Britain Plans To Resist Any Blockade Try

Foreign Officer Expects To Be Consulted Before Such An Attempt Is Made

REPEAT FOR FP (33)
LONDON—Britain will firmly resist any proposal to blockade Red China, the foreign office made plain today.

A spokesman recalled that Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told Parliament four days ago that he would think it would be a mistake to have a policy of blockade of mainland China.

The statement, at a news conference was prompted by news men who questioned him about Washington reports suggesting President Eisenhower's administration may be pondering whether to blockade the China coast as part of its general Far Eastern policy.

The spokesman said the British government has received no such official proposal from the U. S. He told a questioner "We should expect to be consulted before a decision of that sort were taken and he added: "I believe we would be."

The British government obviously is concerned about reports published here that serious American consideration is being given to a blockade. That concern was reflected in the foreign office action (Continued On Page Three)

Chinese Group Urges U.S. To Use Blockade

Nationalist Agency Sees Such Action As Necessary Step Toward Ending War

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist official Central Daily News today urged the U. S. to blockade the Red China mainland.

The news agency said that would not expand the Korean War but "on the contrary, would serve as a necessary step toward ending it."

A similar view was expressed by the newspaper Kunz Lam Pao which said the U. S. should strengthen the Nationalist navy and air force for use in effecting the blockade.

Official reports today told of two Nationalist guerrilla raids against the Red Chinese by 300 men against a small island off the coast of Chekiang last week and the other by about 1,500 guerrillas in far off Inner Mongolia. Both appeared to be of the military variety.

In New York the commander in chief of the Nationalist navy said the Nationalists have 600,000 troops in Formosa, continuously preparing for the offensive against the mainland.

Vice Adm. Ma Ch'ung-hua told a civic gathering that force would be held by 10 million guerrillas waiting on the mainland.

Meanwhile the stormy debate aroused by President Eisenhower's decision to withhold the P-51 continued on Page Three.

Road Department Plans To Drop 23 Right-Of-Way Men

Nine Attorneys Drawing Retainers Also Slated To Get Out

MELANESSE (AP)—The State Road Department is dropping 23 right-of-way agents and nine attorneys who have drawn retainers for road purposes.

Chairman Richard H. Simpson said today that the department is dropping the right-of-way agents and attorneys because they are not needed for road purposes.

The right-of-way agents are regular employees whose duties are to negotiate with property owners for the purchase of land needed for road purposes.

One of the 23 to be dropped is State Rep. Webb T. Ferguson, Pennsylvania.

Ferguson is still on the payroll but has been informed his post is to be abolished. Simpson said.

The Florida County representative in the purchase of land needed for road purposes was dropped by the department some September, 1951. He always has taken a leave of absence without pay during legislative sessions in which he has served.

He is eligible for retirement. Simpson said, and if a post opens up he will be offered it.

The decision to drop the right-of-way agents was made because they were serving no useful purpose at the time. Simpson said.

The road department has been forced to curtail the road building program sharply because of a cash deficit of more than six million dollars.

Among the lawyers cut off from retainers are Charles Savage, Donal Savage and one of the attorneys who represented a fee for defending the Warren road board against multiple kickback charges made in a civil suit filed by S. L. Kilgore.

Savage received $3,000 in addition to his regular retainer fee for his services in connection with the Kilgore suit.

The Dulles swing through Western Europe took Dulles and Stassen to the capitals of seven friendly nations. His chief objective was to find out where these countries stood on the question of setting up a joint military force against possible communist aggression.

"On the whole," Dulles said, he and Stassen were "encouraged by what we have been told by the leaders of the six continental nations, which have signed the treaty to create a European Defense Community."

But he added:

"We do not minimize the difficulties confronted by those who have undertaken this great project, but we believe that there is a reasonable determination to bring the project to a completion."

The newspaper said America's new Formosa policy and the "ultimatum and demands" on Western Europe by U. S. Band Of Pirates Capture Tampa On Gasparilla Day

TAMPA (AP)—Gasparilla Day comes but once a year so that's why this city today tossed its cares out the window and hollered itself hoarse while a band of make-believe pirates captured the place.

Four ships, made to look like pirate vessels which prowled over Southern waters 175 years ago, slid into Tampa at noon bringing in a bunch of patch-eyed sea bandits bent on looting, shooting and tooting.

