AMENDMENTS TO CHARTER WERE CARRIED

VOTE WAS LIGHT BUT SENTIMENT OF PUBLIC WAS UNMISTAKABLE

The election for the charter amendments yesterday was a very quiet one and very few of the voters were at the polls. The idea had been brought to their attention repeatedly but apathy rules the day and it would have served the public right if the election had gone against them.

The most interest centered on the amendment allowing the city of Sanford to own the utility plants and this was probably the reason the majority of the votes were cast. The amendments were as follows:

"Legal notices of these changes call for the voters to change various sections of the charter whereby the city will have the power to purchase and operate all its public utilities, water, gas, electricity and light plants and municipal docks, etc.

"Another amendment to be voted on is that specifying that fifty qualified voters are all that is necessary to permit an individual to be nominated to the office of city commissioner.

"Another amendment is that allowing unlimited time on liens against property, while another will authorize change in the city's fiscal year from January 1st to October 1st."

EIGHT KILLED, ALL CHILDREN, BY OLD 'DUD'

SUPPOSED DEAD SHELL EXPLODED IN WATERTOWN HOME.

(By The Associated Press) WATERTOWN, N. Y., July 13.—Eight children ranging in age from 11 to 10 years were blown to pieces late yesterday by the explosion of a 75 millimetre shell on the back porch of a house in Dimmick street, occupied by Edward G. Workman and William L. Salisbury.

The dead: Morris Salisbury, 10; Frances Wiley, 13; Vivian Jones, 12; Olin Brown, 11; Anson Workman, 13; Edna Workman, 14; Sarah Burden, 3; and Donald Horton, 12, of Pulaski, N. Y., who was visiting the Brown boy.

The shell, which was owned by Mr. Workman, was one which he had kept as a souvenir and used on the rear porch to hold the door from closing. It was believed to be "dead."

The children were playing croquet in the back yard. The shell is believed to have been set off by the hot sun or to have been struck by one of the victims with a croquet mallet. Windows within a radius of two blocks of the explosion were shattered.

Practically all of the clothing was blown off the bodies of the children. Fragments of the shell lodged in trees and house tops in the vicinity. The bodies were horribly mutilated but identification was possible in every instance.

FARM BLOC LOSES AGAIN IN THE RATE FIGHT AND THE QUESTION OF TARIFF

Vegetable Oils and Rates Were Approved by the Senate Yesterday

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, July 12.—The Republican-agricultural-tariff bloc got another setback yesterday in the senate, losing 33 to 24, its fight to make dutiable imported vegetable oils used in the manufacture of non-edible products. The senate then, without a roll call, approved rates of three cents a pound on cottonseed oil and soyabean oil and four cents a pound on coconut oil and peanut oil, where such oils enter into the manufacture of edible commodities.

The bloc did not vote as a unit on the proposition to remove the provision allowing free entry of vegetable oils for industrial purposes, but the defection within its ranks was more than made up by support from the Democrats, eight of whom voted to eliminate the provision. They were Ashurst, Broussard, Harris, Hefflin, Jones of New Mexico, Kendrick, Kunsdell and Sheppard.

Before the senate got down to consideration of the tariff bill, Senator Edge, Republican, New Jersey, served notice that unless the flexible tariff provision was retained in the bill he would not vote for it. He declared he was far from satisfied with the measure in its present form and could not support it if the schedules as approved by congress were to remain in force until another tariff revision was undertaken by congress.

Senator Edge stressed that he wanted authority given for a downward as well as an upward revision of the rates, declaring that he was interested in the development of the country's export trade, believing that only by such development could there be a full measure of prosperity in the United States. He also reiterated his belief that tariffs should be built scientifically with an impartial commission to gather the facts on which congress acted.

Once the senate got into the vegetable oil fight the floodgates of oratory swung wide with a result that no amendments were disposed of until late in the day. Apparently worn out almost by the five hours' discussion of this one item, the senate disposed of nearly a score of rates within an hour. They included: Pecans, unshelled, 3 cents a pound, House rate, 1 cent; shelled, 6 cents a pound, House rate, 2 cents.

Hay, $4 a ton, House rate, same. Cabbage, 8 cents a pound, House rate 12 cents; onions, 10 cents a pound; House rate 20 cents.

