Lookouts Force Visitors To Use Three Hurlers

Leesburg Secures 12 Hits Off Atwater In His First Loss

The Leesburg Gondoliers made it two straight wins over the Lookouts last night by defeating the locals 7 to 5 before a small gathering of Sanford and Leesburg fans at the local ball park.

Charlie Atwater, ace Sanford hurler, went down in defeat for the first time in five starts so far this season when the Leech aggregation nicked him for a total of 12 hits which included a single, double and triple by Soddy Groat, ace Gondolier center fielder who took the batting honors.

Atwater went the entire route for the Lookouts. He walked four men and sent five Gondoliers down via the strike-out route.

The Lookouts collected nine hits off three Leesburg pitchers. Jim Brenner started on the hill for the Gons but was relieved after hurling two and a third innings by Gates. Brenner was nicked for three hits that were good for a pair of runs.

Gates pitched until the seventh but, after doubles by McDaniel and Mihalic he was sent to the showers in favor of Jo-Jo Marina. Gates was blasted for four hits in three and two thirds innings that were also good for two runs. Marina was nicked for two hits during the remainder of the game.

A lefthanded hurler whose name could not be learned this morning, has been signed by the Lookouts and he has been sent here by the Nashville Vols of the Southern Association.

Young was sent here by Joe Engel and he played excellent baseball in the five exhibition games. However, he strained a muscle in his right arm and it hampered his throwing considerably.

Independent Club Cannot Play In Conference Loop

Regular School Teams Would Be Ineligible For Tournament

The independent high school baseball club which was organized by several baseball-minded youths will not be able to play in North-eastern Conference competition this season due to rules and regulations of the conference.

Robert Howell, manager and spokesman for the independent club, said that replies to the many letters sent to clubs in the surrounding cities had all stated that they would not be able to play in Sanford team because if they did it would rule them ineligible to participate in the coming Northeastern Conference baseball tournament which this season is creating more interest than in many previous seasons.

The club is to play Jack Purdon's outfit, another city team, on the Ninth Street Park this afternoon and they are slated to meet a Geneva club at the same park Sunday afternoon. The game is scheduled to start at 3:00 o'clock.

Howell stated that the line-up would include Roy Dunn in left field, Buck Ferguson on second base, Howell behind the plate, Pete Tills on shortstop, Leslie Howard on third base, Billy Colbert or Ashby Jones in right field, Sam Wits on first base, Douglas Stenstrom in center field and Red Williams on the mound.

Coach Leonard L. McLucas, head athletic instructor at the Sanford High School, announced today that he plans to have a two-week Spring basketball training camp for the benefit of the youth who will compose the local high school team. Initial drills will begin next week and that approximately 50 youths are expected to report. McLucas further declared that the local five were going in to competition to win their second Northeastern Conference Championship.

McLucas who will work from 10:30 until noon, Tuesday through Thursday, will train the team in the gymnasium. Pete Tills, Bill Dunn, Wase Wensley, Red Williams and Pete Echols, Armistice day is not a legal holiday in all states.

IN THE FIELD OF SPORTS

A youth who has cinched a regular berth with the Lookouts although hampered with an ailing leg, is Ray Clark, centerfielder. Clark is a youngster of 22 years of age and this season he is making his professional baseball debut. Clark came here from his home in Athens, Tenn., after he was signed by Manager Lacy several weeks ago. He suffered a leg injury in the second practice session but he continued to hustle since he had three tough men against him.

Manager Lacy decided to manage from the bench and he transferred Win Brown to first making room for Clark in centerfield. Clark has hit very well since returning to the Lookout line-up and plays a fine record for fielding without errors.

Clark began his baseball career in high school and later was signed with the Hardwick Mills outfit in Athens where he played two seasons. They won the Tennessee State Amateur Championship in 1937 and he hit .375 while playing in the center field position. He set a league record by hitting consecutively 12 times in three games.

Clark bats and throws right-handed and is a fast man. He weighs 171 pounds and stands six feet one inch in height. He has been a paying male with Red Dockery, new Sanford second baseman for the past three years.

GET THE "RIDE" SENSATION OF THE YEAR IN THE BIG PLYMOUTH "Roadking"

Today's leading lowest-priced cars cost about the same...but one stands out!

That car is the big, beautiful Plymouth "Roadking"...with a remarkable new ride that's the year's sensation of the lowest-price field...

It has more room, more riding comfort...engineering's last word in safety features. It has amazing power and record economy...BOTH!

