Sideache Backache

"I have been taking Cardui," says Mrs. Lillie Bolton, of Lake Providence, La. "I got down in bad health and lost in weight until I only weighed 120 pounds. I had bad pains in my sides and back and my legs hurt me until I couldn't walk. I stayed in bed half the time. I tried all kinds of medicine but it did me no good. Finally I tried

CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

"It seems like it did me good from the very first. After I had taken half a bottle I noticed an improvement. I continued its use and I got better and better. The pains in my legs and sides disappeared and I began to gain in weight until now I weigh 155 pounds and feel better than I ever did in my life. Cardui should help you too. Why not give it a fair trial?"

"My Children Just Love Liv-o-lax"

"For some time, I have been giving the children Liv-o-lax for the condition which I used to think called for calomel and castor oil," said a Charlotte mother.

"I think there is nothing more terrible than to have to give children those awful doses, which I wouldn't think of taking myself.

"Dr. Hand told me, in his drug store, how he worked up the formula of Liv-o-lax, just to do away with this unpleasant necessity, how Liv-o-lax, though a pleasant-tasting liquid remedy, acts on the liver in just the way required. Since I gave it one trial, I have been happy to have it in house, because the children just love to take it.

"And Liv-o-lax is an all-round family laxative. It is just as good for the grown-ups as it is for the children. Get Liv-o-lax at your drug store—30c. Just one trial will convince.

HOLLYWOOD

BY-THE-SEA

Every new idea and modern plan that could be found—that was practicable—has been introduced.

THE FIRST CITY IN FLORIDA

To start with the zoning system established—the same plan that is in use in Chicago, Cleveland, Indianapolis and other progressive cities.

Under this plan none of the different features of this modern city can overlap on each other—There are retail business zones—manufacturing zones—hotel and apartment house zones—residential zones—and only the buildings specified can be erected in these zones.

WIDE STREETS

Are an absolute necessity in these days of innumerable automobiles—motor trucks—and motor busses—and HOLLYWOOD-BY-THE-SEA has supplied them in an unstinted fashion that will be emulated by every new city in the country.

THE WIDEST PAVED STREET IN FLORIDA

Hollywood Boulevard 120 feet wide—paved 92 ft. from curb to curb with 14 ft. sidewalk—Two 70 ft streets and no street less than 50 ft. in width. Everything else in Hollywood-BY-THE-SEA is based on the same magnificent proportions.

That the residents and summer visitors to Florida may have an opportunity to see this wonderful new city for themselves—the delightful Free sight-seeing trips in our own DeLuxe Busses that have proven so popular this winter will be continued all summer weekly from Sanford to HOLLYWOOD-BY-THE-SEA and the East Coast including Miami. WONDER IF A HOME LIKE THIS WOULD BE A WIFE-INSURANCE POLICY

Benjamin Franklin, the wise sage of colonial days, realized that the progress and growth of America depended upon the industry of each individual and that time lost can never be made up. We know there are many people in this community who can build homes this year.

Your frugality and pride of ownership will be justly rewarded, ed through building right now.

We want you to come in and inspect our plans and obtain estimates. We'll gladly co-operate with you in every way to make your investment a profitable one.

THE NEW WAY OF REFRIGERATING FOODS

Women generally are coming to recognize that Kelvinator is as far in advance of old style refrigeration as the electric light is superior to the kerosene lamp.

This new way of refrigeration makes food more palatable by preserving it better.

Kelvinator butter is always fresh and hard. Vegetables and fruit hold their flavor and freshness almost indefinitely. Milk and cream keep for days. Meat is much better preserved.

Kelvinator is easily installed in the ice compartment of any good refrigerator. It is entirely automatic and supplies the same dry cold throughout the entire year. It is extremely economical.

See the Kelvinator in operation at our show rooms now or phone us, and a representative will call at your home.

Another week has passed into history. The most attractive thing about a filling station now-a-days is the "Free Air."

Unfortunately the fight last night came to a sudden end when the contestants quarreled.

Mr. Brown said that if you invest in Florida, real estate, you just can't help getting rich. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Sanford had a little taste of politics Thursday. Let's get together and make the affair on the twenty-sixth something to talk about.

Mortons M. Milford, formerly of the Fort Myers Press has been made editor of the Miami Daily News, which used to be known as The Miami Metropolis.

Dr. David Todd of Amherst College is preparing a camera with which he hopes to summate the most beautiful of things. The only thing you can see in that is the illumination.

