

Last Of Veterans Of 1861-'65 Are Nearing The End

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—The long march of the Blue and the Gray is about over.

This Memorial Day, fewer than a billion survivors of the 60 million who fought in the American war of brother against brother that ended 87 years ago.

This long and bitter struggle played so important a part in our national story, it is still so close to us as a people, it seems incredible that soon even the last drummer boy who took part in it will have been swallowed by time.

The earth is a tomb of many vanished armies, but few will live longer in memory than those that contended under the banners of the Federal Union and the Confederacy from 1861 to 1865. Those memories in many minds even now are like sensitive scar tissue.

Historians now class the War between the States—also known as the Civil War—as the first modern war, and certainly it made many changes in the art of battle both on land and at sea.

It truly was a big war, considering the population at the time. The North threw 2,128,948 men into action and suffered 349,844 casualties. The number of troops on the South's side is debatable. Northern historians put the figure as high as 1,400,000 out of a white population of only five million. Estimates by Southern historians go as low as 800,000. Woodrow Wilson said the South put 900,000 men in the field and placed their losses in killed and wounded at 133,821.

As in most wars before the development of sanitation techniques, disease took more lives than bullets. The North, for example, lost only about 115,000 men from combat wounds. It lost nearly 200,000 through diseases.

The cost of the war is still going on, mainly now in the form of payments to the widows of veterans. But ever once in a while someone still tries to get the government to pay for a mule that one of U. S. Grant's men in blue stole from his great, great granddaddy's farm.

The North ended the war by the grinding weight of superior manpower and industrial might. But although finally worn down, the South managed to emerge with most of the heroes.

Certainly today when schoolboys, both North and South, read of the great battles of that war, their hearts go out most to the chief of "The Last Cause"—soldiers like Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, and that sabre-wielding, Jeb Stuart.

Grant was a titan indeed. But youth there is a quality that admits a leader who fights gallantly in the face of almost certain defeat. That is why the South's commanders now hold high a plumed to boys growing up in Iowa as well as in Alabama. It also explains why young men make better soldiers than old men.

My own favorite of that period has always been Stonewall Jackson, who died and left an immortal name at 39. Field Marshal Rommel once came over to the Shenandoah Valley to study Jack-

What People Do With Savings Is Causing Concern

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—How much money the American people are saving—and how set they are against cracking these nest-eggs—puzzles a lot of people.

The experts differ, even on the amount. Americans are putting away some say it was 17 billion dollars last year. Others say less than seven billion.

What the thrifty ones will do with all this money interests the planners—whether they're financial officials worrying lest it be used to start up another inflation wave, or businessmen who have been pinched by the consumers' yen for thrift and would like them to spend more freely again.

If even that lower amount of savings should be turned loose, it could start business up again fast, and probably price inflation, too.

"Savings have had their skittish moments in the past when their buying power was threatened, as evidenced by the two buying rushes after Korea," the Institute of Life Insurance says.

The Institute cites the Department of Commerce figures that total personal savings in 1951 exceeded 17 billion dollars, or about one out of every 13 dollars of total personal spendable income after taxes.

The government arrives at this high figure by taking the total of personal income after taxes, subtracting the total spent on consumer goods and services, and calling the remainder personal savings.

But a considerable part of what it calls savings couldn't be turned into cash quickly. If at all, the government counts as savings, for example, the payment on mortgage and other debts.

Those who stick to the lower figure argue that savings should be long-term liquid savings in the true sense of a nest-egg. They include: Time deposits in commercial banks, mutual savings banks, share accounts in savings and loan associations, life insurance policies, U. S. savings bonds, and postal savings deposits.

If you count only these the total savings are now more than 103 billion dollars, a gain of just less than seven billion in 1951. This compares with 142 billion dollars at the end of the World War II and 67 billion at its start.

Others would add currency and demand deposits, government social insurance funds, state and local government bonds, and corporate securities. If you add these, Americans saved 13 billion dollars last year.

Whether it was 17 or 13 or seven billion, it is credited with having helped check inflation. And it certainly made a lot of merchants and manufacturers unhappy.

Are Americans ready to cut loose and spend again?

The Institute of Life Insurance thinks the American consumer is in the better position now than ever before to decide for himself whether he'll spend or save.

The increase since 1939 in the percentage of families having more than $5,000 a year income, says, means that "more Americans than ever before now have incomes that provide a margin over and above necessities and thus have the choice of stepping up their savings or their spending as the time and conditions warrant."

Also the Institute notes that the holding of durable goods per family is at record high, thanks to the rush of buying since the war, and "along with this higher earnings this gives the average consumer greater latitude in deciding whether to save or to spend."

The Institute's one question left: How come some people saved 17 billion when most citizens think they couldn't save anything?

Negroes Seek Decision On Entering U. Of F.

DAYTONA BEACH (AP)—An attorney here representing five Negroes who want to enter the University of Florida Wednesday said he had asked the State Supreme Court for a final decision in the case.

The attorney, Horace E. Hill, said he asked the court to hear his motion June 9.

The U. S. Supreme Court has refused to review the case, begun in 1948, because the State Supreme Court had not yet handed down a final decision.

The Negroes are Virgil D. Hawkins, Jacksonville; William T. Lewis, Ocala; Rose Boyd, Martin; Oliver R. Maxey, Gainesville; and Benjamin F. Finley, Ocala. Hawkins and Lewis want to enter the college of law. Miss Boyd the school of pharmacy. Maxey the school of chemical engineering and Finley the college of agriculture.

Ike Refuses Active Drive For Top Spot

General Pledges Ar- gument Over Honest Differences But No Political Quarrels

PARIS (AP)—Against a backdrop of Communist-inspired tension in the political arena, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today turned over his command of Allied Defense Forces in Europe to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway. High officers of supreme headquarters of the North Atlantic Treaty allies and a French delegation headed by Defense Minister Rene Pleven witnessed the brief ceremonies on RHAF's front lawn.

By The Associated Press
Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, surrendering his defense command in Paris today, said he will refuse to engage in an active campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

A spokesman for Eisenhower's campaign headquarters in Washington said, however, that what the general meant by that statement was that "he won't go on any transcontinental train trips or go around shaking hands."
"He will," the spokesman added,
"talk to anybody who comes to see him. And that includes party leaders as well as delegates."

The spokesman said the head of every delegation to the July 7 Republican National Convention has been invited to call on Eisenhower before the convention to learn his views on the major issues of the day.

He said the talks to be held at Abilene, Kas., New York and Denver, will be "give-and-take sessions. The delegates can ask the general anything they want."
Eisenhower turned over his North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) command to Gen.
Matthew Ridgway in Paris and let it be known he'll shed his uniform on Tuesday.

Eisenhower is one of the two leading contenders for the GOP nomination. His chief foe, Sen.
Robert Taft of Ohio, reportedly has changed the general to his highest into a full-fledged campaign and made his views known on many issues.

On that score, Eisenhower told his staff and confidants in Paris
he would welcome "healthy arguments over honest differences."
But, he said, "bitter quarrels for quarrels' sake are bad for the country and I oppose them."

Some Republican senators have expressed the view that intra-party feuding may hurt the Republican's chances for the presidency in November.

Asked if he would comment on whether the election of Taft would have a discouraging effect on Europe, Eisenhower checked and replied: "I most certainly would not — I am still in uniform."

Meanwhile, a frontal attack on Eisenhower's record, launched by Taft supporters in South Dakota, helped to heighten the clamor attending the general's imminent return.

The Ohio senator's supporters bought newspaper advertising space to assail Eisenhower, due

3 Persons Killed In Tokyo During Martyr Day Riot

Gangs Of Demonstrators Throw Torches And Acid On Police

By The Associated Press
TOKYO (AP)—Police killed three rioters in Tokyo today as Communist Martyr Day demonstrations erupted into violence in scattered parts of Japan.

The three demonstrators were slain when police opened fire on a mob of about 200 which hurled acid and stones at it advanced on a police box in a northeastern suburb.

One of the injured was not known. Police arrested 11 persons.
The National Rural Police reported late tonight they had made 103 arrests in putting down 22 demonstrations involving 12,000 persons throughout Japan. They have no figures on injuries.

