Spot Revenue Program Runs Into Trouble

Plan Calls For Levy On Phosphates, Oil, Timber, Insurance; Old Warren Plan

TALLAHASSEE, May 10—(AP)—An attempt to revive the system of spot taxes on phosphates, timber, insurance and fuel oil which Governor Warren proposed to the Legislature two years ago ran into a lull today in the Florida House.

Rep. Nesmith of Wakulla county introduced four bills to levy the taxes at the rates proposed by the Governor last session, and tried to get them put on the calendar for floor consideration.

But he was beaten, and instead of landing on the calendar most of the bills were sent to more than one committee—one of which could almost doom it in the closely divided House.

Governor Warren said he didn't know the bills were being offered by Nesmith and he had no statement about revival of his old tax program. It was rejected by the 1949 Legislature. This year, he told the Legislature it seemed to him "should not exact any more taxes of any kind."

If the Governor's estimates of two years ago still hold, the proposed taxes would yield nearly $20,000,000 a year. That would enable the Legislature to finance any expanding appropriations bill without broadening the sales tax by removing (Continued From Page Six)

Rollins Students Strike In Protest Against Wagner

WINTER PARK, May 10—(AP)—Rollins students today staged a walkout from classes to protest the continued wangling over ouster or resignation of President Paul A. Wagner.

Many classes were empty; others had only four or five students attending. The walkout was called by a student committee organized by the student body in March. The committee said it was "determined to lead the current future over plans to dismiss a third of the faculty."

In one class, with a normal attendance of 25, six students were present. Two professors, whose classes totaled 30 students, held a joint session with five students.

One professor reported that a woman student met him 8:30 A. M. class and remained only long enough to say she "was going to the beach on the nearby lake."

Many students spent the morning lounging about the campus. Professors were remaining in lecture and classroom. In the event any students showed up.

The student body stayed away from classes "to hasten the decision of the Board of Trustees as to whether or not (Wagner) is to be retained," it stated.

The student group resolved at a meeting last night.

"If Dr. Wagner remains, the majority of students will transfer" from Rollins, the resolution declared.

Trustees have scheduled a meeting in Winter Park for next Tuesday to consider further the president's ouster.

Wagner has turned down demands for his resignation from the alumni president, students, faculty, and one member of the Board of Trustees.

Wagner has turned down demands for his resignation from the alumni president, students, faculty, and one member of the Board of Trustees.

The committee, elected by the student body, is expected to make a decision in the immediate future in order to prepare for furthering their education, either at Rollins or elsewhere.

Committee Chairman Hal Bull of Orlando referred to a poll of 60 freshmen, sophomores, and juniors by the student newspaper disclosing that 55 per cent of them will not return to Rollins if Wagner remains as president.

Only 10 per cent said they would quit if Wagner remains.

Seminole County Students Visit Painting, Handicraft Exhibits

Pupils from throughout Seminole County are being brought daily in buses to visit the school art exhibit on the upper floor of the City Hall, and are showing much interest in the drawings, paintings and handicraft. Mrs. Mildred Babcock, school art supervisor, reported yesterday.

The exhibit is large enough not only to take up all available display space on the walls, stage and in the orchestra pit, but art is shown also in the hallway and entrance room.

Of particular interest are the murals by outstanding art students of Seminole High School. These are intended for various class rooms and include a colorful Mexican market scene, and views of ancient Egypt, Greece and Rome in tempera colors.

Bob Bibbee's grand canyon painting in watercolor appears to be outstanding. Another striking watercolor is a scene by Johnnie May Jones which shows a fairy in a swing. In the background the black and white rendition of a laughing horse by Eddie Soderstrom.

The Wilson School, Paola, features a display of woven work including rugs, bags, belts, etc. A tree on which colored eggs appear to be growing is another of the small woven items for the Primary pupils. The first grade

Patrols Stab At Retreating Chinese Units

Attempt To Outflank Seoul Is Bloodily Repulsed By U. N. Counter-Attacks

By OLEN CLEMENTS
TOKYO, May 10—(AP)—Allied armored patrols today stabled in Munsan, 21 miles northwest of Seoul, after wounding a Red threat to flank the old South Korean capital.

Tanks and South Korean infantrymen hunted through Munsan without opposition, then withdrew.

Elsewhere along the 100 mile front the greatest obstacles are countered by probing tank patrols were mine fields covered by small arms fire.

Chinese armies are "withering on the vine" because of lack of supplies, said Lt. General Edward M. Almond, commander of the U. S. 10th Corps.

The Reds have withdrawn to keep out of range of U. N. artillery. Nevertheless, Almond cautioned, they presumably are preparing for another attack.

"We are prepared for them," he said. "We are killing large quantities of the enemy and will kill them in the future."

An Eighth Army spokesman said 6,000 North Korean Reds who had threatened to outflank Seoul were either killed or routed.

South Koreans were mopping up remnants of this force Thursday west of the Seoul-Munsan road. AP correspondent John Randolph said Reds, fighting a delaying action, were lying down on the Republics side of the hills.

The tank-infantry patrol on the highway ran into no opposition. On a neighboring highway between Uijongbu and the 38th Parallel, another armored force hit a small Chinese screening unit 19 miles north of Seoul.

