Newspaper editorials, like the newspapers they appear in, are meant for instant consumption and ready disposal.

But if yesterday's newspapers provide the factual meat for today's history books, yesterday's editorials serve as a sort of subjective history. They are a retrospective mirror of the popular mood at a particular time, reflecting our awareness—or lack of awareness—of events and trends which combined to produce the world and national situations we find ourselves in today.

Exactly 10 years ago, on Memorial Day, 1962, one editorial writer noted that "in this year of peace," newly dead American soldiers claimed our tears.

That March, a plane carrying 93 servicemen to South Vietnam had vanished somewhere in the Pacific. And only a few weeks prior to that Memorial Day, two other soldiers had been killed in the jungle by guerrillas with the strange name of "Viet Cong."

"Relatively few men are involved in South Vietnam," said the writer. "There are not enough to arouse the concern of the American people. They are officially there to 'advise,' not to fight. But some are dying."

The United States is not at war, he went on. Yet President Kennedy had just authorized the awarding of the Purple Heart to men wounded in the Vietnamese fighting.

The editorialist offered up a prayer on that Memorial Day in 1962 that there would be an early end to the conflict in Vietnam, but that if it must continue, some lasting good would come of it.

Today we are still praying for an end to that conflict. Ten years ago, no one remotely conceived that it would surpass the Korean War in numbers of casualties and national treasury expended, that it would become the longest war in our history, that it would force the retirement of one president and be an albatross around the neck of his successor, that it would lead to civil disorder and riots in this country and the deaths of four young students, who were little children in 1962, on a beautiful campus 10,000 miles from Vietnam.

It has been a long and terrible ordeal for this nation. Yet it must end someday, and we can only repeat the prayer that some good will come of it and have faith that the nation will emerge better and stronger for having been through this trial.

The writer concluded his 1962 editorial with words which, regrettably, have only grown truer over the years:

"The flowers of Memorial Day are beautiful and sweet. They are costly beyond price, and sad beyond knowing."

Lottery Operation Broken Combined Raid Nets $35

By BILL SCOTT

Seminole County sheriff's agents and Sanford police combined task forces during the weekend and arrested 39 persons in a series of lightning raids on homes and businesses within Sanford and in the county.

Prize catch in the joint operation that started Friday night and continued through Sunday afternoon was the arrest of a Lake Monroe bar operator and his wife on a number of lottery charges. Also the confiscation of Cuban lottery tickets and approximately $3,243 in cash found in a chest at a Dunbar Street address.

Robert Branch, 41, and Ernestine, his 43-year-old wife, were arrested on warrants issued by Justice of Peace Robert E. Carroll, after agents, serving search warrants charging resale without a license and sale of alcohol on Sunday, discovered what was called a large scale lottery operation.

Sheriff John Polk reported the lawmen seized lottery paraphernalia, including tally sheets, notebooks, approximately $250 in Cuban tickets, an adding machine, four cases of liquor and $3,243 in currency.

L. Charles Fagan, Sanford police, said Branch, who operates the Lucky Star Tavern in Lake Monroe, had just arrived home with a lottery pickup, when the raid commenced on his house.

Both Branch and his wife were charged with sale of alcoholic beverages without a license; promoting a lottery; possession of lottery records and possession of lottery tickets. They are incarcerated in the county jail in lieu of total $9,000 bonds each.

The weekend raids were a result of information given to Sanford police that numerous white-selling operations were being conducted in the Sanford area without proper licenses.

Branch watched while Sheriff John Polk and agents counted the contents of the cedar chest, which contained over $3,000 at the jail Sunday and told The Herald "the money belonged to the church."

He failed to name the church, which he said had ownership of the funds, "he was just keeping for them."

Americans Celebrate Holiday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Memorial Day, winding up a three-day bumper-to-bumper weekend with the nation's public tribute to the men who have fallen in battle from Ball Run to Khe Sanh.

Among the traditional ceremonies scheduled, was the laying of a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery. Rep. William Scott, R-Va., will represent President Nixon, who is winding up his Moscow summit meeting.

In San Francisco, the Coast Guard cutter Resolute will cast a wreath on the sea outside the Golden Gate.

A new memorial to the war dead will be dedicated in Coweta, Okla., the American city which claims to have lost the most men per capita in the Vietnam war.

