APARTMENTS FOR SANFORD TO BE ERRECTED

PHILLIPS BUYS MORE PROPERTY AND MAY ERECT AN APARTMENT HOUSE ON HAND LOTS

The Herald stated last week that I. W. Phillips and Sons had purchased the Hand property on Park avenue with a view to building a mammoth garage. We welcomed them to Sanford as being among the greatest boosters in Orlando. We did not know at that time that they were negotiating for other Sanford property and that they had in mind not the erection of a garage building on the Hand property but something more substantial and something that will be of greater benefit to Sanford and to the Phillips than any mere garage.

This week comes the information that the Phillips have purchased the Fernald building and lots on Oak avenue now being used by the Fernald Hardware Co., and this building will be used for a garage with the addition of a brick addition, making a splendid garage property.

The Hand property, which is in the heart of Sanford and one block from First street will probably be graced with a fine apartment house, modern and up to date in every respect and a building that will be an ornament to the city.

The plans of Mr. Phillips have not as yet been matured and have not been made public, but it is rumored that he is seriously considering the erection of a fine apartment house on his new property and as he now owns an interest in this kind of property in Orlando knows exactly the kind of building he wants and will build a real apartment house when he starts building.

There is no city of like size in the United States that offers such a golden opportunity for an investment as an apartment house in Sanford. There is a demand for apartments here summer and winter and the demand for three and four room apartments has never been met here in the past ten years. Just now before the winter season has opened there is not an apartment left, furnished rooms are scarce, houses are scarce and people are being turned away every day because they cannot be accommodated. Therefore the Herald congratulates Mr. Phillips upon his new purchase, upon his idea of an apartment house and congratulates Sanford upon the acquisition of such men as Mr. Phillips—men who do things.

GEN. PERSHING NEW HOG LAW COMES HOME TO BE VOTED REAL GENERAL IN SEMINOLE

COMMANDER OF GREATEST ARMY AMERICA EVER SENT FORTH REACHES NEW YORK

New York, Sept. 1.—Pershing is home again.

Standing on the bridge of the huge Leviathan, itself symbolic of the victory over Germany, the commander of the greatest host ever gathered under the Stars and Stripes came slowly up the bay today, world famed and hailed as a conquering hero should be.

Sad of face, stern and impassive, a splendid figure of a soldier, he might have been thinking, as the familiar landmarks of New York came into view, of the day 27 months ago when he slipped secretly out of the harbor on his way to France to prepare the way for the hosts that were to follow. Then he was only a major general.

He came back Monday with four stars on his shoulders—the fourth since Washington to wear them under the American flag.

The welcome given him would have quickened the pulse of the hero of a Roman triumph. Fresh from the capitals of allied Europe where honors had been heaped upon him, it remained for New York to show the first American to lead an American army across the Atlantic what a real welcome is.

The United States steamship Leviathan with Gen. John J. Pershing and his staff on board passed Sandy Hook at 7:15 o'clock Monday morning. The Leviathan proceeded up the harbor and arrived in Hoboken about 8 o'clock.

Messages dropped by a police hydroplane aboard the giant steamship Leviathan at daybreak as she approached the harbor signaled the beginning of the three days' reception to General Pershing by the city of New York. The moment the Leviathan was sighted steamships along her inbound path let loose their whistles in a screaming greeting and as the former German liner proceeded through the narrows to quarantine the din started by the harbor craft was taken up by the sirens throughout the city.

Amid the shrieking of sirens from thousands of factories and ships, the Leviathan reached her dock in Hoboken a few minutes after 8 o'clock.

When congress conferred upon John J. Pershing the permanent rank of general he became the fourth to hold that coveted title.

Secretary of War Baker read a message from President Wilson expressing regret at not being able to attend in person the reception extended to General Pershing and extended thanks on behalf of the nation to the great battle leader for his services during the war. General Pershing paid a tribute to his fallen comrades in reply.

Takes Buick Agency

W. J. Thigpen has taken the agency for the Buick line of automobiles and as Buicks have always been popular in Sanford and Seminole county they need no introduction to the people. The Buick cars have always been good, are good now and always will be good and the new models now being shown are no exception to the rule. Mr. Thigpen is having difficulty in getting a sufficient number of cars to keep up with his orders, but now is the time to place your orders if you want early deliveries and he will be pleased to take any prospective customers out in the new models and demonstrate the new Buicks. He can be found in his office in the Peoples Bank building and expects to have a store room as soon as one can be procured. See him at his office, phone 24 or see him on the street.

To Hessie Hill College

Miss Rosemond Radford left Friday for Waycross, Ga., to spend a few days with Mrs. S. C. Pittman and friends. There she was joined by Misses Lois Summerall and Ernestine Bell to go to Hessie Hill College at Forsyth, Ga., where they will take up their studies for this year.

TEXT OF LAW THAT WILL BE VOTED UPON IN THIS COUNTY TUESDAY, SEPT. 16TH

For the benefit of those who have not seen the text of the new hog law to be ratified by the voters of the county next Tuesday it is printed below:

An Act to make it unlawful for hogs or swine to run or roam at large within the territorial limits of Seminole county, Florida, to provide for the impounding and sale of same when found running or roaming at large in violation of this Act, to provide for the recovery of damages suffered by persons or to property by reason thereof, to provide punishment for owners of such hogs or swine who willfully or knowingly permit same to run or roam at large in said county, and submitting the ratification thereof to the qualified voters of said county.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. That from and after the passage of this act, and its ratification by a majority of the qualified voters of said county, it shall be unlawful for hogs or swine to run or roam at large within the territorial limits of Seminole county, Florida, and all persons owning hogs or swine in said county of Seminole are hereby required to keep and prevent the same from running or roaming at large in said county, by keeping and maintaining them within good and sufficient fences and enclosures.

Section 2. That any person may, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff or any constable of said county to take, or cause to be taken up and impounded any hogs or swine found running or roaming at large within the territorial limits of Seminole county, Florida, and such impounder may demand the sum of fifty cents for each hog or swine for each day the same is kept impounded, and the sum of fifty cents each for the taking and impounding of the same, and the person having charge of such hogs or swine, when impounded is hereby required to feed, water, and give such other care as is necessary to keep and maintain such hogs or swine in as good condition as when impounded.

Section 3. That when any hogs or swine are impounded and the owner be known, the impounder shall immediately notify such owner where his hogs or swine are impounded, and if such owner shall for two days after such notice refuse or neglect to redeem his hogs or swine and pay the impounding fees, or if such owner shall be unknown to the impounder, then, such impounder shall notify the sheriff of the county, or the constable of the district in which such hogs or swine are impounded, that he has impounded such hogs or swine, giving full and accurate description of the same, with marks if any. The sheriff or constable, after ten days' notice published in a newspaper published in said county, with a general circulation in such county, shall sell such hogs or swine at public auction, and out of the proceeds of such sale shall pay the costs of impounding, keeping, and sale of said hogs or swine, and shall turn over any balance to the Board of County Commissioners to be disposed of as hereinafter provided.