The Senate reconsidered its action in approving a rate of 68 cents per 100 pounds on Irish potatoes as against the House rate of 42 cents, but after Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, had made a fight on

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, July 13.—Postmaster General Work today prepared a letter for President Harding notifying the president a survey had been prepared by all departments of the government showed thoroughly organized fleet of fifty thousand motor vehicles could be mobilized within twenty-four hours should the railway shopmen's strike further interfere with movement of the mails. Result of the survey was forwarded to the president as a matter of information but no official indication of the use of motor trucks to carry mail was being seriously considered. Prevailing belief here was should the president's warning against interference with the mails be disregarded stronger measures are contemplated. As to curtailment of mail transportation inspectors reported few trains discontinued in the south. Inspector at Atlanta reported trains 101 and 102, Tampa and Brooksville, withdrawn July 3rd.

In Sanford this Summer For Many New Improvements TWO BOND ISSUES

AND OTHER IMPROVEMENTS WILL KEEP MUCH MONEY IN CIRCULATION ALL SUMMER

All signs point to a busy summer in Sanford—in fact one of the busiest summers in the history of the city. With the millions of dollars worth of new buildings started or that will be started in the next two weeks, with all the big bond issues to be spent here for streets and sewers and other improvements, with a county bond issue to be spent this summer, with the influx of many new families, with the many new business houses coming here and wholesale houses there is bound to be a big business here for the money will be floating. And then but few Sanford people are going away for the summer. They much prefer to remain at home where it is cool, where they can enjoy the springs and the lakes and the pleasure resorts at home, where they can have the golf links and country club and all the other clubs, where they can go to the beach if they desire for a day's outing any time and where they are much more comfortable than at many of the big resorts farther north.

And all of this staying at home on the job by the business men means a bigger and busier city. It keeps the money at home and keeps the business men busy. And the Herald takes great pleasure in announcing that the Sanford business men will advertise this summer as never before. If you will note that three big sales are already on now and there are more of them coming. It means that Sanford business men are not waiting for the business to come to them but they are going after the business and they intend to have it.

Stay at home this summer and take care of the big business that is coming here every day. Let us make the summer months just as busy as the winter months and much more pleasant because the summer months is the time for the home folks to enjoy Florida.

The county commissioners told the board that they were powerless to act and referred them to Mr. Dean.

Charter Amendments Will Be Voted on Next Wednesday, July 12th

Important Items Among Municipal Ownership of Utilities

In order to keep the municipal government apace with the great development that has occurred here during the past year and a half, and to provide against any technicality or legal stumbling block which may arise to hinder its future growth, it has been found necessary to make several changes in the charter.

Another amendment to be voted on is that specifying that fifty qualified voters are all that is necessary to permit an individual to be nominated to the office of city commissioner.

Another amendment is that allowing unlimited time on liens against property, while another will authorize change in the city's fiscal year from Jan. 1 to Oct. 1.

Perhaps the most important of all the amendments is that empowering the city to own and operate its public utilities. It is a question that has been agitated a great deal in the past.

The shops remained shut down with only a few foremen working.

Summer cottages and resorts along the shores of the lake were the heaviest losers.

REPUBLICAN PARTY'S NATIONAL CHAIRMAN DEFENDS TARIFF BILL

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Chairman John T. Adams, of the republican national committee, tonight issued a statement denying that the "Republican national organization has issued publicly directed against some particular method of tariff making proposed by republicans." Statements to that effect which have recently appeared in the public press, Mr. Adams said, were based "on a misconception of the purport of the article published which referred to organizations under democratic and non-protective auspices which have sought to confuse the situation and delay or prevent the enactment of a tariff law by the present congress."

Declaring that in November, 1920, the people of the United States had given their endorsement to "the straight declaration of the Republican party," regarding its tariff policy the statement added:

"The republican organization would be recreant to its duty if it did not insist on behalf of the millions of republicans who placed the representative of our party in control of affairs, upon the prompt and consistent fulfillment of the just expectations of the American people relative to the enactment of a republican protective tariff law."

GERMAN GOVERNMENT SHAKES CRISIS SEEMS IMMINENT, REPUBLICAN REGIME TOTTERS

Stringent Measures Have Been Enacted for Protection

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The fall of the German government is threatened and stringent measures have been enacted for the protection of the republican regime, the commerce department was advised yesterday in a telegram from Commercial Attaché Herring at Berlin.