The northeastern Oklahoma town of about 2,200 has recorded eight young men killed in the conflict.

In Frankfort, Ky., the Marine Corps League plans services at the gravesite of Lt. Presley N. O'Bannon, said to be the first Marine to raise the American flag on foreign soil.

A feature of the observance in Dallas is the lining of drives in two local cemeteries with hundreds of flags, each flown in memory of a serviceman or woman and given by their families.

In Pay Dispute Special Meeting Asked

By DONNA ESTES

Longwood — "Belly-achin" notwithstanding, members of this police force will have minimum salaries increased by $25 monthly to permit participation in the state administered, federally financed, revenue sharing plan for subsidizing law enforcement salaries.

At least, Mayor Kenneth Brown will do all in his power to get the increase for six officers on his city's force.

The mayor told The Herald today he has requested Council Chairman Eugene Jacques call a special meeting of the city's governing body at 7 p.m. Tuesday to approve the pay hikes to make the officers eligible to receive up to an additional $130 monthly from the state.

Brown said he asked for a delay in implementing a recommendation for the pay hike's Thursday night to gain time to investigate all aspects of the program and the costs to the city. The mayor informed in his inquiries he found that the minimum salary for police officers in his city is lowest in the county with the lone exception of the Village of North Orlando and all governmental units in Seminole have either applied or are applying for the subsidies.

The mayor pointed out while the City of Sanford has a minimum salary for its officers at $6,678; the sheriff's department, $6,336; Altamonte Springs, $6,240; Casselberry $6,180 and Oviedo $6,000, the minimum in Longwood is $5,700.

North Orlando's one full time policeman, except the chief of police, is paid $4,800, the village is nevertheless attempting to gain the subsidy.

Brown continued that salaries of six of the city's officers will be raised the $25 for a cost during the remainder of this fiscal year of $750 and finance chairman, Councilman Dick Crenshaw, has assured sufficient unexpended revenues from the municipal court are on hand to pick up the cost.

In addition, the mayor said,

WEATHER

Considerable cloudiness with thundershowers likely. Highs in upper 70s to mid 80s. Low tonight in mid 60s.

Extended outlook for Wednesday through Friday showery and mild weather continuing. Highs mostly in low and mid 80s, lows ranging in mid 70s.

Special Meeting Asked Mall To Be Annexed At Council Meeting

By MARION BETHA

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS—The $9 million Altamonte Mall is expected to be annexed into the municipal limits at tomorrow's meeting of City Council at 4:30 p.m.

The annexation was approved by council last week upon first reading.

The grandiose edifice is located upon 88 acres north of SR 436 and west of Palm Springs Road, and will feature 150 business establishments. Four major stores are planned, to be surrounded by smaller ones and parking will be afforded for 6,000 vehicles.

Developer is Edward DeBartolo Corporation, Youngstown, Ohio, who has indicated ground breaking ceremonies are planned for the first of June.

Also under consideration tomorrow by council is a public hearing for a request for a variance by Day's Inn located north of Spanish Trace Apartments on Wynmore Road. The request is to allow a gas pumping facility in a C-2 zoning area.

Engineer William Palm will give a recommendation upon the bids submitted last week for the parking of Longwood Avenue and Ballard Street. Two bids were submitted for $212,877 and $245,954. Engineers estimate was $141,641.

There may be one heck-of-a lot of cars on the highways this holiday weekend, but there is one . . . conspicuous by its absence.

Does anybody know how to start a $240,000 gas turbine car? The vehicle, said to be the only one of its kind, has broken down eight times since its arrival in New York City, on loan from the federal government for testing as a low-pollution alternative to the internal combustion engine.

Right now, it's out of commission. (Well, at least it isn't stinking-up the air, eh?)

Or, as some of my horseback riding friends would be apt to say, "Heat air pollution—ride a horse." (Which brings us to another pollution problem . . .)

I didn't hear it, but sports editor Gary Taylor tells me of the radio announcement which opines, "The Pentagon announces that there haven't been any deaths reported today in Vietnam . . . but, three people did die of old age, while working around the Paris Peace Talks table."

From The Mailbag: Please be closed just for you to use on your next carwash to see if it will deter lovebugs on your vehicle the same as I found it did on mine last season. Lants through a couple of washings too—the wax, not the bugs.

