Hunt Attends Course On Poultry Service

H. J. Hunt, salesman with the Seminole Feed Co., has returned from Orlando where he attended a special course in poultry diseases given by Dr. Belabury's Laboratories of Clermont City, Clermont. The training course is especially designed to enable managers and poultry service representatives of hatchery and feed stores to render a more useful service to poultry raisers in handling poultry problems and improving the flocks.

The school consisted of five days of intensive study and training in poultry management, nutrition and disease prevention. First aid methods of disease control, post-mortem work and sanitation by use of government drugs, bacterins and vaccines were demonstrated and explained.

A bond in $100,000 was issued by the city of Jahnathawa and ordered Negroes and operators to use the park. Commission officials said the new recreation program had great value but their present facilities should be used until the park is completed.

William Culon Bryant wrote "Jahnathawa." His most famous work was done when he was 18.

After about a week without progress in the projected drive into the interior of China, the Japanese army announced the occupation of Kweteich, 90 miles west of Suchow on the Lungshui railway.

The Barcelona raid climaxed a week of warfare in Catalonia in which government forces sought desperately to crack the insurgent line near Tarragona, northeast of Barcelona.

Insurgents reported an entire government division was shattered in futile assaults.

Mexican troops were close on the heels of Saturnino Cedillo, leader of the rightist rebellion against leftist government of President Cardenas.

One of Cedillo's planes was found abandoned in a cornfield with indications that he had made a hasty flight into the brush-covered hills of San Luis Potosi state.

Czechoslovakia's restless German minority today resumed peace negotiations with the government on the eve of municipal elections which were watched closely in fear of new war-breeding disorders.

Representatives of the Sudeten German party, leaders of the Common Germans within troubled Czechoslovakia, were received by Premier Milan Hodza for a friendly consultation.

News of the conference caused widespread relief in political circles which had seen in the Czechoslovak-German tension seeds of potential war.

Alumnae meeting of the Florida State College for Women, and will remain in Tallahassee for the commencement exercises of the college.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Meriwether are in Tallahassee to attend the graduation exercises of the Florida State College for Women at which their daughter, Miss Mary Louise Meriwether will receive her degree.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bush, Ted E. Davis and O. H. Ergle of Deland were the dinner guests Wednesday evening of Miss Betty Greek and Miss Fannie Biggers at the home of the latter, 606 Magnolia Avenue.

There are a few important things to keep in mind while attaining success," he said, "first and most important is trust and faith in God. Be honest and truthful in all your acts and statements; cultivate a pleasing disposition, be kind and courteous with everybody; build up a strong personality; be noted for your fairness and dependable dealing; remember the customer is always right; make the people you deal with come back to you and send others—that means success to any business."

"Start tonight with definite determination and perseverance to reach your STAR. It will not be easy as you will encounter rough and rocky roads, storms, clouds, disappointment, hunger, sickness, financial strain and worse of all temptation. You will have many setbacks but never lose your eyes off your STAR and eventually you will reach it. Only the things, You work hard for the things worth while. Do not be weak, timid or ashamed because you are short of money as this will make you work harder and appreciate the great things in life as everybody admires self-made men and women."

"Wealth is not always figured in gold, silver, jewels, stocks, bonds, real estate and cattle. These are nice things to have but what you give the world that will obtain for you the greatest recognition from God and humanity. Thousands of men have made great fortunes and soon after their death the estate has been devoured by heirs simply because they have lived softish, uncharitable lives."

The Commencement program began Saturday morning with the annual Alumnae Association meeting and luncheon, will end Monday morning, May 20, with presentation of degrees and certificates to approximately 350 students representing the largest number of candidates in the college's history. Delivering the Commencement address will be Bishop Charles W. Felt, of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Atlanta. The alumnae medallion will be conferred also during Commencement exercises Monday.

