"No—Only the Idea Is Imported"

WOULDN'T you like to be able to answer your husband in this way—when he expresses his approval of your new outfit?

Wouldn't you like to tell him that you had obtained that elusive something called "Distinction in Dress" and that the cost was no greater than you had previously paid for ordinary garments?

If you would—let your next garment be a PRINTZESS.

There's a delicacy of line—and grace of style to a PRINTZESS that proves that PRINTZESS designs are close to foreign inspiration and also that they know how to create.

The materials are of true wool quality—tested and retested before they are judged worthy of bearing the PRINTZESS label—there's reason in such testing—in such extreme caution—for the PRINTZESS label is a guarantee that each garment must give you two seasons of satisfactory wear.

The curving lines of PRINTZESS fit are more accurate than the "custom-made fit" of your tailor—never a wrinkle at collar, shoulder, front and hips—and it's logical that they should be so, for PRINTZESS tailoring is the result of a perfected process—38 years of knowing how—that eliminates faulty work at these four proof points, where most garments fail.

PRINTZESS garments hold their shape. After months of wear they have the same dainty freshness that they possessed the day you purchased.

PRINTZESS Plio Canvas, the new shape-retaining fabric, is responsible for this—it's a new fabric, moist-proof—wear-proof—that is owned and controlled by the makers of PRINTZESS and can only be found in PRINTZESS garments.

It molds the wool materials of the garment to your figure—and holds them there. This shape-holding insurance costs you nothing extra.

The price of PRINTZESS garments represents unusual value; better materials than a custom tailor could afford to use; workmanship that never slights; fit that satisfies at the first try-on; and shapeliness without constant pressing expense and trouble.

Stenography 2,000 Years Ago.
It seems incredible, but it can be proved, already in the olden times there were stenographers who took down the speeches made in the Roman senate or in public. They were called notarii and we find a place in Suetonius where Augustus is angry because the stenographers reported the speech of Caesar for Metellus in a very imperfect manner.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

Joseph Pulitzer, proprietor of the New York World and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and one of the most commanding figures in modern journalism, died Sunday aboard his yacht, the Liberty, in Charleston harbor. The immediate cause of Mr. Pulitzer's death was heart failure. He had been in ill-health for several days, but until a few hours before the end, none of those around him had any suspicion of the gravity of his condition.

In other respects than mere numbers of ships and power of armament, the great naval review to be held at New York, Nov. 2, promises to eclipse any naval pageant ever held in this country. President Taft not only will sail through the four lines of ships at anchor in the Hudson river, but will watch the vast army pick up its anchors and get under way. He will then lead the long column down the bay and off Staten Island will stand aside on the Mayowen and again review the fleet as it passes out to sea.

The situation in Peking is becoming worse. A veritable panic prevails among the Manchus and the Manchus women are adopting Chinese dress. Some of them are attempting to make their feet appear small by peculiarly constructed shoes. Most of the trains leaving the capital are drawn by two engines, so heavily are they loaded, the people sitting on top of their household belongings. Officials are seeking asylum for their wives and children among the foreigners.

The governors of several southern states, with their commissioners of agriculture, met in New Orleans to frame a way to increase the price of cotton and find more economic means of placing the staple on the market and getting adequate statistics beneficial to the seller.

Representative Burleson of Texas, chairman of the Democratic caucus of the house and one of the party leaders in congress, wants the department of justice to proceed against the officers of the steel trust, not merely against the corporation. He believes that the department can have Judge Gary and Mr. Frick indicted in Washington for their part in the conspiracy to get President Roosevelt to practically sanction the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company by the steel corporation.

The Italian troops have for the past three days been systematically slaughtering the Arab tribesmen outside the city of Tripoli. The tribesmen are unable to resist the troops and are gradually being beaten back.

The most severe sentence ever inflicted in a "white slave" case in New York was imposed by Judge Warren W. Foster on Philip Solow yesterday in general sessions. Solow had been convicted by Assistant District Attorney Wasservogel of bringing Eloise Wendt from Pittsburg to this city for immoral purposes. His sentence was 24 years.

Monsignor Diomede Falconio, Apostolic delegate to the United States, and Archbishop O'Connell of Boston and Farley of New York, official notice of whose selection as additions to the college of cardinals was received yesterday, will probably sail for Rome not later than Nov. 10.

Marshall Glover, of Bridgeport, Ala. this morning shot a belled buzzard that has been seen in Tennessee and Alabama annually for several years. Around its neck was fastened a bell with inscription, "Genoa, Italy, 1874." It was a sleigh bell fastened by three copper wires, one of which was worn in two.

Hundreds of thousands of peach trees in Georgia are in full bloom, months in advance of the proper season. Owners of the orchards are very much cast down over the prospect of a failure of the crop next season as a result.

