GERMAN GOVERNMENT EXPECTED APPEAL TO LEAGUE TO HELP OUT OF FINANCIAL TROUBLES

(By The Associated Press)
BRUSSELS, Dec. 13.—An appeal by the German government to foreign powers to help it out of its financial difficulties is expected in many quarters here within a short time. The appeal may take the form of a request to the League of Nations to control Germany's finances.

(By The Associated Press)
BRUSSELS, Dec. 13.—The German government's first reception of the foreign press representatives on Wednesday was one of unrelieved gloom. The keynotes of his address was that Germany was absolutely at the end of its resources. In this, however, Dr. Brüning did not differ materially from the views of his predecessors in office on similar occasions.

(By The Associated Press)
BRUSSELS, Dec. 13.—The German chancellor's stern face hardly changed when he solemnly announced that Germany now is at the end of its resources. He declared that his government is wholeheartedly in favor of a policy of fulfillment. He admitted that many people in Germany do not realize what the last word is to the country, but he said that the government would spare no efforts to meet its obligations.

(By The Associated Press)
BRUSSELS, Dec. 13.—The German chancellor's speech, and he said that it was due to the fact that as a professional jurist he felt that the nation's honor was at stake. He concluded with a tribute to the League of Nations, which he said was a noble idea, but he said that he was not sure that the nation was ready to accept it.

INCREASE CAPITAL SECURITIES FIRM

Growth of Sanford and Seminole County Reflected in Business of Seminole Securities Company.

The Seminole Securities Company of Sanford has had a remarkable growth since its formation on September 12, 1921. Formed with a capital stock of $60,000, the growth was so phenomenal that within 17 months' time it was necessary to increase the capital stock to $150,000. Of that amount approximately $125,000 was paid up.

Comes now the announcement that because of the added increase in business of the organization, the capital stock is to be increased to $500,000. A special meeting of the stockholders is to be held January 15, 1924. In other words this corporation has within the short space of about two years, will have increased its stock from $60,000 to $500,000.

The increase in stock of course comes from an added increase in business. The increase includes preferred stock from $100,000 to $400,000 and common stock from $50,000 to $100,000.

The general business of the company is handling of the contracts of Ford automobiles and Fordson tractors. The activities of the company not only extend over Seminole county but over to other counties in this part of the state.

The company numbers among its stockholders some of the most prominent and wealthy citizens of Sanford and Jacksonville. It pays dividends of 2 per cent payable quarterly on both the preferred and common stock. The officers are: F. P. Forster, president; Edward Higgins, vice president; B. F. Whitner, treasurer; Alfred Forster, secretary; Deane Turner, assistant secretary.

As was pointed out Thursday by President Forster, the growth of the company is not only indicative of the increase in business but indicates the growth and progress of Sanford and Seminole county.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The American Museum of Natural History will shortly become the possessor of an excellent collection of stuffed animals and zoological specimens from India, the fruits of the recent Verary-Fauntroppe expedition. The expedition was undertaken by A. S. Verary, an Englishman, but for many years a resident of New York, and Colonel J. C. Fauntroppe, with the object of forming a complete collection of animals from the plains of India. Later it was decided to present these to the American Institution.

FOX MURDER TRIAL BEGINS IN ATLANTA

Coburn Testifies That Prisoner Bought Knife Few Days Before Murder

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTA, Dec. 13.—Hearing of evidence was begun in the trial of Philip E. Fox, charged with the killing of Captain W. S. Coburn today. Clarence Everett identified a knife which he said Fox bought a few days before the shooting. It was seven inches long, Fox told him to oil the knife and added he had been looking for such a knife for a long time.

Emperor Simmons, founder of the Klan appeared and sat within the chancery railing.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 13.—Efforts to establish a motive for the slaying of William S. Coburn for which Philip E. Fox is under indictment and on trial here will be attempted early Thursday it was indicated tonight by the prosecution.

Coburn was counsel and leader of the William Joseph Simmons faction of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, while Fox is a former publicity man and editor of the "Night Hawk," the official organ of the administrative forces of the Klan.

The defense Wednesday remained silent as to its plea. It was indicated in court circles today that the reported insanity plea which was known to have been discussed by Fox's counsel had been abandoned. This was advanced when the defense failed to issue witness summons to the alienist who examined Fox shortly after he shot and killed Coburn on November 5.