Other armored forces roamed the central front, reentered Chunchon 45 miles northwest of Seoul, and clanked into Inje on the eastern front without opposition.

The Fifth Air Force reported it still was studying the results of Wednesday's raid on Sinju. Air Force 312 U. N. planes hit it was clear they inflicted "considerable damage."

Eight Marine planes were hit in the raid, the greatest air strike of the war. But not a single raiding pilot was scratched, the Air Force said.

American F-86 Sabre jets flew patrol over Sinju Thursday, within sight of Russian-type jets parked on an air field across the border in Manchuria. The Reds planes remained safely on the ground.

Thursday 275 U. S. Fifth Air Force fighters and bombers roared out before noon to strike at rail yards in half a dozen North Korean industrial cities.

Marshall Says MacArthur Was Not Fired For Old Prejudices; Truman Says Acheson To Stay

Marshall Is Backed To Hilt In Testimony On Dismissal Of Gen. MacArthur

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—President Truman said today there is no foundation in fact to reports that Secretary of State Acheson may leave office within a few months, and supported General Marshall's testimony on the MacArthur ouster.

The question of Acheson's future in the Administration was raised by a reporter who told Mr. Truman there had been reports Acheson was getting out within two weeks, two months and a few months.

The President said that was a rumor that had no foundation in fact.

He also described Secretary Marshall's testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee as the exact truth, word for word.

Mr. Truman's statement to a news conference was in response to requests for comment on the Senate inquiry into Far Eastern policy and his firing of General Douglas MacArthur from the Far Eastern command.

Mr. Truman said he is very well satisfied with General Marshall's statement of the Administration's position. And he added the opinion that Marshall told the exact truth, word for word.

Marshall, 70-year-old Secretary of Defense, has been the Administration's lead-off witness in reply to MacArthur. He has contended MacArthur was in out of sympathy with Administration policy that there was no alternative except to relieve him of his commands.

Mr. Truman had only one other comment on the Korean situation. A woman reporter wanted to know (Continued On Page Six)

White House Aide Kader Is Elected Denies Exerting Influence On RFC

Donald Dawson Claims No Knowledge Of Miami Hotel Loan

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—White House aide Donald S. Dawson swore to a Senate investigating Subcommittee today he never advised his office to influence the handling of huge government loans, as the group has charged.

"To the best of my knowledge," Dawson told the investigating senators, "I have done nothing in connection with the RFC that is improper in any way."

With those words he wound up a formal and blanket denial of the subcommittee's charges that he has been involved in a "web of influence" (Continued On Page Six)

Merchants To Aid On Armed Forces Day

Jack Batigan, special events chairman of Sanford Merchants Association, announced today that the merchants would join with rest of Seminole County in celebrating Armed Forces Day.

At a special meeting Tuesday afternoon, it was voted to pledge whole-hearted cooperation with Andrew Caraway's committee. A two-day program was adopted, and recommended to all the merchants in the vicinity.

1. To observe and participate in the ceremonies and parade and to give one day off to those employees participating in the ceremonies and parade.

"We are glad to be able to join the rest of Seminole County in recognizing the importance of the Armed Forces, our 'Defenders of Freedom,'" said Mr. Batigan, in making this announcement.

Russian Blood Purge Judge Dies After Life Of Communist Service

MOSCOW, May 10—(AP)—The army newspaper Red Star announced today the death of Col. General of Justice Vasily Vasilovich Ulrich, 62, who, it said, "devoted all his conscious life to the cause of the party of Lenin and Stalin."

(Ulrich is the man who presided at the celebrated blood purge trials in the mid-1930's, in which many Soviet military and party leaders were executed and thousands were deported in an alleged plot on the life of Stalin.)

A native of Riga, Latvia, and sprung from a family of revolutionists, Col. General Ulrich joined the Bolshevik party in 1910, took part in the Bolshevik revolution, and later "continuously occupied a series of responsible positions in the system of military tribunals" the Red Star obituary said. In his later years he taught young Soviet jurists. He was decorated many times with the highest Soviet military orders.

Ulrich presided at the production of a phenomenon now well known to the world—the confession technique. In the bloody trials he directed, the defendants with monotonous unanimity all confessed their guilt and heaped censure on themselves. This process now has been repeated many times, notably in the recent purge trials of Soviet satellite countries. When, on Dec. 1, 1954, Sergei

Secretary Of Defense Defends Truman's Far East Policy, Raps MacArthur's

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—Secretary Marshall denied today that old prejudices, arising out of differing policy views when the Chinese Communists were coming to power, played any part in the dismissal of General Douglas MacArthur.

"I don't think that had any connection with it whatsoever," Marshall told Senator H. Alexander Smith (R-N.Y.).

Smith, in a long exploration of Chinese-American relations, had suggested there was a school of thought in the State Department kindly disposed toward the Chinese Communists in 1945. At that time they were warring with Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalists for control of China. Smith favored MacArthur among those who wanted to aid Chiang.

Smith also said he had been told the Truman Administration gave "the green light" to Great Britain to recognize the Chinese Communists. He asked Marshall if that was true, and "did we imply we would go along with them?"

Marshall said he did not know that Smith would have to ask Secretary of State Acheson who is to be a witness later.