Another idea I noticed today was using an old window screen lashed across the front of the radiator. Not too pretty but heck are the bugs? Helene Edmondson

Including those which we offered to you in last Friday's edition, this now includes the cumulative totals, as of this morning's mail delivery:

On 45-15 we've recorded 11 in favor, 86 opposed and nine who need more information.

Should the people of Sanford be given the opportunity to vote on whether residency districts should be set up for members of the Sanford City Commission, we have 85 in favor and 14 voting No.

Total Disarmament Eyed Nixon Signs Peace Pact

By FRANK CORMIER Associated Press Writer MOSCOW (AP) — President Nixon and Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev signed a joint statement of long-range principles today agreeing to avoid military confrontations and envisions eventual total world disarmament.

For the near future, Nixon and the Soviet leader agreed in a companion communique to hold a European security conference—a goal of the Soviet regime—quite soon. The conference will aim first at providing for an East-West cutback in military forces in Central Europe, notably those in East and West Germany.

Henry A. Kissinger, the President's assistant for national security affairs, said the return summit would not take place until after the U.S. elections in November. The communique recited the opposing views of American and Soviet negotiators on Vietnam.

Voters Show Feelings

By DONNA ESTES

LONGWOOD — The planned city-wide referendum on the "45-15" school year plan of the Seminole County School Board to go into effect in July, 1973, will accomplish nothing except to allow the voters and property owners of this city to make their feelings known. This was the explanation given to The Herald by Mayor Kenneth Brown, who recommended the question be included on the ballot in a special municipal election to be held for the end of July on a proposed new charter for the city. "This will allow the people of our city to make their wishes concerning the new school year known," Brown said, adding that he does not expect the results to change the firm decision of the School Board to implement the program.

Rather Than Need Nine-Month School Is Habit

(Continued From Page 1) schools offered summer programs for makeup work and enrichment. These were optional and attendance was voluntary, thus the 10-day school year with optional summer program evolved and became the nationally accepted pattern.

Starting with three basic assumptions: Too many students, too few schools and too little money for adequate school construction, the 45-15 committee approached the problem. After an exhaustive study the educators offered the best solution it found — implementation of the 45-15 year-round program.

Until recently, industry, business and the community have accepted this pattern without questioning its basis or challenging its ability to cope with the educational needs of the 1970's. Now, rapid increases in the number of students to be housed has made the need to examine school plant utilization critical. Throughout the country, many means of handling students to achieve fullest use of existing school plants have been attempted but, in most cases, none of these have met with complete acceptance by parents, students and educators.

Between Humphrey, McGovern Exchanges Mark Debate

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF AP Political Writer LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sharp exchanges between Sen. George McGovern and Hubert H. Humphrey marked their first joint television appearance of the presidential campaign. Both said they are eager for the two more meetings before the June 6 California primary. Three issues—Vietnam, defense spending, and welfare reform—dominated the hour-long program Sunday night as the two leading Democratic presidential contenders answered questions from three newsmen. On the attack almost immediately, Humphrey assailed McGovern's claim that he was "right from the start" in opposing the Vietnam war, a criticism McGovern said he found "almost impossible to believe."

When the program, an expanded version of the Columbia Broadcasting System's "Face the Nation," was over, both Humphrey and McGovern appeared pleased with the result. The two senators will appear Tuesday night on a special "Meet the Press" program over the National Broadcasting Co. network and next Sunday on the American Broadcasting Co. program "Issues and Answers." The most heated exchanges occurred on Vietnam and on the McGovern welfare program. The South Dakota senator rejected Humphrey's charge his plan would cost $72 billion but refused to put a price tag on his own proposal.

McGovern's plan involves giving every American a $1,000 "income supplement" and abolishing the present welfare program. At one point, while the two senators sparred over the welfare issue, Humphrey charged that a single person in San Francisco earning $8,000 a year would have to pay $67 more in taxes under the McGovern proposal. "That simply is not true," McGovern interrupted. "Well, it is true," Humphrey replied, adding that a family of four making $12,000 would have to pay an extra $409 in taxes. "And that is not true," McGovern declared. "Now for the senator to say

Resident Threatens With Suit Area Tax Receipts

By DONNA ESTES LONGWOOD — "I want to be shown that the (Larson) property is contiguous and it had better be," said Dr. Gerald Grisson, an adjacent property owner to an annexed 50 acre parcel on the Longwood-Markham Road, threatened Thursday night. Mayor Kenneth Brown assured it is. The Casselberry dentist made the remark following adoption on a four-to-one vote of an annexation ordinance on second and final reading taking the tract into the city with high residential and business district zoning classification. Casting the only negative vote was senior member of the board, E. F. Williamson. Grisson contended that only so many beauty shops, barber shops, and banks can be built on the road before Council is forced to grant variances for other uses such as convenience stores at the site.