Counsel for Fox, however, have admitted that they have a full report from the alienist, but they refuse to discuss whether it would be introduced in evidence.

Fox went on trial Wednesday, the entire session being devoted to the selection of a jury which was completed at a late hour Wednesday afternoon. Hearing of evidence will start tomorrow, the State having approximately 100 witnesses to be examined. The defense has about the same number of witnesses.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—Lord Alfred Douglas, son of the late Marquis of Queensberry, was found guilty by a jury of criminal libel upon Winston Spencer Churchill, former first lord of admiralty. Douglas published a statement that Churchill issued a false communique after the battle of Jutland for the purpose of influencing stock markets. He was sentenced to continue for a day or two, the toll of which he must give surety to keep peace, particularly toward Churchill. Otherwise he must undergo six months more imprisonment.

(By The Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—American ex-service women who need medical attention, whether for disability incurred in war or for illness or injury suffered since, may receive such treatment from the government. It has been announced here by Eudora M. Clover, administrator of disabled service women for the American Women's Overseas League.

The league, Miss Clover explained, has received this assurance from the war department. It means that all women who have been or may be enlisted under such status as army nurse, navy nurse, yeomanette or marineette will be eligible, on producing an honorable discharge and a proper certificate of disability, to care and maintenance in a government hospital at home. The duration of the disability, or the time and manner in which it has been inflicted, will make no difference, according to the announcement. Such permanent disabilities as old age will entitle a woman to care for the rest of her life, but entry into a government institution will entail no obligation to remain a patient being as welcome to enter for an operation or a brief illness. The government will pay the cost of transportation to eligible applicants.

In view of the comparatively few women claiming such attention at this time, the national soldiers' home at Danville, Ill., has been designated for all patients of the immediate future. The two brick buildings have been set aside for the exclusive use of the women. There also is a hospital with more than 200 beds. It is estimated that there are approximately 52,000 women eligible for this benefit should they need it. Previously these women had been held entitled only to the relief afforded them by the Veterans' Bureau, which required a 10 per cent disability attributed directly to service for the army or navy.

Cold Wave Will Not Be Long Enduring

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—The cold wave swept over the central middle west Wednesday and Wednesday night will continue but for a day or two, the weather bureau forecast in Thursday's forecast. PEARMAN NAMED IMPORTANT OFFICE

Succeeds Appleyard as Secretary Treasurer of Secretaries Association

Willis Powell, president of the Florida Commercial Secretaries Association was in Sanford Tuesday afternoon and while here announced the appointment of R. W. Pearman, Jr., as secretary-treasurer of the association to succeed T. J. Appleyard of Lakeland, who resigned a short time ago. With the announcement of Pearman's appointment, Mr. Powell also made public that Sanford will be the meeting place of the next convention of the organization instead of at Lakeland. The convention will meet here next June for a two day session.

According to Mr. Powell there will be 80 or more secretaries present at the convention many of whom will be accompanied by their wives. Sanford was picked, he said, because of its accessibility and because it has splendid accommodations to offer and is known for its generous hospitality.

Friends of Mr. Pearman will learn with interest and pleasure of his appointment to fill the important duties of secretary-treasurer of the State association. With the office goes the responsibility of publishing the monthly bulletin which is sent out to each member and which contains items concerning the activities of its members.

The name of the four-page bulletin will be in the future the "Secretary" and will be sent out from this city with a Sanford date line, which according to Mr. Powell, will mean fine publicity for the "Celery City."

Oregon Citizens Vote For Double Taxation

(By The Associated Press)
PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 12.—Oregon, through action of the state legislature, ratified by a small majority of voters at a referendum election Nov. 8, has adopted a state income tax modeled on the federal income tax. The state tax, which must be paid on the net income of individuals and corporations doing business in the state, is pyramided on top of the federal income tax. In other words, persons subject to income tax must pay to the state as well as to the federal government.

The law provides a tax of 1 percent on the first $1,000 of taxable income, or any part thereof, and increases one-half of one percent up to $12,000, and for sums in excess of $12,000 the rate is 6 percent. The exemptions provided in the state law are similar to those of the federal income tax law.

CITY BOND ISSUE IS SOLD FOR $875

Seasegood and Mayer Company of Cincinnati Is Successful Bidder

(By The Associated Press)
INDICATIVE of the high financial standing which Sanford enjoys, was the sale on Wednesday afternoon of the $100,000 bond issue for park and sewerage improvements, to the Seasegood & Mayer Bond Company of Cincinnati for $100,875. This means that the bonds sold for approximately $6.46 above par.

