Odham Insists Real Issue Is Clean Politics

McCarty Told To Ask His Own Friends In Seminole County About Gambling Tax

Bradley Odham's Seminole County committee will meet tonight at 8:00 p. m. at the Odham headquarters in the Touchton Building. It was announced today by G. W. Morgan, chairman of the Seminole County Odham for Governor committee. The purpose of the meeting will be to outline programs for the coming campaign and to form additional committees. All persons interested in assisting in the work of the campaign are requested to attend.

MELBOURNE — Bradley Odham told about 150 persons in a downtown park here today that the real issue in the campaign is whether the people of Florida want politics as usual or cleanup in government.

This county (Herald) gave 55 per cent of its vote in the May 4 primary to Dan McCarty, Odham's opponent for the governorship which will be settled in a runoff election May 27.

Odham spoke before two microphone stands, one of which had a sign which read "McCarty's if he shows up." He then said McCarty "couldn't get in anyway but he can't speak without going to ask his campaign manager what to say."

Replying to an assertion that gambling stamps had been issued in Odham's home town of Sanford, Odham suggested that McCarty "get in touch with the county prosecutor, state attorney or seminole county sheriff because they're all your man."

He said McCarty "pretends to be a crusader for right" but challenged him to show where "he ever said in 1948 that he would suspend officials who did not carry out their jobs." (McCarty was barely beaten out by Fuller Warren for governor in 1948).

"After leaving here, Odham went to Cocoa and Titusville for talks with Odham's home town of Sanford, Odham suggested that McCarty "get in touch with the county prosecutor, state attorney or seminole county sheriff because they're all your man."

In his Saturday night talk, McCarty charged that Odham did not answer all the questions sent him during his talk. He said many questions which Odham "cannot afford to answer have not been allowed to reach him by his talk show crew."

In reply, Odham said he had answered "as many questions as possible, as they came and without regard to whom they came from." He then invited McCarty to come with him and ask questions.

Plans Are Made To Push Project For Building Terminal

Members of the advisory committee of the Sanford Port Terminal and Warehouse Authority met last night at the Yacht Club with Albert Flitts presiding to discuss action on the terminal project, following successful negotiations with the City Commission at a recent meeting regarding lease of waterfront property.

It was decided that the most important step to be taken next is to determine if the State Road Department will co-operate in the building of a drawbridge over Mills Creek in event a wide channel is dug to lead to a turning basin.

Volle Williams, Jr., and Harry Topp, members of the committee, agreed to confer this week with State Highway Department officials on the matter.

W. E. Pope and A. W. Miller were named as a committee to place advertising about the terminal project in trade journals, and to invite inquiries from engineering firms.

Plans were made to hire a civil engineer to survey and plot the waterfront terminal site and to indicate that portion of the area owned by the Atlantic Coast Line, Chamber of Commerce Manager Forrest Breckenridge outlined plans for placing advertising about the project in such papers as the New York Times and Wall Street Journal.

Mr. Flitts said that he was confident that no difficulty would be encountered in securing adequate financial backing for the terminal, the successful termination of which, he said, would result in a new era of industrial development for Sanford.

Dodd Reveals Reds Tried To Intimidate Him

Clark Says Original Demand Blackmail; Some Concession Admitted Granted

SEATTLE, Korea — Brig Gen Francis T. Dodd said tonight Communist prisoners of war who held him hostage on Korea Island four days last week threatened to kill him if the U. S. Eighth Army tried to rescue him by force.

Gen. Mark W. Clark, new supreme U. N. commander, said in Tokyo the Red POW were granted some minor concessions. He termed their original demands for Dodd's release "unadulterated blackmail." He seemed to hint they would not be honored.

Clark said the reply to the prisoners "was made under duress at a time when the life of Gen. Dodd was at stake."

"Any commitments made as a result of such demands should be interpreted accordingly," Dodd read a statement to correspondents saying he was convinced the United Nations Command threats to use force "had a decided effect" in obtaining his release Saturday night.

The correspondents were not permitted to question the general. It was the first time they had been allowed to see him.

Dodd said he was well treated by the Reds while a captive in a camp on the island. The U. N. No. 1 camp for captured prisoners. He seemed healthy.

The general said demands made by the prisoners in exchange for Dodd's release "were unadulterated" and that concessions granted by the camp authorities were "of minor importance."

Newsmen were permitted to visit Dodd today for the first time since the Wednesday seizure of Dodd. The prisoners camp commander there.

Stockade officers said the prisoners apparently had planned the capture at least a week in advance. Within minutes after they broke out, the Reds broke out prisoners saying:

"We captured Dodd if our problems are resolved his security is guaranteed. If there is any brutal act or shooting, his life is in danger."

Clark said a full investigation of the violent and treacherous attack would be made.

Senator Russell Endorses Slate Of Florida Delegates

WASHINGTON — Sen. Richard B. Russell, seeking to prevent a disastrous split up of his Florida vote, endorsed a slate of candidates Sunday for places on the state delegation to the Democratic National Convention.

Fifty-one persons who say they favor Russell for the presidential nomination are running for the 23 delegate posts in the May 27 second primary.

Friends of the Georgia senator had expressed fear that his vote would be so badly split, it would be lost to Sen. Estes Kefauver to win the most delegates with a minority of the votes.

Russell said the situation confronted him "with the hard choice of choosing among valued and trusted friends." He endorsed these delegate candidates:

State at large (men) — C. Faris Bryant, Ocala; Boyle E. Carlton, Tampa; James T. Voelke, Vero Beach; Frank D. Upchurch, St. Augustine.

State at large (women) — Mrs. J. D. Alderman, Jacksonville; Mrs. M. B. Fuller, Russell; Mrs. Ruby (last name withheld).

The DSA cited his contribution to state welfare for being voted one of the 10 outstanding representatives in the 1951 Legislature. He also commended his fight to introduce and gain passage of anti-crime and gambling bills while he served in the Legislature.

The Seminole County Jaycees here captured their first place prizes and one second in the second division classification. The first prevention and Christmas activities books won for the third straight year to retire the trophies in Sanford. The great-the-voice book was the other first place book while the youth activities display took second place.