The Secretary of Defense was testifying for the fourth day before the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees. They are inquiring into MacArthur's dismissal as Far Eastern (Continued On Page Six)

Hospital Group To Circulate Second Election Petition

The Emergency Hospital Committee met yesterday afternoon at the office of Ed Whitney, chairman, and decided to re-circulate immediately another petition, due to the fact that the initial petition presented to the County Commission Tuesday was incorrectly drawn up in that it did not state the amount of the indebted bond issue.

Present at the meeting were: Mr. Whitney, W. H. Stummer, J. B. O'Neil, Roy J. J. McKinley, Bill Kirk and E. J. Maughon architect.

"We present the possibility of a second error," said Mr. Whitney. "The committee requested Roy McKinley to consult a local attorney to determine if a bond attorney should be retained to check the petition, which is intended to induce the County Commission to call for an election on the bond issue."

The committee, he added, stressed the need for immediate action, particularly if the petition is to be in readiness for presentation to the County Commission on Tuesday when an adjourned meeting will be held.

Mr. Maughon advised the group that he had made complete preliminary sketches of the proposed hospital of the basis of which final plans will be made. Mr. Whitney stated this morning that the petitions will be distributed as soon as they are turned over to him by Rev. McKinley.

In the outlying districts the petitions will be placed as follows: with R. N. Srevel, Geneva; Longwood, at the Longwood Hotel; Lake Mary, at Gleason's Store; Oviedo with Frank Wheeler, Jr., and Altamonte Springs at the grocery store.

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1951
TODAY'S HEADLINE

The world is not going to ruin. God's plan will triumph in the end. It is darkest before the dawn. Let not your heart be troubled.—John 14:1.

Lester Velie, Collier's magazine writer, when asked to appear before the Haley investigating committee, was reported to be too busy. But at that, he wasn't any busier than Lou Wolfson, or Bill Johnston.

Chairman Boyle of the Democratic National Committee says he has told President Truman a vast majority of Democratic Party leaders want him to run for reelection next year. If he does, he'll get the pants beat off of him.

General Marshall admits that the next world war may come at any time, that Russia, whether provoked or not, may at any time start throwing atom bombs on American cities, and that the first attack may well be the knockout punch. What then are we to do? Sit here and do nothing waiting for Russia to knock us cold?

Did you see what Dean Mather of the University of Florida said about the coming of the millennium. Well, he said the millennium would come "only when the members of the Ku Klux Klan play a baseball game with the Knights of Columbus in Zion City Ill., with a Negro college graduate for umpire for the special benefit of Jewish refugees from Central Europe who have sought the protection of Uncle Sam."

James J. Moran, a New York politician and henchman of former Mayor O'Dwyer, was convicted yesterday of lying under oath when he told the Kefauver Crime Committee he was not connected with Brooklyn racketeers. Others accused of connections with racketeers had better be careful how they deny it under oath or they too may be convicted. Meanwhile, President Truman continues to believe in his old pal Bill O'Dwyer, ambassador to Mexico.

Britain has finally consented not to sell any more guns or munitions to Communist China with which to kill American boys in Korea, but rubber, well now that is something else again. The British Socialists don't see any harm in selling the Communies rubber with which to make tires for trucks carrying Red soldiers to the Korean front. But on the other hand, may be if we make any protests over this, we will lose some of our good friends in Europe, as our State Department is always saying.

Congratulations to the County Commission for having the political courage to ban the sale of Sunday beer. It was the right thing to do regardless of the fact that some innocent amusements may be curtailed or a loud hue and cry may be raised. There are few things in this world that are either all good or all evil. If there were, a lot of terrible controversies could be avoided. The distinction between the sale of Sunday beer and its sale on Monday may be a slight one, but there is a distinction, and the Commission has taken the right course in making it.

There are more ways than one of trying to abolish the freedom of the press. Because the Tampa Tribune has exposed a great deal of rotten political corruption in the state during the past few years, it is being investigated by the House of Representatives. The Communist Party, which is a menace to the Democratic government, is being investigated in the House.

Science Fiction

Science fiction has become extremely popular with many readers. Even people who used to scoff at the space ships of "Buck Rogers" and "Flash Gordon" are beginning to regard writers of science fiction as somewhat prophetic. A recent movie relates a story of suspense caused by an oddly shaped visitor from another planet, who arrives in our world encased in a cake of ice. Almost any of the science fiction story magazines carry from one to a half dozen stories of trips by men into outer space and to other planets.

The stories and the movies about the parts of the universe of which we know so little reflect a certain anxiety about what may exist in the possible other worlds. All of the writers ascribe to whatever sort of life that may exist there the same sort of thought processes and desires that motivate the action of men on earth. Some of the writers describe the fictional life they write about as being inferior to ours in scientific development while other imagine civilizations far ahead of ours in scientific progress.

The science fiction writer has one difficulty today. In the past he could describe powerful bombs, super airplanes, strange methods of communication and various other wonders of his imagination, and he could feel that his work would be unchallenged. At a time when radio, television, jet planes and rockets have become common terms in every vocabulary, the writer has a hard time conjuring up wild ideas which have not been considered, and in many cases made practical, by real-life scientists.

Bright Job Prospect

Some young men who finish high school or college this spring will turn immediately to military service. They may not regard the prospect with unmix joy, and yet the experience of military service is not without compensations. The others will face unusually good fortune as they look for jobs. In some areas there are already more jobs than workers, and this situation is expected to spread. The graduate may be able to pick the kind of work he wants instead of looking for anything he can get.

