NEW DORMITORY TO BE DEDICATED BY METHODISTS

Sanford Plans To Send Large Delegation On Wednesday To Benson Springs; Dormitory
Will Be For Use Of Girls

Dedication of the handsome new girls' dormitory at the Methodist Orphanage at Benson Springs will take place on Wednesday with addresses by Governor John W. Marlin and Bishop H. M. Dobbs on the program. Hundreds of Methodists from all over the state are expected to be present for the dedication ceremonies. As a part of the day's program, a barbecue picnic dinner will be served on the grounds of the orphanage.

The dormitory has just been completed at a cost of $60,000 and is described as one of the most modern of its kind to be found in the state. Furnishings of the building are expected to be placed by Wednesday so that everything will be in readiness for inspection by the visitors. The dormitory was constructed under the supervision of the executive committee of the orphanage, L. P. Hagan of Sanford,
C. Brinkley of Jacksonville and
Rev. R. F. Hodnett of Deland.

A large number of Sanford people are expected to attend the exercises. A motorcade will form at the Methodist Church at 9:30 o'clock
Wednesday morning and will leave shortly thereafter. Means of convoynance will be provided for those who do not have cars, it was announced today by the local committee in charge.

The orphanage plans to supply barbecue meats for the picnic while those who attend are expected to bring basket lunches. Plans for the program have been completed and everything is in readiness for what is described by Sanford Methodists as being a reluctant day in the history of the church organization in this state.

There are 110 children now being cared for at the orphanage. Rev. R.
H. Barnett, financial agent of the orphanage, has announced that he has received almost enough pledges to assure the complete furnishing and equipping of the dormitory. In connection with the dedication exercises members of the church are planning a linen shower for the institution in order that the goods for the dormitory may be acquired without expenditure of any funds by the trustees. Sheets for single beds, standard sized pillow cases, towels, table cloths and bed spreads are among the articles needed, it was stated.

Two French Aviators Off For Buenos Aires

PARIS, Oct. 10.—(INS)—Dieudonne Costes and Lieutenant Le Brix, the two French aviators who had intended to fly across the Atlantic to New York, hopped from Le Bourget flying field at 9:49 A. M. today on a four-hour flight to Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The first destination of their plane, the "Nungesser-Coli," is St. Louis, in Senegal, Africa. Before taking off, Costes tried out his motor for three minutes. Then he shot down the field and headed south towards Africa.

PLOTTER MAY BE DEAD
NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—(INS)—Belief that one of the perpetrators of the bombing of a tenement house here yesterday, when five persons were killed, lost his own life in the blast, was expressed today by investigating detectives.

One of the bodies, mangled beyond recognition, is believed by the authorities to be that of an Italian who, with an accomplice who escaped, is suspected of being the manufacturer of the deadly bomb.

FLOOD CONTROL VIEWS
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 10.—(INS)—The views and recommendations of the best technical minds in America for harnessing the recalcitrant Mississippi River, and preventing recurrence of the disastrous flood which swept the Mississippi valley basin this spring, will be aired here beginning Wednesday, when the American Society of Civil Engineers opens its fall session.

REBEL ATTACK IS POINTED AT NUEVO LAREDO

Three Separate Columns, Said To Have Been Recruited On American Side, Are To March
Against Strategic Position

General Torres Takes Charge Of Garrison

New Federal Commander Will Replace Gonzales Who Was Declared To Be Anti-Calles

NUEVO LAREDO, Mexico, Oct. 6.—(INS)—This important rail center on the Rio Grande river today became the new vortex in the military activities of the present political revolution in Mexico.

Three separate columns of rebel troops, reported to have been recruited on the American side, are planning to attack this city within the next 30 hours, according to word received by the Mexican consul at Laredo, Texas.

Support to the reports of the impending attack came late last night when it was learned that General Enrique Torres, staunch Calles supporter and one of the most prominent generals in the Mexican army, took over command of the federal garrison here. He replaces General Gonzales, considered an anti-Calles sympathizer.

This city, with Juarez, is one of the most strategic border cities and has recently changed hands in revolutions of the past. In possession of Nuevo Laredo, the revolutionists would be in control of the most important point of entry from the United States, thus cutting off needed supplies for the interior.

General Torres, the former commander of the garrison, attended a meeting of the revolutionary junta held at Laredo, Texas, last night.

It is reported that he will lead one of the columns against Nuevo Laredo. Trich loads of arms and ammunition were reported to have been sent to the border from San Antonio.

Police Court Has Light Docket This Morning At City Hall

The docket in police court this morning was comparatively light and there were no cases of importance to come before the court. Robert Wilson, negro was given a hearing on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon without a license and disorderly conduct. His case was continued until Wednesday. Chief of Police, J. V. Martin and Officer G. V. Phillips made the arrest.

Pierce Cooper and Charles Gibson were sentenced to pay fines respectively of $5 or serve 15 days each on charges of disorderly conduct. Officer Williams stated the two had gathered quite a crowd of on-lookers in their loud arguments as to the payment of a fifty-cent debt. Cooper resisted arrest the officers said.

The cases of R. Cartadell, charged with plumbing without a license and Setaby Townsend, charged with "beating" a board bill, were transferred to the county court. Chief Martin made both arrests, being assisted by Officer R. L. Kennedy in the latter instance.

S. S. Leavitt, charged with being drunk, had his bond estreated by Judge White. Officer Willis arrested Leavitt. Henry Anderson and Mattin Anderson each charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $8 and $7 respectively with the respective alternate of ten days each.

UNFILLED TONNAGE DROPS
NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—(INS)—Unfilled tonnage of the United States Steel Corporation decreased 47,924 tons in the month ended September 30, the corporation stated in its monthly report today.

New Irish Dail To Meet On Tuesday

DUBLIN, Oct. 10.—(INS)—The new Dail Eireann, in which the Cosgrave government has its first meeting tomorrow, majority of six seats, will hold and the whole country is eagerly awaiting its development. A new government will be formed by President William T. Cosgrave. The suggestion had been made that Eamonn De Valera, leader of the Republicans, be allowed to form a ministry to put into operation the pledge he has been making to the Irish people during his long public career, but Cosgrave vetoed it.

OBREGON SLATED AS SUCCESSOR TO CALLES IN 1928

American Labor Federation Reveals Presence Of A Tact Agreement Between Chiefs; Report Is Given Convention

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 10.—Existence of tacit agreement among the leaders of Mexico that General Alvaro Obregon should return to the presidency in 1928 and fulfill the promise for the establishment of the southern republic of a proletarian army composed of labor battalions, are among startling revelations in a report to the American Federation of Labor convention made today by its executive council.

The report, submitted by President William Green, represents the results of an exhaustive investigation by the A. F. L. executive council into the alleged relationships between the Mexican Federation of Labor and the Mexican government.

Tracing revolutionary events in the southern republic, the report recites the overthrow of the Carranza government in May 1920 and the subsequent naming of Adolfo de La Huerta as provisional president. In the election immediately following Obregon was elected president to fill the next constitutional term that began Dec. 1, 1920.

It is said that an understanding was reached that General Plutarco E. Calles should succeed Obregon as president, and that Obregon should return to that office in 1928, the executive council reports. "De La Huerta is said to have developed an unexpected popularity while Calles was unpopular with the army, without which the chances of success are negligible.

