Showdown For Control Of Guadalcanal Isle Believed To Be Near

Jap And U. S. Forces Engage In Stepped Up Action To Gain Ground In Solomons

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Japanese have landed large reinforcements with equipment, including artillery, on Guadalcanal Island and are now shelling American positions on the island, the Navy reported today.

A large concentration of enemy ships has been discovered near Enderbury Island about 250 miles northwest of Guadalcanal, the Navy said, in addition to the enemy naval units already in the southeastern Solomons Islands.

(By Associated Press) Strengthened Japanese and American forces engaged today in stepped-up action for a knockout blow for the control in the Solomon Islands. The showdown is believed to be near for possession of Guadalcanal Island, wretched from Japanese by United States Marines.

The mighty battle of Guadalcanal has spread to the New Hebrides, 450 miles away, where a Japanese war vessel, probably a submarine, has shelled an American base used by the air striking and scouting forces participating in the Solomons struggle, the Navy reported last night.

This development was revealed a few hours after the Navy reported that American and Japanese forces in the Solomons were locked in a great air-sea struggle for control of the key island of Guadalcanal.

The attack of the New Hebrides on the base at Espiritu Santo—apparently is aimed at preventing Americans from sending aerial reinforcements into the battle for Guadalcanal.

It was the first known attack on the New Hebrides. Secretary of War Stimson revealed only today that U. S. army ground forces, as well as airmen, are now stationed in that vital area which straddles the American supply route to Australia.

Last night's communiqué said another wave of about 27 Japanese bombers had again attacked the Guadalcanal airfield, while in the battle of the Solomons and New Hebrides, American forces—still in the northern areas—and their enemy warships still were lurking off the northern coast of Guadalcanal.

There, American planes and shore guns fought a savage duel with Jap forces seeking to regain bases they lost to the United States marines Aug. 7.

The Japs, backed by a battleship-sighted fleet and with still another powerful armada bearing down from the north, apparently are making a final, desperate effort to recapture Guadalcanal and its airfield, and thus regain control of the gateway to Australia and the southwest Pacific.

Reinforced American—Stimson revealed that army ground troops had joined the hard-pressed marines—were hitting back fiercely in a stubborn attempt to retain their hold on this stepping stone to Tokyo.

The Navy communiqué tonight said the American marines had landed fighting on Guadalcanal but Stimson had reported the army and marine forces were "desperately holding."

Their planes and shore guns already have damaged at least seven Jap ships, including a battleship and three transports, and destroyed 25 more enemy planes. The transports were later observed "damaged and still burning" hours after the attack, tonight's communiqué said.

The Japs, who were "wounding from Sunday's attack," in ports in which they lost a heavy force, were destroying a battleship, cruisers and destroyers and a transport, were shooting the works. Their men—war battleships, cruisers and destroyers—and their bombers have been hammering away "mercilessly" at the heart of the American defense system, the airfield.

Their transports, covered by a battleship, cruisers and destroyers, were still landing supplies to Guadalcanal, 10 miles from the island.

Japanese forces, which came from the south, have landed in the Solomons and are now moving northward, but been stalled by the weather. The weather. The weather.

There are no tanks in Africa.

Sergeant Meriwether Was Gunner On Flying Fortress In Lille Raid

Solomons Ace

Ace flier of the Solomons Islands is Maj. John L. Smith, Lexington, Okla. He is credited with shooting down sixteen enemy planes and was awarded the Navy Cross by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz when he was seen to the recently captured U. S. base in the Pacific. This is an official Marine Corps photo.

R. A. F. Attacks Cologne, France For 110th Raid

Pressure To Secure Workers For Nazi Plants Increases

(By Associated Press)

Violent outbreaks occurred today in Occupied France as the Nazis increased their pressure to get French workers to go to Germany. Blood was flowing as a result of the disorders.

A strong force of R. A. F. bombers attacked Cologne again, the 110th raid on that city.

"Block-buster" bombs were dropped.

Meanwhile, the Soviet government came not bluntly Thursday for immediate trial and punishment "with all the severity of criminal law" of any German ring-leader already imprisoned by the Allies, and specifically named Rudolf Hess, a captive in Britain, as one of the "organizers of German atrocities" who should pay now for his misdeeds.