Mark Donohue Wins Indianapolis 500

By MIKE HARRIS Associated Press Sports Writer INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Mark Donohue wore the mantle of victory with a smile here Sunday night, but there was an undercurrent of confusion and frustration at the Indianapolis 500-mile race victory dinner.

MARK DONOHUE

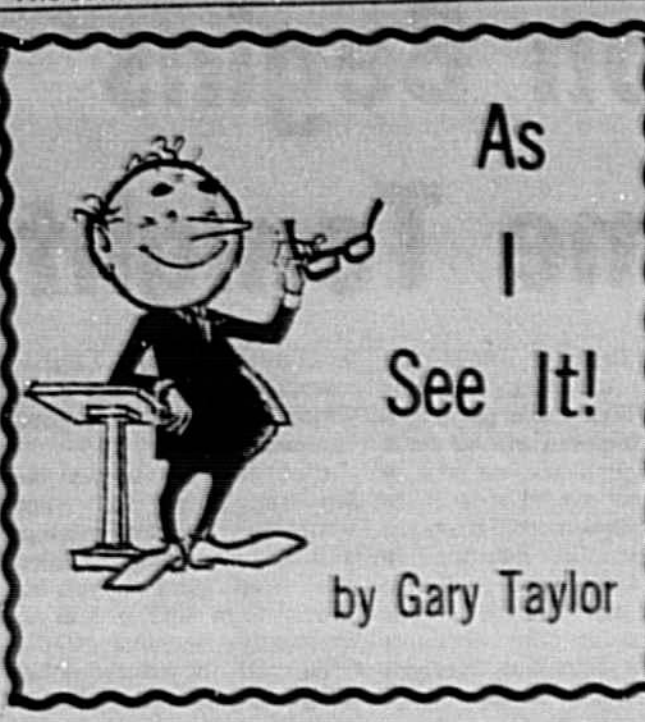

The victory in America's most important and prestigious auto race paid $123,700 into the Penske racing fund. That payoff came from a record Indianapolis Motor Speedway purse of $1,011,845.94, the third straight $1 million payoff at Indy.

But the tenor of the night was reflected in remarks by the 1970 and '71 Indy champ, Al Unser, elevated from third to second place as Jerry Grant was penalized from second to 12th by Speedway officials after a protest by Unser's chief mechanic, George Biunotti.

Grand took on fuel from the tank of his teammate, Bobby Unser, in a voluntary pit stop on the 18th lap of the 200-lap race. Each car is allowed a specific amount of fuel and may not use another car's supply.

Al Unser said, "It's kind of hard to take someone's place. I don't feel like we're jumping here (in second place). Jerry Grant should have been up there talking to you."

NFL Rules Change

Football season isn't quite around the corner, but you grid fans might be interested in a few rules changes that were passed at the annual meeting of the National Football League club presidents.

1. In a move to aid the offense, the in-bounds markers for an NFL playing field will be moved to 23 yards, one foot, nine inches from each sideline, leaving 1 1/2 feet (the width of a crossbar) in the middle.

2. All fouls committed by the offensive team behind the line of scrimmage henceforth will be penalized from the previous line of scrimmage, rather than from the point of infraction. Previously, this applied to fouls on forward passing plays. It now applies to running plays also.

3. It is now permissible for a punt to be returned from the zone, as it has been for kickoffs and, during 1971, missed field goal attempts. Previously, a punt into the end zone was an automatic touchback.

4. If a legal receiver accidentally touches out-of-bounds or is pushed out-of-bounds and returns to catch a pass in-bounds, the pass is completed as an incomplete pass with loss of down only. Previously, the penalty was loss of down and 15 yards.