"De La Huerta started a rebellion against Obregon," the report continues, "this rebellion was opposed by General Calles, who advocated and most enthusiastically advanced the cause of the Agrarians. He likewise cultivated the friendly and sympathetic attitude of the Mexican Federation of Labor. Because of the support of Obregon, who had the backing of the majority of the army and of the Mexican Federation of Labor, general Calles was elected president to succeed Obregon.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 10.—(INS)—The Logan picture theater in north Minneapolis was partly wrecked by a bomb early today. Considerable damage was done to the building but no one was injured.

This is the second bombing of moving picture houses since the strike of motion picture operators, stage hands, scenic artists, bill posters and musicians began here a month ago.

Florida Funeral Directors Will Form An Ambulance Corps For Emergency

The zoning of the state of Florida to facilitate the operation of the organization of a state ambulance relief corps is shortly to take place, following a meeting in Orlando Saturday at which time this decision was reached. The corps is to be formed of and by the members of the Florida Funeral Directors and Embalmers Association.

Twelve of its members gathered Saturday in Orlando for this purpose. F. L. Miller of Miller and Erickson, Sanford, was chosen secretary at the meeting. Mr. Miller discussed the plans for the forming of the association this morning with The Herald and gave the following information about the meeting Saturday.

The members came from all over the state to attend the meeting, called by W. H. Combs of Miami, past president of the Florida association. Mr. Combs was named temporary chairman at the session. Letters and telegrams were read from all parts of the state endorsing the proposition.

Mr. Combs explained his idea as having originated after the Miami hurricane, and said he planned to establish a permanent organization

Woman's Brother To

Remus Threatened His Wife's Life Many Times, Asserts
The Brother Of Mrs. Remus

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Oct. 10.—(INS)—"George Remus introduced my sister Imogene Remus to Franklin and told her to cultivate him regardless of what embarrassment it may cause her in the future," charged Harry Brown, brother of Mrs. Remus today.

"I have in my possession letters in Remus' own handwriting instructing her to 'play up to him because he was the last chance to get him out of jail.' These letters will be turned over to County Prosecutor Charles P. Taylor to assist him in the prosecution of George Remus.

"Regardless of what statements George Remus gives to the public," added Harry Brown, "they will be nothing but a mass of lies unless he tells his true relations with my sister."

This is the last statement the members of her family will issue. We would not be making this one but for the fact that Remus continues to sit in his cell and boast of his deed.

"My family and I feel that we are compelled to let the world know the wrongs this poor woman, my sister, has gone through.

"He has threatened her life innumerable times and she has lived for the past two and a half years in constant fear of her life.

"Remus tells of Imogene looting his home in Cincinnati. It's ridiculous. We have cancelled checks showing my sister bought every piece of furniture, paintings, books and what not in that house. That home was not cleaned because she wanted the things in it but because Remus feared vandals would clean it out while he was locked up in Atlanta. Every piece of furniture that was in the house is in storage in Cincinnati."

"In addition, on their wedding day, Remus gave my sister the deed to the 'Dream Palace' There are plenty of witnesses to that. Why should he now try to claim that home as his? He gave it to her."

"Remus made Imogene mortgage the home after threats of death to Blanch Watson of Convington, for $35,000. This money was used in part to buy the Jack Daniels distillery at Saint Louis.

"This same distillery Remus and his cohorts milked of 3,000 barrels of booze. Remus was later indicted for this and the best evidence that he is wrong is that he turned evidence on 32 of his pals to save himself. To show his gratitude to his wife he also inclined her among his gang. The courts, however, freed her and threw her case out of court."

Here Brown went on to talk of Mrs. Remus' visit to the federal penitentiary in Atlanta Ga., while Remus was serving his sentence there, and of the attention he claims she showered upon her husband.

"She bought bed, mattresses and blankets and even became the official cook for the prisoner," said Brown. "Just because she wanted to make George comfortable.

Grand Jury Rebukes Herald For 'Insinuations' Which It Calls 'Unjust, Unwarranted'

Charging that a paragraph appearing in The Sanford Herald in its issue of September 27 was "unjust and unwarranted," the grand jury of the special term of the circuit court in its final presentment submitted today to Judge M. G. Rowe, declared that it resented the "implications against the members of this body."

"The jurors individually and collectively feel," the statement said, "that they have labored for the best interest of the community and the insinuations such as published in The Sanford Herald cast reflection on the court and this body and the remarks were unjust and unwarranted."

In discharging the grand jury, Judge Rowe declared that he was of the opinion that each member was worthy of his position as juror and capable of fulfilling his duties. Any criticism directed at the body as to its recommendations, he declared should be disregarded.

Judge Rowe dwelled to some extent on the possibility of newspaper criticism. He referred to the fourth estate's suggestions for better ways in which some jurists are offered by newspapers who "in might have conducted their duties, their wisdom know so much more than the men charged with and will be able to justify discharge these labors."

"If there are any criticisms to be made by the newspapers and if they are to proffer any suggestions they should be directed to the Board Judge Rowe in effect.

"You have done your work, I believe, conscientiously and capably. Your compensation is on a parity with that of the soldier who serves his country though is not afraid for his worth—nor expects such pay," said the court in expressing the thanks of the tribunal for the efforts of the jurors.

"You are now discharged and free to return to your labors and business," concluded Judge Rowe.

Following is the final presentment of the jury:

"We, the Grand Jurors, respectfully present that we have carefully investigated all such matters as have been brought to our attention or by us deemed proper to be investigated, and in such cases where the evidence would seem, in our opinion, to warrant, we have found "True Bills," in those cases where, in our opinion, the evidence would not so warrant we have found "No True Bill."

"Acting upon a resolution passed by the City Commissioners at their meeting held on September 28th, 1927, requesting this body to investigate the affairs of the City of Sanford, we found, after a careful investigation, that the present City Commissioners are endeavoring to conduct the City's affairs in a very capable and efficient manner. A thorough audit of the books has been made by S. G. Gray of the accounting firm of Hall & Pentland, and his report recommends and provides for necessary changes in the keeping of the City's records that will give the commission as a body a closer check on the City's affairs.

"Our investigation of the audit of the City's records of September 30, 1928, prepared by E. T. LeBaron, accountant, shows the same to have been conducted in a very inefficient and careless manner in view of the fact that large items of certificates of indebtedness representing obligations of the City were passed up by him without bringing the matter to the attention of the City Commissioners and without ascertaining as to whether or not they had been regularly and duly authorized.

"It has been brought to the attention of the Grand Jury that a very deplorable condition exists in the sections of Midway and Canaan City in that there are many negro houses where liquor is sold and rowdiness prevails to the annoyance of citizens living in that community. This Grand Jury, while being advised of the condition above mentioned are unable at this time to indict any particular (continued on page three)

Fellow Airman Of Lindbergh Falls In River But Is Saved

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 10.—(INS)—While returning with Colonel Charles Lindbergh from the Pensacola naval air station, the Pensacola Commander Ralph Davidson of Pensacola, crashed into the Mississippi river early today and was forced to swim to safety. His plane sank as he attempted to tow it to shore.

"When Davidson arrived at the airport after being given a blue farm shirt and overalls at a farmhouse to replace his wet clothes, he told a dramatic story of his crash and of his attempt to tow the plane to shore.