The political crisis resulting from the assassination of Foreign Minister Rathenau, Mr. Herring reported, has aggravated the period of currency depression inaugurated by the failure of the foreign loan negotiations, and the feeling is now general that Germany faces grave political complications with the fall in exchange which dropped to the lowest level in history today.

"The consideration by the reichstag of important legislation," he said, including the forced loan bill and grain subsidy measures, was interrupted by the Rathenau incident and by the consequent consideration and enactment of stringent measures for protecting the republican regime. These measures provide the death penalty or life imprisonment for conspiracy against the republic.

"Bavaria, where the anti-republican feeling is believed to be most prevalent, refuses enforcement of the protective measures, alleging that no necessity for them exists."

"Intense party feeling prevails in Germany, being manifested in numerous assemblages under police supervision. All anti-republican agitation is being suppressed. A strike among Berlin printers has resulted in the suspension of nearly all newspapers.

"The passage by the reichstag of a grain subsidy measure providing for the assessment of large quantities of broad grain from farmers at prices appreciably under the market level has aroused bitter opposition of agrarians and the national party, which threatens the fall of the government."

FIRST WOMAN IN WISCONSIN FOR ENDORSEMENT

OF A POLITICAL PARTY FOR NOMINEE AS U. S. SENATOR

OSHKOSH, Wis., July 11.—Mrs. Ben C. Hooper, of Oshkosh, Wis., is the first woman in Wisconsin to receive the endorsement of a political party for nominee as United States senator.

At the recent state Democratic conference she was unanimously chosen to represent the party at the September primaries. This means that she will oppose either U. S. Senator Robert M. LaFollette or Dr. W. A. Garfield, nominees of two different factions of the Republican party at the general election.

For the last fifteen years, Mrs. Hooper has been an ardent worker for woman suffrage. When women were given the right to vote, she was instrumental in organizing the Wisconsin League of Women Voters of which she has been president since its organization in 1919. She was a member of the National committee on Armament Reduction of the Wisconsin League of Women Voters and also was a member of the National American Women's Suffrage board.

Mrs. Hooper was born in Winnebago county, Iowa, in 1865, and because of delicate health, never had an opportunity to attend public schools, receiving her education through training of a governess. She has been a resident of Wisconsin for the last 35 years.

Marriage, according to Mrs. Hooper does not destroy woman's identity, and she is quoted as saying: "The time is coming when woman, in her tenacious ability to get what she is after, will find a way of marrying and having a home and family without giving up her identity and independence."

Mrs. Hooper spends a great deal of her time in assisting her husband in a general merchandise establishment, and always finds time to take a fond interest in the care of her home.

There is no greater admirer of former President Wilson than Mrs. Hooper, who believes that the ideals he brought before the people of America while president, will live forever, in the history of the United States.

During the world war Mrs. Hooper was active in Wisconsin, spending a great deal of her time as head of the Liberty Loan drive in Oshkosh and working with the Council of Defense.

She is an ardent believer in world peace and believes that her life's work will have been accomplished if she can help bring about an understanding among the nations of the world.

Mrs. Hooper always has urged women to take an active part in politics saying it was the home that was affected first of all by such measures as taxation, and is quoted as saying: "Advancing taxes affect the home first of all, because it is the only place where the business men dares economize."

This is the first time that Mrs. Hooper has ever taken part in party politics though actively connected with many state movements.

REPUBLICAN FARM BLOC FAILED TO FUNCTION IN TARIFF FIGHT IN SENATE

Peanuts and Soya Beans Could Not Get Through the Filter

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Failure of the republican-agricultural-tariff bloc on a tie vote, 28 to 28, to win its fight for a rate of 1 cent a pound on soya beans and the approval, 52 to 43, of the existing emergency rates of 3 cents a pound on unshelled peanuts and 4 cents a pound on the shelled marked senate consideration today of the tariff bill. The soya bean rate approved was four tenths of one cent a pound, but Senator Ladd, republican, North Dakota, gave notice that he would again seek to have the higher rate adopted.

In rewriting the tariff, the finance committee majority cut the rates on unshelled peanuts to three-fourths of one cent a pound and on shelled peanuts to one and one-half cents a pound, but it receded from that position today. Nine democrats supported the higher rates, while six of them voted for the Ladd amendment to make the soya bean rate one and one-half cents.