The City Commissioners were more than pleased with the bid of the Cincinnati firm. It was pointed out that Winter Park with practically no bonded indebtedness, only received par value for its bonds sold Tuesday.

This issue like the proposed $920,000 bond issue, is composed of 30-year maturity bonds bearing interest at the rate of 5 1/2 per cent, payable semi-annually.

Other bidders number nine and bids are as follows:
South Bank of Jacksonville, $157,808.
Hanchett Bond Company, $100,840.
Ryan, Bowman & Company, $157,728 for 5 1/2 per cent bonds and $152,170 for 5 1/4 per cent bonds.
Walter, Woody & Helmerding, $160,112.
Pruden & Company, $160,000.
Atlantic National Bank, $160,432.
I. R. Tigrett & Company, $158,800.
J. C. Mayer & Company, and Ryan & Bowman Company, $152,176.

The successful bidders have further agreed to print the bonds thus saving the city of an additional expense in connection with the issue.

Other business taken up by the commission was to allot to the librarian the sum of $100 as an expense fund. She was requested to make a monthly report to the city clerk giving a record of expenditures.

The commission further agreed that no building permits are to be issued until they are passed upon favorably by the City Planning Commission.

DECISIVE BATTLE BETWEEN THE SANCHEZ FORCES AND OBREGON TROOPS WILL BE WAGED SOON

CITIES ARE SEIZED

Yucatan Governor And His Subjects Have Disappeared Taking With Them Big Sum of Money.

(By The Associated Press)
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 13.—It is generally felt here that a decisive battle between the Sanchez forces and troops loyal to President Obregon will be fought on the Vera Cruz front near where Caramza was defeated by Sanchez in 1919. The government continues to concentrate its forces in that district to oppose the advance of rebels.

VERA CRUZ, Dec. 13.—The cities of Merida and Progreso in the state of Yucatan have been seized by rebels commanded by Colonel Biesty, according to information reaching revolutionary headquarters here.

The advice says that Governor Carrillo of Yucatan and his followers have disappeared, taking with them export money and other funds.

Travelers reaching Esperanza from Mexico City report that more than 1,000 federal troops are concentrated at San Marcos, midway between Mexico City and Vera Cruz, and on the line of the march the revolutionists are taking to the capital. If these reports prove correct it is presumed the first important battle between the rebels and the government forces will be between San Andres and San Marcos.

CONFERENCE OF OFFICERS
CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mexico, Dec. 13.—Governor Ignacio Enriquez Wednesday held a conference with officers of the Chihuahua state army. Several mobilized several days ago to work in conjunction with the federal troops.

EMBARGO ON
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Dec. 13.—In order that the railroads may be held in readiness to transport government troops, an embargo has been passed on all railway transportation in Mexico, according to G. H. Mayer, who left Mexico City Sunday night on what is rumored was the last passenger train out of that city. Mr. Mayer arrived here last night.

"The outcome of the present trouble in Mexico is something that no one can predict," said Mr. Mayer. "An embargo was placed on all railway transportation in Mexico last Friday and it seemed impossible to get out. I left Mexico City Sunday night and arrived in Laredo without seeing any signs of a disturbance, although frequent rumors could be heard all along the way."

Mr. Mayer declared that since he left Guadalupe Thursday he had had no trains running between that place and Mexico City. Neither are there any trains running to El Paso, he stated.

"Either the Americans in Mexico are not very much disturbed over the conditions or else they are afraid to travel and afraid to remain where they are," Mr. Mayer said, "very few of them are leaving the country."

EL PASO, Texas, Dec. 13.—800 well armed and mounted farmers of the lower Juarez valley have offered their support to the Obregon government in Juarez to put down any threatened rebellion. Manuel Prieto, collector of customs, announced today.

Conditions are quiet throughout the northern part of the republic, according to Mr. Prieto, R. de la Vega, paymaster of the Mexican troops returned to Juarez today from Ojinaga, opposite Presidio, Texas, and declared there was no truth to the reports that the town had been menaced by d la Huerta men.