"I was returning to the landing field and attempted to bank the plane when the motor suddenly began missing. I saw that I was going to crash, so I tried to get the plane into a glide which would take it to the opposite shore, I did not have enough elevation, however, and we hit the water about 50 yards from shore, opposite the naval station.

COURT HOLDS SINCLAIR'S OIL LEASE IS VOID

Rights To Teapot Dome
Are Cancelled Today
By Ruling Which Is Called U. S. Victory

Deal "Shot With Fraud," Says Court

Courtignores Charges Of Collusion Between
Fall and Oil Magnate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—(INS)—The Supreme Court today ordered cancelled the release of Harry F. Sinclair, millionaire oil man, to the Teapot Dome Wyoming, naval oil reserve.

The action was not a surprise as the court had already cancelled the lease of E. L. Doheny, California oil magnate, to the Elk Hills reserve. It was said that Doheny's lease was "tainted with corruption."

The decision was a complete victory for the government which for three years has been endeavoring through special counsel appointed by President Coolidge to break the oil leases negotiated by ex-secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall.

The court, in a sweeping decision, found that the whole leasing transaction between Sinclair's Mammoth Oil Company and Fall was "shot through with fraud."

The high court also found that there was no authority in law for the lease.

The court ignored the government's contention that the lease was obtained through fraud and collusion between Fall and Sinclair.

Criminal cases also arose out of the leases. Doheny and Fall were indicted of conspiracy here by a jury last winter. Fall and Sinclair are to go on trial for conspiracy next Monday in criminal court here.

The decision means that the lease of the reserve, out of which Sinclair once told a senatorial committee he hoped to make $100,000,000 will revert to the navy department.

The lease was executed after President Harding signed an executive order transferring control of naval oil reserve land from the navy to the interior department. This order was rescinded by President Coolidge after the Doheny decision.

The decision today caused considerable wonderment in Washington for it is believed that it may affect Sinclair's conspiracy trial next week. The decision in the Doheny civil suit was held up until after the conspiracy trial was disposed of.

The case arose out of the famous oil investigations conducted in 1924 by Senator Thomas J. Walsh (D) of Montana.

Arkansas Blasts Take Death Toll Of Four, Ten Injured

ELDORADO, Ark., Oct. 10 (INS)—Four dead and 10 injured was the toll of a series of explosions at the Lion Oil Company here yesterday, a complete checkup today revealed. Two of the injured are not expected to live.

Officers of the company and police joined in an investigation of the explosions and fire today.

The dead are: Jack Springer, 28; Cleo Smith, 34; Bert T. Tidwell, 35; James F. Scroggins, 37.

CARMEN HILL IS SLATED TO HURL FOR BUCS TODAY

Donie Bush Plans To Pitch His Second Be-Spectacled Ace Against The Jubilant Yanks Who See 4th Straight

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Pirate craft is sinking.

This afternoon it may go down, riddled by the devastating fire of the New York Yankees. The good old ship that so magnificently weathered the turbulent national league race is foundering from three broadsides shot into it by the merciless Yanks, each heavier than the other.

Victory today will give the Yankees the coveted world's championship, the highest honor in baseball. Defeat of Pittsburgh today will rob the Pirates of nearly all the glory they won in capturing the national league pennant, for if they lose, they will go down in the records as one of the most badly-beaten teams that ever took part in a world series. They have been beaten 5 to 4, 6 to 2 and 8 to 1.

The Yankees are now overwhelming favorites to win the series, the betting being as high as 10 to 1 and 15 to 1 that they will do it. Gamblers are wagering 10 to 7 that the Pirates drop today's game.

A victory this afternoon would give the Yankees their second world's championship. But it would mean a loss of about $200,000 to the Clubs of the two leagues, for that sum represents the receipts for Sunday's scheduled game which would be automatically called off. The Yankees management announced that reserved seats and boxes already sold for the Sunday game aggregate $170,000 and fully $30,000 more would be taken in in the sale of bleacher seats. If the series ends this afternoon the New York management will refund the $170,000 covering reserved seats and boxes already sold.

While almost everybody is counting the Pirates out, Donie Bush the Pittsburgh manager, refuses to concede defeat. To International News Service this morning he asserted somewhat tartly that this series won't end until the Yanks take four games and that they are going to have a fight on their hands to do it. "If we just start hitting, we'll go," Bush declared.

Bush plans to pitch Carmen Hill, the tall spectacled right-hander today. The New York pitcher probably will be Wiley Moore. If Hill shows the slightest weakness Bush will rush John Miljus to the box. As a relief pitcher in one of the Pittsburgh games Miljus held the Yanks to one hit in four innings.

PIRATES HOAXED BY STRATEGY OF GIL DOBIE TYPE

Yanks Overwhelming Defeat Of Bucs Recalls Tactics Of Famous Football Coach Who Always Forecast Own Defeat

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Yanks ago Gil Dobie, the football coach who is popularly known as the Prince of pessimists, sent out reports on the eve of an important game that his squad was not to pieces by injuries and that he was resigned to defeat. Upon reading this propaganda, the rival team would become careless and overconfident and would be snowed under by Mr. Dobie's alleged cripples and inexperienced substitutes by a score of something like 32 to 0.

The Pittsburgh Pirates apparently have been hoaxed by this same moss-covered strategy. This possible explanation of their three straight defeats by the supposedly crippled Yanks is borne out by the following facts:

Herb Pennock, Yankee mound ace, was reported incapacitated when hit on the knee by a line drive just before the series started. Hoyt, another veteran pitcher, was knocked out of the box in the opener. At this stage, according to the New York pessimists, all that the Yanks had left in the way of pitchers was Wiley Moore and George Pizarro, the two first-year men corresponding to Mr. Dobie's alleged cripples.

What these second-string hurlers and line injuries Pennock did to the Bucs is now history. Moore pitched the first game, Pizarro won the second easily, and Pennock's magic performed a no-hit miracle yesterday.

And so it appears that the Pirates have been defeated by the same kind of hoax that Mr. Dobie used to use. They are hoaxed by the Yankees' strategy. They are hoaxed by the Yankees' strategy.

They are hoaxed by the Yankees' strategy.

LEAVE IT TO THE BABE

After Combs had flied out and Koenig had fanned, Babe Ruth, the reliable, singled to right on the first ball pitched to him by Kremer. Gehrig tripled to right and sent the Babe home. Picture shows Ruth crossing the plate with the first run of the series.

Pittsburgh Morale Blows Up As Yankees Begin To Say 'It Won't Be Long Now'

By JACK LAFF
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—It won't be long now. The Pirates, who on form don't figure to win one game in 10 from the Yanks, can blow only one more. Their morale is axed. The black flag hangs limp. It's a fair sort of parlor game. But to send it in again that wild gang of Hugmen is murder in the first degree. Such pitching and such fielding as Pittsburgh has gone against has rarely been known. And the Yanks are hitting a little, too, these afternoons.

Pennock hurled grand ball. His long left whip was swishing in the batting circle. But this highest of eight innings included a catch and a stop by Dugan, a catch and stop by Lazzeri, and a catch by Combs, any of which would have gone ungrudging as a hit had they passed. And what a man that Gehrig is! From any angle he reaches, grabs and holds the ball. If there has ever been a stronger infield than Dugan, Koenig, Lazzeri and Gehrig, the wailing eyes of this aging scribble have never seen it.