The bloody fighting at Itabashi broke out when police warned the demonstrators advanced any closer to a police box. The mob then was only about 10 feet away.

Latest reports placed the number of arrests at nearly 100, but the number of injured was small.

Demonstrators throw flaming fuel oil torches and squirted sulphuric acid from water pistols in a flare-up at Shinjuku Station in Western Tokyo.

Japanese police, alerted for such an outbreak, held the upper hand late tonight as they systematically herded demonstrators away from the station plaza and down narrow side streets.

Two policemen and three newspapermen were injured at Shinjuku.
About 16 demonstrators were arrested there.

One of the newsmen hurt was Associated Press Correspondent
William C. Barnard. The others were a Japanese reporter and a Japanese newspaper photographer.
Barnard said the flare "sizzled
like a sparkler."

One of the injured policemen was hit in the eye with flying acid.
The newspaper Asahi reported that demonstrators at Kobe, about 270 miles southwest of Tokyo, slapped and bruised five Magazine Reporter John Dille earlier in the day.

Asahi said about 100 Japanese and Koreans parading near an international terminal.

Protest Is Filed Against Russians In Security Zone

Police Cars Patrol Paris Streets To Prevent Disorder

REILIN (AP)—The Western Allies
filed sharp protests with the Rusmeasures taken in East Germany in the last few days and demand Allied autobahn patrols between Berlin and Helmstedt be permitted to function.

Noted by British, French and U.S. officials here is Soviet Gen.

actions in East Germany such as establishment of a "security zone" along the frontier, worked against possible reunification of Germany.

Earlier, the Russian sector of Berlin had restored telephone service to West Berlin but only on lines that would be controlled by the Communists and thus subject to tapping.

West German postal authorities rejected the offer and said they had demanded "full and free" intra-city communications as they had existed before the cutoff Tuesday.

The East proposed to open in lines, all of them running through the Central Security Police switch board in the downtown Soviet sector. More than 2,000 lines between the East and West sectors have been cut since Tuesday.

Barriers were being erected at dozens of places where the American, British and French sectors touch on the "Buffer Zone."
None was being put up however on the Soviet sector border within the city itself. The Russian sector is about one-fourth of the city.

Secretary Of State Seeks Legislation On European Pacts Guaranteeing Peace

President Truman, greeting Secretary of State Acheson at National Airport, declared today that pacts allying West Germany with the Western anti-Communist bloc has made a "great contribution to the peace of the world."

Acheson said agreements signed in the past week at Bonn and Paris will mean "very much to the security of our nation, our allies and all the free world."

The task now, Acheson told the President, is to proceed with legislative action in the U. S., that means Senate consideration of the agreements which have been completed and signed but which must still pass the test of ratification.

As Acheson stepped down the ramp from Truman's own plane,
"The Independence," which had brought him home from Paris, the President with outstretched hand, said "Hello, Dean How are You?
congratulations you did a grand job."

One of the major problems before Acheson is that of countermeasures by the United States, Britain and France against the lightening of lines between East and West Germany and the Soviet-imposed travel difficulties between West Germany and Berlin as reparal for the forging of new German links with the West.

Some consideration has been given here, it is understood, to making a show of power on the Western side, perhaps by flight of military planes in the German airspace, in order to remind both the Russians and the Germans of Western firmness in German policy.

The Air Force is reported to have

Vukovich Sets Early Records In Indianapolis Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Alfredo Vukovich, Italian racing champion, wrecked his Ferrari car in the 50-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway today in a record time of 1:29:04.

At 100 miles Vukovich had broken the record set by Earl W. Wall and set a new record of 1:29:04.

Earl W. Wall's record of 1:30:00 was set in 1946. Vukovich's record was a new record of 1:29:04.

The 50-mile race was still running when Vukovich's car crashed. It was 11:30 a.m. when the race was called off.

Daughter Born To Alleged Murderer

TAMPA (AP)—Mrs. Alice Cliffe, 37, charged with murdering her four-year-old son, has given birth to a six-pound daughter.

Dr. J. H. Cliffe, Jr., of the Tampa General Hospital, said the baby died after three days of beatings and a diet of nothing
but water, and three nights of being hung by the neck so his toes
just touched the floor.

Cliffe admitted the Cliffes admitted they were only punishing
the boy for disobedience and had no idea he would die.

The husband, John W. Cliffe Jr., a painter and farm worker,
was the stepfather of the dead
child. Toward Wayne Bulham, Deputy Sheriff Ernest Culbreath said the boy died after three days of beatings and a diet of nothing
but water, and three nights of
being hung by the neck so his toes
just touched the floor.

Cliffe admitted the Cliffes admitted they were only punishing
the boy for disobedience and had
no idea he would die.

"That does not sound very startling. But to a nation that still seethes with hatred, it brought a healing touch. Northern families who had not had a good word to say about Southerners since they had lost precious sons in the fighting felt suddenly ashamed. A wave of reconciliation swept over the land wherever the item was read."

Southerners Launched Memorial Day To Heal Wounds Left By The War

TAMPA (Special)—It was the 1860 gesture of a group of Southern women, decorating graves of both Union as well as Confederate veterans, who helped launch a Memorial Day and heal the wounds of Civil War, a Tampa researcher has found.

In a letter to D. B. McKay, who conducts the Pioneer Florida series
each Sunday in The Tribune, James Aldridge wrote:

"In April, 1866, the long War Between the States had been over for a full year, but the women of Columbus, Miss., had not forgotten the Confederate dead. On a certain day toward the end of the month it was the 29th, to be exact, they came with arms full of flowers to the cemetery on the outskirts of the city.

"Only seven years before, this 18-acre area had been the recreation ground of the Odd Fellows or order of Columbus. Then, on a sad Spring day in the year 1862, a long caravan of wagons, carrying men killed in the Battle of Shiloh, came to the grounds. Altogether, about 1500 Confederate and nearly 100
Union Soldiers were laid to rest under the magnolias.

"The women who brought flowers to honor their beloved dead showed a spirit that was above any narrow sectional feeling. The South still lay prostrate under military occupation, and in Washington vengeful leaders, such as

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

It is the radar of the soul. A feeling of certainty gives courage and wisdom to life. We walk by faith, not by sight.—2 Cor. 5:7.

A worm lives only for himself.
The higher forms of life live more and more for others. That is the measure of a man. He just lives his life for my sake shall find it.—Matt. 10:39.

The cost of groceries is going up,
but all of us should remember that everything that goes up, comes down, and the higher the fall, the harder.

As a result of his winning 19 out of 24 delegates to the Democratic convention, northern newspapers are beginning to admit that Senator Russell has a pretty sizable following in this state as well as throughout the rest of the South.

In spite of all the efforts made to acquaint the public with the difference between "Russell Candidates" and those "Pledged to Russell," we have encountered some since the election who thought they were one and the same. No doubt the Russell vote would have been much larger, had it not been for the political trick which succeeded in confusing so many people.

All of us sometimes have the desire to call people we don't like "left," "warmongers," "mass kidnapers of children," as President Truman did the Russians the other day, but usually we resist the temptation. It seems a little bit like descending to their level, it seems to us when the President of the great United States gives vent to such emotional outbursts.

Vice President Barkley announces that he is available for nomination to the presidency by the Democratic Party. He would make a good one. Unfortunately he is now 74 years old, would be nearly 80 before his first term of office expired. In the event he is nominated it would be well to be more careful than usual in selecting the vice president for his running mate.

Two big citrus leaders are being ferred to a CIO union organizer as a Communist. He says he isn't. And he may not be one. But he could be one and still deny it. And it would be hard to prove in either case. It is probably better not to call a man a Communist under any circumstances, but we wish there were some way of scaring the wolves out of their sheep's cloth-

Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'- clock the third of Sanford's public housing projects will be officially dedicated. William Clark Court with its 85 housing units combine with Castle Brewer Court to give the isolated people of Sanford some of the finest additional housing units to be found anywhere in the country. Sanford residents who do not see either of these two projects should make it a point to attend the ceremony concerning the laying of the cornerstones. They will be surprised at the extent and attractiveness of the project.

They hardly read the newspapers these days without realizing something is wrong somewhere in the foreign policies of the various nations of the world. We all are getting along together and live full of cats and dogs of all kinds. Riot in Berlin, Tehran, and even in this country, and even in this country almost as if planned to bring about a general collapse of the world. It seems as if the world is pulling apart at the seams.