Sends Reconnoiters
Colonel Roas, commander of the Mexican garrison at Matamoros, across the Rio Grande from Brownsville, sent a detachment of troops toward San Fernando Wednesday to reconnoiter the position of Colonel Guajardo, who revolted Monday, it was reported here tonight. Colonel Guajardo was said in unofficial statements to be in command of about 200 irregulars, 65 miles south of Matamoros.

The order closing the port of Matamoros at 9 p. m. was revoked today and all saloons and gambling houses were permitted to operate. The port has been closed nightly in compliance with an edict by President Obregon closing all Mexican border ports in cities which permitted gambling.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
THE GOODNESS OF GOD.—Oh, that men would praise the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men.—Psalm 107:21.

IF I WERE A VOICE

If I were a voice—a persuasive voice—
That could travel the wide world through,
I would fly on the beams of the morning light,
And speak to men with a gentle might,
And tell them to be true,
I'd fly, I'd fly, o'er the land and sea,
Wherever a human heart might be,
Telling a tale or singing a song,
In praise of the right—in blame of the wrong.

If I were a voice—a coaxing voice—
I'd fly on the wings of the air;
The homes of sorrow and guilt I'd seek,
And calm and trustful words I'd speak,
To save them from despair,
I'd fly, I'd fly, o'er the crowded town,
And drop, like the happy sunlight,
Down into the hearts of suffering men,
And teach them to rejoice again.

If I were a voice—a convincing voice—
I'd travel with the wind;
And whenever I saw the nations torn
By warfare, jealousy or scorn,
Or hatred of their kind,
I'd fly, I'd fly, on the thunder crash,
And into their blinded bosoms flash,
And, all their evil thoughts subdued,
I'd teach them Christian brotherhood.

—Charles Mackay.

The trouble about the team work of capital and labor is that each thinks the other is the off horse.—Asheville Citizen.

One has only to read his daily paper to note that automobile accidents at railroad crossings are still listed among those present.

Folks who continue to use the expression, "Yes, we have no—," seem to have forgotten that the banana song has not been sung in years.

President Coolidge has only one attribute of a real president. He neither plays golf nor goes in for globe-trotting, but he is a canine expert.

After a man gets married he learns that it wasn't Caesar all who crossed the Rubicon, but Caesar's wife. Julius was home all the time taking care of the babies.

The Gadsden Times believes that Frank Jennings should be elected as Florida's next governor. The Times states that "he knows Florida well, loves it as every patriotic citizen should, and as governor he would lose no opportunity to promote her interests and help in her development."

There is no question about the Tampa Tribune's support of John Martin for governor. It seems to think that with his election all the troubles of this state would automatically end forever. Wasn't it Firpo the man, "Hope springs eternal in the human breast: Man never is, but always to be blest?"

Bill Glenn is authority for the statement that Bob Holly's sale of his paper has enabled that ex-editor to buy his first overcoat in 20 years; also a 4d sedan. Prosperity does turn some fellows' heads.—Tampa Tribune.

If it were a Rolls Royce, we'd expect to see the same old Bob.

Income Tax Forms Simplified

Taxpayers whose incomes are less than $5,000 per annum have a surprise coming to them when they receive blanks from the Collector of Internal Revenue, in that the government has simplified forms for this purpose so that the average man or woman will have little difficulty in making the tax return as required by law.

The Palm Beach Times clearly explains the new plan as follows:

Some 4,000,000 American income tax payers, about 70 per cent of the total number, will have a pleasant surprise when they receive the form upon which their returns for the next year are to be filed. Instead of the six-page booklet of former years, the 1924 form is a single sheet, and it seeks information only about income from three sources—salaries and wages; interest on bank deposits, notes, mortgages and corporation bonds; and "other incomes." On the reverse side of the sheet are instructions for making out the return, and the great majority of income tax payers will find themselves, for the first time since the income tax amendment was adopted, dealing with a form and set of questions that are commensurate with their incomes.

For persons whose net incomes are in excess of $5,000 the old form is retained. The committee which was appointed to simplify the blank and to facilitate the filing of returns found that large incomes, most of which are derived from many sources, necessarily involve the use of a form no less forbidding than the one which has previously been devised.

Since persons of large incomes are accustomed to consult their bankers or lawyers before making their returns to the government the retention of the old blank in their cases will make little difference. As individuals few of them pretend to understand the instructions or to know what their just contribution should be. To the 70 per cent, however, whose earnings are relatively small, and who in the past have experienced great difficulty in making their returns, the simplified blank will be a relief.

Will Justice Miscarry?