Section 4. That the sheriff or constable, upon making such sale, shall furnish a statement under oath to the Board of County Commissioners, with a description of the hogs or swine sold by him, which statement and description shall be filed by said County Commissioners, and at any time within thirty days after such sale the owner of such hogs or swine, by making satisfactory proof of his ownership to the County Commissioners shall have the balance of the purchase money turned over to him, or he may redeem such hogs or swine so sold by paying all costs accrued, together with the purchase money and interest at the legal rate, from the time of impounding; provided such hogs or swine have not in the meantime passed into the hands of a third party for value. If the proof of ownership is not made within the time named, the said commissioners shall retain said money for the benefit of the county school fund.

Section 5. That the owner of any hogs or swine running or roaming at large within the territorial limits of Seminole county, Florida, shall be liable to the person damaged for all damages caused by his hogs or swine so running or roaming at large, and the person suffering such damages shall have a lien upon such hogs or swine for the payment of said damage and may impound and hold the same, upon the terms and in the manner provided in Section 2 of this act, and shall within five days after such impounding institute this suit in the court having jurisdiction of the same for the recovery of his damages, with impounding fees, feed and costs, which action shall proceed in all respects in compliance with existing law in attachment cases, except that bond shall not be required for the impounding; and if the owner of such hogs or swine shall desire to retake the same pending such action he may do so by making and filing in the court in which such action is pending a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the clerk, or by the court if it have no clerk, in like manner as is provided by existing law for the retaking property by defendants in attachment. Judgments recovered in like manner as judgments in attachments; Provided, however, that any person recovering a judgment shall be entitled to have the court assess as part of the costs of the case a reasonable attorney fee, to be included in the judgment.

OUR SCHOOLS IN SANFORD OPEN SEPT. 29

THE SANFORD SCHOOLS WILL START WITH FINE PROSPECTS AND CORPS OF TEACHERS

The long vacation is nearly over and the boys and girls of Sanford will be glad to learn that in about two weeks the schools will open for the fall term. This will be in many respects the best school year we have ever had. The war has revealed to us the necessity of more universal education, of the importance of mentally as well as physically trained men and women. The appalling percentage of illiteracy among grown young men has caused the nation to awake to the seriousness of the situation. The state of Florida has been moved by this revelation to the passage of legislation providing for compulsory education. It is deplorable that compulsion should ever be necessary in a matter of such vital importance, but facts have shown this necessity, and now parents must see that their children attend school, not only occasionally, or for a few months, but every school day in the year. And, being law abiding citizens, the people of Seminole county are going to respond and send their children to school. It is hoped by the school authorities of the compulsory education law that no case of violation will ever have to be brought before our courts, and judging by the attitude towards and interest in, educational affairs evidenced by the citizens of this county, this hope is well founded.

For information relative to the Compulsory Attendance Law, call on the superintendent of public instruction at the court house, Sanford, Florida.

The principal of the High School for this year will be Prof. Claude Ogilvie of Gainesville. Mr. Ogilvie comes to us with highest recommendations from school authorities and is a young man of high intellectual attainments and pleasing personality. He will take his place among the leading men of the county, and the city of Sanford will be proud of him as a citizen as well as a teacher.

The principals of the Sanford Grammar School, the East Side Primary, and the West Side Primary Schools, respectively, Mrs. Rosa L. Dickenson, Mrs. Stella P. Arrington, and Miss Helen Brigham, are too well known by their record here in the past to need any introduction to the people of Sanford, who will

FREE BRIDGES ARE DELAYED FOR PRESENT

VOLUSIA COUNTY COMMISSIONERS THINK PRICE OF PRESENT BRIDGE BEYOND ALL REASON

It seems that Volusia, Seminole and Lake counties will not be allowed to own their bridges across the St. Johns river at this time as the private corporation owning these bridges want more for them than they are worth. The decision of the Volusia county commissioners does not mean, however, that the two counties cannot build a bridge at Osteen ferry and this will probably be accomplished some time in the near future. The following from the DeLand News shows the action of the Volusia county commissioners:

At the meeting of the board of county commissioners on Thursday, by a vote of 3 to 2 the calling of an election to decide the question as to whether or not the county should buy or build bridges on the coast and on the St. Johns river, was postponed until later. Commissioners Reilly and Swope voted against postponement, while Commissioners Carpenter, Codrington and Bishop voted to postpone for the time being.

Arrangements had been made to buy the bridges over the St. Johns at Harden Ferry and at Crows Bluff, provided they could be purchased at a figure approximately the same as the estimate of the engineer from the State Road Department, who figured that the Crows Bluff bridge was worth $24,000 and the Harden Ferry bridge $27,000. Seminole county had agreed to bear its share of the burden of the Harden Ferry bridge, and Lake county its share of the Crows Bluff bridge, while assurances had been received that the State Road Department would possibly assist in the purchase of the bridge at Harden Ferry. However, it had been impossible to secure a figure from the owners of the two bridges until the meeting was in session. The figures then secured were:

Harden Ferry Bridge
Owner's price	$45,000
Engineer's estimate	27,000
Surprise party	$18,000
Crows Bluff Bridge
Owner's price	$40,000
Engineer's estimate	24,000
Surprise party	$16,000

Feeling that Seminole and Lake county would not join under these conditions even if the people of Volusia county approved the bond issue, which would have been a very foolish thing for the people to have done at these prices, the commissioners from this side of the county, felt that it would be wise to postpone the election for the present at least, and so voted.

The owners of the Volusia and Seminole bridge have a franchise for ten years, while the Volusia and Lake Bridge Company have a franchise for ten years, two years of which have expired. At the expiration of these franchises the county has the privilege of purchase at an arbitrated price. In the meantime, unless the bridges can be purchased at a figure considered reasonable by the board and engineer, they will remain in private hands, unless the county should see fit to build other bridges alongside of them—and this would necessitate a permit from the War Department to place another bridge across the St. Johns, making three bridges at Harden Ferry where there should be only one.

New Hat and Cleaning Concern

A new hat dyeing and steam cleaning works is being established in the city by Mr. Jordan, formerly of Starke, Fla.

Mr. Jordan has rented the store room next to the fire station and is already handling the business and doing the work that formerly went to other cities.

The steam cleaning machinery will arrive in about a week after which anything in the cleaning, pressing and dyeing line will be handled by Mr. Jordan who is an expert in this line.

FIJIAN'S DAY OVER

Picturesque South Sea Islander Is Disappearing.

Advent of the White Man, With His Civilization and His Business Ideas Too Much for Once.

The Fiji Islander, whose cannibalistic practices long made him a favorite with writers of fiction and humor, is following the Malayans and the young pearl thief of the South seas into the realm of memory. A turbulent half-caste Hindoo is replacing the once bloodthirsty and always picturesque native of the Fiji.

In the white man's estimation, along with the white man's sleek, and the Fiji's utter distinctness to work that are blotting out the race. The Fiji of today is no longer warlike, no longer a hunter and a fisherman. Instead he is a lazy smoker of the white man's tobacco, a lover of the white man's enticing drinks and a patron of the white man's moving picture shows.

