

Education Needs

buildings, the substandard and ancient needs of teachers and pupils all point to the fact that "if we don't get the $40,000,000 the educational system will deteriorate still further."

Dr. Hunt, who retired as president of the association Mar. 15, said that the greatest contribution of his administration to education is the projected study of the professionalization of superintendents of schools on the local, county and state levels.

Dr. Hunt said there is a lack of awareness on the part of both the public and the superintendent of the need and training to do a good job. He suggested an internship similar to that being given by the medical profession so future superintendents of schools may become better qualified to administer to the needs of education in their communities.

Dean Paul B. Jacobson of the University of Oregon said the basic reason why many youths fail to attend public high school is that they cannot afford it. Jacobson told school administrators today "a recent study on a national scale indicates that the high school is not effectively free."

It costs the average student about $150 a year to attend high school, he said. Tuition is free, but carfare, lunches, school supplies, admission to games and incidental costs call for "cash on the barrelhead," Jacobson said.

Last night, the association heard the Army's new chief of staff, General Omar N. Bradley, say that Americans may achieve lasting peace in these four ways:

1. Support the United Nations.
 2. Establish Universal Military Training.
 3. Aid in the reconstruction of Europe and Asia.
 4. Withhold "comfort" from potential aggressor nations.
- The world, Bradley said, is presently free of fear of aggression because "the drain of war on the industrial and manpower resources of the nations has temporarily exhausted much of their vigor."

The best assurance against another war, Bradley added, "lies in some measure of universal subordination of absolute national sovereignty to a community of nations."

Holy Land Peace

The Council -- sat at the table. The council chamber was filled to capacity.

The audience included the five members of the Palestine Commission. Among them was Senator Vincent J. Francisco, Philippine representative, who announced his resignation from the Commission earlier in the day. The Arab Higher Committee for Palestine also was represented in the chamber.

General A. G. L. McNaughton of Canada, Council president for February, warned the Council that it was faced with a grave responsibility and called on both Arabs and Jews to refrain from inflammatory actions during the deliberations.

Austin told the Council it must separate the question of maintaining peace in the Holy Land from the question of enforcing the partition plan. In the opinion of the United States, he said, an international force could be used to maintain peace but not to enforce a "political" settlement.

"While taking necessary measures to maintain international peace," Austin said, "the Security Council should make every effort to get an agreement on the basis of the General Assembly recommendation for the underlying political difficulty."

There was an excited buzz in the chamber as Austin finished his 27-minute speech. Chairman McNaughton had to rap for order as the French translation began.

The United States specified that any U. N. force must be "directed to keeping the peace and not to enforcing partition" of the Holy Land.

British Colonial Secretary Arthur Creech-Jones followed Austin with Britain's policy declaration. Creech-Jones reminded the Council that present difficulties in Palestine had been forecast by Britain and said the Assembly had been enforcement measures would be necessary.

He made it clear, however, that Britain would take no part in an international force or any other measures to enforce partition.

"The United Kingdom," he said, "is too deeply involved in the past history of Palestine to be called upon to shoulder any further commitments."

He said Britain would abstain from voting on the question of creating an international force. "In short," Creech-Jones said, "while the Council must determine the nature of any support to be given to the United Nations Palestine Commission, my government, for its part, because of its past involvement with Palestine, because of its position, which has long been clear to all, must stand on its own feet, withdrawing the last part of the British force by August 1948, and refuse to be involved in an association with others to impose the United Nations plan by force, the logic of our course is to abstain from voting on this issue."

The effects of American oil and the local industry are being felt in the local economy, it was pointed out. The local industry is being hit by the oil shortage. The local industry is being hit by the oil shortage. The local industry is being hit by the oil shortage.

Wallace Charge

000-word prepared statement.

In advance of his testimony, the committee announced that there would be no radio broadcast and that television and newsreel cameras would be excluded. This brought a cry of "censorship" from Wallace supporters.

Most of Wallace's statement was devoted to his contention that "capitalists" have perverted the Marshall Plan into a scheme for dominating world markets whereby they would be able to dictate the economic policies of the nations that take part in it.

At the same time, Wallace offered his own alternate plan for aid to Europe. Through his eight-point program, he said, "we would be relieved of the gnawing fear of war and atomic destruction which haunts us today."

Wallace set forth three points in outlining his project:

1. The creation of a $50,000,000 reconstruction fund.
2. A United Nations agency, "and not a big business," should administer the fund.
3. All nations "with appropriate means" would contribute to it.

It would be parceled out on a priority basis to those nations that suffered most in the war, "including those of Eastern Europe."

There should be no political strings attached to granting this assistance to any country, Wallace said. "It would permit the people of Europe to nationalize their industries—it would permit the refusal to purchase surplus goods dumped abroad by big American business."

None of the money should be used to buy military supplies or armaments, nor could it be employed for war preparations. "My plan would eliminate the present American intervention in Greece, China, Indonesia, and Indochina which are increasingly threatening to become battlefronts of World War III," Wallace said.

The United Nations would establish a world food granary so that "the American farmer would be encouraged to produce to the limit, with a guaranteed price floor."

The Ruhr industrial complex would be placed under joint supervision of the United States, Russia, Britain and France, "its resources to be used to reconstruct Europe."

Senator Glen H. Taylor, the "growing cowboy" from Idaho, came out formally last night as a vice presidential candidate on Henry Wallace's third party ticket.

He said he did it to back Wallace's "call to fight for peace" and because the Democratic party has surrendered to "Wall Street and the military." It was a decision he had been pondering since early January.

Austin denied a report that he would quit the Senate, where he has sat on the Democratic side for half a term. Taylor himself has said previously, however, that he realized he would be reading himself out of the party if he joined Wallace.

Business Level

depression followed, made the situation worse by calling loans and being unable or unwilling to extend credit.

"Just as we are now using our efforts to modify inflation on the up-side, we must be prepared to step in and modify deflation on the down-side with ample reserves of available credit. This is what credit control means."

That is the difference between banking and mere money lending. It can be voluntary and cooperative, or it will be imposed."

L. A. Tobie, president of the Savings Division of the ABA, advised banking leaders to tighten lending policies on non-residential building and owner-occupied single-family houses.

Such a move, he added, would release labor and materials for rental housing construction. He said the bottleneck in building does not result from lack of credit but from shortages of labor and materials.

Lester Shippee, chairman of the ABA's Credit Policy Commission, said "it is of paramount importance that we have a clear-cut and well defined lending policy."

"Our over-all objective today," he added, "is to keep credit flowing in sufficient volume to maintain or increase production and necessary services and to curtail credit that will create new demand. To accomplish this purpose, we advocate careful administration of loans already on the books, and a selective approach to new applications."

Truman Bid

Engel said an attempt will be made for final senate action by May 1, so that the legislation can go to the President.

Mr. Truman's budget called for $665,894,000 for the Army engineers' waterway program. The current budget is $415,535,525.

The committee shaved $127,294,000 from Mr. Truman's estimate, but boosted the current figure by $123,047,000.