The pirates are members of Y. M. C. A. Gasparilla, a social organization of Tampa civic and business leaders. Each year they invade the city, take it by storm and then to celebrate their victory, through the city in a miles long parade. The ruse invasion involves hundreds of craft.

The parade ends at the grounds of the Florida State Fair.

The invasion signals a week of dances, parties and gaiety. Tunes are played on the city's top social spots. Through the night the parilla ball. Then a new king and queen will be crowned by the Krewes, which chose them by secret ballot.

Gasparilla gets its name from a pirate named Jose Gaspar who decided he liked the name Gaspar better. Through the years he has been an argument as to whether Gaspar ever existed.

The tale that the Gasparilla folk tell is that he was a Ponce de Leon lieutenant in the Spanish navy who led a mutiny aboard his ship. Then he turned pirate in Florida.

to Congress on his trip soon.

Stassen said the days of their trip "will be known in future years as 10 great days of service by the secretary of state to the cause of peace and freedom."

While they were away, Eisenhower issued his new famous order releasing Chiang Kai-shek's forces for action against the Chinese Communist mainland.

Some senators have asked that Dulles come before them to explain just what this order entails. They are expected also to query him about recurrent rumors that a naval blockade might be clamped on the China Coast.

Told that such rumors were circulating in the capital, Dulles said: "It's something that could be discussed in Washington."

As for himself, he said he "knew nothing" about the talk of aloof.

Before setting out on his fact finding trip, Dulles told the West European nations that they must get together on a plan for a joint West European army or else the United States might be forced to "rethink" its foreign aid program.

Walter Nash, leader of New Zealand's opposition labor party, charged that the action "may set alight a fire which every lover of peace and freedom desires to avoid." Members of the British labor party expressed similar views.

Pravda in the first direct Russian comment, described it as an act intended to prevent settlement of the Korean War and expand war activity in the Far East.

Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief of the U. S. Pacific fleet in World War II, said in Berkeley, Calif., "I am completely in accord with the decision to denaturalize Formosa."

Today in commenting on a hypothetical question—an annual trip.

The British belief seems to be that the U. S. is looking at the blockade possibility only as one aspect of a new, more forceful general Asian strategy which would include the other spots of tension, such as Malaya and Indonesia.

The foreign office expects an early American move to seek the views of the main allies in Korea. If it does not come soon, British Ambassador Sir Roger Makins may be ordered to get the British government views on record once again at the first opportunity.

The blockade question, coupled with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' visit to Western Europe, helped earn the U. S. as poor a set of notices in the British press today as it has had in many a year.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

But some of us find on learning the hard way. We should not resent reproof of others. He that reproveth reproveth. — Pr. 10:17.

They say that old man Dempsey looked a little weak in the knees in Orlando the other day. Maybe the flu was bothering him.

We see where people who are 55 years of age or older are less likely to catch cold than younger people. Evidently we are not old enough.

The biggest bargain in Sanford today is the Herald's annual mail-away edition coming out on Feb.
23. You can buy it today for 10 cents a copy. It will cost you 25 cents a copy on the day of publication.

One gets a faint glimpse of what is happening to Florida's natural resources when he studies the increase of water consumption in this state. Take Orlando, for instance.
Last December 296,415,000 gallons of water were consumed in that one city alone. During December of the previous year, 238,553,000 gallons were consumed. That is a 24 percent increase in one year.

In spite of the fine educational campaign which the Florida Forest Service is waging to acquaint the public with the importance of preserving our timberlands, the number of forest fires in this state has more than doubled during the past six months over the same period of the previous year. From July to January there were 2900 fires which burned 49,000 acres of land, whereas during the previous year there were only 1300 fires burning 23,000 acres of land. This is a destruction of property which can't be replaced for many years.

The growing importance of the cattle industry to the state of Florida was emphasized by Rollins College last week when it held a cattle conference attended by cattlemen from all over the state some of whom brought some of their cattle with them and "stabled" them right on the lawn at the Annie Russell Theater. More important than politics in the future success of this industry in Florida, one expert told the group, are the economic factors involved. With the right machinery, seeds, drainage and pest control, Florida cattlemen can compete with the best from other states.

Automobile accidents could be substantially reduced if adequate highways were built in Florida and throughout the country. In this state we are still trying to get along with the quantity and quality of highways which served all necessary purposes before the war and during the depression. Today we may not have two cars in every garage, but it seems as if the only reason is they are all out on the highways, all pushing and shoving, and trying to get ahead of each other, so that they can get to where they are going in time to turn around and come back. No wonder we have auto accidents.

