Seminoles On The 'Moon' Beam; Ask More Wampum For Lost Land

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — Florida's Seminole Indians are trying to get in on the "Moon Boom" by demanding more wampum for Florida lands they signed over to the United States after it took possession of the area from Spain in 1821.

The Seminoles maintain that the U. S. cheated them out of about 28 million acres, almost all of Florida, in treaties they say their chiefs were cowed and tricked into signing.

And the Seminoles have some backing from the wampum-giving ancestors.

University of Florida professors John K. Mahon and John M. Goggin recently testified as expert witnesses for the Indians in the tribe's $40 million law suit now before the Indian Land Claims Commission in Washington.

The professors were called to explain the circumstances surrounding the treaties and to show that the Seminoles were a distinct people with undisputed possession or ownership of the state.

Mahon, a history teacher and a treaty expert, said "The Seminoles were dealing from a position of no power. It would be the same as if the United States were signing a treaty with Paraguay today."

Goggin, an anthropology professor, pictured the Seminoles as a rich, powerful people some 3,000 to 5,000 strong who were "as happy and as prosperous as any Indians."

He said they used all of South Florida as their hunting preserve until two "plagues," drought and the white man, smashed their world.

When the government tried to move the Seminoles to the Oklahoma Indian Territory in 1833 they started a seven-year war. When it was over, only 300 Seminoles were left hiding in the Everglades.

"But at one time or another," Mahon said, "they fought every regiment in the United States Army, plus thousands of volunteers from the Southeastern states. And they never signed a peace treaty with the United States until this last decade."

6500 U.S. Troops On Alert In Berlin Incident

Reds Interfere With Traffic Across Border

BERLIN (UPI)—Communist forces interfered with American traffic across the border of this divided city today, and all American military forces in Berlin were placed on an official state of alert for more than five hours.

American and British tank and troop reinforcements were moved up to the Friedrichstrasse crossing point and the Brandenburg Gate border sector.

All Berlin Command troops have been on a state of alert since 10 minutes past 10 this morning, a U. S. Army spokesman said.

The spokesman added that the alert was lifted at 3:35 p. m. The 6,500 American troops were alerted as the Communists challenged the U. S. right of free access to East Berlin.

The alert came at about the time U. S. soldiers drove three jeeps 400 yards into East Berlin to escort an American civilian automobile across the border.

The move apparently was a dramatic reiteration of American determination to maintain the right of free access to all parts of the divided city.

Later, two U. S. Army tourist buses were stopped at the border by Communist police. The vehicles with 37 Americans including women and children aboard, returned to the American checkpoint at the Friedrichstrasse crossing after more than an hour. A U. S. spokesman said they were pulled back to prevent harassment of the women aboard.

Meanwhile, two Soviet-licensed vehicles containing seven uniformed Russian officers rolled through the same checkpoint from east to west without slowing down.

Navy Investigates Mid-Air Jet Crash

Late - Night Flights Halted

6 Men At Base Give Testimony At Hearing Here

The Sanford Naval Air Station has temporarily curtailed late-night flight operations during an investigation of the Oct. 18 plane collision which killed six men, it was announced today.

The curtailment, which began Monday, was made when six air control men were called to testify before an accident investigating board. Flights were restricted from the station between midnight and 6 a. m. During these hours the ground control approach unit was manned by skeleton crews.

The Naval Air Station at Jacksonville said the restriction does not affect emergency landing situations.

The six air control men, who were not identified, were on duty when the two Sky Warriors collided in the air near here killing all six crewmen.

Capt. L. C. French, assistant chief of staff to Rear Adm. Joseph M. Carson who commands the naval air bases in the sixth district, is head of the accident board.

The Navy said French was expected to complete the investigation today.

It said air station operations would return to normal operations status either late today or Thursday.

Drought Endangers Florida Forests

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Drought has turned thousands of acres of Florida woodland into "potential areas of destruction," the Florida Forest Service said today.