Goats' milk is a specific for the drink habit, according to Dr. Adelaide M. Abbott, superintendent of the health and heredity department of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Mrs. Wight To Make Address

Rev. Edwin A. Waldo, pastor of the Union Congregational church at West Palm Beach, has written Secretary Manning of the Florida Conference of Charities and Correction, that he will be unable to deliver an address when the convention meets in Jacksonville November 16-18. Dr. Waldo is in bad health, and his physician has absolutely prohibited the extra tax on his strength. He is not even certain whether he will be able to attend. "However," he writes "I hope to be, on hand at the second conference, wherever that is held, for I am deeply interested in the success of the movement."

Dr. Waldo was the founder of the charitable organization which took care of the thousands of human derelicts left after the close of the great Chicago world's fair. This is now the Uniated Charities of Chicago, and one of America's foremost charity organizations.

Mrs. Sdaie B. Wight, who heads the philanthropic committee of the state Federation of Woman's clubs has written from her home in Sanford that she will accept the invitation to speak to the conference. Her topic will be Social Service and The Woman's Club.

Mrs. Wight is one of the most prominent members of the federation, and has for a long time been active in promoting the good work it has undertaken. The fact that the conference is to be held is largely due to the influence of the ladies and their persistent efforts.—Times-Union.

CELERY IS DETHRONED

Former King of Sanford Section Gives Way to Others

CELERY DELTA GROWS ANYTHING

The Best Net Results Last Season Came From Several Other Crops Than Celery

"Any one can grow vegetables as they are grown in Florida. No experience is necessary." This brought about a lot of thought on the part of the writer for he knows that the production of vegetables and the sale of the product is one of the most scientific phases of soil production that could possibly be achieved. To bear out this point the operations of one our celery delta growers for the past season will be given, showing the net results taken from a five-acre farm during one producing season.

INCOME FROM SALE OF PRODUCTS
No.	Kind of product	Amount received
1,891	Lettuce	$2,532.53
939	Cauliflower	1,455.34
18	Oranges	19.06
885	Eggplant	511.98
31	Cabbage	32.58
702	Tomatoes	1,117.63
3	Beans	6.00
3	Beets	2.50
Total income		$5,677.52
Total packages, 4,652

COST OF PRODUCTION
Crates	Amount
Crates	$588.24
Labor	765.39
Fertilizers	607.42
Total expenses		$1,931.05
Net profits		$3,746.47
This is equal to a net profit of $749.30 per acre.

The packages shipped each month were as follows:

October	63
November	53
December	558
January	1,265
February	114
March	1,123
April	40
May	449
June	739
July	250
Total packages		4,652

The first shipment was made on the 3rd of October and the last shipment was made on the 14th of July. The shipping season covered a period of nine months and eleven days.

The products shipped each month were as follows:

October	Eggplant, cabbage, cauliflower and oranges.
November	Cauliflower and oranges.
December	Lettuce and oranges.
January	Cauliflower, lettuce and cabbage.
February	Cauliflower, lettuce and cabbage.
March	Cauliflower, cabbage, beets and lettuce.
April	Lettuce, cabbage and beets.
May	Tomatoes and eggplant.
June	Tomatoes, eggplant and beets.
July	Eggplant.

This last state shows that one must be experienced in the culture as well as having the knowledge of when to prepare the seed beds so as to have the products come on the market at a time when the market is rushed with a good demand. This point should alone show the grower that he will have to proceed very carefully in order to make a success of the various lines.

The shipments from this farm were sold to thirty-nine different firms or individuals, besides a considerable number of packages which were sold on the express platform and were entered on the account slips as cash sales. One must not only be a good grower of vegetables, but must also be a business man of considerable proportions in order to select the proper firms to whom he should ship his products in order to secure the best results, all of which makes it very plain that a man fresh from a book-keeper's job or from other indoor work should have rough sailing to bring about a balance in the right side of his ledger unless he had some good previous knowledge of the trucking business and even then he might go wrong, if he brought his Northern methods here and injected them into our subtropical way of making things grow.

It is an old saying in the celery delta that it requires three good years of work before the land is brought up to its maximum state of production and that it also takes three good hard years of labor in the field here to make a successful vegetable producer.

Sanford has the reputation of being the celery city and many persons are of the belief that nothing but celery is or can be grown here, while the very opposite is the actual condition. It will be seen that the $749.30 per acre net profit made by the gentleman just quoted has naught to do with celery. There are many growers here who do not delve into the mysteries of the celery business. The price of good seed this season is $12 per pound is none too much to the acre. The directions for propagating celery plants are as intricate as the management of a case of typhoid fever and it is not every one who cares to handle such dainty crops. Cauliflower seed sold for $54 per pound this season and that is also a crop that requires very great care and experience.

There are some owners who come here late in the fall, live in town and hire all their work done and make a complete failure by the first of April and are ready to go back home just as soon as they are advised that the last vestige of snow has disappeared. From the above statements it will be seen that one-third of the above farm were shipped after April 1, which further demonstrates that the grower of truck can have ample work to look after every month in the year; and the man who makes a success is usually not one who is an adept at bridge, but one who loves nature and is happiest when he is making the soil respond profitably to his caressing touches.