Graduating classes have faced a serious employment problem in many other years. Last year, in a time of relative prosperity, graduates were more numerous than jobs. This was due in part to the fact that many veterans who had returned to school after the war were completing their education. At the end of the war a serious shortage of engineers and technicians existed and many of the veterans pursued these studies in the hope of ready employment on graduation. Many of these were forced to accept other types of employment.

If some plan to utilize fully the new people who enter the labor market every year could be devised it would benefit both the employer and the potential employee. It would help to prevent a recurrence of the situation which existed during the depression when men with college degrees were unable to use their skills and were lucky to get any jobs at all. Perhaps industrial leaders and educators could help to devise such a plan.

Land Of Sheba

They are not looking for the Queen of Sheba, but there is no telling what they will find. An organization with the mouth-filling title of The Arabian Expedition for the Study of Man is exploring the traces of the past in the heretofore forbidden land of South Arabia.

Previously both rulers and people have been hostile to visits by outsiders who might be planning the conquest of their country, and who in any case were not Mohammedans. Now permission seems to have been obtained from the rulers, and they have taken steps to restrain the fanaticism of the people. This encourages Wendell Phillips, the head of the expedition, who already had unusual grounds for optimism. These consisted in the generous support given by such companies as United States Steel and General Electric.

South Arabia had famous kingdoms in the pre-Christian era. Kataban, Minaea and Sheba. They used languages akin to Arabic but different, and traded with all the Eastern Mediterranean world. Except China, perhaps no other part of the ancient Orient is as hopeful a field of exploration by the archaeologist and the historian.

Russian General

After a series of trials, Ulrich presided in January, 1936, over the trial of 17 persons accused of plotting to kill Stalin.

Andrei Y. Vishinsky, now Soviet Foreign Minister, was the prosecutor, and he became known throughout the world for the violence of his attacks upon the defendants.

In the trial of the 17, the court ordered 13 shot. Bewshkezed Karl Radek, who was a leading Bolshevik revolutionary, and four considered a spokesman for Stalin's regime as a commentator for the newspaper Izvestia, was the chief defendant, but he was one of the four spared. He was sentenced to prison.

Then came trials of army leaders. The proceedings were swift and secret. Chief defendant was Marshal Mikhail N. Tukhachevsky, one of the five marshals of the Red Army. Sitting in judgment on the collegium alone with Ulrich and one other military judge was Marshal Semyon Budenny, who was to win fame later as a military leader in World War II. Eight generals were sent to the firing squad. One other general, facing trial, killed himself.

MANY CONGRESSIONAL MEDALS OF Honor have been awarded posthumously, but Sgt. Ernest R. Kouma, of Dwight, Neb., will be the first living Korean war hero to receive the nation's highest decoration for valor.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Washington has wasted no time in rejecting Russia's proposal that the drafting of a Japanese peace treaty—already well on its way to completion—be turned over to four Pacific powers, including Red China.

Such an idea would come only from the capital of Bolshevism. The maneuver is, of course, an undisguised effort to seize control of the treaty negotiations with the idea of establishing Bolshevik domination over Nippon.

Success along that line would make Moscow pretty well ruler of the Far East. The Soviet proposal is that the treaty-making be turned over to America, Britain, Russia and Red China. That would eliminate Nationalist China which was our ally during the World War, and would substitute the Red Chinese government which America hasn't recognized.

This arrangement would give the Communists two votes out of four, with which to hamstring proceedings according to their well worn custom. It would mean disruption of the fine progress already made toward a treaty with the Philippines.

The Russians charge that the U. S. draft treaty represents an attempt to impose an American peace on Japan to the exclusion of Russia, China and other countries. John Foster Dulles, President Truman's special representative, has made it clear that he has tried to bring the Russians into some time ago it was announced that he had consulted with Jacob Malik, Soviet delegate to the United Nations. But Malik, strangely enough, denied it.

Anyway, while Moscow has kept insisting that the treaty should be worked out by the Big Four, like the European pact, America has taken the position that the Philippines, and all the other Asiatic countries in the war against Japan, should be consulted.

As far as concerns America's effort to obtain what seems to her a just and workable peace treaty, she certainly has a right to a big say in the matter. It was the United States which fought her way across the Pacific to victory, while Russia devoted her energies to the European conflict.

Moscow has no reason to argue with Washington about the latter's Pacific interests. After all, Russia didn't come into the Japanese war until six days before it ended.

We dropped our first atomic bomb on Hiroshima Aug. 6, 1945. Ten days later Russia declared war on Japan and invaded Manchuria. A second bomb was dropped on Nagasaki Aug. 9, and Japan surrendered Aug. 14. General MacArthur in his testimony before the Joint Congressional Committee said in substance that the effect of Russia's entry into the war against Japan was negligible.

There is no indication that Washington is trying to impose an American peace on Japan, to the exclusion of the rights of other interested countries. There are none outside the Red bloc of nations who have protested against America protecting and developing her just interests.

Therefore, pending development of proof that Uncle Sam is up to skulduggery in Japan, he will have the good wishes of his friends among the Allies.

