Demos Will Bar Nixon's 'Friends'

MIAMI BEACH (AP) - The Democratic Party has decided to bar all Justice Department or other security personnel closely associated with President Nixon from the Democratic National Convention, the Miami News reported

"I don't want former law partners of the President or any Nixon appointee whose job depends on the re-election of Nixon involved in any way with our security," Democratic convention manager Richard Murphy-told-the-News. --

Murphy said Justice Department officials "have been in town for months booking rooms under assumed names

"I haven't heard from any of them, not even once," said Murphy, adding, that he thought it peculiar that the officials would come to Miami Beach to work on security arrangements and not consult with him

Murphy made his comments several weeks after five men were arrested in Washington and charged with breaking into the Democratic National Party headquarters. One of the five, James McCord, was identified as a security adviser to the Committee to Re-Elect the Pres-

Cluster Bombs Dropped

SAIGON (AP) - South Vietnamese marines, supported by U.S. fighter-bombers dropping cluster bombs on fleeing North Vietnamese troops, moved forward today toward Quant Tri City.

The North Vietnamese were fleeing on the northern front in small groups before the steady movement of the marines, apparently hoping to escape the U.S. air strikes and the shelling of American Navy ships offshore.

Baseball IS The National Game!

the State Little Leagues.

Speaking of national holidays, as most everybody is this Fourth of July week-end, it is as plain as the nose on your face that baseball is the national sport.

Doubters of this and unbelievers need only be in Sanford to realize that baseball with a capital B is enjoying very fine health. And, like almost every human phenomena is changing. but changing with the emphasis in the young.

Yes, the five baseball fields in this city are working overtime to take care of the final games which crown the very busy, the very successful season in which the baseballs, of both varieties have been pitched, hit and fielded with youthful

Getting down to cases, which we must after conferring with our own Sports Editor Gary Taylor -- umpire extrodinaire -- the mere listing of the leagues, their game schedule and the number of players involved is eye-opening.

Well over 500 are involved as Harry Smith retired Army colonel with a varied and distinguished record of service and now Sanford supervisor of recreation who is kept rolling along in high gear to meet all the demands which the baseball schedules require, points out.

Indeed, if there is one basic fact which makes this baseball activity of more than athletic importance it is the comforting knowing the distribution players are syending . their energies in a healthful athletic pursuit, that they are happily occupied in highspirited

Crowded grandstands and lined streets where the games are going on show that the old American zest for the national game exists. That it needs an opportunity to show itself, to burst into a high degree of spectator as well as participant approval, is all that is needed.

When it comes to the players, there is only one word which is properly descriptive of all they play all-out. This goes for the five teams in the Little League (10-12) of the state of Florida in

Justice, Freedom Not Hand-in-Hand By BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) Americans today, more "democratized" than those who went before them, haven't yet got it clear that "justice" and "equality" do not flow automatically from widening

Free men do not by definition act justly toward one another. If they did, there would be very little need for any law at all.

Author Irving Kristol, again in that new book of his, 'On the Democratic Idea in America," suggests that justice is a lot harder to come by than freedom, slow as that may have been in arriving for lots of Americans

He quotes the conservative Friederich von Hayek as reinforcing this view, with the latter writer indicating generally accepted knowledge of what justice is. A simple example. One of the most entrancing social notions, which we hear over and over through the decades, is that people in a good, well-balanced society ought to be "rewarded according to merit." Fine, fine. But who decides what "merit" is, for millions upon millions of people?

Obviously, such decisions could only be made by persons or groups holding power-power not only to decide but to enforce decision by some means. But if such a course produced "justice," it would be a consequence of authority, not freedom in the strict sense. The historian of civilizations, Will Durant, makes the further argument that freedom and equality do not go hand-in-hand. Quite the reverse, he says in his book, "The Lessons of History": Leave men free and their natural inequalities will multiply almost geometrically

These men are taking the long view, but what they are saying has vital meaning right now. The conflict their comment highlights is baffling some earnest Americans active in the public arena this very season. As the more than 3,000 delegates to the Democratic national convention gather at Miami Beach in a short time, they will hear their party indulge in much selfcongratulation for having reformed itself and "opened up" its presidential nominating processes. That means, clearly, making them freer, to allow more people of more and more kinds to take part.