Time was when the war canoes of the Fiji's plied the Southern seas; when the Fiji warrior was a dreaded person who displayed no fear in battle and who enjoyed eating his slain enemies once the conflict ended. The Fiji, according to the early travelers who came in contact with them, were superlatively bad. The very name Fiji became a synonym for whatever was barbarous, inhuman and cannibalistic. It seems that the eating of human flesh was both a matter of religious rite and of enjoyment with the Fiji. Great feasts of this sort were prepared, especially after a successful battle.

The bad reputation of the Fiji's kept traders and missionaries away from the islands till long after other peoples of that section of the seas were Christianized. Finally the white man got a foothold in the islands. Trade of various sorts sprang up, for the islands are wonderfully rich in commercial possibilities. The Fiji is a child who cannot grow up. He has no sense of commercial values and no liking for toil. The white man found him a wretched worker and almost unusable on the plantations that were laid out in the islands.

That is the reason why the Hindoo coolie has been imported into Fiji and why the Fiji is dying. The native cannot stand the double strain of softened ways of living and of competing with the work-hardened native of India.

One notes as a significant phase of the European attitude toward the changing conditions in Fiji, the recommendations adopted at a recent meeting of the district synd, Methodist mission of Fiji. These recommendations approved the further colonization of the islands by Hindoos and suggested a number of regulations which would better the situation of these imported orientals. The importation of women from India was recommended, as it was stated that women were disproportionately few in the Fiji islands.

There has been some intermarriage between the Fiji's and the Hindoos. That, too, has helped bring about the passing of the Fiji. Samoans also have gone to Fiji in considerable numbers and have thrived there.

Guarding the Captor.

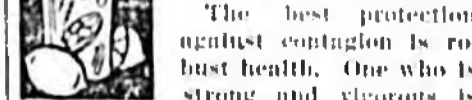

After the Turkish line was broken in front of Nablus, a Tommy of poor physique found himself in sole charge of a whole company of Jackos. No assistance was in sight, so the bantam solemnly proceeded to march the captives toward the nearest compound, a few miles distant. The Turks stumbled along, and the rough nature of the country threw the column into such confusion that Tommy often found himself surrounded by prisoners. Once, while negotiating a difficult descent, he fell headlong among the boulders, his helmet and rifle flying before him. For a moment the situation seemed critical; but a stalwart prisoner promptly restored order by lifting the guard carefully to his feet and replacing the cumbersome headgear. Then, picking up the rifle, Abdul restored it with a graceful bow, and the column marched on to captivity.

CARE IN CONTAGION.

Contagious diseases are due to distinct living things, which are transmitted from one person to another and live like parasites upon a patient. This knowledge will help us to guard ourselves and our loved ones from the spread of contagion. The best protection against contagion is robust health. One who is strong and vigorous is much less liable to yield to disease than one less robust. Wholesome food, exercise and fresh air are essentials in combating disease. An inactive body is far less liable to disease than an inactive one that has little outdoor exercise.

The need of fresh air, day and night, is one of the important factors in maintaining health. The belief that night air is dangerous and sleeping in an unventilated room is responsible for much ill health. Sleeping rooms should be well aired by day, bedding sunned often and a free circulation of air in the coldest weather maintained in the sleeping rooms during the night.

The eating utensils used by a patient, or indeed anything else which he uses or handles during a contagious illness, are a menace, as they are easily contaminated with infectious germs.

A diphtheria patient who has bared his mouth will contaminate spoons, knives, forks or anything which he uses. This is also true of other contagious diseases to a less extent. Consequently too much care cannot be taken of everything that the patient handles.

Allow no one to use or handle any of his utensils, toys or books. The utensils may be boiled; ten minutes will sterilize them, but toys, books or things that cannot be boiled should be burned.

Paper, blankets and dishes of paper may be used, saving the care of linen and articles, and these may be burned.

To ventilate a sick room without a draft, place a board four to six inches high under the window, and of the same width; by shutting the window down on this board, a current of air will come up between the sashes, keeping a circulation of fresh air, without a draft.

No Sound From Giraffe.

It is said by animal trainers that the giraffe has never been known to emit a sound of any kind. No matter what the animal may suffer when ill or injured, he remains silent. And scientists have advanced the theory that, because of the extreme length of the neck, sound is difficult or impossible for the giraffe.

Why Suffer?

Mrs. J. A. Cox, of Alderson, W. Va., writes: "My daughter... suffered terribly. She could not turn in bed... the doctors gave her up, and we brought her home to die. She had suffered so much at... time. Having heard of Cardui, we got it for her."

CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

"In a few days, she began to improve," Mrs. Cox continues, "and had no trouble at... Cardui cured her, and we sing its praises everywhere." We receive many thousands of similar letters every year, telling of the good Cardui has done for women who suffer from complaints so common to their sex. It should do you good, too. Try Cardui. E-77

CARE IN CONTAGION.

Contagious diseases are due to distinct living things, which are transmitted from one person to another and live like parasites upon a patient. This knowledge will help us to guard ourselves and our loved ones from the spread of contagion. The best protection against contagion is robust health. One who is strong and vigorous is much less liable to yield to disease than one less robust. Wholesome food, exercise and fresh air are essentials in combating disease. An inactive body is far less liable to disease than an inactive one that has little outdoor exercise.

The need of fresh air, day and night, is one of the important factors in maintaining health. The belief that night air is dangerous and sleeping in an unventilated room is responsible for much ill health. Sleeping rooms should be well aired by day, bedding sunned often and a free circulation of air in the coldest weather maintained in the sleeping rooms during the night.

The eating utensils used by a patient, or indeed anything else which he uses or handles during a contagious illness, are a menace, as they are easily contaminated with infectious germs.

A diphtheria patient who has bared his mouth will contaminate spoons,

LAKE MONROE
Business in our "Neck of the Woods" is picking up. Fertilizer men are making frequent and very friendly calls upon the farmers of this section. Strawberry plants have been re-set and some early lettuce seed sown. The celery beds are doing well and some of the plants nearly ready to be placed in the fields. Nearly every farmer is busy with the plow or harrow while some of our more progressive farmers are cutting the soil with modern tractors.

The storehouse and lot on Monroe upon the north side of the railroad track formerly owned by Mr. H. G. Hornedge has been purchased by Mr. Drue Warren who will open a grocery at the old stand. Mr. Warren also purchased the house and farm of Mr. Frank Hutchins upon lower Monroe street. He has remodeled the house and built an addition and now has a very desirable homestead for his little family. Mr. Warren is one of our most enterprising citizens and is always ready to lend a helping hand towards building up our community.