The President estimated $491,695,000 for new construction next year. The committee reduced this by $108,653,000. It also cut $10,000,000 off a separate flood control request for the lower Mississippi, recommending $60,000,000 for this purpose.

The other major reduction was one of $4,500,000 for maintenance, operation and care of existing navigation projects.

Lieut. General R. A. Wheeler, chief of Army engineers, describes the current program as the largest that Congress has ever directed the Corps of engineers to carry on.

Wheeler told the committee, printed copies of the closed hearings showed today, that the engineers are feeling "great concern" about continuing bids entered by groups of contractors on government jobs.

He said he was "concerned about whether combinations like that tend to restrict competition." He noted such types of bids had been presented in recent months on a hospital in Chicago and on the Bugs Island Dam in North Carolina. In both instances, he said, the low bids were well above government cost estimates.

The estimated backlog of waterways projects authorized by Congress, which can be started as soon as money is appropriated, now totals $3,500,000,000.

The reduction from the President's figures was accomplished by trimming a number of separate projects and eliminating a few entirely.

Garrison reservoir, North Dakota, for example, was allotted $25,000,000 by the committee, although Mr. Truman proposed $30,400,000. This is the largest single item, exclusive of the over-all Mississippi program.

Filling are the projects for which construction funds were recommended by the committee: Rivers and Harbors.

Florida—St. Johns River, Jacksonville to Lake Harney, $25,000,000; St. Johns River, Jacksonville to the ocean, $800,000; St. Joseph Bay, $378,000; Tampa harbor, $800,000.

Georgia—Savannah harbor, $1,000,000.

Louisiana—Calcasieu River and pass, $500,000; Intracoastal waterway, Apalachee Bay, Fla., to Mexican border section (New Orleans district), $1,800,000.

North Carolina—Cape Fear River, $1,108,000.

South Carolina—Charleston harbor, $178,000; Winyah Bay, $858,500.

Rural Common Sense

By Spud Johnson

HOME GARDENING HAS MANY ADVANTAGES FOR RURAL AND URBAN FOLK. Spring time is gardening time.

The United States has not a goal of 20 million freedom gardens in 1948 to help feed the people here at home and enable this country to export more grain to needy countries. A review of the situation reveals that gardening has many advantages.

The home garden can help us realize an economy of abundance. It can help overcome the effects of limited food budgets. It can help to overcome indifference and poor food habits. It can help to improve growing and more stable market for commercially produced fruits and vegetables.

The gardening family tends to buy more commercially grown fruits and vegetables per year once it has started to raise part of its own supply. A 1944 study of urban families showed that the average gardening family actually purchased more commercially produced fruits and vegetables than did the non-gardening family of comparable size and income.

To achieve an economy of abundance, we must limit ourselves to improving dietary levels and stabilizing the market for farm produce. Abundance means more than that. It means a full family life, a home that is a real home to live in, opportunity to find relief from the exacting demands of our highly geared life, pride in one's community.

Gardening can do much to improve the surroundings in which we work, live, and play. It can improve the setting of our homes and the beauty of the home.

When the fisherman's home is a place to look at his community with a more discerning eye. Pride in one's home will lead to pride in one's community.

Home gardening can mean much to a family that merely provides recreation and relaxation for every member of the family. Working in a garden can provide much healthy exercise. It develops teamwork and fellowship between family members of all ages.

Little Rock to Pine Bluff, $400,000.

Georgia—Macon, $200,000; Allatoona reservoir, $8,000,000; Louisiana—Bayou Teche and Vermilion River, $200,000; Mermentau, $1,000,000; Aloha Rigolette, $500,000; Pineville, $600,000; Shreveport, $1,000,000; Bayou Bodcau, $47,000; Long Bayou, $14,700.

Tennessee—after Hill reservoir, $9,000,000.

Flood control (projects in more than one state): Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, Red River levees below Denham Dam, $1,000,000.

Arkansas and Louisiana—Bayou Bodcau reservoir, $500,000.

Arkansas—Narrows reservoir, $2,500,000; Blakely Mountain reservoir, $2,500,000; Ninard Reservoir, $150,000; Crawford County, $150,000.

California—Carson bottom drainage district No. 2, $700,000; West of Marilla, $500,000; Contra Costa levee district No. 2, $500,000; Contra Costa levee district No. 1, $500,000; Little Rock, $319,000.

The United States oil industry is estimated to produce 4,300,000 barrels of crude oil per day compared to the average of 4,711,000 barrels per day, and to the previous average of 4,861,000 barrels per day in 1941.

Stock Market

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (AP)—Inertia and mild irregularity described today's stock market.

Scattered favorites, including gold mines and industrials, made some headway while many leaders drifted in the minus ranks. From the start, dealings were among the slowest of the past year.

While gains running to a point or so persisted near the close, declines of as much were numerous. Volume for the full proceedings was around 600,000 shares.

Unsettled European currencies, highlighting the value of gold abroad, aided issues in the metal group. A few ailerons benefited from hopes of bigger military orders.

Atlantic Gulf & West Indies touched another 1947-48 peak before slipping. Better performers included Homestake, Dome, McIntire, Purcine, Boeing, Lockheed, Woolworth, Delaware & Hudson, Southern Railway, Mission Corp., Joy Mfg., Texas Gulf Sulphur and American Smelting & Refining.

A little professional nibbling was credited to the thought that a technical revival might eventually materialize. The administration's drive to investigate the recent steel price hoist inspired caution.

Doubters regarding business prospects, consumer resistance, taxes and international situations, particularly that in Czechoslovakia, stood aside or shortened commitments.

Bonds were a shade uneven. Commodities dipped and rallied. Cotton, toward the finish, was up 25 cents to $3.35 a bale. At Chicago wheat ended up 24 cents a bushel to off 14, corn up 2 1/2 to 1 1/2 and oats 1/2 to 1/2 advanced.

Anti-Lynching Bill Is Given Approval By House Sub Group

Measure Would Penalize County Where Lynching Occurs; Officers Punishable

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Legislation to make lynching a federal offense received a House Judiciary Subcommittee's approval today. Its action sends the measure on to the full judiciary committee, which must approve the bill before it can be voted on by the House.

The legislation is part of the civil rights program advocated by President Truman and opposed by Southern Democrats.

The southerners contend the problem of dealing with lynchings should be left to the states. They argue, too, that the number of lynchings is decreasing.

The measure would let the federal government step in when there was a lynching. People accused of taking part in it could be tried in federal courts. Trials might be moved to a place far away from the community where the lynching took place.

The legislation provides:

1. A maximum penalty of 10 years imprisonment and a fine of $20,000 for persons guilty of participating in a lynching.
2. A fine of $5,000 and five years imprisonment for peace officers guilty of negligence.
3. Compensation for survivors of a lynching victim. This could range from $2,000 to $10,000. Lynch victims (if they lived) or their dependents would get the money from the city or county where the lynching occurred.

Alabama Democrat Seeks Anti-Truman Electoral Members

MOBILE, Feb. 24 (AP)—Alabama's veteran Democratic party leader proposed today that this state combat President Truman's Civil Rights Program by qualifying as presidential electors men "who firmly believe in the doctrine of states' rights."