Oil Strikers To Seek Tightening Of Picket Lines

Industry Official Head For Conference Tomorrow

DENVER — Union leaders called today for a tightening of a nationwide strike of about 200,000 workers as union and industry officials headed for a Washington conference Tuesday.

The conference was called by the Wage Stabilization Board to talk over ways and means of ending the walkout now in its fifth day. The coalition of striking unions turned down a request by the board to send its men back to work, pending the conference.

CIO Oil Workers International Union officials of eight midwest states met at Toledo, Ohio, Sunday and agreed to tighten up picketing at all points where it may be legal to do so.

Officials of Western states which rely heavily upon motorists for their tourist trade expressed fears that the oil strike if prolonged would cut sharply into lucrative summer business.

Joseph B. Brand, president of the Motor Hotel Association of New Mexico said he was writing the state's congressional delegation urging them to act in settling the strike.

Colorado officials expressed similar fears. Last year tourist and convention trade totaled 25 million dollars in the state.

In California, the Independent Union of Petroleum Workers signed an agreement for wage increases with the Standard Oil Co. of California. However, this union has not been involved in the strike since April 30.

At London, British European Airways cut passenger service to the continent and said there will be further cuts if the oil strike in the United States continues.

The British Overseas Airways Corp. said it had sufficient supplies of gasoline outside Britain to continue normal flights for some time.

Remodeling Program Begun By Methodists

A remodeling and redecorating program is under way at the First Methodist Church, the Rev. J. E. McKinley announced today.

An initial step will be to build a room to house and condition equipment for the church proper, and the Bridges Masonry Construction Co. has started work on this unit.

This will be the first church to install this type of equipment in this area, said Rev. McKinley. It is also being installed in the Methodist Church now under construction in Daytona Beach, and has been placed in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Winter Haven.

The principal unit of the system is the Typhoon reserve cycle heat pump which uses water out of a deep well for both heating and cooling. The deep well was dug about a month ago. The air conditioning will be confined to the church sanctuary.

This program also includes the installation of an indirect lighting system and acoustic ceiling, enlargement of the chancel and choir loft and complete redecoration of the building.

JAX GALE JACKSONVILLE — Airplanes, trees and plate glass windows were here only victims of a strong gale which blew through Jacksonville in gusts up to 50 miles per hour Sunday.

The Weather Bureau said two planes were destroyed and three or four others damaged at Craig Field, where the bureau listed the gale as "a severe local thunderstorm or light tornado." The bureau said there was nothing yet to confirm that it was a full-fledged tornado.

Davis Attacks Truman Over Steel Powers

Senator O. The Steel Industry By President Is Arrived Before Supreme Court

WASHINGTON — John W. Davis argued to the Supreme Court today that President Truman's authority to use the Taft-Hartley Law in the steel crisis "points up our lack of necessity" for the action taken by the President.

Davis, white-haired New York attorney, opened arguments for the steel industry on the momentous issue of whether the President had "inherent" powers to seize the steel mills as he did on April 8 to head off a strike.

Davis has long been recognized as one of the country's top constitutional lawyers. He was the Democratic Party's unsuccessful nominee a quarter century ago for the presidency.

With his references to the Taft-Hartley Law, Davis apparently was developing a contention that the President should exhaust statutory authority in any event before drawing on any claimed inherent powers.

Instead of doing that in the steel crisis, Davis said, Truman sought to forge a new and different weapon.

The T-H law contains a provision permitting the government to seek a court order, good for 60 days, to bar a strike which threatens a national emergency. Truman has said in this connection that the CIO steelworkers voluntarily withheld a strike for a longer period than that.

Specifically, the steel industry asks the highest tribunal to uphold a ruling by U. S. District Judge (Continued on Page Two)

SA Files Request For New $500,000 Housing Project

The Sanford Housing Authority's application for another low-rent, white, housing project of 100 units will cost in the neighborhood of $500,000, it was estimated today by George H. Williams, executive director of the SAHA.

The local housing authority received the City Commission's approval to make the application last Friday night. The application is being filed with the Public Housing Authority in Washington. If granted construction of the new project would probably begin in the next few weeks.

Completed 45-unit Edward Higgins Homes project on county property, Mr. Williams said.

Mr. Williams also announced that the formal dedication and open house ceremonies of the William Clark Court Negro housing project will take place on Sunday afternoon, June 1, at 2:00 p. m.

Dr. Mary Bethune, president of Bethune-Cookman College for colored students in Daytona Beach, will be the featured speaker at the dedication. Representatives from the City and County as well as the PHA have been invited.

The completed 40 units in William Clark Court and 125 units of Clark Brewer Court will be open for public inspection after the dedication. Both are located in the hillside section of South-west Sanford and were built to provide low-rent housing for Negroes in this area.

VETS BENEFITS

DAYTONA BEACH — Commissioners of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs meeting here Sunday went on record opposing any and all legislation that would curtail veterans' benefits as suggested in the Hoover Commission "Efficiency in Government" report.

JACKSONVILLE — Airplanes, trees and plate glass windows were here only victims of a strong gale which blew through Jacksonville in gusts up to 50 miles per hour Sunday.

The Weather Bureau said two planes were destroyed and three or four others damaged at Craig Field, where the bureau listed the gale as "a severe local thunderstorm or light tornado." The bureau said there was nothing yet to confirm that it was a full-fledged tornado.

YOUTH DROWNS FLORENCE, Ala. — Herbert Daniels, 17, Pensacola, Fla., drowned in a lake here Sunday while swimming with two unidentified companions. The first patrolman B. J. Gastin said the body was recovered from Gravel Boat Lake about two hours after the accident.

ST. PETERSBURG — Between 350 and 400 women are expected here May 15-17 for the 32nd annual convention of the Florida Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

State Treasurer, St. Petersburg, state representative will be in charge of the daily business sessions. To succeed her is the nominating committee, B. Harvey, Bay West.