"It's been several years since Florida entered the fire season with the outlook so bad," said State Forester C. H. Coulter.

The most critical area is in Northwest Florida, especially Leon County, where a 40-day drought has been parching the area. Weathermen said there is no relief in sight.

"Conditions are extremely threatening for fire outbreak with the smallest spark," the service said.

THE NEW police building on Seminole Blvd. will be completed much sooner than anticipated with all the volunteer help the local department has been getting, Sunday. Art Harris and members of his Kingswood Builders crew worked from dawn to dusk putting a roof on the new facility. (Herald Photo)

Maybe It Was Caused By Slow Burn Of Courthouse Politics

Nobody asked me, but what was that burning in the courthouse Tuesday afternoon?

No, no anxious courthouse department head in favor of a new facility set the place on fire but according to the fire department the county judge's office could have had a fire during the night.

At 5:09, County Judge Vernon Mize called the fire department and said "there's no emergency but could you send someone down here to check the light transformer?"

In a matter of seconds, the fire department sent two trucks to the scene and a check revealed that there was a short in the light transformer.

Fire Chief Mack Cleveland Sr. said this morning that two trucks are always dispatched "just in case."

A crowd gathered in front of the courthouse and queries were heard. "Is the building burning down?"

The fire trucks were only on the scene for a matter of minutes. No one called the committee studying courthouse needs.

Blas Wrecks Miami Teamsters' Offices

NORTH MIAMI, Fla. (UPI)—An explosion police said was caused by dynamite tore apart a concrete block building housing Teamsters Union Local 290 Tuesday night.

The building was unoccupied when the blast wrecked the 40-by-70 foot structure shortly before midnight.

"From the smoke and smell I would say that a very large charge of dynamite was set off," said Police Sgt. Floyd Moon.

Police said they knew of no reason why the union hall may have been dynamited.

Reds Fail In Move To Delay Protest

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—The main political committee today rejected a Communist attempt to postpone a move for a "solemn appeal" against Russia's planned 30-megaton nuclear explosion.

The committee voted down a Bulgarian motion to adjourn discussion of a proposal that the "appeal" be given immediate priority in the committee. The committee then rejected a Soviet challenge to the chairman's ruling on procedure.

The storm was stirred by an Iranian proposal that general debate on nuclear tests be interrupted so that action could be taken on a resolution calling on Russia to cancel its announced test.

Shoppers: Drawing Every Friday Night

Sanford merchants are going all out this year to encourage Sanford and Seminole County customers to do their Christmas shopping, and all their buying, "at home."

Chairman of the Merchant's Assn. E. C. Harper Jr., announced today that $100 worth of gift certificates will be given away at the drawing every Friday night, from now until the middle of December.

Tickets for the drawing will continue to be available from all downtown merchants from 5:30 to 9 p. m. and stubs deposited in store boxes for collection in the big cage for the drawing shortly after 9 p. m. on the corner of Magnolia and First.

The music, which shoppers say has added so much to the fun and enjoyment of Friday Night Shopping will be continued and the gay and colorful Christmas lights will be glowing.

Nobody asked me but, since the Attorney General ruled against a straw vote . . . the County Commission can use the results of our poll. We will be more than happy to turn the results over to them Nov. 3.

Instead of all this political bickering over a new postmaster . . . why not make the applicants take an examination?

Kennedy Orders Underground Test

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy gave a go-ahead today for a nuclear test to be conducted in a New Mexico salt formation 1,300 feet underground. He invited observers from interested United Nations countries to witness the shot.

The experiment, known as project Gnome, will be conducted in about 60 days near Carlsbad, N. M., as part of the Atomic Energy Commission's program to develop peaceful uses of atomic energy.

The White House declined to say specifically whether Russian observers would be welcome, leaving this to be spelled out by the AEC. But it said "the United States will welcome observers from interested United Nations countries, as well as news media and the scientific community."