Yet there is a hard question to be asked: Are these many different categories of Americans present at the convention because the processes are now freer? The candid answer is: Only in part. Many of the women, young, blacks, Chicanos, Indians and others whose presence there is regarded as a "just"

The outcome was simply dictated by party reform rules specifically established to provide participation for these people in rough proportion to their "presence" in the population of that area.

result of the process are in fact there because they were

There was absolutely no way for "freedom" to guarantee that. A vote of the people, which we are persuaded is the surest gauge of freedom, could very well produce a delegation entirely composed of women, or of white men Again, men acting freely do not represent proofs that justice and equality will be done. To make any decisions

The happiest man in Sanford has got to be Chuck Getgen The coach of the Florida State Bank team in the Little American League of the Sanford Recreation Department led his team to the city championship last week with two straight wins over American Produce Exchange (APEX) and M edical Center. It was quite a variety of coaching in the annual tournament. Getgen was making his appearance as a coach in the tournament. Getgen has been coaching for several years, but that league title has always seemed to eiude him. Like last year when Goodyear took the championship on the final day of the season. But this year Florida State put it all together, and they did it with style. They went 24-0 during the regular season and didn't lose a game in the playoffs. Willie Brown, was the coach of Medical Center, and assistant coach on a couple of those occasions. So for Willie, it was just like old times. Then there's Lucky Johnson. Lucky's just a teenager, but he was in the city tournament for the second consecutive year. His APEX team won one game before losing a pair, better than their performance last year.

Willie Brown, the coach of Medical Center, is no stranger to city championships. In fact, this writer was his didn't lose a game in the playoffs.

But the thing that won the tournament was not coaching, though it helped. The key factor was pitching. Medical Center and APEX had only one pitcher each that could do the job. Florida State had two. Joe Smith, only an 11-year-old, wasn't overly impressive in the game he pitched. But considering he had suffered from an elbow injury and only pitched three innings over a span of several weeks, I think he did a good job. Larry VonHerbulis was the other Florida State pitcher. He came through for his team and kept the series from going nights and pitchers can't hurl in consecutive games.

Congratulations goes to Tim Robbins, who was selected as the Most Valuable Player of the 1972 tournament. The trophy was sponsored by The Sanford Herald.

Robbins didn't play on the winning team, but his play throughout the tournament was tremendous. Maybe the fact that a Florida State player didn't win the award, emphasizes the balanced attack of the team.

All-Star Comeptition

The city championships are over, but these three coaches will get no rest. It's time for the all-star practices to start and these coaches will be at the helm of the all-star squad from

Sanford will be the host of the District IV tournament once again this year. Twenty-two teams, including three from Sanford, will compete for a trip to the state tournament

Also coming up soon is the all-star competition in both the Junior and Senior Leagues. Dean Smith, whose Elks club won the city championship in a close series with Civitan, will coach the Junior League stars.

Harold Herbst, coach of Chase, the top team in the Senior League, will pilot that loop's all-star squad.

Dub's Wins Softball Tourney

After four days and 23 games, the Sanford Holiday Invitational Men's Slow-Pitch Softball Tournament is over. Dub's Athletic Center of Gainesville fought Wilken's Plumbing of Lake Helen during the finals yesterday, and after losing the first game, came back to sew up the crown. The tournament drew some fine crowds and the competition was outstanding. Many people followed their teams from such places as Vero Beach, Gainesville and Ormond Some of the players that participated in the tournament helped make it a success by working on the grounds crews. Now it seems to me like a few of the players on teams not in the tournament could have pitched in, but that was not the

In fact, very few of the ones who were in the tournament helped out. But some of the boys from B & D Roofing really did a good job. These same ones were out there between almost every game, getting the field in shape.