American soldiers abroad are sometimes called ambassadors of goodwill. In Tokyo the other day a truck load of American soldiers passed a Japanese on a bicycle.
One of the soldiers thought it would Northern newspapers seem to think that K-fauser's defeat in the recent Florida primary shows that the South is willing to accept him as the party's nominee, come the July convention. The result in Florida, and Ohio, the New Governor Dewey is strong for governor said recently, "we would not stumble into wars or create them by our own iniquity, as the Truman administration has done.

I do not know any possible nominee other than Eisenhower in either party who can give such leader-

Dewey was.

Mrs. Post, Emily White, should write a chapter, or perhaps a book, on the proper etiquette in political campaigns. Every candidate we ever saw seems to think that he is going to win because everybody is so nice to him and gives him the impression. However, we always have the feeling somehow that if we don't tell the candidate we aren't going to vote for him, we are being two-faced. On the other hand, if we do tell him we aren't, aren't we being unnecessarily rude? So what to do?

The recent seizure of General similar incident in John Brown's to precipitate a slavery revolt in the South, was cornered in an mine house at Harpers Ferry with what was believed at the time to be about 500 followers and a group of hostages, including some of the most prominent people in town whom was Lewis Washington, a grandnephew of the first president of the United States. John Brown was called upon to sit down and was assured of the safety of the South if he did, and he did. The use of force if he didn't.

Filling A Vacuum

Nature may abhor a vacuum but apparently statesmen do not. Certainly there is no indication that western diplomats are working to fill the political vacuum in Egypt. Meanwhile time is running out. New elections are slated to be held in Egypt May 18. At that time the vacuum may be filled in an explosive fashion which will prove injurious to the West.

Since order was restored after the Cairo riots in January, Egypt has been ruled by a thinly-disguised royal dictatorship tilted toward the West. Meanwhile, however, Fascist and Communist elements, both of which feed on the native hostility toward America and Great Britain, are gaining strength. If either of these groups gains control in the coming election, co-operation with the West will be impossible. One mitigating fact is that Communism is incompatible with Islam, and therefore with the culture of Egypt. This incompatibility may offer the West its chance.

Egypt's needs are twofold. First, it must develop a capable governing class which will be immune to corruption and which will be dedicated to the welfare of the nation. Simultaneously efforts must be made to improve the Egyptian standard of living, to give the masses a chance to rise from the feudal levels on which they now exist and to provide something to live for.

This program cannot be accomplished by May 18. But perhaps some settlement can be evolved by then which will bring the West off hope that a long-range program can be arranged by which Egypt may rescue itself from its present morass.

Wearer Of The Primrose

The British Tories have recently been celebrating their great anniversary, April 19, Primrose Day, the day of the death of their great leader, Benjamin Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield. Disraeli had always been fond of primroses, and soon after his death in 1881 some admirers met to commemorate him. It chanced that all wore this flower, which led to the foundation of the Primrose League. Its membership is now up in the millions, and each year Primrose Day is carefully observed.

Disraeli was an odd choice for the patron saint of the most conservative British party. He was a flamboyant character whose first fame was won as a novelist of society life; he was a Jew, a circumstance which might have been expected to offend the more prejudiced members of his party. His doctrines were not of the conventional Tory type. When he was premier, he paid much attention to social reform. British Conservatives have always been more ready than their American brethren to accept measures beneficial to labor and to the poorer classes.

Probably Disraeli's acceptance as the great Conservative came from this rebuilding the party after it split apart in the 1840's, over the abolition of the tariff on grain. It took more than a quarter of a century to put it in real power, and Disraeli enjoyed only a few years of it before he died. Many will remember the play and film "Disraeli," in which the late George Arliss played the leading part. That gave a true picture of the odd appearance and the inward ability of the man who, with William E. Gladstone, was one of the two outstanding British figures in the last half of the 19th century.

Cheer For Old Jeff Davis

We see by the papers that in New York, a northern city on the eastern seaboard, dollar bills of the late Confederacy are selling these days for 10 cents U. S. Yankee psychologists, of course, put this down as another fad phenomenon, like the hoisting of the Stars and Bars from auto radio antennas and the wearing of Johnny Reb Soldiers' caps by the small fry. This is all probably true, but nonetheless we foresee some interesting effects south of the Mason and Dixon line.

The descendants of one Southern gentleman of our former acquaintance are in for a bonanza—unexpected by them perhaps, but long prophesied by the old gentleman himself. In the attic there are several old trunks of Confederate money, put there by our late friend in the confident expectation that someday its value would return. This unconstructed anticipation was based on the theory that someday people would recognize it as good, sound money after all, and that its appreciation in value would bring the family a belated request.

Well, ten cents of the dollar is hardly riches, but it should bring some comfort to the old gentleman, wherever he is, and it may cause some impatient rummaging around in other Southern attics. After all, this makes Confederate money worth even more than it was in the last days before Appomattox. The quaint thought that occurs to us is that perhaps our confident Confederate is being proved right for the wrong reasons. The Confederate dollars, as any economist will agree, isn't catching up with the Union's money. When inflation hit the Rebels, it—like Grant—hit so hard they never recovered.

Yet it could be that the Union money is just catching down the Confederate. The Union, too, has lately had a bit of inflation and, while we have a long way to go, the Union government has finally got around to some of the same fiscal policies as Jeff Davis. A really unconstructed Rebel, we suspect, will not be tempted by this opportunity to get one for ten. He'll stick by grandfather's guns in the stubborn expectations that, given enough time, those Confederate bills might get pretty close to par. . . . Wall Street Journal.

Governors Race

himself.
During the first primary campaign, Odham had proposed that McCarty stump the state with him in the runoff to save money. Mc-Carty responded Saturday by saying "I am not interested in taking part in any vaudeville act."

FORT MYERS (A) — Dan Mc-Carty today said a bill of his in 1937 to knock out legalization of slot machines was the first time in the state that any "legalized gambling" was repealed.
Resuming his campaign for the governorship here today, he again denied he was supported by the Warren administration.

He said the charge by his opponent that Gov. Fuller Warren is supporting his campaign "is absurd." He added that there was not one single instance where he had accepted the help of racketeers and gamblers.

McCarty told a gathering here that his second primary opponent, Bralley Odham, was not the first man to fight racketeers in Florida.
McCarty was reported to demand
"this man," and reiterated his charge that the Sanford candidate opposed the minimum foundation program for schools. McCarty said he always championed better education.