What's the use of trying to bring tourists or new industries here, one fellow said to us the other day, we haven't got any place for them to stay if they come. We can remember when Miami had so many tourists, it had to erect tents on the outskirts of the city to provide overnight shelter for the thousands of people who were pouring into the city with no place to stay, and all the city kept on advertising the more. What good did it do?
Well, the demand for hotels and apartments as well as houses to rent finally became so great that outside capital was at last induced to come in and put up some new buildings. The same thing could happen here. If there were such a demand for it, there would

Bumper Crop

More babies were born in the United States during 1932 than in any previous year in the nation's history, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company assures us. The total is estimated at 3,875,000, and the year's birth rate was approximately 25 per 1,000 population.

The past year was the sixth in succession in which the number of births exceeded 3,500,000. The maintenance of the birth rate at the current high level is described by the company as "rather unexpected," in view of a decline since 1946 in the marriage rate.

"Last year's record reflects a large number of second, third and fourth children born of post-World War II marriages," the Metropolitan says. "This is to some extent the result of the relatively low age at marriage in recent years, and also may be considered as indicating a change in attitude as to the size of the family."

The babies born in 1932 were blessed with a good start in life, it was observed.

"Infant mortality was probably the lowest ever experienced in any year," the Metropolitan points out. "The infant mortality rate was a little over 28 per 1,000 live births in 1932, the third successive year in which the rate has been less than 30. The reduction in infant mortality over the past 10 years has brought about a saving of 50,000 infant lives in 1932 alone."

Notre Dame And Army

The most exciting recent news for followers of college football is the resumption of relations between the Army and Notre Dame. A two-game series has been arranged, starting in 1937 at South Bend and in 1938 at West Point. Intercollegiate football nowadays is such a major industry that the schedules are filled years in advance, making 1937 the earliest year in which a free date can be found.

For some years the match between the two thrilled football fans more than any other game of the season. The main excitement came from those unconnected with either institution, and so-called "subway alumni" of New York City where the games were apt to be held. They became so stirred up that the games threatened to grow out of control by either institution. After all football is not the primary business of either the Army or of Notre Dame University. Dropping the series for a time was sound policy.

The authorities will be wise also if they continue to hold the games on the home grounds of one or the other. Holding them in the Yankee Stadium emphasized the commercial aspect of the spectacle, and was a mistake.

Ministers In Politics

The late Charles A. Eaton of New Jersey, for years the House of Representatives' Republican leader on the Foreign Affairs Committee, was before entering politics a conspicuous Baptist minister. He is one of a very few clergymen who have held high public office. Another Jerseyman, the Rev. Luther H. Clew, served in the state senate and a few years ago, as the Republican candidate for governor, tried unsuccessfully to break the grip on the state held by the Frank Hague machine.

One other might have been added to the list. In 1931 the Philadelphia Republican machine, discredited by scandal and afraid for its life, tried to put on a good front by running as its candidate for mayor the Rev. Daniel A. Poling, one of the nation's best-known clergymen. Though his character was unimpeachable, Philadelphians feared that nevertheless he would be merely a catspaw for the old gang.

They rejected him, therefore, for the Democratic nominee, the present mayor, Joseph S. Clark, Jr. Under him Philadelphians are now enjoying the unfamiliar blessing of good government. Poling's intentions were equally good, but he might not have been so successful.

Congressman Herlong Reports

This week we heard the President's State of the Union address—a very able and well presented address. I particularly liked the first part of the address where he discussed our future foreign policy, our military situation and his determination to balance the budget. As high as taxes are, I do agree that it would be a mistake to lower taxes and continue deficit spending just for the sake of lowering taxes. Once the budget is balanced the dollar will again be on a sound basis; the appropriated dollar as well as your dollar will buy more—then the cost of government will be sufficiently reduced so that taxes can be substantially reduced. It seems to me that a token reduction in taxes without a concurrent balancing of the budget would only result in continued inflation and would further postpone any real tax reduction.

Ohio Housewives Get Second Chance For Bargain Beef

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 8.—Housewives who lost out on an opportunity to buy round, sirloin and T-bone steaks for 39 cents a pound yesterday will get another chance tomorrow.

The Metz Supermarket sold 7,000 pounds of New Zealand beef for that price yesterday. It is expected another shipment of 15 sides tomorrow.

Yesterday's sales provoked a near riot. Police were called to control the crowd.