Five candidates for the Master's degree are included in the graduating class this year. They are: Emily Mary Porter, of Apalachicola; Mrs. Cathryn Loomis Wayman, of Tallahassee, and Miss Elizabeth Ann Becknell, of Tampa, all candidates for the Master of Arts degree; Helen Dorothy Gatz, of Clewiston, and Mrs. Dora Alice Shipp, of Lakeland, candidates for the Master of Science degree. Also being awarded are 267 four-year degrees; 78 two-year degrees; and four certificates in piano, voice and violin.

Tallahassee joins other cities with 28 candidates this year: Miami third with 28; Tampa third with 26; and Jacksonville fourth with 24. The only two cities are from 110 Florida cities of a total of 194, which is the maximum number of candidates.

Spectator At Indianapolis Races Killed

Everett Spence Dies When Hit By Wheel From Wrecked Car; Driver Is Injured

Floyd Roberts Leads Classic

Records Smashed By California Driver At 200-Mile Point

INDIANAPOLIS, May 30.—(AP)—Everett Spence, 33, Terre Haute, Ind., spectator, was killed when a wheel from a crashing race car flew off the track and hit him during the 500 mile automobile race at the speedway here.

The wheel flew off the car driven by Emil Andres, Chicago whose mount crashed into a lower retaining wall on the south-east turn as he was speeding on the 11th mile.

Andres, who was rushed to a hospital, suffered a broken nose and a possible brain concussion.

Spence was standing on the top of a truck, watching the race, when Andres car crashed into the wall and turned over three times.

At the 200 mile point Floyd Roberts, Van Nuys, Calif., had snatched the lead from Jimmy Snyder, Chicago, when Snyder stopped to change tires and take on gas.

Roberts had covered the distance at a speed of 118.267 miles per hour, which smashed all track records.

Kelly, Phillips, Los Angeles, was in second place and Wilbur Shaw, Indianapolis, third.

At that point three cars had been forced out of the race, leaving 20 still burning up the brick track before a crowd of 70,000 fans.

Four Sudetens Are Injured In Clash In Czech Election

PRAGUE, May 30.—(AP)—A Sudeten German follower of Konrad Henlein was near death last night from gunshot wounds and three others were wounded after a clash between Sudetens and Communists in the town of Kibinberg during voting in the second of a series of Sunday municipal elections throughout Czechoslovakia.

Doctors reported that it was doubtful whether the most seriously wounded of the four men, Hubert Dohn, would recover and it was feared that his death might have serious repercussions since Henlein has made many demands for "protection of Germans' lives."

The Sudeten Germans, it was said, might attempt to exploit the clash in view of the fact that Communists were involved.

The disorder was quickly brought under control in the almost solid German town by police reserves and troops mobilized on wartime footing to "preserve order" in the Sudeten areas adjoining the German frontier.

In other parts of the country, the ministry of interior reported, there were no disorders.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon at the Erickson Funeral Home for Mrs. Lydia W. Elliott, 61, who died at the home of her son, George H. Elliott, on Seminole Avenue, last Friday morning following an illness of 10 weeks.

Dr. E. D. Brownlow, pastor of the Presbyterian Church officiated at the services and interment was made in the Greenwood Cemetery.

W. H. Lucas Celebrates His 102 Birthday By Working

W. H. Lucas, one of Seminole's oldest residents, passed his 102nd birthday anniversary as "just another day" at his farm west of Lake Apopka today.

The highlight of the day for Mr. Lucas was a steak dinner "with all the trimmings" put up by the Seminole Agricultural Club. The Club donated the necessities for the dinner after learning of the centenarian's fondness for steaks. Gus Schuch, president of the Club, stated:

Hale and hearty and mentally and physically active at 102, Mr. Lucas was busily engaged around his farm when interviewed by a Herald reporter this morning. "I do a bit of work every day," he said, "and although I'm not as good as I used to be, I'm still pretty good."

This statement is true, too, for he and his son till a 30-acre farm almost alone. Neighbors report that almost daily he can be seen in the field driving mules or horses and performing lighter tasks on the farm.