Quiet Home Marriage

Miss Sallie Lou Peabody and W. R. Griffith surprised their friends by being quietly married Sunday evening at the home of the brides mother Mrs. E. W. Peabody at six o'clock; in the presence of the family and a few friends. Rev. C. H. Summers performed the ceremony.

Mr. Griffith is well known in Sanford where he was a resident for some years and an employee of the Atlantic Coast Line. The many friends of the happy couple and the Herald extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Griffith and best wishes for a long and prosperous journey through life. The happy event became known soon after its occurrence, and quite a number of their acquaintances joined the family at the train to see them off on their trip to Sarasota, Fla., the grooms present home where he is engaged in the automobile business.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

R. L. Martin, the engineer at the big mill of the Rentz Lumber Co., at Fort McCoy, while oiling the machinery a few days ago was caught in the great belt and whirled around several times before the engine could be stopped. His clothing was stripped almost entirely from his body and he was badly shaken up and somewhat bruised, but, remarkable to state, was not seriously hurt.

Marvin M. Hibbard, assistant foreman at the Tampa Foundry and Machine Works and one of the best known machinists and mechanics in this city, was instantly killed Friday morning and his body horribly crushed and mangled as the heavy draw at the Lafayette street bridge in closing caught him underneath the heavy rollers passing over his body, nearly severing it.

Miss Elsie Young Douglas, a sister-in-law of former Governor Broward and his chief stenographer while governor, has been admitted to the bar by the State supreme court.

DeSoto counts is preparing for an election to determine the site for the new court house.

A farmer named Pylant, who lives near Fort Meade, planted an acre of sweet potatoes last October from which he dug 312 bushels, worth $1 a bushel. The cost of planting, fertilizing, etc., did not exceed 35c a bushel, leaving Mr. Pylant a net profit of about $200 per acre.

Col. T. J. L. Brown has announced his candidacy for Congressman at large from Florida and expects to conduct an active campaign for the position. First announcement of his intention was made in Tampa yesterday.

George E. Sebring, from the Ohio town which bears his name, one of the largest and wealthiest pottery manufacturers in the United States, has purchased 8,000 acres in the Avon Park district and will spend much money in beautifying the estate.

¶ I am in favor of a Great White Way for Sanford. Our city has never realized the importance of lighting up the streets at night and I suggest to the city council that three arches should be placed across First street, one at the railroad crossing one at the First National Bank corner and one at Palmetto avenue crossing.

These arches can either consist of incandescent lights or we could have illuminated descriptive signs. There is no doubt in the world but that many a man would get off the train in the evening and see Sanford because the place looked attractive as the train pulled in to the depot. If a city is alive it will be well lighted. If it is dead all the lights are out.

Take your choice!

¶ I see by the Orlando papers that the enterprising citizens of that town are organizing a country club and the thought occurs to me that Sanford could have the finest country club in the state. If the people would come across and give it the support. Either upon Lake Monroe, or the St. Johns or upon the numerous clear water lakes near here a beautiful site could be purchased and a fine game preserve established that would appeal not only to our own people but to the tourists who want to come to Sanford now if some inducements were offered. Golf, tennis, boating and dancing would while away many a pleasant hour and both ladies and gentlemen would have a playground and a place to forget the cares of life for a few hours each day. Sanford needs a country club and we ought to get together and organize one.

¶ The reunion of veterans at Orlando last week brought to mind again the dearth of organizations of the kind in Sanford.

Where is the General Finnegan Camp of Confederate Veterans? Now that the whole state is taking up the matter of the Olustee monument our city, the home of General Finnegan, is silent and there is not a camp of veterans or a chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy. There are plenty of daughters here to form a large chapter and how fine it would be if these same charming girls could congregate on Memorial day and pin the bouquets and Cross of Honor upon our breasts.

Alas! how soon are the deeds of that gallant army in gray forgotten!

It seemed to me that the children of the south could never forget the deeds of valor performed during the time the southern homes were being guarded by the men and even the women of the south.

The battle of Olustee was the tie that turned the northern hosts back from Florida and General Finnegan the commanding officer, a Sanford man, has lived in song and story over the Southland and yet we who were his neighbors are silent.

Rouse up, ye daughters, and form a chapter in Sanford and your very presence will inspire new life and hope into the old veterans.

¶ Some of my friends in the postoffice seem to think that I have neglected to say nice things about their postal savings bank. Now rightly of course the postoffice employees and Postmaster Haskins are greatly in love with their little bank and the government machinery which directs their movements but I for one fail to see where the Postal Bank is such a benefit to the city in which it is located. 'Tis true the people who formerly buried their money under an orange tree or kept it in an old stocking can now bring it forth and Uncle Sam gets the use of it. Very fine business for the man or woman or child who has no confidence in the local depository that pays more interest and makes a loan now and then for the benefit of home people. Any bank whether it is Postal Bank, National Bank or a private bank that is merely a depository is not making a greater city or advancing business interests. We look to the banks for the sinews of business and whenever the time comes in Florida that a man with good security can go to a bank and get plenty of money at four per cent to build houses, store rooms or enter business, our state will take a gigantic stride forward. There are more opportunities yet uncovered in Florida today for the lack of capital to develop than in any state in the Union.