Pact With Germany

Last minute objections by France were overcome and the pact between the West and West Germany has been signed by the foreign ministers of the countries involved. France had feared that the Germans, who are to be rearmed as part of the European Army set up by the pact, might one day turn on Europe and set out on a program of aggression as German armies have in the past. The assurances of Great Britain and the United States apparently convinced the French foreign minister; whether it will convince the French Parliament to ratify the treaty is another matter.

Achieving European unity is not an easy task. Any European army would be ineffectual without German participation. Yet most of the free nations of Europe suffered from German attacks and are naturally suspicious of the intentions of a country which so recently held most of Europe captive.

The threat of spreading Communism may be sufficient to make these countries forget the past and welcome Germany as a partner in holding off the Reds. Some assurance should be given to the other Atlantic Pact nations that German militarism will never again raise unchecked. But Russia presents the most immediate danger and perhaps mutual need and mutual peril will serve to break down the barriers of hate that are centuries old.

Air Force Linguists

A group of Air Force officers have been enrolled in a special language course at Cornell University. For one year the airmen will study Georgian, the language of the country in which Stalin was born, Ukrainian, Czech and Rumanian. The program is designed to give the officers a working knowledge of the languages.

Whenever United States forces have gone they have been handicapped by a lack of members trained to speak the language of the country. Administering the occupation would have been easier had there been more Americans able to speak various tongues. Often international incidents could have been avoided had the individuals involved been able to understand one another.

It is important that the services have men trained to speak the language of the Iron Curtain countries. Dealing with people from those countries, getting and assimilating information from behind the Iron Curtain, understanding the attitudes of the people, all depend to a great extent on familiarity with these languages. The experiment at Cornell is interesting and worthy.

Holiday With Two Names

Decoration Day differs from our other holidays in having two names. When established soon after the War between the States, it was called Memorial Day, and this term is still common. Decoration Day came into vogue in later years, though it would take a statistician to determine which designation is more used.

The United States may be the only nation which has appointed a special day on which to commemorate its deceased soldiers. As such it is observed in the North and to a somewhat lesser extent in the South. Virginia terms May 30 Confederate Memorial Day, and North and South Carolina had their celebrations on May 10, while Florida's is on Apr. 26.

Originally meant as a day of solemnity, it has come to be one of enjoyment, largely spent in picnics, ball games and motor trips. This is not unnatural. Even Sunday has been known to be spent in such fashion. It would do no harm however, to devote a few moments in the day to thinking about our country and the brave men who gave their lives for it in the past.

Ike's Campaign

in Washington Sunday. The general resigned as Allied defense chief in Europe to be available for the Republican presidential nomination if offered.

The advertisements underscore the bare-knuckle nature of the Eisenhower duel for South Dakota's 14 GOP presidential nominating delegates to be chosen in a primary Tuesday.

Citing Taft's stand on top issues, the ads said Eisenhower is on record for universal military training (UMT) and the draft of women in wartime. They linked Eisenhower to what was called the Democratic administration's "plan for unnecessary foreign aid and wasteful spending."

UMT and administration policies are unpopular in heavily-Republican South Dakota, where the military draft has taken many youths off the farms.

Eisenhower backers campaigning there have contended Taft favors "some kind of UMT but not other kinds" and has strung along with a lot of the administration's domestic proposals.

South Dakota newspaper editors, surveyed by the Associated Press, predict Taft will get 51.2 per cent of Tuesday's GOP vote, with 48.8 per cent for Eisenhower.

It will be the last clearest contest between the two top-running Republican nominee-candidates before the July 7 nominating convention at Chicago.

Taft got a boost from Alabama Thursday, when a Birmingham convention completed the state's 14-vote slate. The result: Nine for Taft, four for Eisenhower and one uncommitted.

This makes the Associated Press tabulation of delegate strength—

In Tokyo, more than 1,000 demonstrators sang, shouted and banged. Police squashed hurled themselves at the demonstrators and generally broke them up into small groups which they herded down narrow streets and lanes, away from the railroad plaza.

Some 2,000 metropolitan police have been mobilized for possible trouble after the Reds announced they planned a show of strength to mark the anniversary of 1949 Communist demonstrations here in which one of their number was killed.

U. S. military police also were alerted and stood a close guard at the Dai Ichi Building, United Nations and Far East Command headquarters.

The Shinjuku Station outbreak was the only major disturbance reported.

There were demonstrations here and in Kyoto against an anti-subversive bill before Parliament, but no violence resulted.

At 125 miles Vukovich had lapped every car except second place Rutman and had set another record for the distance. His average was 132.726, breaking Wallard's 130.079.

At 61 laps (152.5 miles) Vukovich stopped for fuel and a tire change and Bulltman took over the lead.

causes for which they died, and for which we continue to battle.

Such was the Memorial Day statement in Tokyo by Gen. Mark Clark, the new Supreme Allied commander in the Far East. His thoughts turned to Korea, where United States and other United Nations troops are engaged with Communist forces, he added.

"It is here that we meet the test of America's determination to protect a defenseless people from the brutality and terrorism by which the forces of Communism have degraded and enslaved millions of human beings."

Clark also mentioned the major league teams scheduled for Memorial Day games, and the minor leagues followed suit.

And there was the 500-mile auto race here last year at the Indianapolis Speedway.

At Arlington, Va., across the Potomac River from Washington, D. C., memorial and wreath-laying services are expected to set at longhand records this afternoon.

President Truman sends a wreath to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery. Wreaths on his behalf are also being placed at three other monuments to the unknown Civil War Soldier, Confederate Memorial and Spanish War Memorial.

Since the first American fell in the Revolutionary War, about a million men have died at battlefield wounds or disease. They died at many places—at Saratoga, Chancellorsville, Manila, based on concessions, pledges, instructions and avowed preferences—now read: Taft 411, Eisenhower 386, GOP nomination requires 604.

Big topic on the Democratic side was Vice President Alben Barkley's announced willingness to be a presidential nominee. If peace were elected, the spy "Veep" at 74 would be the oldest man ever to become president.

Barkley's statement—that "while not a candidate in the regular sense," he would accept Democratic nomination—brought cheers from supporters touting him as a harmony candidate.

Barkley has 26 1/2 delegate votes recorded for him in the Associated Press tally, including 15 pledged from his home state of Kentucky.

Sen. Estes Kefauver, who leads the Democratic tabulation, also got a one-state push. Tennessee pledged him its 10 votes for a nationwide total of 110. Georgia's Sen. Richard Russell is second with 66 1/2, followed by Mutual Security Director W. Averell Harriman with 61.

Nomination at the Democratic July 21 convention in Chicago requires 618. The other avowed Democratic candidates are Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio and Sen. E. A. Tamm of Virginia.

interior, gave Duclos a tongue-lashing in a broadcast to the nation and promised the government would maintain order "whatever may happen."

The three million member Communist-led General Labor Confederation (CGT) has issued a call for immediate strike action. It was too early to tell what success this Red maneuver would have.

Brune, the man who had Duclos imprisoned on charges of plotting against the "late, accused" him of ordering "rebellion" to voicing the views of his party before the National Assembly. Duclos is top man in the French Communist Party during the absence of Maurice Thorez, who is in Moscow reportedly for his health.

The Communist newspaper, L'Humanite and Liberation, pro-Communist, appeared on the stands today. They had been confiscated Thursday after rioting had caused the death of one demonstrator and injuries to many others on Wednesday night. The Reds had called the demonstrations in protest against Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway as successor to Gen. Eisenhower at SHAEF.

South Started It

yer in Ithaca, N. Y. The time would come when Frances Miles Finch would risk one of the highest courts of his state and would help Ezra Cornell and Andrew White to found a great college in his home town.

Writes Poem
"But in 1866 Finch stuck to his briefs with implacable as he was all for becoming a poet. He must have had what it takes. After reading of what the women of Mississippi had done, he wrote:

"By the flow of the inland river,
Whence the fleets of iron have fled,
Where the blades of the grave-grass quiver,
Asleep are the ranks of the dead:

Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the other, the Gray,
Under the other, the haunting elixir:

"So with an equal splendor,
The morning sunrises fall,
With a touch impartially tender,
On the blossoms blooming for all:

Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Brothered with gold, the Blue,
Followed with gold, the Gray.