Mr. J. W. Bell has the contract for clearing, cleaning and draining the new school grounds. The site of the school building is a five acre plot of smooth, level land which, now that the trees and under shrubbery are cleared is beginning to take on a fine appearance. Two of the acres are already tiled and wide ditches have been dug upon each side of the main road that leads from the school premises to the brick road at Monroe and which affords an excellent drainage. As soon as the land can be cultivated Bermuda grass will be sown. And may we suggest that the teachers and children cultivate beautiful flowers around the school building. So many of our handsome schools in the north stand out in bold relief upon a wide, green lawn with not a single flower to enhance their beauty. It is true that simplicity is often the underlying principle of elegance and there is no denying the fact that many of the northern schools possess this quality, but here in this lovely state with its genial climate and warm sunshine, where flowers grow in such rich profusion why not cultivate the aesthetic tastes of the students along with the other faculties by planting beautiful flowers and some of the beautiful shrubbery in which the stars abound! But we do not mean to intrude, for we understand that part of the school grounds are to be reserved for another purpose, but that idea belongs to Mr. Bell, and is still a "bee in his bonnet" and will come out later.

A very interesting and instructive lecture was given at the service here Sunday afternoon by Dr. George Hyman of Sanford, upon the subject, "A Remarkable Woman." Dr. Hyman gave the life history of the wonderful woman who was described very vividly the various places and scenes in the life of this historical character which he visited while chaplain in France. Dr. Hyman is a convincing and entertaining speaker and a large crowd was present Sunday to enjoy his remarks.

The wonderful growth of the hog industry in Florida has attracted the attention of Mr. Albert Draper of this place. He is making arrangements to convert his truck garden into a stock farm and he will probably take advantage of the auction sales of pure bred sires and breeding sows to be held this fall and get a foundation herd that will rapidly enlarge his bank account.

Messrs. J. W. and Tom Bell have bought the handsome home of Mr. Jim Johnson and will shortly remove to same. Their purchase included an acre of land, a nice tenement house, a commodious barn and other buildings. The remaining four acres of land Mr. Johnson re-sold to his father, Mr. J. B. Johnson.

Mr. Henry Miles returned from Asheville Friday, after being gone about two weeks.

Mr. Jim Johnson left Friday on the noon train for Tennessee. He will be joined at that point by his family and then will go to Cincinnati. The people of this community were sorry indeed to lose such a good citizen and all joined in wishing him a bright future and great success in the new life.

Mr. Hite Clemens and family of Springfield, Ky., were here Saturday looking around with a view of locating in this county. They seem very much pleased with the fine prospects in this state.

Mrs. J. E. Vaughn has been on the sick list with la grippe, but is much better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fortier spent Sunday with Mr. Tom Fortier and family.

The airplanes were seen going over again Sunday. As usual all were glad to see them going by.

After all the heavy rains the roads are still in good shape. No complaint to be made of them.

Everybody seems to be getting along so good now, since things have got right from the war times.

STORM STRIKES KEY WEST

Loss of Life and Property Follows Equinoctial Gale

The West Indian hurricane struck Key West Wednesday night resulting in the loss of four lives and over two million dollars in property.

Three hundred and twenty buildings of various sizes were toppled over by the wind, which reached tremendous velocity. Some of the structures were reduced to wreckage. Two churches were among the buildings demolished. Five retail stores in the business section were tipped over into the street like portions of a pack of cards.

The property loss will exceed two million dollars.

The water front presents a mass of shipping jammed together, with much damage to craft which remain afloat. There is a mass of interlocked yachts and other small craft.

The British oil tanker Tonawanda was scuttled to save her from being carried out to sea, and lies partly submerged at her dock. The Maliner Comal broke from her moorings and went aground. No vessels left port today, most of them having to make repairs before sailing.

Ten members of the crew of the Florida East Coast Railway's dredge barge Grampus, which was blown out to sea and sunk at 2 o'clock this morning, were rescued at 7 o'clock tonight from a small boat. They were in an exhausted condition. The crew consisted of 14 men. One dead body has been recovered and three men are missing.

The schooner U. V. Drew was sunk but the crew of seven reached shore.

The overseas extension of the Florida East Coast Railway is said to have suffered considerable damage and train service into Key West has been discontinued for an indefinite period.

The public buildings were severely damaged. The customs house and postoffice building is in bad shape and it will cost many thousands of dollars to restore it. The city hall, county court house and the jail were seriously damaged.

All of the shop windows in the stores on Duval street, the principal business street of the city were blown in and goods displayed destroyed. Stocks of goods were damaged.

Business in all lines was suspended today. Even the daily newspapers had to cease publication because of lack of electric power, lights and gas. The ice plants are out of commission. Not a store or restaurant was open for business today. Tonight the town is in Stygian darkness. Almost every tree on the island was uprooted.

Much suffering is certain to follow the storm and it is probable appeals will be made for outside help for the homeless.

The storm puts the Fort Taylor station out of commission.

While there is no authentic news from the many small islands between Key West and the mainland, unverified reports say the storm practically stripped many of them, and that there was loss of life. It is reported that Big Pine key was swept bare of all buildings, with loss of life.

movement is on foot to have a local telegraph operator and freight agent at Monroe station. Messrs. Ben Lake and Charlie Bell are urging the citizens to sign a petition to the superintendent of the Atlantic Coast Line requesting the above employees. This place is greatly in need of a freight agent and telephone operator. All the telegrams have to be sent to Sanford and telephoned out over private lines and during the rush season certain individuals do not care to be bothered with other people's business. Then all freight that is sent to Monroe has to be prepaid and is then pitched off and left for days upon the station platform before the owner knows it is there. According to its size, Monroe is a busy shipping point during the trucking season and dispatches are sent daily, to say nothing of the amount of freight that is put off at this place.

Announcing "FIRESTONE TIRES" for Sanford Motorists and Our New Type of "FREE ROAD SERVICE"

Sanford motorists are critical motorists--most of them are well posted on what uniform long distance mileage means.

Knowing this, they are right in insisting on having tires which will assuredly give them the uniform long distance mileage that they want.

If we expect to sell tires in Sanford, we must make sure that we have the tires that will anticipate and meet the severest mileage tests.

Our knowledge of FIRESTONE Tires, cord and fabric, led us to select these notable tires as the single basis upon which to build our success as tire dealers--

As tire dealers in a city where only tires of proven mileage may hope to survive. But worth expressed in mileage figures alone, gives a wholly inadequate picture of the value of FIRESTONE Tires.

A motorist may buy a FIRESTONE Tire blindfolded with the certain knowledge that he is buying a tire that he need never bring back.

There is a string of reasons why FIRESTONE Tires should have YOUR present and sustained interest.

Over 90 per cent of the FIRESTONE workers own stock in the company. Firestone men have homes of their own in Firestone Park. There is a Firestone insurance fund, a Firestone bank, a Firestone clubhouse.

These are reasons why FIRESTONE gives more.

Our New Type of Free Road Service

Our modernly equipped service department is YOURS to freely command, regardless of the make of tires you use.

Call 251-W and one of our fast service cars and a Master Fixer will be on the spot promptly.

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE
 Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days. I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go. I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me. One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle. I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful had health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. B 78

For those openers to be made, I'll give you a quiet tip: I have a can opener; Besides that I'm hungry enough To bite open the darned things; And anyway if I couldn't, I could open them with suspicion. Or with tense anticipation. If you'd been as motionless About shipping this stuff overseas As you have shown yourself In sending it down to me, Not one soldier would have returned For they'd have starved to death. Now, Burley, boy, be a sport: You have my iron dollars— Also all my grocery assortment; Split fifty-fifty with me, And let me eat the stuff While you are counting my mon. I'm not demanding the impossible— That is, I think I'm not; But, darn it, Burley, y' see, I'm getting most mighty hungry. Yassum. I thank you.—Thorn in Palm Beach Post.