Louis McClaren, manager of the meat department, said the meat was purchased from a Chicago packer whom he declined to identify.

The meat was probably part of a shipment of 60 million pounds of frozen New Zealand beef shipped to this country via Canada last September.

In Washington, John Heimburger, counsel for the House Agriculture Committee, said last week only about a third of the New Zealand beef had been sold and the rest was stored in Chicago. He said Agriculture Department officials think the beef is competitive only with lower American grades.

The Ohio Cattle Feeders Association has already asked the government to restrict imports of frozen beef.

Digestive Troubles

By W. V. Biting
Touchton Drug Co.
Poor digestion brings pain, nausea, belching, and often causes loss of appetite. Here are some of the sources that produce digestive troubles: eating too fast, not drinking enough water, eating too much or not eating the right foods. Self-medication often irritates the condition, especially if the trouble lies with the function of the organs that aid digestion. The safest, surest, quickest way to get relief is to have your doctor diagnose the condition at once. Expert compounding of your prescription will assure the best treatment. Select a pharmacist with care.

Lewis Mathews Is Winner In Orange Picking Contest

ORLANDO.—Lewis Mathews, Davenport, won the Fourth Annual National Orange Picking Contest near here Sunday by filling 20 boxes—that's 4,200 oranges—in one hour and amassing a new record of 471 points.

Strawberry Rohn, also of Davenport, filled 19 1/2 boxes and scored 467 1/2 points for second place.

It isn't necessarily the man who picks the most oranges who wins. Leslie (Doc) Jones, Davenport, picked 21 boxes but made only 419 points.

The Orlando Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the contest, awards 25 points for each box picked but subtracts one point for each error—fruit left on tree or ground, or oranges that were scarred.

Mathews, 20, who works for the Holly Hill Citrus Co., was in 10th place in the eliminations Saturday.

His score Sunday was six points higher than the previous record. He won $350 cash and a golden trophy presented by Florida Grower Magazine.

Contest officials estimated upwards of 15,000 persons were on hand for the finals held in Santerson Grove.

Although the potter's wheel was unknown in pre-Columbian New Mexico, the Indians made jars by working the clay in shallow basins or pots which could be turned as the work proceeded.

Everyone was interested in the program. The boys and girls are studying of Egypt we read that they were punished by having their hands cut off, and we thought that that might be a child's hand. But July Singer, who is a close observer, told us they looked like they were torn off.
Linda Staley and Charles Kake liked Captain Van Dyne's time collection. They are collecting too and Captain Van Dyne helped to identify some of their stones.
Linda Staley was interested in the gloves of Princess Louise and she had studied about Jenny Lind. Jenny Powell said "I think Hans Christian Andersen couldn't help falling in love with Jenny Lind. She was so beautiful."
July Singer told us about the history of the hand carved rollers sixteen feet long. Most of us missed it and we are sorry because we had read about scrolls in our unit on Palestine.
All of us were interested in the collection of Mr. Van Ness because we had studied about Jenny Lind. Jenny Powell said "I think Hans Christian Andersen couldn't help falling in love with Jenny Lind. She was so beautiful."

St. Louis Cards Seek Pact With Blues

Cardinals Want To Furnish Players, Manager And Give $500 Every Month

By KENT CHETLAIN
The traditionally strong St. Louis Cardinal farm system, packed with future stars, including Johnny Mize, Enos Slaughter and other sluggers, has been a major asset to the floundering St. Louis Blues in the raging sea of debt with a name attached to the safety of the 1953 football shore.

This in effect was the Cardinals' offer to make a working agreement with the Blues for 1953, which would not only give the Cardinals a complete baseball club, manager and $500 a month working capital, but would pay the Blues $2,500 to buy back any of their own players at the end of the season.

The startling news came in the form of a letter from the Cardinals to the Blues, which was signed by the Cardinals' manager, Tommy Lasorda, and the Cardinals' president, Joe Mauer, director of the vast St. Louis farm system.

Mauer made the offer because some of the regular class D Cardinals affiliates were folding up with the disbanding leagues.

Included with the letter was the complete working agreement, which was signed by the Cardinals' manager and manager and manager support, the Cardinals will contribute $250 a month for training for players, which must be nominally financed by the Blues as well as traveling expenses up to $75.

"If the local directors of the Blues will make this agreement," Lasorda declared, "then they will have made the biggest haul."