This does not apply to Sanford alone but the whole state.

"High priced money is the reason given by L. W. Phillips for the hesitancy to begin the construction of high buildings in Tampa. Although a large number of proposed tall buildings have been given considerable publicity through the press, no dirt is thrown up on the sites chosen for them. The public generally is anxious to know the reason for the delay. Mr. Phillips is one of the largest dealers in building materials in the city and is conversant with the status of building operations. He says that if cheaper money were offered by local bankers, many citizens would immediately start work on tall buildings. But the banks are insisting on 8 per cent, a rate of interest that makes impossible the feasibility of the proposition."

So while I love Mr. Haskins dearly and his whole force of faithful employees, especially Miss Muller, I do not think the United States government is due any bouquets for staffing a postal savings bank. Sanford welcomes every new project of any kind that is apt to leave a few nickels here but I fail to see that the Postal bank will materially increase our business or help a poor fellow to build a new home on loan because your Uncle Samuel does not loan. Everything coming in, nothing going out.

Really Hard Luck.

Four men were sympathizing with each other at an uptown hotel, according to the New York Sun. They were employees pretty well up on the staff and two of them were assistant managers. They had indorsed checks for acquaintances that they supposed were all right, and, according to the rule, had to make good. "I'm worse stuck than any of you," said the chief engineer. "The check I got stuck on was for $114 and the man who signed it is in jail."

HUNTING SEASON OPENS

Fields Will be Full of Local Nimrods Tomorrow Morning

Tomorrow before the break of day the hunters will be astrid and with dog and gun will put in the hours of daylight in pursuit of quail, turkey and deer. There is probably no better place in the entire country that makes a better game preserve than both sides of the Celery Delta and the surrounding country. One can go for miles and miles into the wilderness, where the deer and turkey and bear can be found in their native haunts and the man with the gun can have all the sport he wants. Where you can get up a party and have a camp hunt for a week and intersperse hunting and fishing and under the grand old oaks and waving palmetoes pitch your tent and get back to Nature as nowhere else in the United States.

Tomorrow, then, the boys will take the field and for the benefit of those unfamiliar with the game law regarding the feathered tribe we publish the following: The law regarding the killing of turkey and quail in this state is as follows:

"No person or persons shall have in his, her or their possession, or shall hunt or kill any wild turkey, quail or partridge, in any part of this state, save only from the first day of November until the first day of March of any year. No person shall kill more than two wild turkeys or more than twenty quail, and no party of two or more persons shall kill more than four wild turkeys or more than forty quail in any one day and no person shall kill more than five wild turkeys in any one year, and no person or persons, firm, corporation, association or company shall sell, expose for sale, or have in his, her or their possession for sale in this state, any wild turkey, quail or partridge. Any person or persons, corporation, association or company violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereon be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars or more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding sixty days, or less than thirty days.

Tragic Dream Came True. To dream of being mangled by a locomotive and to have that dream come true shortly after he had related it to his companions was the experience of Wilmer Johnson, of Phoenixville, Pa. While off his engine it began to move, and the enactment of the dream came true, as he jumped for the running board, but missed it and fell under the wheels.

Hobgoblins will get you if you don't watch out.

Let us have more lights. Get busy on Sanford's Great White Way.

Politics will take a back seat this week while the candidates go hunting—for birds.

Who has a good site for a public building that can be sold at a reasonable figure. Don't all speak at once!

Halloween and the small boy will be busy tonight. Have all the fun you can, but don't get gay or Marshal Smith will get you.

All the bouquets tossed at the Twice-a-week Herald would make a large flower garden. Accompanied by the cash they would fill the vault of the bank.

Give the vagrants the run! There is plenty of work in Sanford for every one and the man or woman who is loafing should be forced to work or forced to leave.

Six applicants at The Herald office today looking for houses. Why don't you public spirited men put your money into the Building and Loan Association and help build more houses?

Officer, there's in again! Herbert Felkel and Sam Sanborn of the Pensacola News are talking about sweet potatoes as big as footballs and pumpkins as big as barrels.

Oh you Harvest Moon brand!

We note that old wheel horse, W. L. Thorndyke is Associate Editor of the Palm Beach County Times and is making the fur fly down that way. Thorn is one of the boys and has pushed the pencil in almost every state in the union.

John M. Williams has started a new one at Webster called the Sumter County News and for a new child the news is very good looking. Sumter county is gaining in population and should be able to support two papers [and we hope Bro. Williams will be successful in his new field.

NOT A CELERY CITY

Once upon a time a certain section of Florida gained a world wide reputation as a place to grow celery. Fortunes had been made and some had been lost in growing this succulent daisy for the market. But like all good things, there were imitators of the real article, and a promoter located a colony some distance away from the original Celery City and named his bunch of white sand after the original and claimed the same kind of land and accessories and by the fame of the Celery City he managed to bunco a number of ignorant people into believing that they had celery lands just as good as Sanford, the Celery City.