The following is a good one: The hard working fancy dealer had vainly ransacked the whole of his shop in his efforts to please an old lady for her granddaughter. For the fifteenth time she picked up and critically examined a neat little satchel.

"Are you quite sure that this is a genuine alligator skin?" she inquired.

"Positive, madam," quoth the dealer. "I shot the alligator myself."

"It looked rather soiled," said the lady.

"That madam, is where it struck the ground when it fell off the tree."

But no better than one of my old friends who is still living in this part of Florida. He was trying to sell some swamp land to a northern man many years before this land was drained and the prospective customer was not as green as he may have looked. He was very particular in asking if the water from the river ever overflowed this land and he called attention to the fact that the marks on the tree as high as a man's head looked like overflow water marks.

"O, no," said the agent. "Those marks were made by the hogs scratching their backs against the trees."

The prospective customer looked hard at the agent and then said: "Well for one thing they sure raise large hogs in this country."

The Lakeland Star has a weird, grotesque, anti-humoresque article in last week's paper saying that it is rumored that Sanford and Orlando teams are playing for Orlando to win the second half in order that Orlando and Sanford can play off the world series. Well, what do you think of that? The idea of Sanford and Orlando trying to pull off that stunt. It's preposterous, scandalous, ridiculous, and then some. If Lakeland wants to stop this lovefeast between Sanford and Orlando why don't they stop umpire baiting and play real ball and take the second themselves?

Every time I go by the Bye-Lo I feel like pinning a Croix de Guerre upon the manly bosom of my old friend, K. R. Murrell. The tearing down and building up of this ancient landmark and water mark and trade mark and building the kind of a hotel that it looks like it is going to be, makes my old heart beat faster every time I look at it. The boys who are tearing out those old eyecores in Sanford and putting up new structures ought to have their taxes given to them free for a hundred years.

Some of my dear friends here have said that our Valdez Hotel would not be big enough to hold the tourists. We do not expect it to be and it is ancient history that one hotel brings another and from the new Valdez Hotel we expect several other larger hotels to spring and before another five years Sanford will have a new and up to date TWO HUNDRED ROOM (count 'em) hotel, yassir.

Could anything be finer than these September days in Sanford? The visitors here already from the north are carried away with our weather in the summer time. But believe me, it is the finest yet.

Having voted to take the ticks off the cattle we are now going to vote the razors off the razorbacks, all of which brings to my mind the truthful words of my old friends, that even if we do spend our money to help make better cattle and hogs we do not get any cheaper meat.

Silk stockings made from sawdust and selling for 50 cents a pair, as compared with $5 for the real silk ones, have been made possible through experiments by the Syracuse (N. Y.) University School of Forestry. The dispatch adds that the difference between the imitation and the real cannot be discerned by the naked eye. Wonder if they would feel as good—to the feet.

Gee, that's great news. There is plenty of sawdust in Florida.

Speaking about the raise in wages that is agitating the public mind these days I want to rise and say that I am not getting enough by about two hundred dollars a month. But I am waiving my rights in favor of the school teachers who are not getting enough money, who have never had enough and probably never will get what they deserve in the way of salaries. Our school teachers are the most important personages in our community barring none and they are getting less money than any other profession trade or business. And if there is to be no price paid on brains then we may just as well close the schools altogether and stop building new schools.

Profitable Well.
 A Pennsylvania corporation that has been prospecting for petroleum in Colombia has tapped a well that produces profitably after passing through oil-bearing sands.

BALL GAMES FOR THE WEEK

BOY SCORES OF ALL GAMES. PLAYED BY SANFORD TEAM

As the frost gets ready for the pumpkin and the busher gets ready to go back home and shuck the corn the old game also gets down to where it looks better and better as the fans see the glory of the fading of the summer sun. Soon the brachers will have the frost on the boards where once all was yell and life and gaiety and all too soon we can clear up the bunch and retire for another year. Sanford will be the champions of the Florida League when the last horn blows and the way we are crawling toward the top in the second series looks just like a repetition of the first one. We believe in going the other fellow all the show in the world and then winning out on the last lap. So by reading the sport column you can see that Sanford won four straights and won them from one of the best if not the best teams in the state. Sanford has the team of real ball players and Sanford is going after that pennant in great style. The other teams are no slouches still by any means and some of the season appointments for games are getting better and better and none of the big leagues has anything on us down here in the Florida League. Many of the southern leagues are disbanding now and several good players are drifting down this way and some of the teams are expecting to tighten up by putting them on. Sanford will play along with her material that she now has and will not need any new men this week, thank you. And now look at the tally sheet for this week:

Sanford Wins and Ties

Orlando, Sept. 6.—(Special).—Sanford won the second game of the double header here today, 5 to 0, after rain had terminated the first contest with the score 1 to 1, in the eleventh inning. Play was held up forty minutes.

In the opener, it looked as if Bert Humphries had his twelfth game won, but, in the fifth stanza the veteran twirler fumbled a bunt, with a man on base. An error by Ruinn followed, permitting the runner to come home with the marker that tied it up.

In the second game Sanford bunched hits with errors by the locals, piling up five runs, while Register had the Caps eating out of his hand at all stages of the game. Scores:

Sanford Wins Tuesday
Sanford had the breaks Tuesday and played to make everything count. They took a 1 to 0 game from Ery of the Highlanders, although "Bugs" let 'em down with three measly hits.

