Senate OKs I-4-SR 46A Interchange

By Deane Jordan Herald Staff Writer

Federal dollars may pay for most of the construction of a proposed interchange at Interstate 4 and State Road 46A if the appropriations bill isn't vetoed by President Reagan. If it is, "we feel it will be overridden," said Longwood developer E. Everette Huskey. Residents at Huskey's upper-class residen-tial projects, along with those in projects of Jeno Paulucci, would benefit from the Interchange.

The U.S. Senate approved a road construction bill last week in which the proposed interchange is included. The bill was earlier approved by the House. Reagan, however, has called the bill costly and critics say it is just pork barrel legislation with most of the projects located in the districts of high-ranking lawmakers. The bill would also open the way for states to raise the speed limit to 65 on certain rural roads.

cocal developers turned to the lederal government for interchange money when the proposal was not given a priority by Florida's department of transportation. Under the bill, up to 80 percent of the interchange's estimated $14.5 million cost would be paid for by federal dollars.

The bill's questionable future was mentioned by Senate Minority Leader Bob Dole, who spoke recently in Seminole County. Dole, R-Kansas, said three Florida projects are included in the federal bill. None of those projects, however, appear on Florida's fiveor 10-year priority list.

"It seems that he (Dole) and the president are on the same team as far as wanting the veto. We feel that veto will be overriden," sald Huskey.

"We all feel like the forty-sixA interchange is an absolute, absolute must. If we don't get it one way, we'll get it another.

"It concerns me as an American and a taxpayer that our government continues to waste so much money in certain defense categories and spend so much money overseas. I'm for a strong defense, (but) they forget where the money comes from and

Huskey Wants Expressway Further East To Serve Sanford Airport

By Kathy Tyrity Horald Staff Writer

Developer E. Everette Huskey is trying to muster support for routing the planned Seminole County Expressway further east than has been considered to serve the Sanford Regional Airport.

Huskey forsees the airport becoming a commercial flight center for those living within a 20-30 mile radius.

Huskey has written Seminole County Expressway Authority detailing his proposal. The authority is considering First Street, Room N208, Sanford, Fla.

Plans for the Seminole County Expressway center on a more westerly set of proposed routes. The most easterly corridor doesn't come as far cast as Sanford Avenue near the airport. "The easterly route should be extended and built to the east as close to Sanford Regional Airport as possible," Huskey said. "By the time the expressway is completed (1991 or 1992), the Sanford Regional Airport will be handling the majority (if not all) of the present airline commercial traffie" stemming from the greater Sanford

"There are approximately 500,000 citizens living within 20-30 miles or less from the Sanford Regional Airport and this facility is really the future take-off and destination airport facility for these citizens.

"The same area that presently encompasses approximately 500,000 people is growing more rapidly than the average locations in Central Florida. By continuing the beltiine near this facility, it would certainly help to facilitate the traffic movements as the airport expands. If the beltline is built as close to downtown Sanford as possible, Huskey said this beltline will be to downtown Sanford "what I-4 is to downtown Orlando.'

"From this point, the beltline could be constructed just south of the 46 and 1-4 interchange and then as it moves west towards the river cross over to the north side of 46," he said.

He noted there are 300 feet of right-of-way already purchased from I-4 to the river at the 46 corridor.

"By having the beltline at the 46" corridor you would facilitate only one general location where 46 as well as the beltline would cross the Wekiva River. There is very little development north of 46 and there is already a great deal of state and county-owned land in this

By crossing the river at the 46 bridge area, Huskey said it would move into Lake County writing to Expressway Authority because the land is high and dry there Chairman Fred Streetman, 1101 East is very little development, and it would tend to go a little further into Lake County which would be advantageous for the traffic count as you would move a little closer to the metropolitan areas of Mount Dora, Eustis, Tayares and Leesburg.

> "It would be a total disaster to utilize the Southern Railroad's right-of-way route for the expressway," he con-tinued. "The Longwood-Markham Road area has hundreds of estate-type homes nestled among the trees in a quiet, pristine environment. The future development, the construction and, more particularly, the noise level would be devastating to the Longwood-Markham Woods neighborhood. It would also be devastating to Heathrow, Plantation, RiverCrest and all the other proposed residential developments abutting the railroad property," he > Finally, he said it was his understanding that there will not be any interchange from the river to I-4. "This makes it more important that the expressway be constructed in the 46 corridor as the existing railroad right-of-way will need to be used for another road, which, in essence, will make a four-lane road from near the river to the west to the upcoming and proposed 46A interchange.

"This will be the fastest and most direct route for not only all the residents in the various developments as outlined above to gain access to I-4, but, of course, the 46A interchange will service the Greater Sanford area as well as Timacuan, etc.

Wants New Figures By April 2

Longwood Snubs Sewage Hook-Up Financing Plan

By Jane Casselberry Horald Staff Writer

Longwood City Commissioners rejected the latest proposal by City Administrator Ron Waller for financing the proposed hook-up with Seminole County's sewer system.

Waller and his staff were given until April 2 to work out a satisfactory agreement with developer Georges St. Laurent, who offered advance financing in exchange for 58,000 gallons-per-day capacity for his Florida Central Commerce Park, and submit a plan that more to the commission's liking. The order was made at a special meeting Friday.

The commission is scheduled to make a final decision on financing the sewer project April 6.

Waller told the commission that the debt service coverage per year can't drop below 1.25 percent so he "pushed the numbers hard" to get it above the .94 percent on the figures previously presented by Kane and Shuck, the accounting firm that did a financial feasibility report on the sewer hook-up with the

"We had to raise rates and do serious cutting on expenditures," Waller said. "I am very optimistic our maintenance expense will go down considerably when we don't have the old Skylark and Columbus Harbour plants, which require time, parts and repairs.'

Commissioner Harvey Smerilson objected to Waller's plan to assign employees to the sewer department to inspect the eight sewage lift stations on a daily basis, suggesting one man would be enough and he prefers that the city contract the service out. City Engineer Chuck Hassler said two men were needed as a safety factor and so that someone would be available when the other was on vacation or out sick. There seemed to be very little about Waller's proposal that the city commissioners liked. His figures were based on a 25 percent increase in sewer fees in 1988 and another 25 percent increase in 1989; Developer Assistance fees of $5.50 above the couty's fees this year: a property tax tax is pledged to paying back the loan for levy to allow the Parks Department to take $90,000 from the general fund to purchase the Skylark sewage treatment plant site for a park to be paid over three years at $30,000 a year and sale of the Columbus Harbour sewage treatment facility site for $50,000 in 1991.

Other assumptions of Waller's plan: · A new retail rate ordinance with a clause that requires a dollar for dollar pass through of any increase in the county's $1.50 per 1,000 gallons treatment fee in addition to the rate increase.

• Tying in to the system four neighborhoods which have dry sewer lines installed which would cost homeowners a $3.300 tap-in fee.

• The remaining utility tax in the amount of $500,000 per year could be pledged to the sewer loan; however, if this money is spent for loan payments the general fund would be required to Increase property taxes $2.50 per $1,000 of assessed value. One-third of the utility the police station.

• The city's sewer service area must be defined, no construction would be allowed in the city's sewer service area unless a sewer Developer Assistance fee is paid and any sewage capacity that is purchased must be hooked onto the city's service lines, where the city indicates, at the developer's expense.