The United States recently fired three underground shots which were announced. In deciding to resume testing after Russia began her atmospheric series, however, the White House made it plain that not all underground tests would be announced.

Project Gnome is intended to develop information on possible use of byproduct heat from nuclear explosions for power purposes.

It also will permit study of the general effects of such a blast in salt, including the possible recovery of commercially or scientifically valuable isotopes.

Florida Attorney General Holds Against Proposal

The attorney general of Florida today ruled that the County Commission has no authority to conduct a straw poll with county funds.

"In absence of statutory authority the expenditure of county funds in connection with a straw poll would not be authorized," Riemer, Florida Attorney General Mack Cleveland Jr., in a letter today.

Last week the Herald called the attorney general's office and asked that a copy of the legal opinion when it is made, be forwarded to the paper.

On Oct. 18, the County Commission asked Cleveland to get an opinion from the attorney general regarding the use of double postcard "vote of the people" poll on whether they would be willing to pay an additional three mill levy next year to finance a half million dollar Civil Defense program.

At that time, Cleveland questioned the authority on whether the expenditures of county funds was legal and he suggested to the board a legal opinion from Erwin to clarify the matter.

Erwin in his opinion, also stated that "it is my belief that the determination of whether to expend funds in connection with civil defense purposes would be the responsibility of the county Civil Defense Council."

In his lengthy opinion, he also quoted from the County Commission manual and former opinions on the matter.

Russia Sets Off Another Device

UPPSALA, Sweden (UPI)—The Soviet Union today triggered a new nuclear explosion at the Novaya Semlya testing grounds, the Uppsala seismological institution reported today.

Spokesman Markus Baath said the explosion force was only one tenth of the strength of the big blast last Monday. He said today's test was made in the atmosphere at 9:31 a. m. (3:31 a. m. EST).

He said according to the recording instruments the nuclear device was equal to "a few" megatons of TNT.

In Stockholm, the weather Bureau said winds at both high and low altitudes in the Novaya Semlya area are still "favorable" for Scandinavia and Western Europe.

The fallout from the latest test will be carried down over the northern Soviet Union and areas west of the Urals, it said.

Florida Dailies Lead In Gains

ATLANTA (UPI) — In the past eight years daily newspapers in the South have added more than 1.8 million subscribers to their circulation lists, more than in any other part of the country, the U. S. Department of Commerce reported today.

The department's regional office said that newspapers in Florida showed the sharpest gains, adding 321,000 subscribers.

The department said the net paid circulation of all daily papers in the South last year was 14,771,000, equal to one paper for every 3.72 persons in the region.

Nationwide, the department said circulation gains averaged 8.1 per cent. In the South, the average was 13.8 per cent.

Goodwill Industries Retail Outlet Planned Here

A Goodwill Industries retail store is slated to open here soon according to an announcement made Monday by DeWitt Supplee, executive director of Goodwill Industries in Central Florida.

Holy Cross Young Churchmen Enjoy Picnic

Members of the Holy Cross Junior Episcopal Young Churchmen enjoyed a picnic and outing Saturday to Sand Mountain which is located two miles south of Ft. Meade.

Leaving the church at 10 a. m., the group arrived at the attraction of pure, white sand two city blocks in diameter and several hundred feet high in time to spend the afternoon climbing, sliding and eating, and were back home at about 5:30 p. m.

Advisors making the trip were Cdr. and Mrs. Richard Stolpe, Fr. John Thomas and Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Joe Nicholas.

work, aims and origin of the Goodwill Industries.

Location of the new retail store, which will employ only handicapped people, is not yet firm, with two possible sites being considered, one on Sanford Ave. and one on East First St.

The store will carry the repaired furniture and appliance items, renovated and cleaned clothing and other household items, which are the work of the crippled and handicapped people who are being employed at the Goodwill Industries shops located in Orlando.