Sadly, but not with upbraiding,
The generous deed was done;
In the storm of the years that are fading
The noblest battle was won:

Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the blossoms, the Blue,
Under the garlands, the Gray.

"No sooner had Mr. Finch's lines appeared in The Atlantic Monthly in September, 1867, than they were copied all over the country. The poem became a favorite recitation-piece in both the North and the South. Like the paragraph in The New York Tribune, there is no knowing how much it contributed to the fratricidal feeling between the two sections.

"It also helped to make a holiday. The example of those Mississippi women had so caught hold of popular imagination that a move-

There are 76,448 graves at Arlington. Officials say that, at the current rate, no space will be left in its 420 acres by 1969.

Acheson Praised

This after a week of intensive diplomacy was Acheson's record:

1. Completion and signing at Bonn of a peace contract with the West German government giving West Germany virtual independence. This requires action by the United States Senate as well as the British, French, and German Parliaments before it can become effective.

2. The signing at Paris of an amendment to the North Atlantic Treaty extending security guarantees in the pact to West Germany. This also requires Senate and parliamentary approval in the other NATO countries to become effective.

3. Observance of the signing by Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg at Paris of a treaty to create a European Defense Community (EDC) and defense force. The United States had strongly backed this French device for keeping a halter on German rearmament and it had to be completed along with the peace contract and NATO organization, suggested a uniform plan for adding West German strength to the anti-Communist alliance.

The EDC treaty will require German, French and other parliamentary approval to become effective. U. S. Senate action is not necessary. Observers here and in Europe freely predict tough legislative battles over the project.

ILLEGAL MISSION

TOKYO (AP)—The government officially told the Russian mission today in effect that it is staying here illegally.

There was no reaction from the Russians.

The ministry of foreign affairs notified the Russians "the office of the Soviet member, Allied Council for Japan, ceased to exist as from the same date the Allied occupation ended—April 28."

Russia refused to sign the Japanese Peace Treaty.

HARRIMAN SPEECH
HYDE PARK, N. Y., (AP)—W. Averell Harriman said today those who argue the United States should keep its money and men at home are offering "counsel of despair and defeatism."
The Democratic presidential aspirant said there "are those among us—some in high places—who seek to undermine" American determination to block communism from world conquest.

Parents Are Guests Of Westside Primary

Parents and friends of Westside Primary School children were the guests when the children and teachers entertained recently with each room presenting a program on some special phase of their school work.

The second grade boys and girls, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Irene Watt, presented a varied program of readings and group singing. On display were notebooks with attractive butterfly covers in which spelling papers are kept. Around the room were mounted pictures which the children had done in their art work this year.

The program given by the third grade was centered around a large picture of a tree. In the picture were many birds and the boys and girls took turns telling about each bird. Under the direction of Mrs. Escur Price the children had made and beautifully colored the tree and the various birds.

Visitors in Mrs. Reigel's fourth grade were entertained with stories told by the children and then inspected an interesting exhibit of clay work. Also on display was special work the boys and girls had done in their science class.

The first grade pupils and their teachers, Mrs. Marion St. John and Mrs. Martha Beard, had entertained their parents and friends in a special home on Elm Avenue honoring Miss Joyce Anderson, bride-elect of Douglas Freed.

The living room was attractively arranged with various bouquets of gardenias and variegated carnations. The dining table was overlaid with an imported lace cloth centered with an artistic arrangement of yellow and flamingo gladioli. Appointments, including the punch bowl, were of crystal.

A number of games were played including fortune telling with a crystal ball. Prizes were won by Mrs. Frank L. Woodruff Jr. and Mrs. Beatrice Anderson.

Miss Anderson chose for the occasion a dress of pink linen which featured a lavender trim. She wore white accessories.

De Bary Doings

Three of us from De Bary, went to the Sanford Grammar School on Wednesday morning to be the guests of the students in Room 8 at their class play of "Peer Gynt". The play was given for the benefit of a little German girl, Vera, a victim of the war, who has been adopted by the class. We are proud to have been invited by these children and proud, too, to live in a community where children are being given such fine training not only in academics but, more especially, in brotherhood and world citizenship.

Miss Lucille Campbell, their teacher, did an excellent job of casting and coaching. The children showed remarkable acting ability and little Vera, could have been seen there, would certainly be proud of her American friends.

We believe that Miss Fabian will be the first DeBary girl to be graduated from De Land High School.

Last Saturday evening, a number of his friends gave a surprise party to Mrs. L. E. Leffler presented him with a gift. He left for Jacksonville on Tuesday to enter the service.

Aleno Rolls On As Blues Lose 10th Of 14 To Senators, 8-2

By KENT CHETLAIN
Sanford's floundering Seminole Blues will try to "save face" this evening when they journey to Orlando to play the final tilt of their two-game series with the Senators. Last night Orlando's Neil Zimmerman all but put the finishing touches on a humiliating Sanford losing skid by registering a two-hit 8-2 triumph over the Blues.

This extended the Seminoles' deficit record to 10 losses in their last 14 contests. The only bright spot in the defeat was the 14-run home run smashed off the bat of manager Chuck Aleno in the initial frame that saved the Blues from being shutout.

Aleno also chimed in with a scratch infield single in the seventh inning back of second for the only two hits the Seminoles were able to get off Zimmerman last night. The giant fielder now has a humbling record of one hit in 10 at-bats in the circuit drive to place him one back of Orlando manager Ed Levy's league figure of 12.

The two RBIs raised Aleno's production to 64 for this season, only 76 behind the FFL record held by Buddy Lake at 140. Aleno seems destined to crack the former Sanford player's mark as the Blues still have 59 games left to play this year.

The resurgent Senators vaulted into second place in winning last night, passing Jax Beach and picked up 1 1/2 games on the league leading Red Sox, who are now only three games ahead of the park.

Meanwhile, the Blues, despite their loss last night picked up a half game on the Hats as DeLand dropped the remainder of their resumed forfeited game and they lost the regularly scheduled tilt to Daytona Beach. Sanford is still only 5 1/2 games off the pace in fourth place.

Gainesville is menacing the Blues. The G-Men are just 2 1/2 games behind Sanford in fifth place as they picked up a full game on the Seminoles by winning from Leesburg last night.

Manager Chuck Aleno will probably give his old reliable "Nothing But" twirler, Murray Byrd, the pitching assignment tonight in an effort to salvage one game of the two-game set.

Byrd has posted an impressive 7-3 record this season and every one of his wins has been recorded on the road. The last time the Blues played in Orlando they defeated the Senators on the two hit performance of the departed Paul Chery.

Press Box Patter: Jim Imbra's return to the Sanford line up after a three-day suspension was uneventful as the expected infield fanned twice and popped out. Manager Chuck Aleno and Ted Brooklyn were the only Blues not to go down via the strike out route last night in face of Zimmerman's nodious total of 11 Sanford SO's. Jim Holland, rookie catcher from Tampa, made his debut.

Saturday To Be National "Golf" Day In Florida

Hogan Will Compete Against Nation's Golfers In Meet

TALLAHASSEE (Special)—Governor Fuller Warren of Florida today signed a proclamation officially designating tomorrow as Golf Day.

The Governor's proclamation heralded the year's most unusual golf event scheduled to tee off tomorrow, Florida's courses, as well as other courses throughout the country.

An estimated 300,000 golfers throughout America will each play an 18-hole round against the U. S. Open Champion, Ben Hogan.

During this unique one-day tournament, to be known nationwide as "National Golf Day," Hogan will match woods and irons with every golfer—male, female, amateur, "duffer" or expert. Each challenger is permitted his present bona fide handicap rating.

Playing under USGA rules, Hogan will shoot an 18-hole round on the Northwood Club, Dalgia, Tex., scene of the forthcoming 1962 National Open.

Simultaneously, on the fairways of the nation's 4,970 public and private courses, America's weekend golfers and their pros will try to beat Ben's record.

The contestants that will be awarded a specially-cast bronze medal inscribed "I Beat Ben Hogan, National Golf Day, May 31, 1963."