The commissioner's objected to Waller's recommendation that if capacity that has been purchased is not hooked on, or is not flowing, a monthly fee shall be paid to compensate the city for its debt service to purchase and reserve the capacity. Mayor Ed Myers said, "I don't buy it. I can't see it they are going to have to pay money up front to help the city pay for debt service and then we charge them a monthly fee."

The commissioners did not object to the first 25 percent rate increase for sewer rates, but said they don't want the second 25 percent.

Fake ID Cards By Alien in Driver License Application Leads To Jail

A native of Mexico who allegedly presented a fake alien registration green card and social security card along with other documents when applying for Florida driver's license in Altamonte Springs Friday has been arrested.

Rafael Valencia-Conteras, 24, of Orlando, was arrested at 6:25 p.m. by Altamonte Springs police at the driver's license office at the Interstate Mall, State Road 436, and was being held Saturday in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Workers at the driver's license bureau doubted the validity of Conteras' green card and social security card. They checked with the U.S. Border Patrol office and an agent arrived at the bureau to confirm that the green card was fake, a police report said.

Altamonte Springs police were called in to make the arrest after a check with the Seminole County State Attorney's office established that the suspect should be charged with obtaining a driver's license by fraud, the report said.

Audit Raps Social Security Legal Fees

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Poorly written rules and lenient hearing officers have allowed lawyers, in effect, to bill Social Security disability recipients as much as $750 an hour for legal representation, a government audit shows.

As a result, reforms are being advised to regulate more tightly the amount of money that can be charged for such representation in certain types of cases.

In 1984, the latest year evaluated, people who were denied benefits and then won legal appeals paid $23.6 million in excessive fees to lawyers because of the regulatory problems, according to the audit by the inspector general's office in the Department of Health and Human Services.

Social Security regulations say lawyers should not be paid more than $75 an hour for their work in appeals cases and only slightly more in cases deemed exceptionally Higher fees are excessive, according to the audit, because the cases are relatively simple to prepare and are "non-adversarial in nature." The audit noted the government is not represented by lawyers in such hearings.

Yet "vague, complex and inadequate" regulations are allowing attorneys — usually working on a contingency basis in which they collect only if they win - to reap as much as 25 percent of any past-due benefits owed to claimants, the auditors wrote.

Administrative law judges are supposed to evaluate legal fees to determine their fairness and to make sure the charges do not exceed $3,000 in any single case. But the auditors found the murky regulations. combined with staffing problems, have led to lapses such as hearing officers giving 'perfunctory approval" to fee petitions instead of objective evaluation.

"Conservatively." they added, "we estimate that certain changes to improve evaluation criteria could save claimants at least $15 million annually while not placing undue hardship on the attorney communi-

Tornadoes Rip Through Plains

By United Press International

A powerful storm that hurled tornadoes from Texas to Kansas, downing power lines and destroying buildings, sent strong thunderstorms rumbling across the region today, while a windy spring snow storm blasted parts of the Southwest.

Heavy thunderstorms drenched parts of Kansas, Texas and Oklahoma early today, the National Weather Service said. Rain also soaked central and northeast Nebraska, prompting flash flood watches there and in northwest lowa.

Snow and strong northerly winds were reported today from eastern Colorado into northern New Mexico. A blizzard warning was issued for eastern Colorado, and a winter storm warning was posted for the mountains of northern New Mexico. Forecasters said more than 6 inches of snow was expected in some areas. A Pacific cold front spread rain today from western Washington and Oregon Into northern California. Rain also fell across southern Florida.

Sunday's storm, centered over the Texas panhandle. spun several tornadoes in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Twisters touched down Sunday afternoon near Dighton, Kan., and Lipscomb. Texas. Another tornado was reported near Lipscomb Sun-day night, and other twisters hit near Booker and in Foard County in Texas, and near Codell. Kan., and Shattuck and Elmwood, Okla.

In Lipscomb County in the Texas panhandle, some residents were without electricity for about an hour Sunday because of damaged power lines, but no reports were received of injuries or damage to buildings, said Deputy Ray Schwab of the county sheriff's

"We actually had several tornadoes in the southwest part of the county around Booker — at least three," Schwab said. Hail the size of golf balls fell in Meade County, Kan., and near Plainfield and Munden, Kan., near Hastings, Neb., and near Altus, Okla. Strong winds damaged buildings near Midland and Big Spring, Texas. Several tornadoes wove a path of destruction in Oklahoma Sunday night, injuring at least five people, leveling a house, overturning a car and blowing down power lines.

Sunday's tornado activity began in the Texas Panhandle, crossing later into the Oklahoma Panhandle.

Much of the destruction was centered around the Beaver County town of Elmwood, Okla., the National Weather Service said.

A tornado touched down in southern Beaver County at about 7:30 p.m., knocking down power lines south of Elmwood, deputy Gary Thornberry said in a prepared statement.

Thornberry did not know how many people were affected by the power outage or if service had been completely restored.

He said the tornado traveled on the ground for about 1 mile before destroying a home and outbuildings owned by Clifford Dawes. Dawes, his wife, Sandy, and his daughter, Delta, fled to their basement.

"They received only minor injuries and were treated and released from Beaver County Memorial Hospital." Thornberry said.

The twister headed northeast, knocking down more power lines.

Other tornadoes were reported in Ellis and Harper counties with a trailer blown over northeast of Shattuck.

Baker Indicates Summit Possible

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Despite public pessimism from the Soviets. White House officials have moved from cautious optimism toward carnest speculation about an arms control breakthrough that would herald a superpower summit this year.

Eager to divert attention from the Iran-Contra scandal, White House chief of staff Howard Baker struck a tone beyond the hopeful chords of recent weeks by asserting Sunday he "would not be surprised" to see a summit this year in Washington between President Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev.

"I have no assurance of that and no concrete indication of that," Baker cautioned, but he clearly augmented talk of a possible foreign policy triumph for Reagan that could offset the damage of his worst political crisis.

The administration's public optimism is rooted in recent changes in the Soviet negotiating stance, most notably decisions to endorse the climination of all medium-range nuclear missiles in Europe, to separate the so-called Euromissile talks from debate on the president's "Star Wars" space defense project and to consider U.S. procedures.

Reagan Enters New Phase Of Recovery

By Norman D. Sandler

WASHINGTON (UPI) - President Reagan, having cleared one rack of hurdles in his bid to rebound from the Iran-Contra scandal, this week enters the next phase of the process designed to emphasize his pursuit of an active agenda.

With his chief of staff predicting there is no more "big, new, devastating development" in the scandal to set Reagan back, the next few days will see the president on the road for the first time this year to promote his priorities and going head to head with Congress in a test of his political strength.

A trip Thursday to Columbia, Mo., to accent excellence in education may not create a groundswell of support for Reagan or his call for action to North and Poindexter," Howard ensure the United States remains competitive into the 21st century.

However, the appearance outside Washington — his first since a New Year's vacation in California — is one of several options being exercised to keep him focused on the future as Iran-Contra investigators delve into the past.

Lawyers armed with a Senate-passed resolution will go to court this week to ask that retired Maj. Gen. Richard Secord, a major figure in the scandal said to hold a key to the money trail, be jailed indefinitely unless he surrenders records of secret foreign bank accounts he controls.