Gessner T. McCorvey, the party leader, said he was suggesting the plan of action at the request of Governor J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina. He recommended that other Southern states follow the plan.

He said these candidates for electors should announce in advance of the Alabama Democratic Primary May 4 they would

Earl Long Receives Top Heavy Vote In Louisiana For Governor

NEW ORLEANS Feb. 25 (AP)—The Longs have been recalled to power in Louisiana. Earl Long, brother of the late Senator Huey P. Long, received a top-heavy vote over Sam Houston Jones in yesterday's Democratic runoff primary election for governor.

An unofficial count of ballots cast in 1,065 of the state's 1,878 precincts gave Long 239,196 votes to 135,538 for Jones.

The nomination assures Long's election in this traditional Democratic stronghold of the deep South. Republicans, who claimed only about 5,000 registered voters in Louisiana's last general election two years ago, have not yet decided whether they will ever bother to put up a candidate.

Yesterday's vote was a strong comeback for the Long family. Huey's widow said that if Huey were here "he would be proud of this great victory for the people of the state."

Senate Passes By United States Voice Vote House To Press Action Okeyed Rent Bill On Palestine

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The Senate today passed by a voice vote the House approved bill extending rent controls one month beyond next Sunday. The measure now will be flown to the Caribbean for President Truman's expected signature. Mr. Truman is vacationing in that area. The Senate acted under a suspension of its rules making it unnecessary for the Banking Committee to pass on the bill.

The extension through March will give the legislators additional time to work on a bill to continue controls for a long period. The Senate passed and sent to the House last night a measure to keep controls for 14 months, until the end of April, 1949. This bill changes the present law to several ways. Senators Barkley (D-Ky.) and Taft (R-Ohio) told the Senate they hope the longer extension will be passed within the next 30 days.

Meanwhile, a steel man told Congress that "a serious depression" in the United States is more to be feared than any

Official Rules Negro Vets Get State Aid

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 25 (AP)—West Virginia's attorney general has ruled that negro veterans studying outside the state are eligible for state aid, even though their tuition and other fees are paid in full under the federal "GI Bill."

Ira J. Partlow pointed to a state law providing that educational aid shall not be withdrawn even if the students expenses are paid by a private benefactor, and said that for the purposes of the law he could not distinguish between a private benefactor and the federal government.

The ruling was in answer to questions raised by the State Board of Education and the State Department of Veterans Affairs.

Taylor Assumes Responsibility For Interception Of News Story

By THOMAS A. REEDY
NUERNBERG Feb. 25 (AP)—Brig. General Telford Taylor said today he assumed full responsibility for interception of a newspaper story before it was published and issuing of an immediate rebuttal. The chief U. S. war crimes prosecutor said in an interview that he stood behind the action of his employees over the weekend in the incident which grew out of the conviction of eight German general for war crimes committed during the German occupation of southeast Europe.

After the judgment was handed down, presiding Judge Charles F. Wengert gave an interview to Hal Foster of the Chicago Tribune criticizing the prosecution. Foster filed his story by press wireline, scheduling it for publication Tuesday. Taylor replied to the interview Sunday, before it was in print. The question then arose how he got hold of the interview.

The general and his public relations officer, E. C. Deane, explained:

War crimes lawyers heard about the interview and relayed the information to Taylor Friday night. He instructed Deane to find out what Wengert said. Meantime Miss Anne Turner of Philadelphia, an employee in Deane's office, rode to Frankfurt with two judges and they met

"New Look" Down To Size For Mrs. U.S.A.

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor
NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—For her Easter suit, Mrs. U.S.A. has cut the "new look" down to size.

A survey of the New York coat and suit market, central supply point for the nation's Easter finery, reveals that the suits now being shipped for Spring wear are far different from the full-skirted, wasp-waisted silhouettes shown to buyers at the original Spring openings last November.

Manufacturers who showed their first Spring models with wide flaring skirts are shipping the same suits with slim, straight, or only slightly flared skirts—modified to buyers who a few months ago specified full skirts on their Spring suit orders.

Philip Mangone, one of the half-dozen or so manufacturers who set the nation's coat and suit styles each season, sums up the situation thus: "Sure, we showed full skirts at the openings. And the buyers ordered them. But when we started cutting the suits to ship to stores all over the country, we modified the skirts. In some cases we took out half the original fullness. In others we cut a new skirt entirely—a straight one."

"We were taking a chance, because most buyers had insisted on skirts as full as possible. But when you think of a size 40 woman putting on a circular skirt that calls for a doll-size waistline, you can see what was likely to happen to the 'new look' in the fitting rooms."

"We had heard early reports of the fashion alterations necessary when customers bought some of these wasp-waisted, flare-skirted styles. And so, regardless of the so-called revolution in fashion, we cut the suits the way we thought American women wanted them. And it turns out we were right."

"I've had telegrams and long-distance phone calls from buyers who ordered full skirts at the beginning of the season saying: "Thank you for not shipping what I ordered."

"A tailored suit, such as most American women demand, has to have a crisp look and it has to flatter the figure. The following skirt just doesn't go with it. For afternoon and evening dress—yes. For tailored suits, no."

Other manufacturers confirmed the trend. In each case the suits that were being cut and shipped in volume were conservative styles with skirts either straight or only very slightly flared.

Some houses are continuing to cut the extreme wasp-waisted, full-skirted suits, but in small numbers. One manufacturer explained: "These extreme silhouettes are strictly high style, and only a limited number can be sold. They are designed for women who have a half-dozen Spring suits in their wardrobe, and can afford to indulge in extremes. The bread-and-butter styles will always be conservative."

Another manufacturer explained the modification of the "new look" thus: "These whirl skirts look good on kids—college and high-school girls. But for grown-up ladies a more subtle line is needed. A expensive, highly styled suits for mature women must look distinguished, not sensational. And that's why most of our Spring suits are being shipped with conservative skirts."

As to the skirt length—it's 12 to 14 inches from the floor for street styles—or just below mid-calf, the most flattering length for most women. No dust-ruffles are in view as yet. Women who have looked forward to selection of an Easter suit with quills this year may relax. Plenty of crisp, conservative, straight-skirted styles will be available.

IVEY'S

THE GARDEN GATE

MRS. E. G. KILPATRICK, JR., Editor
Weekly Column of the Sanford Garden Club

We left you last week just beside the run of the mole. They are very distinctive animals. They not only tear up your pretty lawn, but they burrow under your shrubs, especially the ones you keep well watered, making air pockets. These pockets allow the roots to burn and finally kill the plant. You can discover these holes by pushing the nozzle of the water hose deep into the ground. If the water follows the hose back up, there is no hole, but if water disappears, get busy and fill the cavity around the roots with soil. To get rid of this pesky little animal, open their run by putting poisoned peanuts for them to eat, or better still, put live in the trap, they get this on their feet and in licking them clean they get enough to cause death.

