German Actors To Seek Other Work

BERLIN, May 30 .- Hard times on the stage have driven not a few German actors and singers to take up other occupations, and on the whole they seem to be happier and better off. Seven stage celebrites have recently become cafe and restaurant owners and four others turned to industry and commerce. Farming has also attracted a numer of stage favorites.

Richard Schulz, at one time manager of the Metropolitan Theater in Berlin, has become a Bavarian farmer. Otto Sommeratorff and his wife Therasina, formerly the ideal Romeo and Juliet of the German stage, have retired to a country place near the village of Spital in the Alps. The former Romeo is devoting much of his time to writing, and Juliet is filling the office of president of the farmers' union of her village with much success. Rosa Poppe, once a star of the Royal Theater in Berlin, married Dr. Leva and is devoting her time to the cultivation of fruit at Brissage, Switzerland. Rudolph Rittner, who won fame as interpreter of roles in Gerhart Hauptmann lays has bought a little estate in Agenetendorf, Upper Silesia, and s occupied with mixed farming.

Florida's Miracle City In The Making

HE two basic elements that have built the world's largest cities, and most famous pleasure resorts-are commercial advantages, and facilities for recreation. Fortunate indeed is the city which has but one of these elements, but doubly fortunate is the city which is possessed of both.

The future of such city is beyond the reach of chance—its destiny is assured. This is the story of Success is the enemy. It is the only enemy that can overcome men who are invincible to failure. Men who cannot be beaten, though they fail a score of times, men who cannot be discouraged by an army of difficulties, sometimes go tumbling down as a result of a little success. But when a man gains recognition, the temptation is very great to stop and enjoy the recognition. And when he gains reward the temptation is to think that he has "arrived."