Pittsburgh has nothing in reserve. Hill is its only first-string outfield pitcher. And I saw Hill get knocked for a valley in Pittsburgh the day after the Chicago Tunney-Dempsey fight by the frazzled Giants, after a lead of five runs. That was when I visualized the Pirates meeting those sure-fire Yanks, and I couldn't picture a chance for them.

Yet a lot of good Americans bet on the Pirates. Some people would

Tommy Loughran Takes Title From Champion McTigue

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—(INS)—The various institutions which constitute the civic pride of Philadelphia, is added today a distinction it has not enjoyed since the session of a world's prize-fight champion.

Tommy Loughran, the sprightly youth from the City of Brotherly Love, knocked off Mike McTigue's synthetic light heavy-weight championship crown at Madison Square Garden last night, and placed a glittering coronet on his own head as the reward of 14 rounds of some of the finest fighting that has been seen in a New York ring in many months.

The title that McTigue fell heir to when Jack DeLaney vacated the championship throne to enter the heavy weight class several years ago, went skittering beneath a barrage of fistsuffs such as McTigue probably never before experienced in all his years of fighting.

Tommy took 14 of the 15 rounds. In the final frame, McTigue rallied, sailed into Loughran with a surprising amount of reserve strength, and had the new champion dizzy before the bell sounded. But the rally had come too late, and did little more than reaffirm the conviction of the public that McTigue is a game fighter if there ever was one, and a batterer who will not give in until the last hope has faded.

Hoyt may prove a tartar, however. The blond undertaker is wild to get at the Pirates. In Pittsburgh some one stole $300 from him in his hotel room and he is exceedingly peeved at all things, including baseball teams, connected with the Smoky City.

Carmen Hill will probably twirl for the Pirates today. He may never win a beauty contest, but he certainly can throw a baseball.

CHINESE EMPIRE FAST BECOMING AN ARMED CAMP

Millions of Peasants Continue Their Efforts To Go Gun for Protection And In Anticipation Of Prolonged War

PEKING, Oct. 8.—The dangerous process of converting all China into a land of armed peasants continues with increasing rapidity. At the present moment a young farmer from a district only a few hundred miles from Peking is in the capital with communal funds sufficient to purchase an assortment of two hundred rifles and revolvers. What is more, he has the authority of the local officials to transport his arms back home.

This young arms purchaser tells of a neighboring village which protects itself against bandits with a local militia whose armory boasts of 150 rifles, two machine guns and three old cannons. The latter were purchased back in the Boxer times of 1900 so that it is obviously not an entirely new phase, this arming of villages for self-protection.

Private Armory
One well-to-do farmer in this same village has 25 rifles in his private armory from which he arms his sixty-five farm hands. These latter guard the master's property by taking six hour watches during the night sitting on the roof top with loaded rifles.

Usually from the villages which usually have a mud wall for protection, the isolated farmers depend upon their own resources for defense. It is not uncommon to find an individual farmer with even three one pounder cannons mounted on his compound wall. Although to the casual traveler these guns have an absurd appearance in what at the moment seems the most tranquil of countryside, they are not infrequently called into use when mounted parties of bandits sweep over the districts.

This sad lack of firm authority exists not only in the more remote country districts but even at the very gates of the capital of China. Anting is a station on the trunk railway out of Peking, only thirty-two miles distant and yet bandits were bold enough to abduct the

Scared Of Bandits
So frightened of the bandits were the authorities, they ordered the passengers on the Blue Express to keep below the windows as the night train passed through Anting for fear of stopping a bandit bullet.

When the railway authorities learned of the bandit sortie they sent two representatives to the bandit lair. The envoys were told that the station master would be released upon payment of $150. The station master was released to go home and fetch the ransom but the two negotiators were held as hostage. In the meantime troops came upon the scene and gave battle to the outlaws.

Stanford Backs Couldn't Budge This Line

This remarkable photograph partly explains Stanley's 16-0 defeat by St. Mary's in the season's biggest upset to date. Note "Biff" Hoffman, No. 34, in white sweater, attempting to clear the path for the Stanford ball carrier, and resistance some St. Mary's lineman is offering him. Also note the players sprawled on ground. It's a corking good photograph, isn't it?

Stagg's Eleven Loses Opening Grid Game

Big ten football got under way Saturday with victories for all teams except Chicago. The Oklahoma Sooners proved the stumbling block to Alonzo Stagg's eleven, scoring two touchdowns late in the game, both from sensational advances of the ball, to defeat Chicago. Our photo shows Quarterback Mooney, a big star for Sooners, being downed on the ten-yard line. Fullback Levers of Chicago during one of Oklahoma threats.

Mrs. Ada Sides (above) of Oklahoma City is dead and 2-year-old Lorraine Frances Sides (below), is without a mother as the result of a bandit's bullet. Mrs. Sides was killed as she led police to the place where she had parked with a friend, Cecil Brown, and where the robbers had taken $52 from Brown.

George Yaro, Barnsboro, N. J., bus driver (center, above) has been charged with murdering Rose Sarlo (below) pretty 18-year-old Sunday school teacher of Woodbury. It is alleged that Yaro confessed he shot and strangled the girl and hid her body under a bridge on a lonely highway. Sheriff John S. ### Ball Will Address Local Kiwanians Next Wednesday

Dr. E. D. Ball, in charge of the experimental work on celery pests for the state, will address the members of the Kiwanis Club Wednesday at the regular meeting. His subject will be "Civilization." The topic will be elaborated on as affecting the future growth and prosperity of the United States.

The high points of the remarks of the celery research expert will bring out the facts that civilization has been moving steadily from the tropic to the temperate zones for the past 54 centuries. Also that this march in recent years has been accelerated and the state or nation which expects to keep in the vanguard of progress of the times must adapt itself to the changing conditions.

"Florida has, in the past few years, been attempting to bring agriculture from the North to the South," said Dr. Ball to The Herald this morning in giving a brief sketch of the stellar points of his coming address. "However if the peninsular state is to keep step with others and play her proper part in the satisfactory commercial development of this nation, she must largely reverse her efforts."

Posses Searching For The Slayers Of Mississippi Deputy

PHILADELPHIA, Miss., Oct. 8. (INS)—A posse of more than 200 officers and citizens, led by bloodhounds, were today trailing the slayers of Deputy John A. Myers, who was waylaid and shot to death in a dense swamp near here late yesterday. Deputy Myers, terror of moonshiners, has raided more than 100 stills this year in his campaign against bootleggers and has caused the arrest of about as many alleged liquor makers.

Many of their cases are now pending in the courts and officers today blamed his murder on bootleggers who wanted to get rid of him and thus win their freedom. Deputy Myers was riding alone across the swamps when ambushed. Three men in an auto ahead of him heard several shotguns fire. They turned to see Myers' car swerve, a dead man at the wheel, and crash into the ditch.

When the men reached him there was no trace of his murderers. Deputy Myers was dead from buckshot wounds in the face, part of his head being torn away.

