

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

A Budget of Opinion "Just Between You and Me"

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Front 'Em—So Says Saunterer.

An old millerite of New York believed the world would come to an end on a certain date. He put on his ascending robes, got on top of a straw stack and waited for Gabriel's Horn. But he got tired of waiting, forgot himself and fell asleep. Some boys discovered the man, touched a match to the straw and awoke him. Gazing around on the flames, he exclaimed, "In he—just as I expected."

The cost of high living is troubling me not at all, but more than ever I am opposed to the Beef Trust and all other trusts affecting the price of food stuffs. For instance, if you have noticed the market quotations, and what is more to the point, the actual market prices, that plain Democratic bird, representative of Jeffersonian simplicity and Jacksonian independence known in everyday language as a rooster, has been selling on the open market at twenty cents per pound, fresh from the farm with his clothes on. The wily grocer gets hold of him, robs him of his plumage, and then "stripped of his fowlish hide," he goes to the table of the poor, helpless devil in the city at the aristocratic price of thirty cents per pound.

Now I don't know whether this is the fault of the Standard Oil Trust or some other trust, whether of men "higher up" or lower down, but it certainly is a severe jolt to the emblem of democracy, the arch enemy of trusts and combines. I sincerely hope that Woodrow will give this situation his attention immediately after the fourth of March.

Better get rid of your old flags, for a new one of rare beauty and appropriate design is coming and will supplant the others. President Taft and the war department have expressed approval of the new design of the American flag. The new design shows a marked improvement in the arrangement of the stars. Instead of placing the forty-eight stars in six rows of eight each, they are arranged in such a way as to illustrate the history of the nation. Twenty-five of the stars appear in a circle standing for the twenty-five states admitted to the Union during the first one hundred years of our history. Within the circle appears thirteen stars in the form of states which united to form the United States of America. Outside the circle of twenty-five stars are ten stars for the ten states added to the United States since 1876, including New Mexico and Arizona. The new design makes it possible to have larger stars more suitably and artistically arranged. Additional stars can be added without affecting the central design. No change is made in the arrangement of the stripes.

Banking reform has now become an issue of foremost national importance. Oscar W. Underwood, Democratic floor leader in the House, says it is essential to tariff revision, and that the Democrats must take it up immediately. President Taft, leader of the other great party, dwelt on it at length in his recent message to Congress, and said that it would benefit most vitally the farmer and the wage-earner. Colonel Roosevelt again discussed it at the recent Bull Moose conference in Chicago, giving it a conspicuous place in his address.

President-elect Wilson apparently regards this issue as equal in urgency to the tariff. Senator O'Gorman of New York, says remedial legislation should come at the earliest practical moment. Carter Glass, of Virginia, chairman of the banking and currency committee of the House, has made an exhaustive study of the subject, preparatory to framing a bill. Congressman Burleson of Texas and Swager Sherley of Kentucky have demanded prompt action. The sentiment that a sound banking system must replace our present wornout system is widespread, and must result in quick action in Congress.

CASSIA HAPPENINGS

Rev. Palmer held Mrs. Myer's memorial services at the Baptist church Sunday. It was largely attended.

Clark Myers of Lady Lake and Mark Myers of Beresford attended the memorial services of their mother here Sunday. They were the guests of their sister, Mrs. L. C. Garrett while here.

Miss Edith Stewart spent part of her holidays with hosts of friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lumpkin of Atlanta are spending the winter with Mrs. M. R. McLarty and family.

The many friends of Miss Ethel Davis gladly welcome her home after a lengthy stay in Grand Island.

W. A. Lovell of Paisley was a recent visitor here.

Ralph Merrill of Messina was down hunting with the Royal boys last week.

Miss Willie Singletary is spending her vacation with her parents at Sanford.

Miss Ivie Royal is here spending her vacation with home folks.

Mrs. M. C. Hall and daughter, Mae of Eustis are here visiting Mrs. W. B. Wofford.

Miss Grace McEwen of Paisley attended the Xmas entertainment held at the Cassia school.

Ed. J. O'Neill of Jacksonville is here visiting friends. While here he is having great sport hunting.