And it's easy to own...your present car will probably represent a large proportion of Plymouth's low delivered price...balance in surprising-ly low monthly installments.

PLYMOUTH Roadking 5-PASSENGER SEDAN $685

—"Detroit delivered price," including front and rear bumpers and bumper guards, spare wheel, tire and tube, foot control for headlight beam with indicator on instrument panel, ash-tray front and rear, sun visor, safety glass and big trunk space (19.3 cubic feet). Plymouth "Roadking" models start at $645. "De Luxe" models slightly higher. Plymouth prices INCLUDE ALL FEDERAL TAXES. State, local taxes not included. Convenient time payments.

TUNE IN MAJOR BOWEN'S AMATEUR HOUR, C.B.S. NETWORK, THURS., 9-10 P.M., E.S.T.

Airplane-Type Shock-Absorbers
Plymouth's double-action, airplane-type shock-absorbers swallow road shocks for better because they control both the up and down movement of all four springs!

Rubber-Cored Body Mountings
To prevent road "drumming" and vibration from reaching passengers, Plymouth engineers have developed "live" rubber body mountings to do away with metal-to-metal contact between body and frame.

These new body mountings—together with Plymouth's new scientific sound-proofing—block out road noises and vibration...give a smooth, "hushed" ride.

Biggest of the 3
It's important to know that the Plymouth "Roadking" is really the biggest of the three leading low-priced cars...it is nearly 7 inches longer than one and more than 10 inches longer than the other.

Financing Power Engine Mountings
This advancement keeps engine vibration from being "telegraphed" to passengers.

One of the first things people say about the Plymouth ride is—"You can't feel the motor!" And Plymouth is famous for the economy of its 52-h.p., "L-head" engine, with full-length water jackets and 4-ring pistons. Owners report 18 to 24 miles on gas...lowest oil consumption!

Try Plymouth's New Ride
To know today's lowest-priced car values you must drive the big new Plymouth. Telephone your nearby Plymouth Dealer for a demonstration today. There's no obligation. Plymouth Division of Chrysler Corporation, Detroit, Michigan.

Mark Wilcox Carries Seminole County As Sharon, Barnett Lose

Carter Receives Huge Majority

Buford, Thomas, And Chapman Win Count For Supreme Court

Mark Wilcox turned the tables on Claude Pepper in Seminole County and won almost as sweeping a victory here as the junior senator had throughout the rest of the state. Carrying 12 out of 16 precincts in this county, and receiving more votes than Pepper in both the city precincts and the county precincts, Wilcox received almost as many votes as all of his opponents put together.

Following 1937 votes out of a total of 1612 cast in the entire county. The Herald's unofficial returns indicated Wilcox received 109 votes more than his nearest opponent, Senator Pepper, who got 1177 votes. Sholtz received 227 votes; Moore, 23; and Archibald, 4.

Wilcox's total vote in the 11 county precincts was 792, while Pepper received 513 in the same territory. Sholtz had 265 outside of Sanford, Moore, 23, and Archibald, 4 in the city precincts, the vote was: Wilcox, 1145; Pepper, 941; Sholtz, 259; Moore, 19; and Archibald, 4.

County precincts which went for Pepper were Paola with 41 for Pepper and 28 for Wilcox, 23 for Wilcox; Geneva with 79 for Pepper and 67 for Wilcox; and Oklawaha with 31 for Pepper and 11 for Wilcox.

Oklawaha and Forest City appeared to be Sholtz strongholds as they were the only precincts in which he was not low man in each of these he ran second losing the former to Pepper and the latter to Wilcox.

In the other state races, Rivers Buford won a two to one victory over Senator Gillis, receiving 2193 votes to 1068 for his opponent, Judge Thomas of Fort (Continued on page six)

Pepper Wins

The sweeping victory of Claude Pepper in his race for re-election to the United States Senate is a remarkable testimonial for the persuasiveness of the junior senator.

Just how this amazing feat was accomplished is beyond our comprehension for the two are as diametrically opposed to each other as the poles of the earth.

It was, of course, well known that if Senator Pepper could unite the vote-getting qualities of the New Deal's various "pump priming" programs and the $200 a month pensions advocated by the Townsendites, he would have a winning combination.

That he succeeded so effectively and so adroitly in doing this proves that a large part of the public still has its mind definitely fixed on the federal treasury in Washington and is determined to get, each his share, as long as the pie holds out.