If Aubry Lee Nickels escapes the death penalty given him for committing one of the worst crimes in the history of Florida, it will no doubt be due to technicalities resorted to by well-meaning friends.

If Nickels is the victim of mob violence, it will be the result of an enraged public sentiment due to the tactics adopted by those who think they are doing their Christian duty in trying to save this boy from the electric chair.

Nickels twice confessed to the crime. The evidence was sufficient to cause conviction and a death sentence. The evidence was strong enough to cause the pardoning board to refuse to commute the sentence when the case was first brought before that body.

Organized efforts on the part of Nickels' friends have resulted in many good people rallying to his cause, many good churchmen who seem to think that he should not pay the death penalty.

These same good people perhaps would be enraged should a bootlegger or liquorhead resort to technicalities to escape the toils of the law. Yet in their zeal to save this boy, they would resort to the same method.

There are many instances in the history of Florida courts today where criminals have gone scot free because of some technicality in the law or because a few well meaning, but misguided people have resorted to this method of carrying their point.

If the facts as presented by the State are true, Nickels should pay the penalty for his crime. If he is innocent he should be given his freedom.

Justice should not be miscarried.

REAPPORTIONMENT in Florida is like the weather, as described by Mark Twain—everybody talks about it, but nobody does anything. But it is a matter which will not down, and one which never can be permanently settled until it is settled right—Plant City Courier.

A MAN WAKES up in the morning after sleeping under an advertised blanket on an advertised mattress; pulls off advertised pajamas; takes a bath in an advertised tub; shaves with an advertised razor; washes with advertised soap; powders his face with advertised powder; dons advertised underwear, hose, shirt, collar, shoes, suit, handkerchief, sits down to a breakfast of advertised cereal; drinks a cup of advertised coffee; puts on an advertised hat; lights an advertised cigar; rides to his office in an advertised auto on advertised tires; then he refuses to advertise on the ground that advertising doesn't pay.—Exchange.

"TIME IS OF ALL THINGS in the world the longest and the shortest, the quickest and the slowest, the most minute and the greatest, the most neglected and the most regarded—without which, nothing can be done, which devours all that is little and gives permanent life to all that is great. Nothing is longer than time, because it is the measure of eternity. Nothing is shorter, because it is insufficient for all our plans. Nothing is slower for him who waits, nothing more rapid for him who enjoys. Time stretches out to the infinite in greatness. It is infinitely divisible in littleness. All men neglect time. All regret its loss. Nothing can be done without time. It wipes out all that is unworthy of posterity, and immortalizes great things."—Voltaire.

My Favorite Stories

By Irvin S. Cobb

Franklin P. Adams, the columnist got this one at first hand from an individual who claimed to have been an eye and ear witness.

It seems that out in California on a prairie man lives a former resident of Brooklyn who is a confirmed baseball fan—one of those not uncommon persons, who know the averages of every big league player for the past 20 years and who can tell you offhand the date when old Cy Young pitched his last no-hit game and how many put-outs Cap Anson had in 1904. But this particular type of the species has one favorite above all other favorites—Frank Frisch, the phenomenally swift and dexterous second baseman of the New York Giants.

As the story runs, when the world's series of 1923 took place, a little group of baseball lovers in the prairie country, led, naturally, by the ex-Brooklynite, clubbed in and raised a fund to lease a special wire, hire an operator, and, at a rented hall, receive the reports of the games, play by play.

On a front seat on the opening afternoon sat, all expectantly, the worshippers of the Fordham Flash. It was the Giant's turn in the first inning.

"Frisch coming to bat," chanted the telegrapher as his instrument clicked off the words.

"That's my Frankie!" shouted the loyal roter. "Atta boy! You fellows wait for Frankie to come through. He's the guy that'll slam 'em out of the lot."

"Hull one!" called the announcer. "That's the eye!" proclaimed the old Brooklyn resident. "They can't fool Frankie. He's the one that'll wait. He'll make that pitcher stick 'em over—then blooie!"

"Strike one!"

"Sure, Frankie would let one go by."

"Ball two!"

"Wot'd I tell you fellows? Frankie's in there wif the old eagle eye walkin' gool!"

"Ball three!"

"Atta boy, Frankie, make 'em be 'Strike two!'"

"That's all right. It only takes one for Frankie."

"Strike three—and out!"

With a howl of rage the Frisch roter leaped to his feet.