Sanford Herald
City
Dear Mr. Dean:

Your get acquainted issue certainly was a credit to the staff of the Sanford Herald as well as the citizens of our community. Surely there can be little doubt in the minds of our Navy friends that we are interested in them and that they too are now a part of the city.

I would like to say however that we would like to have had some mention of the Seminole Choral Society. Naturally you could not mention every organization in our area and it was necessary to omit some. In regard to our organization I would like to state that we are more than anxious to have both the Navy men as well as any of their wives who are interested in singing.

We will again repeat the Messiah during the Christmas Season and will have a secular concert in the late spring. On this coming Monday night we will meet at the First Methodist Church at 7:30 P. M. for the purpose of reorganizing and to begin rehearsal of the Ballad for Americans.

We welcome any of the naval personnel and their wives to this rehearsal. It is hoped that the Seminole Choral Society will become a permanent part of the community and with the same cooperation that has been given by the Sanford Herald as well as the members of the society I am sure that it can be done.

Sincerely yours

war until six days before it ended. We dropped our first atomic bomb on Hiroshima Aug. 6, 1945. Ten days later Russia declared war on Japan and invaded Manchuria. A second bomb was dropped on Nagasaki Aug. 9, and Japan surrendered Aug. 14. General MacArthur in his testimony before the Joint Congressional Committee said in substance that the effect of Russia's entry into the war against Japan was negligible.

There is no indication that Washington is trying to impose an American peace on Japan, to the exclusion of the rights of other interested countries. There are none outside the Red bloc of nations who have protested against America protecting and developing her just interests.

Therefore, pending development of proof that Uncle Sam is up to skulduggery in Japan, he will have the good wishes of his friends among the Allies.

Korean War

the retreating Reds suffered 2,130 casualties, the Eighth Army reported.

Simultaneously the Red radio at Pyongyang asserted the Reds killed or captured 20,792 U. N. troops between Apr. 22 and Apr. 30. This approximated the height of the Communist spring offensive. The Allied command has made no announcement of its losses for that period. The U. S. Defense Department has reported 2,311 American casualties for the two weeks ended May 4. This did not include other Allied losses.

The Junior High School entered an exhibit of novelty note plastic designs. Art work of the Lake Mary School includes many drawings that illustrate various courses in reading.

On the stage are cut out designs of animals, including camels, sheep and horses. These were cut from corrugated board and painted in tempera colors.

Mrs. Babcock and Fred Field, interne art teacher from Southern College, Lakeland, today invited adults and parents to view the exhibit.

The Red broadcast did not mention current actions.

The Eighth Army reported Red dwindled Wednesday in the face of a South Korean advance started this week. An Eighth Army spokesman said the Republican troops, backed by American artillery and planes, had wiped out a flanking threat to Seoul.

But Reds still held out east of the Seoul-Musan highway up which the South Koreans drove.

Field dispatches said Allied artillery knocked out 1,000 fighting Reds northwest of the old South Korean capital.

Few Reds were found by patrols anywhere along the central front.

In the eastern sector, small Communist forces fought advancing Allies southwest and northeast of Inje for a brief time, then withdrew. The Reds fled Inje after U. N. forces had cut the highway leading to Chunchon.

Communist trucks and trains still were trying to run fresh supplies down bomb-pocked roads to their withdrawing ground troops. Traffic dwindled but the Far Eastern Air Force reported it was still "moderately heavy."

Round-the-clock attacks on highways and troops are improving with new radar bombing techniques the Air Force reported. Night-flying bombers also are using 500 pound fragmentation bombs with proximity fuses which explode near the ground. A single B-29 using this technique, the Air Force said, can rain 600,000 pieces of fragmentation on an

Irish Bob Murphy Wins Shot At LaMotta By Defeating Nardico

CHICAGO, May 10 (AP)— Irish Bob Murphy has added the 53rd knockout notch to his sensational ring record and has won the right to test the iron jaw of durable Jake La Motta, who has been beaten but never floored.

La Motta, who lost his middleweight crown to Sugar Ray Robinson on Feb. 14, will make his first start as a light-heavyweight contender against the flailing Murphy in New York's Canteen stadium June 27.

Murphy gained the big money shot last night by bruising and cutting down Danny Nardico, of Tampa, for a spectacular fourth round technical knockout in a scheduled 10 rounder at Chicago stadium. Only 3,904 spectators showed up for the nationally televised and broadcast brawl and Tonight the Rotary League All-Stars take the field against the Giants in a special playoff which is staged every year at Municipal Ball Park.

The game, which starts at 7:30 P. M., will be played under regular baseball conditions with umpires, ground rules and all the paraphernalia which goes with the professional sport.

Pre-game odds make the Giants, who lost only three games in six weeks of regular season competition, the underdog against the cream of the other four teams, but upsets have happened and the habit of playing together which the Giants have acquired will certainly tell in their favor.

The community owes a vote of thanks to the men who worked so tirelessly with these boys this spring, both as coaches and companions. John Pope, Bob Newman, Jim Higgins, Roy Holler, George Stine, Bob Cornell, F. D. Scott and Sonny Scott and Sonny Powell gave unstintingly of their time and effort to make the league a success and they deserve the highest praise.