The home of Mrs. and Mrs. Warren Royal was a scene of pleasure last Tuesday while "New Year and Old Year Party" was given. The reception room was beautifully decorated with roses, holly and evergreens. New Year's bells were hung in convenient places. The guests were received by Miss Lella. Various games were enjoyed until 10 o'clock, when the fair maids selected their partners to escort them to supper (as it was about their last chance until four years). The dining room was decorated with roses, sweet peas and holly, while light was given by tastefully arranged candles. Candles, cake and coffee were served by Misses Vivian and Ruth. The merriment went on until twelve o'clock, when the old year was bade good-bye and the new year welcomed by the boys. Then the guests took their departure after an enjoyable evening. The out of town guests were Miss Willie and Eugene Singletary and Edgar Whitten of Sanford and Ed. J. O'Neill of Jacksonville.

To Citizens of Sanford and Vicinity

The Annual Meeting of the Sanford Library Association will be held at the new library rooms, corner of Imperial Theatre building, Thursday Jan. 9th, 1913. How much do you value this Association as an asset of our city and community? Please be present in person and participate in this meeting.

C. R. WALKER, President.

The Monkey and the Golden Horn—A Fable of Greed in Which is a Come-Back for the Public Benefit

It happened, so says the ancient tale, that a monkey chanced upon a wondrous spring whose virtue was that he who drank therefrom by means of a golden horn that hung close by should possess all things good to have, providing that he freely gave to every passerby as much as he should care to drink from the golden horn. So the monkey waxed rich and puffed up with much pride. One day a donkey paused to beg a drink.

"'Tis a shame to waste such good water on so poor a fellow," quoth the monkey, and passed him out a common gourd of rainwater. The donkey drank, and then, perceiving that he had been unfairly dealt with, lashed out with his heels, one of which, coming in contact with the golden horn, battered it beyond repair, so that from that time the virtue of the wondrous spring ceased, and the monkey was no better off than his neighbor.

In the sunny land of Florida, nature, through the alchemy of sunshine, fertile soil, soft ocean winds and pure water, produced golden oranges and grapefruit of such quality as the world had never before known, and the world demanded more and ever more. Then, greed possessing them, certain growers picked their fruit green, "sweated" it to a yellow color, and, rushing it to the early market, sought to fool the consumers. The consumers bought and then, like the donkey of the fable, kicked, and the reputation of Florida fruit shared the fate of the golden horn. But, unlike the ancient fable, there is a come-back in this modern story.

To protect the public and themselves, and to offset the mischief wrought and still being wrought by unscrupulous shippers of green fruit, many of the best growers in Florida have pooled their interests in a cooperative organization called the Florida Citrus Exchange. Through this Exchange they market all their fruit, the best fruit in Florida. The stamp of the Exchange on a box of fruit is a guarantee that every fruit within is mature, tree-ripened, a golden globe of juicy lusciousness. It is your only guarantee against green fruit, for by appearance alone you cannot tell unripe fruit from ripe.

The Palatka News is touting Hon. S. J. Hillburn for the position of Federal Judge, and we agree with Bro. Russell that the Hon. Sam would be a good one.

The Ocala papers and the Inverness Chronicle are expatiating at length upon their jails as being palaces and how nicely they provide for the prisoners. No doubt both of these places will soon be advertising their jails as pleasant summer resorts and giving out dope about "once living in our jail you never want to leave."

CHANGE IN SENTINEL

Josiah Ferris of the Orlando Sentinel, publishes his valedictory in last week's paper as editor and J. F. Schuman gives his salutatory as the new editor. The Sentinel has been made a stock company and Mr. Ferris will remain on the paper as business manager. Mr. Schuman is a former law partner of Vice President-elect, Thomas R. Marshall and has been a newspaper man and special political writer in other states.

We welcome Bro. Schuman to the ranks of Florida scribes and are also glad to know that Josiah Ferris will remain with the Sentinel. Orlando would not be the same without Josiah Ananias Ferris.

BURNING FLORIDA FRUIT

The action of the Los Angeles health department in committing a shipment of Florida citrus fruit to the city incinerator is no more than may be expected of a State and section which are so insanely jealous of Florida that they resort to the most extreme and unwarranted practice to vent their spleen.