Democrats supporting the peanut rates were Ashurst, Broussard, Harris, Heflin, Kendrick, Ransdell, Shepard, Swanson and Trammell.

Those voting for the higher soya bean rates were Ashurst, Broussard, Heflin, Kendrick, Ransdell and Shepard.

Other rates approved today included:

- Flaxseed oil, 3 1-2 cents a pound; castor oil, 4 1-2 cents; rapeseed oil, 6 cents a gallon.
- Flaxseed, 40 cents a bushel; cotton seed, one third of a cent a pound.
- Eggs in the shell, 8 cents a dozen, an increase of 2 cents over the house rate; frozen or otherwise prepared, 6 cents a pound, house rate 4 cents; dried, 18 cents a pound, house rate 16 cents.

The soya bean debate developed a sharp passage between Senators Frelinghuysen of New Jersey and Gooding of Idaho. Opposing the soya bean rate, Senator Frelinghuysen said that would work on injury to the farmers by cutting down exports of vegetable oils from this country and that although a staunch protectionist, he could not support a high duty when there was no evidence that the domestic demand could be supplied by American producers.

Senator Gooding replied that Senator Frelinghuysen was a protectionist until protection affected adversely manufacturers in his state and then he was against protection. Senator Frelinghuysen returned that such a declaration was "manifestly unfair" and that in taking the position he did he was defending the committee's action. Senators Gooding and Ransdell, democrats, Louisiana, made pleas for higher protection for the soya bean, declaring that it was a fine fertilizer as well as a most valuable farm crop. Senator Ransdell said he believed soya bean production would be even more profitable than that of cotton, particularly in those sections where the boll weevil has been particularly active.

Attacking the committee action in lowering rates on peanuts, Senator Robinson, democrat, Arkansas, said this was done for "small peanut politics," the purpose being to attempt to embarrass southern senators whose states produce peanuts and who are against the principle of protection as such. He declared that where a protective system was to prevail, with the agriculturalists of the south forced to buy their necessities in a protected market, senators were perfectly consistent in supporting duties on farm products in their states. Senators Walsh of Massachusetts and King of Utah, democrats, made a general fight against the duties approved today, while defense was made by Senator McCumber of the finance committee and other republican senators.

MANY NEW BUSINESS BLOCKS BEING ERRECTED, TWO WERE STARTED TODAY

That Have Not Been Given in the List of the New Business Blocks

More new business blocks are going up in Sanford and every week sees new plans being laid for new buildings in the business districts of this city. Among the new ones started this week is the garage on Magnolia avenue that will be occupied by the Wight Bros. Company. This building adjoins the building now occupied by this enterprising firm and is 57x117 feet and will give Wight Bros., one of the largest and most complete garages, supply stations and storage rooms in the state. The building is being erected for Walter Hand, the owner of the property by S. O. Shlholsler and will be occupied by Wight Bros. as soon as it is finished. The building is of brick and will have a concrete floor and the front will be the beautiful light tan brick that looks so well in the corner building and in several other buildings in this city.

Another new building is that of W. H. Hynes on Park avenue on the lot recently occupied by several local garages and at one time was occupied by G. W. Spencer for a bakery. It is a brick building but is showing signs of decay and is being torn down and the new building will be erected at once. The front will be of light tan brick and it will be 60x117 and it is said will be used for a garage and sales room.

Mr. Hynes is one of the largest property owners in the city and expects to make many improvements in his property during the summer months.

Comparison of Wages and Cost of Living Affecting Railroad Men

Compiled for the Benefit of the Public From Actual Figures

What are the facts about railroad wages?

The only statistics available on railroad wages are those of the Interstate Commerce Commission, which are furnished by the railroads. These figures are subject to severe criticism, and from every standpoint are unfair to the employees. Literally hundreds of pages of testimony were recently taken up by Dr. Frank J. Warne, an experienced statistician, in exposing before the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce the fraudulent methods used by railroad officials in juggling wage statistics.

However, they are the only material available, and with all their faults and inaccuracies are sufficient to expose the falsity of the railroad claims. Table VI, contains the essential figures, and shows the average annual earnings of all railroad employees, including general officers and all other officials.