In fact as far as he is concerned, "it is the only practical solution for the present baseball crisis in St. Louis. As far as I know, Callahan hasn't even signed a manager or any players. I also know from experience that it's going to be hard to assemble a ball club, particularly from scratch with only an uncertain amount of working capital."

After pausing to read the letter and agreement, Lasorda went on, "What better rich backers want? The Cardinals, who you know have always had one of the top, if not the best, minor league systems in baseball, are willing to take a complete team, manager and $500 a month to go to the expense of scouting for players or try to complete with some of the other clubs in the Jacksonville Beach and Daytona area."

Then Lasorda said he was turning the proposal over to Callahan and the Blues' board of directors for consideration.

"I am going to ask Callahan to call a meeting, either tonight or tomorrow, to consider this offer," Lasorda added. "They must act now for the Cardinals won't wait long for a reply. If the club doesn't want to sign the agreement, I can find a lot of other clubs in the league that would jump at such a deal."

The Cardinals offer was a break in the stalemate that has existed in the St. Louis area since the Blues' league help sought by the St. Louis Blues as long ago as last October. Callahan and Lasorda had communicated with all 10 minor league teams after last season with no results. However, the increasing number of leagues disbanding operations is beginning to force some major league teams to seek to replace their reduced farm holdings and agreements.

The Cardinals offer is a direct result of this new situation. Another reason is the growing number of returning servicemen to the ranks of the various farm clubs.

Feds "Blitzkrieg" Palatka Twice, 71-46; 48-44

Feds Win 4th Game To Equal 1951-52 Victory Record; Metts Scores 20

By KENT CHETLAIN
With the return of Junior Metts and Frank Stafford, two costly players who drew top-day suspensions for training rule infractions, the blitzkrieg attack of the Seminole High School cage machine struck its most devastating blow of the season by lambasting the Palatka Minors 71-46 in Palatka last Friday night to end a four-game losing streak.

Those undeniable Titans of the Junior Varsity field, the Sanford JVs, employed all the fifth string substitutes to keep the score "down" in their opening clash at Palatka scoring a 16-11 triumph. Thus it was a clean sweep for the Sanford JVs in the Florida State League.

Meanwhile, the Seminole of the varsity were running up the largest score any Sanford club has amassed in recent years and probably one of the largest yet inked in the Seminole loop annals. By sweeping its two-game home and home series with Palatka, the Feds now lead a 1-1 EFC record and a season's count of 4-7. This is as many victories as last year's Sanford cage representatives were able to amass. The 1952 ledger shows a poor 4-13 record.

Junior Metts, whose banishment from the Kettering game last week was the only one of the season, was the star of the night, scoring 20 points and 11 rebounds.

It was the ninth straight victory for the Ovidians who now own a brilliant 9-0 unblemished CFC record and a 10-2 season's count.

In the girls game the Ovidians made it a clean sweep of a twin bill by dumping the Groveland girls by a 54-18 margin. Shirley Jones, no relation to Johnny, poured in 28 points for the winners. It raised her season scoring total to 205 this year.

The Minorsmen will be seeking their 10th straight triumph tomorrow night in the Community gym here against St. Cloud in another CFC clash.

Those called for by his post as league secretary and statistician, Dempsey, vice president for two years, succeeds John Krider, Sanford, who resigned last month for personal reasons. He is the 10th president since the league's founding in 1936 and the first to be elected from a city that does not belong to the loop.

All eight clubs announced they will be ready to play in April thereby shutting out Lakeland and Gainesville which had sought franchise.

Officials from Lakeland, a former member of the Florida International League, said they would be willing to join in mid-season in case one of the present members couldn't continue all season.

There had been reports before Sunday the deadline, that one or two clubs would not post franchise forfeits.

The league is made up of Cocoa, Daytona Beach, DeLand, Jacksonville Beach, Leesburg, Orlando, Palatka and Sanford.

Jim Spencer And J. W. Altman Lose In Golfing Finals

DAYTONA BEACH (Special)— Sanford's Jim Spencer, winner of the 1952 Mayfield Seminole Invitational, and Jim Altman were defeated in the state amateur four ball tournament finals by two Daytona Beach students, Dick Johnson and Dave Rosen, 10 and 9, here Saturday afternoon.

Johnson, Stetson University senior, and Ragan, Seabreeze High School senior, had a best ball score of 41, 11 under par, on the morning round over the 6,198 yard and 73 Daytona Beach Country Club.

That gave the young team, playing in its first state four-ball, a nine hole lead.