If there is such a law on the statute books of California, a law which debar Florida fruit from entry into the State, it was enacted undoubtedly from motives of jealousy. But fortunately the law of California is not the law of any other State and the people of the rest of the country may enjoy Florida products to their heart's contents—which they are doing, to the untold cost of the California growers, who find it impossible to produce fruit which compares in any particular with that grown in this State.—Tampa Tribune.

THE COUNTY RING

The Herald was criticised the other day by a county official for calling attention to the county ring. This official stated that the Herald had said something about "graft" or words to that effect when the word "ring" was used.

This gentleman was never more mistaken in his life. This paper has never used the word "graft" in connection with the question of county division. The Herald thinks and has so stated time and again that our officials from the highest to the lowest are honest, conscientious, upright and honorable men and no breath of malfeasance in office has ever been leveled at them. They have done and are doing their duty as they see it and the business of the county has always been transacted along these lines. But this paper has stated that in our own county of Harney we could get better results with our own tax money than a larger county could expect to accomplish. That much of our present road building can be improved upon and, with out system of brick roads much money that is now practically wasted could be saved and many other items could be mentioned along this same line. But our officials are doing the best they can in the large area and the people will never have relief as long as the county remains the present size.

But the county ring does exist at Orlando and we so stated to the gentleman, whose shoes seemed to pinch him. The county ring at Orlando is formed to perpetuate themselves in office and there is no intention as to the existence of such a ring.

Josiah Ferris inadvertently let the cat out of the bag in his editorial statement that if Orlando had known that Representative Forrest Lake would be for county division Orlando would have defeated him. This is ring rule politics pure and unalloyed and my official friend could not deny it.

Orlando tacitly admits that they do control or endeavor to control the entire vote of Orange county and they ask and demand that every candidate shall before the election tell Orlando or the ring just how he stands on the matters that affect Orlando or the ring and if said candidate is not favorable to their plans he is promptly defeated.

Your dictionary will inform you that a ring is a faction of men formed to control the markets or politics, etc. There you have it and if any of the Orlando people want that proof consult the unquestioned authority of Noah Webster and then consult with Josiah Ferris and ask him why he slipped on a banana peel. There is no dishonesty about ring politics because there is no honesty in politics at any stage of the game. The game is played by the fellows who hold the high cards and the other ones can look on if they so desire.

But having caught them with cards up their sleeve we purpose to break up the game and call for a new and Harney county will not stand for any ring politics.

Eastern Star Installation

Seminole Chapter, No. 2, Order of Eastern Star, had their annual installation of officers in the Masonic Temple Friday evening. After the installation refreshments were served and the members of the Eastern Star and their friends enjoyed a social hour together.

The following officers were installed: Mrs. O. B. Singletary, Worthy Matron.

- Mrs. Claud Couch, Worthy Patron.
- Mrs. Loretta Brotherson, Associate Matron.
- Mrs. R. L. Jones, Conductress.
- Mrs. Bertha Biggers, Associate Conductress.
- Mrs. E. E. Cox, Treasurer.
- Mrs. J. D. Parker, Secretary.
- Points of Star—Misses Mary and Carrie Ensminger, Margaret Roberts, Mrs. Renfro, Mrs. Griffin.
- C. F. Haskins, Chaplin.
- D. M. C. Rabun, Warden and Sentinel

Lovely Luncheon

Misses Madge and Veda Ward entertained the members of last season's Dinner Club at a delightful 1 o'clock luncheon Friday.

Over the table was suspended a large bell, and from the chandelier graceful smilax extended to the corners of the table also festooning the sides of the table.

Beautiful red roses, poinsettias and jessamine formed the rich center piece. The following dainty luncheon was enjoyed by the club: Lobster cocktail with wafers, creamed chicken, lettuce, rolls and pickles, vegetable salad with wafers, raspberry shortcake, whipped cream, coffee and salted almonds.

The members of the club who were present were, Mrs. J. B. Lanson, Miss Annie Lee Caldwell, Miss Lillian Gibson, Miss Mabel Hand, Misses Madge and Veda Ward.

Auction Bridge Club

The Auction Bridge Club was entertained by Mrs. B. F. Whitner, Jr., Saturday afternoon. Two tables of bridge were played. The prize, a pretty brass ink stand, was won by Mrs. McLaughlin who made the highest score. After the conclusion of the games of cards a delicious poinsettia salad bread sticks and coffee were served.