Rotary All Stars Will Play Giants

The Rotary League Giants will meet the All-Stars tonight in a championship playoff at the Municipal Ball Park at 7:30 P. M. The game will be played under big league rules and conditions. Admission is free.

Eddie Lopat Wins Fifth Straight; Giants Take 8 Of Last 10 Games

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

As long as Cleveland is in the American League, Eddie Lopat has a steady job. Since June 17, 1949, the chunky New York Yankee lefty is 10-0 against the Tribe.

With a lifetime 29-6 edge over the Cleveland gang, Lopat is money in the bank for Manager Casey Stengel. How can Cleveland put on a drive when Casey has Lopat?

Eddie's poison was almost as deadly when he pitched for Chicago. But once he switched to New York he became a sure shot against the Indians. And now he's beating them to death with a bat too.

It's a rare Cleveland series that doesn't find Lopat pitching the key game for the Yanks. He beat them six times last year as well as the last three times he faced them in '49.

They criticized old Case last summer when he used Lopat and Tommy Byrne as pinch hitters against this very same Cleveland team. But last night Lopat proved his batting power once more. He hit a three run homer and drove in five Yankees runs in their 9-2 triumph.

Lopat now tops both majors with a perfect 5-0 record for the year although his string of 32 innings without an earned run was snapped. Indian Bob Lemon was knocked out in the sixth.

It was the Yanks seventh win in nine starts on their first western trip. They stretched their first place margin to two full games and left the Indians in third.

The Yanks victory probably was the most important of yesterday's action but the New York Giants 17-3 romp over the make-shift St. Louis Cards started more tongues wagging. Leo Durocher's crew now has won eight of its last 10 starts.

Throwing off the shackles of their horrendous slump, the Giants have climbed out of the cellar. With eight Cards bedded down by flu, the Giant sluggers ripped into Max Lanier and three "savers" for 21 hits. The

30 Runs Scored In Florida-Alabama League Contest

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Tallahassee Citizens treated hometown fans last night to the wildest ball game ever played in the Alabama-Florida League. The Citizens rewrote league records by scoring 30 times on 24 hits and seven errors for Enterprise.

All that Enterprise could salvage out of the disastrous affair were four runs and nine hits.

There was scoring in every inning except the last. Tallahassee gave a hint of what was coming with four runs in the second. In the fourth the Citizens scored six times. In the seventh, eight Tallahassee runs came home and in the eighth, seven more. Only one homer was hit, Catcher Vern of Tallahassee got the four-bagger in the seventh with one man on base.

Dodan defeated Panama City 2-1 and the end was reached in almost minimum time—one hour and 10 minutes. Pitcher Wilcox was the winner. Panama City has won only four games and lost 13.

Ozark won from Headland 6-5 behind Jake Moore.

Dothan's victory lifted the Browns from fifth to fourth place above Enterprise.

Headland and Ozark are tied for the league lead.

Jacksonville Tars Defeat Macon 5-4; Savannah Beaten

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

As Macon goes, so goes Savannah in the South Atlantic League. The league leading Macon preaches lost their third game in a row last night and again Savannah followed suit, falling to take first place. After winning five games in a row and moving into a tie with Macon, Savannah has dropped two straight to Augusta.

Late last summer Macon took a giant lead, then went into a tailspin. Savannah moved in behind Macon but faltered itself toward the last to finish in a tie with Columbia for second.

Macon lost last night to Jacksonville 5-4 and Savannah to Augusta.

Through seven innings Jacksonville led 5-0. Catcher Joe Stringfellow and shortstop Bob Boring homered for Jacksonville. Reliever Joe Asbill saved the game for Chuck Fowler.

After winning eight out of nine, Augusta ranks only one game back of Macon and Savannah. Charleston is in third place. In the seventh last night Augusta scored six times. Homers were scored by the rally by Junior Lefler and Ed Lewinski. In the next inning Lefler hit another homer, this time worth three runs.

The fifth game in a row without defeat went to Columbus 5-3 over Columbia. Five hits, walks and a Columbia error produced Columbus's five runs during the first three innings.

Charleston brought an end to a three-game losing streak with a 6-4 victory over Montgomery. Fourteen runners were left on base by Montgomery as the Grays flubbed several chances to take the lead.

In ancient times, North Africa was called the granary of Rome.

In Genoa, 1951 is being celebrated as the 600th anniversary of Columbus' birth.

Junior High Wins

James Hawkins allowed only one hit until the seventh inning yesterday as the Junior High Baseball team defeated Lyman Junior High 12 to 3 in a seven inning game.

Johnny Jones was catcher.

but the tip didn't come. In a sense the winning ball club makes its own break—by its confidence, willingness to take risks and general feeling of capability. The losers on the other hand press too hard, are over-anxious and often miss out by over-concentrating on one spot to the exclusion of all else.

In their last two games, however, the Giants have shown signs of shaking off a feeling of inferiority and are displaying a definite belief in their ability to win—it's the best sign we've seen since the season opened and may be the turning point in what has so far been a far from satisfactory season.

Incubus Jones just arrived with the occult information that the Rotary All-Stars are a lead nine cinch to win the game tonight. Incubus record is impressive, but he can be wrong—especially in a wild and woolly league such as this one.

Football Tryouts Begin At Stetson For Young Players

DELAND, May 9 (Special)—Football tryouts for high school seniors and transfer students will be held at Hulley Field Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Head Coach Joe McMullen, of the Stetson University Hatters, said today.