In such a contest it is apparent that those who don't, haven't got a chance. As long as the federal government is spending billions of dollars, and has millions of people all over the country on its payroll who are primarily interested in perpetuating that system, the candidates who endorse such reckless extravagance are bound to be elected.

One can only wonder how any such system can possibly be stopped short of completely national bankruptcy.

The G-Men's Plight

If there is one agency of government which has received unstinted praise throughout the Roosevelt Administration, it is the Federal Bureau of Investigation where G-Man Hoover has pursued with relentless determination all public enemies.

The underworld with its gangsters, racketeers, dope peddlers, thieves and swindlers, well supplied with the funds of vice, must have enjoyed a hearty laugh at the plight of their sworn foes who cannot extract a miserable pittance from a spendthrift government to keep them going.

Three hundred and twenty agents have been laid off. In June a similar number will be given payless vacations. It all seems so silly and inconsistent for government to fire 640 trained men when it is spending millions on relief projects, which have neither the social nor economic value of the work performed by the FBI in its battle against organized crime.

If there is a government agency that has justified its existence and returned value to the people in the exercise of its functions, it is the federal bureau of investigation. The people, who have watched Edgar Hoover and his associates rid the nation of gangsters and other criminals, will not accept the pat explanation for the curtailment of forces that the budget cannot stand the expense of $173,000.

Something is wrong with the federal budget setup when money can flow so freely from Washington for every sort of a purpose and then develop into a niggardly trickle of economy when it comes to the needs of the nation's most powerful agency against crime.

THE TRAITOR OF ATHENS

As a youth, Alcibiades had every chance of becoming the leader of Athens, city of his birth. He was reared under the roof of Pericles, the great leader of Athenian democracy, and was a student of the philosopher, Socrates.

Alcibiades, according to historians, had a likable personality and an amazing amount of ability as a ruler of men, but his insatiable desire for the luxury of power many times led him to "sell his country down the river" for selfish motives.

Athena's rival city was Sparta, a highly militarized antithesis of all that Athens represented. When Pericles attempted to raise the cultural level of Greece, Athens was classed by the populace as a "tyrant city" and Sparta seized its opportunity to strike.

For nearly 30 years there followed a bitter war between the cities, ending in disaster to Athens. During the third year of the war, Alcibiades entered Athens, killing off Pericles and half Athens' population. At this time Alcibiades found an opportunity to set out on a brilliant career and complete Athens' downfall.

He involved Athens in an alliance with Argos against Sparta, then planned an Athenian attack on Sicily to destroy the Spartan colony of Syracuse. Alcibiades involved in a scandal at home on the eve of departure, he fled to Sparta, told them of the Athenian plan, and in 413 B. C. joined that city in a crushing defeat of his own army!

All of Athens' young men—40,000 in number—were either killed or thrown into the stone-quarries of Syracuse, where they died of hunger and thirst. Not satisfied, Alcibiades fomented a revolt of Athens' allies, then fled to Persia and threw in with the saphones.

He persuaded the Persians to send a fleet to destroy Athens but at the critical moment joined the Athenians again in defeating the Persian fleet! He commanded Athens' fleet for four years in 407 B. C. regaining official command of the sea.

Next, Alcibiades led Athens in a defeat over Sparta, and set out to crush Athens' ancient enemy, Persia. True to form, at the last moment Alcibiades again deserted his country, joined the Persians and succeeded in destroying the entire Athenian fleet.

A traitor to every master he ever served, Alcibiades died at the hands of an assassin in 404 B. C. Tomorrow: Death underground!

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON—Some of Congress' fiercest advocates of the neutrality act have gone staid on it for one immediate reason—Spain.

Under the act, this government prohibits shipment of war supplies to either side in Spain. Observers generally concede that the result has been to deprive the Loyalist Spanish government of any supplies while the Franco forces have continued receiving arms, ammunition and soldiers from Germany and Italy.

The cold logic which dictated the neutrality policy was that this country should keep out of European affairs even if it meant that the Loyalist Spanish government would be defeated. But the underdog plight of the Loyalists has helped to change the minds of many not only in Congress but outside. The members have been drizzled with a deluge of postcards and letters demanding immediate repeal of the neutrality act before the Loyalist defense crumbles.

There is almost equally intense pressure from the other side, for many individuals and organizations, notably Catholics, endorse the insurgent side and would like it to win.

Yet some of the change in attitude has come because of another phase of the matter. For a number of years the United States has followed a policy in Latin America and Cuba of giving aid to the governments in power to suppress revolutionary movements. It has been very successful in this regard and has been a major factor in the general welfare of the continent.