Meanwhile, independent prosecutor Lawrence Walsh and the congressional panels investigating the scandal are pushing ahead with their work now that lawmakers have worked out an agreement under which Rear Adm. John Poindexter, Reagan's ex-national security adviser, and Lt. Col. Oliver North, his former National Security Council aide, will testify later this spring or summer about their roles in the scandal and about what Reagan knew of their activities.

Reagan has maintained he was unaware of the scheme to skim money for the Nicaraguan Contra rebels from his covert arms sales to Iran — and Sunday his chief of staff said the president has nothing to fear from any testimony by Poindexter or North, who lost their jobs when the scheme was exposed Nov.

"I'm convinced the president is telling the truth and I am convinced we are not likely to have any big, new, devastating development in the testimony of Baker said on ABC's "This Week with David Brinkley."

Politicians in both parties have agreed with Baker that Reagan has cleared a first set of hurdles in his bid to rebound from the crisis by addressing the Tower Commission's report on the scandal in a televised speech March 4 and by answering direct questions in his televised news conference Thursday night.

Baker's approach Sunday. however, contrasted with that of Democratic polister Patrick Caddell, who said on the same program that most Americans were shocked by revelations of the Iran deals and will not easily forgive the president.

Like Watergate, this doesn't go away," Caddell said. "I think his ability to move to other issues is seriously damaged. But beyond that, I think the public in a sense has already moved beyond Ronald Reagan."

White House strategists hope the task of regaining Reagan's public image will get a big boost in June when he flies to Europe for the Economic Summit.

Reagan supports the speed limit option but contends the underlying highway bill is too expensive. Baker portrayed his decision to veto as one that would underscore his determination to hold Congress to fiscal restraint as well as show he is committed to his stands regardless of "political implications."

Traitors Deserve Harsh Sentences

"I believe that this is the most difficult moment in the history of Israel's international relations, precisely because this mishap is homemade. It is the fruit of the initiative and negligence of senior figures who evinced an alarming lack of responsibility and harmed israel's most essential interest — our relations with the friendliest power in Israel's history and who also harmed the man they 'handled.'"

- Abba Eban, former Israeli foreign minister. When Jonathan Jay Pollard was sentenced to life imprisonment for spying on the United States for the state of Israel, his wife cried

"No, no, no!" and collapsed. The impact of the Pollard spy affair is just now being felt in Israel, and in America. An Israeli official told The New York Times he felt "Lousy, very lousy. Pollard was used by us. We all feel sorry for him. A lot of us feel disgusted ... But it's an ugly world. You do something, you have to pay for it."

Pollard will pay all his life for his betrayal of his country. His wife was sentenced to five years in prison. The Israelis have, so far, gotten off easy. An Israeli officer who collaborated with the Pollards was indicted in America — but will not be extradited for trial. The chief spymaster was switched from intelligence to run israel's biggest government corporation. Officially, Israel claims this was a rogue spy operation. High Israeli government officials, who may have known about the U.S. spy ring, have so far been untouched.

In America, the U.S. government has maintained that this affair does not affect our close ties. Indeed, Israel has been given special ally status, as it deserves.

The Jewish-American community responded with patriotism. Morris Casuto, a spokesman for the Anti-Defamation League, a Jewish civil rights organization, said: "I think spics should be harshly sentenced. The issue is not one of dual loyalty. He was not sufficiently loyal to his country.'

The conviction and harsh sentencing reflect the justified anger that the United States feels against two American citizens who betrayed their country. Those who say the affair doesn't, in any way, affect the relationship between America and Israel are being too

In true democracies, such as the United States and Israel, public perceptions do affect. relations. The American public is shocked by the Israeli government's involvement in the spy ring. Some feel betrayed by a nation that is our friend, a nation we have generously aided, a nation that we trust and that we expect to trust us.

The Israeli government should wake up from its complacency and stop taking American support for granted. Americans do support Israel deeply. But we support Israel in the same we support — or condemn — our own government. We don't support Israel, right or wrong, any more than we tolerate a president who violates the law.

Israel has the honor of being held up to the same principles to which we hold ourselves and that honor is also a great burden, but one which the Israelis should accept, with honor. For it evinces a respect that goes beyond nationality and strikes at the basis of the friendship, our sharing of the values of freedom and democracy in a world that doesn't respect human life — a world that sent millions of Jews to their deaths.

larael was created as a Jewish state to provide protection for the Jewish people, as only a nation state can. Nations, especially democratic nations, must conduct themselves according to law.

America severely punished two of its citizens who betrayed their country. Israel can do no less, if it wishes to keep the respect of the United States.

Do You Remember Your Involvement?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ever since President few details might have slipped the president's Reagan first posed the challenge, I've been mind. racking my brain trying to remember what I was doing on Aug. 8, 1985.

To refresh your memory. Reagan said recently - I forget the exact date - that "it's possible" for some of the details of the Iran-contra issue to escape one's recollection. To dramatize that point, he called for a show of hands by members of the audience who recalled what they were doing on Aug. 8, 1985.

Thus far, the answers I've been able to come up with have been rather negative. I find it easier to remember, or at least believe, some of the things I wasn't doing on that date.

I'm pretty sure, for example, that I wasn't changing my policy toward the hostages being held in Lebanon or seeking means of circumventing the congressional ban on aid to the Nicaragua rebels.

But I've marked that day in red on this year's calendar and should be able to give a full report next Aug. 9. Meanwhile, I can understand how a

He is, after all, older than I and hence has more to forget.

It likewise is easy to believe the current issue of Common Cause Magazine includes an article entitled "The New Generation Gap."

The author takes a dim view of so-called 'granny bashing." and I'm not overly fond of unrestrained "Ronnie bashing" on the memory lapse issue.

If the president is a bit hazy about some of the facts, I am willing to forgive him.

I recall undergoing a physical examination administered by a doctor I had known a long time. I told him I didn't know which of my complaints were "organic" and which were part of the normal pattern for someone our age. He replied that three things normally occur as one grows older.

"One is a loss of memory," the doc jested. "I forget what the other two are."

That was more than a year ago, but I still remember the punch line.

As for ol' Ronnie, an Oklahoma evangelist in another outbreak of negativism said. "We may never know what President Reagan was doing on Aug. 8, 1985, but we sure know what he was not doing."

The preacher, who also was identified as a agriculture "activist," told the National Farmers' Union convention in Fort Worth that Reagan "was not solving the problems of America."

According to the aforementioned magazine article, "a new advocacy group" called Americans for Generation Equity (AGE) favors reducuing Social Security benefits somewhat "in order to guarantee that $200 billion system will still be operating by the time baby boomers reach retirement age.

Looking out for the future of baby boomers may be entirely laudable, but, frankly, that sounds like a "yuppie" goal to me. So I think anyone of Social Security age can safely forget

WASHINGTON WORLD

President III Served By Aides

By Helen Thomas UPI White House Reporter

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Can you imagine Franklin D. Roosevelt or Lyndon B. Johnson appeasing their Cabinet officials with a public apology, especially in times of stress when they need to look strong.

Well, Roosevelt did it at least once when Senate Democratic leader Alben Barkley threatened to quit in a dispute with FDR. Roosevelt smoothed his ruffled feathers with a "Dear Alben" letter.