5. Penalty for grasping the face mask of an opponent was reduced to five yards and an automatic first down, from 15 yards and an automatic first down, unless the infraction is judged to be flagrant. In such cases, the penalty would be 15 yards and an automatic first down and the offender may be disqualified.

6. But while these rules were passed, one that the fans seem to want the most was defeated. That was the proposal submitted to be used to find the winner in all games which are tied at the end of regulation play, not just tie games. The proposal that would make the two-point conversion an option was also defeated.

7. Personally, don't think sudden-death is the answer to finding the winner of tied games. I think periods with set amounts of time should be played to allow both teams an equal chance of winning in overtime. What if one team runs for a touchdown on the very first play of the sudden-death overtime. That's not fair to the other team which didn't even get to touch the ball.

More Homers By Astros

Hitting home runs in the Astrodome was once a seldom enjoyed occasion. Matter of fact, in 61 home games last season the Astrodome only 11 homers were clouted by the Astros.

But in 1972 the Astros bats crushed 14 circuit clouts in the first 15 home games. The Astros didn't hit number 14 in the Astrodome last season until August 25.

The sudden turnaround may be attributed to two things—shorter fences and the addition of Lee May.

Shaving Strokes

by Frank Beard

Early in the season your swing will feel a bit awkward. That's because it is. Your muscles are shortening.

This is as good a time as any to get your swing. The arc is the path the clubhead follows and is distinct from the plane, the angle you swing on.

First, remember to keep a firm left arm. Then concentrate on taking the club straight back from the ball as far as you can without letting your body sway to your right.

You'll be amazed at how much bigger you can make your swing. You'll hit the ball much farther as a result.

Bob Lunn Wins On 18th Hole

ATLANTA (AP)—"I can't remember hitting the putt on 18," said an almost-dazed Bob Lunn Sunday after he ended a year-long victory drought on the pro golf tour with a two-shot victory in the $130,000 Atlanta Golf Classic.

"I think everyone goes through these things," Lunn said of the lengthy slump that had seen him win only $7,307 on this year's tour before grabbing the $38,000 first prize here.

"I don't know what happened," he said. "My putting slacked off and I was not hitting the ball as well."

Lunn started the final round at the hilly, 6,883-yard, par 72 Atlanta Country Club course in a deadlock for first with South African Gary Player.

Lunn went to the finishing hole with a two-shot edge and won the $130,000 Atlanta Golf Classic.

Other individual matches on the card have Bob Griffin (the Scorpion) meeting Mike George (the Scorpion) and George Harris meeting Mike George and Greg Peterson facing Johnny Eagle.

Eve Crabtree New President Sanford Jr. Woman's Club Installs

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI

Installation of officers was the order of the day Saturday, May 20, for Sanford Junior Women's Club at a delightful luncheon at Maison & Jardin, Altamonte Springs.

She used the yellow carnation as her color theme and the wheel as the symbol. "The wheel has been associated with progress, as it rolls forever forward, with the president as the hub, the officer as the spokes and the members as the rim — all of which are necessary for the wheel to stay whole and to move forward." Pretty, perky Eve Crabtree in her acceptance speech as president, told the members that she appreciated their vote of confidence and that she realized that a president is supposed to lead with her chin. "I hope to give you the leadership you deserve. I know you will rise to greatness in the next few years," Mrs. Crabtree stated.

The theme of her administration is "build a better community" with projects and programs to be built around this theme the year around. She announced her appointments for the coming year: Laurie Dickey, fine arts chairman; Linda Rock, home life chairman; Barbara Sherwood, civic education; Joyce Ward, education; Linda McKee, public relations and hospitality; Jan Vihlen, parliamentarian; and Bess Edwards, historian and custodian.

Mrs. Louise Gill won the honor score for achieving the highest number of points which are awarded for activities which bring credit to the club. Mrs. Art (Doshia) Brown, retiring senior sponsor for the Juniors, was overwhelmed with the gifts lavished upon her by her adoring young charges. She was honored as no other sponsor has been with gifts including a silver punch bowl, two sterling napkin rings and a charm denoting her service to the group.

Mrs. Bob Karnes will be the senior sponsor for the coming year.

Past president pins were also presented to Mrs. Sidney (Jan) Vihlen and to Mrs. W. H. (Margaret) Suber.

Dear Abby

Homosexuals: Sick or unjustly persecuted?

