By MRS. CLARENCE SNYDER Miss Karen Lucella Metzler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Bennett of Sanford, and William Harrison McQuay, son of Mrs. R. P. McQuay and the late Mr. McQuay, of Miami Springs, were united in Holy Matrimony Aug. 12, at 2 p.m. at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Sanford. Rev. Eugene Vetter of Panama City officiated at the double ring ceremony before a bank of palms and two seven-branched candelabra with lighted tapers. Vases of white gladioli, mums and gypsophila with lighted candles flanked the altar. Miss Joan Wilke, organist, presented a program of nuptial selections and accompanied Mrs. Nick Pfeifauf, soloist and aunt of the bride, who sang, "Oh Promise Me," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Given in marriage by her father and mother, the bride was radiant in a gown of nylon sheer over taffeta. The lace bodice had a scalloped neckline, long sleeves pointed at the wrist and the gently-belled skirt had a self bow at the back waistline. The detachable train lined in nylon net was trimmed with sequins and pearls as was the bodice. League with its league to make a dramatic change for the Fall. Whereas all of the youngsters bowled at 9:30 a.m. in the past, due to the large number of youngsters wanting to bowl, we'll be running the Bantams (eight through 12 years of age) at 9:30 a.m. and the older Junior-Seniors (13 through 18) at 1 p.m. on Saturday's. If you want your son or daughter entered onto a team, please be sure that they register at the lanes this Saturday. There was an awful lot of re-shuffling done in the Navy letramural Bowling League on Tuesday night. One of the big surprises was the deadly pin busting by Chuck Redman who toppled a 640-plus scratch series. This was more than enough impetus to carry his G.C.A. team from the half-way point in standings to a final listing of fourth place—good enough for individual team member trophies. This league will have a reorganizational meeting on the base this Friday at 10 a.m. according to the word passed on by league secretary Jesse Carathers.

Plans call for resumption of this league to again utilize all of the lanes on Tuesday evenings at 6:10 p.m. More on this at the meeting on Friday. And then for those of you who just like to have fun bowl-

So far. Mathews has been the key in the Senate during the special session on constitutional revision. He has stood repeatedly to deliver telling points, spot flaws in amendments, or clarify an issue when his colleagues were apparently on the point of bewilderment. Mathews, who will be Senate president during the next regular session unless Republicans win a majority, said there's certain to be plenty of debate among attorneys in the Legislature over proposals for the judicial structure in the new consti-

"If it gets too controversial," he said, "we can always keep what we've got " Gov. Claude Kirk has added 10 days to the original 20-day special session he called to deal with the revision, and Sen. Mathews thinks the job may be finished in 10 days. "At the rate we are going." he said, "I think the chances are excellent that we will make it." A veteran legislative observer and chairman of the state constitutional revision commission that drew up a proposed constitution, says the remaining 10 days may not be enough time. "They will have to increase their tempo to finish on time," said Chesterfield Smith of Bar-

Smith said he is "hopeful that they will come out with a document that will be better than the one we recommended." Smith said the Legislature not only is making substantial progress in its mammoth task, but many changes which are receiving majority votes in the Legislature "are even improvements on what we suggested." The constitution won't be ready for the voter even when the Legislature gets through with it, though. Mathews said that a "group of English professors and real good lawyers" are to spend about two weeks checking each word and comma in the document.