National Golf Day is co-sponsored by Life Magazine and the Professional Golfers Association, in conjunction with the Western Golf Association. The required fee for each contestant will be donated by the sponsors in its entirety in equal shares, to the U.S.O. and the "National Golf Fund."

This fund will be administered by PGA officials, representatives of various national golf associations and golf publications, as well as outstanding amateur golfers.

No part of the proceeds will be retained by Life or the PGA, nor used in any way in helping to defray expenses of the tournament.

Golf professionals, club Golf Committees, and public course officials are currently receiving entry blanks, National Golf Day stickers to be attached to club score cards the day of the contest, sets of official rules prevailing on National Golf Day, and a copy of the "Callaway Handicap System" which helps compute and establish a fair handicap on the basis of a single round for golfers who do not have an established club handicap.

In order to make sure that all contestants receive proper recognition of their scores and that the scores are properly attested, they will be turned over to the club pro, Golf Committee, or public course officials at the end of each round. An additional fee will be charged contestants for each additional round played.

Women contestants will be permitted to play from women's tees, and will be allowed five strokes in addition to their bona fide club handicap.

Radio and TV cameras will follow Hogan around the Northwood course and his score broadcast to every locker room and clubhouse in the land.

"Grudge" Race Is Tonight's Feature At Speedway Race

"Sanford Night" at the Rocket Speedway in Orlando tonight will be highlighted by a grudge race between two outstanding Sanford drivers, "Wild Bill" Tindall and Buddy LePils, racing officials announced yesterday.

Another feature on this evening's card will be the grueling $1,000 Sanford Handicap which will pit the top drivers and cars in this area against one another.

In the unique "grudge" race, Tindall will be driving Owen T. Fergusson's car, No. 34 against an unknown dark horse driver. The dark horse will be at the wheel of car No. 44, owned by Sanford's Buddy LePils. Fergusson is also a native of Sanford.

Seminole High School band will provide the music for the evening with a concert starting at 8:00 p.m. under the direction of Ernest Cowley.

Names drivers like Paul Barnhorn and Sonny Lodge of Sanford, Dick Gailin and many others will provide the racing thrills and chill of the evening.

This evening's Sanford Night at Rocket Speedway promises to be one of the racing events of the year in Orlando.

Shuffling Of U-F Pitching Staff Is Hinted For NCAA

GAINESVILLE (Special)—A slight shuffling of the University of Florida's pitching staff is in the making for the NCAA District 9 tournament at Kannapolis, N. C. next week. The Gators play a double elimination tournament with Tennessee, Duke and Rollins for the right to enter the College World Series at Omaha late in June.

George Reed, junior right-hander who won five and lost one during the regular season, has been switched to the reliever role. Left-handers Dick Brown and Harry Coe and right-hander Jack Hazen for the starting assignments.

The other relief pitchers will be right-handers Bobby Knight, Harry Coe and Harry Carr. Knight will also double as a right fielder when necessary.

Coach Dave Fuller said today that if the Gators draw Rollins as an opening opponent, Harry Coe will take the first mound assignment. Dick Brown will pitch to the mound if Florida's first opponent is Tennessee, and Jack Hazen will be on the "slab" if the Gators open against Duke.

Duke is the "totally" unknown quantity for the Gators. Florida and Duke did not meet during the regular season, but the Gators took Tennessee's measure three times (7-6, 8-7, and 15-1) during the year and defeated Rollins four times (6-1, 9-1, 4-8 and 6-1).

Coe defeated Rollins once (6-1), while Brown downed Tennessee twice (8-7 and 15-1).

Practically all of Florida's pitching during the regular season was handled by the same quartet that will be the workhorses of the Kannapolis tournament. Freshman Jack Hazen led the group with a 6-0 record; Dick Brown turned in a 5-0 performance; George Reed ran up 5-1; and Harry Coe won three and lost one.

Catcher Haywood Sullivan, Florida's T-formation quarterback in football this season who has been followed closely by major league baseball scouts all spring, was the second man in the Gator battery all during the season.

Sportsman's Group Elects Three-Man Nominating Board

The Seminole County Sportsman's Association appointed a three-man nominating committee at its regular monthly meeting last night in the Commissioners Room at the City Hall.

George Moffett, Denver Cordell and J. G. "Slim" Galaway were appointed by Association President Robert E. Johnson to the nominating committee which will select candidates for the annual election to be staged at the next regularly scheduled meeting on June 25.

Reports were given on the sportsman's family fish fry held Apr. 23, at Mullet Lake Park. Plans were made for the stag fish fry to be held June 25, also at Mullet Lake Park.

An exceptionally large number of members turned out for last night's meeting.

M. McDermott Joins Exclusive One-Hitter Club

Rookie Hoderlein's Single In Fourth Mars No-Hit Bid

By JACK HAND
Assistant Press Sports Writer
Wildman Maury McDermott, 27, of Boston Red Sox lefty, has joined Bobby Feller, Bob Cain and Art Houtteman in the American League's one-hit club.

For years McDermott alternated between being a new Lefty Grove and a new Rex Barney. Thursday night he played the Grove role as he faced only 27 Washington batters. For a change he walked only one.

McHoderlein's single with one out in the fourth wiped out his hopes of matching Virgil Trucks' no-hitter. The string bean Red Sox pitcher walked the first batter in the first inning. He was erased when Hoderlein hit into a double play.

Jackie Jensen wiped out Hoderlein's single by grounding into a double play. After the fourth inning, McDermott faced only 15 men. Only four batters, including Hoderlein, hit the ball out of the infield, as he struck out seven in a magnificent job; his third win of the year.

A base on balls to Clyde Volmer and Fred Hatfield's triple gave Boston its 1-0 win in the sixth inning. They collected 10 hits off toughluck Bob Porterfield in breaking their second-place tie with the Senators. Porterfield now has lost five, three by shutouts including Trucks' no-hitter.

While pitching dominated the night game at Fenway Park the batters enjoyed an afternoon field day in Detroit where Cleveland mauling the Tigers, 11-4.

Harry Simpson, whose 1951 flop embarrassed General Manager Hank Greenberg no end, had four hits to take the league lead with 23.

One of Simpson's hits was a bases-loaded homer that greeted reliever Ken Johnson, making his first appearance of the year in the eighth.

The New York Yankees had to use a little "Yankee luck" to get past Philadelphia, 3-2, even with Vic Raschi, the 5's jinx pitcher, on the mound. An eighth-inning error by sub First Baseman Bill Hitchcock let Phil Rizzuto score from second base with the winning run off Alex Kellner.

The New York Giants' seven-game win streak was snapped by Philadelphia, 6-5. Combined with Brooklyn's 7-3 edge over Boston, the Giants' National League lead was clipped to 1 1/2 games.

Two runs in the ninth almost pulled it out for the Giants but Ken Hentzelman finally came in to stop them one short.

Karl Drews was the winner over reliever Hoyt Wilhelm. Smokey Burgess' two-run single with the bases loaded in the seventh clinched the victory.

Brown celebrated his escape from Giant pitching, snapping a three-game losing streak, with a surge of home runs off Max Surkont and Lew Burdette. Andy Pate, Jackie Robinson, Pee Wee Reese and Gil Hodges all homered in the 11-hit attack.

Ralph Kiner's fifth homer and Harry Dickson's pitching reversed Pittsburgh's backward motion to whip Cincinnati, 4-3. Dickson held the Reds to four hits and Kiner, walked purposely three times by Harry Perkowski, hit a two-run homer in the seventh.

Los Angeles and Chicago in the National and American were not scheduled.

Tomorrow At Noon Is Deadline For Entries In Soap Box Derby

With the deadline for entries in the Central Florida Soap Box Derby drawing near, only two Sanford boys have officially registered to enter.

Tomorrow noon is the last time boys between the ages of 11-15 will have a chance to get their names on the registration books at Holler Motor Sales office in Sanford. Holler Motor Sales is supervising the Sanford entrants' bid to win the Central Florida soap box race to be held in Orlando at Derby Hill on July 12.

Murray E. Nance and Claude Hittell, Jr., are the only two boys who have obtained the requisite sponsors needed to register for the race.

Nance is being sponsored by Rountill and Anderson Drug Co., and Hittell will represent the Yellow Cab Co.