Mrs. Whitner's guests were, Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. B. W. Herndon, Mrs. F. L. Miller, Mrs. W. B. Clay, Mrs. Samuel Puleston, and Mrs. Robert Newman.

On a Hunting Trip

Among the visitors to the city yesterday were Capt. W. J. Newman of Crescent City and R. T. Schafer of Gainesville, who on Capt. Newman's launch, Lena, are bound for the Upper St. Johns river where they will hunt and fish for a week. Capt. Newman is a prominent business man of Crescent City and Mr. Schafer is in the bakery business in Gainesville and is one of the foremost business men of the University City. They expect to leave business cares behind them and will go after the big game of the upper river and we can look for some tall fish and hunting stories upon their return. The editor of the Herald will verify whatever Mr. Schafer happens to write to the Gainesville Sun while on his trip and it is safe to say that he will never have a better trip than his present one on the beautiful St. Johns above Sanford.

Oviedo Excursion Postponed

The excursion that was to take place Friday to Oviedo has been postponed because the railroad could not arrange for the special train in time to give the Commercial Club an answer. The train will probably be run on Friday, January 17th, when all arrangements will be perfected and a grand time will be had by all. The arrangements may take the form of a basket picnic for the afternoon and speaking at night and many of the merchants have signified their intention of closing several hours of the afternoon and making a gala occasion. Watch Herald for future announcements.

CALIFORNIA FREEZES

Southwestern States Suffer Disaster and Ruin

FRUIT AND VEGETABLES LOST

Reports Would Indicate That California And Texas Are Hard Hit By Freeze

Reports today indicate that California has suffered one of the most disastrous freezes in the history of that state. The trees are said to be frozen down and all the fruit is ruined. According to the government weather report published yesterday, San Diego shows 28, San Francisco 34, and other points down to 18, which would indicate that California is suffering from a bad freeze. The report of the weather bureau shows Los Angeles missing, another indication that the weather bureau is keeping the matter dark.

Texas also suffered and many other southwestern states, and reports show that all the vegetables west of the Mississippi have been frozen out.

Sanford Music Club

The Music Club held their regular meeting at the studio of Mrs. Fannie S. Munson, president of the club, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. C. L. Polk, leader.

The life and works of Brahms was the subject considered.

A biography of Brahms with his compositions was written by Mrs. Polk, who divided them into sections, numbered them and distributed them among the members of the club, who read them as Mrs. Polk called for them. This interesting arrangement was a pleasant innovation, and was much enjoyed. Mrs. Munson led the discussion on the "Influence of Brahms." Several pleasant episodes in his life was given by different members of the club. After hearing the report of the committees in charge of the Edward Baxter Perry Recital, which was both a delightful entertainment and financial success for the club, the meeting adjourned. Mrs. George L. Hoy, chorus leader, began with the members of the chorus their first practice of the Cantata, which the club will give in the early spring.

Cameo Bridge Club

Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin was hostess of the Cameo Bridge Club Friday morning. In addition to the regular members of the club a guest table was played, complimentary to Mrs. W. B. Clay.

The club prize, the cameo brooch, was won by Mrs. C. M. Vorce, who will have the pleasure of wearing the brooch until someone wins it from her. The guest prize, a fancy work bag, was won by Mrs. Forrest Lake. Mrs. McLaughlin's guests were, Mrs. C. M. Vorce, Mrs. R. L. Hughes, Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. Robert Newman, Mrs. W. B. Clay, Mrs. Forrest Lake, Mrs. F. L. Miller and Mrs. Barrett.

An advertisement in the Want Column of the Herald will sell what you don't want. Somebody will want it.