TALLAHASSEE (A) — Dan Mc-Carty and Bralley Odham, the runners for the Democratic nomination for governor, today reported new campaign expenditures of more than $21,000.
McCarty filed a financial statement with the secretary of state showing expenditures of $14,941 for the week ending May 9. Odham's report listed $7,017 spent during the same period. His expenses included $410 in travel costs for the previous week, which had not been reported earlier.

Odham said he received no contributions during the week. Mc-Carty listed $472 in campaign donations ranging from $1 to $50, which were made before April 30, and said he had refunded a $250 contribution to James E. Davis, Jacksonville.

Dodd Released

Brig. Gen. Charles Colson, Charleston, S. C., was placed in Thursday, the day after Dodd was released.

Dodd said he told the Communist leader that since he had suddenly taken him to a prison in the Red demands, he expected them to live up to their bargain to release him as soon as he had accepted.

The Reds finally agreed and accorded Dodd to the gate at 9:30 p.m.
Dodd said he was informed that this action had been planned and acted upon by the Reds at 3:15 p.m. Wednesday, the day after he was captured.

The general explained his capture came about shortly after he was taken to the gate of Compound 76 at 2 p.m. Wednesday by a request for an interview from the "spokesman" of the compound.

He said the interview consisted of usual Communist complaints concerning asserted "needs for additional food, clothing, medical supplies, etc., as well as a number of demands concerning forced relocation, acceptance of Russia as a neutral nation and other matters not appropriate for such an interview."

Dodd said he had decided to break off the meeting when the Reds suddenly seized him at 3:15 p.m. and dragged him inside the compound. The statement did not mention Lt. Col. Wilbur Raven, who escaped when the Reds tried to grab him along with Dodd.

When the general said, a series of daily meetings was held with the prisoners. The Reds demanded the right to organize an association and read Dodd a long list of injuries which they said had happened to prisoners. Dodd was asked to disclose this list one by one.

A drafted agreement embodying details of the proposed organization was completed and handed Colson for signing. Colson signed, and after a series of translation foul-ups Dodd was finally released.

Dodd explained that the Reds had intended to hold him for a ten-day series of conferences with leaders of Compound 76 and two representatives of all the other comps in the island, which holds 67,000 prisoners, most of them die-hard Communists.
Dodd agreed to talk to the rep-

Two Auctioneers Needed For Sales At Plant Market

WINTER HAVEN, (Special)
—The heavy volume of a wide variety of vegetables moving through the Plant City State Market requires two auctioneers to handle the sales, while tomatoes of excellent quality claims the spotlight on the Fort Pierce State Market with a fair supply of good cucumbers. The Wauchula State Market shows a declining but still heavy volume of cucumbers along with a good and increasing supply of excellent tomatoes, and celery continues in heavy volume on the Pahokee State Market.

Vegetables are plentiful in most of the state markets just now, according to weekly reports received in the office of William L.
Wilson, Director of State Markets.

Individual summaries of the state vegetable markets for the Navy Center Holds First Anniversary

Capt. J. L. Chittenden, commander of the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Station, presided at a "wonderful place" when he spoke briefly at the program Friday night at the Navy Center, marking the first anniversary of its re-opening. There was a large attendance.

Speaking in behalf of the Navy, which called upon by Edward F. Lane, master of ceremonies, Capt. Chittenden declared, "We all take off our hats to the people of Sanford."

Introduced also by Mr. Lane were Mrs. Chittenden, FARRON Commander F. W. Traplin and Mrs. Traplin and Chaplain Danielson, and Mrs. Danielson.

Assembled for the "May Lane Variety Show" were a number of outstanding performers, including some of the most noted young dancers and singers of Sanford and Orlando. Among the entertainers were Dick Park, former Keith and Orpheum vaudeville star, who made a big hit with a humorous Negro sermon and songs. Mrs. Lane was program chairman.

It was the final event of the program, however, that resulted in applause that reached the peak of an enthusiastic ovation that echoed up and down First Street. With his customary verve, Mr. Lane introduced Dick Holtzclaw of the New York City Opera Co., who is back home for a vacation. He was pointed out as a former pupil of Seminole High School who had "made good in the big city," and as one of America's top entertainers.

Mr. Holtzclaw, known in professional circles as Richard Westworth, and fresh from new triumphs in Montreal, gave everything he had to his opening number, "Song of the Vagabonds." Prior to this he had put the microphone back of him.

With Roger Harris accompanying him, he then sang, "Come Back to Harrold," and was greeted by increasing applause. Shedding his coat due to the heat, and casting aside his necktie he brought down the house with "Old Man River," which he very nearly cut away his shirt when he wound up the number with an encore.

Starring on the program was little Julie Byrd, Orlando, who sang "The Old Folks at Home." Hilton, Glenn Woodworth, and the young tap dance artist and singer, and Sanford's own Great Gene Kirehoff, who scored highly in two song and dances appearing, one of which opened the show.

Gene Arnold, accordionist, was the Navy's contribution to the program, and played several popular numbers, concluding an encore with "September." He was heartily received.

Mr. Park's songs included "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride" and "By the Horses Sea." The program was a beautifully decorated for the occasion with red and white streamers and flowers.

Ushering in the first birthday of the Navy Center was the singing of "Happy Birthday" by the servicemen and junior hostesses, with Mrs. Lane accompanying them. The refreshments included a huge three tier birthday cake on the top of which in red, white and blue icing was the flag. On the cake was a scroll flanked by two miniature flags.

Hostesses were from Circle No. 6, the First Presbyterian Church, and the Navy Center Entertainment Committee. Assisting in the decoration program were Jerry Phillips, Lee Harden and Jerry Sheppard of the Navy, Mildred Awall and Peggy Best, Junior hostesses and Mrs. Harold Lutenecker, Mrs. Sue Stevenson and Mrs. Lane.

Charles Ginn on Sanford Avenue. The meeting, starting at 10:00 a.m. will include reports of all standing committees and circle chairmen, followed by the installation of officers and a covered dish luncheon. Every member of the Third Circle is urged to be present.