He extended an invitation for all who would like to seek a berth on the Hatter eleven for the 1951 season. McMullen said, "We are looking for linemen," McMullen said. "We must have weight, especially in the center and tackle positions."

Lettermen from last year and members of the squad who hope to letter this year provide depth for end and guard positions, although some of these positions are "sawed up" at this time, McMullen indicated.

Tryouts will be held Thursday and Friday afternoons and Saturday mornings. While the tryouts are being sought, Hatters will have an equal opportunity to show their stuff to the Hatter coaching staff.

Hats, Azaleas Split As Senators Win Two

Senators 5-3; Azaleas 1-0
PALATKA, May 10 (AP)—The league-leading Orlando Senators took both ends of a double bill from the Palatka Azaleas here last night, 5-1 and 3-0. The first game, a scheduled seven-inning affair, had to go 12 full innings before it was settled.

Red Hats 6-3; Packers 3-4
LEESBURG, May 10 (AP)—The Leesburg Packers and the Deland Red Hats split a double-header here last night before 1,287 fans. Deland taking the first one 6-3 and the Packers coming back to take the nightcap, 4-3.

Shoemaker's single in the bottom of the eighth broke the tie by scoring a run. Cliff from second. Cliff, Shoemaker and Burgo were the leading hitters for the Packers.

Travelers Regain Southern Lead In Beating Nashville

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three of 1950's second division clubs are making the month of May a merry one in the Southern Association by thoroughly disgracing prouder teams and showing no signs of letting up.

Little Rock was last place finisher last season. Last night the Travelers took the Southern lead again when they defeated Nashville 11-2. Nashville was the replaced in the lead—Atlanta was the 1950 season champ.

Atlanta lost its third and fourth straight games to New Orleans, 4-2 and 7-2. Last summer New Orleans finished in fifth place.

Chattanooga, No. 7 in 1950, whipped Memphis, another first division team last summer, 4-2 for its seventh victory in eight games.

Another week like the last one and the bottom rails—excepting Mobile—will be on top. Birmingham managed to uphold some of the prestige of a five division team last night by defeating Mobile 7-5.

Hospitalized Vets Make 4 Thousand Poppies For Sale

A case containing 4,000 paper poppies made by veterans at the Lake City Hospital was received yesterday by Mrs. D. B. Whidden, chairman of the Poppy Day sale which will take place on May 28.

Plans for the sale, which is for the benefit of disabled veterans, were completed at a recent meeting of American Legion Auxiliary No. 63 which is sponsoring the program.

A number of volunteer workers, including high school girls, girl scout troops and women's organizations throughout the county will assist in the sale.

Proceeds will also be used to aid disabled veterans outside of hospitals who are having difficulty in re-establishing themselves economically.

House Committee Approves Hike In Taxes On Liquor

Beer, Wine Are Also Hit As $250 Million Revenue Is Expected

WASHINGTON, May 11—(AP)—The House today tentatively approved a $250,000,000 increase in federal taxes on liquor, beer and wine.

The rate on whiskey and other hard liquor would rise from $9 to $10.50 per hundred proof gallon.

Beer, now taxed at $8 a barrel, would pay $9.

The increase on wine would vary from a two-cent-a-gallon hike on light wines to a 25-cent increase on those containing more than 22 percent alcohol.

Champagne and other naturally fermented sparkling wines would be taxed at 17 cents a half pint, instead of the present 15 cents.

In each case, the rate increase was less than the Administration had proposed. The Treasury had recommended raising the tax on hard liquor to $12 a gallon and on beer to $12 a barrel.

Policy In Far East Dictated By Desire To Retain Allies, Marshall Tells Committee

Dawson Disclaims Chinese Mass For Any Influence On Second Offensive RFC Loan Agency As Allies Dig In

Fulbright Refuses To Believe Denial Of Power Over Agency

WASHINGTON, May 11—(AP)—Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) told White House aide Donald S. Dawson today his denial of using political influence on government loans are "a little beyond my belief."

Fulbright and the President's patronage adviser debated at length the propriety of Dawson's conduct. Dawson insisted firmly "I did nothing improper" and Fulbright contended that he did, though possibly not consciously.

Their clash came at a hearing before a Senate Banking Subcommittee which contends Dawson was a member of a clique which influenced affairs of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC), huge government lending agency.

"You over-emphasize my importance," Dawson said. "You are a very modest man." Fulbright retorted with heavy sarcasm. He insisted that in the RFC directors whom the subcommittee contends were subservient to Dawson, "you had the power of life and death in the economic sense."

At one point, Fulbright remarked that Dawson, as the President's adviser, would seem to many people and to the public to have a power that is unequalled by any government official.

Fulbright contended that former RFC directors William E. Willott and Walter L. Danham, who were responsible to their jobs to President Truman against the subcommittee's charges, must have felt that Dawson was the man to whom they would look for protection.

The subcommittee, which is headed by Fulbright, had named both former directors as men upon whom Dawson would considerably influence.

"I have not asked that anything be done improperly, and it has not been testified that I have," Dawson told Fulbright sharply. He charged the Senator to get more specific.