It was just a matter of time from then on. Although the pace eased in the nine holes needed to end the match yesterday afternoon, Johnson and Rosen were 19 under par for the 27 holes played.

They were 39 under par for all 80 holes they played to the tournament. And their victims included Wednesday morning, the young champions had 7 pars and 11 birdies.

Ragan clipped in the cup from off the 17th green and took a 27 foot putt on the 18th hole. He shot an individual score of 66 and Johnson had 67.

Note for brides and other new cooks: Pie pastry has enough shortening in it to keep it from sticking when baked in an ungreased pie pan.

Some cooks like to use a kitchen scissors to cut snap beans into thin strips before cooking. Prunes and dates may also be easily cut with the kitchen scissors. Chopped tomatoes make an excellent "flavor addition" to a lamb stew.

Oviedo Lions Win 9th Straight CFC Game From Groveland, 54-33

OVIEDO (Special)—Despite severe colds, which limited Oviedo's top scorers from most of the game, the Lions rolled over Groveland here last Friday night by a 54-33 score for their 9th straight win in Central Conference play.

Johnny Jones and Walter Duda, both taking shots every four hours for a severe attack of flu, were only able to play two quarters. Jones managed to pour in the second high scoring to a total of 11 markers, but Duda was held to three, while Duda was held to three, while Duda was held to three.

Jack Dempsey Is Named President Of State League

ORLANDO (Special)—Directors of the Class D Florida State League tried Sunday to make Peter Schaal president, but he declined and Jack Dempsey, St. Augustine, was elected.

Schaal, Silver Springs and Ocala, a unanimous choice, said he could not take on chores in addition to those called for by his post as league secretary and statistician.

Dempsey, vice president for two years, succeeds John Krider, Sanford, who resigned last month for personal reasons. He is the 10th president since the league's founding in 1936 and the first to be elected from a city that does not belong to the loop.

Steinecke Seeks Managerial Post Of Sanford Blues

Bill Steinecke, manager of last year's play-off winning Palatka Azaleas and former manager of St. Augustine and DeLand in the Florida State League, requested the managerial post for Sanford this summer in a conference with Seminole Blues President John D. Callahan at the FSL meeting in Orlando yesterday.

Steinecke, who was the manager's job for the Northern FSL All-Stars in the game played here last July, was ousted by Palatka at the end of last season when the Azaleas showed an estimated loss of $20,000.

The bald-headed round man is currently signed to a contract to pilot the Jessup club in the Georgia State League, but he was given free reign to seek another job since the Georgia loop is on the verge of disbanding.

Steinecke made no secret about his intentions to get the Sanford post by attending the FSL meeting yesterday. Steinecke also disclosed that Cecil Hutson would play for him if the roundman comes here this summer.

Callahan made no announcement and it is believed merely discussed the job with Steinecke yesterday. Sanford is the only FSL club without a signed manager for this summer.

Seminole Blues To Be Operated For Fernald-Laughton Hospital

John D. Callahan, president of the Seminole Blues, announced that the Seminole Blues would be run for the benefit of Sanford's Fernald-Laughton Hospital this coming summer. Callahan made the announcement in a prepared speech before the directors of the Florida State League meeting in Orlando yesterday.

Callahan stated that with one-third of all net receipts going to the government, it is becoming almost impossible to operate baseball clubs in the minor leagues, especially in class D leagues.

Callahan said if the government agrees to allow the 23 percent state and federal tax exemptions, it would set a precedent for all the minor leagues and may lead to a solution of the perplexing financial losses in minor league baseball.

Here is the complete text of Mr. Callahan's speech: "It is apparent that baseball in the minor leagues, especially in the class D groups, is in a very sick condition. Caught between mounting costs and excellent admission taxes, the minor league clubs are losing money at a frightful rate, while only acting as tax collectors for various governmental and state agencies."

"Over one-third of the money taken in by the Sanford ball club went for taxes. No business can survive under these conditions. If they were assured they would break even, the majors would sponsor a team in every city in the league."

"If we are to stay in business, we must find new approaches to our problems. Various officials of major league clubs are painting a dark picture for the minor leagues. With the above conditions in mind, the directors of Seminole County Hospital Association have decided to operate the club for the benefit of the Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital, an institution recognized by the U. S. Treasury for distribution of charitable gifts."

"We hope by this action to create good will, stimulate sales, and attract new patrons. If this plan is a success, other cities in distress might be wise to follow this example."