But granting that he did have celery land he could have accomplished so much more by side tracking the celery deal altogether and advertised general farming lands. The time was when Sanford talked celery, ate celery and lived celery, but that time is past and only a few growers now plant celery with the expectation of harvesting one crop and making a fortune.

Reading the article in today's Herald will astound any one not familiar with the change in Sanford from a celery city to a garden center of the world where every kind of vegetable and fruit can be grown with profit and as the article demonstrates at a profit of $750 per acre rotating crops and never touching celery, Sanford still lays claim to being the greatest celery center in the world but Sanford is also the spot where everything else in the vegetable kingdom can be grown.

Exit celery! Enter diversity!

BERT LEIGH

"The Man on the Box," Imperial Theatre Friday Nov. 3rd.

Bert Leigh in "The Man on the Box," will be the offering at the Imperial Theatre Friday, Nov. 3rd, coming to Sanford with the Original Production direct from New York and using the same scenic equipment that Henry E. Dixey did with all the costume, electric, and property effects that made this play famous in New York where it enjoyed a run of over two hundred nights at the old Madison Square Theatre and there was the talk of the country wherever it played. This production has been staged under the personal direction of Lionel Lawrence who produced it for his brother W. N. Lawrence and who heartily endorses this company as being nearest to the original that has been offered to the amusement loving public since Mr. Dixey left to play under the direction of Henry W. Savage. Every detail has been carried out and looked after and the cast is all that would be expected in the ensemble it equals if not rivalling in some cases the original. The Man on the Box will be the social event of the season, as many prominent society people have spoken for seats.

Mission Rally Day

At the Baptist church last Sunday a very interesting Mission Rally Day was observed. The decorations were much admired and the whole occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present.

Among those who took part by reading, reciting or singing we noted the following children and young people: Helen Shelton, Cora Lee Tillis, Margaret and Mildred Reasner, Margaret Davidson, Evelyn Biggers, Max Stewart, Lila Murrell, Mamie Kate Williams, Jean Maxwell, Peyton Fortson, Laura Belle Rollins and Julia Laing.

While the efforts of all were duly appreciated it is but just to say that the chorus by the young ladies of the H. H. Society, the duet by Margaret and Mildred Reasner and the solo by Margaret Davidson were especially enjoyed.

Prof. Perkins presided and the pastor, deferring his remarks, spoke at night, in an earnest way of the work of the Sunday school.

The Apple Dixie Of It

"I see be the papers they's trouble about all of them green froot oranges said Mr. Hennessy to his friend Dooley.

"They do be indeed," responded that person. "They's more than wan kind ave a green goods man working the country, but the come-on's are gettin' scarcer every day."

"They say," said Mr. Hennessy, "that all those tilligrams to the big bugs up north is going to hurt the Flordy froot-I dunno if this is so!"

"When," began the philosopher, "you prevat a man from invastin his good money into bad money, 'tis no sign he is goin' to throw down the reel goods whilnver he can get his thin. They'll be more pape looking for Florday froot this year thin iver before, because they wants to know moor about what they do be like. The good folks ov the north have about forgotten h-w a Florday orange taste. Californy has told them through the papers that they have the reel goods in oranges and bebad they made the pape believe."

"But they say that whin we hold back the Florday froot we run into the Californy sayson."

"Bedad, who gave the Californy pape the sayson, onyway? 'Tis my experience that that poor devil, the utoomate consoomer, will ate oranges whin they are swate in preference to oranges whin they ser not swate, and no man will claim that Californy oranges are swate in November and December."

"Well, Timple raised a big fuss anyhow," said Mr. Hennessy.

"'Tis," said Mr. Dooley, "As me frind Major Florida East Coast Railway Alexander St. Clair, Abrams would say, that's the hell of it. Why didn't he say so! He did in his illigent East Coast manner."

"Well," said Mr. Hennessy, "tis a fine word. What is the Major's rale to the froot business, onyway?"

"His rale," responded Mr. Dooley, "bedad, you have the right expression. His wife's cousin's uncle married into the Shly family, an' blood is thicker thin sour orange juice."—Florida Grower.

Stenography 2,000 Years Ago.

It seems incredible, but it can be proved, already in the olden times there were stenographers who took down the speeches made in the Roman senate or in public. They were called notarii and we find a place in Suetonius where Augustus is angry because the stenographers reported the speech of Caesar for Mettullus in a very imperfect manner.

The Odd Change.

Woman's Influence.

For a woman to be wise and at the same time womanly is to wield a tremendous influence which may be felt for good in the lives of generations to come.—David Starr Jordan.

Fashions in Bulgaria.

Bulgaria believes in fringes, and they are over all with the rare exceptions when the underskirt, always of the best of white linen, may be scalloped at the bottom and even then the fringe effect is used in the over tunic, for the gathering of the many threads suggests to the wearer the numbers of their nations, as is their peculiar red dyed reminder of their blood, and the flowers, and grains, and fruits, embroidered on their gowns represent their industry.

