FRENCH ELECTION CAMPAIGN LACKS AMERICAN SNAP

No Indications That Campaign in Un-Election is As Important as Presidential Selections Are in U. S.

PARIS, Apr. 29.—Americans may travel from one end of France to the other nowadays, and unless they search carefully...

The presidential campaign is a matter of a few days; the parliamentary campaign a matter generally preceded by national congresses of the principal parties.

The campaigning consists of personal visits by the candidates, as far as possible, and small meetings in the courtyards of the public school houses.

The French method of campaigning are due partly to differences in the systems of election, and partly to the fact that enthusiasm plays a smaller role.

Boys—A Nation's Greatest Asset. This is National Boys' Week. The purpose of the week devoted to the interest of the boys of the nation is to focus public attention upon boys.

Boys' week opened Sunday in fifteen hundred cities in thirty countries of the world. It is being widely observed this year as a result of a successful campaign inaugurated to promote the idea in 1920 by the boys' week committee of the New York Rotary Club.

During the week people are urged to give special emphasis to boys and to think in terms of boys. Sunday was known as Boys' Day in the churches all over the country.

Monday was school day or educational day and in many places special stress was laid on the value and importance of education. Tuesday was boys' day in industry and citizenship.

Wednesday was devoted to athletics and play and is known as a day of entertainment. The most important day of the week is Thursday, known as Loyalty Day.

As Brisbane Sees It

Laugh at Yourself. One Rockefeller Year. No Passionate Coolidge. Bobbed-Hair Bandit Lady.

CHAUNCEY DEPEW, adviser of the "good" advice, "Laugh at yourself." As a man contemplates his early dreams and later failures the natural thing would be to weep and jump off the roof.

IN 1923 the Rockefeller foundation did these things, among hundreds of others: Fought malaria in seven foreign nations, from Brazil to Palestine.

Contributed more than a million dollars to medical education in the British Islands; gave a million to the University of Alberta; poured a quarter of a million to the University of Pennsylvania.

Supported medical schools and twenty-five hospitals in China. Granted 194 fellowships in Germany to support scientific workers. And that's only one per cent of it.

IF THERE were not a great deal of water going over Niagara, you couldn't get any power there. If there were not a great deal of money in the Rockefeller fortune all that work wouldn't be done.

The longer you live the more you realize that Providence knows what it is about. A SOLEMN editorial writer complains that President Coolidge's recent speech "revealed no inner flame of passionate belief."

Certainly not, and that's one proof of Coolidge wisdom. Passionate belief is all right when you're chopping the head of Charles the First, or Louis the Sixteenth, or putting a Trotsky in place of a Romanoff.

But when you are managing, as Mr. Coolidge is, a big nation engaged in business and anxious not to be "jolted" the fewer "passionate beliefs" you indulge in the better for your political prospect.

THE BOBBED hair young lady bandit of many hold-ups, dressed herself nicely to meet the reporters and not at all worried or ashamed, she said: "Gee, I will go and get a look at the circus when I get out of this."

At the same moment, John T. Leonard, a young man convicted of murder, was "proceeding jauntily" in the direction of the death house.

A DISPATCH from Shanghai says the effort to line up the races of Asia against the whites is increasing. That interesting gentle poet Rabindranath Tagore, leads the attacking Western civilization.

Such a nip-pot is about as dangerous to Western civilization as a baby white rabbit would be to a cageful of wild cats.

Japan's hostility is more important. But as that hostility develops, the value of the Japanese yen drops. That will offset a good deal of Asiatic hostile feeling.

MR. MOREAU, of San Francisco, who thinks he has found a way to harness the sun's heat, says he has concentrated that heat with an intensity sufficient to melt a diamond. This will be discussed incredulously as the flying machine was discussed twenty-five or thirty years ago.

After a while the heat of the sun will be used as freely as we now use the waters of the lake or ocean. But we are not ready for that yet. It would be too easy, and hard struggle is still the only planetary universality.

EVERYBODY KNOWS that this country will soon be selecting presidential candidates—or rather the country will have them selected for it.

President Coolidge will be the Republican nominee. What about the Democrats? How do you think he will be chosen. Here's a description of the coming process, probably accurate, given by an able politician.

"TAGGART WILL" vote for Ralston, of Indiana. Tammany will vote for A. S. Smith. They will vote along these lines until they eliminate McAdoo. Then they will go to a back room and decide who is really to be the Democratic nominee and the name they choose will be the one nominated.

If you think that's imagination, you don't know United States politics. PROFESSOR BARTON, specialist in Semitic knowledge at the University of Pennsylvania, says Jews did not originate the story of the Flood, Noah's ark, etc. That was a story borrowed by the Jews from the older Babylonian civilization. Ancient writers prove it.