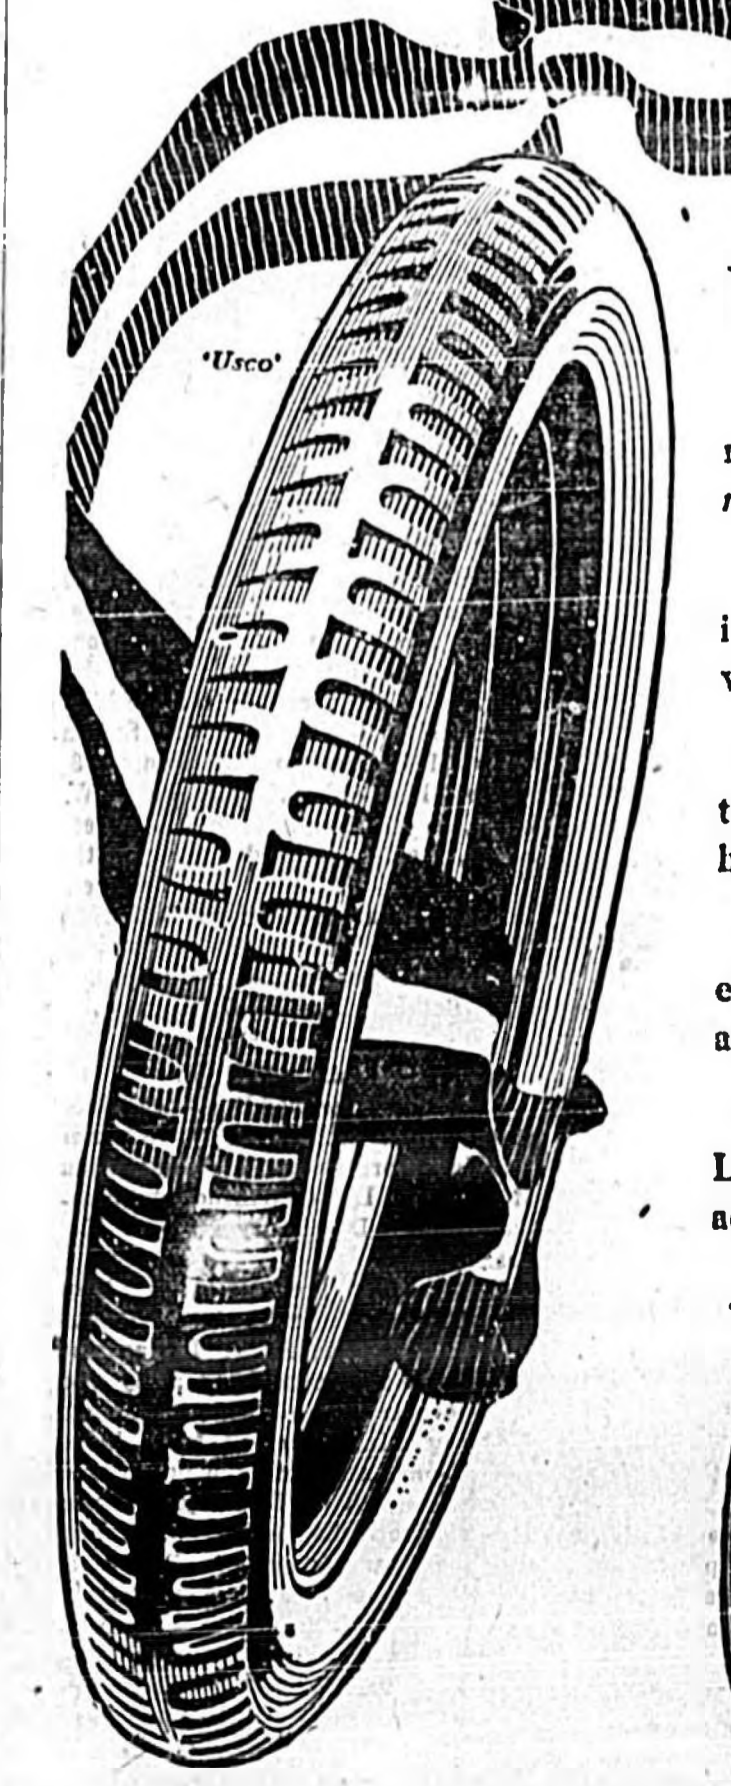

B. Chapman was hit by Ery, stole second, went to third on Johnson's single and scored on Crow's sacrifice fly.

A spectacular catch by Wicker and the pitching of Ery and that of Drayton in the pinches, featured the game. Scores:

Sanford Wins Monday
Lakeland dropped a hard played game here Monday, with Watts pitching superb ball for the Celery Feds after relieving Chapman, whose sore arm is giving him some trouble. The final score was 4 to 2.

Gurlett pitched a classy article of ball until the seventh, when they bunched hits for a couple of tallies and repeated the next frame for another.

A coincident is that of the six runs, all except one was started on its way by a pass and that one got started on a bobble. The score:

Seminole county will vote on the new hog law next Tuesday.

Sanford city schools will open September 29th and the prospects are good for a fine school term.

The longer we operate a newspaper the more the truth is impressed upon our mind that what you keep out of the paper is of more importance than what you print.

The Woman's Club of Sanford could undertake no more important project than the beautifying and improving of the lake front. A fine pavillion should grace the lake front
at an early date.

It seems that all of our dreams are coming true and not only will Sanford have many fine new hotels
but will also have some fine and up to date apartment houses ere long.
Sanford has brighter prospects than any city of similar size in the south.

Even if Volusia county does not buy the bridges this year Volusia and Seminole can build the bridge at Osteen ferry and make it a free bridge. This will tend to bring down the price of the Harden bridge and will be one of the greatest assets of Volusia and Seminole counties.

The St. Johns river scenic fighting now seems to be assured and this will become one of the most popular roads in the state. It runs from Jacksonville to DeLand via Green Cove and Palatka and through Sanford and on to Orlando. It is the road that the Sanford Board of Trade went after several years ago
and helped to get.

Gilbert Leuch not only hits the nail on the head but he expresses our sentiments and defines our position exactly in the following in the Leesburg Commercial:

Shoes that used to cost $4.00 now cost $12. but the newspaper costs you $1.50 a year just as it used to cost. Silk hose that used to cost 75 cents a pair are costing $1.75 to $2.50 and dollar hose are costing $2.50 to $3.00, but the price of advertising space in the Commercial is the same that it used to be. Without fear of successful contradiction
we affirm that the only commodity offered for sale in Leesburg today at the same price as in 1915 is the Leesburg Commercial and advertising space in the Leesburg Commercial.

VOTING OUT THE HOGS

The question of the open range,
the question of the hog running at large, even the question of chickens running at large in the more popular section of the state have come to the voters or will come to them in the near future and they may as well get ready for these innovations of civilization. It means the beginning of the end for free ranges in this and other states where it has come to the voters. In the early days when there were few farms and few people in the state it was all right for the cattle and the hogs to roam at large in the country and even in the smaller towns. All of us can remember in riding through Florida in the early days, the hogs rooting at will around the stations
all over this state. We can remember when the hogs and cattle roamed at will from one end of the state to the other. Those of us who have been in the west can remember when the same condition prevailed.
With the coming of the farmer and the truck and fruit grower all this has been changed and it has been written into the history of every state in the union that when any part of our great country is settled
up by farmers and fruit growers and the wilderness gives way to civilization that the hog and the cattle must be fenced. They have no place in a farming community except they are kept under fence. For many years the farmers in this state have suffered heavy losses by the inroads made into their growing crops by the hogs and cattle. It is not right that the man who is raising hogs and cattle should expect a farming country to fence against these animals and while the cattle are still allowed to roam at large in this country they are not as much a menace as the hogs and the hog-being ravagers of crops, getting through fences and becoming a nuisance are to be voted out at an election next Tuesday and if the majority so will it the hog in Seminole county will hereafter be fenced and kept upon the land of its owner and not upon the crop of the neighboring farm.

It is as immutable as the laws of the Medes and Persians. The trend of a growing country means the fencing of live stock within an inclosure in stead of the farmer being obliged to fence against the stock.

PERILOUS TIMES

The apostle Paul wrote that, "in the last days perilous times shall come." Whether his prophecy definitely applies to these present times in American history we shall not undertake to say. But we do venture to say that the description is strikingly applicable to them.