The Tampa Times thinks that if one hundred and fifty quarts of butter are concealed in every car of oranges, the demand for fruit would jump up considerably and there would also be a tendency to boost the price.

The "cigar importer" of the London Daily Mail writes that ten times more light a cigar properly. Think that over and then see if you know one in ten who would admit it.

It is reported that a burglar recently plundered the home of former Attorney General Daugherty, leaving all the silverware and furnishings unharmed, but taking all the files of personal papers and legal documents.

Ten Requirements For a Real City.

The average person in Florida wants to live in a city that shows a progressive spirit and that steadily grows. He doesn't care to be a citizen in a town lacking in public spirit and a pride in its achievements.

L. N. Flint, chairman of the department of journalism in the University of Kansas says that there are ten tests for every city. A city in order to be a city, has certain standards which it must attain and it is these standards which Mr. Flint sets forth and which we clip from the Lakeland Star-Telegram:

- 1. Attractiveness: Shall I like the town—its "atmosphere"? Does it have the beauty of shaded trees and other beautiful features? Is it a quiet, roomy, airy, well-lighted town? Does it have attractive public buildings and homes? Is it well paved? Is it clean in every sense?
2. Healthfulness: Will my family and I have a reasonable chance to keep well in that town? How about its water supply? Its sanitary system? Its methods of milk inspection? Its health department? Its hospitals? Is it without any congested district?
3. Education: Can I educate my family and myself in that town? How about its public schools—present and future? Its institutions of higher education or of business training? Its libraries? Its lecture and concert courses? Its newspapers? Its postal facilities? Its schedule of salaries to teachers? Its investment in school property?
4. People: Shall I like the people of the town? Are they "home folks" without false exclusiveness? Are they neighborly and friendly? Is the town free from factionalism? Does it have strong religious, fraternal, and social organizations? Is it a law-abiding community? Do the people use their public libraries and support artistic undertakings? Do they keep their children in school and not in factories? Are they good American citizens?
5. Recreation: Can I have a good time in that town—and my family? How about the theaters, museums, gymnasiums, parks, etc.? Are there active agencies for providing food entertainments, athletic contests, etc.? Are inviting opportunities for pleasure drives afforded by well paved streets?
6. Living: Can we live reasonably and well in that town? Are the best modern conveniences available for its residents—electricity, gas, telephones, etc.? Are the housing and shopping conditions favorable? Rents, taxes and prices fair? Hotels good? Home and truck gardens and dairy products plentiful? Is it a good town in which to bring up children?
7. Accessibility: Can we go and come easily? Does the town have adequate railroad connections and train service? Street car lines? Interurban lines? Well marked automobile routes and hard surfaced roads? Desirable proximity to other cities, affording additional advantages?
8. Business: Can I make good use of capital in that town? Are there good banking facilities? Manufacturing interest? Up-to-date stores? Good shipping facilities? Favorable labor conditions? A prosperous farming territory? Fair real estate values? Reasonably cheap power? Active co-operation among business interests?
9. Employment: Can I get a job in that town at fair pay and with good prospects for the future? Can I count on co-operation from organizations making it their business to help introduce and establish new commercial interests and to welcome new citizens?
10. Progressiveness: Shall I find that I am in a town having a progressive city government, active civic organizations, modern fire department, adequate police protection, organized measures for accident prevention, and a pull-together spirit in everything—a town with a future?

"It Doesn't Pay" Helps Again.

Fifteen large business corporations, including the Standard Oil Company and a number of well-known manufacturers of automobile tires and accessories, have announced that they will no longer use sign-boards for advertising.

Thus once more the mere reformer is to have the unintentional help of the Almighty Dollar. When big advertisers cease using sign-boards, little advertisers will follow suit; and the long fight for the cleaning up of the scenery will be won.

Through a careful study of sign-board advertising, experts working for the best interests of their employers have advised that no new signs be erected. The boards already in use, it seems, are to be left to stand until they fall to pieces from old age, unless there happens to be a people with authority, real or otherwise, to remove the eyesores.

In Florida where scenery is more a matter of dollars and cents to the people than in any other state in the Union, barring California, the news of this attitude of big business concerns toward sign-board advertising should be especially welcome. It is high time that the people of Florida should understand the importance of making their highway scenery beautiful.

What Florida needs is a commission composed of two representatives from each county, known as a "Highway Beautiful Commission" whose business would be to work for the improvement of the scenery as viewed from the state highways.