Let us now consider the garden pests that attack your lovely plant family above the ground. We begin with the aphids. They are masses of small green bugs that collect mostly on the new growth of our trees and shrubs. The aphids cause the leaves to curl very badly. They usually collect in great numbers on the new growth of ornamental shrubs. We use a methodical or a nicotine spray which is made of one tablespoon of Black Fly 40 to one gallon of water. (Remember in using a nicotine product, use in the leaf of the day because the insects eat the leaf and the nicotine passes through their side and you want to suffocate them. This is all that we know to date now, but about May 15, 1948 there will be a new method on the market which will be much more effective. This will go by the trade name of either 4422 or Tarathion. Ask for it after that date.

Next we shall take up the white fly that collects on the under side of the leaves and causes the ugly black mold on the garden. (This is a common pest of many other plants. There are many kinds of white fly, four different ones alone attacking citrus. Then there is the Florida scale which is a brown scale about the size of the head of a common pin. These will often be found on the fronts of our phoenix, acedem, palms, gardenias, azaleas and citrus trees.)

Don't confuse the Florida red scale with pyroform scale and look for snow scale any good emulsion spray in the cool of the day, about 6:00 spray, 1/3 cup to 1 gal. water. When the leaves of your azaleas turn a copper brown there is a little doubt that spider is feasting on them. These cannot be seen with the naked eye, neither can the tall winged fly, which causes small white spots on the leaves; only their deposition can be seen when a very strong light is shined on the leaves. For this dust with sulphur D. It is very, very effective.

Following the business hostesses, Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. Jeanie Putnam, served refreshments to Mrs. Lord, Mrs. L. S. Marks, Mrs. R. F. Greenaway, Mrs. McCrum, Mrs. T. E. Wilson, Mrs. C. C. Priest, Mrs. R. M. Mason, Mrs. R. L. Shubert, Mrs. Elizabeth Beyer, Mrs. M. E. Moye, Mrs. Edna Hamilton, Mrs. Mabel Bland, Mrs. A. D. Shook, Mrs. J. F. Fosse, Goodwin, Mrs. J. Committee Asserts School Should Quit Football Or Field Proper Organization

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 25, (AP)—A committee of students and alumni today told the University of Pittsburgh to get out of big-time football or get a team that can play it.

The recommendation came in a 11-page report submitted to Chancellor Rufus H. Fitzgerald. He will lay it before the University board of trustees on Friday.

The report also suggested that the University fire Athletic Director James Hagan, who was blamed for many of the school's ills. It recommended that head football coach M. K. Milligan be given another chance next season to see if he can make good. His team won one and lost eight games last fall.

The committee, composed of three alumni and three students, worked nearly four months on the report.

At secret conferences, the group interviewed everyone associated with athletics at the University. I talked to faculty members, alumni, football players and public officials. It went out of town to question high school coaches, many of them Pitt graduates.

It came up with this answer: When Pitt "de-emphasized" its athletic program nearly 10 years ago it forgot to "de-emphasize" its football and basketball schedules. The committee called the

FSU Stopped Hatters In Spree To Cop Tiff

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 25, (AP)—The FSU Seminoles had to stop a late scoring flurry here last night to whip the Stetson University basketball team, 41-38.

Leading 24-11 at the half, the Seminoles dominated until the closing minutes when the Hatters reduced the victory lead to 40-38 with one minute to go.

Bill Kratzert, FSU forward, made 13 points of the Seminoles total while George Everett, Hatter center, scored 10 of Stetson's points.

The ill-fated grid schedule of 1947 "the toughest in the school's history."

The committee said the University's first problem was to "decide on a definite policy with respect to the type of schedule it desires to maintain."

If it elects to meet major opponents, it said the report, it must provide the organization, facilities and proper inducements, within the bounds of propriety and a realistic approach, to attract athletes of promise to the University.

If the University should decide that it wishes to deflate its intercollegiate athletic competition by not making any particular attempt to attract to the University high school students of athletic attainment, the University's schedule should be deflated accordingly.

George Barr, dean of the George Barr Empire School, is shown discussing with his staff of instructors the qualifications of students who have been signed to contracts by 14 professional baseball leagues across the country. Barr, a National League umpire, is telling Forrest (Frosty) Peters, former University of Illinois football star and American Association umpire, that one of the students has the ability to go places in the umpiring profession. The picture was taken prior to Barr's announcement on Friday that 44 of his students were signed to umpire. Those shown in the photo include Frank Taccetta, International League; L. V. McLaughlin, Jr., Southern representative; Peter, Johnny Ruskin, Florida International League; Barr, Bill Brock, Georgia-Atlanta League; Ward Mohs, umpire in chief of the K.O.M. League and E. C. Terry of the Georgia-Atlanta circuit.

Sports Roundup By HUGH FULLETON, Jr.

MIAMI Feb. 25 (AP)—The fight mob is here for tonight's Willie Pep-Humberto Sierra match, but the fighter who really has the managers drooling is a college boy. . . . He's Arthur Sney who does his punching for the University of Miami and never has been beaten in two years of college boxing. Sney, a tall, handsome 23-year-old heavy-weight who reminds the fans of Max Baer without the clowning, won the national collegiate title as a freshman last year and has knocked four of his five opponents in a week roller to the field. . . . Puffing back to the bench after galloping toward first, Freddie remarked: "I've been playin' ball for 25 years and they always keep throwing these things at me. The word sure gets around, doesn't it?"

One-Minute Sports Page Willie Pep, one of the busiest boxing champions on the list, apparently isn't going to run out of opposition soon. . . . Just yesterday manager Lou Viscusi received a wire from Father Catter of the Los Angeles Catholic Youth Organization making a date to discuss a possible title bout against Carlos Chavez with the C.Y.O. confiding. . . . Viscusi previously had a $25,000 offer for a Los Angeles fight. . . . Elmer (Violent) Ray, who has been on the receiving end often enough that he ought to know a good fighter when he sees one, just shook his head while watching Sweden's Ole Tandberg work out yesterday and mumbled something about an "amateur."

Sun-worshiper Joe DiMaggio, who spent most of his week-end here moaning because he didn't have this good hot weather when he took a Florida vacation last month, tried his throwing arm Sunday for the first time since he had some bone chips removed last November. Joe reported it felt fine, but he didn't have to throw hard.

Send in Your Shoes Eddie Houck, former Miami U. boxer and football player and son of Leo, Penn State's boxing coach, will confine his punching to a typewriter hereafter. Eddie recently took a job on the sports desk of the Harrisburg, Pa., Patriot. . . . Mrs. Roma Scott, who'll travel all the way from Anchorage, Alaska, to Dallas, Texas, to bowl in the Women's International Bowling Congress Tournament in April, will be 82 years old by tournament time. She reports her bowling didn't begin to slump until she was 70 and then her average dropped from 160 to 135. Who said the fountain of youth was in this state?

State Two-Ball Open Tournament Opened In Orlando Today

ORLANDO, Feb. 25, (AP)—Margaret Lindsey of Decatur, Ill., and Walter Senna of Rock Springs, N. J., were regarded as the darkhorses team in the Florida State Mixed Two-Ball Open Golf Tournament today as first round matches began.