FRIDAY
The County Music Festival will be held at Seminole High School at 8:00. The public is invited to attend. The L. A. to B. of R. T. will have their quarterly birthday party at the home of Mrs. L. Heard at 8:00 p.m.

SATURDAY
The R.A.'s will meet at the First Baptist Church at 8:00 p.m.

SUNDAY
The regular business meeting of the First Baptist Church will be held at 8:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. W. A. at 1903 Maple Avenue with J. H. Harvey as co-hostess.

Geneva Garden Club

The Geneva Garden Club met on May 7 at the home of Mrs. Henry A. Simpson, president. A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed on the grounds before the business meeting.

Tall trees, shrubs and flowers and a beautiful little lake at the foot of the lawn made a beautiful vista. The food was plentiful and good. There were 29 present, including visitors and a few husbands who came to fish.

The business meeting was held under the trees. Plans for getting tables and benches for Fort Lane Park were discussed. A committee was appointed to study the by-laws with a view to suggesting amendments to be voted on at the next meeting. It was voted to sponsor a recreational club for boys and girls who have finished grade school & nominating committee was named.

Mrs. DeKerson, owner of Gray Shadows Nursery, Sanford, was the guest speaker. She gave a most interesting talk on daylilies. Three trays of beautiful daylilies ranging in color from pure, pale yellow, through variegated or bicolor, to dark red were on the speaker's table, furnished by Mrs. DeKerson herself and the hostess.

Daylilies are among the most accommodating of flowers. They are not subject to disease, will tolerate any location and weather. If you are too tired to plant them, they may even be thrown on the ground and will eventually settle into the earth themselves and start growing. Fertilization is necessary only once a year, preferably in February, although one may add a little fertilizer if desired when slumps are affected. This is best done in the fall after the blooming season is done. There are early medium and late varieties, so one may plan a long blooming season.

There are so many evergreen varieties available now that Mrs. DeKerson advises disposing of any deciduous varieties you may have on hand. She demonstrated cross-pollination and showed many lovely new lines which she has developed at her nursery. Mrs. DeKerson told us she had one plant that bore 200 flowers in a single season. The flowers are white, and she suggested that for gala occasions one place a green yellow ribbon on its side on a solid white, then place a square of green burlap suspended and partially in the light and later for the old and plants.

Mrs. DeKerson also gave some pointers on anemylis and Easter lilies. The bulbs of anemylis must be planted very shallowly and set perfectly straight as they will curve in the soil. Easter lilies that form on the bottom of the bulb are not necessarily true to the parent stock. However, if you secure the bulb near the top through about ten layers, the bulbs that form in the middle will come true. Leave your anemylis in the ground for at least three years.

Easter lilies will grow in sun or shade. If necessary to cut them up, it should be done in August and replanted immediately. Plant deep if you want to increase your stock you can break off the stalk which will grow and form a new bulb.

Rose Circle Holds Regular Meeting

Mrs. Charles Wilke, chairman of the Rose Circle of the Garden Club, presided over the meeting Friday morning at 9:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. F. T. Merriweather on Celery Avenue.

A report by Mrs. Endor Curlett, delegate to the state convention held in April in Tallahassee, was read by Mrs. Wilke in Mrs. Curlett's absence.

Attention was called to the many beautiful Jacaranda trees now blooming in Sanford. The horticulture lesson was given by Mrs. W. B. Shippy at which time she advised a heavy mulch for camellias and azaleas. Roses, she said, will do better if planted in fall, all buds pinched off for three or four months and no thinsome cut until spring.

Mrs. Charles Lawson presented the program, a talk on phloxias, and displayed some blooming plants she had grown from seed. After plants have bloomed she said, new ones may be obtained by rooting some of the leaves in sand. She stated that the old plant should be put in a dark place and watered very sparingly for three or four months. After that it must be mentioned the fact that they are brought into bloom again. She fertilized and watered well to be not bothered by insects and like indirect morning sun. It is important, she stated, to protect them from the wind.

Following the program, Mrs. Charles Park expressed the appreciation of the circle to Mrs. Wilke for her two years service as chairman and presented her a plant, a gift from the circle.

The social was turned over to Mrs. L. E. Praxler, the new chairman. Others present were Mrs. J. L. Inley, Mrs. R. E. Cole, Mrs. W. A. Morrison, Mrs. H. H. Coleman, Mrs. O. L. Parks, Mrs. J. C. Russell, Mrs. H. E. Cromley, Mrs. David Rothchild, Mrs. Wilson Newman, Mrs. W. A. Lovell of Waycross, Ga., and the hostess.

Mr. Cole has been for many years with the Florida Power and Light Company. At one time he was located in Sanford but most recently as manager of the Daytona office.

Blues Win 14 Of 15 Then Lose To Orlando, 6-4, In 10th

Chuck Aleno Is Put Out Of Contest; Senators Win On Levy's Home Run

By KENT CHETLAIN

The rampaging Seminole Blues ran their second winning streak to six straight and 14th victory in 15 games before losing a controversial and rain-swept 6-4 decision to the Orlando Senators here yesterday afternoon in 10 innings.

The Blues extended their second winning streak to five in a row by defeating the Islanders in Daytona Beach Friday night in the 10th, 10-9, and returning home Saturday night to sweep the Islanders series, 5-3, and gain a No. 6.

Lloyd Swain went eight innings for the Seminole Friday night but was replaced by a pinch hitter and big George Smith won the game in relief. It was Smith's fourth straight win for the Blues without a defeat this year.

Jesus "Chico" Corrales lasted the distance as the Seminoles slapped a 5-3 win over the Islanders Saturday night. "Chico" now has a record of four victories and one defeat for the season.

The Blues started off fast in yesterday's Orlando game by scoring one run in the first on singles by Bill Camp, Joe Parise and a fly ball by Aleno bringing in Camp from third.

The Senators went ahead when Bill Shores rapped out one of Orlando's six doubles of the contest in the fourth. Vince Zingales singled in Shores and later scored on John Valmas' bloop. The Blues tied the count in their half of the fourth when Howie Miller singled in Joe Fernandez registered his second of four base hits.