"Why, that big hulking of an umpire!" he yelled. "That one was three feet wide of the plate if it was an inch!"

An experience of a Virginia clergyman throws light on the old English law requiring that marriage should be celebrated before noon. A colored couple appeared before him, asking to be married, the man in a considerably muddled state.

The minister said to the woman: "I won't perform this ceremony."

"Why is dat, boss?" she queried.

"Ain't de license all right? An' we is both of age."

"Yes. But this man is drunk. Take him away and come again."

Several days later the couple again presented themselves, the groom once more obviously intoxicated.

"See here, I told you I wouldn't marry you when this man was drunk, the dominie declared.

"Yes, sah, tha's jes' de trouble," stated the prospective bride. "I has to git him drunk 'fo' he's willin' to marry me."

Fretting on the Job

Detroit Free Press

There's a big difference between fretting on the job and fretting about the job. The person who frets on the job is getting some satisfaction out of life and generally he is traveling somewhere. He is progressing. The person who frets about his job is a nightmare, and everybody knows that a nightmare never gallops to any destination in particular, except perhaps the junk heap. The exercise of riding the steel is enervating to the spirit and wholly profitless.

A good many people try to be on the job and fret about it at the same time. Sometimes they confound the two activities. Sometimes they suffer from the delusion that they are on the job because they fret. Sometimes they even glory in the fact that they do fret and fret still more because other people will not fret with them.

All such people are in a sad and perilous case. They are in a situation somewhat analogous to that of a man attempting to ride two horses in different directions. They are trying to perform a feat that sooner or later is bound to tear them to pieces. Every time a person frets about his job in life, he takes a little off the fine edge of his effectiveness, so that after awhile, instead of running his job, he finds that his job is running him. In place of maintaining a proper offensive against the natural obstacles that rise up to oppose him, he fights on the defensive, and loses ground all the time.

It is a horrible thing when a job gets the better of a man or woman and becomes a taskmaster and bugaboo instead of a friend and servant. The things that happen then are like the things that occur in a slaves' rebellion.

There are some people, too, who make fretting about the job a substitute for really working at the job. Where this misdirection of energy is the result of a confusion of ideas or of distorted sense of values, the victim generally suffers acutely and is a proper subject for commiseration and help. Where it is a camouflage to hide laziness, the practitioner is a proper object for a jolt, administered more or less literally by the toe of a boot.

Fretting is a symptom. The person who frets may be sure something is wrong with him. Perhaps the candle is burning at both ends. Perhaps he is the victim of a bad mental outlook. Perhaps he is physically below par. Perhaps he and his job are constitutionally unsuited to each other. Perhaps he is not managing his job properly. In any case he needs to stop and take stock.

Disorderly Marketing Dangerous

Tampa Morning Tribune

Disorderly marketing of Florida's oranges and grapefruit crop so far this season has cost the growers fully five million dollars.

Orderly marketing of the current crop would have given the producers at least one dollar a box more on the five million boxes that have been shipped.

Every legitimate Florida business interest has been injured by the methods that have resulted in this serious reduction of the earning capacity of the citrus growers of the State.

All persons and all firms which are concerned in the upbuilding of the greater Florida should no longer remain passive under conditions that are adversely affecting the prosperity of the State in such degree.

The Florida Citrus Exchange offers a functioning and thoroughly organized vehicle for orderly marketing. It has a long and successful history as great as that of any other marketing agency. It has done more than all other agencies combined to create markets for Florida citrus fruits. Its good work is restricted, however, by the fact that two other boxes of Florida fruit are in price competition with every box it sells.

Charges of inefficiency and lack of aggressiveness are made against the Florida Citrus Exchange. The chances are that most of these come from non-members seeking alibis for their own failure to co-operate with other growers. Some of the charges may originate with members who have failed to actively participate in the management of local associations, the real source of authority in the organization.

Whatever the circumstances, the board of directors of the Florida Citrus Exchange composed of some of the best business men in the State owe it to themselves and to Florida to remove all causes for criticism or to demonstrate conclusively that as a matter of fact such causes do not exist to any serious extent. There ought to be definite, prompt and positive procedure to this end.

Then the banker, the business man, the chambers of commerce, the newspapers and all interests affected by the prosperity of citrus Florida, should get wholeheartedly behind the Florida Citrus Exchange for the purpose of placing under its direction the handling of not less than seventy-five per cent of the oranges and grapefruit grown in this section. Through this means the cost and crime of disorderly marketing can be removed and citrus growers paid for the fruit they produce what it is worth. Let us have action—the situation is critical!