In their shops, the crippled, the aged, cardiac patients, arrested TB cases, and handicapped people from all walks of life use their skills and abilities to remake, reweave, sew, paint, repair, and renovate donated second-hand items of every kind, which are sold "good as new" at nominal prices, making the entire organization approximately 90 percent self-supporting.

"By taking these people out of the tax-receiving line and rehabilitating them, giving them jobs, and putting them into the tax-paying line, we have removed 38,000 people from the relief rolls in the past year," Supplee said.

Supplee gave several illustrations of how seriously crippled persons who could no longer go on with their former occupations were rehabilitated, taught how to use the talent and ability that they still possess and set upon new jobs, new careers and become self-supporting again.

Supplee quoted figures supplied to him showing that Sanford could support a retail outlet of this kind with the following figures concerning the income picture in Sanford.

Figures show that 12.3 percent of people living in Sanford earn less than $3,000 per year; 20 percent earn between $3,000 and $4,000 per year; 21.1 percent earn from $4,000 to $7,000 per year; 15 percent earn between $7,000 and $10,000 per year and 20.8 percent of Sanford citizens earn more than $10,000 per year.

Rollins Plans To Offer Extension Courses Here

Plans have been made to bring college courses of the Rollins College School of General Studies to Sanford.

George Sauter, Director of the Rollins School of General Studies; Lt. Cdr. Frances Mitchell of the Navy; Mrs. Helen Mills of the Industrial Relations Dept. of NAS, Dr. Patricia Drabik and Miss Winifred Lovell of the Rollins Faculty; R. T. Milwee, superintendent of public instruction and E. S. Douglas, director of Vocational and adult education, met recently to plan the new educational facilities.

NAS personnel who are enrolled in courses in Winter Park, a request has been made for the opening of a center in Sanford.

The Seminole County Board of Public Instruction has agreed to make the facilities of Seminole High School available for this purpose two nights each week.

These courses will also be available to any person in the community who is a graduate of an accredited secondary school or who holds the equivalency diploma. Applicants must present either a transcript of credits or the GED test scores.

The courses offered will be selected from those given by the college through its School of General Studies on the Winter Park campus and the branch on Patrick AFB.

Courses will give residents undergraduate college credit and may be used toward the degree of Bachelor of General Studies or for transfer to any other accredited college.

A minimum enrollment of fifteen persons will be necessary to organize a class. The fee for a three semester hour course will be the same as charged at the college, with a small additional charge for those who are enrolling in a Rollins course for the first time.

The classes will open in January and a survey is being made at NAS and in the community to determine what courses are needed.

Application by NAS personnel should be made to Mrs. Winifred Scott, training advisor at the base. All other applications should be made to E. S. Douglas, Director of Vocational and Adult Education, School Administration Bldg., Sanford.

Benefit Concert Set In Altamonte

By ATLANTA McGINNIS
The Winter Park Concert Orchestra will appear in a benefit performance for the Altamonte Springs Library Association on Nov. 26 at Lyman High School.

Officials of the sponsoring association report that enthusiastic response to the orchestra's appearance in the area last spring made possible the return engagement and ask that residents again give their support in order that the concert may become an annual cultural event of the community.

Amount of adult and children's donations may be learned through any member of the association or by contacting Mrs. Christian Juthe, ticket sales chairman. Tickets may be secured in advance by sending donations, with name and address, to The Altamonte Springs Library, Altamonte Springs.

Mrs. Sara Anderson has been named general chairman of the concert. Additional chairmen, other than Mrs. Juthe, are Mrs. Thomas Pinnoek Jr., usherettes; Dan Gilbert, staging; Glenn Humes, lighting; Mrs. Paul French, publicity and program; Mrs. J. D. Morrison, advertising and C. L. Seymour, ticket collector.

Important Asset

Not only will the hospital miss Harry Weir... his loss will be felt by the entire community.

Mr. Weir, hospital administrator for the past seven years, announced Tuesday that he was resigning here to accept a similar post in Arizona.