Such commissioners could readily be found. There are men and women in every county who would be glad to serve without pay, except that pay which would be so richly found in the satisfaction of adding beauty to one's county and to Florida. They would elicit the aid of all possible organizations, they would make individual appeals to property owners, they would take charge of specific improvement projects—the planting, for instance, of flame vines on some dilapidated wall, or the converting of the barren dooryards of shabby negro cabins into gardens of yellow marigolds.

It really would not take much money to make scenic highways in Florida. It would take leadership and educational work, especially educational work. And now that the ever effective "it-doesn't-pay" viewpoint has come to eliminate the unsightly sign-board, practically exclusive efforts can be given by the "county beautiful" workers to the replacing of other kinds of eyesores with pleasing things; especially to the protecting of natural beauty and the adding of trees and shrubs and flowers.

Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and some few to be chewed and digested.—Francis Bacon.

As Brisbane Sees It

What is He Doing There? Wheeler is No "Easy Mark." Dangerous Short Selling. Percival S. Hill Figures. Copyright, 1924

YOU READ the report deciding how many billions Germany must pay and how she ought to get the money. And, seeing at the bottom of that report the name of a respectable Chicago banker, Mr. Dawes, you ask yourself with Moliere's famous character: Que diable allait il faire dans cette galere?

Which may be freely translated: "What the devil is he doing there?"

WHAT HAS the United States to do with deciding what Germany shall pay, how many billions France and the others shall get? It isn't our war. It is not our funeral or our celebration, and we don't get the money.

Somebody ought to tell Uncle Sam that story about the man that got rich "by minding his own business."

SOME ENTHUSIASTS out West, stimulated by large pocket-books, have indicted Senator Wheeler. Trying to discourage his able investigating. By this time they probably regret it for the senator is going to investigate THEM and find out just what and who are behind the indictment.

WASHINGTON KNOWS that when Senator Wheeler entered public life in Montana he found two political parties out there, one called Republican, one called Democrat, both owned by copper mines. When he ventured to oppose the copper capitalists he was informed that he would be run out of Montana. But he had plans, got himself elected to the Senate of the United States and now the people are hearing from him.

Even the fattest pocketbook ought to realize that this is no time for financial "rough stuff."

GENTLEMEN SELLING cotton "short" recently have discovered that the United States and its products are good things to buy, not so good things to sell short.

Australia is coming along rapidly with a cotton crop of ten thousand bales. But unfortunately the boll weevil is an industrious insect. That helps prices, and all the cotton this country can produce for many a year is needed to clothe the naked and half naked in Europe. That helps prices. You may be foolish enough to BELIEVE in bad times, but don't be foolish enough to BET on them.

MEN MUST do something foolish and the best that you can pray for is that the "something" solicited will not be as bad as it might be.

You learn that the Chinese smoke more cigarettes every day, especially American brands, produced in the thirty-six thousand million cigarettes against sixty-six billion produced in the United States. You say you are a non-smoker, but you are not very nourishing, perhaps, but while they are smoking cigarettes our Chinese brothers are not smoking opium.

IF the United States, with 110,000,000 population, produces sixty-billion cigarettes a year, how many will China soon produce and the rest of the world population? Mr. Percival S. Hill probably figures that out instead of counting sheep jumping over a fence when he wants to make himself go to sleep.

"TO HIM that hath shall be given." Soldiers marched away, leaving their jobs and the chance to make any of the war's easy money. Those that had a great deal of money already made a great deal more, thanks to the soldiers that made operations safe.

NOW NEW YORK STATE needs $45,000,000 to pay a small bonus to New York's soldiers. The gentlemen that got rich in the war and then opposed any bonus now buy up the forty-five million bonds, and because they are "state bonds," escape an income tax on them.

Thus to him that hath comes profit "going and coming." Going away the soldiers made capital safe and coming back the soldiers provide bonds, behind which big capital protects itself from the income tax collector.

THAT LEARNED and gallant young Senator Medill McCormick, of Illinois, opposes Secretary Mellon's plan to cut taxes. That isn't going to help Senator McCormick in the coming election. A twenty-five per cent maximum income tax if it were really collected would supply more revenue than the most willing congressional squanderers could scatter.

Secretary Mellon says the tax plan outlined by him would supply all the money needed. And he knows more about that than anybody else, including Senator McCormick, who in many other respects is an intelligent young man.