The Blues went out in front in the fifth on a pair of two-laggers by Ray Thomas and Don Ford. Rain halted the game for 20 minutes after Aleno walked to open the bottom of the fifth.

Aleno tied the tally, contested battle for the Blues with home-run homer over the left field barrier in the last half of the seventh, his fifth.

Then Ford opened the eighth frame for Orlando with a fly to Camp in left, who caught the ball sliding on the rain-swept grass. Camp let the ball slip out of his hands while he was throwing it in and Ford, who reached third during the argument that followed, was put back on second with a two-base hit. Aleno was ejected from the game in the violent controversy.

Sherry Sherba, the shortstop the Blues purchased from Palatka last Saturday night, made his Banford debut by going in at short while Miller shifted to third to play in place of Aleno. Sherba came up in the eighth with the tying run on second, but was called out by Ford on a bunt.

With the score 4-3 in favor of Orlando in the bottom of the ninth, John Imbra banged out his first hit of the day to extend his hitting streak to 15 straight games after Cavallaro grounded to the pitcher.

Dusty Rhodes lined one on the ground to Drapp at third who threw to Riggs at second to get Imbra's third out. The Senators called by Levy and Rhodes reached second on the error. With George Kents up, Levy called in a left hander George Kiermann to pitch to the southpaw swinging pitcher. Kents responded with a fluky bouncer over the head of Kiermann for an infield hit.

Kiermann was yanked for Bob Harper who yielded a hit to Fernandez, his fourth of the day, which scored Rhodes. Miller grounded to Levy in end the frame with the game tied at 4-4.

Al Levy, the former Sanford manager and FBI home run king, lead off the ninth with his fifth circuit drive of the year which was enough to win the game for the Senators at Camp. Parise and Sherba were retired in order.

Parise's out would have been a home run if he had hit it during the heavy winds earlier in the game.

The Blues will play the Senators tonight in Orlando. Murray Byrd on George Smith may get the mound call for the Seminoles yesterday their one and one half margin out of first place as DeLand lost a forfeit to Daytona Beach last night.

Over 600 Pupils To Be In County Music Festival

More than 600 pupils, representing nine Seminole County schools, will participate Friday night in the annual Seminole County Music Festival at the Seminole High School Auditorium.

Miss Nancy Williams, school music supervisor and director of the program, predicted today that the festival will be outstanding in the number of pupils participating.

These will include students of the third through the 12th grade. Schools represented will be Seminole High School, Sanford Junior High, Sanford Grammar School, Oviedo School, Lyman School at Longwood, Lake Mary School at Lake Mary, and Geneva School at Geneva.

The purpose of the program, said Miss Williams, is to present to the public an overall picture of the music program in the schools.

An added feature of the program will be the music of four school bands, Seminole High School, Junior High School, Lyman and Oviedo schools.

In the grand finale members of all four bands and all the glee clubs will join in the state song, "Old Folks At Home," and America the Beautiful. In recognition of Armed Forces Day, they will join in a salute.

Living up the program will be folk dancing and special numbers played on flute phones, small plastic instruments. Classroom and special music teachers will direct the various groups in the program.

School music, Miss Williams pointed out, begins in the first grade class rooms and this work is supplemented by special music teachers in the elementary grades. This includes singing, instrumental playing, rhythmic, creative and music reading activities.

In the secondary grades, the music program that was begun in the elementary grades is carried in special music courses.

Blues In The News

By BOB WISE and F. JUICE

Climaxed a year of fine service to the sailors of Sanford, the Navy Center's birthday party Friday, May 9, turned out to be a huge success. With the efforts of Eugene Arnold, his accordion and some professional entertainers the night became one of diversion for all who attended.

Music for dancing was provided by a juke box and refreshments were there for all. The entertainment proved to be the high spot of the evening with Arnold playing such selections as "Malgueña," "September in the Rain" on his accordion for male and female vocalists and tap dancers which turned the night into a gala event.

Among the guests were Capt. and Mrs. J. L. Chittenden and Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. F. W. Trapollin who started the program with a square dance, Jack Stout calling the turns and May Lane playing the piano for the dancers. Soon the whole group joined in and a gay time was had.

The night was a grand one, and good wishes are extended to the fine ladies responsible for the Navy Center and all of its activities. With the coming year find it carrying on its aid to the servicemen as well as it has done in the past.

The staff of Carrier Air Group Three is losing two Chief Petty Officers who have been members for quite some time. W. A. Stephens AIG, and Van L. Worrrell, AIG, have received their orders for shore duty and will leave the CAG for other stations. Chief Stephens will go to Naval Air Technical Training Center, Norman, Okla., while Chief Worrrell journeys to FARRON 6 at Naval Air Station, Jacksonville. Both have families here at Sanford and will take them to their new stations. Best of luck to these two Chiefs in their newly assigned duties.

A turnabout is found in Lynn Martin A2C of the Station Photo Lab who was to be discharged last Friday, May 9. Lynn rather than accept discharge has shipped over for six more years in the regular Navy.

Perhaps Lynn will make a career of the Navy for after completing this new hitch he will have 10 years of active service behind him. This is somewhat of a retration on our statement in last Friday's column, where we announced Martin's being discharged from the Navy. His snap decision ovens, saw the frozen food lockers and were treated to ice cream in the mess hall.

They next visited the fire station and were shown the equipment, sleeping and eating quarters of the 15 firemen.

At the classroom building they were shown a motion picture on the "History of Naval Aviation."

Much interest was shown at the parachute loft on how a parachute works. Navy life rafts were shown and the children allowed to sit in one. The barracks and recreation room was next on the schedule.

Perhaps the most interest was shown at the hangar, where the children, three at a time, were permitted to enter a twin engine Bencherft passenger plane, sit in pilot seats, and get some first hand information about operating the controls from Comdr. Gibbs.

They learned a plane motor looks like and found out how jet planes work.

Comdr. Trapollin recently expressed high praise for the good behavior of the school boys. They were told to hold hands carefully, and not one disobeyed or had to be corrected, he said. "They did not touch anything they should

Mr. Perkins said that the conference was well attended and well conducted from start to finish. "The business meetings were excellent and concerned the ideals and goals of Rotary. He declared that one of the best talks was made by the Rev. J. Willis Hamilton on "This Changing World," and predicted a splendid year for the new governor Kenneth Wacker of Winter Park.