Some members of Congress now fear the departure from the policy of aiding only established governments will also be plucked from the country. They have appealed privately to President Roosevelt and the State Department to prohibit the embargo of arms to either side.

Congress was spurred on to hasty action by an attempt of a New Jersey second-hand dealer to send a shipment of old planes to the Loyalists. He got his ship out ahead of the embargo—but the insurgents captured it.

Some members of Congress now fear the departure from the policy of aiding only established governments will also be plucked from the country. They have appealed privately to President Roosevelt and the State Department to prohibit the embargo of arms to either side.

Under the regular neutrality act the President would be able to end the embargo of arms to the peace and security of the United States—what you would like to see.

But in the meantime stop the shipment of established planes. Congress passed a special act which prohibits the President to send the embargo of arms to the insurgent side—regardless of whether the government in power is a revolutionary movement. It has been very successful in this regard and has been a major factor in the general welfare of the continent.

RACE TRACK GAMBLING

MIAMI HERALD

The issue of night horse racing will be debated in south Florida with the appearance in Supreme court of the Hollywood Jockey club, asking for night racing next year.

Of course, there is no reason why horses should not race at night. If the sport of kings is to be opened to the working class of people, who are unable to attend Hialeah Park or Tropical Park through the afternoon, then the night track is the answer.

But Florida is rapidly getting to a point where it must decide just how far racing and race track gambling can dominate our winter seasons.

For a number of seasons the merchants have asked, without satisfactory consideration, for a five-day racing week. It was promised them, but never delivered. It has become increasingly evident that the racing season will like a vast vacuum cleaner to withdraw money from the legitimate channels of trade and deposit it in the coffers of those who operate the tracks, or into the state racing tax which supports county government in most of the little counties of the state.

A little racing may be a good thing to pep up the winter season. But if all other activities are to be discontinued to race track gambling—and that's what it may come to—then south Florida must soon decide to call a halt on the insatiable demands of the tracks, or abandon this winter resort area to economic as well as political domination by racing interests.

That is the paramount question raised by the Hollywood track's application. The people may as well begin to decide it now as later.

Lookouts Lose To St. Augustine By Score Of 13 to 9

Joe Ruggiero Blasts Out Four Hits In Four Attempts At San Marco Park

SAN MARCO PARK, ST. AUGUSTINE, May 1.—Little Joe Ruggiero blasted out four hits in four attempts at the platter last night to produce half of Sanford's eight hits, but the Lookouts were on the short end of a 13 to 9 score in their contest with the St. Augustine Saints.

Ruggiero's four hits, however, failed to send any Lookouts across the platter, but the little Italian tallied three runs himself. Big "Chief" Cook started on the hill for the Lookouts and hurled five complete innings before he retired in favor of Bob Hunsicker. Cook was blasted out for eight hits, that produced seven runs. Hunsicker gave up seven hits in three innings that gave the Ancient City crew the remaining six tallies.

Although securing only eight hits, the Lookouts forced the St. Augustine outfit to use a trio of hurlers on the hill. Smitherson started for the Saints and pitched five and two-thirds innings before giving up the duties to Sigmon. The Lookouts got three hits off Smitherson which were good for four runs. They got safeties off Sigmon while he hurled three innings and they went hitless when Carl Weigle went into the tiff to pitch only a third of an inning.

Batan, St. Augustine center fielder, also found the ball last night when he hit safely four times in five tries. The Saints scored their initial run in the first frame and set the lead in the third when Sanford pushed across a pair of runs. However, the Saints rolled in the fourth to secure five runs. The Lookouts scored another in the fifth as did the Saints. St. Augustine scored three runs in the sixth and two again in the seventh.

The Lookouts pushed across two runs in the eighth while St. Augustine secured a one tally and the Sanford outfit rallied in the ninth to score three more. The Saints had only three men left on the sacks while for Sanford an even dozen men were stranded throughout the nine-inning affair.

Place To Hide In Case Of Air Attack

PITTSBURG, Kas.—"Is this where we go when we have an air raid?" asked Jo Ann Barr, 7, when she arrived at the home of her grandparents in Pittsburg. She was pointing toward a door leading to the basement.

With her brother, Gene, 5, she had just arrived from Nanjing, China, where she lived through an air raid by the Japanese.

Her father, Julius Barr, is a pilot in the personal service of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek, head of the Chinese government.

