GOTHAM ROARS BIG WELCOME FOR AL SMITH

Deafening Cheers And Applause Greet Nominee On March Thru
Canyon Of Broadway

Drizzle Fails To Curb Enthusiasm

Parade Is Intended To Show Business Has Faith In Candidate

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—(INS)—The sidewalks of his own New York curled up and stood on end today to salute and welcome Al Smith back home from his campaign travels.

From the greying old battery, looking out to the sea to 5th street, which was way up town when he was a boy, he paraded today in a shower of ticker tape, adulation, adoration and deafening applause and cheers.

Precious, high on the back seat of an open car, in a drizzling rain, the Governor took the section of his home town with a wide grin, and many waves of the brown derby that is now known from Butte to Boston.

The welcome home which New York gave to Governor Smith was different from any of the wild receptions he received in his 12,000 miles of campaign traveling during the last two months.

There wasn't much politicking in it, for one thing. The parade was arranged by the associated business for a better New York, and it was designed not so much to show that New York is for Al Smith personally and politically as to show that the great business interests of the city have confidence in him.

There were none of the German "Old East Side" cronies in the show; no Tammany marching clubs, no Democratic organizations with their whoopee devices. All these were excluded. It was a business parade more than a political parade, however much it may have been planned for political effect.

If marking quotations are slowed up today, it will be because they used up all the ticker tape to welcome "Al" home.

It hung festooned in bales along the towering fronts of the skyscrapers. His car was covered with it, and even streamed from the manes and tails of the prance.

Alienists Examine
Weird Story Teller

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—(INS)—Alienists at Bellevue Hospital today were to examine Frank Kirkpatrick, young German-American, real estate broker, who was found naked, bound, gagged and with the initials K. K. scratched on his chest near the old Jerome Park reservoir in the Bronx.

Kirkpatrick told a fantastic tale of having been kidnapped by three men outside Democratic national headquarters in the General Motors building and having been stripped and branded with the Klan legend at Republican headquarters.

District Attorney McGroarty, of the Bronx, branded the affair an attempt by Kirkpatrick to gain publicity.

Both Parties Evince Optimism Over Result Of Congressional Election

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—(INS)—A Democratic claim that Tuesday's election will reverse Congress to their party's control was offset today by a Republican boast of an advantage in the South in congressional districts visited by the field armies.

Both parties of both houses of the legislature were to be tested by the field armies.

Commander And Crew Of Graf Zeppelin Are Given Receptions In Home Port

Little German City Where Dirigible Was Built Maintains Festive Spirit As Crowds Hall Heroes Of Air

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Nov. 2.—(INS)—This little town famous as the birthplace of the Graf Zeppelin and other liners of the air, still maintains its festive air today. Everywhere were signs of jubilation and pride in the successful termination of the first round trip of the semi-Atlantic passenger and mail air liner. On all sides Dr Hugo Eckener, commander of the Graf, was hailed as a genius for his magnificent handling of the "queen of the air" through the vicious storms encountered both going to and returning from Newfoundland.

He made a plea for the building of larger and more powerful airships. He stated that such ships were to provide a greater margin of safety against the vicious onslaughts of Atlantic storms.

He painted a vivid picture of the storm encountered southeast of Cape Race and explained how carefully he and his subordinate officers had to handle the ship to prevent possible disaster.

GRAF STOWAWAY TWO CANDIDATES
AWAKES TO FIND PUSH CAMPAIGNS
MANY BIG OFFERS THRU LAST DAYS

Friendly Counselors
Advise Him To Pre-
cede Slowly In Deal

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Nov. 2.—(INS)—Hoover campaigning westward, seeking to bolster up real or fancied Republican weak spots in the East, particularly to clinch his own New York. The Republicans drumming steadily away on the one issue of prosperity—the Democrats conducting a grand assault along half a dozen fronts, from prohibition to water power, from farm relief to religious intolerance.

Thus does the campaign draw near a close today, a campaign that has no parallel in American politics, and one as well that this near the end finds both parties serenely, even sublimely, confident of the result. The leaders of neither side can envision defeat next Tuesday. And, oddly enough, the confidence appears really genuine on both sides.

"Something is in the air," is the way Governor Smith puts it. "It means victory."

"I cannot believe," said Herbert Hoover in Miami last night, "that the American people, with their desire for not getting a passport before leaving the United States on his record-breaking voyage through the clouds, did not do this." He never did, but he has no time for whims. He was given a tip of champagne—the first he ever had—and declared frankly that he did not like it.