A SANFORD FARM

AT THIS SEASON OF YEAR

Is a Thing of Beauty and

SHOULD BE

A JOY FOREVER

A drive over the Sanford Trucking District this week would enthuse the crusty pessimist.

To see the money growing so rapidly ought to convince the most skeptical of the great value of a Sanford Farm.

Within 30 days our harvest will commence and the Dollars will roll into the pockets of the Sanford Farmers in one continuous stream for the next six Months.

During those same six months the Northern Farmer will be spending what little cash he was able to lay up from his strenuous summer [and all his time] in an effort to keep soul and body together until another spring shall bid him renew the program.

Come to Sanford and enjoy life to a fuller extent than you have ever thought possible in your wildest dreams. And the best of it all is that coupled with the finest, most enjoyable climate of the world is the ability to make more clean honest money than you ever expected to possess.

A Sanford Farm for an investment is a winner. It cost money to be sure. Farming is expensive at Sanford when figured by the acre, but from the standpoint of results, REAL PROFIT, it beats the world.

Let us show you. Tell us your needs. We will fit you out. We not only talk farming for the purpose of selling land but we take our own medicine—we farm and for profit. We are the largest farming concern in the Sanford District. We are able to talk from experience.

If a Sanford Farm is beyond your means let us show you our Volusia Farms. Splendid land, well located. Close to water and rail transportation. Price from $30.00 to $50.00 per acre on a liberal monthly payment contract. For the price as good as a Sanford Farm.

IT STANDS FOR PROGRESS AND PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS

Mr. Spencer has done no more hard labor than I have. I work as much each day as he does, with this difference, however, that while his time is devoted to his private much of mine is devoted to public affairs for the promotions of the city's interest. Mr. Spencer asserts his friendship for laboring men. He cannot and will not attempt to prove in public print that he is more their friend than I am.

Why does not Mr. Spencer reveal the nefarious schemes which he claims are being concocted to make you vote against your convictions.

It is his duty to expose these schemes and publicly denounce the promoters. Such traitors to good government deserve public exposure.

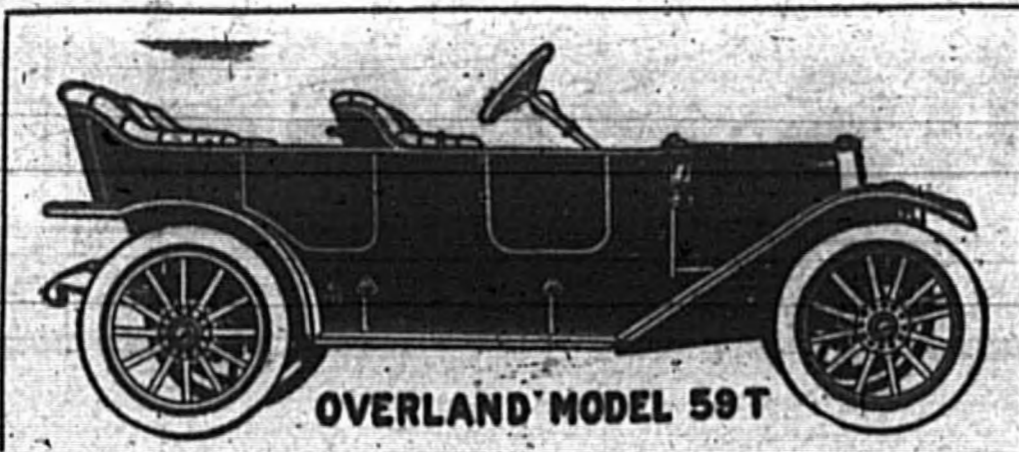

Talk is cheap and cheap talk is the cheapest thing on earth. Expose the scoundrels! Give us the proof.

Cough Cure.
 If you can stand the odor, a bad cough can often be cured by five drops of kerosene taken on a lump of sugar. If this sounds too horrible, the same effect is achieved by swallowing gasoline.

Orange Growers to Meet

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 17, 1911.

To the Citrus Growers of Florida:
 In view of the libelous course pursued by the Florida Citrus Exchange in stigmatizing Florida oranges when shipped at this time as poisonous, and in view of the injury that the industry is likely to suffer from the gross misrepresentations and misstatements that have been spread throughout the United States, a convention of citrus fruit growers is called to meet in Orlando, Florida, on Saturday, Nov. 4th, to consider the matter and present the true facts to the people of the United States, so that the false impressions created by the libelous publications referred to may be removed from the minds of consumers of citrus fruits.

Dr. Bruce

Dr. Jerome Bruce formerly of Newberry N. C., a practicing physician fifty years, eighteen of these in Sanford, died in Jacksonville after some months of ill health, Sept., 28th, 1911.