Notes From Daytona

Richard Petty always celebrates his birthday at the same place, Daytona Beach, home of the Daytona International $2.5edway. His birthday is July 2 and he's always down preparing for the Firecracker 400 . . . Ray Williams, known by many as "Captain America," will have the Coast Guard emblem on his car in the Firecracker 400, if he qualifies. He'll be out there today fighting for one of the remaining 10 spots. Williams is being backed by Coast Guard Flotilla 44. They'll probably be out in the lake in the middle of the infield in case Williams has any "navigation" problems .

, Tracey Jones, a 15-year-old from Orlando who calls himself "The Great Lindini," will attempt to drive a car around the Daytona track blindfolded tomorrow during prerace activities. Lindini grew up only two miles from where Firecracker pole-sitter Bobby Isaac resides in Catawba, North Carolina. It seems Lindini invited Isaac to make the trip around the tri-oval with him, but Isaac declined, mumbling something about "crazy."

Bobby Allison, who is entered in both the Paul Revere 250 tonight and tomorrow's Firecracker 400, can brag about something no other Grand National can. Thus far this year there have been 16 Winston Cup Grand National races. Allison has led at one time in each of these races. He has won three of them. Petty leads in wins with five. But Allison has led a total of 1,895 laps. 782 more laps than Petty. Sixteen drivers have participated in 265 lead changes in the 16 races.

Isaac has only won one race, but he has held the pole position on six of the 16 stars so far this eason. Allison has held the pole five times and the winningest driver, Petty, has had the pole only twice.

about getting pregnant

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a married woman, age 49, but physically I am like a girl of 20. My doctor tells me that I have absolutely nothing to worry about insofar as getting known to get pregnant was 47, and that was very unusual. Abby, I'm afraid to let my guard down because my family is grown and the last thing I want at this time of my life is another baby. What do you or your readers know about this? The medical books tell me nothing. My doctor thinks I am WORRIED SPITLESS foolish for worrying.

DEAR WORRIED: Altho the chances of becoming pregnant at age 47 are greatly reduced, it is by no means impossible. My doctor tells me that he has heard of a woman bearing a child at age 52, so keep your guard up,

DEAR ABBY: Something in your column caused me to recall something I hadn't thought of in years. Perhaps it's worth sharing:

Many years ago, when potato chips were first on the market, they weren't available in our small town, so my wider them from the big city near us for special occasions. She had ordered some for her bridge luncheon, but they did not arrive on time, so as a joke mother sliced raw potatoes, and put a few on each plate.

When the plates came back to the kitchen, there wasn't a potato slice to be seen! But for weeks afterwards we kept finding them in flowerpots, vases and under the sofa JEAN P. IN MONTANA

DEAR JEAN: There's nothing new under the sun. People are still doing it.

DEAR ABBY: I am going with a wonderful guy, and we are talking about getting married, but a problem has

He says that before we get married he would like to go out with some other girls just to see what it's like. He says it's not that he doesn't love me, but he would just like to have a little variety before he settles down. I suppose I should be glad that my guy is so honest with me about this, but I am by nature a jealous person, and I don't want to even think about my guy being with another girl. What do you think? DEAR UNCERTAIN: A man sufficiently mature for marriage would neither announce his intentions to go out with other girls, nor ask for his fiancee's permission. His idea could be good, but discussing it with you is adolescent.

CONFIDENTIAL to Square-Shooter in Kenosha, Wis.: I agree, it's noble to go by "the old rule." Never hit a man when he's down. [He may get up again.]

day and evening to put in motion those plans for action that you have been considering, but not gotten around to yet. Combine the best from the past with some electrifying new ideas and methods that will bring you up to date, and thus carry the best of the past and present into

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You can put certain plans in motion now that can make your life more productive and happy. Join those social groups that are geared to your pattern of life. Avoid one who is a troublemaker. TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You can enjoy new pleasures now if you are more modern in your thinking. Doing something kind for those you are fond of can bring you much happiness as well. Evening is good for reading. GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) If you listen to the views of good pals today, you can gain new respect and greater happiness, so get out to see them early. Plan just how to secure the things you want most in the future. Think constructively.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Doing something of a civic nature is fine on this holiday. Show you appreciate the country you live in. You understand better how to get ahead in the coming days, so make concrete LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You can have leisurely discussions of new outlets and ideas that will make your future brighter. You have the inspiration to achieve your ambitions. Making many new contacts is fine, but choose those best suited to your ideas.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You can handle certain responsibilities well today and should do so. Plan how to make mate much happier in the future. Show ingenuity where pleasure is concerned. Think