While only a five-year-old candidate Mr. S. Bonus is a war veteran.

Leading candidates are Cal, Oscar, III, Henry, William, Gifford and a lively Mr. S. Bonus.

Every candidate has two reliable supporters, but both of them are holding up his socks.

Oscar Underwood is from Alabama. If he uses an anti-mummy song platform he will be elected.

Mr. Lower Taxes is a presidential candidate appealing to all except men too rich to pay taxes.

If Coolidge is elected again he gets four year's rent free. That's enough to make any man run.

McAdoo lives in California. If he promises less climate but a better quality he is elected.

Ford lives in the United States. His platform should be more parking places and less cops.

Johnson is a Californian. If he proposes less and better movie scandals he vote for him.

Coolidge promises, if elected he will be nice to Europe and not throw any rocks at Lloyd George.

Mr. S. Bonus is a private issue who plans to do a lot of fighting this presidential campaign.

It took the Civil War Veterans 55 years to get their bonus. Ours say they can't afford to wait.

Pinchot is strong for prohibition enforcement. This would change things from what they are now.

Interesting Meeting of the Florida Baptist Missionary Society at DeLand This Week

IN THE SOUTH—MONEY FOR NEW CONSTRUCTION EARNS A HIGH WAGE

ALMOST overnight vast changes are being wrought upon the sky-line of Southern cities. New office buildings, hotels and apartment houses are rushed to completion to meet the ever increasing demand for business and living quarters.

The South can afford to offer attractive terms for capital—money works hard and earns a high wage in the South. Atlanta needed $20,600,000 in 1922 for new construction; Jacksonville, $5,800,000; Tampa, $3,100,000; Birmingham, $7,300,000; Memphis, $20,900,000; Knoxville, $5,042,174—and still the demand for accommodations far outstrips the building program.

Can you imagine a better security for your money than improved central business property in one of these great cities, property carefully selected by a house whose intimate knowledge of real estate conditions in Southern cities is the result of 58 years' experience in this field?

Adair Protected Bonds yielding as high as 7%, are secured by first mortgages upon the highest type of income producing properties in Southern cities. In every case the true value of the property is far greater than the amount of the loan, and the earning power far in excess of the greatest yearly interest and principal payments necessary to retire the loan.

The rigid system of safeguards surrounding these bonds has been evolved from 58 years' experience, during which time not one investor has ever lost a dollar through a first mortgage investment recommended by this firm.

If your money is not earning as high as 7%, we would suggest that you investigate Adair Protected Bonds without delay. Thousands of investors have found in these bonds a means to greatly increasing their incomes without sacrificing one iota of safety.

In this booklet are included those features concerning first mortgage investments which are vital to the investor's welfare. It will enable you to select Southern mortgage bonds of the highest type and thus secure a liberal income with absolute safety. Write today for your copy.

The greatest financial authorities are agreed that there is no better security in the world than a high grade real estate bond.

Adair Protected Bonds, issued by the South's oldest mortgage investment house, and scientifically safeguarded by our exclusive protective features are the standard of comparison.

HONOR SYTSEM AT THE PRISON FARM IS A BIG SUCCESS

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 10.--Approximately four times as many prisoners escape from state road camps, where they are kept most under guard, as get away from the State Prison Farm at Raiford, where the honor system is used.

This is shown by records available in the state prison department. The average number of prisoners kept at work on roads throughout the state range around 1,000, it is stated, while those at the prison farm average about 400.

During the eleven months of this year ending with November 108 prisoners escaped from the road camps as compared with ten that left the Raiford farm. A great many of those that get away from both road camps and the farm are recaptured.

The figures for the eleven months in 1923 compared with those of last year showed that the escapes from the road camps in 1922 were slightly fewer while those from the farm were almost double the escapes this year.

Escapes from both departments show considerable increase over 1921. During that year 79 prisoners got away from the road camps while only seven left the farm.

Pugilism was first brought into prominence by James Figg in London in 1719, and was particularly popular between 1734-1750, when Jack Broughton flourished. To this noted boxer we are indebted for the invention of the boxing gloves, or muffer as it was then called, as well as for the first code of rules, from which those at present in use have been developed.