Mr. Lucas was born in Dorsetshire, England, in 1836 and landed in the state of Washington in 1900. In 1909 he and his family moved to Florida and settled near Lake Monroe where he now resides.

His favorite pastime is smoking his pipe, while fishing is his favorite sport. However, he declared that he hadn't been able to go fishing much in recent years because "I'm too busy."

Mr. Lucas was reared on a farm near Dorsetshire and worked on farms until he was a young man for seven to eight shillings a week. He later became connected with the mining industry in "the old country" and was foreman of a mining crew for a number of the Seminole Agricultural Club.

Karl Lehmann And Film Expert Take Again Face Trial In Flogging Case

Karl Lehmann, secretary of the Lake County Chamber of Commerce and G. G. Bowditch, film photography expert, today took more than 100 feet of moving picture film of scenes at Sanford's Municipal Zoo.

Mr. Lehmann will use the film for publicizing "Actions of Central Florida" in a book he will make to New England this summer. The film is in color and Mr. Lehmann declared that he believed that showing the people of the North the attractions of the South through the medium of moving picture film should prove most effective.

The scenes taken at the zoo today will be shown at the next meeting of the Board of Directors of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Lehmann, who was recently injured in an automobile accident, has almost completely recovered.

Half-Year Licenses Are Available July 1

Half-year auto licenses will not be available until July 1. County Tax Collector Jno. D. Jenkins stated today following a number of requests for tags at half-price by persons believing them to be available on June 1.

The legislative act, Mr. Jenkins pointed out, pertaining to this matter provides that any vehicle or trailer not subject to registration before June 30 of any year, shall be charged for such registration at one-half of the annual rate providing that no license will be issued for less than $6.

TOKYO, May 30.—(AP)—Reports from Yokohama today said two regiments of unknown nationality appeared over Keisho, the westernmost of the islands of Japan proper. Western air defense authorities issued an air raid warning. Keisho was seized May 20 by two Chinese warships which made a 100-mile round trip from Fushow to drop leaflets instead of bombs on the area around Nagasaki, Kyushu port and Sasebo naval base from which Japanese warships usually set out for China waters.

C. A. Brown, Jim Sam E. Crosby, John P. Bridges, E. W. Switzer and C. W. Carlisle, all former Tampa officers, went on trial the second time charged with kidnapping Eugene Poulin.

Poulin, Joseph Shoenaker and Sam Rogers were kidnapped by a group of men at Tampa 24 years ago. Shoenaker died nine days later.

Kanner at the present time is a top-ranking heavyweight in Washington, D. C. where he now resides and has recorded a number of knockouts during his short career including a knockout victory over Jack Torrance of Louisville.

Yesterday's encounter was the first time the Brown Bomber had donned the gloves and entered the ring since his knockout victory over Harry Thomas in Chicago several weeks ago.

Summer-Gram' Campaign Will Be Conducted Again By Power Firm

"Send a Summer-gram" the slogan of the campaign, which was originated a year ago to stimulate summer postal business in Florida, is being advertised again this year, according to H. C. Coleman, local manager for the Florida Power & Light Company.

Attractive picture post cards have been printed, the cards showing interesting scenes of Florida, calculated to stimulate interest in Florida as a summer vacationland. A space is provided on the back of each card for a personal message. The new cards are of regulation size, printed in black and brown.

This year's campaign should be even more successful than the one a year ago," said Mr. Coleman. "Last year we were more or less pioneering and the idea of spending a summer vacation in Florida was novel to many of those who received the cards in other states. The momentum gained a year ago should stand us in good stead this year and repetition of the invitation should bear even greater results."

A year ago, Florida communities mailed nearly 200,000 of these cards and reports of increased summer business were received from many sources at the close of the campaign.