Mr. Coleman said that about 500 Rotarians and their wives attended the fellowship dinner and were delighted with the talk of the Rev. Loveloy on "Religion in Rotary." Dr. Rupprecht pointed out that the club assembly will be held at Venice during the latter part of June, and said that the conference was one of the best he'd ever seen.

Andrew Stine announced that arrangements have been made to secure a bus to transport handicapped Sanford children to the Forest Park School for Exceptional Children in Orlando, and urged the Rotarians to co-operate with

HURRICANE PLANES

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Naval spokesman announced today a hurricane-hunting squadron of planes formed earlier this year at Jacksonville, Fla., will assume full time duties in storm reconnaissance when the hurricane season opens May 15.

Patrol Squadron 23, which operated as a hurricane hunter unit for the past three years from Miami, Fla., has been shifted to a newly activated base at Brunswick, Me., and will operate as an anti-submarine unit, spokesman for Fleet Air Wing, Atlantic, reported.

A small aerological unit stationed at Miami has been abandoned and its weathermen absorbed by the Jacksonville squadron.

The squadrons at Jacksonville and Brunswick will fly Convair P4V-3 Privateers, Naval version of the wartime B-24.

McCarty and Odham Launch Lusty Attacks

Speer Challenges Local Candidate On Seminole Gambling In DeLand Exchange

A public meeting and rally of all Seminole County citizens interested in promoting Dan McCarty as Governor of Florida will be held Friday night at the City Hall, Mrs. Fred Hanna, county manager, in McCarty headquarters, announced today, inviting all voters in Seminole County to attend the rally.

By The Associated Press
Dan McCarty and Bradley Odham toured Central Florida today in their drive to win the Democratic nomination for governor in the May 27 primary with both campaign managers what to say.

McCarty will tour from Dade City to DeLand, while Odham started the day in Mount Dora and will wind up in Orlando.

McCarty Monday accused Odham of being a Johnny-come-lately against crime and reminded audiences that he sponsored legislation in 1937 to outlaw slot machines in Florida.

Odham told listeners along the Upper East Coast that McCarty "couldn't speak without asking his campaign manager what to say."

He had an empty microphone stand on the platform beside him and said that represented McCarty's mike.

Odham exchanged a few hot words at DeLand with Geo. A. Speer, Jr., Seminole County prosecutor.

When the talk show moved from New Smyrna Beach to DeLand, Speer, wearing a rolled-up newspaper, appeared and demanded to ask Odham "some questions."

He was taken to the microphone and immediately charged Odham with conducting a "smear" campaign and asked him to repeat his statement putting the gambling responsibility on the Seminole County Board.

Odham did so and the fireworks were on, to continue for nearly 10 or 15 minutes, nearly half of which was lost to the audience when a sound truck went dead in the middle of the evening which touched on gambling in Seminole County for the Seminole Field Inc., alleged gambling house and scene of a murder in June, 1949; an obscene motion picture shown at a Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce party; the arrest of Odham's brother Billy on charges of possession of an illegally killed deer in Ocala National Forest; a woman bolita peddler in Seminole County and the Broward County dog racing bills which have been a controversial subject throughout the campaign.

The exchange went so fast that both men were often talking at the same time, crowding out each other's replies and when they weren't the audience's cheers, laughter, jeers and applause made following it extremely difficult.

Russell Launches His Campaign In South California

West Virginians Go To Polls To Name Party Delegates

MIAMI (AP)—A Russell-pledged candidate for Democratic National Convention delegate refused today to withdraw as requested by Edward Williams, DeLand, Russell's state campaign manager, in his letter of refusal Paul McRae Averette, who wants to be the Democratic choice, said he changed his pledge to Sen. Estes Kefauver.

By The Associated Press
Senator Richard B. Russell, another solid Southern Republican, quietly pushed his presidential intentions in Southern California today.

Seeking the Democratic nomination, the senator from Georgia opened his traveling case and spread these samples Monday.

"This is a year for frankness. The problem of survival in the face of Communism is the main issue."

"I would return the government to constitutional process. This is a government of laws, not a government of men."

"We must continue to rearm America and give our allies the foreign aid needed, but we must cut out all waste. I think I could balance the budget in fiscal 1954-55."

"I am not at all interested in the vice presidential nomination. I wouldn't accept it if it were offered to me."

The 54-year-old bachelor got a big laugh when he told a Town Hall audience:

"I used to think that the president was the most exalted political office of the earth. But my humility commenced shrinking after I started looking at the other candidates this year."

Russell had a chat with California Attorney General Edmund G. (Pat) Brown at a dinner at Paramount Studio Monday night. Russell said he hopes to pick up "quite a few votes" if the state's voters chose the independent state headed by Brown over Sen. Kefauver's delegates in the June 3 primary.

Kefauver is the only Democratic candidate entered in the California primary. Asked his opinion of the Tennessee senator, Russell said:

"He makes a magnificent plea for peace and I very bitterly opposed to crime."

Russell saw his Florida primary victory over Kefauver as a triumph for "middle of the road over left of the middle."

The Tallahassee fight for Republican presidential nomination delegates, lightened up a little by results in Rhode Island and Wyoming, swings today to West Virginia.

The weather was fair there and a half-million ballots were expected in a primary. Features, besides hot nomination races for governor and Congress, were:

1. Election of 16,000 Republican and 30,000 Democratic delegates to the Chicago National Convention (Continued on Page Six)

Official Returns Show McCarty Had 48.94% Of Vote

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Complete official returns from last Tuesday's primary election today gave Dan McCarty a lead of 128,802 votes over Bradley Odham, his second primary opponent for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

The Fort Pierce candidate, citrus grower, piled up the biggest vote ever given a candidate for governor in Florida but missed the majority necessary to win the nomination in the first primary by 15,643 votes. He got 48.94 per cent of the total. He needed one vote more than 50 per cent to be nominated.