C. E. Hittell, director of the local entries and general manager of Holler Motor Sales, expressed his concern over the small number of boys who have registered so far.

"The interest is there but the boys have reported they cannot get the sponsors for the cars," he explained. "I believe this is a wonderful opportunity for not only the boy but the merchants. Merchants should be most willing to back the boys, since it means a lot of good advertising for them."

Under the rules, all boys desiring to enter the derby must find a sponsor, who will give them the money to enter. Once the boy obtains a sponsor he must then go to the Holler Motor Sales office and register on or before tomorrow at noon, or it will be too late," Mr. Hittell advised.

The winner of the race on July 12 in Orlando will be given an all-expense paid trip to Daytona, O., where he will compete in the annual National Soap Box Derby race in August.

After a boy once obtains a sponsor he must then set about building the racer with his own hands. He may obtain all the advice he likes, but the actual job of constructing the racer must be done by himself.

Mr. Hittell concluded by saying he felt if the boys explain the benefits to be accrued from sponsoring them in this race, then they should not have any trouble getting a sponsor for their racer.

The Golden Text is from Isaiah 60:10: "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him."

Bible passages include this verse from Ecclesiastes (12:13): "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man."

Corollary selections from "Peace and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "In a world of sin and sensuality hastening to a greater development of power, it is wise earnestly to consider what is in the human mind at the divine Mind which is influencing it." (p. 82)

Those who are ready

Alert, keen, with eager steps and heads held high in confidence to meet the future, our graduates stream out from the portals of high schools, colleges, and universities. A new life of opportunity commences today for all who have received their diplomas. But are they ready for life? Schools, although of great value to any youngster, cannot guarantee success. A diploma simply states a required course of study for a specific degree has been satisfactorily completed.

In addition to formal schooling our young people must have a more complete preparation with which to face the challenges and disappointments of life. They need the Church and home working together to strengthen their moral and spiritual fibre. Yes, with this combination—school, Church, and home, they will receive that inner strength and trust in God to face life's problems unafraid.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his children; (2) For the sake of his community and nation; (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

William Clark Court Includes 24 Buildings Of 85 Apartments

William Clark Court, located immediately west of Castle Brewer Court in Goldsboro, is an attractive homelike project of 24 buildings containing 85 well-planned living units or apartments, and will accommodate about 310 persons.

The main difference between the two layouts is that more quadruple type units have been built in William Clark Court than in Castle Brewer which has a large number of buildings of the duplex type, containing its 128 units, said E. J. Moughton, architect.

The buildings of William Clark Court, which were erected by the Ewell Engineering and Construction Co., Lakeland, have been completed on schedule and the landscaping, other than a portion facing Mulberry Street, is nearly completed.

Concrete block, one story types with asbestos tile roofing, the neat buildings are arranged in court form with single sidewalks bisecting the front lawn portion and leading to buildings. Concrete driveways permit cars to be parked back of the units.

There are 19 quadruple units of the one, two and three bedroom type. In addition there are three four bedroom duplexes and three triple unit types of which one is four bedroom and two are two bedroom types. A maintenance building provides an office, shop and storage space.

The buildings present a pleasing appearance with exterior finish of three coats of oil paint to the concrete block in shades of green, pink and buff.

Windows have wooden frames, are wide and well screened and are of the awning type. Floors are concrete and the block walls of rooms are finished in pastel colors, with warm shades on duplex and east sides and cooler colors in rooms having south and west exposures.

Kitchens are of large and medium size. Kitchens are especially roomy and walls have enamel finish. Kitchens have white enameled cabinets, and combination sinks and laundry tubs, with drain boards over the tub portions. Other kitchen equipment includes electric ranges and electric refrigerators. Handy to the kitchens are small utility rooms where things may be stored.

Bathrooms have standard plumbing fixtures and in most units the electric hot water heater is located there. The size of the plumbing set up is identical in each unit and all pipes were roughed in exactly the same.

One building is of special interest, being built to accommodate an invalid who has to be pushed about in a wheel chair. For this reason the doors are wider, and the outer door and screen are combined. A wide shower unit is included in the bathroom. The apartment is interconnected with the other apartments in the building.

All units are equipped with fuel oil space heaters placed in recesses. Oil drums are on the back of the building. Garbage cans never be upset; they are recessed flush with the sidewalk. T shaped metal supports have been provided for clothes lines.

The St. Augustine grass has gained a good start and will be maintained for a time by H. Boyer Marx and Associates, who are doing the landscaping. Oak trees, laurel and shrubbery has been planted.

Like Castle Brewer Court, the William Clark project has effected an amazing transformation in Goldsboro in contrast with the standard housing previously located in the area. The cheerful rows of the neat buildings with landscaping and shrubbery presents a pleasant picture.

The children have not been forgotten for two playground areas have been provided in William Clark Court, a small one for the younger group, and a larger for the older ones. A mesh wire fence surrounds these areas.

Some paving with asphalt has been completed by the City, including Olive Avenue, Eighth Street and a portion of Mulberry Avenue bordering the Castle Brewer project. Not yet completed is the major portion of Mulberry Street or Tenth Street, bordering the Castle Brewer project.

Frederick L. Williams served as civil engineer for the new project.

Eight More Killed In Bloody Riots At Prison Camp

No Americans Slain In New Outbreaks At Koje Compound

By JIM BECKER
KOJE ISLAND, Korea (AP)—Eight Red prisoners were killed and 17 wounded in bloody incidents at United Nations prisoner of war camp on riot-torn Koje Island and on the Korean mainland Thursday and today.

Prison camp authorities said no U. N. personnel were killed or wounded in the outbreaks.

The killings raised the toll of reported deaths from violence to 245 prisoners. The Army said 115 of these died at the hands of fellow prisoners after drumhead trials in compounds dominated by hard-core Communist POWs.

Four North Korean prisoners were killed and three wounded today when a 15-man POW work party attacked two Koje S. and two South Korean guards on Koje.

Three Korean civilian internees were killed and 13 were injured Thursday in a brawl among captured personnel moved recently from Koje Island's massive prison camp to a new compound at Yangchon, 60 miles north of Pusan, temporary South Korean capital.

One North Korean prisoner was killed and another wounded Thursday by bullets from a U. S. soldier's automatic rifle, fired accidentally during a guard change in Compound 96 on Koje.

The accidental shooting took place two hours after about 100 U. S. and British troops raided the compound—holding 2,700 North Korean officers and 150 enlisted Red officers—and destroyed their headquarters and dispensary shacks. The U. N. guard troops went in with fixed bayonets. They used tear gas bombs but fired no shots. There were no casualties.

Koje authorities said the four North Koreans killed Thursday died after one member of their work party attacked a U. N. guard during a rest period.

An official Army statement said "in self-defense the guard opened fire on his assailant and killed him. In the fracas one other POW was killed and five were wounded. Two of the wounded died later at the hospital. No Americans were hurt."

Major Gen. A. J. H. Cassels, commander of the U. N. forces at Goldsboro in contrast with the standard housing previously located in the area. The cheerful rows of the neat buildings with landscaping and shrubbery presents a pleasant picture.

The children have not been forgotten for two playground areas have been provided in William Clark Court, a small one for the younger group, and a larger for the older ones. A mesh wire fence surrounds these areas.

Vice President Alben W. Barkley Seeks Presidency

74 Year Old Kentuckian Cheered By Supporters As Savior

By Marvin L. arrowsmith
WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Alben W. Barkley's announcement he would accept the Democratic presidential nomination was cheered today by supporters toutling him as a harmony candidate.

"He can win for us against any man the Republicans nominate," said Sen. Guy Gillette of Iowa.

Two of Barkley's Kentucky colleagues, Democratic Sens. Zelle Clements and Thomas Underwood, voiced the same sentiment.

"He can bring harmony to the party and victory in November," Underwood told a reporter.

The 74-year-old vice president made his long expected announcement in a brief statement Thursday about the same time President Truman opened his weekly news conference, Barkley said.

"The action of the Kentucky state convention endorsing me for the Democratic nomination for President of the United States constitutes a signal honor for which I am profoundly grateful."

"While I am not a candidate in the sense that I am actively seeking the nomination, I have never dodged a responsibility, shirked a responsibility, or ignored an opportunity to serve the American people."