ATURDAY SEES DEFEAT OF MANY BRID FAVORITES

Yale's Defeat by Georgia and Indiana's Triumph Over The Harvard Eleven Upset Dope; Penn Conquers Brown Eleven

By MALCOLM ROY International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Perhaps the most remote part has seen an overthrow of football favorites was witnessed last Saturday when there was an almost complete reversal of form up and down the Atlantic seaboard and even to the far inland. Out of the welter of copy turvy scores the most unexpected happening were those at Yale, where Yale succumbed to a stout hearted Georgia team a score of 14 to 10, and at Cambridge where Harvard is still suffering from a shock of a 19 to 0 setback at the hands of Purdue of the western conference.

Pennsylvania turned in one of the biggest surprises of the day by defeating the supposedly invincible "Iron Men" of Brown by a score of 14 to 6.

But there were other reversals like these in their spheres. These "three" major upsets, regarded as one of the best teams of the east, was defeated 6 to 0 by Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Maryland, conqueror of Yale last season, fell before North Carolina by a single point in a 7 to 6 battle and even Alabama, than whom there was none stronger a year ago, was held to a 0 to 0 tie score by Louisiana state down at Birmingham. In the west, Nebraska was turned back by Missouri, 7 to 0, in a game Nebraska had counted as good as won.

Any more upsets than these would probably call for a drastic revision of schedules, but as it is the balance of the season assumes somewhat scrambled aspect unless Saturday's fallen heroes suddenly come to life again.

Yale's chief difficulties, as viewed from the sidelines, were an inability to hold on to the ball. Failure to provide interference, especially to the receivers of kicks and punts, and a general sluggishness in line play. But crowning all these faults is the fact that the blue is apparently only a one man football eleven and that one man is the veteran Bruce Caldwell. Without Caldwell on the field Yale 000, have not been included among the liabilities in the balance sheets, since in our opinion, their execution was without the authority of the municipality and are, therefore wholly inoperative.

"Careful search of all minute books has been made. We find that on July 13, 1925 the commission voted to negotiate a short time loan in the sum of $200,000 for temporary financing of the east side bulkhead, later, August 5, 1925, embodying this item in a formal resolution in which provision was made for the issuance of two certificates of indebtedness to the Atlantic National Bank for $75,000 and $104,000 respectively.

"The minutes of the meeting of August 25, 1925 further recite that resolution 234 1-2 authorizing the issuance of time warrants of the City of Sanford was adopted. This resolution authorized time warrants not to exceed $300,000 for the purpose of defraying the cost of improvements, the said time warrants to be paid from the proceeds of sales of bonds.

"Attached to the minutes of February 8, 1926 appears a resolution increasing the authorization of time warrants to $450,000. This resolution is signed by three commissioners but is not referred to in the minutes of the meeting of that date. From February 8, 1926 to June 27, 1927, we find no authorization for temporary financing.

"Placing the broadest possible construction upon these authorizations, it appears that the intention of the commission was to authorize $450,000 of the time warrants in addition to certificates of indebtedness in the sum of $179,000 to the Atlantic National Bank.

"Time warrants were issued beginning with $14,000 on October 10, 1925 and thereafter in varying amounts until on February 15, 1926, the authorization of $450,000 was exceeded. On June 16, 1926 the total time warrants issued and outstanding totalled $789,365.59, remaining at this figure until immediately prior to October 31, 1926 when the amount was reduced to $350,959.73. On April 2, 1927 a further reduction in the time warrants was made, leaving $240,959.73 as total time warrants issued for borrowed funds at the date of the audit, July 31, 1927.

"Beginning on March 12, 1926 a series of certificates over and above the $179,000 authorization of eleven was worse than a ship without a rudder. Yale made nine fumbles.

the Commission, were issued. This issue reached a total on August 30, 1926 of $700,000 outstanding. This issue was liquidated before October 31, 1926, the date of the 1926 audit of the bond trustees accounts. No mention is made of this series of certificates in the auditor's certificate of the 1926 audit, the only reference thereto in the audit report being an item listed among the liabilities in the consolidated balance sheet, which bears a date of September 30, 1926.

"This series of certificates was issued to the Chase National Bank but we are unable to learn of any credit therefor to the City of Sanford on the books of that institution. On the other hand, they were credited to the bond trustees account on the books of the Seminole County Bank. It is our understanding that these certificates were used as collateral for loans to the Seminole County Bank from the Chase National Bank. It is to be noted that at the time these certificates were issued, the authorization for time warrants was at all times exceeded.

"As stated, the cash book and the bank's statement show that prior to October 31, all certificates issued to the Chase National Bank had been liquidated. In November and December 1926, a new series of certificates was issued as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Date and Amount. Rows include November 9, 1926 ($300,000), December 27, 1926 ($300,000), Total ($600,000), June 25, 1927 - paid ($100,000), Outstanding July 31, 1927 ($500,000).

"These certificates, according to the carbon copies on file at the City Hall and as recorded on the general books at the City Hall, were issued to the Seminole County Bank.

"The amount of this last series of certificates was placed to the credit of the City on the books of the Seminole County Bank in a savings account in which no other transactions appear, with the exception of the purported payment by the City to the bank of $100,000 on June 25, 1927. This payment was made by a warrant bearing the signature of only one bond trustee.

individual for any particular offense but respectfully suggest to the Sheriff of Seminole County that he investigate in this section and do whatever may be necessary to alleviate this condition. We further respectfully suggest that this matter be noted by the next grand jury.

"Further, the Grand Jurors wish to inform the Court that they thoroughly resent the implication against the members of this body contained in a paragraph published in The Sanford Herald on September 27, 1927. The jurors individually and collectively feel that they have labored for the best interest of the community and the insinuations such as published in the newspaper above referred to cast reflections on the Court and this body and the remarks were unjust and unwarranted.

"We further respectfully report to the Court that feeling that we were impeached and sworn primarily to investigate matters connected with the failure of the Seminole County Bank and certain alleged irregularities in the affairs of the City of Sanford, and for further reason that as we understand a regular term of this Court will convene on the first Tuesday of December next, we have not investigated matters of a general nature.

British Lawn Tennis Turns To Hard Courts

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 4.—(INS)—The French victory in the Davis Cup is likely to cause British lawn tennis authorities to change their entire international policy.

The triumph of the Frenchmen has driven Britain, at last, to the hard court. The Davis Cup matches next year will be played on hard courts and English players will have to cast away their fetish of the grass surface. And although the celebrated "Centre Court" at Wimbledon is

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY: MAN'S THOUGHTS.—The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

After False Spring: On this day when the sudden earth remembers the waters whence she sprang.

Judging from the Florida-Aurora score it seems that the voters were just a little sore about that defeat administered a week ago by Davidson.

With a victory over the Alumni all-star team and another one over the strong Palatka eleven, it appears that Coach Welchell has groomed a high school aggregation that bids fair to make a name for itself this season.

The amount of City funds in closed banks has been treated as losses in the new audit. And perhaps it's just as well because if any of the money is recovered it will be like "picking up that much in the road."

It develops that there were two City accounts in the Seminole County Bank that did not appear on the City's books. Yet we distinctly recall a certain statement made at the band shell about "going to the City Hall, you'll find all the records there."

Of course it is only a rumor, but we have heard it said that Mr. Amos Krow the Seminole County Bank should have closed over a year ago.—Sanford Herald. Did he write sweet letters to it like he did of one of this town's "busted" institutions.—Palm Beach Independent. He didn't miss.