One wonders why Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger and Secretary of State George Shultz, mostly Weinberger, demanded that Reagan beat his breast in public to vindicate their actions in the Iran arms-Contra ald scandal.

Both Cabinet members were upset with the Tower Commission report that noted their opposition to the sale of weapons to Iran, but also pointed out that they "distanced" themselves from the operation instead of weighing in with strong advice to Reagan warning him of the pitfalis.

Weinberger wanted Reagan to take exception to the report in his 12-minute speech to the nation, and to single out himself and Shultz for having opposed the sale. Instead, the president said he accepted the Tower panel findings. This was not acceptable to Weinberger, who pressured Reagan for a public

He got in in last week's radio address when Reagan praised the secretaries, saying. "They were right and I was wrong."

Sen. Warren Rudman, R-N.H., said he could not understand why Shultz and Weinberger would want to keep the issue alive "when the president is in so much trouble."

He said that "people in the Cabinet ought to be a lot more concerned about the president's well-being than their own." and added, "Up to now, it's been a wonderful example of people running for cover and forgetting who they work for."

Roosevelt wanted his aides to have a "passion for anonymity." Johnson had to be No. 1 and resented any of his staff getting their names in the newspapers.

Public service demands a lot. The pay is often not as high as in private life. It takes dedication and loyalty.

Reagan has a new team now. Their egos do not seem as expansive and they appear at the moment to be bent on helping the president and restoring his credibility in his last two years in office.

Human Brain May Win

It may sound entirely perverse, but the AIDS virus, HIV, represents a kind of perfection previously unknown to science, and, indeed, the swift advance of our science in tions are in themselves exciting. Right now the virus is way ahead on points, but the human intelligence may catch up with it. The contest is now in doubt.

Compared with HIV, the king cobra and the sabre-toothed tiger are mere goldfish. HIV is a biological hydrogen bomb. In a remarkable piece of scientific journalism in the Mar. 4 New York Times, Harold M. Schmeck, Jr., educated us to the wonders of HIV.

The thing is called a "retrovirus." Until HIV was discovered, only two other retroviruses were known to affect human beings, though others hit at lower-order animals. The retrovirus have the capacity to take over cells, re-encode them and instruct them to reproduce ... more

The genetic blueprint of the retrovirus is the form of RNA. ribonucleic acid. The virus carries an enzyme called a reverse transcriptase that changes the RNA into DNA, deoxyribonucleic acid, which carries the deadly instruction to the cell to make more viruses through its own reproductive mechanism. But that is only the beginning. Little HIV can laugh at the capacities of the two previously known retroviruses. They have only three genes. So far, the scientists have discovered eight genes in HIV. and cannot account for the functions of all of them. They expect that more genes exist in the tiny terror, with as yet undiscovered capabilities.

One of the genes, it has been discovered, acts like the "fast forward" button on a tape recorder. It can increase by several thousand times the production by a call of new AIDS virus particles.

Early in the research, it was found that HIV attacked the T-4 lymphocytes which are essential to the body's immune system. When those cells are destroyed, the body's immune system collapses with the devastating results that have now become familiar.

But HIV's adventures were just being uncovered. It also attacks the scavenger blood cells that engulf the body's invaders, and probably attacks particular cells in the brain and the central nervous system. Cells infected with the virus can fuse with other cells to form large abnormal aggregations called synctia. These spread the virus at a vastly accelerated rate.

That's the bad news, or some of it. Researchers in San Francisco have drastically shifted upward the period in which the infection can remain latent, from five years to seven years and longer. They have also shifted steadily upward the percentage of infected people who get AIDS itself. The percentage could reach 100 percent. The little champ, HIV, is not kidding.

But there is good news, at least in theory. I myself hold the opinion that there is no reason, in principle, why the physical world is not completely penetrable and con-trollable by the human intelligence - and our brains may well be more formidable instruments than the RNA of HIV.

One of the major figures in AIDS research is a Dr. Flossic Wong-Staal of the National Cancer Institute. She believes that "We may learn a lot about basic processes of life" from AlDs research.

ROBERT WALTERS Retain Cattle Shows

NASHUA, N.H. (NEA) - Four years ago, Republicans watched enviously as contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination gathered frequently to appeal for grass-roots support at highly visible political meetings throughout the country.

Although the weekend conferences and conventions featuring joint appearances by the candidates were dubbed "cattle shows" by some cynics. Democratic activists enjoyed assessing the politicians and reveled in the publicity that the events naturally produced. Republicans were denied similar opportunities because there was no contest for their party's presidential nomination. A very popular President Reagan was completing a successful first term in office and was certain to be selected by the party - without opposition - to seek a second term. Now, however, the Republicans are acting with a vengeance to make up for that missed opportunity. The party's first cattle show of putative 1988 presidential nominees was exceptionally premature, held last year in Nashville, Tenn.

Another was staged in February in Washington, D.C., while the most recent occurred in Nashua, N.H., in mid-March. Still others are scheduled for Des Moines. Iowa, in May, Seattle, in October, and New Orleans, early next year. The Democrats, however, have not conducted a single such event for their would-be 1988 presidential nominees and none is now scheduled. Have the Democrats perhaps concluded that cattle shows. notwithstanding all the hoopla and excitement they generate, produce an inordinate amount of grief for their organizers? The recent event here illustrated both the strengths and weaknesses of cattle shows. Undoubtedly the most positive aspect of the meeting was the fact that it brought seven contenders for the party's presidential nomination together with hundreds of Republican loyalists from throughout the Northeast. The participating politicians were

Vice President Bush, Sen. Robert Dole of Kansas, Rep. Jack Kemp of New York, former Delaware Gov. Pierre S. "Pete" du Pont IV, the Rev. Marion "Pat" Robertson, former Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and former Secretary of State Alexander Haig.

It's easy to understand why the Democrats may be seeking a respite from that political maneuvering and general zaniness.

GAO: Patent Office Update A Disaster

JACK ANDERSON

By Jack Anderson And Dale Van Atta WASHINGTON — The federal bureaucracy has its own mysterious performance standards. The effort to computerize the Patent and Trademark Office is two years behind schedule and $159 million over budget - yet the official who presided over the disaster was given a bonus and put in charge of computerization of the Census Bureau.

The official, J. Howard Bryant. directed the Patent Office computer program, which exceeded its $289 million budget by 55 percent in just five years. In January 1986, he received a $3.435 bonus and, according to a Commerce Department official, was "transferred to Decennial Census Automation in order to utilize his special skills in this

A General Accounting Office report seen by our reporters Tyler Clements and Stewart Harris cited the following ahortcomings in addi-tion to delays and cost overruns in the Patent Office computer project under Bryant's supervision:

 No space-management study was done to determine whether the computer system will fit into its designated office building. Bryant told us that a space-management study would have been premature because the entire computer system was not yet designed.

- The Patent Office failed to follow regulations requiring inspections to verify contractors' work; instead, it relied on the Defense Contract Audit Agency, which doesn't double-check the hourly wages billed to the government. Bryant did not challenge this con-

- A major contract was awarded on a cost-plus basis, which removes incentives to meet deadlines and puts all the risk of cost overruns on the government. The Patent Office claimed the contract was being renegotiated, but the General Accounting Office said. "They have told us since February (1986) that they would renegotiate the contract. but nothing has happened." Only 15 percent of the contract was awarded on a cost-plus basis, said Bryant, but he conceded the government will renegotiate these portions of the agreement. - State-of-the-art equipment was purchased before it had been on the market long enough to determine whether it would work. Bryant said that only some microprocessors and screens capable of high-resolution graphics were developmental.