Rate Reduction For Compensation To Workmen OK'd

Savings Of 17.5 Percent Is Afforded Firms In Florida

TALLAHASSEE, May 3.—An average reduction of 17.5 per cent in workmen's compensation rates has been approved by Insurance Commissioner W. V. Knott.

This reduction, the first general slash since the act became effective July 1, 1935, calls for 5.9 per cent more than was asked by the national council on compensation insurance. It was pointed out by Commissioner Knott, who also is state treasurer.

To avoid confusion, Knott explained that all 600 industry classifications in Florida will not receive the maximum reduction as each is based on its individual loss experience and premium volume. Several classifications are expected to show a slight increase because of adverse loss records.

In his blanket order to the council and all companies writing compensation in the state, Knott set out the following reductions in addition to the 11.6 per cent filed by the council:

1.4 per cent for excess reserves; 2.5 per cent for change in no dependency section of compensation law by 1937 amendment; 1 per cent because of reduction of expense loading from 41 to 40 per cent. Knott requested that the expense reduction be taken from claim expense, reducing that item to 7 per cent.

The rate revision and expense loading changes were ordered effective May 1 on outstanding as well as new and renewal business.

In an effort to base future rate revisions on more up to date experience, Knott requested July 1 as a uniform effective date, based upon data brought down to Jan. 1 of the same year.

Commissioner Knott said that conservative administering of the act and intensive safety work by Wendell C. Heaton, chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission, played a major role in the reduction.

Figures filed by the national council showed 1937 Florida compensation premiums of $3,256,543 and incurred losses of $1,566,243.

Throngs Witness Election Returns Given By Herald

Along the curbs of the street and others were standing against the buildings on the east side of Magnolia Avenue.

Shortly after 8:00 o'clock the first returns began to come in. Special representatives of The Herald stationed in the various precincts throughout the County telephoned returns from their precincts as soon as they were available thereby giving citizens of Seminole County the first opportunity to get an account of how the returns were going.

Associated Press bulletins every 15 minutes indicated progress being made by the candidates for state-wide offices and for United States senator.

Those who congregated in furnishing returns from the County precincts were as follows: Orin R. Mathews from Geneva, Gordon Barnett from Fern Park, E. W. Talbot from Oviedo, H. C. Parker from Golden Rod, W. B. Ballard from Altamonte Springs, Bear Lake and Forest City.

CITY BRIEFS

The weekly drill of the Sons of the Legion Drum and Bugle Corps will be held in the American Legion on Hut tonight beginning at 7:00 o'clock. Advisor Percy Mero led today.

A permit has been granted to James Shephard to erect and erect a building at 291 Willow Avenue at an estimated cost of $150, records in the City Hall showed today.

Work in tearing down the building between Snow's Barber Shop and the Duquesne Theatre where the First House and Realty Company plans to erect a $10,000 structure is progressing rapidly. The upper story of the two story building has already been demolished.

Continued from Page One Pierce carried the county by a slight margin over Senator Futch in the second Supreme Court group. The vote was: Futch, 1189; Thomas, 1187; and Watson, 1021.

In the third Supreme Court group the incumbent Justice Thompson was a sweeping victory in this county over his opponent, John Melvin Hearn, receiving 2241 votes to the latter's 1780. Throughout the State Du-ford, Thomas and Chapman also appeared to have won.

For Railroad Commissioner in Group 1, Seminole County gave its vote to Eugene Matthews, the incumbent. He received 1933 votes to 822 for Davis and 841 for Hancock. In Group 2 Jerry Carter received 2282, while Kehoe got 411 and Kink 628.

Clermont lays claim to the distinction of being the only town in the nation not located at a railroad terminal or division point to have a branch of the Railway Mail Association. A charter for the forming of this branch was received last week. The presence of a large number of retired members of the association living there is the reason.

Kiwanis Told Of Motion Picture Publicity Plan

Continued from Page One man said, during which time he exhibited several colored slides of points of interest in Lake County.

The response, he asserted, was so gratifying that it was decided to utilize colored motion pictures. Mr. Lehman stated that arrangements had been made with about 16 hotels in New England for a reciprocal campaign in which the benefits and advantages of each section would be advertised in hotel lobbies of the respective sections. During the summer season displays would be placed in lobbies of hotels in New England advertising the advantages of Central Florida in Winter, and during the winter the same procedure would be followed with regard to New England.

