friday

Seminole Boys' Athletic Club will resume operations after a holiday lull with the presentation of eight fast bouts at the Fourth Street Arena tomorrow night, starting at 7:45 o'clock.

Officials of the Club this morning called attention to the fact that since the Club was organized, the people of this county, through the influence of the Club, have given for charitable purposes and as Christmas presents for club members, money and merchandise to the value of almost $500.

It also was pointed out that not one member of the Club was found shooting fireworks on business streets during the holidays, or appearing on sidewalks in that area on roller skates or bicycles.

"As we have announced before," Judge S. A. B. Wilkinson said, "the purpose of this club is to teach the boys citizenship, sportsmanship and boxing skill, and the results thus far have been very good."

Friday night bouts:

T. H. Willis vs. Eugene Tippins; Ray H. Hughes vs. Duane Tillis; Philip Goodspeed vs. Leroy Estridge; Martin Temple vs. Buddy Whilmer; Buddy Ogleby vs. John Freeman Hall; Billy Tippins vs. Marvin Smith; Mack Cleveland vs. Mike Eason; Claude Whidson vs. Red Williams.

New Cold Wave Sweeping Into Mid-West Area

Worst Storm In Years Lashes Northeast; 175 Mile Wind Hits New Hampshire Hill

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—(AP)—A new cold wave was moving down on parts of the Midwest and the upper Great Lakes regions today, almost on the heels of the worst storm of the season.

Meanwhile, New England points were cleaning up the debris that marked the path of a howling gale that killed three persons and reached a velocity of 175 miles an hour atop Mount Washington, N. H., where the temperature sagged to 30 below.

A moderation of temperatures in the stricken areas along the northeast coast aided in the work of repairing the damage wrought by the gale, declared to have been the worst in years.

Filene Says Supreme Court Business Must Aid President

Boston Merchant Describes 1935 Outlook As "Very Bright And Very Doubtful"

BOSTON, Dec. 28.—(AP)—Edward A. Filene, widely known Boston merchant and economist, yesterday described the outlook for 1935 as "very bright and very doubtful" and pointed to several "two-way signs."

Filene warned that if business and the supreme court failed to co-operate with the President, the country might be "compelled to turn to socialist measures."

"America has decisively endorsed the New Deal," he said, "thus ending uncertainty which constituted such a drag upon recovery in 1934. In 1935, however, the supreme court may rule that certain vital parts of the New Deal are unconstitutional, thus de-

Yale Professor Says Prices Could Be Raised By Circulating More Money

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—Two thousand scientists put the world under a microscope last night and discovered, according to their lights:

That the New Deal has become a raw deal—Professor Irving Fisher, Yale economist;

That words with sex themes are less popular than "Back to the soil" words—Carl H. Milner, secretary of the American Library Association;

That crime increases because prosecutors are inefficient, police are ill-educated and politicians

of the Association of American Law schools;

The scientists were members of 12 organizations devoted to economic, sociological and industrial problems, holding a joint meeting here.

Professor Fisher told the Econometric Society and the American Statistical Association that the New Deal is "very full of contradictions."

"We cannot get more income by making less of the elements of which this income exists," he said, in an attack on crop reduction.

"A more sensible means of raising prices would be to put more money into circulation—by printing the $100,000,000 lost in bank failures."

74th Congress Not Entirely Limited To One Party Ideas Reported By Labor

Next Session Promises Wide Range Of Political Sentiment

By FRANK E. WELLER
WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—(AP)—Top-heavy with Democrats, the 74th national legislature, convening on Jan. 3, may be a "one-party" Congress in effect, but it embraces a wide range of political sentiment than any Congress in recent history.

That is one of the reasons Senator La Follette of Wisconsin believes a third party movement may be due in the United States. He spoke with a family political background of 40 years of Republicans trying to organize the progressive party in his state.

Representatives of new party ideas in the Middle West, there will be seven progressives in the new House and the three Farm-Laborites. The Senate will have La Follette, a progressive, and Henrik Shipstead, a Farmer-Laborite.

There will be only a remnant of the "old guard," that group of conservative Republicans who dominated the Senate for so many years. Gone are such stalwarts as Fred of Ohio, Bladfield of West Virginia, Reed of Pennsylvania, Keen of New Jersey, Patterson of Missouri and Harbert of Rhode Island.