Race riots, which are nothing less than race wars on a small scale, and ever threatening to break out in new places and on a larger scale;
strikes upon strikes in the world of organized labor, with the sinister threat of a general strike continually suggested, all of which is nothing short of war by one class of society
upon the other classes for the promotion of its own interests at the expense of the others; the active propaganda of pernicious socialistic theories undermining and seeking to overthrow the established industrial, social and political systems of the country; a similarly active propaganda of freak religions and of irreligion against established religious faith and order; the mad scramble for riches, with its concomitants of conscienceless profiteering and graft in all directions; the quick return to the pleasure lust which marked our before; these are a few of the outstanding features of present American history
which spell PERILOUS
TIMES in the largest capital letters.
He who runs may read. He who has no vision can feel the letters.

What can be done about it?
Must our country pass through the throes of civil conflict and revolution, to its utter undoing? Must our civilization—the finest, with all its shortcomings that the world has ever seen—perish from the earth because our people lack the fundamental virtues of self-control and contentment? Is there "no balm in Gilead" which can heal the sore of our fretful humanity?

We are persuaded that there is but one remedy for the present distress; but that it is wholly sufficient.
That remedy is the gospel of Jesus Christ, faithfully and earnestly preached.

The primary teaching of that gospel is the Lordship of God's Son, Jesus Christ. Its corollary is, faith in Him; the faith that submits to His authority and to His will as Lord.

This country, if it is to be saved
from the perils that threaten it must be Christianized. This can be done only by "the foolishness of preaching," whether from pulpits
and platforms, by the printed page,
or by the personal efforts of believing individuals.

In support of this—itsself a sort of propaganda, but of a superior type—believers can help mightily to the saving of the day if they will learn to pray—and practice it much—the effectual fervent prayer of the righteous.

The essence of the present evil
times is disbelief in God and revolt against His authority. The second psalm was never more appropriate to any time than it is today. Its warning and its message are needed
as never before: "Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and ye perish by the way. For His wrath, will soon be kindled.

Blessed are all they that take refuge in Him."—Florida Christian Advocate.

ager form of government.

DeLand is enjoying the greatest

It is reported that the new buildings

hood of $60,000.

That the livestock industry is ad-

dent by the county agricultural hogs immunized against cholera this season and the state livestock inspector reporting over 4,000 head of cattle being dipped monthly.

METHODISTS
DRIED UP
THE BAPTISTS

BAPTISTS MAY CONTEST
GAME AS SOME OF METHOD-ISTS HAVE PLAYED IN EP-WORTH LEAGUE.

The Methodist Sunday school defeated the Baptist Sunday school yesterday afternoon in what was perhaps the most interesting game played by any teams here this season.

While all professionals were barred from playing and only regular Sunday school attendants allowed to play the game was fast and the playing by both teams was good from start to finish. The fans, numbering nearly 200, besides children of the Sunday schools who were admitted free kept the grand stand in an uproar throughout the game and helped to keep the interest up to the highest pitch. No one person should have the credit for either winning or losing this game for both teams worked well and any errors which were made were due perhaps to lack of practice, but what is a ball game without errors.

W. T. Wheelless of the "wets" made three of the four runs by his team. G. W. Spencer, Jr., pitcher for the "backsliders" besides pitching a good game and letting his opponents down with only ten hits got two runs. Smith, the young catcher for the M. E.'s also got two runs.
Pitcher Kelly gave up only eight hits and pitched exceptionally good game.

Manager F. B. Adams of the Methodists and R. M. Grovenstein of the Baptists have been busy for several days in getting their respective teams in shape and both deserve a great deal of credit for their good work.

The work of Empires Chittenden and Lane was exceptionally good and met with more than usual satisfaction.

McCaslin—Whitner
A pretty home wedding took place
at the home of Mrs. J. N. Whitner Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock when Miss Alice Doak Whitner became the bride of Dr. Henry Herbert Mc-Caslin.

Just before the ceremony Miss Mabel Bowler rendered the beautiful solo "Because" by D'Hardelot and as the last notes died away and as the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March pealed forth bride and groom came into the parlor and under an arch of ferns, pink vines and bamboo they were made man
and wife by Dr. E. D. Brownee, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The Whitner home presented a truly Florida appearance, the double parlors lending a most appropriate archway for the wedding and both rooms were crowded by friends and relatives who attended the wedding.
The bride wore a most becoming blue tricolette coat suit and black hat and also wore an exquisite string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

What is Wise Spending?
Saving may have seemed to you the opposite of spending, and so it is—of foolish spending.
But really wise spending goes hand-in-hand with intelligent saving.
Saving in itself—as the miser understands it—the mere hoarding of money for money's sake—is of no special advantage to anyone.
On the other hand, when people save intelligently,
what they really do is to save for a chance to spend for something more worth while later. In final analysis, everything is spent but the saver thinks before he spends and so spends wisely. He gets more for his money and a bigger return for his work. He has more money left for thoughtful spending in the future.
Now, what is really more worth while later? It may be that, by accumulating hitherto foolishly-spent dimes and quarters, which give no real satisfaction, you will be able to buy later a home, or have a wife, or provide for old age or for education, or a start in life for your children.
All of these things and many others are "worth more" to the individual.
War Savings Stamps help you to convert foolish money into future wise spending power.

Red Cross Home Service Items

He was a tall young man of 24, and he walked up to the desk of Miss Mary Ann Abel in the Red Cross headquarters in Atlanta and in one hand he carried a First Reader. This he held up for inspection and his eyes were fairly dancing.

"Isn't it grand to be able to read?" he inquired.

He was a discharged soldier who had been ill of tuberculosis. In the hospital he had asked to be taught "something about reading and writing."

"I was in a line of men, waiting to sign bonus checks," he said. "I watched a man after man write his name—and I knew I couldn't write mine. I dropped out of the line and went to the foot of the class, so no body would see me make my mark. I had missed something."

This boy had been in the country nearly all of his life, until he went into the army. Then a little later he found out what he had been missing. As Victor Vaughn once said, "How can you hunger for food you've never tasted? But having discovered his lack, the government was ready to remedy it."

Any Red Cross Chapter or office can tell you what the government offers to men—and women—disabled in its service.

When it comes to restoring its damaged fighters, the government has means and resources far beyond those of any human being or ordinary agency. Quite recently a young woman was located in Savannah, Ga., who was an expert at teaching in the art of lip reading to persons who had lost their hearing. Now she has a class of six southern soldiers whose sense of hearing had been destroyed in the war.

"I was a little afraid to try teaching grown people," she confessed. "My pupils had all been children. But they learned so rapidly and tried so hard—and succeeded so well that I am tremendously proud of all of them."

This is a fine example of the human touch in government relief work—only too often people conjure up a vision of hard, splendid offices and inextricable tangles of red tape, when the government is referred to.

But not the crippled soldiers—and not the deaf soldiers—and not the Red Cross, which will tell you anything you want to know about the government's methods in these matters.