By Abigail Van Buren
DEAR ABBY: Recently you printed a letter from someone who claimed to be a "well-adjusted homosexual". There is no such thing as a well-adjusted homosexual; the two terms are antonyms. Homosexuality, male or female, is a form of sexual deviation which is symptomatic of personality disorder. By any reasonable standard of human development, homosexuality is an abnormal human condition which needs competent professional treatment. It is, in effect, a form of emotional illness. I think that you would be interested as I in what your readers think about the subject.

HAPPY HETEROSEXUAL
DEAR HAPPY: By whose definition is homosexuality an illness? There are homosexuals who live socially well-adjusted, discreet, personally happy lives, whose homosexuality would come as a surprise to many of their close heterosexual friends. The fact that homosexuality is morally condemned by most people in our culture makes it seem abnormal. In other times and in other cultures it has not always been so judged. Much of the maladjustment seen in homosexuals is due to the rejection, persecution and guilt imposed upon by intolerant and ignorant contemporaries.

DEAR ABBY: This letter is in reference to a question you asked in your column recently, "Exactly how does one go about thawing out a Swede?" If you ever receive a practical answer, I beg you to publish it at once. You see, my wife, an American born, is of Swedish extraction. Moreover she has an intensely religious background—the kind which stressed "no-no's" concerning anything to do with sex. Because of this she is so inhibited that she is totally unresponsive to my lovemaking. [Unresponsive? Worse yet. She finds it disgusting.] I've tried everything: tenderness, ingenuity, sex manuals, marriage counselors, but to no avail. Now, after 10 years of trying to thaw out my little iceberg, this "flame" is pretty well burned out. Your question, "How does one thaw out a Swede?" has somehow sparked a narrow beam of hope again. If you ever get an answer, do publish it.

DEAR ANSWER: If the Reproductive-Biological Center in St. Louis, Mo., can't solve your problem, nobody can!
DEAR ABBY: Congratulations to your reader, Leonard M. Lake, in regard to his decision to marry a conscientious objector. It does not follow that a person with pacifist convictions could not be a good family man. Take it from me, a spokesman that Mahatma Gandhi. "He who cannot protect himself or his nearest and dearest of their honor by nonviolently facing death, may and ought to do so by violently dealing with the oppressor. He who can neither of the two a burden. He has no business to be the head of a family. He must either hide himself, or most content to live forever in helplessness and be prepared to crawl like a worm at the bidding of a bully." Submitted by: SPENCER H. COZZALINI SAN PEDRO, CALIF.

Worry Clinic By George W. Crane, Ph.D., M.D.

Ada doubts Dr. Joyce Brothers' diagnosis of arising husband. You read the jury! No woman can fully comprehend the erotic viewpoint of mature men.

Case T-581: Ada J., aged 27, has a sex problem. "Dr. Crane," she began, "we have been happily married for 5 years."

"But now I have just learned that my husband spent a night with a former classmate while I was visiting my parents."

"For when she phoned him, he took her to a movie and then invited him up to her hotel room for a drink."

"So who is correct—my husband or Dr. Joyce Brothers?"

"What would make a man do such a thing?"

"Recently I read a remark by Dr. Joyce Brothers to the effect that a promiscuous man is usually looking for an unattainable goal, the 'perfect woman.'"

"But," they protest, "our wives are too preoccupied with the children or church and PTA duties so they are rather indifferent to household romancing."

These same straying husbands also confess that they aren't interested in marrying their paramours!

Petition Drive Starts In Sanford

By BILL SCOTT

Rev. J. E. Connelly, Sanford black leader and a losing candidate in the 1971 city commission race to newcomer John Morris, said today petitions calling for the right of the voters to choose whether they wanted to require city commission candidates to live in designated city districts would be ready for presentation at the June 12 city commission meeting.

The minister stated he had been overwhelmed by the support the issue had brought forth from the white citizens as well as blacks in getting the matter brought back before the city commission.

"Petitions are now being circulated to the white areas as well as to blacks and we hope to have 2,500 voter signatures by June 12," Rev. Connelly said.

He said on the night of the June 12 city commission session, the citizens will be called on to pack the city hall in a show of support.

"If the city commission refuses then to listen to the will of the people, then we have no alternative but to file court action, since we will have demonstrated we have exhausted every other means," he added.