But 13 of the "old guard" which started slipping with the 1932 defeat of such wheelhorses as Watson of Indiana, Smoot of Utah and Moore of New Hampshire, will answer the roll call of senators on Jan. 3. They will constitute a power among the 20 Republicans remaining in the Senate, but their control of party policy is threatened by the so-

Brakeman's Mistake Led To Train Wreck

HAMILTON, Ont., Dec. 28.—Mistaken heroism of a brakeman, who thought his own train was on the main line and threw a switch which sent the Chicago-to-Montreal Maple Leaf crashing into the rear coaches of an excursion train, was held responsible last night for the wreck at Dumaine, which killed 15 and injured 12.

K. Lynch, the brakeman, voluntarily made the statement, according to W. A. Kingland, vice-president and division manager of the Canadian National railways, whose flagman had been killed last night.

As it rounded a curve into the station here, the locomotive jumped a closed switch and caused one of a string of freight cars, containing

Success Shone In 1934 On Varied Projects Which Have Been Advanced Many Years

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—(AP)

Success shone in 1934 on a number of projects for which the nation's women citizens have campaigned for years.

Emergency conditions aided by arousing public interest generally in governmental affairs. When that interest veered to the traditional concerns of women—the home, children and food for the family, women were ready with facts, statistics and a willingness to work

Richberg Says Idle Must Be Provided Jobs

Recovery Chief Warns Against Internal Dissension Unless Business Lends Aid

CLEVELAND, Dec. 28.—(AP)—Donald Richberg said today that America faces "internal dissension" unless unemployed millions are given work.

Voicing the hope that business will do its part, the President's recovery chief said there are a large number of business men who "Now favor the dole because it will cost them less than to give men work."

Pointing to this view as "Very short sighted," Richberg said "perhaps it might be cheaper even in a money sense to find work for these idle hands to do than to support armies necessary to hold them back if once these millions of pleading fingers are turned into threatening claws."

Harmony Prevails At Celery Control Committee Meeting

sales. "The sentiment in favor of F. O. B. sales as against delivered sales was surprising," he said. "Most of the large shippers and growers represented were in favor of F. O. B., among them J. C. Hutchison, W. M. Scott and Perry Whitehurst. No one appeared to speak in favor of the delivered sales method."

Under terms of the proposed resolution covering prorate procedure, a prorate period is defined as one continuing for one week beginning on a Monday at 6:00 o'clock in the morning and continuing until the next Monday morning at the same hour.

Shippers intending to ship any quantity of celery during such prorate period must file a form, "Application for Allotment and Estimated Yield," with the Control Committee office at Sanford or Sarasota.

A crate of celery is considered shipped when bill-of-lading is issued by the railroad, or when truck starts rolling.

The Control Committee shall meet on a Wednesday prior to a contemplated prorate period, and if such a period is deemed necessary, all growers and shippers are to be notified before 9:00 o'clock Thursday that the prorate period is under contemplation.

All shippers or growers then must make application for an allotment before 9:00 o'clock Friday morning before the contemplated prorate period.

The field committees must meet at offices in Sanford and Sarasota at 8:00 o'clock Friday morning for a study of the original allotment applications.

Each block of celery described shall be verified and checked as to accuracy by members of the field committees.

As a final step toward prorate periods, the resolution recommends that the Control Committee meet at 2:00 o'clock on the Saturday before the contemplated prorate period to reconsider the advisability of instituting such a period.

If it is deemed advisable, the committee shall determine the day that it is advisable to ship, percentage of the available cel- lery that will be shipped, and each shipper shall then be advised of the allotment percentage allowed him and the actual number of crates which he may ship under his allotment.

No celery shall be shipped during a prorate period unless an allotment is issued covering its shipment, and no allotment will be issued unless an application is made to the Control Committee as described above.

Growers or shippers have the privilege of appearing before the Control Committee at its Saturday meeting to protest against the revision of their own estimate of celery available for shipment or to make any other complaint. They also may exchange or transfer their allotments in whole or in part by applying for permission to do so.

Mr. Dawson stressed the point that "There wasn't a dissenting voice at the meeting, and only minor changes were considered. I was amazed at the fine spirit of co-operation which was maintained 100 percent behind the tested during the entire meeting. The Control Committee is in agreement and in accord on its terms. The Committee really means business and I'm sure the industry will benefit as a result."