— The rosy cost benefits predicted by Bryant in a master plan sub-mitted to Congress in 1982 were greatly exaggerated, according to the auditors. The GAO report says that 8444 million in benefits should not have been claimed, while an additional $1.9 million in supposed savings could not be proved. Bryant contended that cost benefit analyses are often inaccurate and are always targets for criticism. The Patent Office computer project was marked by unorthodox management almost from the start, according to the GAO report. For example, the Commerce Department office designated to oversee the program refused to approve expenditures in 1983 because documentation was lacking - but the Patent Office went ahead without

The general contract award was

They did, thanks to the outside shooting of Gerald Paddio. UNLV trailed 62-44 with 17:56 remaining, but a 24-4 bittz over the next 5 1-2 minutes gave the Rebels a 68-66 lead.

Paddio, who had missed all 5 of his 3-point shots in the first half, notched 4 in the run - the last 3 in succession to put UNLV ahead.

"The first half, it wasn't going." Paddio said. "I knew I had to start making them or we were gonna lose."

Following a timeout. Gamble tried a lob pass that hit the backboard and went out of bounds. Graham was fouled with 10 seconds to go and hit both foul shots. Gamble's desperation 25-footer at the buzzer was wide.

Indiana, 28-4, rallied from a 12-point deficit in the second half to become the first team from the Big Ten to advance to the Final Four since 1981, when Indiana won the national title.

Van Rensburg double-faulted on his first two service attempts and fell behind 2.0 in the opening set. But then he re-grouped and began attacking Connors' serve. Van Rensburg broke the last three times he faced Connors' serve in the third

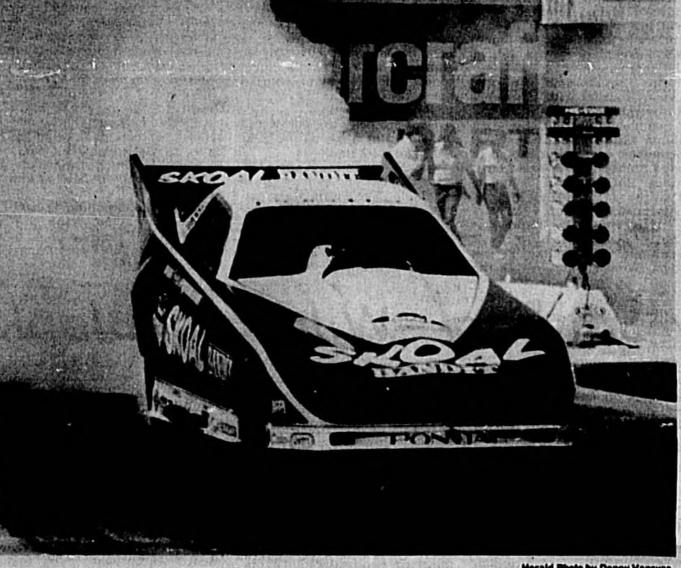

The players had exchanged service breaks early in the second set before, at 3-3, Connors began one of his patented charges. He broke van Rensburg in the eighth game and won nine of 10 points in one stretch.

With the crowd responding to every shot by Connors, the former Wimbledon and U.S. Open champion continued his surge, serving out the second set and breaking van Rensburg at love to open the final set.

The match then turned and van Rensburg started a match-winning run of six straight games by breaking Connors.

"I played just an atrocious game to lose my serve at 1-1," said Connors, who suffered seven service breaks in 12 games. "I just couldn't hold on to my own serve."

Connors, of Sanibel Harbour, has lost his last eight singles finals and has not won a tournament since October 1984.

Rahal Wins Sebring Duel

SEBRING (UPI) - Indianapolis 500 champion Bobby Rahal and Jochen Mass won a daylong duel against Chip Robinson and Al Holbert by two laps Saturday at the 35th running of the 12 Hours of Sebring.

The nation's oldest sports car race was decided with an hour and a half to go when Robinson had to pit to get a new turbocharger. Rahal in his Prosche 962 was able to grab a two-lap lead that Robinson was unable to cut.

Racing

Rahal ran the last two hours with alternator problems that caused the engine to misfire, but it never cost his team a lengthy

"You just had to make do with it," Rahal said.

"We were lucky. I have to admit it." said Mass, who split a first prize of $41,500, "You never can really count yourself out of it. And it's nice to drive with a winner like Bobby."

The winners covered 298 laps over the 4.11 mile circuit for a total of 1,224.78 miles.

The average speed of nearly 102 mph was reduced by a revamped track and six caution periods for 2 hours and 31 minutes. There were four accidents and one pit crew member suffered head and back injuries. He was flown to a St. Petersburg hospital and later released.

Scoring Discrepancy Deprives Seminoles

By Chris Fister Herald Sports Writer

Coach Ken Brauman was pleased with how his team ran without two of its big guns, but he was still wondering Sunday why his mile relay team was not credited with its third place Anish.

With the six points in the mile relay, the Tribe would have vaulted from sixth place to third in the Bob Hayes Invitational Saturday at Jacksonville Raines

"Miami Killian (3:19.2) and Raines (3:19.3) ran great mile relays and we were third at 3:21.3," Brauman said. "They must have missed us at the finish because we weren't disqualified. I'm still trying to find out what happened.'

Without the third in the mile relay, Seminole finished with 20½ points and in sixth place. Killian was first at 32 followed by Quincy Shanks at 29 and Raines had 26. Seminole would have finished with 261/2 had it been credited for the mile relay performance.

"We could have done better with Dwayn (Willis) and Steve (Warren) there," Brauman said. "But we're pleased with the meet. It was excellent competition and we had some good performances."

Seminole got three second places in the meet including Earle Martin in the 440 dash (48.0), Alan Seward in the 330 in the pole vault (11-6). Walter Hopson tied for fourth hurdles (40.0) and Sonny Osborn place in the high jump at 6-4 and, Lewis Butler was fourth in the triple jump at 44-11. The mile; relay team, which Brauman, hopes to get credited for its third place finish, included Kevin Richardson, Martin, Seward and Maurice Roberts.

Seminole could have scored more points had it not been for a couple bad breaks. Arthur: Hersey made it to the finals in the 120 high hurdles but hit the first hurdle, fell and dislocated a shoulder. Without Willis and Warren, the Seminoles could not run a 440 relay team and Rufaro Matipano ran a 2:02.6 in the 880 but that was one place out of the scoring.

The Seminoles will return to action Tuesday when, for the first time, they travel to: Clearwater High for the. Clearwater Sun and Fun Meet, the biggest West Coast meet of, the year.

Lyman and Lake Mary also sent athletes to the Bob Hayes Invitational with Lyman scoring eight points and Lake Mary

For Lyman, Teddy Mitchell placed fourth in the two mile? with a time of 10:01.2, Ricky Sheets was fourth in the pole vault at 11-0 and Robin Rogers , fifth in the mile at 4:31.7. For Lake Mary, Brad Smith was fifth in the two mile at 10:08.5 and Jeff Pommier was sixth in the 330 hurdles at 40.9.

