

OH YEAH?

PETER SCHAAL

West getting four for four and Al getting three for three. Al got his 16th home run of the year too.

Cleveland took a double-header from the Browns to give them a tighter grip on fourth place. Wes Ferrell got credit for his 18th win when he let the Browns down with 7 hits to win, 9 to 4 in the open. Ha and Kress hit homers in that game . . . The Second affair ended 11 to 9 in favor of the Indians. It was a real old-time slugfest, with 29 hits poluted. Gosselin got a homer. Seeds and Vosmik were the heavy hitters of the day.

The largest crowd to see a game in Boston since 1916, more than 40,000 persons, saw the Yanks and Red Sox split a double-bill. The Yanks took the first game 4 to 1 in what started out to be a pitcher's duel. However, Jack Russell weakened in the eighth . . . The second game was another matter though, for Old Wile Moore held his former mates to three hits and scored a 1 to 0 victory. Pippins gave up only three hits also, in that fine pitching duel. The Sox won it because of two singles and a miff at the plate in the eighth inning.

It's positive that the Cocoa Bees are the only major contenders for second half honors in the account of their 11 to victory over the strong St. Augustine nine in Cocoa yesterday. Indians batted out 19 solid hits during the day, and Atkinson hurled six hit ball which was stable. Atkinson, Murdoch, Joiner, Boy, that's a trio of stars who are good enough to break off any club in this league five games out of four. With all injury, the Cocoa lineup was changed around, and evidently produced some good, for Prince, who usually bats seventh and doesn't do such a good job of it, bats third and gets four hits in five tries.

The Feds won a fancy 14-inning game from Olin Hutton and the Islanders by a 6 to 4 score. Bill Strickland, celebrating his recent marriage, hurled that couldn't be stopped, although his mates tried to make enough errors to give the Indians the game. Strickland allowed the visitors only six hits all afternoon, holding Mobley and Hutto, the league's best, hitting too. Hutto struck out 12 batters, but was touched for the 16 hits, with Roger, Peters and Higgins leading the van. Wally Weaver, the league's leading batter, dropped a few points from his high mark when he got only two hits in seven tries.

Smashing hits and errors in the seventh inning for five runs, the Deland entry went into a tie with Cocoa for first place when they defeated the Parkers by a 6 to 4 score. Yochum was going steady until the sixth, but the grand bats broke loose then, with Wally Shannon leading, and where you knew it the game was over for Deland. Bill Ferrell started a four hit game for Deland, and would have lost it if it hadn't been for those errors in the seventh.

Wonders of wonders! The Seminoles made it two straight from the Athletics, winning a slugfest by a 10 to 6 score. And the Indians are now only 10 games back of the Athletics! Sammy West and Al Simmons staged a hotting race between them, with the Robins and Phillies divided a double-bill. The first was a 5 to 2 Philly affair, while the second ended 7 to 6, as the result of a four run seventh inning rally. Sheriff Blake, making his second start as a Philly, failed to last the game out, but was credited for the win in the first game. Frederick's homer with two on in the third helped the Robins cause plenty.

FEDS NAB GREAT 14-INNING GAME FROM ISLANDERS

Take 5-4 Decision Over Protest Of Visitors; Strickland Is Star

By E. H. CULLUM

Before the largest crowd of the season, the Sanford Celery Feds came through Sunday afternoon at Municipal Athletic field, defeating Daytona Beach 5 to 4 in a fourteen-inning battle that kept the crowd on their feet most of the time.

The game was a thriller from start to finish despite the squawks, squabbles and protests on the part of Daytona and Erronians Beach making six miscues to 9 for Sanford.

Strickland was on the mound for the Feds and victory was entirely due to his masterly pitching, using his head as well as his arm, bearing down in the pinches, yielding up only six hits for the entire 14 innings and wrecking the batting average of Daytona's heavy hitting twins, Mobley and Hutto. These two players faced him eleven times without coming through a single time.

From the eighth inning on it was as pretty a pitcher's battle as anyone would want to see. The Daytona Beach manager protested the game on the grounds that Strickland made a balk in getting Mobley at second. Mobley started to steal second and when Strickland whirled around throwing the ball to Rogero, who was covering the keystone bag, the Daytona players set up the cry "Balk" and Mobley slowed up, Rogero tagging him several feet from the bag. Spencer, umpiring the bases called him out and was backed up by the umpire-in-chief, Cockrell, and the game from then on was played under protest.

In the fourteenth inning, Schirard, first up, went out second to first; Martin singled to center field; Rogers struck out; Pittman hit to left field, Martin tagging up at third. Pittman rounded first and went on to second, the ball being relayed to second. However, the umpire called Pittman safe and started the last argument, the players claiming Pittman out for interference. Martin came in home for the winning run, and thus ended one of the greatest ball games that has been seen on the Sanford diamond in many a day.