TRAINING CAMP IN FLORIDA
Big League Teams Will Come to Florida Every Winter
 The big league teams are seriously considering Florida as the spring training camp and Sanford could get one of these teams next season when the new tourist hotel is built.
 The following from the Tampa Times is quoting a well-known authority:
 "The time will come when all the major league teams will have training camps in Florida in the spring, and a try-out league of winter ball will be formed for the winters," said Mr. Murphy today. "With the Cubs at Tampa, other major league teams at Pensacola, St. Augustine, Jacksonville, Fort Myers, St. Petersburg, Bartow and perhaps Mobile, a winter schedule of games would be played. The owners would send down, at the close of the summer schedule in the north, their recruits—the men purchased and drafted from the minors. "These men would constitute the teams for the various cities, hot fights for the pennant would ensue, Florida and the winter tourists would get the best exposition of sport there is, the playing of baseball by young men. "Every owner and manager would have his scout in Florida, or would be on the ground himself, looking over his own men first, and then watching for "finds" among the other teams' talent, with an eye to a swap for some promising player that would fill a hole they had in mind. "By April, when the season would open in the north, the recruits would be in top-season condition, and the old-timers, who would train with them during February and March, would be in good shape, thanks to the Florida climate.
 "It would mean baseball for Florida—and better ball all around," concluded Mr. Murphy. "And it is coming sure."

HASTINGS WILL BE EARLY

By Jan. 8. Most of the Growers will Begin Planting

Hastings, Fla., Jan. 3.—On Dec. 20, 10 acres of potatoes were in the ground and by Jan. 8 all of the growers will begin planting. The 10 acres planted are the first to go in the ground, and as the weather has been ideal all the time, these potatoes should be the first harvested. There is ample seed stock here and nearly all of the growers have been supplied. There are about 800 bags left, but applications are coming almost every day from outside points asking for seed stock, and these 800 bags will be used up before planting time is over. The seed thus far has been unusually nice and none of it has shown any rot.

The supply of fertilizer has been ample and most of the growers have their fields fertilized ready for the seed. In Hastings proper the acreage will be about the same as last year with an increase of 1,000 acres in the country. This increase will make the total 9,000 acres in this section the largest ever planted in the history of the State. Up to this time conditions could not have been better had they been ordered by the growers. If these conditions continue the yield next year ought to be good.

While the price received for potatoes last year was satisfactory, the growers really made no money. This was caused from the lower yield. On an average the crop averaged only 30 bbls. to the acre, about two-thirds of what is considered a normal crop. A good crop is 40 bbls., and in some instances the yield is as high as 50 bbls. Each year the growers are learning more how to get the largest yield, and it is understood that the 1913 crop of potatoes from Hastings and vicinity will break the record. John Nix & Co. will have charge of most of the distributing from this point, as they did last year, as this firm controls about 70 per cent of the acreage.—Produce News.

Welaks Club News

During the month of December many very pleasant social entertainments were given by the members of the Welaks Club. Several of these affairs have already been graphically reported in the Herald, but among those not appearing in print, was the Kwan Koba, or Japanese Bazaar, Dec. 17 and 18, which was most artistic. The various booths were beautifully decorated, the tea table and flower garden being especially attractive. The chairman, Miss Madge Ward, and her several assistants deserve much praise for the delightful Japanese effect produced, and the decided success of the bazaar as an encouraging sum was added to the treasury.

The Children's Party on the 31st was greatly enjoyed by the thirty-seven young folks present which represented the children of the club members, and their invited guests. They met in the club rooms where the game of going to Jerusalem was entered into with zest. Then, under the leadership of Miss Lillian Gibson they were escorted to the Sanford House park, which was kindly tendered by Mr. Raines for the occasion, and while the older boys and girls played tennis, the others were entertained with games of all kinds. The girls in their pretty dresses and gay colored ribbons, accompanied by the more sombre but manly boys, playing on the beautiful grounds of the Sanford House presented a most pleasing picture. Returning to the club rooms, delicious ice cream cones and dainty cakes were served by the hostess, Mrs. Lake and her assistants, Mrs. Neal, Mrs. Householder, and Mrs. T. E. Wilson, after which the guests departed for their homes.

Demonstration a Success

Mrs. Judd is now giving her demonstration of the Ideal Fireless Cooker at the store of the Geo. H. Fernald Hardware Co. Monday was the first day. Baking was demonstrated. Delicious cake and biscuit were baked in twenty minutes. Mrs. Judd has had eleven years experience in touring the country. The attendance on Monday was very large for the opening day. Housewives are requested to send their servants if they desire, on Thursday afternoon, and Mrs. Judd will take pleasure in instructing them.

Every Week Bridge Club

Mrs. Forrest Lake was hostess of the Every Week Bridge Club Monday afternoon. Two tables of bridge were played.