THE REVEREND Dr. Kellman, back in London, after preaching for five years in New York, says: "There are no misers in America. Everybody there is willing to spend money."

Nevertheless there are misers in America, but they are "miserly about time."

Americans will give money to anybody but will not give time to themselves or anybody else. Miserly about time their shorten their lives, cheat themselves and leave the world without seeing it, or enjoying it.

America has too many misers and time wasters. There ought to be neither.

BUT HOW ABOUT THE HOUSEWORK?

JUST IN PASSING

BY R. J. HOLLY

William Jennings Bryan spoke here Thursday afternoon and as he stood on the platform talking to the people in the same earnest and convincing manner that he did twenty-five years ago when I knew him as a newspaper correspondent it made me think that we are getting less hair and more brains perhaps but our ideas have changed but little.

When one listens to certain people kicking about food in restaurants and other places it usually brings to mind the time when they had but little to eat and were easily satisfied. Getting easy money makes fools out of some folks and they do and say funny things.

New York judge in commenting on the increase in crime among young boys says it is caused by the people abandoning hope for joy rides and the old idea of home life is dissipated in the fast and riotous living of the present day. Probably so, judge, but it is rather difficult to teach young ideas how to shoot these days. They seem to have ideas, also.

Noticed a Seminole county candidate looking upon William Jennings Bryan with an envious eye the other day as William peeled off the English language and said: "I wish I were a president or a near president."

According to all reports coming in from the supervisor's office Seminole county will have a big vote out at the polls in the June primary. It will be far and away the biggest vote we have ever polled and will be another barometer showing the growth of our county in four years.

One of my young friends who was not among the eligible bachelors in the list published some time ago in The Herald wishes me to announce that he is looking for a wife. He wants one with lots of money and a bad cough, he said. Since "there ain't no such animal" I cannot get him a wife at this particular time.

The Tampa Tribune had a good editorial the other day on "Why Worry?" And when you come to think about it why should we? Everyone has plenty to worry about if they choose to make life miserable for themselves and everyone around them but what does the public care about your troubles? The newspaper man with all the trouble in the world is obliged to smile right on and write pleasant stuff even if his heart is breaking. The actor goes on taking his part with his wife dying at home and so on down the list. None of us have room for worry and then it is laid on the stomach as the Sanford doctors say. Smile right on.

Some of the newspapers are worried about the birthplace of one of the candidates. That always makes me sick. What difference does it make where a man was born when he gets ready to enter politics. It is not so much a question as to where he was born but where is he going?

We need more benches on the streets of Sanford. The weather is getting warmer now and the Sitting Sons of Rest want to get out again and take an active part in politics. Having elected all their candidates at the last election the S. S. O. R. want to take up the question of candidates in particular and politics in general.

One never goes away from Sanford and comes back again that you do not have a thrill over the old town as you get within her borders to see the things of progress and prosperity on every hand. There may be better towns in Florida but they will have to go some to beat this burg just now.

With that canal cut from the St. Johns river into Indian river and the flow of tourists yachts, commercial boats and all kinds of water traffic every city on the St. Johns river and the East Coast canal south will be benefited in one hundred different ways. It will make the state of Florida great and give Sanford a population of fifty thousand people in ten years. And we can have it by going after it. But we cannot have it by sitting still and letting the other fellow do all the work.

A certain candidate's wife has her suspicions about all his kissing in this campaign being confined to the babies. We will tell the world that there are some sweet babies in Florida and many of them are older than sixteen although they look young for their ages.

er may make the introduction, the greater responsibility is upon the father and the mother in the home. God pity the child who must look to some stranger to bring him to Jesus.

Malcolm McLeod tells us "Some years ago when Kansas was in this country I made rather striking statement: the shipwreck should ever befall us a nation, the rock on which would split would be our devotion to our private interests at the expense of the Republic."

"I might paraphrase the statement and say: 'If ever shipwreck befall us as a nation, or as a family, the rock on which it would split would be devotion to our personal interests at the expense of the religious life of our children.'

But we prefer to think in terms of opportunity. Reasoning about an unattractive word. All our looking for opportunities. They were probably but few mothers who brought their children to the memorial day in the days that followed.

What an opportunity it was to be implanted in the mind of the baby who was thinking, "No wonder! At birth a child has memories, no plans, no ambition, no ideas, no connected thoughts, no language." What a chance here for you, Benjamin West said that it was the kiss from his mother that made him a painter.

The destiny of our nation is in the direction in which the footsteps are turned in the early days.