City Commission at its May 22 meeting voted three to two against allowing the people to say whether they wanted districting of the city placed in the new city charter.

Commissioners Gordon Meyer, Julian Stenstrom and A. A. McClanahan combined their votes in an effort to keep the issue from ever reaching the voters.

Mayor Lee P. Moore and Commissioner John Morris voted to allow the districting question to be placed on the December election ballot.

By John A. Spolaki

I'm having a delightful time analyzing the responses to our "Readership Survey," as well as the "We'd Like To Know" questionnaire which covers the 45-15 plan and the districting issue in Sanford.

Those who expressed themselves as being opposed to the 45-15 plan, I really wonder if they'd have voted that way "if the school board" had been able to properly prepare a series of news releases on the subject?

We here at The Herald are trying in earnest to answer the many questions on this subject. . . . from the present series written by our own Bill Scott, to another extraordinary story (coming in Thursday's edition), by our exclusive Copley News Service.

We also believe that you should have the right to be heard. Now, even though the odds are 86 opposed to nine in favor of 45-15 (via our own poll), I believe that 45-15 should be given a chance.

The only reservations I have on the matter include putting senior high school students into the plan, too.

If our dilemma centers around the elementary grades, why not try it first with them. . . . and then if it meets with overall approval, include all grades the following year.

Some of the highlights from Thursday's article . . . "The year-round plan is by no means new. It was tried in Omaha, Nebraska from 1918 to 1940 and in the Allegheny, Pa., public schools from 1929 to 1938. The reasons for the failure of such then progressive programs was financial: as funds became available to build new facilities, the year-round plans were dropped.

"Today it is just the other way around.

"To date, there are more than 100 school districts around the United States that are experimenting with the concept . . . and another 1,000 additional districts are studying the feasibility of the plan."

San Diego has adopted this plan . . . based on the fact that there were no funds to replace school buildings damaged during their recent earthquake. However, only six elementary schools are involved in the pilot experiment.

Surveys taken in those areas where this program has been in operation show that both students and parents prefer the new approach.

A storm system edging across the Midwest today ended nearly two weeks of summer-like heat in the mid continent.

President Nixon Arrives In Iran; Security Precautions Are Taken

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

TEHRAN (AP) — President Nixon arrived in Iran's capital today for an overnight visit and talks with the Shah on regional and world matters.

The President and Mrs. Nixon were greeted at Tehran's Mehrabad Airport by the 52-year-old monarch and Empress Farah after a flight from Kiev, the Niksons' last stop in the Soviet Union following a week of summit talks between the President and Kremlin leaders.

Massive security precautions were taken against attacks by urban guerrillas and other dissident Iranians who were told by Baghdad broadcasts to disrupt the visit.

Among the topics expected to be discussed during the five hours of talks between the two leaders were the future of the Indian Ocean and the Persian Gulf area, which holds 60 per cent of the world's known oil reserves.

The Shah would like to see the United States and Soviet Union agree to let Iran act as the policeman of the area without big power interference. Failing that, the Shah was expected to seek assurance of undiminished U.S. support. The Soviet government's recent friendship treaty with India and the hostile regime in neighboring Iraq have increased Iran's sense of isolation, and it is suspicious of Moscow's intentions in the Gulf.

Wearing a gray suit, white shirt and blue and gray tie, the President looked tired but smiled as he said goodbye to the Kiev airport to President Alexander Lyashko of the Ukraine and other officials.

The weather was clear and balmy as the President and Mrs. Nixon boarded Air Force One after an overnight stop in Kiev, the capital of the Soviet Ukraine.

"It's such a lovely day, I'd like to stay another week," Nixon told Lyashko's wife and Mrs. Vladimir Scherbatsky, wife of the Ukrainian Communist party chief, as they prepared to leave for the airport.

"Why not?" Mrs. Lyashko replied.

"We'll get fired," said Mrs. Nixon with a smile.

The President commented: "I think I'd get in a little trouble at home if I didn't go."

A few hours after the arrival in Kiev, presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger told newsmen that Nixon and the Soviet leaders reached no secret agreements on Vietnam or any other controversial questions.

Council Refuses To Meet

By DONNA ESTES

LONGWOOD — Council Chairman Eugene Jaques, acting on direction from Councilmen Agnes Weber and E. E. Williamson, has refused to call a council meeting for 7 p.m. today for the purpose of increasing the salaries of some six police officers to comply with minimum standards of the state-federal government revenue sharing legislation.