Mrs. O. W. Brady made the highest score and won the prize.

After the games of cards were concluded, deviled crab, sandwiches, pickled onions and coffee were served.

Mrs. Lake's guests were Mrs. C. M. Vorce, Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin, Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mrs. Cruse Barnes, Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. W. D. Holden and Mrs. A. F. Connally.

SHORTAGE OF CELERY

Crop in California Is Retarded by the Cold, Dry Weather

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Dealers are experiencing a serious shortage in California celery. The cold, dry weather on the coast has retarded the crop materially, and it is difficult to get celery unless by ordering several weeks in advance. The crop is only about half of what it was five years ago. The demand greatly exceeds the supply. Florida is late, and none will come this way for four or five weeks. Prices are advancing, and growers are now getting 25c a dozen, f. o. b., which means $3.75 crate delivered. A few days of warm rain would start a heavy movement this way, and more favorable weather in Florida might start small shipments in four weeks, and heavy carload movement in six.

The California cauliflower crop is much larger than last year, and, like the celery, is greatly retarded by the continued dry, cold weather. The stock will not be above fair, and prospects are that there will be plenty of cauliflower when the movement begins in earnest.—Produce News.

Edward Baxter Perry Recital

The splendid audience which greeted Mr. Edward Baxter Perry's Lecture Recital in the auditorium of the High School Friday evening was a flattering attestation of the high standard of the divine art—music, the soul of which was interpreted to them by the skillful touch of a master artist.

Mr. Perry's audience was immediately captivated and enthused. The rapt attention, sincere and hearty applause must have convinced him of the knowledge of and appreciation of good music, by his audience. The impressions and pleasure of Mr. Perry's playing was intensified by his rare, beautiful and instructive lecture and interpretation of art and art work.

His definition and soulful tribute to music could not fail to be an inspiration and benediction to all those present who are seeking and hoping to become musicians.

What each composition was intended to describe, its meaning or suggestion, was beautifully painted in powerful, eloquent and poetic language. Mr. Perry's technique is delightful, though without display. Under the inspiration of a soul attuned to music his magic touch, called forth a responsiveness from the instrument, that was almost human.

If Mr. Perry had not played a single note his masterful lecture analyses, and beautiful tribute to music as a divine art, has left an impression and memory upon the minds and hearts of his audience that will be of lasting benefit and uplift in the community. Though deprived of his eye sight, one of the greatest blessings and necessities on earth, it cannot be other than helpful—It must be a real inspiration to the thoughtful; to realize how much Mr. Perry is making his life and talents count for in the world of music.

Mr. Perry's soulful and exquisite playing of the following beautiful selections were thoroughly enjoyed.

"Moonlight Sonata"—Beethoven.
"Chorus of Dancing Dervishes"—Beethoven—Saint Saens.
"Gondolier"—"Rhapsody No 12."
"Aus Schoener Zeit"—Henrich Hoffman.
"The Dryad"—Jensen.
"Spanish Dance"—Moskowski.
"Aeolienne." Ballad—Lost Island, Edward Baxter Perry.

Mr. Maples, the well known commission man, is the proud possessor of a fine new Overland roadster.

GOVERNOR INAUGURATED

Florida's Native Son Takes Highest Office On Tuesday

CEREMONY A BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Hon. Paq Trammel Takes Oath To Uphold Commonwealth of Native State

The inaugural ceremonies upon the inauguration of Governor Trammel at Tallahassee last Tuesday, were among the most imposing for many years. Governor Trammel made a most striking and statesman-like appearance as he stood on the platform at the east entrance to the capitol before the large crowd of friends and visitors from all parts of the State and thanked them for their confidence entrusted to him in electing him to the high and honorable position of chief executive of his beloved State. In all of his remarks Governor Trammel showed a deepest sense of gratitude and responsibility resting on him.

Every one was most deeply impressed with his sincerity.

The committee on arrangements for the inauguration were disappointed in the inability of any visiting State troops to be present to take part in the ceremonies. However, the escort and parade was on par excellence with any that has ever been had at the capitol, with the local company of State troops and the Boy Scouts of Jacksonville in uniform.

The parade from the Governor's mansion moved east to Monroe street, thence south on Monroe street to the south side of the capitol grounds, and then along the south and west side of the capitol grounds to the west entrance to the capitol.