The Lindsey-Senna duo turned in a par equaling 71 in the qualifying round yesterday over Dubsdrad's windswept course to upset pre-tournament ratings.

Miss Lindsey, Illinois State Champion in 1947, was recent winner with Pat Devany of Groesbe, Mich., in the Hollywood four ball meet.

Runners-up place went to Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Bush, playing from Wilmington, Del., with a 72.

Gun Expert Gave Shoot Exhibition At Park Today

Herb Parsons, ex G.I. gave a spectacular shooting exhibition at Ft. Mellon Park this afternoon under the sponsorship of the Seminole County Sportsmen's Association.

Parsons, an internationally known marksman now on a coast to coast tour, addressed safety in handling of firearms throughout his program.

Some of his feats included throwing a 2 1/2" block of wood into the air and splintering the pieces. He also displayed shooting a rifle with the use of a mirror and fired two rifles, one pointed behind him, using a mirror to find the target and the other in front of him, fired in the conventional manner.

He explained the tricks of marksmanship he displayed, saying that they are primarily due to long hours of practice. "Any person with average eyesight and patience can learn to be a very accurate marksman," he stated.

At the end of the shoot he answered many questions about marksmanship for those gathered at the exhibition.

4-H Dairy Club Uses New Show Building

ORLANDO, Feb. 25, (Special)—The new dairy show building at the Central Florida Exposition in Orlando is headquarters this week for Florida's first statewide 4-H Club Dairy Cattle competition.

More than 2500 4-H Club members in the state have a like number or more head of cattle in their projects, and between 75 and 80 of the best specimens in the state are entered in the State Competition at Orlando this week.

The 4-H Club Dairy Cattle Show is an added attraction this year to the 4-H Club State Poultry Show which has conducted its competition for several years at the Central Florida Exposition.

Florida's 18,000 4-H Poultry Club members, both boys and girls, have over 121,000 birds in their projects for 1947-48 and the best specimens from these flocks are entered in the state show at the Exposition. There are more than a thousand birds entered, including all the popular breeds grown in Florida.

The Egg Show boasts 155 dozen of large and extra large brown and white eggs. E. W. Hagedorn, poultry specialist with the State Marketing Bureau will judge the eggs on Saturday for uniformity of size, shape and color, cleanliness, shell texture and interior quality.

Pep Knocked Sierra Out In Miami Fight

MIAMI, Feb. 25, (AP)—Cuban Humberto Sierra's effort to lift the World Featherweight Championship from Willie Pep was just water over the dam today.

Pep, probably the busiest and the best little man in the boxing business, retained his title in the Orange Bowl last night when he knocked out Sierra in 22 seconds of the tenth round.

And the rain, pouring down on 10,000 spectators in the open air stadium, probably will be remembered longer than the fight.

It was too late to call things off and the rains continued right through the championship bout, reaching a mist climax just as Pep finally found the range with a series of devastating wallops that left Sierra flat on the canvas while referee Jack Dempsey dispensed with the formality of a count.

IRWIN DIES NEW YORK, Feb. 25 (AP)—Will Irwin, 74, author of some 20 volumes of fiction and non-fiction, magazine editor and World War I correspondent, died yesterday.

Hockey Official Is In Detroit To Air Gambling Scandal

DETROIT, Feb. 25, (AP)—Branding as "ridiculous" reports of a possible hockey betting scandal, but nevertheless determined to investigate any infraction of National League rules, President Clarence Campbell was here today for a conference with Detroit Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy.

Toy issued a statement yesterday associating two professional players with an ex-criminel in the reported bet. He did not name the rinkmen, but said one was a member of the Boston Bruins and the other played with the New York Rangers.

He said reports were of supposed telephone conversations regarding bets on league games between the players and James Tamer, 36-year-old convicted bank robber who recently was returned to prison as a parole violator. Tamer is suspected of heading a Detroit gambling ring.

The Commissioner pointed out that his information "does not sustain any criminal case" and was not of "sufficient strength to base an accusation."

Venezuela Deemed As Good Business Friends of The U.S.

JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 25 (AP)—Venezuela was pictured here yesterday as a good friend of the United States.

Thomas J. Maloney, first secretary of the American embassy at Caracas, drew the picture at a conference at the Commerce Department offices in the interest of improved industrial exchange between the two countries.

He said the needs of Venezuela are varied since the chief pursuit of its people was agriculture. But, he added, 45,000 of a 4,000,000 population were employed in the oil industry which plays an important part in the economy of the country.

"Judged by the value of exports, oil contributes about 90 percent toward government revenues," he said. "It furnishes sufficient foreign exchange to enable the country to pay for the goods it needs, including food, cotton, rayon and woolen yarns, equipment for their fabrication and other machinery, automotive vehicles and chemicals.

"America has long been the principal supplier for Venezuelan needs, and during war years we sent into the country as much as 94 percent of its total imports. Oil should be expected to be produced at the rate of 1,250,000 barrels about one-fourth States, if drilling costs and other expenses can be limited so that it can compete on the petroleum market with other oil expected to reach the international market shortly."

Earl Long

means of a trash can placed under the window, and the thief entered and walked across the bed of Mr. Long's son, who was out for the evening. The tiled handbags were found on the window ledge, according to Sheriff office soon himself. The new Long regime, Earl indicated to the press, will seek to outdo the previous one in action but probably not in showmanship.

"We'll improve on everything Huey did," Earl declared, sitting in his home with a few friends receiving election returns.

"The roads he built were good roads for their day—but now our roads must carry five times the traffic."

His "number one project," he said, will be raising old-age pensions to $50 a month.

"The way those old people pulled at me and looked at me during the campaign," he recalled. "The way they asked me, 'Can we count on those $50 checks, sure?'" "I'd hate to die without having made good on my promise to those people."

Huey pursued his spectacular career to the slogan of "Share the wealth" and "Every man a king." Earl said his slogan would be something "quieter" — "service to the people."

He explained his comeback, after being beaten for governor in 1940 and lieutenant governor in 1944, this way: "I think maybe the Lord decided I could make a better governor at 62 than at 44."

Yesterday was Earl Long's only statewide victory except for election as lieutenant governor in 1936, the year after Huey's death. He became governor in 1939 when Richard W. Leche resigned. He was governor about 11 months.

The new governor will have a new house of representatives to work with and perhaps a new senate. More than half of the 100 house seats and at least 17 of the 30 senate places went to newcomers.

P. A. Meru, who was first called to the scene of the robbery.

The next morning, shortly before 9:00 o'clock, Irwin came to the H and A Department Store, according to Ben Katz, manager, and began to look at trousers, sweaters, shoes, etc., and flashed a lot of money. David Levy, who had been at the home of his brother, Sam, the night before, remarked to Mr. Katz after the negro had left, that the place had been robbed and pointed out Irwin as a possible suspect.

At about 1:00 o'clock, while Patrolman Patterson was at the store questioning Mr. Katz about the moneyed negro, Irwin walked in order to get the old clothes he had left when he donned his new attire. Patrolman Patterson then arrested him for questioning, according to Chief Williams.

Irwin was put into the police car by Patterson and attempted to escape from the car on First Street, but was seized by former Patrolman H. M. Young before he could get far.