The first set of figures shown under 1921 in Table VI, represents the amount that would have been earned during a full year at the rate of wages paid during the first half of the year. The second set of figures under 1921 represents the amount which would have been earned in a full year at the rate of wages paid during the second half of the year, following the general wage cut ordered by the Railroad Labor Board, effective July 1, 1921. This wage cut averaged 12 1/2% ranging from 8 to 16% for the various classes. This last set of figures represents the present rate of earning power, amounting to approximately $100,000,000, or about $62 per man, resulting from subsequent decisions of the board, abolishing overtime pay and other valuable rights which shop men, clerks and laborers have previously enjoyed, and from the practice of the railroads sub-contracting a large part of their work at low wages.

TABLE VI. Earnings of All Railroad Employees.

Table with 3 columns: Annual Earnings (Basis of Dollar of all Employees in 1900), Average Buying Power, and 1921 (based rates paid) for Jan-June and July-Dec.

The most striking things about this table are the actual buying power of present wages and the exposure of the miserable wages the railway men received in 1900 and other pre-war years. Think of it! The average earnings of all railway employees, high and low, in 1900 were only $507, or at the rate of less than $2.00 a day!

The mere fact, then, that the buying power of railroad wages in 1921 was $32 higher than the starvation wages of 1900 cannot be used to prove the adequacy of present rates of pay. Furthermore it must not be forgotten that these figures do not take account of the recent reductions in pay thru the revision of working rules, the abolition of extra pay for overtime, and the illegal practice of sub-contracting maintenance, repairs, and even a part of the operation. If we make proper deductions for these decreases it is absolutely certain that the average wages of all railroad employees today have no greater buying power—are of no more real value—than the miserly wages paid in 1900.

WHY MOTORISTS NO LONGER ASK FOR TIRE GUARANTEE

"Did you ever reflect," said a Goodrich representative the other day, "that the motorist no longer asks for a guarantee on his tires?"

"And do you realize," he continued, "that this fact proves beyond a shadow of doubt that tire making has passed the experimental stage?"

"In the old days (and not so long ago, either) we heard a great deal of talk about guarantee and adjustments, but now the buyer does not even think of these things when he buys a standard make of tire.

"I remember when car salesmen would lose sales to farmers, because they had a blow-out while demonstrating the car. The farmer was 'off' the car when he thought he might buy tire trouble with his car. And any car driver knows that up to within a few years ago, one always drove with the fear of a blow-out, marring their pleasure.

"But in the language of the cartoonist, 'them days is gone forever.' Motorists buy tires with confidence, assured they will get more miles than any guarantee figures. Eight, ten or even fifteen thousand miles are expected, whereas, the old time motorist was surprised when he exceeded 3500 or 5000 miles.

"While scientific construction has tripled the uniform durability of tires in a very few years, the process has been so consistent that few people realize the tremendous importance of the change that has been wrought.

"Perhaps in this smooth evolutionary progress the most revolutionary progress was that on the part of Goodrich when it produced the Silvertown Cord Tire. This tire instantly doubled the mileage possibilities of tires.

"Since that time this tire has been bettered year by year, until the Silvertown of today gives double the mileage of the Silvertown of a few years back.

"Both in cords and Fabric Goodrich has progressed along the line of the motorist's needs. These tires give more dependability and more miles for less money.

"When the motorist buys Goodrich today, he buys standardized quality tire building. He buys uniformity. The 30x3 1-2 is the same quality as the biggest tire Goodrich makes. He buys perfectly balanced construction insuring equal wear and dependability.

"The motorist is justified in demanding a guarantee when he buys an 'experiment.' It never enters his mind to ask about a guarantee when he buys a Goodrich. Experience has proven it will on the average double any possible guarantee. They also know that Goodrich stands squarely back of each tire and is even more anxious than the motorist to see that no Goodrich tire owes its purchaser a cent.

"This is the spirit that has made Goodrich better tires. It is the spirit that has made Goodrich dealers worthy of confidence, and it is the spirit of the service back of the tire. This is the tire buyer protected as he never was before."

DISPOSE OF ORLANDO PROPERTY

The property known here as the Perry Place, consisting of a nine-room house and out-buildings, and more than ten acres of land in Southwest Orlando, and which has been owned for several years by Mrs. Harriet V. Perry and Mrs. Jno. D. Jinks, has recently been sold by the owners. This property was purchased nearly forty years ago by Israel Kellogg Perry, who moved there with his wife and child from Kansas, and made that his home. After the death of Mr. Perry his widow made her home in Sanford with her daughter, Mrs. Jno. D. Jinks, and the property has been occupied by tenants for several years. Thus passes into other hands one of the largest tracts of land within the city limits of Orlando, which has not been divided into city lots.