Raines: Mariners Interested

Still without a contract. National League batting champion Tim Raines said the Scattle Mariners contacted him and expressed Interest over the weekend while negotiations continued with the Houston Astros.

While the Mariners threw their hat into the ring.

Raines is still hoping to land with a National League West team, either Houston or Atlanta. The Sanford native. Heathrow resident and Seminole High graduate, has not yet been made a suitable offer but said he wants to sign soon since Spring Training is winding to a close.

Shownda, 'Noles Shine At Jax

By Chris Fister Herald Sports Writer

Shownda Martin and the Seminole High girls track team gave an indication Saturday that, when the big time comes. they will be ready.

Martin, a junior broke the meet record in the 880 run, improved on her state-leading mile time, and ran a blistering 54.2 split on the state-leading mile relay team and came away with athlete of the meet honors for the girls portion of the Bob Hayes Invitational in Jacksonville.

"Shownda (Martin) had a wonderful day." Seminole coach Emory Blake said. "She was sick when we went up there last year and she just ate it up this year. And if she would have been pushed a little more, she could have run faster in both the mile

Martin won the 880 with a meet record time of 2:14.8, chopped three seconds off her time in the mile with an excellent time of 5:10.4 and anchored the mile relay which finished with a time of 3:51.5 which ranks as the number eight time in state history. Joining Martin on the mile relay were freshman Yolanda Baker, junior Dorchelle Webster and sophomore Adrian Hillsman.

Orlando Oak Ridge won the while Seminole was second at 42. Oak Ridge did not run its top people in Thursday's Lake Mary invitational so it could stack the Bob Hayes meet while Seminole ran full throttle in both meets.

"We did what we can do in the state meet." Blake said. "I'm convinced we can score those 42 points and we can maybe even be better with a couple girls coming back later in the year. That's a lot of points for the state meet and I don't think Oak Ridge can dominate the field events there like they have been in meets this year."

Seminole also got an outstanding performance from Webster as she ran personal bests in both the 330 low and 110 high hurdles. Webster finished second in the 330 hurdles with a state-leading time of 43.6 which is only one tenth of a second off 10th place all time in the state. Webster finished second in the event to Donalda Dupree of Saugeen, Canada who ran a time of 43.0. Duprec was a silver medalist at the Commonwealth Games last year. Webster also ran her best time in the 110 hurdles where she finished fifth

"Dorchelle (Webster) ran super shot put with a season's best girl (Dupree) but her timing was a little off and she stumbled to the left a little on the last hurdle," Blake sald. "It just came down to who made the mistake. I think Dorchelle would beat her if they ran against each other again.'

Seminole also took second in the 440 relay with a season's best time of 48.7. The 440 relay team included Baker. Tasha Wynn, LaShon Cash and Hillsman. Cash also took fourth in the 220 dash with a time of

"We could have been closer to Oak Ridge," Blake said. "We had some times run in the prelims that would have placed in the finals but you had to win your heat to make the finals. Adrian (Hillsman) ran a 46.0 in the 330 hurldes prelims and that would have placed fourth in the final but she didn't win her heat and didn't get to go. It was the same way with Michelle Pearson in the 110 hurdles and Wynn and Baker in the 100 meters."

Lyman was the other Seminole County team represented in Saturday's meet and the Lady Greyhounds' duo of Eileen Costello and Julie Greenberg combined for 15 points. Costello won the discus with a season's best throw of 134-0 and placed third in the while the discus crew (187-8

Lake Mary's Lady Rams brought 10 competitors to the West Orange Relays Saturday and came away with 42 points and some of their best relay times of the season.

The Lady Rams took a first place in the shuttle hurdles relay and tied the school record with a time of 1:12.6. The team included Lisa Walker, Tabatha Gano, Lisa Shelby and Cheri Frauenhoffer. Gano led the way with a 17.0 split.

Lake Mary took second place in the two mile relay and ran the second fastest time in the county this season with a 10:14.9. The team included Gano (2:38.6 split for 880 yards), Christine Adamson (2:33), Allison Snell (2:30.3) and Heather Heikkila

Lake Mary took third in the 880 medley as the team of Tammy Frauenhoffer, Carrie Banks, Cheri Frauenhoffer and Snell ran a 2:05.1. Snell ran a superb anchor leg in moving the Lady Rams from sixth to third. Fourth places for the Lady Rams came in the shot put and discus. In the shot put, the team of Gano, Walker and Adamson combined for a distance of 71-5

Five County Teams Bid For Tourney Title

By Scott Bander Herald Sports Writer

All of the Seminole county high schools will be on spring break this week, but the county baseball teams won't be taking much of a break as all but one of the county schools will be playing in a spring tournament.

Lyman, Lake Mary, Oviedo, Lake Howell, and Lake Brantley will be participating in the Lyman Greater Greyhound Spring invatational. The Seminole invational Tournament has been canceled. Seminole coach Mike Ferrell said that a pair of teams from the north decided not to play in the tournament. He said that his club will take the week off.

Action in the Lyman Tournament will begin tonight at 5. Lake Mary and Lake Howell will face off in a preview of their Seminole Athletic Conference clash on April 1. The Rams lead the Silver Hawks by a half game in the SAC. Lyman will take on Lake Highland Prep at 7:30.

The winner of the Lake Mary-Lake Howell will take on Oviedo on Tuesday at 5. The Lions drew a first-round bye. The Lake Highland Prep-Lyman winner will face Lake Brantley on Tuesday at 7:30. The Patriots also received a first-round bye.

There was a light schedule in the SAC last week, but there were some very critical games played that changed the situation in the SAC.

The Lake Mary Rams won a much anticipated game against Oviedo. Frequently, a game that is supposed to be very tight contest with two quality teams can become a one-sided affair.

Baseball

Friday's game at Lake Mary was no different os Lake Mary pitcher Anthony Laszaic tossed a five-hitter against an Oviedo club that can tear the cover off of the ball. The win ups Laszaic to 4-0 for the season. The Rams are 4-0 In the SAC.

Lake Mary (11-2), and ranked number 4 in the Florida Sports Writers Class 4A poll coming into last week, fell for the second time this season to Metro Conference power Winter Park.

"I'd rather play the tougher teams in the area." Lake Mary coach Alan Tuttle said. "I could schedule some easy games, but you don't get anything out of beating somebody by 10 runs."

The Wildcats edged the Rams, 2.0, on Saturday afternnon at Lake Mary. The loss was Mary's first home loss in over two years. Ironically, the last loss that Mary suffered at home was to to Winter Park.

"That loss won't hurt us that much," Tuttle said. "We had a good outing against Oviedo, but couldn't get a big hit against Winter Park."

Tuttle said that he hopes that his players' bats will come to life in the Lyman Tournament. "There is only one difference between this team and last year's team," Tuttle said. "And it is our hitting. Last year every guy in the lineup could cream the ball. This year, we aren't getting the hits. Hopefully our bats will come to life in this tournament."

Tuttle said that Sean Flaherty

(3-1) will take the mound against Lake Howell tonight. "We have had good pitching so far." Tuttle said. "BUt we have to get some production out certain players in out lineup.'