Articles found on the negro were identified as having been stolen from guests at the party, said Sheriff Meru this morning. A complete investigation is being made of the case by Assistant State Attorney George A. DeCouttes, Chief Williams asserted.

COLUMBUS, Ga., Feb. 25, (AP)—The Enquirer failed to make its appearance for the third straight morning today as its pressmen ignored a second demand from their national union chairman that they return to work.

Twice ordered by International President George L. Berry to report for duty, the pressmen have refused to cross the picket line of striking printers.

The Enquirer has been published since Monday.

She telephoned the information to Deane. On Saturday Miss Turner entered the press wire office in Frankfurt and asked for Foust's copy. The girl employed there gave to her. She dictated it to Deane in Nuerberg. The rebuttal by Taylor then was prepared.

Miss Turner said this version was correct. She denied a report that she represented herself as Foust's secretary to obtain the copy.

Taylor said he had been informed that the story would be published Saturday morning.

Asked if he believed it is legal to intercept newspaper copy, Taylor said he did not think he should comment. However, he intimated that what would be illegal in the United States might not be in occupied Germany.

The difference here, the general said, is that the stories are filed over Army signals rather than commercial private circuits. His public relations office keeps a record of everything sent out over the Army signal channels.

"I take full responsibility for what my employees did," Taylor said. "Judge Wendenburg has a statement designed for publicity. He made charges against the prosecution. I merely answered them."

Deane said he instructed Miss Turner in Frankfurt to "keep her eyes and ears open." She said her action was taken "as an individual."

signed last week in a deepening crisis and two Social Democrats who declined to go along today with the left wing.

The new cabinet retained Jan Masaryk, non-party man and son of Thomas Masaryk, the nation's first president, as foreign minister. Masaryk has preached cooperation with the west. But his retention was viewed here largely as an attitude Communist move trading on the name of the beloved father of his country.

The new cabinet includes 11 other Communists besides Gottwald, two National Socialists, two Catholic People's Party members and one Slovak Democrat, all of these friendly to the Communist program. Thus the opposition in the minor parties is not actually represented.

The Social Democrats in the cabinet represent the party which has been a key to the current crisis. It swung back to the support of the Communists this week after several months of estrangement, and with the switch, Zdenek Fierlinger, a pro-Communist who was deposed as party chairman last year, becomes minister of industry in the new cabinet.

Long before the official announcement from Hradecny, the presidential palace, the government radio announced that the President had capitulated to Communist demands. This announcement gave the impression that the last obstacle to Communist control of the nation had been swept aside.

Some 50,000 persons clogged the business section of the city for a Communist demonstration at the announcement came—in time to call off a general strike threatened by the Communists.

Gottwald himself made the announcement.

"The decision was not easy," the Premier said in an address over a loudspeaker system, "but in the end he (Benes) accepted the will of the people."

The crowd interrupted with cries of "Long live Benes! Long live Gottwald!"

The Premier went on: "We must be grateful to President Benes that he decided for the will of the people in something that was not in complete accordance with his own wishes. "Reaction, which planned an attack on the new Czech Democracy, has been eaten. Go back to work and let us complete our tasks on the two-year plan."

Besides the lumber yard, a chemical company, cleaning plant and photography shop on Santa Monica Boulevard and a saah and door plant, electric concern and salvage company in Lexington Avenue were burned. Numerous other establishments were endangered.

Anti-Lynch Bill

However, no payment would be due if there was no negligence by peace officers in efforts to protect the victim.

The bill was introduced by Rep. Case (R-NJ).

The vote by which the bill was approved was not announced officially. Members reported privately it was three to two. Rep. Cravens (D-Ark.), a committee member, said he voted against it.

Other members of the subcommittee are Representatives Cason (R-NJ), Fellows (R-Maine), Devitt (R-Minn), Byrne (D-NY), and Feighan (D-Ohio). One of them presumably refrained from voting.

The full Judiciary Committee may consider the legislation at its next meeting, tentatively scheduled for tomorrow.

The legislation defines lynching as:

"An organized effort not only to punish the persons lynched but also to terrorize the groups, in the community or elsewhere, of which the persons lynched are members by reason of their race, color, language, or religion, and thus to deny to all members of such groups, and to prevent them from exercising the rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution and laws of the United States."

Meanwhile 74 House Democrats have signed the Southerners' pledge to "oppose to the finish" President Truman's program for anti-lynching, anti-poll tax and anti-segregation laws.

The count in this mobilization for war against his "civil rights" measure was disclosed today as some Dixie party rebels talked of broadening their campaign. These want not only to beat Mr. Truman's program but to keep him from getting the Democratic presidential nomination.

The Southerners' pledge is the one some 60 House Democrats drew up at a meeting last Friday. All who were there signed it, but no names were made public because they wanted to wait and let other Southerners have a chance to add their names.

Among other things, the signers promised to cooperate with Southern governors who are battling the Truman program. A committee of governors saw Democratic Chairman J. Howard P. Griffin and his associates, the President's recommendations withdrawn from Congress, McGrath said.

Wheat Straw Pulp May Be Supplement Newsprint Source

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—It may not be long before you are waiting those love notes on wheat straw.

The Agriculture Department said today its technicians have developed what promises to be an economical and practical way to convert straw into fine papers. Earlier processes have been too costly.

Most paper now is made from wood.

If put to use, the new method could make use of the more than 95,000,000 tons of wheat straw that is burned and wasted yearly.

That much straw would make about 20,000,000 tons of cellulose pulp, the raw material from which paper is made. The department said that would meet the country's annual needs.

There still is one hitch. A method must be found to clean the straw when it is collected from fields. Farm machinery manufacturers are working on this problem at the department's regional laboratory at Peoria, Ill.

The department said straw pulp should find its "logical" use as a blend with wood pulp to produce magazine, book, writing, litho, offset, and several kinds of specialty papers.

"The process is now ready for mill-scale trials," the department said. It added that successful use of straw should help relieve current paper shortages and ease the price situation. A number of domestic paper companies were said to be interested in the new process.

relations and world peace. Mrs. Mattinger stressed the importance of the nursing books and told of receiving letters from friends who are nursing in Japan and Greece who wrote of the crying need for nurses in these and other foreign countries.

Mrs. W. E. Hollyhead, Milk Bank chairman, reported that only $24 is left in the fund for milk which is furnished to needy families throughout Seminole County, both white and colored. It was announced that several other civic organizations and church groups are contributing to this fund. Anyone desiring to contribute is asked to contact Mrs. Hollyhead.

Mrs. Mary Rawlins, finance chairman, announced that a total of $904.11 had been realized from the sale of Christmas cards and she announced that another rummage sale will be held in the near future for the purpose of raising funds for worthwhile projects.

Mrs. Rawlins, Mrs. Lourine Beal and Mrs. Al Hunt were appointed as a nominating committee for officers in district four of the International. A nominating committee for the local officers was also appointed, including Mrs. Rawlins, Mrs. R. C. Maxwell and Mrs. M. B. Smith.