The local office of the Florida Power & Light Company has received a large supply of the cards and they are now available for distribution. As was the procedure a year ago, customers may obtain the cards at the company offices, add a personal message, the memory and the company will pay the postage on all out-of-state cards mailed at the office.

The cards are not being sent to long mailing lists. "We feel that a card sent to someone personally known by a Floridian will have more weight," said Mr. Coleman. "These invitations will mean something if the proper public co-operation is enlisted and justified from our experience of a year ago, this support will be forthcoming."

Last year's campaign received widespread support from newspaper, radio stations, business and commercial institutions, civic clubs and civic leaders as well as other residents.

Supporting the campaign will be a series of newspaper advertisements, rehearsals some of Florida's summertime advantages and urging customers to avail themselves of the opportunity to indulge in summer tourist business in their communities. Radio programs will be presented over stations in several key cities.

Billboards, window cards and window displays will also be utilized in the campaign.

Not In Vain

Today the nation pauses in its mad scramble for material things to pay its respects to its soldier dead. The men who gave their all in war were in when this country had been invaded, are being honored, as valiant are read of the brave men who sacrificed their lives in order that this country might endure.

Men fought and died in the Revolutionary War—that this nation might be independent of England. They fought in the War of 1812 in order that that independence might be preserved. They fought in the Mexican War for the independence of Texas and the great western country in the Civil War for the preservation of the Union on one side, and for state's rights on the other, in the Spanish-American War for the independence of Cuba, in the World War to make the world safe for democracy.

In whatever cause Americans have fought, they have fought for what they believed in. Never have American lives been sacrificed for a cause which was thought to be unworthy. Men have given their lives in the field of battle only for the finest principles and the highest ideals. There has never been a war upon which the people themselves did not embark with the greatest enthusiasm supported by the firm belief that their cause was just.

There is a tendency today to make light of these sacrifices to say that lives were lost in vain, and that the men who freely gave them were betrayed. It is true that many have accomplished victories on the battlefield that had been lost before. Winning the World War did not make the world safe for democracy. Winning the Spanish-American War did not bring the peace and concord in to Cuba that had been anticipated.

But though the world is not happy today, no one knows how much worse off it would have been if the Germans had been allowed to win the last war, if Spain had retained its control of Latin American colonies, if the Revolutionary War had never been fought and the American Revolution had remained under the domination of George Washington and his successors. The road we have traveled may not have been an easy one, but would another highway have been easier?

We do not think so. We are inclined to the belief that none of these sacrifices on the field of battle have been in vain. Wars are evil in human life and money, and they are awful. But there are things worse than wars. As long as international brigands rule the destinies of nations and savages and barbarians take their orders from mad men, there will be wars, and sacrifices among peaceful people will have to be made if our civilization is to be preserved.

The University's President

Pointing out that it was just ten years ago that Dr. John J. Tigert came to Florida and became a citizen of Gainesville, Tribune pays a deserved tribute to "the president of the University of Florida."

"He is a leader in his chosen line" before he came to Florida, the Tribune says. And the years that have followed during which he has served as the head of the State's leading educational institution have only added to his stature.

"A man, the right man—had to be found," the Tribune continues. "In Dr. Tigert Florida and the University found the man. He had held high places in the education world, had served ably and well as the head of the government's educational service."

"For a decade, Dr. Tigert has been President of the University of Florida. He has had a power in the up-building of that institution. He has increased its prestige, enlarged its scope, improved its operations, greatly strengthened and expanded its usefulness. Outside of the University itself, he has been an influence and force for the state's cultural advancement."

"Florida was favored when Dr. Tigert came to the University. It will be fortunate as long as he remains there, which we hope will be for his lifetime."

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

The Chinese government decided to make a payment over to the Japanese invaders who went ash and killed 22 of their soldiers before committing suicide. Chairman Poon. What they were to these, God, is some more of their mad ideas.

Mark Wilson, in his sworn statement of campaign expenses, reveals that he spent $5,000 in his effort to be elected to the Senate. Approximately $4,770 of this sum was contributed by his friends. The total sum was $15,000, which fund he turned a good amount, but we see little of during the campaign.