The former owners are investing in Sanford property.

FOUR CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS COMING UP

Florida citizens in the general election next November will vote on four constitutional amendments, submitted as a result of action by the legislature last year.

One of the amendments provides for the creation of special school tax districts, authorizing a tax levy up to ten mills for school purposes in such districts.

The second is a proposed amendment to article V of the constitution authorizing the legislature to provide for the appointment of additional circuit judges, where such appointments are necessary to the speedy operation of the courts.

The third amendment is to section three, article XVI, providing for the payment of salaries to State officials monthly instead of quarterly.

The fourth amendment is to section three, article VII, and relates to re-appointment. The proposed amendment follows:

"The legislature that shall meet A. D. 1923 and those that shall meet every ten years thereafter shall apportion the representation in the senate, the whole number of senators not to exceed 38 members and at the same time shall also apportion the representation in the house of representatives.

"The counties having one hundred thousand or more population shall have four representatives each. The counties having 30,000 and not more than 100,000 population shall have three representatives each. Counties having 10,500 and not more than 30,000 population shall have two representatives each. All counties having less than 10,500 population shall have one representative each. The basis of apportionment as provided for in this amendment shall be the Virginia.

FEDERATION ENDORSES FORD PLAN FOR MUSCLE SHOALS, WANTS PUBLIC TO HEED

Write Your Congressmen and Senators About Muscle Shoals

(By The Associated Press) New Smyrna, Florida, June 23, 1922. To the Voting Public of the United States, both Men and Women:

We have decided to make an effort to have the government award the contract for Muscle Shoals to Henry Ford, and we ask you to do your part, if you will co-operate with the laboring people and the farmers to bring this about.

In asking this we want you, if you are convinced that it would be the right thing to do with Muscle Shoals, to write your congressman from your state and the senators and ask them to cast their vote for Muscle Shoals contract to be awarded to Ford.

Ford has manufactured a car and sold it to the public cheap, and it has proved the best buy for the money.

He has manufactured farming implements and sold them under similar conditions in which the farmers were benefited.

In the war he manufactured war material and was never a charge of a high price charged or any grafting carried on, and he is the only one that was so far away from these practices as not to be mentioned. He bought a railroad and cut freight rates until the railroad commission stopped him, and in the meantime, raised the pay of his employees.

He has financed all of his plants and sold his own articles and regulated the price to the public.

Compare this with the government handling of the railroads, and see if the public will not be benefited by Ford's operation more than by any other we have been effected by in the past.

The government took over the railroads and guaranteed the railroads 6 per cent, and it was all on the stock, and when they gave them back they claimed to be in bad shape and that they could not operate them.

But the railroads under private ownership had never paid a 6 per cent dividend on all the stock in the United States.

The railroads gave their employees a raise in 1920, and appended to the government to allow them to raise freight rates and passenger rates 50 per cent, which was done.

In 1921, 60 per cent of the raise federal census next preceding the apportionment made by the legislature."

A further provision is that the governor by special message to each house at the appropriate session of the legislature, direct attention to this amendment and if the legislature should refuse to apportion the representation, it shall be the duty of the governor to convene the legislature in special session for the purpose of making such apportionment.

Regardless of the sympathy of the public toward the striking shopmen the public will not stand for any law breaking, mob rule or violence. And the public is the final arbiter of all strikes and all troubles. The Herald would caution all of those interested to be calm and keep out of trouble. The men here are citizens—the majority of them are property owners, they have been here for years, they are not the kind of men to get into trouble of any kind and Sanford does not anticipate any trouble from the older men. But it is up to the older men to restrain the younger ones from any untoward act that will ruin the prospects of the men and do them a lasting injury proving a boomerang to their hopes and chances for all time.

Something has happened that we have been expecting to happen ever since the loss of the war when we saw so many soldiers bringing "duds" or unexploded shells or dead shells that were supposed to have been fired into this country from battlefields as souvenirs. There was such curious-ity about the shells and they made such fine lamps and other ornaments that many of them were brought here and used in various ways. Those that were really empty were all right but we saw many of them that were loaded and the owners said there was no harm in them. Yesterday one of them on the back porch of a home in Watertown, New York, exploded, and eight children were killed. Shells are like guns—they are usually loaded.