The Lake Howell Silver Hawks have quietly asserted themselves as contenders in the SAC. The Hawks, 11-5 and 4-1 in the SAC. have been playing sound baseball behing the pitching of Greg Hill.

Hill has become the leading pitcher in the SAC as he is 6-0. Hill stopped Lyman, 6-3, last week. The senior righty spread out nine hits in the contest.

'He (Hill) has done a great job . for us," Lake Howell coach Birto Benjamin said. "He just goes out there and wins for you."

Lake Howell has by using solid hitting by the Martinez brothers. Ernest and Eric, giving them their offense punch.

Oviedo's loss to Lake Mary made the Lions chances to win the SAC paper thin. "We are out of the SAC race." Ovledo coach Howard Mable admitted. "We will just have to keep playing and try to peak at district time. The Lions were ranked fifth in the state 3A poll.

The Lions come into the Lyman Tourney with a record of 8-3 overall, and 2-3 in the SAC. Seminole broke out of a small slump with a pair of wins. The Seminoles came from behind to edge Brantley, 6-5, in an error prone SAC contest. Seminole also beat New Smyrna in nonconference action, 13-3.

"That win over Brantley is really going to help us." Seminole coach Mike Ferrell said. "We are going to take the help." The win over the Patriots was costly for Seminole. Alonzo Gainey, who is hitting .300, slid into second base and broke a bone in his left foot. "He is supposed to be out for three weeks." Ferrell said. "Alonzo generates things for us. We will misss him very badly."

The Seminoles are 6-4 overall and are still alive in the SAC race with a 2-2 mark. The Lake Brantley Patriots lost another close one as they fell to Seminole. The Patriots are getting good pitching from senior Ed Dickmyer and Junior Greg Ebbert, but the defense has been horrid at best as Brantley is letting their opponent get back

"We are having trouble in the field," Brantley coach Mike Smith said. "We are also having problems at the plate. The Patriots seem to be lacking confidence and a few victories in the Lyman Tournament could boost their low morals.

'We just can't hols a lead," Dickmyer, who is 1.4 but would have a better record if has a solid defense, said. "I don't what we have to do to get a win. Dickmyer has pitched well as he has struck out 40 batters this

The Lyman Greyhounds have also been having some problems. The 'Hounds lost to Howell, 6.3, and beat Trinity Prep. 7-3. The Greyhounds are

The 'Hounds suffered a major blow last week as pitcher Sandy Hovis, 0-1, broke both wrists while playing basketball over the weekend.

"Sandy was our leading pitcher." Lyman coach Bob Mc-Cullough said. "I don't know what we are going to do now. We'll have to experiment kids in this tournament at pitcher."

McCullough said that he has been unhappy with his team's defense and will try to shake things up in the tourney. "We will be trying some new things," McCullough said. "Hopefully we'll play well in the tournament and prepare ourselves for dis-

"We won't be playing in any tournamnets over spring break.' Ferrell said. "I think that the time off will help the team."

Seminole will be without the services of Alonzo Gainey for three weeks as Gainey broke a bone in his lest foot in a 6.5 win over Lake Brantley last week. "It is going to be tough for us without Alonzo," Ferrell said of the .300 hitter. "He gets things going for us and it will be definite loss for us."

WINTER PARK NIPS RAMS

It isn't often that the Lake Mary baseball team is shut out. It also isn't very frequent to see the Rams lose at home.

But on Saturday afternoon, the Rams did both as they fell to Winter Park. 2-0, for the second time this season.

The Rams are 11-2 with both losses courtesy of the Wildcats. Lake Mary was ranked number 4 in the 4A poll last week, but will undoubtably fall with the loss.

"I guess that they (Winter Park) have our number." Lake Mary coach Allen Tuttle said. "If we would have gotten a few hits when we needed them we could have easily won the game."

The loss was Lake Mary's first home defeat in over two years. The last time, the Rams lost at home was to the Wildcats two years ago.

Uncharacteristicly, Lake Mary left 10 men on base as they were not able to get a hit in a clutch situation.

Lake Mary pitcher Steve Shakar yielded only three hits while striking out six and issuing six costly free passes. The loss was Shaker's first of the season as he is now 4.1. "Steve pitched a heck of game." Tuttle said about the senior lefty. "He did have some contol problems, though."

The Lyman Greyhounds defeated Trinty Prep. 7-3, in nonconference baseball action at Lyman High School on Saturday evening.

The victory improves the Greyhounds to 7-7 overall.

'It was a nice win for us." Lyman coach Bob McCullough said. "Its good to come into our own tournament after a win.'

The Greyhounds will return to action tonight at 7:30 against Lake Highland Prep in firstround action of the Greater Greyhound Invatational Tournament. Lake Mary and Lake Howell will play the opening game at 5. Lyman suffered a severe blow to its pitching staff last week as righty Sandy Hovis broke both wrists while playing basketball.

"Sandy was our main pitcher," McCullough sald. "We'll have to try some new kids out at pitcher. Losing Sandy certainly doesn'y help us any.'

Rangers Ambush Chicago

United Press International The latest trend in the NHL shows a sure way to stop the league's stars from scoring - put them in a hospital. Chicago Blackhawks scoring leader Denis Savard Sunday night needed to be hospitalized after he was brought down from behind in a 5-3 loss to the New York Rangers.

Two nights earlier, a fight forced Pittsburgh Penguins ace Mario Lemieux to a hospital with a concussion and lacerations on his face. Sunday, Lemieux's vision was still fuzzy in a loss to the Philadelphia Flyers.

The combination of the Rangers' victory and the Penguins' loss gives New York a five-point lead over Pittsburgh in their race for the fourth and final

Patrick Division playoff spot. Jeff Jackson's cross-check after a running start left Savard with a lacerated back, but X-Rays revealed the 39-goal scorer has no broken ribs. 'I had already passed the puck and I knew he was behind me,' Savard said, "but I didn't believe he would hit me. I was scared because my back arched and I still hurt all over." The Blackhawks actually had to kill a penalty after the incident 6:32 into the game because Chicago's Marc Bergevin fought Jackson and was slapped with an instigation minor. In other games. Philadelphia descated Pittsburgh 3-1, Buffalo edged Detroit 3-2, Washington nipped Boston 4.3, Hartford downed Los Angeles 6-3 and Winnipeg shaded Vancouver

The San Antonio Spurs found themselves where they wanted to be Sunday night — down by 17 points in the fourth quarter and on the road.

Most clubs would regard this as a rather dire predictament. but not the Spurs, who rallied to overtake the Los Angeles Clippers 116-112 in overtime at the Sports Arena.

After all, the formula had worked for San Antonio in its previous victory. Trailing by 16 points with 9 1-2 minutes to play, the Spurs regrouped to edge the Kings 108-106 in Sacramento last Tuesday.

Led by reserve Johnny Dawkins, the visitors outscored the Clippers 22.5 to get back in Sunday's game. The rookle guard recorded 12 of his 16 points in the decisive fourthquarter burst, and his jumper with five seconds left tied the score 103-103 and forced the extra session.

"I liked being 17 down with six minutes to go." Spurs Coach Bobby Weiss said with a smile. In the overtime. Michael Cage

"I thought it had a chance when it left my hand," Sundvold said of his go-ahead basket, "but there were a couple of others that I thought were good that ended up short.'