The Times-Union and the Orlando Sentinel are having a slight morning circulation in Sanford. Our suggestion is that if you pay for your subscription to The Sanford Herald first and then if there is anything left in the exchequer, get yourself a copy of the Saturday Evening Post.

Evidently George Remus didn't find money made in bootlegging much of a hole to him in his old age. We sincerely recommend this story as one for the local bootleggers to read. Some of them are making pretty good money, but it won't do them any good, for the scouff! Ha! Ha! Ha! But he who laughs last and so forth.

President Calles is the hard-boiled man of Mexican politics. General Huerta, one of the leaders of the recent revolt, was immediately shot and his body hung in public squares in Nogales and other cities.

Florida Greets "Lindy"

As part of a tour which will take him to practically every state in the union, Col. Charles Lindbergh today visits Jacksonville where the whole state through an all-Florida reception committee will welcome the famous flier and bestow upon him honors that are extended to few notables.

Although the demonstration was just one of many to Lindbergh, to Jacksonville it was to be one of the greatest and most enthusiastic events ever staged in that city. The Florida Metropolis has been working for months on plans for the celebration and as a result of the arrangements every city and community in the state was given an opportunity to join in extending hearty greetings to America's hero of the day.

The Herald regrets that Col. Lindbergh's tour would not permit him to visit other parts of Florida so he could receive the plaudits of all of us, but we hope that Jacksonville's reception will be of such nature as to impress him with the extent of the well wishes and admiration of the people of the entire state, we hope at some future date, and may it not be far off, that Col. Lindbergh will find time to visit Florida again so that more of the state will have a chance to say "hello."

There is something closely akin to reverence in our feeling toward the youthful aviator who has made history by his wonderful flight. His reticence and unassuming attitude serve to quicken our admiration and make our adulation more pardonable. Thousands of words have been written in tribute to him and none of the praise has been misplaced. We bring ourselves into a closer fellowship with him by joining the thousands of others in calling him "Lindy."

For The Aid Of Widows

Widows with dependent children generally have a hard time making both ends meet. The care and responsibilities weigh heavily upon mothers, who by circumstances are compelled to take up the task of providing food and clothes for their children. The financial responsibility involved furnishes the most difficult problem. Because most women are unable to do as much as they would like to, there is placed upon society the duty of assisting widows under these circumstances. Florida has very wisely seen fit to enact such legislation as would meet the situation and our attention to this fact has been directed by the Pensacola Journal.

To the Florida Legislative Council, composed of some of the most prominent women of this state, goes the credit for the enactment of what the Pensacola paper describes as "being one of the most progressive pieces of legislation ever enacted by any law-making body." The law authorizes the commissioners of each county in this state to aid mothers who have children dependent upon them. The bill provides that the county commissioners use their discretion in appropriating funds for the year round to the limit of $25 a month for the first child and $8 for each additional child.

The Pensacola paper points out that the original law was passed in 1919 and required a residence of four years for the beneficiary. The legislature of 1927, however, has reduced the requirements to one year and at the same time has made it possible for each county to levy one mill instead of a half mill for the mothers' aid fund.

Concerning the benefits of the law and in tribute to the one who originally championed its passage, the Journal has this to say, "There are many splendid features about the 'Mother's Aid' law. First of all, it enables a mother with dependent children to maintain a home for them instead of placing them in an institution of charity. This naturally makes for better future men and women and tends to prevent the necessity for a heavy burden to the taxpayers for establishment of institutions for dependents. It lessens the need for institutional care, but does do away with the necessity entirely. Undoubtedly it has the effect of reducing delinquency."

"The law stands as a magnificent monument to the little school teacher of West Florida—Miss Agnes McKinnis—who in 1919 paid her own expenses to Tallahassee and initiated the fight that placed the measure on the statute books. By her activities Miss McKinnis, now Mrs. Mell C. Leonard, who is in charge of a Jacksonville orphanage, has made it possible to prevent the greatest tragedy—the breaking up of a home by the death of the father and the consequent scattering of the children."

LONGWOOD BIBLE CONFERENCE

The particular location of an institution of the scope of the Longwood Bible Conference will in no sense localize its operations and its influence. Longwood happens to be so beautifully endowed by nature that it becomes an ideal location. It has several citizens who possess that breath of vision that enables them to see the far-reaching value of such an institution to the spiritual and material world. Thus Longwood becomes the location of an institution that is different from anything now existing anywhere in the world; and the project is so large and so full of possibilities that its significance will not be readily grasped by those closely associated with this movement.

The East has its Chautauqua League, the West has its Indiana Wagon Assembly and Bible Conference grounds; the Pacific coast has its Ocean Beach Assembly. The South will have its Bible Conference and Missionary Home in this great project that will be located at Longwood because of the generosity and the vision of the Entaminger brothers, Senator Overstreet, and L. M. Pipkin, of Mulberry. The idea itself was born in the hearts of two Christian men, the one a minister of the Gospel and Bible teacher, Dr. E. J. Pace, internationally known; the other a devout Christian business man of New York City, who not only advised wealthy men as to the investment of their material funds, but as to their social investments. That man is Mr. J. H. Hilton.

All Florida will feel the influence of this institution both in a material and spiritual way. The people of the whole United States—particularly the Christian people of all denominations—will feel a deep concern for its work because it becomes a training school for missionaries, and at the same time a home for foreign, and a home for those who have devoted their lives to missionary work and who wish to have the best of the streets and a conscious

Another Great City. Woman's Will. Uneducated Leucocytes. Gruesomely Effective.

YOU MAY SOON see another "greatest city in America." Energetic business men of Oakland and San Francisco on opposite sides of the bay consider and discuss earnestly a combination of Oakland and San Francisco into one great city, to take in, by amicable negotiation, other important communities with a short radius of the center of the bay, midway between San Francisco and Oakland.

SOME LOCAL AMBITIONS and competitors, not local jealousies, are to be overcome. When that is done, and a suitable name for the great city selected, the fourth city in the United States, in population, will be "Greater San Francisco-Oakland," with 1,600,000 inhabitants.

THAT WOULD BE A blessing for Detroit and Los Angeles, now running neck and neck, giving them a useful punch and something to shoot at.

MR. ARNOLD, SECRETARY of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, immediately wishes you to know that if any such step is taken in San Francisco and Oakland, Los Angeles will spread out and take in a population to 2,200,861, which seems to be a very exact figure.

IN THE OLD days when women stung for the vote, and men of heavier type opposed them, you were told "women lack the qualities of men, especially his dogged determination."

Now Mercedes Gleitz, young English typewriter girl, swims the English channel, after failing in seven attempts. How many men would show more dogged determination than that?

WHAT IS MORE remarkable is the dogged determination with which such young women go on hammering away at their typewriter machines month after month, year after year patiently correcting the mistakes of men that employ them, enduring ill temper and bad manners.

A "STRANGE MALADY" attacks natives of Unalaska, a small native settlement on the Alaskan coast. The 700 inhabitants may be wiped out before help can reach them.

ORDINARY MEASLES, that white faces with "educated leucocytes" easily overcome, have wiped out an entire village in Alaska. Smallpox of course is deadly to the natives, killing everybody once it strikes, and the worst disease founded on vicious living have practically killed off the inhabitants of Pacific islands.