What "he" wants more than anything else just now is to get back home in time to celebrate his birthday, on Nov. 29, with his sister, Mrs. Edna Hall, of Union Boulevard, St. Louis. This seemed more important to him today than the flood of telegrams and letters containing fabulous offers to ensure his sudden fame.

Not all the letters deal with business. Some offer him a good home for the news that he is an orphan and are spread with the accounts of his aerial adventure.

Many German boys have written to Terhune asking his advice as to how to become aeronauts.

HOOVER GIVEN OVATION ON HIS JOURNEY WEST

Nominee Takes Pro-

Appears Cheered

"Victory Special Will

ON BOARD HOOVER SPEC-IAL, ENROUTE TO LOUIS.
VILLE, Nov. 2.—(INS)—Speeding westward along "my own main street," Herbert Hoover started his Republican prosperity keynote into Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana today.

Holiday over ovations accorded him uniformly in hamlet, village and town throughout Maryland and West Virginia, the nominees and his campaign chief, Dr. Hubert Work, Republican national chairman, swung into the Ohio Valley with renewed confidence in the outcome of next Tuesday's presidential balloting.

"The victory special" was the name given the Hoover train by his campaign managers aboard. Skirting Cincinnati, the special crossed the Ohio River into Indiana shortly after 8 o'clock this morning.

A stop of an hour and a half with a street parade and a brief address, comprised Hoover's Louisville program between 10:10 and 11:40 A. M., after which he was to head northward through Indiana for St. Louis, where he is to deliver his penultimate major campaign address tonight.

During the four hour stop at St.
Louis, Hoover will meet groups of Republican state managers from Missouri and nearby states, Guaranteed from Union Station over a circulous route to the collision and then turn directly to his train after the meeting.

"I have come to think of this strip of railroad across the middle of America as my own main street," Hoover declared in a brief talk at Cuyahoga Falls, Maryland, the first scheduled stop following his departure last night from Washington.

"I cannot believe," said Herbert Hoover in Miami last night,
"that the American people, with their desire for not getting a

States on his record-breaking

Mrs. J. G. Leonardy
Finishes Speaking
Trip On East Coast

With election day only three days away, county Democratic leaders made plans today for fixing the final date of the campaign tomorrow night at an open-air meeting to be staged on Magnolia Avenue near First Street. The meeting is scheduled to open at 8 o'clock.

C. W. Entzinger of Longwood, state legislator and veteran Democratic leader, will be the only speaker. He will address an appeal to local citizens to recruit in the cause and work for a Democratic victory from one end of the ticket to the other.

Mr. Entzinger has been active in the local campaign. He has made several addresses throughout the state, flying Republican speakers, a big parade, and two speeches, one in Brooklyn tonight, the other in Madison Square, New York, tomorrow night. The Tammany hosts of New York plan to show the country New York's affection for $41 in no uncertain manner in all three events.

Veteran Democratic observers who have been around national conventions are most afraid to believe some headquarters since the Bryan days, of the most enthusiastic supporters of the Democratic party. Appearing under the auspices of local organizations in Dade and Palm Beach counties, Mrs. Leonardy spoke three times, in Miami, Miami and once in West Palm Beach.

On Saturday night, Mrs. Leonardy appeared with Mrs. Luisa Fletcher before a crowd of 12,000 to 15, 000 gathered in Bayfront Park, Miami. Mrs. Leonardy did what it was one of the most enthusiastic speakers she has ever heard—and declared she reported that party leaders here have been greatly encouraged within the past few days despite the gloomy views of victory.

The Tammany hosts are in both amps. The Republican managers put out an electoral table that claims 285 electoral votes, an Homer's "irreducible minimum."
That number represents 10 more than the 285 necessary to win.

The Democrats have had a similar table claiming 284 votes for Smith's rock bottom figure, with 21 more votes claimed as "doubtful but leaning strongly to Smith." It is inconceivable to the Democratic managers that Governor or Smith will fail to get any part of this 21. Certainly, they say, he will get the right measure to bring the rock bottom figure up to the winning figure of 285.

Writ Guards Man From Irate Wife

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 2.—(INS)—
Because he said his wife threatened to horsewhip him and take everything he had and leave him "broke" E. E. Freeman, grain merchant, obtained a restraining order and today his mischievous wife found herself ordered by the court to "leave her husband alone." In a separate action Freeman is rushing to remove his personal effects from his home, because his wife told him, he said, that if he attempted to remove them she would "kill him."

formerly of Raleigh, N. C., cashier of the Bank of Groveland who allegedly absconded with $10,000 in cash.