"The Sanford team is ready to embark on what we hope is its most successful season. We have budgeted close to 200 season tickets and expect to go over the 200 mark this week."

Lucas Urges Ban On Labor Bargain Deal

Says Industry-Wide Bargaining Is Practice Fraught With Danger To People

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Lucas (D-Texas) called today for a ban on industry-wide bargaining. He raked the practice as "fraught with danger to the American people."

Lucas was the leadoff witness at the House Labor Committee hearing on proposed changes in the Taft-Hartley Act.

Author of a bill that would keep international unions from making contracts with two or more competing firms within an industry, Lucas said the legislation is required in the interest of national defense.

"The rights of all the people are more important than the rights of any segment of the people," Lucas said in seeking support of his measure which was part of the bill drafted by former Rep. Hartley (R-N.D.) five years ago.

Lucas recalled that Hartley's proposed ban against industry-wide bargaining was defeated in the House by a single vote to become part of the version sponsored by (Continued On Page Four) Sanford's National Guard Unit, Co. I, will go on a firing drill at Camp Blanding this week-end, it was announced today by Capt. David M. Gatchel.

The guardsmen, who are going on a strictly voluntary basis, will receive no state or government pay, he said.

"The men of the unit feel that this week-end will help them in a great deal in preparing for the next firing at Camp Blanding in May," explained Capt. Gatchel. "I think they should be complimented very highly for this attitude."

Co. I currently holds the General Pershing Trophy for the best marksmanship record among rifle companies in the 3rd Army area, which covers seven southeastern states. They also hold the state marksmanship trophy for the years 1950 and 1951, awarded annually to the company having the highest percentage of men qualified in their individual weapons.

In addition, Co. I also holds the annual Lt. Jack M. Nichols award for the best rifle company in the 12th Inf. Regiment.

Co. I likewise holds one of the outstanding individual shot in the Regiment, Sgt. 1st Class Richard A. Frank, 2118 Maple Avenue, Sgt. Frank fired the highest competitive score in the division rifle matches at the annual summer encampment in Alabama last year.

A film was shown on non-combatants of the MI rifle and Lt. Glen Lingle instructed an hour class on the "Rights of the Individual Under Military Law," at the National Guard drill held in the armory last night.

Co. I visitors were Maj. Roy Greene, member of the 4th Division staff, and Capt. Robert M. Baker, the 3rd Battalion supply officer.

After last night's drill, Capt. Csetchek stated that there were still some vacancies in the unit and he invited young men between the ages of 17 and 19 to investigate the many opportunities offered by the Guard. He added, however, "You have to be good to get in the Guard and especially in Co. I."

Opinion Of Supreme Court Insures Less Meddling With State Courts

Value Of Scouting Is Told To Lions At Luncheon Meet

WASHINGTON (AP)—State courts, it appeared today, will have less interference from the federal government, according to a Supreme Court opinion yesterday.

The court's decision, which is a landmark ruling, is a clear showing of judicial independence.

Chief Justice Warren said state and federal courts have like responsibilities to protect the constitutional rights of accused persons.

Reed spoke for the majority in a 5-4 decision upholding state laws that prohibit the sale of firearms to persons who are on parole or probation.

Justice Jackson in a separate opinion called the decision as bound to end a "denormalizing" situation in which he said state court judgments could not determine what standards to follow.

Justice Jackson said the Supreme Court in recent years has used generalities of the Federal Constitution, 14th Amendment, to "intrude" federal authority and its own authority over the states.

State judges, Jackson said, were being substituted by the federal courts. And the decision, he said, would restore the federal courts to their proper place.

Reed explained why a court majority of six refused to overturn the death sentences. Two of the Negroes were convicted of raping white women, the other two were convicted of killing a white taxi driver.

Justices Black, Douglas and Frankfurter were the dissenters in all, six separate opinions totaling more than 1000 words were written.

The majority opinion by Reed said:

1. Upheld the right of states to select jury panels from lists of primary and poll taxpayers, even if there are fewer Negroes than whites—percentage-wise—in the lists. Our duty to protect the federal constitutional rights of all does not mean we must or should impose on states our conception of the proper source of jury lists.

2. Refused to extend to state courts a rule of federal courts that confessions obtained before prompt arraignment of suspects must not be admitted in evidence.

3. Required that state prisoners, on through regular appeal procedures before they try in federal courts to win new trials by habeas corpus.