In the death of Dr. Bruce our city lost one of its best and noblest citizens. Though modest as a gentle woman, he was indeed a southern gentleman of the old school with distinguished men and characterized always by elegant courtesy to every one he met, even in the humbler walk of life. In the practice of his profession among us we were fortunate in enjoying the benefit of his long experience and unusual skill. Always ready to respond to the call of the poor, he "scattered seeds of kindness" and dispersed good deeds along his way, and now leaves a memory respected and beloved by all.

A devoted wife and several children mourn sadly in their great bereavement. Farewell Dr. Bruce, physician, friend, counsellor—farewell! We shall meet again in a "land that is fairer than day."

A FRIEND.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

It is announced with evident authority that the name of Gov. Simeon E. Baldwin of Connecticut would be presented to the national democratic convention for president. Recently it was stated that there was a movement on foot to have Governor Baldwin accept second place on the national ticket and when questioned on the matter Governor Baldwin said that he would regard it as honor to any man to be named as vice-president.

Edgar H. Farrar, Jr. son of the president of the American Bar association and one of the best known young men of New Orleans, was shot and killed Wednesday morning by two highwaymen, who held him up at the corner of Peniston and Magnolia streets. The highwaymen escaped.

An even hundred fighting ships, grouped for the first formal maneuvers and inspection by Secretary Meyer, swung at anchor in the Hudson river yesterday morning in a gray line seven miles long. The fleet as it stood included every battleship now in commission in the United States Navy, twenty-four in all, every one in fighting trim.

Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, Cambridge, was indicted on five counts charging murder in the first degree by the Suffolk county grand jury Tuesday for the alleged poisoning of Avis Linnell, of Hyannis, October 14. The grand jury reported their finding to Judge George A. Haughey in the Superior. Criminal Court after hearing more than thirty witnesses during four days.

Declaring that President Taft admits that there is danger of republican defeat at the national election of 1912, because he knows the entire country resents the failure of the republican party to reduce the Payne-Aldrich tariff schedules, Governor Foss says Senators Lodge and Crane of Massachusetts also know that the republican machine of the state of Massachusetts is doomed and they are therefore keeping out of the limelight.

Socialism showed remarkable strength in the municipal primary held in Los Angeles on Tuesday, as a result of which Job B. Harriman, the socialist candidate for mayor, will contest with Mayor W. George Alexander, who seeks re-election for the next two years, at the coming city election. Practically complete returns give Harriman 17,874, Alexander 13,483. Harriman got the great bulk of the labor vote.

A great poultry show is one of the big features planned for the Interstate fair, which opens soon at Pensacola.

"THE MAN ON THE BOX"

A Good Fuss Stopper, Maybe? At the Imperial Tonight

Mr. Bert Leigh the comedian, who is starring in "The Man on the Box," which will be the attraction at the Imperial Theatre tonight, tells a good one on himself, while enroute from his hotel to the theatre this afternoon he passed a man and woman in a heated discussion, thinking he might be the means of bringing about peace. He stopped and asked in his happy way, "what is the argument?" when he was given this reply by the man in question. "My wife here, thinks she isn't going to get a new fall hat, and I know very well she isn't, so there is no argument to it." Mr. Leigh says he is still thinking it over.

Stung With Bees

While a negro was driving a team of mules on the Howard-Packard place just east of the city a swarm of bees alighted on them and drove the mules nearly frantic with pain. The negro with his usual bravery took to his heels and Mr. Rice working in the same field came to the rescue and succeeded in unhitching the mules but not before he was stung badly. He was brought to town by Messrs. Sykes and Howard and placed under a physicians care where he is now recovering. The sudden descent of the swarm of the bees from a neighboring hive and without any apparent reason attacking the teams is something new in bee annals.

Safe Was Not Safe

While W. J. Hill was enjoying his prime rib roast at luncheon last Tuesday some light fingered gent who evidently understood the lay of the land walked into his private office, took down the key to the safe and quietly lifted all the money and a check contained therein.

Up to now the thief has not been apprehended but if Mr. Hill will leave the key in the same place and fill the safe again he will probably return and take another chance at it. Or if Uncle Bill does forget and locks the safe by mistake he might leave the money on his desk where it would be more convenient.

Wants Business Location

Charles M. Davis recently of Atlanta is in the city today looking for a location to start in business. As no vacant stores can now be secured he will be forced to build one.

Metropolis Winners

Two Orlando ladies and one each from Sanford, Pine Castle and Chuluota are winners in the popularity contest conducted by the Jacksonville Metropolis. There are Misses Calla Lily Jenkins and Evelyn Odlin of Orlando, Mrs. J. A. Wilkes of Pine Castle, Miss May Long of Chuluota and Miss Pearl Gresham of Sanford. While none of them are winners of grand prizes, still each won a snug sum and got a large complimentary vote. Considerable interest was manifested in the contest by Orange county people and as usual they were very successful.