Miss Rebecca Stevens appeared before the group in district four for officers in district four, sponsored by Mrs. H. C. Chapman. A free will offering was taken for the "True Course Ever" fund, a loan fund maintained by International for Pilot Club members.

In the event the Democratic National Convention adopted a platform embodying the President's Civil Rights Program, McCortey said the presidential electors could cast their votes for some outstanding Democrat of the type of Senator Byrd of Virginia or Senator George of Georgia.

Such a plan, McCortey said, would follow the strategy outlined by Senator Eastland of Mississippi. This strategy calls for the South to withhold its electoral votes from the Democratic Party nominee and throw the election into the House of Representatives.

threat of "collapse and Communism" in Europe.

And Ernest T. Weir, chairman of the National Steel Corp., added that a depression is sure to come if vast sums "wasted through inefficient spending abroad" are heaped atop the "fantastic cost of government at home."

Weir made it clear he does not oppose any aid to Europe. But he said he could not subscribe to the position that anything less than precisely $6,800,000,000 between now and July, 1949, would be money "poured down a rat-hole."

The Senate was ready to discuss a motion by Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) to reconsider a resolution giving the Senate expenditures an additional $125,000 to finance general investigations.

Meanwhile there were these other developments at the capitol:

Rep. Bender (R-Ohio), chairman of a House Subcommittee studying war contracts, announced plans for a full investigation after the general accounting of "unprecedented" fraud in settlement of war contracts.

Bender said that "millions of dollars of the taxpayers' money has been wasted and literally given to war contractors."

Rep. Shafer (R-Mich.) proposed free insurance for all members of the armed services and all war veterans. He said he thought the government would save money giving the insurance rather than paying for collecting the premiums.

Stock Market

NEW YORK, Feb. 25, (AP)—Favored industrial stocks sparked a moderate rally in today's market.

Some of the oils were sharply higher. Railroad stocks, steel and rubbers provided early leadership, although morning gains were not fully maintained in many instances. Volume of dealings expanded somewhat over the previous session, totaling around 10,000,000 shares.

Prevalent advances were in a range of fractions to a point or more.

Rails benefited from additional favorable earnings and dividend news. While support for many issues was provided by short covering and professional bidding for quick-turn profit in a technical rally, commission houses said customers stood aside because of uncertainty over tax revision and business prospects.

Cattle bonds were steady. Commodity markets mixed. At Chicago wheat finished up 1/4 to 3/4 cents a bushel, corn 1/4 to 3/4 higher and oats down 1/4 to 3/4. Cotton near the finish was 55 cents to $1.05 a bale lower.

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

NEW YORK, Feb. 25, (AP)—Stocks—Higher; Industrials lead slowly rally.

Bonds—Steady; selected rails improve.

Corn—Irregular; mill buying, profit taking.

Chicago: Wheat—Firm; cash house buying.

Corn—Firm; good demand cash grain.

Cattle—Mixed; deferred contracts eased.

Hogs—75 cents to $1.00 higher; practical top $23.75.

Cattle—Unevenly 50 cents lower to 25 cents higher; top $35.00.

South's Democrats Put Off Action On Anti-Lynching Bill

Approval Of Full Judiciary Committee
Virtually Certain,
But Delayed Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 (AP)—Senator Lloyd (D-Va.) told the Senate today he endorses "without reservation" Governor William M. Tuck's proposals to change Virginia's election laws. Tuck asked the Virginia general assembly today to change the law so that President Truman's name would be barred from the next presidential election ballot. Virginians would simply choose electors who could cast the state's electoral vote for anyone they pleased.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 (AP)—Southern Democrats, aided by a rule technically blocking House Judiciary Committee action today on anti-lynching legislation. But they still faced prospective defeat in the committee tomorrow on this issue, which is backed by both President Truman and the Republican majority.

The bill, which would let the federal government step in and prosecute anyone who takes part in a lynching, was approved yesterday 3 to 2 by a Judiciary subcommittee. It was scheduled to get action today by the full subcommittee, with approval virtually certain.

But the committee was still deliberating when the House met at 11 A. M. Southern members cited a rule against committee sessions while the House is sitting. So Chairman Michener (R-Mich.) adjourned the committee meeting until tomorrow.

When the committee does get around to voting, approval of the measure appears certain. Republicans hold a 13-12 edge in the committee and only four of the Democrats are party rebels against Mr. Truman's program of "civil rights" legislation. The program also includes anti-segregation and anti-police law legislation.

Rep. Cox (D-Ga.), a leader in the Southern rebellion, told the House today the National Committee to Abolish the Poll Tax is "a Communist front organization," according to records of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Jax Judge Attacks Truman Civil Rights

JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 26 (AP)—Circuit Court Judge Miles W. Lewis from the bench told a venire of Jurymen today President Truman was willing to destroy southern civilization in order to get the negro vote in the North. The venire applauded when he said he did not intend to vote for Truman and asked the Jurymen to do likewise. He was in the act of dismissing the 20 Jurymen when he made his attack on Truman's civil rights program and anti-lynching bill.

"It is perfectly apparent to me," he said, "that Truman and his supporters are willing to destroy southern civilization in order to get the negro vote in the North. Since he takes that attitude, he is no longer worthy of our vote and support."

Judge Lewis said "I've tried to do my duty and I said long ago as a judge of this court that all persons, regardless of religion, race or creed, look alike to me."

"The time has come when the people of the South must stand together and preserve our institutions."

"I do not propose to vote for President Truman and I ask of you men to do likewise."

Trygve Lie Sees Palestine Chaos When British Quit

Quick Action by UN
Only Alternative,
UN Leader Insists

LAKE SUCCESS, Feb. 26 (AP)—The Little Assembly recommended today that the United Nations proceed with nationwide elections in Korea in defiance of a Soviet boycott. The vote was 31 to 2.

LAKE SUCCESS, Feb. 26 (AP)—Trygve Lie, secretary-general of the United Nations, said today Palestine will be chaos when the British withdraw unless the U. N. acts quickly.

Lie told his weekly news conference the U. N. becomes fully responsible for Palestine the moment the British leave. The British have said they will give up their Palestine mandate May 15 and withdraw completely by Aug. 1.

Lie refrained from commenting on the Palestine declaration of the United States before the Security Council Tuesday or its implications.

He also declined to say whether the U. N. has legal authority to enforce decisions of the General Assembly such as partitioning of Palestine.

Asked what the effect would be on the U. N. if the 1947 Assembly's partition project is not enforced, Lie said:

"If nothing happens, just chaos will be the result in Palestine. He added that failure of the U. N. to carry out partition would reduce the prestige of the U. N. and lead to a general loss of confidence in its ability to settle world problems."

Lie spoke as the Security Council delegates took a breather after several days of Palestine problem. At several points during questioning by reporters, Lie called on top aides to help with answers.

The views were expressed:

1. Arkady A. Sobolev of Russia, assistant secretary-general in charge of political and security affairs, said the Security Council is free to accept or not to accept the recommendations of the General Assembly. He added, however, that "responsibility is another thing."