Exports of iron and steel scrap from the United States during the first nine months of 1934 were eight times as great in volume as the 1932 exports.

Japs Formally Scrap 5-5-3 Naval Treaty

Eastern Nation Again Calls For Equality; Would Wipe Out All Offensive Weapons

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Japan scrapped the Washington naval treaty today calling once more for a new pact which would give her equality and wipe out all "offensive weapons of war."

The historic moment came when Ambassador Hiroshi Saito handed Secretary of State Hull a formal notice that after Dec. 31, 1936 Japan will not be bound by the treaty which gives her the "three" in the five five three.

The Oriental diplomat, present 18 years ago when the treaty limiting fighting navies was born, thus sounded its death knell.

He expressed the hope that a new treaty could be agreed upon within two years.

Japan, he said, is willing to discard half her navy if "A common maximum limit" for the United States, Great Britain and the Far Eastern empire is established. He said he is "Not at all anxious" about the possibility of a naval race.

A two-year period of internal uncertainty and diplomatic effort to reconstruct the shattered framework of naval limitation ap-

Lindy Returns To Hopewell To Assist State

Flier Visits Home To Assist Attorneys In Building Case Against German

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Dec. 29.—(AP)—Back to the house of sorrow in the Sourlands now Hopewell went Col. Charles A. Lindbergh yesterday to repeat for prosecution officials the things he said and to show them what he did on the black, windy night of March 1, 1932, when his first-born son was kidnapped and taken out to die.

It was, so far as could be learned, the flier's first visit to the house since the summer of 1932 when he and Mrs. Lindbergh, "unrowned queen" of the country to leave and remain abroad. King Carol was reported ready to settle a large sum of money upon her. (Associated Press Photo)

The official source which revealed Lindbergh's visit yesterday said the Colonel met Attorney General Wilens, chief of the prosecution staff, Prosecutor Hauck of Hunterdon county, Assistant Attorney General Pencock, and former Judge Large, a special Assistant attorney general.

For an hour they inspected the house, the nursery where Betty Gow put the infant to sleep in his crib, the window through which the kidnapper stole, the spot where he left: the home, the living room where Lindbergh sat reading, aware that someone was stirring his son.

The purpose of the visit, it was learned, was to familiarize Large and Pencock with events on the night of the kidnapping and the surroundings. They questioned Lindbergh on all details, and the famous flier returned his footsteps over the path he took, armed with a rifle, after the kidnapper's absence was discovered.

Mrs. Lindbergh's prospective appearance on the witness stand was disclosed earlier in the day. (Continued on Page Two)

The man's fate and he was ashamed and mortified because his name was on the kidnappers' list.

I have comparatively little of the price of the business which we hold, Johnson said.

It will be, I am sure, a source of satisfaction for you to know that each year my principal has dwindled and my expenses, gifts and use of money increasing. Last year I think we dropped into the principal to pay commitments and obligations of every kind, about $200,000 and at the rate I am going, if I live five years, I shall probably be pretty near where I started out," he said.

"Any man who dies rich dies disgraced," the statement said.

Johnson said he thought that was Andrew Carnegie's idea that, whether it was his or not, it is certainly mine."

It is really in times like the present when so many men, women and children are suffering from the lack of the common necessities of life," he added. "One man has the right, under such conditions, to pile up money."

In appearance, the 1935 V-8 is one of flowing curves on the modern motif and approximately eight inches longer.

Max Baer Knocks Out King Levinsky In 2nd

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Max Baer, heavyweight champion of the world, ended a scheduled four-round bout with Kingfish Levinsky last night with a knockout early in the second round.

About 10,000 spectators were stunned by the sudden finish of the battle which was scheduled as an exhibition. Baer weighed 211 pounds and Levinsky 201.

Fighting with an ounce glove instead of the eight-ounce mitts, the fighters met under an agreement providing for no decision except by a knockout.

English Murderess Given Reprieve

LONDON, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Lydia Binks, condemned to die Jan. 3 for the murder of her child, was reprieved last night.

The home secretary's decision was conveyed to the solicitor at Durham, where Mrs. Binks was scheduled to hang.

Had she gone to the gallows,

One person was killed, nine were seriously injured and 26 others hurt in the fighting between Bavarian farmers and Austrian Storm Troopers, exiled to England.