TO BE SAFE, educate your leucocytes, the white corpuscles in the blood that defend your body as soldiers defend a nation. We learn to fight disease only by encountering and conquering disease. "Scurvy" or "antioxims," which now protect children from deadly diphtheria and other diseases are simply mild forms of the disease which teach the white blood cells to fight disease in its aggravated form.

NEWS FROM MEXICO, most gruesome, indicates that somebody is determined to end the series of revolutions. One candidate for the presidency, opposing the government candidate, was arrested and shot. No loss of time.

ALFONSO DE LA HUERTA, brother of a former president of Mexico is shot down, and his body riddled with bullets, exhibited in the public square, tied to a tree with a bloody rose labeled, "another rebel general."

It is not pleasant work, but it will discourage revolution. EUROPE MAY SOON "enjoy" another war in the Balkans. Bulgarians between Jugo-Slavia and Bulgaria are closed, and soldiers hurry to the frontiers. That is the usual preliminary of war.

TO SET UP new nations, artificially, is as easy as setting up handsome dummies in front of a clothing store, but it is not so easy to keep them standing. The league of nations could easily bully the little Balkan countries into fairly decent behavior. But France, Italy, England, have different Balkan interests and may not agree on the same plan for coercion.

GENERAL KOVACHEVITCH you never heard of him, but he is important in Jugo-Slavia—water-murdered. Newspapers of Belgrade stop fighting each other for a minute, and yell for "revenge." It is hard to make natives of the Balkans give up killing each other as it is to make natives of the United States stop drinking whiskey, in fact you can't do it.

A recent hairdressers' convention broke up in a dispute. Splitting of hairs, we suppose.

Lilly-white hands usually are a denial for hard work—except when one of them is decorated with an engagement ring.

SANFORD BEATS PALATKA BY SCORE OF 19-0

STOINOFF STAR OF GAME THAT OPENS SEASON

Local Eleven Displays Unusual Strength In Game Against Team Having Much Weight

Higgins, Maxwell Play Good Game

Large Crowd Present To Cheer Gridders On To First Victory

(By JACK McQUADE)

"Sanford 19; Palatka 0." There is the brief story of the football game Saturday which opened the season at the Municipal Athletic Field. The folks who are pressed for time, will now move on to the next counter.

The dope on sporting events has been upset in a number of major contests in the past eighteen months. So was it upset yesterday. Sanford wasn't slated to win if several who are generally regarded as well informed, were to be believed. But to drag in the wearied bromide now and have it over with, Stoinoff, (better known as "Try-me Kid") fullback of Sanford HI, could have reminded with due modesty—"Venì, Vidi, Vincit!" His team-mates contend this flashy, hard-working, line bucking ball player, did more than any other to win the game for Sanford. Higgins untiring activity attracted many eyes.

The game was won for Maxwell as well. So declared members of the team. They decided to redouble their efforts after Dick was hurt in the second quarter.

Palatka put up anything, but a half-hearted scrap. Even after Sanford seemed to have sent them where the woodbine twines they played on just as earnestly. They've got a good team and you haven't beat them yet" affirmed Coach Wheelchell to the local eleven between halves.

But Sanford didn't get the well-known "swell-head". The same brand of football played by the Celery Feds in the first half was evident in the last—only more so. Palatka was still up and doing, but there was no more evidence of their stemming the figurative tide than there was of the legendary Kink Canute in attempting the restrain the literal waves.

It is an interesting side-light to note Sanford HI was outweighed from 10 to 15 pounds to the man.

Sanford fought and overcame a three point lead in the first quarter. The feature of the game was the consistent good playing of Sanford's line in both offensive and defensive maneuvers some say. Others say the last spot of the scrap was the spectacular and creditable work of Stoinoff, fullback. Take your pick! It takes eleven men any way to make a football team and each Sanford player was hard at work Saturday.

Only in the first few minutes of play was Sanford unable to solve the shifts of Palatka. Sanford's running attack was led practically always by "Try-me Kid". His line plunging, it is safe to remark, was the best seen hereabouts for some time gone by.

Palatka was handicapped by the absence of their star half back Buskell through injuries just after kicking a field goal which was almost perfect. This was in the first quarter. Their only other score came from a beautifully executed forward pass, for fifteen yards with the receiver running the remainder for a touch-down.

Sanford only tried two forward passes. Both were incomplete. There is some more practice needed here perhaps. Palatka took the air only four times with an average of about fifty per cent achievement.

Seven members on Sanford HI's team Saturday were playing their first football game. Their support was little short of remarkable. Weakness of the local team showed up in blocking, returning punts, and failure to assume full advantage of their opponents' style of play. There is room for improvement likewise in Sanford's kick-off and going down under kick-off. The local squad will return to hard work this afternoon to iron out these kinks, Coach Wheelchell told The Herald. The team plays Orlando Saturday Oct. 15.

There were fully half a thousand spectators and probably more. In the stands, Mayor Wheeler not excepting, cheered the best procession. Palatka's side of the field was graced by from 150 to 200. Nor did the latter lose a chance to strengthen the morale of their favorite eleven viva voce.

KOENIG BECOMES STAR INSTEAD OF "GOAT" OF SERIES

Yankee Shortstop Batted .500 For Championship Contests And Field Brilliantly; Babe Ruth Also Star Player

By LES CONKLIN International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Although the 1927 World Series failed to produce an outstanding hero, the best playing was done by Marcus Aurelius Koenig, shortstop of the Yankees. Mark's performance was especially noteworthy in that he was the official "goat" of the 1927 series.

Koenig led the regulars in batting with a juicy average of .500 and fielded perfectly. With him of the lineup, the Hagmen never would have scuttled the Pirates in four straight games.

John Miljus, Pittsburgh pitcher had a chance to become the hero of the classic when he fanned Gehrig and Meusel with the bases loaded in the ninth inning of the finale. But he let the winning run trickle across the plate on a wild pitch, and thus became the "goat" of the last game.

Herb Pennock pitched a three-hit game against the Pirates, but he also performed that stunt against the Cardinals last year. In the general excitement attending his feat this year, not one fan in ten recalled that fact.

Babe Ruth hit two homers, but that seems like a slump for the Bambino when one remembers what he did against the Cardinals last year.

The real hero of the series was Col. Jacob Ruppert, owner of the Yankees. When the Yanks won on Saturday, erasing the golden prospects of a $200,000 Sunday gate, the good colonel led the applause.

Purchasers of tickets for the fifth game can get their money back by mailing the tickets to the Yankee offices here.

Babe Ruth's two homers gave him .426 for his entire career. His complete series batting mark is now .275.

The Pirate regulars who fell down were Glenn Wright, who batted only .151, Joe Harris and Pie Traynor, who batted .200, and the catchers, who failed to get a hit between them. Meusel, with a horrible mark of .118 was the only Yankee weakling.

Urban Shocker and Dutch Rader, two of New York's best pitchers, failed to get into the series. They, with their team mates, each will receive $5,702, however.

The members of the Yankees were scattering to their homes today. Earl Combs was speeding to Kentucky to see for the first time a six-weeks' old baby daughter, born during the season. Meusel, Lazzeri and Moore left for their homes in the west. Koenig, Shawkey and Bengough will go hunting, and Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig are scheduled for a barnstorming tour.