2. Dr. Ivan Kerno of Czechoslovakia, assistant secretary-general in charge of legal affairs, was asked whether the Security Council, in handling a threat to peace, has a right to act.

As Austin Revealed U. S. Stand On Palestine Issue

That the United Nations Security Council's action in the Palestine crisis should be "directed toward keeping the peace and not enforcing partition" was the crux of the address made at Lake Success, N. Y., by Warren Austin, the U. S. spokesman. Austin said the U. S. proposes that the big five powers consult among themselves to determine whether a peace threat exists before intervening with an international force in the Holy Land troubles. At left, Keston's, Austin from myro listens intently, since the Soviet had joined with the U. S. in originally agreeing on the partition. In center is British Colonial Secretary Cerech-Jones, who said Britain's stand was unchanged. In rear, to his right, is Sir Alexander Cadogan.

12,000 Educators Are Asked To Approve Military Training Bill

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Feb. 26 (AP)—Some 12,000 educators were asked today to approve a resolution calling for military training which will "provide a minimum of interference in the normal educational and vocational life of the youth involved."

The resolution is one of 21 policy statements submitted for a vote by the annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators.

Earlier this week the American Council on Education announced in Washington, D. C., it was opposed to universal military training. The council said three of every four teachers in the country also are against such training.

"We reaffirm our belief that adequate preparation in necessary for national security," the AASA resolution said.

Included in the other resolutions were these:

"We wish to see greater emphasis on efforts by UNESCO to remove ignorance, fear and hatred by a more concerted attack at their sources—the individual and mind."

"We urge that the United States government provide an adequate staff (for educational programs in occupied countries) and that the public schools and other educational institutions be encouraged to grant leaves of absence to educators who are needed for this essential work."

"The advent of atomic energy makes it imperative that education be directed toward the peaceful use of atomic energy."

U. S. Gold Holdings
Make Sharp Increase

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 (AP)—Gold holdings of the government went above $23,000,000,000 today. This is a record high for any nation in history.

The United States now owns over three-fifths of the world's known supply of monetary gold. And it is steadily increasing its holdings.

Today's total of $23,028,263,000 worth of gold (at a value of $35 an ounce) is $2,039,000,000 more than the government had a year ago.

Most of the gold now coming in is shipped by other countries to pay for American products. They do not sell enough of their own goods in this country to get the dollars they need to pay for purchases here. So they make up the difference with gold.

In 1947 that difference was $8,730,300,000.

Taft Says Labor Act
Is Reducing Strikes

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said today strikes have been fewer under the Taft-Hartley Act—but there may be trouble ahead.

The reason, he explained, is that the new law doesn't forbid walkouts for better wages and hours. And many union contracts expire in the next six months. Taft reviewed the law's operations in an article in Collier's magazine.

He said it is working satisfactorily, that it is preventing secondary strikes which "imposed unjust hardships on innocent third parties" and that it has already enabled unions to get rid of Communist officers "in a few cases."

Murderer Sought In 13 State Alarm For Knot Slaying

Victim Dies From Device
That Chokes
As He Struggles

NEW YORK, Feb. 26 (AP)—A 13-state alarm was broadcast today for a suspect in the strange and baffling Chinese torture knot slaying of a former Navy officer in a mid-Manhattan hotel.

The victim, Haver Hachele, a civilian employee of the Navy's photographic division, was found strangled in his rented hotel room early yesterday.

Clad only in shorts, the victim's hands were tied by strips of bed clothing which were also fastened to his throat. The tenuous device was arranged to choke Hachele to death as he struggled to free himself. Detectives said the method used to kill Hachele is one that has been employed for centuries by the Chinese to torture victims to death.

A maid discovered his body. Police said a man was seen entering the victim's room shortly before 11 P. M. Tuesday. They gave this composite description of the suspected slayer:

Between 25 and 27 years old, five feet eight or nine, weight 140 to 150, dark-haired, wearing a red and black striped, wooden (Continued on Page Eight)

Director Appeals For Youth Leaders At Jaycee Meeting

Admiral C. William James, youth work director for the Salvation Army in three southern states, voiced pleas for youth leadership at the noon luncheon of the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Mayfair Inn today.

"Let's not break the dream of our youth," he said. "Let them tell the truth about things which will confront them. They need most of all adults who are exemplary," he stated.

"If our young people can be allowed to fight on the battlefields of the county, they should be able to know the truth about life," he asserted.

"It has been said that we do not know how to handle our youth. They do not need to be handled. They need to be helped. We should begin to conserve our youth, and see beyond their present doings. Let's not break the dreams of the young people. Try to keep them real," he declared.

President Bradley Odham told the group of the Youth Government program being conducted in the schools of the county. He asserted that there are 90 students qualified for county offices and some have presented campaigns over radio station WTRR, so that "voters" in all schools in the county can make their selection.

President Odham retired from the meeting to go to WTRR to assist with another student's speaking campaign and turned the meeting over to Vice President E. E. Tucker.

Captain Byrd Hudson was in charge of today's program.

It bears the inscription "Famous Phillips sax and orchestra." The vehicle has a Florida license, also a 1948 Maryland license.

Senate To Debate ERP Figure Mar. 1

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 (AP)—The Senate will begin debate on Monday on the $3,000,000,000 European Recovery Plan, with Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) as the leadoff man. Vandenberg, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, announced the arrangements today after the committee turned over the aid measure to the Senate. He said by the committee's spending $3,000,000,000 in the 12 months starting April 1 to help 16 Western European nations, Chairman Eaton (R-N.J.) of the House Foreign Affairs committee, said, "mean time that he thought that figure was 'big and sound'." This is the first time that Eaton has expressed views on the amount of aid.

As They Did Nazis

BERLIN, Feb. 26 (AP)—A U. S. military government spokesman told the Germans tonight the Russians are suppressing freedom of expression in Germany with police methods.

"They have the same fear of truth and criticism which was displayed by the Nazi dictatorship," said I. P. Hendon, deputy director of the Military Government Information Control Division, in a radio broadcast.

He said the United States would continue to press for this freedom because "We came to Germany to destroy a police state—not to participate in the creation of a new Gestapo."

Hendon referred specifically to the recent Russian seizure of American produced printed matter sent into the Soviet zone. The seizures violated the four-power agreement for the free distribution of information in all zones of Germany.

The pamphlets were German reprints of James I. Byrnes' book, "The Road to Berlin," (Continued on Page Eight)

Figures released by the State Improvement Commission today show that projects costing $10,000,000 in state funds have been substantially completed and are now in use.

Contracts have been awarded for an additional $13,500,000 worth of work and plans are to let contracts totaling $4,500,000 by July 1.

In addition, construction of a $1,250,000 industrial commission building and a $1,250,000 State Road Department building is about 50 per cent completed. The industrial commission building is being financed with revenue certificates.

The 1947 legislature abolished the old flexible building fund, but approved $18,100,000 worth of work previously contracted for by the cabinet and set up two special priority construction appropriations.

The first priority list called for $8,202,000. Contracts have been awarded for approximately half of the work. None of the projects in the $9,500,000 second priority list can be started until funds have been released for all first priority projects.