"Therefore, if the forthcoming Chicago convention should choose me to lead the fight in the approaching campaign, I would accept."

The "Veep" put out his statement too late for White House commander of the First Commonwealth Division, today visited British and Canadian troops on Koje for three hours and reported they "seemed to appreciate" their assignment.

Monday Canadian Foreign Minister Lester Pearson said in Ottawa that the Canadian government had expressed displeasure and concern to the U. S. State Department over assignment of a Canadian unit to Koje without Canadian government approval.

Cassels toured the 17 compounds on Koje where 60,000 Communist-dominated POWs are held and conferred with the new camp commander, Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner. A spokesman said Boatner told Cassels how he planned to use commonwealth soldiers assigned to guard duty here, but the plans were not divulged.

In Washington, Sen. Wayne Morse (R-Ore.) said three officers demoted or reprimanded for their handling of POW outbreaks on Koje before Boatner took over will be questioned in a Senate investigation to "get the full facts." It may be necessary, he said, to send an armed services subcommittee to Korea for an on the spot inquiry.

The three to be questioned are Col. Francis T. Dodd, former commander of Koje who was captured by prisoners and held 78 hours; Col. Charles F. Coison, who took over and granted concessions, since repudiated, to obtain Dodd's release; and Brig. Gen. Paul F. Yount, their superior officer.

Dodd and Coison were demoted from rank of brigadier general. Yount was reprimanded.

Housing Project Is Named After Pioneer Resident Of Goldsboro

Cornerstone For William Clark Court At Intersection Of Mulberry Avenue And West 10th Street In Sanford, Will Be Laid Sunday Afternoon At 2:00 P.M.

William Clark was a colored realtor and builder who probably was more responsible for the early development of the Goldsboro section of Sanford than any other single individual.

At one time, when Goldsboro was a separate town, he was its mayor. He sub-divided much of the area there and sold lots on terms as low as $5.00 down and $5.00 a month. He also built houses and sold them, sometimes, on the same terms. No doubt, he is responsible for the high percentage of home ownership in Goldsboro. He hauled many oak trees on a horse wagon and set them out with his own hands after working hours. He hauled water on the same wagon to these trees and cared for them until they had established a substantial growth.

In recognition of all these services to his community, the Housing Authority of Sanford thought it only fitting that the third project to be completed should be named in his honor.

Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, President-Emerita, Bethune Cookman College, Daytona Beach, will deliver the main address for the occasion. In addition, the City of Sanford and the County of Seminole will have representatives to speak along with a speaker from the Public Housing Authority of Sanford.

The grandson of the honored man, S. Sgt. Walter T. McDonald, will be the spokesman for the family. All citizens are cordially invited to attend and participate.

At the same time, it is planned that an "open house" for both William Clark Court and Castle Brewer Court will be held.

Castle Brewer Court is immediately adjacent to William Clark Court and has been occupied by tenants since November, 1951. The Housing Authority has invited the public to inspect a dwelling unit in William Clark Court that will be furnished as a demonstration unit through the courtesy of several local furniture dealers. The authority has also invited the public to inspect the Administration Building and Community Center in Castle Brewer Court.

Enoch W. Lewis, son of Mrs. Eliza Lewis and the late William Lewis of Palmetto, Fla., was graduated from High School in Jacksonville in 1913, and served in the Armed Forces during World War II, both European and Asiatic Pacific Theaters of War.

He was with the first Negro troops to enter Korea during the occupation after World War II. He is now married to Mrs. Clara M. Lewis, daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Mosely and the late M. C. Mosley, and serves as assistant manager of Mosely & Sons Funeral Home.

He is president of the Business Professional & Civic Club, Executive Lodge No. 23 I. F. & A. M., the American Legion, Charles Young Post No. 207.

He is also scoutmaster of Troop No. 91, Boy Scouts of America, a graduate of the Atlanta College of Mortuary Science, Atlanta, Ga., and a member of St. James A.M.E. Church and the father of little Misses Elyth and Thyna Anne Lewis.

Patricia Rae is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Merritt and god-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eubanks.

A color scheme of pink, yellow and green was carried out very beautifully with pink gladioli. The dining table was covered with a beautiful lace table cloth. Also adorning the table were pink, yellow and green candy cups. In the center was set a birthday cake iced in pink and white icing, pink roses which held nine pink candles.

The serving consisted of sheet cake with pink icing, strawberry ice cream, salted peanuts and candy sticks.

For entertainment, there were games of checkers and dominoes. "Mother Goose" quiz was conducted by the honoree's mother. Musical recordings were played by the honoree's god-father, Mr. Eubanks.

At 6:00 o'clock the little guests were to express to the honoree and hostesses the enjoyment they had had at the birthday party.

Patricia Rae expressed her thanks to the following for helping to make her party a delightful affair: Mrs. Eubanks, Mrs. Bryant, who had charge of the guest book, Leroy Mosely, Lila Ola Robinson, Janis Bell Robinson, Gwendolyn Williams, Mary Lee Matthews,

Meeting Held By Women's Auxiliary

The Women's Auxiliary met at the Free Will Holiness Church, West Sanford, last Sunday at 3:00 p.m. with Mother Wilson as pastor, and celebrated their twelfth anniversary with Mrs. Lugenia Black president.

The devotional was offered by Mrs. Everett and Mrs. Lovati Battles. Mrs. Nina Black was presented as mistress of ceremonies by the President, Mrs. Black. Selections in song were given by the Church of God group singers.

Mrs. Thelma Moore gave an interesting reading as she usually does. Mrs. Lula Jones spoke of the history of the auxiliary, and told of the ups and downs of the auxiliary and how at one time she and Mrs. Black almost gave up, but she said to the president, let's take courage and so they did and they are helping each church where they go.

Mrs. Edna Burton, the principal speaker for the occasion, then came forward with an address which all enjoyed. She spoke of how the auxiliary had successfully been carried on through discouragement, and had never given up in 12 years. She told the women to keep courage and keep on doing good.

The attendance was very good, and $3.70 was taken up and presented to the church. At the Good Samaritan Home ice cream and cake were served, furnished by the ladies and served in the home that the family might also enjoy a part of the services.

Women's Community Club Holds Meeting

The regular meeting of the Women's Community Club opened at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, May 22 with a song service. The scripture was read by Mother R. L. Wilson and prayer was offered by Mrs. Frances Jenkins.

After the prayer meeting, Mrs. Lovati Battles, vice-president, took charge of the business period. The minutes of the last meeting were adopted with corrections. Reports were heard from all the committees.

Plans were completed for the anniversary on May 29 at the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, West Twelfth Street. Mother Wilson, a faithful member of the club then came forward with another of her inspiring messages which all the ladies enjoyed.

All the good Christian ladies of the community are invited to join the club. New members at this meeting were as follows: Mrs. Letham Williams, Mrs. Queen Allen, Mrs. Lula Ellison, and Mrs. Moore from the Castle Brewer Court. Others present were Mrs. E. L. Wilson, Mrs. Lovati Battles, Mrs. Frances Jenkins, Mrs. Cheryl, Mrs. Maggie Robinson, Mrs. Lula Jones, Mother Robinson and Mattie M. Merritt.

South African Negro Abandoned To Die

CAPTETOWN, South Africa (AP) — A spokesman for Grotte Schuur Hospital confirmed today that a 65-year-old colored man suffering from tuberculosis had been taken from the hospital and abandoned on a cape mountain side Tuesday night. Colored in South African usage is a person of mixed race.

The spokesman, a senior official who declined to be identified, said he gave the order to evict Willie Jacobs, and leave him in the open. He said he took this action to impress on provincial government authorities that Grotte Schuur Hospital has no facilities for treating infectious disease patients and adequate accommodations should be provided.

The official said he took "full responsibility" for his action.

An ambulance driver who said he left Jacobs beside a bush in the wintry air on the mountainside above Capetown told his story to reporters with tears in his eyes. He said Jacobs was so weak he could not walk and crawled away into the bushes.

A social worker who found Jacobs the next day arranged accommodation for him in a private home in Capetown. The social worker described the hospital's action as "one of the most shocking cases to come to notice—even a dog could expect better treatment."

Grotte Schuur is Cape Province's largest hospital. A spokesman said it does take in colored patients normally.