NEW-BUSINESS BLOCKS

Besides Many New Residences To Be Erected

BUSINESS TAKES NEW IMPETUS

Crop Prospects and Faith in Sanford's Future Brings Out Many New Investments

Within the next six months there will be two new business blocks added to Sanford and both of them will be on Magnolia avenue, which is destined to become one of the business streets of Sanford and in time will rival First street for a share of the business. While it is not officially known the nature of the business to be transacted in the new buildings it has been stated that the four new stores that will fill up the vacant lot between The Herald building and the Opera House have already been leased. Office rooms and apartments will occupy the upper floors.

The architect has already drawn the plans but will not divulge the names of the men who will occupy the stores. Herald Square in time will be one of the busiest thoroughfares in the city.

The new McCrory five and ten cent store in the M. G. T. Block is assuming shape and will be one of the finest fronts in the city, being finished in the flaming red color that distinguishes the McCrory stores the world over.

There are also persistent rumors of a new bank and another drug store to be opened in Sanford soon, both to occupy buildings of their own, which will mean plenty of work in the building line later on.

The Geneva Bridge

Work on this great improvement has been finished, all except the draw, which is being put in now. The contractor Mr. McLain has certainly made it a job, that will be an everlasting credit to him and to all those, that have helped to accomplish it by their liberal subscriptions to the necessary funds. A number of the subscribers to the fund have paid in amounts as stated below, but there will be more money needed at once to reimburse the contractor for work done, and I wish to ask of anyone, that is interested in this great improvement for the good of our city and county to send their contribution to either H. C. Dulose or myself. Whether you have subscribed to the fund or not your help is needed and will be thankfully acknowledged.

Those having paid to this fund are:

Holden and suggests to me the idea, that if every one interested in this great improvement will go out and try to show their friends and acquaintances the importance of it, it will not take long to get up the balance of the money needed.

Send in your contribution, no matter how small, and send it soon.

RECEPTION TO REV. MCKINNON, Beloved Minister Shown Appreciation of His Services.

Rev. J. F. McKinnon is deservedly one of the most popular ministers that ever resided in Sanford and while his many friends rejoiced at his good fortune in being appointed Superintendent of Public Instruction there will be genuine sorrow at the thought of his departure from the field where he has endeared himself, not only to the members of the Presbyterian church but to every one regardless of creed or religion.

Despite the inclement weather a large number of people attended and the rooms were filled. A general round of entertainment interspersed with music and games and friendly chat was broken by the serving of choice refreshments.

As a token of their esteem the congregation presented Rev. McKinnon with a pair of beautiful gold cuff buttons, embellished with his monogram and a fine lodge seal and charm and Mrs. Sharpe with a silver service.

The presentation speech was made by Hon. D. L. Thrasher who is always at his best in this role and in a few well chosen words he outlined the splendid work accomplished here by the retiring minister and the high regard in which he and his family were held by all classes.

Rev. McKinnon felt deeply these tokens of esteem and replied in a few remarks. Rev. McKinnon and family leave Sanford followed by the good wishes of all and the only reconciliation of their many friends at parting is the thought that they are not far away and maybe at some future date these good people will again rejoice among us where they will always be warmly welcomed.

Mistrial Predicted

Opeleusa, La., Nov. 3.—The jury in the McKee murder trial was locked up at 6 o'clock tonight with instructions to report to the court at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning when, it is expected, the court will order a mistrial.

Downcast, and with sore disappointment, Mrs. McKee was led back to her cell in the St. Andry Parish Jail where she has been held without bail since the day in September, seven weeks ago today, when she killed Allan Garland.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

While waiting for the appearance of a henhawk whose depredations have seriously annoyed the family, Francis Lyman Wing, Jr., the twelve year-old son of former Mayor Frank L. Wing, of Tampa was instantly killed Wednesday morning by a load of birdshot as the result of an accidental discharge of his shotgun.

Charged with participating in the lynching of six negroes at Lake City May 21 last, the Columbia county grand jury Wednesday indicted Samuel Ward and John Atkinson, residents of Tallahassee for murder. A reward of $5,000 had been offered by the state for the apprehension of the persons who took part in the lynching.

Arrangements are practically completed for starting the much talked of Farmers Institute train from Gainesville, November 15th. Letters to the Experiment Station from various sections of the state indicate wide-spread interest in the matter of University workings in the minds of the people who are land owners in Florida. This special train is arranged to meet the needs of every one engaged in agricultural pursuits.

Tampa is to have another canning factory and within the next few weeks a representative of the Peru (Ind.) Canning company will be in the city for the purpose of selecting a location for the factory. When this has been done arrangements will be made for the building of the structure.

A big timber deal has recently been closed in this state whereby 225,000,000 feet of cypress and 240,000,000 feet of long leaf pine, located in Brevard and Ocala counties, were sold to parties from Louisiana.

The high flood tide in St. Augustine has been driving the marsh hens from the marshes, hence the hunters have been meeting with good luck.

If plans for organizing the Florida Metal Products Company are carried through, Jacksonville will have three, and possibly four, new concerns for the manufacture of metal cornices and like products.

J. C. Crawford has been made director of Jacksonville detective force, thus facilitating the work of department of the city's police.

The government has completed the staking of the channel from Fort Myers to the gulf.