Governors Enter Capitol

Then the Governor and Governor-elect and all the officials in the parade entered the capitol and proceeded to the entrance on the east side, where the inaugural ceremonies took place.

Governor Gilchrist made an address, in which he made a short resume of his administration, following a custom of the past. He then introduced Governor-elect Park Trammel.

Following the address of Governor Gilchrist the oath of office was administered by Chief Justice Shackelford, and Governor Trammel delivered his inaugural address.

Reception and Ball

Tuesday night in the executive offices at the capitol were held the reception from 8:30 to 10 p. m.

The inaugural ball began at 10 o'clock in the hall of the House of Representatives. The music for the ball was furnished by the military band. Numbers of society people from all parts of the State were present in the city to take part in the ball, which has always been a most pleasurable feature of similar occasions in the past.

Municipal Ownership Pays

Carbon Springs, Jan. 10.—The annual report of the city waterworks for the year 1912 shows a net surplus in earnings during that period of over $51,000. The city waterworks has been a paying proposition to the city during the past two years, but practically all of the surplus earnings are being expended in extending the main over the city, there being something over four miles at this time.

Going Is Good. Enter Today

The list of the nominations received up to date appear in The Herald today for the first time. All are determined to win the $750.00 Player Piano, or one of the other prizes. Contest has attracted the attention of the public. Orange county is going to have one of the liveliest campaigns it ever went through and the best part of it is it will be a campaign without rancor or ill feeling.

Surprises may be looked for. The count is made twice each week and the relative positions of the candidates will change from time to time.

Many of the Herald readers have been clipping the coupons and holding them back, waiting to see who was in the race and now that the candidates are announced the voting will be heavy.

Through the aid of their friends some of the ladies start out today with a good number of votes to their credit. Most of the nominations received were accompanied with a packet of the coupons.

The nominations are not closed by any means. In fact right now is the best time to go in. Just sent in the nomination at once and a representative of the contest department will call on you and explain the contest in detail.

Campaign Just Starting

The Herald's big contest was announced last week, but the opening day of the contest, it today and everybody whose name appears as a candidate, has an equal opportunity to win the prize. The nomination gives each candidate 5,000 votes to start with, so new entrants need have no hesitancy about sending in their names. The nomination coupon will be found in this issue of The Herald. Clip it out and send it in today—now while you think of it.

10,000 Votes Free

Every lady who sends or brings in one new subscription any time before Saturday, January 18th, will be entitled to one of the big 10,000 vote subscription coupons, found at the bottom of this column.

This ballot is in addition to the regular number of votes allowed on the subscription.

In sending in the subscriptions, send in one of the large coupons which will be signed by the contest editor and will be good for 10,000 votes. The 10,000 votes are in addition to the number the subscription will earn according to the vote schedule, and only one of the coupons will be credited to each candidate. The 10,000 extra votes which are given on the first new subscription offers a big opportunity for those who wish to get a good start. After securing the big ballot, the earning power of subscriptions will be according to schedule, which will be found in this article. The big coupon must be secured by Saturday, January 18th, but after it has been secured, it may be held back if the candidate does not wish to have the votes published until later in the contest.

Many are Nominated

The fact that The Herald has offered so rich and valuable a prize, accounts for the large list of nominations that have been received.

Don't wait for someone else to send your name in. Send in the nomination blank today.

BOYS CORN CLUB CONTEST

Winners Are Announced By Orlando Board Of Trade

AVERAGED OVER 35 BUSHELS

To Each Acre And Four Of The Boys Received Cash Prizes For Work

The report of the result of the work of the Boy's Corn Club of Orange county was read last night before the Board of Trade by Mahlon Gore, chairman of the Corn Club committee.

The report states that Mallory Welch, won the first prize of $100; Emmett Russ, second prize of $75; Alfred Link, third prize of $50; and Lonnie Dean, fourth prize of $25.

Young Welch is of Apopka; Russ of Zellwood; Link of Orlando, and Dean of Oviedo.

This aggregate sum—$250—was subscribed by the Board of Trade last spring when the Corn Club was organized.

The report makes interesting reading in the light of the possibilities of Orange county soil, the results showing beyond a shadow of a doubt that the raising of corn can be made a profitable industry in this locality.