Referring to preparation now being made for Florida's exhibit at the 1939 World's Fair in New York, Mr. Lehman said that Florida's exhibit would be the largest and most pretentious at the Fair.

He told how Earl Brown, who has charge of the Florida exhibit, secured 110,000 square feet of space on the Fair grounds free of any cost whatsoever by convincing Governor Whelan and the board of directors of the Fair that Florida's exhibit was worth more to the success of the Fair than money that could be obtained by charging for the space to be occupied.

Williams and Partin ran neck and neck. Williams led by a slight margin in the city, Partin by a slight margin in the county. The vote was: Partin, 1653; Williams, 1651; and Dodd, 473.

Kilbee defeated his opponent in both the city and county precincts. The grand total of votes was: Kilbee, 2173; McLain, 1522.

For state Democratic Commissioner, S. A. H. Wilkinson won over W. R. Duffrey by a slight margin, while more than a thousand votes were cast for W. J. Toll, but no runoff will be necessary as none is required for the office of commissioner. The vote here was: Wilkinson 1377; Duffrey 1285; and Toll 1673.

Junior Senator Wins Re-Nomination Over Four Opponents In The First Primary

Negro Woman Is Cut Following Argument

Sammy Hampton, a negro woman, is in jail today as a result of cutting Lorina Fryer, another negro woman, severely this morning at the Chase and Company plant where both worked. Deputy Jack Hickson of Sheriff C. M. Hearn's office said today.

The cutting incident followed a little "gossip" argument. Deputy Hickson declared. Sammy Hampton seized a knife and cut Lorina Fryer in several places, wounding her with a bad slash in the side.

The Fryer woman was immediately rushed to the hospital. The Deputy said where her condition is not thought to be critical.

Other states and organizations are having to pay for space occupied, Mr. Lehman reported. This exhibit will mean a great deal to Florida, declared Mr. Lehman, in attracting visitors. "What we need now," he asserted, "is an optimistic spirit to meet the problems that are facing us and put this over."

The Lake County Chamber of Commerce secretary urged as many members of the Club as possible to attend the national convention to be held in San Francisco in June. He said the trip alone would be worth while, especially to those who have never been to the coast before.

Sidney Niz, president of the Club, reported that Howard Long, who has been ill in a Miami hospital for several weeks, is slowly improving and will doubtless be out in another week or 10 days. Roy Fox led in the singing of songs.

Gathering Junk Keeps Cartmen Off Relief

CHICAGO, May 2.—(AP)—Chicago's pushcart men, lean and in pain, don't accept relief as long as their junk collecting business nets them from 35 to 60 cents a day.

The army of "pushcart" men has grown to such proportions as to attract attention. Day and night more than 5,000 of these men struggle through streets and alleys, piling their carts high with junk, mostly boxes and old paper.

The carts are loaned from central junk yards. Paper brings the best prices 15 cents per 200 pounds for ordinary paper and 15 for 100 pounds of the corrugated stuff.

A good hauler can make from 35 to 60 cents a day. One said there are lots of men with trades gathering up paper these days. They make barely enough to keep body and soul together but most important of all it keeps them off relief.

Mingled Views On State Vote Heard In U. S.

Townsend Takes Credit, New Dealers Happy, Hoover Dubious As To Significance

Pepper Sees It As Faith In New Deal

Doctor Maintains It Is "Proof Townsend Plan Still Lives"

The re-nomination of Senator Claude Pepper, Florida New Dealer, Tuesday cheered Dr. Francis E. Townsend, old age pension advocate, today as "proof that the Townsend Plan still lives."

Herbert Hoover attributed France's economic plight to her adoption of "new deal" policies in an interview today. "France is the only European state that is not prosperous today," he said.

Of Senator Pepper's victory in Florida he said, "I don't know how the Democrats could be satisfied with an election in Florida when the New Deal lost 33 percent of its party vote."

New deal leaders yesterday hailed Senator Pepper's sweeping re-election in the Florida primary as a "vital link in President Roosevelt's plan for recovery."

Pepper, who led his nearest opponent by 120,000 votes after campaigning on his policy of supporting the new deal, telegraphed President Roosevelt the Florida election was "a striking vote of confidence and approval" of the administration.

"The people of Florida want you to know this is their response to your recent patriotic appeal to the United States to unite behind your leadership to bring back a speedy recovery and better living and working conditions to the people of America," the senator's telegram said.

John G. Leonard led the race for representative from Group 2 with 1424 votes while George H. Bridge, Jr. was close behind with 1298 votes.