With the war still raging in China and the Yangtze River flowing through the Chinese, Wilson's term of office should be coming into its own, if it has not already arrived. Used primarily in making paints, tints and dyes, this oil has been a virtual staple of Chinese commerce. More than $41,000,000 of this product in 1935, most of which came to the United States, Florida can be hung oil trees as well as China.

Locals Drop Contest to Daytona Beach Islanders 8 to 2

Stanley Charkut Limits Lookouts To Four Bingles

Victors Get 8 Hits From Offerings Of Atwater And Hudson

By JULIAN STENSTROM
CITY ISLAND PARK, DAYTONA BEACH, May 20.—The Daytona Beach Islanders downed the Lookouts yesterday afternoon on City Island Park by a score of 8 to 2 before approximately 500 Banford and Daytona Beach fans.

The Islanders made good use of their eight hits off two Lookout moundmen and had two big innings. Charlie Atwater started on the mound for the Lookouts and was flicked for three runs by the Islanders in the first frame. He retired the Islanders in the second, but in the third a walk and a single drove the ace Sanford hurler from the hill. He was replaced by Sidney Hudson, converted initial sucker who hurled excellent baseball for the remaining five and two-thirds innings.

Hudson calmed the bats of the strong Islander aggregation and he held them scoreless until the eighth inning when they secured four runs off one hit, a walk, a sacrifice and a two base error by Hugh Manning.

Manager Jimmie Sanders of the Islanders started Stanley Charkut on the hill and he allowed Banford only four hits during the encounter. Charkut was in trouble only in the fourth inning when a single by Joe Ruggiero and Win Brown produced the Lookout's first run. Charkut fanned six of the Lookouts and walked two batters.

The Islanders started the scur ring activities in the first stanza when McNeese led off with a walk. Atwater forced Wozniak to go down swinging but Manager Sanders singled to rightfield to send McNeese to third and he advanced to second on the throw in to third by Langston. Steffens singled to center to score McNeese and Sanders to third. Steffens went to second on the throw in to the plate. Turecki flied out; Brown in center and Sanders scored. Steffens going to third and he scored when Day singled through short.

The Islanders gathered their fourth run in the third when Sanders led off with a walk and went to second on a wild pitch by Atwater. Steffens got an infield single advancing Sanders to third. Hudson then went to the mound to replace Atwater and he fisted Turecki to hit into a double play, Watts to Evans to Manning. However, Sanders scored on the play.

The Lookouts broke the jinx in their half of the fourth when Joe Ruggiero led off with a single to deep short and he went to second when Langston grounded out to McNeese. Brown then singled to center to score Ruggiero. Brown went to second when Holland worked Charkut out to a free pass but Manning fanned to end the inning.

The Lookouts scored another in their half of the seventh when Mihalek worked Charkut for a walk. Holland lined out to deep left and Mihalek advanced to second. Manning at the plate and a wild pitch sent Mihalek to third and the leftfielder scored when Manning grounded out to Wozniak.

The Islanders put the game on ice in their half of the eighth inning when Sanders worked Hudson for a walk. Steffens secured an infield hit sending Sanders to second. Turecki was safe on an error by Manning to fill the bases. Day was safe on a fielders' choice.

Scouting Sanders, Wozniak sacrificed and was out at first but in an attempt to nab Turecki at third, Manning threw wild and both Turecki and Day crossed the plate.

Sanford Will Give Up Membership In State Ball League

Lookout Players Are Notified Their Services Are No Longer Needed By Club

City Unable To Help Situation

Game Tonight Will Be Last One Of Season That Started Badly

Henry Watson, president of the Sanford Baseball Association, said today he would turn in the Florida State League franchise of the Lookouts to loop proxy Henry L. Gray as soon as the latter has returned from a fishing trip.