The announcement was made in the form of a communiqué from Moscow, which contained the reply of Soviet Foreign Commissar Molotov to a 10-months-old communication from a number of European governments-in-exile.

It suggested sharp departure from the plan of the British and United States governments for post-war trial of Axis criminals.

British official circles were startled by this entirely new conception of international retribution. In London there were expressions of fear that action along the line suggested by Russia would bring wholesale reprisals against Allied nations now in German hands. Already the Germans have initiated the mass shackling of prisoners of war.

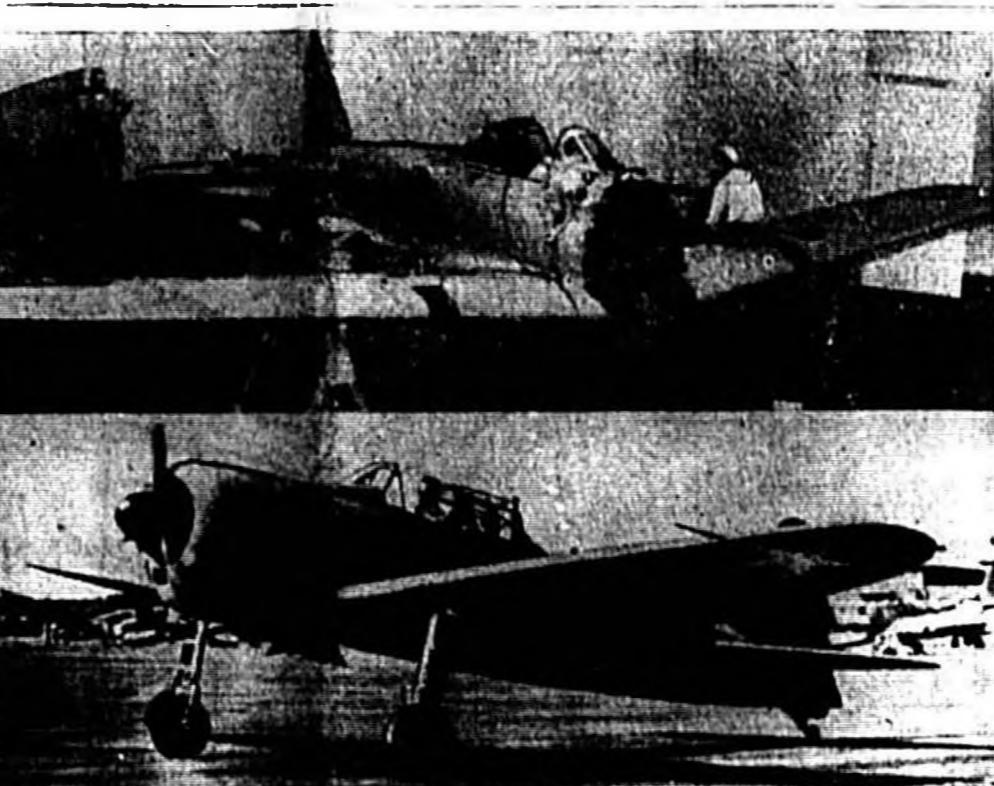

A foreign office press attaché, while saying that "Hess, of course," is considered vulnerable under the leadership of Charles Morrison who has charge of the program, Senator E. P. Houseman will be the principal speaker at the banquet.

The Seminole County Teachers' Club will have the first meeting of the 1942-43 school year, Monday night at 8:00 o'clock at the Sanford Junior High School.

U. S. Troops Seize Island In Aleutians

Headquarters of Alaska Defense Command, Oct. 16. (AP)—The Alaska Defense Command disclosed today American troops had taken over another island in the Aleutian chain for military purposes, all for protection of "the interests of the United Nations." The command, which has been engaged for the expansion of those islands, which have violated every kind of neutrality, was established.

Repair and Test Captured Jap Zero Plane

Mechanics in an airplane plant in San Diego, Cal., are shown (top) repairing a Jap Zero plane which was disabled and forced down in the Aleutians. After it had been put in condition to fly, Lieut. Comm. E. R. Sanders (bottom), U.S. Navy pilot, is pictured at the controls ready to take it off for a series of rigid tests. Note that American insignia has replaced the Jap's.