The Pirates are in Pittsburgh. How they felt about their crushing defeat was indicated in a report that Glenn Wright had been arrested on a charge of reckless driving.

ORLANDO—Orange Count's new courthouse will be dedicated Oct. 12.

"shirt-tail" effect to the procession. The outing of the students attracted considerable attention and brought forth smiles and laughter from the onlookers who gathered at every corner as the students every corner as the students passed by.

High School Students Stage Victory Parade

The commotion and general noise in town Saturday evening wasn't caused by the blowing up of the vaults in the Seminole County Bank by yeggs who didn't know any better. The excellent imitation of a shipyard during wartime activity was merely 75 students of Sanford HI casually mentioning the fact that Sanford won the football game Saturday afternoon.

A motorcade of a dozen or two cars driven by girls of Sanford HI led and composed most of the parade. What was lacked in number was made up in pep by the boys who filed behind the cars adding the

The following is the lineup of the game:

L. Eddingfield — e
Fred Stanley — e
Dick Maxwell — q
Gordon Walker — hb
John Higgins — hb
Jim Stoinoff — sb
Subs L. P. Haggen for Walker
Tat Tateron for Dick.

Here they are, the most talked about four players in the world series. From left to right, they are Lloyd Waner, Babe Ruth, Paul Waner and Lou Gehrig. They lived up to all advance notices given of their ability in the opening game of the series, although it must be admitted that the Ruth-Gehrig act had more potent power to it than the brotherly act of the Waners had. The Yankees won, 5-4.

series, although it must be admitted that the Ruth-Gehrig act had more potent power to it than the brotherly act of the Waners had. The Yankees won, 5-4.

A COSTLY PIRATE ERROR

In the third inning of the first game with first and third occupied Smith, the Pirate catcher, bluffed a throw to second and then threw to third. His strategy went wrong, however, for on Traynor's return throw Smith let the ball get away from him and Gehrig scored from third a run that proved to be very important. Gehrig is shown registering while Smith scrambles for the ball.

Louisiana State's Showing Against Alabamals Biggest Upset In Southern Contests

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 9 (INS)—Out of all the gridiron happenings of Saturday the most outstanding as far as the south was concerned was Georgia's brilliant triumph over the Yale Bulldogs. It was the Southerner's first victory over the YBs in five years.

L. S. U. furnished the biggest upset of the week-end inside the conference by battling Alabama to a 6-0 tie. The game was played in rain and mud, but that has nothing to do with the fact that Alabama failed to score. That resulted from L. S. U.'s marked ability and remarkable fighting spirit.

Georgia Tech supporters were very much encouraged by the Jackets' snappy victory over Tulane, 13 to 6. The Tech line, a formidable aggregation of forwards paved the way for the triumph, while "Stumpy" Thomason and Arnell Mizell were very active in the backfield.

In addition to lack of a coach, Dave Morey having resigned effective Saturday night Auburn seems bereft of a football team that can win. The Plainsmen took the straight sock on the nose, being overwhelmed by Florida, 33 to 6.

Vanderbilt flashed continued power by running wild over Centre College, 53 to 6. The other Tennessee entry, the Vols, were not so impressive, being limited to a touchdown win over Maryville. However, one must not forget that it was only a couple of weeks back that Maryville tied Kentucky.

South Carolina nosed out Virginia by one point, which in a way, was a surprise. Kentucky and V. M. I. had no trouble taking contests from set-ups while the Miss Aggies battered out two touchdowns against the Louisiana poly eleven.

North Carolina shocked the ex-

Cuban Fisherman Held For Murder

KEY WEST, Fla., Oct. 10.—(INS)—Ramon G. Alpizar, Cuban fisherman was being held in jail today on a charge of murdering Phillip Varella, twelve, whose lifeless body was found at the bottom of a swimming hole here more than one year ago.

The warrant on which Alpizar was taken into custody was issued from the country solicitor's office and was based on information furnished by the youths father, who told authorities that ever since the body of his boy was found by companions while in swimming, that he had been working on the theory that the youth had met with foul play.

American Is Missing In Chinese War Area

PEKING, Oct. 10.—(INS)—The American legation today asked the assistance in locating William Christian, a representative of the British-American tobacco company who is caught in the battle-line on the Hankow railway.

Christian has not been heard of for eleven days. Terrific fighting between the forces of Chang-Tso-Lin and the Shansi troops is reported in the vicinity of the railroad.

Dartmouth Back Leads In Eastern Individual Scores

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—(INS)—Myles Lane, Dartmouth halfback, leads the individual point scorers in eastern ranks today with a total of 49 points.

Because the goal posts have been set back 10 yards, only two of the east's 100 leading scorers have booted a field goal.

The ten leading scorers are:

Death Is Asked

The death penalty is being asked for Mrs. Ruth Ball, on trial in Oklahoma City for the murder of her husband, John W. Ball, last June. Police obtained a confession in which it was stated Mrs. Ball shot her husband after an argument in his drug store.

Fights Soon

Here's Mike McTigue, light heavy-weight champion, who will defend his title against Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia fighter, early next month. McTigue was handed the championship when Jack Delaney relinquished it some time ago.

It Never Rains but It Pours

While the city of Poplar Bluff, Ark., was about the work of rebuilding the district wrecked by the tornado of May 9, there came a cloudburst on the same day that St. Louis was visited by a similar storm. The flooded streets of Poplar Bluff and part of the wreckage caused by the May tornado are pictured above.

Dallas to Hongkong? Certainly!

While on his national tour Col. Charles A. Lindbergh stopped in Dallas, Tex., where he met Col. W. E. Easterwood, Jr. Lindbergh is pictured here shaking hands with Easterwood. During their talk Lindbergh assured Easterwood that the Dallas-Hongkong flight, which Easterwood proposed, would be made some day, but it would take a "good plane and a good man."

Modern Soul Starving To Be A Leatherstocking, Declares New York Forestry Expert

MEMPHIS, Oct. 1. — The modern soul is starving to be a Leatherstocking in the school of the woods, Dr. William G. Vinal of the State College of Forestry, Syracuse, N. Y., told the national congress of the Playground and Recreation Association here this morning in an address on the nature play.

"The chances in the city of liberating the instincts of tree climbing, cave hiding, stone throwing and brook wading,—the great muscle and brain developers of the country youth,—are reduced to a minimum," he said. "Some one is needed to give the city boy or girl substitute nature opportunities.

"Nature play is science in the making, for nature offers a thousand contacts to the alert mind. Michael Pupin, famous scientist at Columbia University, heard sound waves carried through the ground when he was a shepherd boy in the Serbian hills. If Edison had been born in the city instead of the country he might have been a merchant instead of an inventor.

"Is this an age of tin canned education?" Dr. Vinal asked. "Have our schools lost all the flavor and freshness of the wild? Perhaps our educational processes have become so refined that the very vitamins of thought have been thrown away with the chaff.

Climbing apple trees, chasing butterflies, fighting hornets, pushing across a pond on a raft, and hunting frogs are the serious business of childhood. Every child takes to hunting, fighting and inventing as a duck takes to water or a rabbit to the market yard."