There's Exercise, Then Again There's Exercise

BY GOLLY—SPUNNY HOW ONE'S SYSTEM DEMANDS SO MUCH EXERCISE IN THE SPRINGTIME—ME FOR THE GOLF LINKS, 18 HOLES WILL DO ME MORE GOOD THAN A GALLON OF TONIC.

OOH EGGERT! HE SO GLAD YOU CAME HOME EARLY, I WANT YOU TO BRING SOME RUGS AND SPARE UP THE GARDEN AND BUILD A TRELIS AND CARRY OUT THE WINNERS' ASHES. THE EXERCISE IS JUST WHAT YOU NEED AND I'LL DO YOU A WORLD OF GOOD.

MIAMI'S COMMUNITY CHEST

The bunching of our charitable hits with the use of more than one hundred campaign teams and 600 workers holds out the glad promise of supplying the demand of a dozen worthwhile institutions with funds for the present year.

If the success of the big American trusts, calling into being an anti-trust law, forms any parallel, this combining to conquer, charitably speaking, may form a precedent in this region worthy of yearly repetition.

Certain it is that the causes for which subscriptions are to be asked are all worthy, and if through this business-like arrangement, the people of the community can be delivered from the more or less perpetual presence of the contribution basket, citizens should be pleased.

ABSENT TREATMENT

By this value reference to a possible international disarmament conference, President Coolidge, in his speech of last Tuesday, temporarily quickened a faint hope in Europe. The feeling revived that perhaps the United States might again set to work with other nations to do something for the peace of the world.

But a more careful recollection of the international conference held at London, which has chilled that first ardor, it is seen that he intends to make no move at present. Mr. Secretary Hughes, he considers the time inopportune. There are too many uncertainties in Europe, too many complications, too many political complications.

President Coolidge approaches the bedside of sick Europe in the guise of a sympathetic doctor, but he tells the patient that a lot of peccant humors must be got rid of, a long period of recuperation entered upon, before the diet of international cooperation can be prescribed. America is most anxious to use the right remedy when the happy day for it arrives, but at present finds it impractical, as the president says, to attempt anything more than absent treatment.

The speeches of Mr. Coolidge and of Secretary Hughes make a gallant attempt to put a good face on the foreign policy of the administration, but it cannot be said that their success is complete. In one breath they warn us that we must keep our eyes for a time on the satisfaction the things we have done to help Europe out of one tangle or another. They imply that Europe jealously and anxiously watches the American wild words for a time, and then continually urge us to wait until the nations across the Atlantic compose their own difficulties before going to a better temper, before offering to co-operate with them in any large way.

It is a sad thing to see the United States declining to work with the League of Nations. Yet we could not ignore it. Neither could we support it. Hence the stumbling course had to be adopted of now co-operating with it in some minor matter, and then repudiating it as regards larger questions. We seem to have fallen into the not very magnanimous posture of being willing to use the league when it is perfectly safe and to renounce it and all its works, and to refuse to share in its expenses and sacrifices, whenever we think the occasion fit. This is not an inspiring policy. If other nations had sought to follow the American plan of safety first, there would have been no League of Nations. Now can this method be permanent. The time is near when this country will be ashamed of its double-faced attitude toward the League, and will realize that all those nations that are not at heart with it are in reality against it.

Mrs. Puleston Entertains With Bridge Party Tuesday Afternoon

The handsome Puleston home on Rose Court was the scene Tuesday afternoon of one of Spring's most charming affairs, when Mrs. Puleston entertained at bridge the third of a series of parties which she is giving.

Seven tables were arranged in the living room and on the south porch. The color scheme of orange and purple were cleverly carried out in every detail, the rooms in which the games were played being given an added attractiveness with vases of purple larkspur and orange California poppies.

Scores were kept on pretty purple and orange tallies and at the conclusion of the game, beautiful honors were awarded to the players. Holding high score was W. M. Scott, who was presented with a large brass compote; low total was won by Mrs. B. F. Whitner, a pair of dainty embroidery scissors; consolation, a handsome desk set consisting of scissors and paper cutter in case, was cut by Mrs. Walter Wight.

Late in the afternoon the most tempting refreshments of chicken salad, sandwiches and wafers were served on a basket plate with orange and purple crepe paper used in artistic effect, while tiny blossoms of the same tint adorned the handles and within the basket plate was a smaller basket of similar design, containing a delicious purple grape ice.

The guest list included Mrs. Eugene Roumillat, Mrs. Ed Higgins, Mrs. Henry Wight, Mrs. W. M. Scott, Mrs. J. M. Wallace, Mrs. Ayette Fitts, Mrs. James Sharon, Mrs. R. R. Deas, Mrs. Robert Newman, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. Maudlin, Mrs. R. E. Tolar, Mrs. Geo. Bishop, Mrs. B. F. Whitner, Mrs. E. A. Douglas, Mrs. G. I. Louke, Mrs. S. E. Barrett, Mrs. Theo. The Tuesday Duplicate Club met with Mrs. Ralph Wight at her lovely home on Rose Court Tuesday afternoon. High scores were held by Mrs. Hal Wight and Mrs. Samuel Younts, and Mrs. Roy Chittenden and Mrs. H. B. Lewis at their respective tables.