Fulbright said he could do so. He mentioned Dawson's alleged (Continued on Page Eight)

V-F-W MEET
The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post will meet Monday night at 8:00 o'clock at the Legion Hut.

RUSSIAN PLANE
DAYTON, O., May 11—(AP)—A Russian-built reconnaissance plane, captured at Kimpo airfield near Seoul, Korea, soon will be tested at Wright-Patterson Air Base.

The plane is a remodeled version of the Stormovik, a Russian fighter plane used in World War II. It carries two cannons and two machine guns in front, and a 20 millimeter cannon at the rear of the fuselage.

Heavily armored, the reconnaissance plane was dubbed "the flying tank." It recently was tested at the Cornell Aeronautical Laboratories in Buffalo, N. Y.

SHERIFF'S FEES
TALLAHASSEE, May 11—(AP)—The right of a Florida sheriff to five percent of fines paid his county, even though he has no part in their collection, today was upheld by the Florida Supreme Court.

The ruling came as the Supreme Court denied in part the plea of the Hardee county board of commissioners that a circuit court decision of Aug. 18, 1946 in favor of Sheriff E. O. Roberts be reversed. Roberts' suit was suspended by Governor Warren after being indicted on bribery charges.

Danger Of Conflict With Soviet Union Is Greater In Far East Than In Europe, Senate Investigating Group Informed

WASHINGTON, May 11—(AP)—President Truman told General Douglas MacArthur last Jan. 13 that Korea war policy must be designed to keep the support of Allies whom "we would desperately need" in case of war with Russia.

This was contained in a message sent by the President as a follow up to a set of 16 possible courses of action the Joint Chiefs of Staff had dispatched to MacArthur the previous day.

The text of the President's message, in paraphrased form, was read by Secretary of Defense Marshall to Senate committees inquiring into MacArthur's dismissal as Far Eastern commander.

At the outset, the President said his telegram "was not to be taken in any sense as a directive." He added that "its purpose is to give you something of what is in our minds regarding the political factors."

At one place the presidential message read: "Our courses of action at this time should be such as to consolidate the great majority of the United Nations. This majority is not merely part of the organization but is also the nations whom we would desperately need to count on as allies in the event the Soviet Union moves against us."

Earlier, Marshall told the senators the risk of war with Russia in the Far East is "more acute by far" than the hazard of Soviet intervention in Western Europe.

This estimate of the comparative risks was given in response to a question from Senator Hickenlooper (R-Ia).

Hickenlooper had suggested the United States was taking a chance with Russia by sending troops to a Western European defense force. He wanted to know why "a similar calculated risk" was refused in the Far East—meaning why not adopt the MacArthur program of stopping the war against China.

Since Marshall first referred earlier in the hearings to the President's far flung message, some members of the Senate committees had pressed to get the text.

They contended the communication was a major instance in relation to the question of how much information was given to MacArthur as to the thinking and decisions of Washington policy-makers.

Because the message had been sent in code, its text could not be released until it had been paraphrased—a procedure against which any potential enemy to look the U. S. could guess.

The President told MacArthur that "in the worst case, it would be important that if we must withdraw from Korea, it is clear to the world that that course is forced upon us by military necessity and that we shall not accept the result politically or militarily unless the aggression has been rectified."

Then Mr. Truman said: "In reaching a final decision about Korea, I shall have to give constant thought to the main threat from the Soviet Union and to the need for broad extension of our armed forces to meet this danger."

In concluding his message, Mr. Truman told MacArthur: "The entire nation is grateful for your splendid leadership in the difficult struggle in Korea and for the superb performance of your forces under the most difficult circumstances."

Mr. Truman's communication to MacArthur also said: "Further, pending the building of our national strength we must act with great prudence in so far as extending the area of hostilities is concerned.

"Steps which might in themselves lead some assistance in the campaign in Korea would not be beneficial if they thereby involved Japan or Western Europe in large-scale hostilities."

"In the present world situation your forces must be preserved as an effective instrument for the defense of Japan and elsewhere."

Marshall told the senators that Mr. Truman's message was sent to MacArthur "to give the political factors involved in the tentative proposals advanced by the Joint Chiefs of Staff for meeting various contingencies in the Korean campaign."

"The directive" from the Joint Chiefs, Marshall said, contained no political aspects "and therefore it was thought desirable that the President should send a message to General MacArthur with the political factors and overall directives of the government."

Mr. Truman advised MacArthur that "successive resistance" in Korea would serve these purposes.

"To demonstrate that aggression will not be accepted by us or by the United Nations, and to provide a rallying point around which the spirit and energies of the free world can be mobilized to meet the worldwide threat which the Soviet Union now poses."

"To deflate the dangerously exaggerated political and military prestige of Communist China which now threaten to undermine the resistance of non-Communist Asia and to consolidate the hold of Communism on China itself."

"To afford more time for, and to give direct assistance to, the organization of non-Communist Asia."

Says Enemy Pact Forces Caution

IN HIS THIRD DAY of testimony before Senate investigators, Defense Secretary George C. Marshall uses his hand in emphasis as he declares that concern over possible Soviet intervention in Korea is based on a Russian-Red Chinese mutual defense pact. Marshall declared the pact's reference to Japan "controlled the action" of the U. S. in "not using any Japanese whatsoever in Korea." (International Soundphoto)