SUPREME COURT RULES AGAINST STEEL SEIZURE

Truman Seeks Fast Approval Of Alliance

President Declares Quick Ratification Of Pact With Germany Is Necessary

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman asked the Senate today for the fastest possible approval of an indirect military alliance between the United States and West Germany.

The President's aides had ready for the Senate copies of the pact which Secretary of State Acheson signed, or whose signing he witnessed, in Europe last week. With the pact went a statement reportedly explaining the administration's view that Senate consent to U. S. ratification of the documents prior to the announcement of Congress is of utmost importance. The pact was signed by the administration on June 1, 1952.

Foreseeing bitter parliamentary fights in France, Germany and possibly other European countries over the addition of West Germany to the European defense system, the Truman Administration would like the Senate to set the pace. It would be a means of demonstrating to the Europeans the country's determination to get on with the task of linking Germany into the Allied system.

Little opposition has appeared in the Senate thus far, and several interviewed today predicted quick approval.

The occasion afforded the President an opportunity also to warn the Russians of the seriousness with which the United States and the German situation. Red leaders in Germany have called for "extreme national resistance" including sabotage, strikes and the like, to prevent the final joining of the lines between the East and West German states. The Reds even hinted at civil war.

The documents which require Senate approval if they are to be ratified by the President are: 1. The peace contract by which the United States, Britain and France would give West Germany virtual independence, thereby laying the basis for a permanent participation in the defense forces and international councils of West Europe as an equal.

2. An amendment to the North Atlantic Treaty, extending the guarantees of that pact (an attack on one will be considered an attack on all) to the projected new European Defense Community (EDC). The European Defense Community, it has been agreed, will make a similar commitment to the North Atlantic Treaty nations as a group.

President Truman also declared today that every effort would be made to speed passage of a bill to give the government power to enforce mine safety standards "invites

The need of loans by farmers in order to carry on their work was pointed out by Mr. Richardson, who stated that there should be ability on the part of the farmer to repay the loans. Florida Thunderstorms Analyzed By Expert At Rotary Club Meet

Florida has the greatest number of thunderstorms a year of any section of North America, averaging 80 annually from May through September. Rollo H. Dean, meteorologist of the U. S. Weather Bureau, Miami, told Rotarians today. He was introduced by E. J. Moughton, Jr., local weatherman. These showers, Mr. Dean pointed out, are very beneficial to this section, coming on an average at from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the day, when the cooling effect is most needed. If it were not for them, he said, Florida would be too dry to support citrus growth.

He told of studies of these storms begun by the Weather Bureau in cooperation with the Air Force and other agencies in 1946 when five planes daily flew through thunderstorms. The uplifts of 100 feet a second on one side of a storm and down drafts of the other, averaging 100 mph before their dissipating, he declared. Since the rising currents may reach as high as 40,000 feet it would be difficult for planes to fly over them without pressurized cabins.

Using a blackboard drawing, he showed that air has to rise more than 15,000 feet to the zero centigrade or 32 degree Fahrenheit freezing point before thunderstorms occur.

Thunderstorms in Florida are of the convection type, he stated, in which warm, moist air rises between the lower and the upper coils of reaching the dew point, condenses into cumulus clouds which when cooling condense into rain or sleet. The upward flow of air then begins to fall to the side in which the storm is progressing, producing down drafts, a short temperature drop and once or twice a year, hail. Most lightning discharges, as well as between clouds, and are caused by unequal potential between high up positive charges and the negative charges at the base of the clouds.

Monroe Bridge Is Destroyed In Mock Airplane Attack

Lake Monroe Bridge, the power plant at Lake Monroe and Enterprise, and Radio Station WTRR were "blown up" yesterday in a simulated attack by members of the Sanford Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol.

The bridge, power plant and other "demolitions" were performed by a "ground crew," it was reported by Capt. David Remley of the CAP.

These were among the 200 members of the CAP and Flying Farmers who gathered yesterday morning at Orlando Municipal Airport to put on "Operation Airprobe". About 40 planes were used.

The Orlando utilities building was "bombed", bridge was "blown up" by ground crews, and (Continued on Page Six)

Dedication Of William Clark Court Is Held

American Rights And Privileges Stressed By Dr. Mary Bethune

The privileges enjoyed by Americans in education, economic security, health and housing, stressed yesterday at the dedication of the William Clark Court in Goldboro yesterday afternoon by Dr. Mary Bethune, president of the National Y. W. C. A., and the Rev. J. E. McKinley, chairman of the Sanford Housing Authority, in a gathering of more than 100 persons, white and colored, presided over by George L. Davis, assistant to the director of the Florida Field Office, Public Housing Authority, Mayor W. H. Stimpert, and Gordon Brantley of the Sanford Housing Authority, who welcomed the visitors. Eartha Portier, Tallahassee, also spoke.

Dr. Bethune revealed that she had just returned from a visit to Liberia and to many countries in Europe, that she had seen the progress in public housing all over the South, and stated that there is duplication of William Clark Court in many dismal spots where it was thought that such projects could not be.

She expressed deep gratitude in behalf of the colored people to the Housing Authority and those responsible for the housing project, pointing out the advantages of the project, including the school and other facilities, and declared that when a little girl, living in a cabin in South Carolina, it had been her wish to live in a house with glass windows.

She told of the progress of public housing in Daytona Beach and of a telephone conversation with Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt in which she stressed the need of such housing. The next day, she said, a contract was signed in Washington, and as a result, two projects were built, one for white and one for colored people.

Dr. Hitchens, who was introduced by Stetson's President, J. Ollie Edmunds, defined education as the "deliberate attempt to form men in terms of an ideal" and held that education for a democracy must mean that every man

General Clark Promises To Use What Ever Force Needed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court ruled 6-3 today that President Truman's seizure of the steel mills and the steel workers' union within minutes of President Philip Murray called a nationwide strike of his 650,000 steelworkers.

In a historic decision striking down Truman's claim to vast inherent power under the Constitution, the high court upheld the ruling of U. S. District Judge David A. Pine that the President acted illegally in seizing the steel mills April 8 to head off a strike. This meant the government must obey Pine's order to turn the mills back to their owners.

It also meant the Truman administration could not carry through its promise of a wage increase to the steel workers while the mills were under government ownership.

Today's high court decision was written by Justice Black, Chief Justice Vinson and Justices Reed and Minton dissented.

In issuing his strike call today, Murray at the same time asked the steel companies to resume collective bargaining.

But Murray also made clear that the union still stands on the terms of the Wage Stabilization Act. While recommendations of the 16 cent an hour "package" settlement plus a union shop arrangement, he said.

In the absence of a wage agreement, other than to carry out Murray's authorized local union officers to make "satisfactory arrangements for stability of employment to protect the properties of the various companies during the period of stoppage."

Today's decision was of overriding importance in the controversy as to the American people itself over how great are the powers of the presidency.

Truman has repeatedly claimed he has inherent power under the Constitution to seize a private industry or take to the President's office actions, to safeguard the welfare of the nation in time of national emergency.

The court said today, however, that this power belongs to Congress and not to the President, either as the civilian head of the government or as commander-in-chief of the armed forces.

There was no immediate comment by Truman or the President's office, although Truman has said he will abide by the Supreme Court's decision, while saying at the same time "I will not be deterred."

Tooke, Chase Named To Citrus Commission

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Harry Tooke, Sanford, and Frank Chase, Wintergreen, have been appointed by Gov. Fuller Warren to the State Citrus Commission.

Tooke is a grower-concentrate member of the commission, Chase a grower member from the Fourth Citrus District.

Warren also appointed C. V. Griffin, H. H. Hines, citrus grower, to succeed Nash Lagette, Leeburg; J. J. Parrish, J. J. Parrish, president of the Nevin Fruit Company, Yulee; and J. Frank Henrich, Clermont, to succeed W. P. Robinson, Leeburg.

Griffin said he had no comment on the appointment. Lagette said Griffin "said frankly he would use his influence to get my place."

Lagette said he himself had sought reappointment and many citrus industry leaders, started up by word of his impending departure from the commission, had asked Gov. Warren to keep him on.

Griffin, a one of Warren's major campaign backers, later split with the governor on the issue of gambling law enforcement, but their breach apparently has been healing in recent months.