FORD'S SHOP MEN

It is worthy of notice that the shopmen of Henry Ford's road, the Do-troit, Toledo and Ironton, refused to strike when the order came through.
They replied that Mr. Ford had not taken advantage of the labor board's order to cut wages and, said these workmen, "why should we quit our jobs?"

In this action there is good sense and sound judgment. Why should a man quit his job when he personally has no grievance. Notwithstanding some roads were asking a reduction and the labor board had granted it.
Mr. Ford said he was satisfied with the services his men were rendering and the pay he was giving them. And that was all there was to it. Mr. Ford and his workmen had no differences and why should they quit their jobs, that they needed, and with which they were satisfied?

There is nothing that will serve organized labor so much as public opinion. And public opinion is against strikes just now, and those men who stick to their jobs regardless of what others may do are the men who will have the best standing in the court of public opinion.

Ford's relationship with his men is perhaps his best asset. They have confidence in his fairness. Confidence between employer and employe is a wonderful help to both sides.
When the man who works and the man who pays can get together on a friendly basis and talk over matters concerning their mutual welfare, it is a happy day for both and a cause for rejoicing by the public. There are several railroads now establishing this good relationship with its men and it will serve all interests well.

THE BOY AND THE DARE

In Fort Chester, N. Y., a fourteen-year-old boy gave up his life to prove he was game. He climbed high up a steel signal tower, and leaning out, accidentally touched a high voltage wire. He lived only long enough to tell how it happened.

You can't scold a boy for taking a chance that he may "prove his nerve." It is not only boy nature, but human nature, and a very fine side of human nature, indeed.

Most men remain boys until very late in life, and some always. But as they grow older, conscious pride is tempered with wisdom, and they come to see how very foolish a thing it is to "stump the leader," for no better purpose than that of showing off. But you cannot expect a boy to reason so finely. He wants to show the stuff that is in him; not many chances are offered to him for spectacular display, so he makes a few. That's all. He takes a chance, and sometimes loses.

In controlling and directing the wild pride of growing boys, such organizations as the Boy Scouts serve a useful purpose. They provide a useful, constructive outlet for boy energy, give the lad a sense of usefulness, teach him to think and estimate values.

Every such tragedy as that of the Port Chester, (N. Y.) lad is a reminder of the need for the Boy Scouts and kindred agencies.

BONUS FOR LOANS HURT THE CITY.

A dispatch from Miami quoting a prominent real estate dealer says that Miami is being injured by the methods employed by the institutions down there that charge eight per cent interest to build homes and then make the home builders pay a bonus for the privilege of getting a loan. He says, "eastern financiers, especially those in New York cannot believe that Miami is enjoying such prosperity when they know that people are paying eight per cent interest on loans and then paying from five to fifteen per cent bonus for the privilege of getting these loans.

"A number of firms have had high officials of big financial concerns of New York and other cities down here with a view of putting out money in local investments but when they find out that Miami people have to pay eight per cent interest and then a big bonus they get cold feet and express doubts about the stability of the city's prosperity."