Mayor Kenneth Brown informed the department of the situation and the other two board members have taken the position that more information is needed before they can vote for the 25 monthly hikes in pay for the half-dozen officers to give them a $6,000 minimum annual wage.

When the minimum is raised, the entire patrol force will be entitled to up to $130 monthly salary subsidy from the state.

Nevertheless, the mayor declared he is on top of the situation and believes the pay crisis to be over. With information he has gained from the state Department of Community Affairs police standards board, "We can slash this all out at the regular Council meeting on June 4," Brown said.

The chief executive said in the interim, he and police commissioners William Klosky and John Morris discussed the matter with Police Chief R. E. Sweet and going into every aspect of the police budget to provide justification for the increase. "We will analyze the budget in detail," the mayor said.

Brown added the state department told him that as long as police standards cards are returned to Tallahassee containing training records of all the officers by the June 3 deadline, the subsidy for the city policemen will still be considered. The mayor explained this gives the city a few additional days grace to raise the minimum salaries to $6,000 annually.

Convicted In Drug Bust

By MARION BETHA

A purple heart recipient, veteran of the Vietnam war, who was one of those convicted in the December drug bust shoot-out at K-Mart shopping center, gave an impassioned plea for probation before Circuit Judge Dominick Salfi this morning.

Judge Sanders, 23, 660 Jasmine Drive, Casselberry, was scheduled to be sentenced after conviction on April 21 by a Circuit Court jury of the crimes of a criminal offender having a firearm and aggravated assault. He was exonerated of the crime of attempted robbery.

Assistant Public Defender Gerald Rutberg told the court that Sanders involvement in the crime was minimal. Rutberg went on to cite the non-criminal background of the defendant, stating he was outside the confines of the law on only one occasion, but for the better part of his life exemplified a good American citizen.

Continuing, Rutberg said that of the 200 plus defendants which he has represented, the success factor of probation was greatest in Sanders, even should he be placed in jail.

"This man's good factors far outweigh the bad factors," Rutberg exclaimed. The court requested Sanders review his participation in the crime, and Sanders elucidated he was supposed to drive the truck; that he was told he would make a great deal of money, and that all he was to do was deliver the truck to another man.

Sanders told the court he was willing to spend the rest of his life on probation to prove his fitness in society. "A criminal doesn't want probation," Sanders maintained. Continuing his recap of the crime, Sanders said that another defendant, Steve Cooper, told him there was no "dope" and the men were "scared."

Sanders said he drove to the K-mart parking lot and was told to wear goggles to obviate prints. He was given a rifle, he said, and told he might have to use it. However, Sanders emphasized he never shot the rifle, and was unaware there was "dope" in the cab of the truck. The rifle, he said, was under the seat.

Sanders said when narcotics agents commenced shooting he was scared since he was unaware they were police officers.

Families Will Go At The Same Time

By BILL SCOTT (PART 2 of 5)

The question of housing facilities in a school system, which is to operate on a year-round basis involves more than just providing floor space. There are seven major areas of inquiry where strategies must be devised.

These include: pupil related concerns; personnel related concerns; instructional related concerns; facilities related concerns; auxiliary services related concerns; and cost related concerns.

With each of these concerns, there are sub-areas for detailed investigation. These will be identified in their appropriate major areas in the course of this series.

In the field of pupil related findings, the first concern, the school system will utilize census cards to obtain student information. All students presently enrolled will fill out the same type form before attending classes in any school.

It is necessary that students in the same family, living at the same address regardless of the school they are attending, will be scheduled for the same session (A,B,C, or D).

When correctly filled out, the family section on the census card will assure proper family grouping. Students will then be assigned to schools based on the attendance zone in which they live and on the enrollment capacities of the schools.

Each high school will serve as the control center (enrollment office) for schools in its particular feeder system. Where there are children in the same family who will be attending schools of different grade levels, such as elementary, middle or senior high schools, the eldest child's schedule will determine the session for the younger children.

The procedure will insure proper family grouping. The census cards will also designate transported and non-transported students and the cards will be so marked by the enrollment officer.

Utilizing data processing, a report in the form of a print-out will provide the transportation information.