Mrs. Wight's spacious living room was a bower of beauty with yellow poppies everywhere. Twelve boards were played at each table. At the close of the game, delicious refreshments were enjoyed, consisting of chicken a la king, fruit salad and ice cream. Enjoying the hospitality of the hostess were Mrs. Hal Wight, Mrs. George Knight, Mrs. Younts, Mrs. Chittenden, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. McPherson, Mrs. Charles Britt and Mrs. Charles Henry.

Rosebro receives Gold Chain, Watch, Charm

As a testimonial of their appreciation of Henry R. Rosebro, retiring manager of the Southern Utilities in Sanford, the employees of that company presented him yesterday with a handsome Knights Templar emblem, appropriately engraved, and a gold watch chain. In voicing his appreciation of the gift Mr. Rosebro stated that he was greatly appreciative for the many kind expressions he had received, and that he regretted that business required his leaving.

Mr. Rosebro and his estimable family have been universally popular during their sojourn in Sanford, and it is with feelings of keen regret that their friends see them leave. The good wishes of the entire community follow them to their new Virginia home.

LIBRARY NOTES.

It is customary for public libraries in Florida to observe the half holiday on Thursday afternoons, and to close at that time, beginning May 1. This is done in Jacksonville, Orlando, Deland and most of the other libraries. The Sanford library will continue to be open on Thursday afternoons during May, and it will depend upon how much the library is used as to whether this will continue during the summer. This will give the school children an opportunity to attend until the school term closes. The hours will be the same as usual, from 2 to 6 p. m.

If you heard that 70,000 progressive farmers had produced and were selling, direct from their farms, a richer and creamier evaporated milk—wouldn't you want to enjoy its high quality yourself?

Here is your chance. Ask your grocer for DAIRYLEA Brand Evaporated Milk. He will give you an evaporated milk that contains even more nutritious milk fats and solids than the high U. S. Government standards require. This is why DAIRYLEA has such a delicious, fresh, creamy flavor.

THE 70,000 farmers who produce and also sell DAIRYLEA to you insist on this increased merit and food value. They know this is the right way to ask you to consume more of their milk.

Such are the high business ideals that built up the Dairymen's League Co-operative Association—the world's largest organization of its kind. Each of its 70,000 farmer members shares equally in the control and responsibility of its $8,000,000 a month business.

You will find DAIRYLEA Evaporated Milk the concentrated wholesomeness of the purest fresh bottle milk—exactly the same milk which U. S. Senator Copeland, when Health Commissioner of New York City, called "the best in the world".

LOCAL FANS TO SEE SOME FAST BOXERS FRIDAY

The ten round scrap to be staged here Friday night under the auspices of the local National Guard organization featuring Young Wallace of New Orleans, and Ben Brewer, of Tampa, and champion of the champions, top of South America, bids fair to be one of the most attractive ring arguments ever staged on the states. In addition to this bout, Battling Myers, the sterling little featherweight from Boston, will take on Mickey Dugan, of Bridgeport, for eight rounds for the semi-final affair. A pair of speedy preliminaries are also being arranged by Billy Dawson, matchmaker for the fight. The first bout will start promptly at 8:30 o'clock and all numbers will be rushed through with no lost motion.

Wallace is now rated as one of the shining lights in the welterweight division of boxers in the south. He has met and defeated practically every prominent leather pusher of his weight in the south and holds a decision over no other than the well known Jimmy Finley, the Louisville slugger. The New Orleans boy has a terrific punch and has laid a bunch of his opponents flat on the canvas with well directed socks to sensitive parts of the anatomy.

Brewer has been barnstorming around down below the 12-mile limit for some time, picking off the tough boys from the land of Luis Firpo. Upon his recent return he brought a list of scalps secured that looked like a list of injured men in a mining disaster. Just to keep his hand in and to show that he can really do that little thing, he socked Mickey Shannon into dreamland in one round in his first fight after returning and shortly afterwards jabbed Tommy Farrell out of his piece. Both of these men are good scrappers and Brewer apparently has the stuff to keep at it of the boys in his weight territory.

Myers, who made a big hit here in his initial appearance will be drawing a tarpit in this Dugan bout, as has been reported. Both of these boys are of the type that is all over his opponent from the first bell and it would not be surprising to see somebody kiss the canvas in this argument, as something is always liable to drop in a bout of this kind.

Fans from many miles around Sanford are preparing to do their chores early Friday night and come to see the fight. The advance sale on the bouts is very good, it was said yesterday, and a capacity crowd is expected.

At four o'clock today, the four rip-roaring fighters will meet in a light weight boxing match, and result, providing, of course, that some ambitious scrapper does not collide accidentally with a boxing glove propelled in the general direction of his chin by an opponent.