WILL BENEFIT FLORIDA

That Florida should have been selected for the next annual meeting of the American Automobile Association is an event of no mean importance to this state. To Representative Frank O. Miller of Jacksonville is said to be due much of the credit for landing the convention for his home city. It means the bringing to Florida of hundreds of the most prominent men of the country interested in the automobile industry and in good roads. Providing steady progress is maintained by the State road department and by individual counties in the world of highway construction, it ought to be possible for Florida to make a good showing. In another twelve months the northern trans-state road, highway No. 1, will be paved from Lake City to Jacksonville. There will be several good entrances to Florida from Georgia and Alabama, notably the northern end of Road No. 2 from Valdosta to Lake City, the road from Waycross to the St. Mary's River where it connects with State Road No. 4 into Jacksonville and the eastern-most or coastal route from Savannah to Jacksonville to Savannah. The great bridge across the Apalachicola River at River Junction will be open to traffic and by that time West Florida will be tied in with a system of good roads that will change conditions materially. With the trans-state road completed, the down state highways will have a direct feeder over which enormous traffic is sure to come. We of this section of Florida are of course more directly interested in the completion of State Road No. 2 from Lake City southward through Gainesville, Ocala, and Leesburg to Polk county where it will act as a feeder for State road No. 8 from Haines City to Fort Pierce and afford a direct route through Lakeland, Bartow, Wauchula and Arcadia to Punta Gorda and Fort Myers. Another state road of importance to this section is No. 3 which is now being hard-surfaced from Satsuma in Putnam county to the Volusia county line below Crescent City. Volusia's twenty miles to DeLeon Springs is already graded and the money is on hand for the building of the hard surface or paving. This will afford a direct route to Palatka and Jacksonville without the necessity of making the long detour by way of Daytona and Ormond, saving at least forty miles between Jacksonville and Tampa. Within a year the state authorities will probably have constructed much of state road No. 4 from Jacksonville to Miami so that the delegates to the Three A's. will be enabled, after the sessions have been concluded, to motor over practically all of Florida. That the American Automobile Association is now concentrating on the Southeast is amply evident from the fact that so many counties in Florida and Georgia have organized as county motor clubs under direction and supervision of the A.A.A., the organization working toward the securing of better laws for motorists and the public, the rendering of prompt and worth-while service to the membership through designation of official garages, the posting of highways, free legal service and a hundred and one other minor details with which every traveler is familiar.—Lakeland Telegram.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK?

With their minds trained to see civic problems and to offer solutions for just such tangles, Chamber of Commerce secretaries have to come back to the old equation, the fact that they are dealing with PEOPLE, after all, not THINGS. People control conditions, or should, and probably there never was any existing state of affairs that the people could not get out and improve, provided they once found out they could pull together.
E. R. Waite, secretary of the Board of Commerce, of Shawnee, Okla., says:

DID YOU EVER STOP TO

THINK— THAT you should either be for or against your city? If you are for it, you should BOOST IT! If you are against it you should LEAVE IT.

THAT you should clean up your city and KEEP IT CLEAN?

THAT you should seize every opportunity to help to exploit your community a spirit of BETTER and BIGGER BUSINESS?

THAT most cities are big and generous enough to realize that in order to go ahead, they must destroy and do away with much of the littleness, narrowness and stoniness of some of their backward citizens?

THAT the one big thing behind all big achievements is OPPORTUN-ITY?

THAT many firms are waiting for business to pick up; others are realizing the opportunities of TODAY and are forcing business by NEWS-PAPER ADVERTISING?

THAT your city should set the pace as the convention city of your section?

THAT PUBLIC OPINION influences everything?

THAT what you can do for your city is of as vital importance as what your city can do for you?

THAT good ADVERTISING, lights the pathway to better business?

THAT a sick man needs the services of a Doctor? A sick business needs immediate attention. The right kind of ADVERTISING is good medicine.

Mob violence never helped any community. It takes away that respect for the law that should be inherent in every loyal citizen. It hastens the end of established government and law. It ruins all established forms of municipal and national restrictions and safeguards for public safety.

Those Mexican bandits that threaten to steal the oil wells in Mexico must be some relation to the men who own the oil companies. If there is any difference between the bandits and the head of corporations we fail to see it.

One of Hundreds of Testimonials That Prove Our

If you could only see and read the many hundreds of testimonials that are in our files—letters written by grateful users of Ferraline who have found health by its use and want to pass on

To give you an idea of some of the amazing results that have been obtained:

eat heartily, my stomach no longer troubled me and my rheumatic

My back caused me to suffer acutely,

Doan's Kidney Pills and decided to try them. They have given me great relief and I am glad to recommend them." (Statement given May 21,

On February 2, 1922, Mrs. Meisch added: "I haven't had the slightest

Walfrid Pierson made a table under the oaks and furnished the materials for lemonade while the ladies brought sandwiches, cakes and pie and Mrs. Carlson ice cream for those who assembled. All enjoyed the good time together, and the men and boys really worked. Mrs. Carlson's guest, Miss Millhime of St. Petersburg came with them. We sincerely hope the present strike will not interfere with the present building program of Sanford. We are going good and want nothing to interfere with the summer working program. The Sanford Golf and County Club is one of the finest in the state and every man here should join the club and help boost this wonderful sport that will make Sanford a resort city. Troubles are starting in the railroad strike and Monday will probably see a change of front. Troubles will not help the cause of the men.