To what painstaking effort we go to develop the musical talent that we hope may lurk somewhere in the inner life of our child, and how proud we are when our boy or girl sit down at the piano and play some of the world's masterpieces. How it rejoices our hearts when the lad we love and the girl we have taught to think and to sing, win out in the college oratory, in a debating team.

Just lately I was talking to a father somewhat over sixty years of age about his son. He said something like this: "When he was a student, he made his college record in athletics. He was selected of the college annual. He sang of the university quartet, he was for three years on the university debating team against the greatest schools of America, he tutored in metropolitan ministers of America, he was post and valedictorian for his class. He won a fellowship that gave him a course abroad and now he is pastor of the church in a seminary town where the men who teach our preachers study theology sit in the pews before him from Sunday to Sunday.

What an opportunity we have in interest our children in the things that are worthwhile, and how we appreciate what the opportunity was meant to us when the son of the daughter comes to a position of achievement, and that presence of achievement is not that boy who is a godly man, but that boy who has been entrusted to our care. What a chance we have to inspire the sweetest and most beautiful in the mind and heart of the daughter. Surely, this is the greatest opportunity.

These mothers see their opportunity—not to bring their children to one of the great artists of the world for instruction in painting, but to train them to reproduce a canvas that tells the story of a spiritual life, or to train them in the art of song, that they may, who to

MIDDLETON WINS DECISION AS THE RESULT OF FOUL

Miami Scrapper Is Given Referee's Decision When North Carolina Batter Is Disqualified on Foul in Fourth Round

Jack Middleton of Jacksonville was declared winner of "Rough House" Ross in the fourth round of their scheduled 10 round bout last night at the arena when the latter was disqualified because of a foul. Ross, who had been leading the fight all the way and had piled up a large number of points over his adversary, was disqualified when he passed a punch while the referee was separating the two in a clinch.

It was evident that from the vigorous protest voiced by the crowd when the decision was announced, that it was not a popular one. However in the opinions of the referee and both judges, the decision should have and did go to Middleton. The matchmaker split the purse between the two fighters. It was announced that because Batling Meyers is suffering from an infected hand, he was unable to appear here against Mickey Dugan in the semi-final bill. As a substitute Manager Dawson secured Young Teney of Tampa and Batling Felder of Havana to mix blows. This lightweight ring men furnished a good exhibition, which was much enjoyed by the crowd. Felder was declared the winner on points.

A return match between Billy Stark and Kid Williams blew up in the second round when Stark was declared winner because he had been fouled by Williams. Stark, it was announced at the beginning, was still suffering from the effects of a week's illness and was not fit much coming to fight. The crowd enjoyed very much a battle royal and also a two-round

Col. Geo. Knight Issues Statement

After a conference with Matchmaker Billy Dawson this morning Col. Geo. W. Knight, head of the local National Guard companies, and who has been instrumental in arranging the boxing exhibitions that have been staged here during the past few weeks, issued the following statement in regard to future exhibitions:

"In view of the fact that there were some complaints about the officiating in last night's bouts, those in charge wish to announce that in the future the best referees that are available in this part of the state, will be secured to take charge of local bouts. This means that 'Sailor' Mitchell, who officiated last night, will not serve in that capacity again.

"It is the desire of myself as well as the other officers of the companies sponsoring these exhibitions, to have them as clean and free from criticism as possible. In keeping with this idea, the matchmaker assures us that the very best performers will be secured to appear here and only those who are known to be clean boxers will be matched. "We regret that the unpleasant episode occurred last night when certain men entered the ring. Bouts cannot be staged successfully when this occurs. We ask for the hearty co-operation of the local fans. The sport must be conducted in accordance with the rules and whether the opinion of the individual coincides with that of the referee, should not enter into the matter. Official decisions must be adhered to. We ask that our stand in this matter be endorsed by every lover of the ring sport."

EXPERTS' REPORT IS ACCEPTED BY THE COMMISSION

tic consideration from all the European experts. Although no official time limit has been set for Germany to reply to the reparation commission's invitation to accept the experts' report, it is said the reich has been requested to decide within the shortest possible time what action it will take, it being the commission's purpose to ascertain Germany's decision before the German elections which are to be held May 4. It is understood here that Premier Poincare also is desirous of having the question settled before May 11, the date for the French legislative elections. M. Poincare, it is asserted, is ambitious to go down in history as the man during whose tenure of office the reparations problems were settled.