The announcement this morning followed a statement last night in which Lookout players were informed that their services would be no longer needed following a 15-2 loss to the Daytona Beach Islanders.

This action came as no surprise to fans who met with the officials of the baseball association in a mass meeting here recently to discuss the financial condition of the association. At this time Mr. Watson informed fans that $1,000 was needed immediately to tide the team over the present crisis and it was decided to seek the necessary funds from the City.

On his return from Washington yesterday, Mayor Edward Higgins advised officials of the association that the City could not legally contribute funds to a private enterprise which is the present status of the association. While he said he regretted to see the loss of the franchise, he said the City was unable to assist.

"Whether the matter will be presented to the City in a manner which can be legally handled, I do not know," Mayor Higgins said.

M. J. Lodge Says City Should Help Sanford Ball Club

The people of this town want baseball and they're going to get it if I can do anything about it; City Commissioner M. J. Lodge told a Herald reporter this afternoon.

Mr. Lodge declared that the club has an investment of about $10,000 or $40,000 in the municipal baseball park here and that if Sanford permits the Lookouts to lose their franchise to some other city than the City, will lose heavily on the investment.

Asserting that he will do his utmost to convince other members of the City Commission that the City should aid the Lookouts, Mr. Lodge stated that the City has enough money to give a little aid to the team until it can get back on its feet.

BARTOW, May 31.—(AP)—Commissioner for five former Tampa residents sought today at the conclusion of their grand trial in the George F. Pease fogging case to exclude a mass of testimony on which the state attorney general's witnesses had relied.

Attorney W. Whitaker, who had been called as a witness in the trial, asserted that the state's chief witness, Dr. W. H. Cole, had lied in his testimony.

He asserted that Dr. Cole had lied in his testimony on the question of whether the fog was caused by the burning of oil.

Sheriff Has Not Received Orders Regarding Slots

Cone Is Reported To Have Placed Ban On Marble Machines

Sheriff C. M. Hand said today that he had received no order from Guy Cone to investigate alleged violations of the slot machine law.

Sheriff Hand declared he did not know anything about the Governor other than what he had read in the paper.

Czechoslovakia's troubles with Nazi Germany were raised. For the moment at least, by the Governor's prompt steps to remove one of the most pressing causes of controversy, airplane flights across the border.

The Czechoslovakian foreign office informed the German minister that Czech military pilots who flew over German territory recently had been disciplined and a neutral zone along the border established.

Nevertheless, the Czech government published a decree calling for compulsory military, preliminary and civil air defense training for the entire population between six and sixty.

The Spanish Insurgent offensive against the coast cities of Castellon de la Plana and Valencia gained momentum with the capture of strategic Mora de Rubielos. Insurgent warplanes sank British and Spanish vessels in Valencia harbor.

"I am writing this letter to request that you at once stop the operation of every one of those machines in your county, and, if necessary, prosecute all persons operating these machines."

"Please notify me at once if you will do this and let me know what you have done so. It is very important that the enforcement officers do their duty and break up this slot machine subterfuge."

County Judge R. W. Ware declared that he hadn't received an order or request from the governor about slot machine violations.

Sheriff Hand asserted that if there were any machines operating illegally in this county, he did not know of it. However, if a request is received from the governor to investigate possible violations and he finds that machines are being operated here illegally then the law will be enforced, he said.

Since the disappearance of the old type slot machine new gambling devices have made their appearance in many parts of the state. A marble machine has been devised in which there is no payoff from the machine and when the player makes a certain score, he pays him off.

The law prohibits operation, possession or permission to operate any machine with "any element or chance or other outcome unpredictable" which entitles the player to "any credit allowances or thing of value."

The law also declares any room, building or place where a slot machine is operated to be a public nuisance and places a fine on the property for the penalty.

The new type slot machine marble boards made their first appearance at Miami four or five months ago and were installed here a few weeks ago.

to the oil fields he expected Mar. 18 from 17 British and American companies.