Basket Picnic

On Thursday, the 28th of August Seminole Chapter, Eastern Star was invited to a basket picnic held by Mt. Dora chapter on Lake Oia, at Tangerine. We met at Masonic Hall at 10:30 a. m., and headed by our big Chief, Father Mussen we struck the trail for Lake Oia. We landed at noon on schedule time. There we spied our big Squaw, Mother Rollins who had given us the slip and had the camp fires burning for us. In a little while the pioneers of Winter Park came up and in a short while there were more than one hundred bright, shining Stars twinkling around. The stars shine very bright at Mt. Dora and it was a grand welcome they gave us.

At 2 p. m. the long tables were groaning under their weight of the best eatables, fit for kings. It was a hungry bunch of Seminoles that was seated around the tables and did full justice to everything in sight, you may be sure.

This gathering was to celebrate the birthday of the founder of the beautiful order of the Eastern Star, Bro. Robert Morris, who would have been one hundred and one years old if he had lived until Aug. 31, 1919.

An organization was formed, to be known as the Robert Morris Memorial Association, to meet and celebrate once a year in honor of this great man. Mother Rollins is president of this association. The next meeting will be with the Seminoles in Sanford. Each meeting will be held with one of the five chapters, constituting the association. There were talks and readings touching on life of our founder. A graphonola furnished beautiful music throughout the day. Altogether it was a most enjoyable affair. We hope that each one present will live to enjoy many more such pleasant days.

Respectfully,
Sec'y Seminole Chapter,
No. 2, Order Eastern Star.

WILL NOT HAVE TRAINING

Lack of Interest in Free Training Classes in Nursing

Owing to the lack of interest on the part of the women of Seminole county, the free training classes under the instruction of a trained Red Cross nurse have been recalled. It seems in credible that an opportunity for such instruction absolutely free to the individual should fail to arouse enough interest to organize at least one class in Sanford. However there have only been six registrants from the town, a possible six from Chuluota and a positive twelve from Geneva, but then Geneva always responds.

The expenses of the course were to have been met out of Chapter funds in recognition of the valuable services rendered by the women of Seminole county during the intensive war period. It is significant of the lack of interest in Red Cross activities when one compares the number of registrants with the Chapter membership of 1500, a Sanford membership of perhaps 800 and nearly two-thirds of the membership women. The report made by Miss Virginia Smith, secretary of Home Service section to the executive committee on Wednesday afternoon was excellent and shows that department extremely active. Miss Smith gave an interesting and intensive training of the Home Service Institute, which she attended at Valdosta. She emphasized the need of the Home Service section in every community, be it ever so prosperous and dwell especially on field work among the families of soldiers and sailors.

Her report showed 17 new cases of varied character for July, 23 cases in August, 24 friendly letters written and 15 official; 41 visitors at the Home Service office seeking information. She reported also 3 county cases in urgent need of attention.

Off to College

Sanford is to be well represented at the Florida State College for Women this year.

Misses Mary Zachary and Gladys Green return to F. S. W. C. to complete their courses, while Misses Edna Chittenden, May Thrasher, Dorothy Rumph, Helen Peck, Izetta Stone and Lillian Swartz enter upon their university career as freshmen. The girls will leave Monday for the Capital City.

New Source of Fat.

Scientists claim to have discovered that a fat resembling coconut oil can be obtained from plants that grow abundantly on waste lands.

Penny Pinching Not Always True Economy

The housewife—schooled in really scientific domestic economy—no longer throws away a nickel to save a penny.

A good way to illustrate this would be through a comparison of the wholesomeness, efficiency and economy of a plain flour and a standard baking powder and a so-called self-rising flour. It doesn't pay to buy self-rising flour. Most of it is made of low grade materials. It causes many bake-day failures and a great loss of expensive baking ingredients.

The housewife will throw out in wasted materials many times the amount she hopes to save. Beside, self rising flour has a tendency to get lumpy and that's another waste. But what is most important, the housewife gets less in return as far as food value is concerned than if she purchased a plain flour and a standard baking powder.

True economy in baking powder demands the highest quality at the lowest price. A Baking Powder made only of the highest class ingredients obtainable so skillfully and accurately proportioned that it not only produces the maximum of leavening power but conserves that power, retains its strength and is un failing in results, is economical in cost and use. The housewife saves when she buys it. She saves when she uses it—and she saves the materials with which it is used. That is economy in its highest form—the only kind of economy the housewife should attempt to practice.

Experts or Theorists—Which?

The packing industry is intricate, complex—far more so than the railroads or the telegraph.

Every day multiplying needs of society increase its problems and multiplying responsibilities demand more of it.

Highly trained experts, specialists of years' experience, thinkers and creative men, devote their lives, their energies, their activities, to solving the problems of the packing industry and meeting its widening duties.

Swift & Company is not a few dozen packing plants, a few hundred branch houses, a few thousand refrigerator cars, and a few million dollars of capital, but an organization of such men. It is the experience, intelligence, initiative and activity which operates this physical equipment.

Can this intelligence, this experience, this initiative and creative effort which handles this business at a profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound from all sources, be fostered through the intervention of political theorists, however pure their purposes? Or be replaced by legislation? Does Congress really think that it can?

Let us send you a Swift "Dollar". It will interest you. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill.

Flies Cut Down Milk Yield

There's no doubt about it. Flies not only worry the cows and the milker, but they keep you from getting all the milk you should.
And there's no doubt about this either. The one way to get rid of flies at milking time—and the sure way to get more milk is to use

Pratts Fly Chaser

Spray it on just before milking. PRATTS does not taint the milk. PRATTS does not burn or blister the hide. PRATTS does not take off or gum up the hair.
Give your cows a chance to give more milk. Give your work animals a chance to get their rest. Give PRATTS a trial.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING? LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They come slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to kidney disease.
Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until these pains become unbearable. Don't waste with disease. To avoid future suffering, take treatment with Gold Medal Holland Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.
This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1906 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Holland Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.
Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Holland Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

ELDER SPRINGS WATER

THOMAS D. BAKER, Ph. D.
Analytical and Consulting Chemist - Professional of Natural Science
Emeritus, Rollins College, Florida
Private Laboratory of Rollins College
Winter Park, Fla., Nov. 5th, 1918

Mr. T. O. Charles, Sanford, Fla.
Dear Sir:
I have completed careful chemical analysis of the sample of water that you brought me early last week, and have obtained the following results:

Color	Clear	Chlorine	1.75 parts per million
Reaction	Neutral	Total Solids	800 parts per million
Free Ammonia	00 parts per million	Hardness	23.03 parts per million
Albuminoid Ammonia	Trace	Nitrates	Trace

The absence practically of free and albuminoid ammonia in this water and its very small amount of chlorine indicates its excellent quality for household purposes. In addition to the good quality characteristics of superior household water, it possesses special features of much value, especially those of excellent natural aeration and LOW degree of hardness.

The bacteriological analysis, resulting in an average total count, in four samples of the water, of 2 bacteria per cent; and in finding no colon, other harmful bacteria, fully confirm its good quality indicated by the CHEMICAL analysis.

Of the many waters of this and other regions that I have analyzed, I have found none superior in all good qualities to that of the "Elder Springs Water."

Yours very respectfully,
THOMAS D. BAKER