The long wait ended yesterday to be empty. Warrants charging Hightower with larceny of $3,000

Gloom Hovers Over Seminole Gridmen As Symes Is Hurt

Giant Tackle Lost To Team For Remainer Of Football Season Game Is Tomorrow

Local Outfit To Meet Strong DeLand Team

By Peter Schaefer

Old Man Gloom, arch enemy of all football teams, descended in full force on the Seminole High squad yesterday afternoon, as Roy Symes, giant tackle, was carried from the field, his arm dangling by his side broken and shattered, and rendering "nig loi" to the team for the balance of the season.

Usually good fortune has followed Coach Whichever's outfit this season thus far, but it couldn't last forever, and today finds the mentor hard put to replace this splendid player, and to make matters worse, it is the eve of the DeLand game, the first of the series of really hard games.

Young Symes, whose work this season has earned the approval of every fan and who was said to be the most valuable man on the team, was injured in the scrimmage held yesterday, and his loss has reached into the heart and mind of every member of the squad. His work on the line has been tremendously effective, and he was known as the most vicious and powerful tackler on the team, his strength seemingly knowing no end. And his loss at this time coming as it does in the face of the DeLand game, is to have its effect on the squad, though the coach has reserve material which should fill the gap in creditable style.

Pat Patin will probably be shifted to the line, probably at guard, with Bob Yancey taking Symes' place at tackle. Pat will be a terror there, and will probably be more effective than he was in the backfield. Claude Hermon and Jack Aycock will probably be tried with the chance about even for each of them.

However, the boys will be out there tomorrow afternoon carrying on for all they are worth for they stack up against an old rival and this time that rival is determined to take the locals' fate. DeLand brings to Sanford a team composed of veterans including four fast backfield men and a fast, low charging line, and this contest will be a thriller. We predict that the score will be about 13 to 15 in favor of Sanford, with plenty of opportunity for every fan to yell himself hoarse, as well as feel the old heart beat faster.

The game will begin at 3:30 and the usual student parade through the business district before the game will bring out the crowd. Hotel accommodations are to be provided to handle the capacity crowd. The boys have promised to give you a real game, and they are asking your support in this, their first test test. Be at hand at 2:30 tomorrow at Municipal Field.

With the idea of fostering a greater fighting spirit and an incentive to do or die for the school this winter is offering a trophy to be given to the most valuable player in the football squad, the award to be made an annual affair and to be given to that player who is the opinion of a committee of twelve competent football officials and fans, is the most valuable man in the team. It is to be known as the "Peter Schaefer" trophy, a group of twelve people, the DeLand High Whisperer, Mr. G. P. Miller, will be the work of the entire team and their vote for their choice of the most valuable man. This will be cast in a bronze, and the man having the greatest number of votes being awarded the trophy. He will be the recipient of the committee's award, and the trophy will be presented to him at the final meeting of the football committee.

The fact that a man scores more touchdowns than another is not enough to win the award, but the one with the most touchdowns, along with the most offensive strength, is above himself, for there is no such thing as a good football player without a good defensive player. The trophy will be given to the man who has the greatest number of points, and the one that has the most remarkable record of his performance in the field, which means that the men with the most points are the most valuable, and the most responsible. For example, a man may be the most valuable, but he may not be the most points, or the most touchdowns, or the most

Gator And Clemson Freshmen To Meet In Orlando Nov. 12

ORLANDO, Nov. 1.—The battle of the day will be staged in Orlando on Nov. 12, when the Freshmen of Florida and the Freshmen of Clemson clash in their annual grid battle.

Evenly matched, the teams are going into the fray determined upon a showing for the Southern Conference freshman title. Most determined will be the Baby Gators for they will have a chance to avenge somewhat the 20 to 19 defeat which was handed them by the Georgia yearlings last Friday.

The Clemson fresh squad took the Georgia Babies into Camp 7 to 6 while the Georgians turned the tables on the Baby Gators 20 to 19. Said the Gator fresh men from Clemson it will make a three-cornered race for the fresh title so much coveted by the Southern Conference yearlings.

Clemson Alumni are joining with the Florida Alumni to make the day's events a gala one for Orlando and Central Florida. The Clemson Booters Club has been organized by former students and grads as well as a number of friends.

Tickets for the game have gone on sale in every town and hamlet within 60 miles of Orlando through local alumni.

Egypt's used-car problem is serious.

Londoners now make calls by airplane.

PICK THE WINNERS

Below are 15 football games for Saturday. How many winners can you pick out of the fifteen? Almost every football fan in Sanford has his favorite team, but here's your chance to see how good you are in predicting victors. To those fans, who send in lists with the largest number of winners, the Herald will award each two tickets to hear and see Vitaphone and Movietone at the Miami Theater. Clip out this coupon, indicate your prediction as to the winners, sign your name and address and send it to the sports editor BEFORE 12 o'clock noon, Saturday, Oct. 27.