Twelve of the thirty boys that entered the contest persisted, and the twelve raised an average yield of thirty-six bushels to the acre. The report states that formerly, under the old method of cultivation, the average yield was less than ten bushels. The successful contestants raised more than fifty bushels to the acre. And seven of the twelve produced in excess of thirty-five bushels to the acre.

The cost of producing the various crops averaged $17 an acre.

The report follows:

To the Board of Trade of Orlando, Gentlemen:—Your committee to whom was assigned the duty of awarding the prizes voted to the winners in the Boy Corn Club contest, beg to submit the following report:

This body offered the sum of $250 to be given to the contestants, as follows: First prize, $100; Second prize, $75; Third prize, $50; Fourth prize, $25.

We are informed by County Superintendent of Schools McKindon, that about thirty boys of Orange county entered the contest. But that only twelve continued their efforts and made their final reports. These reports we have carefully gone over, and we find that seven of the twelve produced an excess of thirty-five bushels each, while five of them exceeded forty, and the yield of three was upwards of fifty bushels each.

It appears to your committee that such a result, when heretofore the average yield of corn has probably never reached ten bushels and where individual efforts have rarely produced twenty bushels, the boys are entitled to the prizes offered by this body, and also to such consideration in the future as will encourage them to demonstrate, beyond all question, that corn can be successfully and profitably grown as a farm crop in Florida, and teach their fathers and brothers how to do it.

The average production of the entire twelve boys was thirty-six bushels; three times the average yield in former years under the old methods.

Remember, this was the first year for the boys, under the improved methods. Several of them report that they were without instruction in the scientific methods now being exploited by the Government Department of Agriculture. It is also evident from the results shown, that seed selection was not understood or applied by them.

The boys have shown the right spirit. With a more thorough knowledge and continued encouragement we may look for better results.

Some of the reports were very incomplete, many important items being entirely omitted. Others were carefully prepared, each item of cost being stated on the report blanks sent out by the Department. One of the participating boys was only ten years old and two others but twelve years.

Bezar in mind, under the rules of the department, only boys under eighteen are eligible to enter these contests. This boy corn club movement is a kindergarten school of instruction, of which the keeping of itemized accounts and rendering complete

SUMMARY FLORIDA JUSTICE

South Sets Example For Adhering To The Law

NEGRO GETS QUICK JUSTICE

Other Matters Of Interest In Land Of Flowers And Balm

Weather

Marion County furnished an instance of speedy justice as Tuesday, when Ponce de Leon, the negro assaulted a white woman Saturday, was indicted, tried, convicted and sentenced to hang. The grand jury was called together Tuesday morning and promptly found an indictment. At 2 o'clock a petit jury was engaged in trying the case and at 4 o'clock the verdict was rendered. There was never, from the start, any doubt but that the right negro had been arrested, but to meet legal requirements Judge Gober was appointed by the court to represent the negro, which he did, asking the usual questions of witnesses. His address in favor of his client lasted only three minutes. The case against the negro was a very strong one, the first witness being the woman he had assaulted.

It was only a few minutes after the charge of the court and the retirement of the jury that the gentlemen returned with the verdict of guilty, and the court promptly pronounced the sentence, death. The execution, it is believed will take place today, or at some date very shortly, as soldiers are still on guard to prevent possible violence.

Quick action by Sheriff Galloway, Sunday in calling out the troops when it became apparent that feeling against the negro was very strong undoubtedly saved him from summary punishment by a mob.

If the state of Florida is to be properly represented at the Panama Exposition to be held in San Francisco in 1915, provision will have to be made for same at the session of the Legislature to convene in April. There is no doubt that a proper exhibition of Florida products at the Panama Exposition will prove of great value to the entire State.

Hon. Henry M. Flagler quietly celebrated his eighty-third birthday in St. Augustine last Thursday. During the he received the congratulations of hundreds of his friends and also received a number of congratulatory telegrams and messages from friends from afar.

The people of St. Augustine have at last determined to fittingly celebrate the four hundredth anniversary of the landing of Ponce de Leon in that city. At one time it seemed impossible to raise the necessary funds for the successful carrying out of the celebration, but the business men finally awoke to the importance of the matter and contributed the required amount.