The final figures, checked and tabulated by clerks in the secretary of state's office and ready for formal certification later in the day by the State Canvassing Board:

Also Adams 126,426; Bill Hendrix 11,800; McCarty 261,377; Odham 235,555 and Dale E. Spencer 6,971.

In the contest for the Republican nomination for governor, Bart Acker got 9,738 votes; Dr. Elmore S. Hamilton 5,050 and Harry S. Swann 11,148. Acker and Swann are in the runoff for the party nomination.

Armed Forces Day Parade Is Planned For Next Saturday

Indications are that the Armed Forces Day Parade in Sanford, Saturday, will be one of the largest ever held here, John Pierson, parade chairman, announced this morning.

He declared that he had received a good response from representatives of organizations throughout the County in agreement with the invitation to march or enter floats in the parade.

Representatives and committees of all organizations participating in the parade were scheduled to meet this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at the Tourist Center with Mr. Pierson to make final plans for the program.

Stated for discussion was the military courtesy to be accorded the various groups in the line of march, including the Navy, veterans organizations, schools, Boy Scouts and civic groups.

It has been requested that all organizations participating put a float in the parade, said Mr. Pierson.

A stand will be placed on Magnolia Avenue and First Street and here the parade will be reviewed, Capt. J. L. Chittenden, commander of the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station, will speak on the significance of Armed Forces Day.

City Postpones Most Action On Stadium Report

Members of the recently appointed Baseball Stadium Committee met last night with the City Commission and made a number of recommendations regarding the use of both the old and new baseball parks on Mellonville Avenue.

In the absence of commissioners John Levy and Andrew Carraway, only one action was taken by the City Commission last night.

Five recommendations were made by the Committee, including the stadium tax program.

The first was that no games be played in the old baseball park that would conflict with the same games of the Blues, as it might detract from the attendance at games, would create an unnecessary traffic hazard, and would require extra policing at the expense of the City.

Re-opening of the old grandstand was recommended, but it was suggested the concrete base, toilets and dressing rooms be left. The playing field to be maintained, and the fence and the screen to remain, it was stated.

In line with protests by abutting residents made at a recent meeting of the Commission, it was recommended that parking be prohibited in certain areas during games played in either park. These no parking areas would include Celery Avenue for two blocks west of Mellonville and east of that avenue to the City limits. Parking on Mellonville Avenue from Celery Avenue south to the railroad crossing during games also would come under the ban.

It was also suggested that the right to use either park be subject to revocation and denial to any group which unduly disturbs the peace and quietude of the neighborhood.

King Lion Carlton told all managers to be sure and tell their players that they should meet at the Lakfront diamond at 1:30 p.m.

Al Skinner, chairman of the parade committee, assured the boys they would have a float ready for Saturday morning's Armed Forces Day parade.

Colson Fired As Head Of Koje Camp

Commander Is Criticized For Deal With Communists For Release Of Gen. Dodd

By JOHN RANDOLPH
SEATTLE (AP)—Brig. Gen. Charles F. Colson was removed today as commander of Koje Island—three days after he made a sharply criticized deal there with Red prisoners of war for the release of his predecessor.

The new shakeup in the Koje command came less than 12 hours after it became known the Joint Chiefs of Staff demanded immediate and full clarification of circumstances leading to:

1. Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd's capture by his Koje prisoners, and
2. Colson's promised concessions to Communist POW leaders which won Dodd's release Saturday night.

Gen. Mark Clark, who became Far Eastern commander Monday, was instructed to send his report to the Pentagon "by the fastest means possible."

Gen. James A. Van Fleet named Brig. Gen. Hayden L. Boatner, veteran front line infantry commander from New Orleans, to take over the turbulent 80,000 man prisoner camp.

Boatner, 39 general to hold the post within a week, arrived at Koje a few hours after his appointment. He speaks Chinese and is an expert on Chinese affairs.

Colson was reassigned to his former job as chief of staff of the First Corps in Korea.

Dodd, commander of the island when Red prisoners captured him Wednesday, was reassigned to U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters. His job was not announced.

On Koje, flame-throwing American tanks and combat infantrymen stood guard outside barbed wire compounds, over some of which captured Chinese and North Koreans flew the Red flag.

U. S. defense officials in Washington took exception to the wording of Colson's agreement with the Red POWs. The Defense Department issued a statement Monday night saying the wording gave several wrong impressions.

It singled out these phrases: "All prisoners of war have been killed and wounded by U. N. forces," prisoners will receive "human treatment in the future," and there will be no more corvée work for prisoners of war."

The Reds had demanded these guarantees, and many others that (Continued on Page Six)

4 Persons Killed On Cleveland Bus By Crazy Youth

Negro Goes Berserk When Girl Objects To Burning Her Hair

CLEVELAND (AP)—An unemployed youth who said he "was just mad," grabbed a policeman's revolver and blazed away in an evening rush hour bus here Monday, killing four persons.

The youth, listed by police as Lawrence Goldsby, 20, killed the policeman, two women passengers who complained he molested them and a man passenger. Goldsby is a Negro. All the dead were white.

Police quoted the killer as saying he burned the hair of a woman passenger "accidentally" with the match while I was lighting a cigarette." That brought the patrol man aboard the bus and the shooting followed.

When the weapon clicked empty three men overpowered Goldsby and beat him savagely.

One of the three, Ted Connors, 21, gave this report:

"I saw Goldsby grab the cop's gun, whirl and shoot the girl whose hair had been singed."

"She collapsed. I dived back to another seat and heard five shots."

"A fellow had grabbed Goldsby. I went up and held him around the neck and shoved him away from me."

While the men pinned the slayer in the driver's seat and beat him, the 60 to 80 terrified bus passengers crouched behind seats, scrambled through windows or pushed toward the closed doors.

Dead were Joseph W. Stines, 40, 35, exited from traffic light at the Euclid Avenue East 105th intersection.

Miss Annabelle Frankie, 24, whose 9-year-old son was killed, was hospitalized.

"I was just mad I was mad at that girl for saying I was burning her hair. I shot the other woman because she was going to call the cop I shot the cop because he was going to take me off the bus."

"I didn't mean to shoot that other man. That was just a stray bullet."