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct 22) If you are detached in thinking about how to straighten out any arguments with associates, you find you can do so objectively. Out with good friends later to the pleasure you like. Don't get home too late.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You have an opportunity to do a great deal to improve your future, so don't waste time at silly amusements. Show courtery to those who work side by side with you. Avoid one who gossips a great deal. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You have the time to go out for the amusements that really give you pleasure, so make the most of this opportunity. Get busy handling creative matters as well. Avoid some situation that is unpleasant

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Home and kin are most important to you now, so do whatever will improve conditions and harmony in that vital realm of your life. Do some entertaining tonight, or else rest and plan entertainment for tomorrow night. Reading can be fascinating, too.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Do some visiting around to places and with people who can help you greatly. Put more vitality into your daily living. Hobbies are fine in p.m. in the company of good friends, relatives.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar 20) Although you want to make repairs, etc., be sure you study your savings account well first. One who has much data will now give it to you. This can soon add to present assets.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will be one of those delightful young people who is ever alert to goings-on around him or her, and will quickly adopt any suggestions or ideas which the parents give. Since there is brilliance in this chart, will follow through with duties most intelligently. There is also the ability to finish whatever has been commenced. Property management, real estate, building are all fine here. Much success is possible.

For Panty Hose 'Eggs

DEAR POLLY-My little granddaughter wakes up ear lier than her parents, so at night her mother fills several "eggs" that hose come in with trinkets or little toys. She puts these in the corners of her bed and next morning she is quite happy to play with these surprises until one of her parents comes to take her out of bed .- MRS. E. N DEAR POLLY-Bridget could decorate the outside of some of her plastic eggs that panty hose came in and cover the "join" of the two ends to make nice party favors. She could also make salt and pepper shakers for herself and then more the shape of an "S" on Cut a small hole in the bottom of one half so a cork paper and glue the ends together to form a ring. Set shakers inside the collar. These eggs could also be used to make heads for puppets by cutting a hole in the bottom half for the finger and then glue halves together. Add features and glue on yarn for hair. Cut a piece of fabric to go over the hand. Insert index finger through the hole. For arms, twist rubber bands around the fabric and your thumb and middle finger and your puppet is ready to perform.

Polly's Problem DEAR POLLY-Should epsom salts be renewed annually when used under carpets and in closets to keep moths away? I know they may lose their scent and I assume that is what moths do not like, but mine seem to have considerable scent left. Heretofore, I have renewed them annually, but am not feeling too well and do not want to do anything that is not necessary.-VERA

DEAR POLLY-Save those panty hose eggs until next Easter, then decorate the outside, fill with candy or little gifts and tape ends together with colored masking tape They can be hidden or put in the children's Easter

I am already thinking of Christmas and decorating these eggs with felt, lace and spangles so they can hold a piece of jewelry, hanky, small bottle of cologne, etc. A small hole could also be made in one end of gaily decorated ones for a ribbon hanger to go through and then the eggs hung on the tree as ornaments.-MRS. Remember Fourth Of Days Gone By

By HELEN M. PAGEL Copley News Service

Years ago the Fourth of July was a day to which you looked forward for weeks. You saved your pennies and spent many agonizing hours trying to decide whether to buy a string of little firecrackers that would last a long time, or one big one which would make a louder bang. There were a good many other_ fireworks to choose from, for people usually stayed home in those days and charting the political pulsebeat celebrated in their own backyards. Long before dawn the bigger boys in the electorate. Incumbents and candidates alike are neighborhood would begin banging and blazing away with firecrackers and cap There were strings of little firecrackers only an These first voters comprise a massive force inch or so long, which went off with a series of little for accomplishment.