The Clippers, as usual, came up short and continued to build on the league's worst record. 11-55. Los Angeles has dropped five straight and 11 of its last 12.

Evert Owns Shriver Again

DALLAS (UPI) - Chris Evert Lloyd won her first tournament in nine months by capturing the Virginia Slims of Dallas Sunday in a match she said featured some of her best tennis.

Evert Lloyd won 14 of the first 16 points to trounce Pam Shriver 6-1, 6-3 in the final of the $250,000 event. The tournament triumph was her first since the 1986 French Open and her 18th straight over Shriver dating back to 1978.

"I've never lost to Pam and I'm going into the match thinking if I play well, I'll win," Evert Lloyd said. "... I wanted to get a tournament win under my belt, especially since all I've heard recently is that I haven't won since the French."

The victory was Evert Lloyd's first in the Dallas tournament in 13 years. Notably absent from this year's field was Martina Navratilova, who skipped the tournament for a skiing trip but crowd and applause from her down and said to myself, 'Yeah, laces Evert Lloyd in a benefit opponent. match tonight in Fort Worth.

After a sloppy 2-6, 6-3, 6-1 first-round triumph over Katerina Maleeva of Bulgaria. Evert Lloyd allowed opponents to hold serve only four times in 21 games. Sunday, she broke Shriver six of eight times.

"I feel fortunate that I was in the tournament after the first round." Evert Lloyd said. "After I got through that match. I played some of the best tennis of

Captain Arrested in Bombing

MANILA. Philippines (UPI) — Military authorities have arrested an army demolition instructor in connection with a bombing that killed four people last week at the Philippine Military Academy, the armed forces chief announced today.

Armed Forces Chief of Staff Gen. Fidel Ramos said the unnamed captain provides the "most likely and plausible lead" to the bombing last Wednesday in the mountain resort of Baguio, in which 47 others were injured.

Three bombs fashioned from Soviet B-40 rockets exploded simultaneously under a grandstand during graduation rehearsal at the academy, ripping through the precise spot from which Aquino delivered a graduation speech Sunday.

In her address, Aquino told a military crowd the bombing was the "greatest threat to my life." But, she pledged, "Nothing will intimidate this president. Death holds no fear for us."

In Tel Aviv, the largett Defense Porces issued a statement saying its warplanes attacked "terrorist bases" near the aouthern port of Sidon.

Gadhafi Threatens Missile Attack

NEW YORK (UPI) — Another U.S. attack on Libya like the one last April could prompt the north African nation to join the Warsaw Pact, deploy Soviet nuclear weapons and give Moscow a naval base on the Mediterranean, Libyan leader Mosmmar Gadhaft warned.

Gadhaft said if the United States tries to attack Libyan his would extend to the Soviets.

again he would retaliate by moving closer to the Soviets and giving them a naval base at the Mediterranean port of Tobruk, about 100 miles west of the Egyptian border.

"Libya will in fact declare that it is a communist country and join the Warsaw Pact and deploy Soviet (nuclear) missiles on the coast of the Mediterranean." Gadhafi said.

Simple Rest Room Labels Offer Patrons Best Relief

DEAR ABBY: This is regarding the letter in your column from "Proud Texan," who had asked for suggestions on how to label men's and women's washrooms in his new country-western club.

The hotel school in San Francisco (City College) makes a very strong point of stating that public rest rooms should be labeled "Men" and "Women." Their second choice is simply 'Ladies" and "Gentlemen," but not recommended.

Never, never should they be 'Cows" and "Bulls," "Senores" and "Senoritas," "Boys" and "Girls," "His" and "Hers," "Guys" and "Dolls," and on and on. I've been told that there are no hotel schools in Texas, so the "Helfers" and "Bulls" have to go to Stillwater, Okla., to learn these things.

SOONER IN ARIZONA DEAR SOONER: The letter concerning what to put on rest room doors flushed out several interesting letters. For example:

DEAR ABBY: As an alternative for "Men" and "Women" on the doors of one club's rest rooms, it was handled this way in an Annapolis, Md., restaurant: "Buoys" and

CITY GIRL IN ALABAMA

DEAR ABBY: We got a big kick out of reading about the problem the country-western club in Texas had when considering what to put on the rest room doors. It reminded me of the same problem here in Baltimore several years ago.

The manager of a local club was confronted by an irate female who didn't know which rest room to use because all they had on each door was a picture of a dog!

The manager said. "For goodness sakes, lady, don't you know one of them is a pointer and the other is a setter?"

Gout Medication Is Usually Safe, Effective

DEAR DR. GOTT - My doctor drugs. People may become quite is reluctant to prescribe allopurinol for my gout. He says that once started, allopurinol must be continued for life, that it can cause serious side effects and that it may take six to 12 months to achieve control. Is this correct?

DEAR READER - Allopurinol, like any medicine, does have side effects, including rash, nausea, vomiting, bone-marrow abnormalities and drug allergy. However, these reactions are rare. Allopurinol reduces the formation of uric acid in the body, and thus is a good gout preventative. As with other medicines, you and your doctor will want to weigh the risk/benefit ratio of allopurinol. Although it's generally a safe drug, it may not be appropriate for you to use.

To give you more information on gout in general, I'm sending you a free copy of my Health Report, ABOUT GOUT. Others who want this information should send $1 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland OH 44101-3428. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT - I find that the gums used in commercially sold "chewy" cookies are a powerful bowel irritant. Is this a usual reaction?

DEAR READER - Not to my knowledge. However, many sugar-free foods contain the inert sugar sorbitol, which can cause diarrhea. Eat fewer soft cookies or switch brands.

DEAR DR. GOTT - What happens to people who don't have a total hip-replacement operation when they are told they need one? Is there any other treatment available?

DEAR READER - Certain forms of arthritis cause degeneration of the hip joint. With time, this degeneration may worsen and cause symptoms that can't be relieved by pain medication or anti-arthritis can be a real boon to the person who suffers chronic pain, stiffness and weakness. Until the time that surgery is needed, patients often can be helped by anti-arthritis medicine, physical therapy and a modification of physical activity as pain permits.

maintain control of the hand. Today's declarer lost control in his rush to garner an overtrick.
The bidding seems unnatural because South bid his hand so that the partnership could reach three no-trump if North had-only three-card spade support. When the queen of diamonds was led against four spades, declarer knew that his safest play was simply to duck that first trick. Whatever happened next, he could simply play out the A-K of trumps and then go about his business of running the heart suit. The defender with the long trumps could trump in when he wished, but the contract would almost surely be safe.

Unfortunately this line of play sacrifices a probable overtrick. If the diamond queen held the trick. West would likely play

By James Jacoby through dummy's club queen,
The trump suit helps declarer hoping East held the king. And if West had started with the club king. East would overtake with the diamond king to play back a club. In either case, hearts might need to split 3-3 for declarer to make an overtrick. So declarer grabbed the first trick and played out the A-K of spades.

> Now the contract was doomed. barring a defensive malfunction. Declarer tried running the heart suit. If he threw clubs, West would wait until he won the lead with a diamond and would then draw all the trumps. So South tried to throw his diamonds away. West ruffed in on the fourth heart, cashed his diamond jack and led a club. That was four tricks for the defense, and our greedy declarer had to watch his contract go down the drain.