GOTHAM ROARS
BIG WELCOME
FOR AL SMITH

said, as far as the eye could

State's Attorney A. V. Smith, declared today he would have an X-ray picture taken of Hitchcock's<sup>s</sup> leg to make sure the limb was really broken.

Among the latest theories held by investigators was that Miss Kanak had driven the slow-moving car into a curb and Mr. Hitchcock had stepped out to see what had happened, and then fallen over.
Also, with this, they entertain the theory that there was a woman in the case.

On Wall Street there stood investors in the creeper, astern, and impervious to all but the skittish hopes of the market. In the center of Broadway, the lone figure of a dirty white uniformed man, in his drizzling rain, a home coming soldier, which read:
"I'm back home in the White House".

Not even the rufous contemplation of all the little things of street and house to focus the mind could draw from his face, but without his scratching off his hat and pulling wildly at the Governor and Mayor. He was the wave of the nation to return, and the nation let him stay.

MARYLAND SWING REMAINS AMONG MULTIFUL GROUP

Leaders Of Opposing Parties Agree That Result Will Be Close.

By Carter Field
BALTIMORE, Nov. 2.—Maryland differs from Massachusetts in doubt on the Presidential election only in that both sides put forth claims which they seem to believe. Actually no one really knows whether Herbert Hoover will carry the state by a big majority, whether Governor Smith will carry it by a record-breaking vote, or whether it will be an issue that it will take a recount to determine the result.

This element also applies to the senatorial contest, in which Senator William Cabell Briscoe is facing former Governor Philip Lee Goldsborough. Goldsborough is more dry and Smith is swinging wet, so that the wet and dry fight is the same both in the Presidency and the gubernatorial. Briscoe is going to be won by a lot of voters who do not think either of him and by abstainers who think both who are also not Smith. On the other hand, he is going to receive the votes of a lot of Democrats who are going to call Smith because he is a Catholic.

The writer's best judgment is that Smith is weaker than Smith.

Baltimore's swing for Smith. Wringing out Baltimore is expected by the Democrats to roll up a tremendous majority for Smith. On the face of Smith's victory in the city, and still impressed by the magnitude of the reception given him—such times say it surmises the exhaustion of the dryings—Democrats leaders talked about his winning the city by 50,000.

More conservative leaders talked about 35,000 for Smith in the city. These two figures coincide that Smith would carry the country by not less than 15,000 and probably 20,000, meaning that they are figuring a majority for Smith of from 150,000 to 200,000 in the entire state.

Two years ago Baltimore gave Governor Ritchie, running for his third term as Governor, 47,000 majority over Addison E. Mullikin, his Republican opponent. But within a few months after that a Republican was elected in Baltimore because, during the how the city was carried about.

Calls for Loss of Majorities. This notwithstanding, one is most interesting not only because it was the last election held here, but because the election issue was raised. There was no wet and dry issue. Mayor William F. Breisinger and William Clegg, his Democratic opponent, both ran with the slogan "Keep Dry." The Republicans, however, had a Capitalist slogan, "Keep the Country Dry," another factor of the Democratic party which was used to sustain its nomination.

Smith, in his clear test before the factional row, has taken his stand. He has been Mayor since 1924 and thought he was to be re-elected. Governor Herbert Hoover, and others, assumed that his record did not qualify him for the office.

Finally, the election issue was raised again. The Republicans, however, had a Capitalist slogan, "Keep the Country Dry," another factor of the Democratic party which was used to sustain its nomination.

In Baltimore the Italians have apparently been Democratic as the main among this nationality because Communists and Socialists are important, especially among the Italian where the Italians have mostly been Communists.

Democrats in the United States. Up until a few weeks ago, it is identified by Democratic leaders they had very little chance to win the election. They were, however,

BOUNCE-FILM COMBINE

Sound-film exhibitors have reached the combination stage in Europe. Through the acquisition by British cinema control of the important continental concern, Lignac-Martin, of Germany, the first organization in Europe for the distribution of international pictures, in Great Britain, France, Germany, and Belgium, has been created. Officials of the new combine say that several American firms are producing the company for musical scores for some of its films which have been synchronized in this country, but maintains a new setting made in Great Britain against the efforts of cutting and reediting. The result of the operation is that 3,000 seats in Berlin received the 2,000 seats were sold a week before the opening night, still fully 2,000 more were turned away.

In Baltimore the Italians have apparently been Democratic as the main among this nationality because Communists and Socialists are important, especially among the Italian where the Italians have mostly been Communists.