While here, Weir was instrumental in initiating a 50-bed hospital addition and in bringing the local facility up to standards equalling the best hospitals around the state.

Not only was he more than capable in his hospital job but Mr. Weir was a definite asset to the community. He was a deacon in his church, past president of the Pioneers P.T.A. and past vice president of the Seminole Cancer Society.

He will be hard to replace as an administrator and as a citizen.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

See in a thumb sucker. But she is a first cousin to her Daddy, who smokes on a cigar a dozen times per day. Regardless of how these instances habit start, the cure is usually to break off the excess energy in less objectionable ways. Bubble gum is one of them.

CASE K-43: Boss M., aged nine, is a shy little girl with a very high I. Q.

"But, Dr. Crane," her mother protested, "Boss still sucks her thumb."

"Whenever she gets nervous or frightened, you can be almost certain that she'll fall back into that habit."

"I have tried to reason with her and have coaxed and pleaded and have even punished her."

"That doesn't seem to do any good. What causes children to suck their thumbs and how can a parent help correct this fault?"

BABY TRAYS

Thumb sucking is a very common characteristic of babies, especially if they are not on an adequate feeding schedule.

For a hungry infant will throw its arms around and kick and cry. Hunger cramps are thus the initial prod for such activity.

Maybe the mother's milk supply is not sufficient, and the child is on reduced rations.

Instead of shifting over to evaporated milk and thus keeping the baby happy and content, the mother may vainly try for several more weeks to eat out a meager ration for the infant.

Meanwhile, during its periods of hungry thrashing around with its hands, it accidentally gets a thumb or finger in its mouth. This starts the nursing action.

And the act of nursing, even though of its own thumb, will generate saliva, so the baby does keep filling its stomach with a small amount of liquid, which thus assuages its hunger cramps.

NURSANCE HABITS

Later this action becomes habitual. And it is generally associated with relaxation and comfort.

So even after the baby's feeding formula is finally brought up to a more adequate supply and it no longer needs extra food, the thumb sucking habit may still continue as a matter of momentum of nuisance actions.

You cigaret users can well understand the situation. For instance, when you first started smoking possibly as teen-age boys, you did it because of a desire to look like a "big shot."

Your hunger for social esteem and public admiration started you sucking on cigarets.

But you may now be 30 years of age and will a confirmed smoker. You no longer have the social hunger which generated your original adoption of cigarets.

But the momentum of this nuisance habit still compels you to reach for a cigaret whenever you grow restless. That's the twin behavior for thumb sucking.

"Dr. Crane doesn't go back into the thumb-sucker's childhood adequately and thus explain the tensions that started the habit," a theoretical child psychologist recently criticized me.

BE PRACTICAL

To which I can bluntly reply, so what? Analyzing the causes that started your middle-aged cigaret users to take up smoking, doesn't help you stop the habit now, does it?

Not at all. Regardless of how our habits may have started, the sheer inertia of the human body to change from old accustomed actions, is the big dilemma.

You can break nuisance habits in various ways. Give the nervous child gum to chew, in big gobs, for this action is better than the thumb-sucking. At least, it draws less ridicule from one's playmates.

Relieving the tension of the home is also helpful, but you can't eliminate all such tension from a normal home. Tension is part of life!

Relieve shyness by the Compliment Club and encourage athletic events to drain off excess energy. (Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long four cent stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

OCTOBER REVOLUTION!

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA) — Defense men aren't doing much talking, but the biggest danger developing in the defense of the United States is not the Russian intercontinental ballistic missile, but our continued shockingly weak defenses against Soviet missile subs. Despite the quarter billion dollars a year now being poured into anti-submarine warfare research and development, and several billions additional going into actual anti-submarine defenses actually, Naval officers admit it is exceedingly difficult to detect even conventional Russian submarines at a distance.

Worse yet, it is still virtually impossible for United States defenses to detect relatively noiseless modern atom-powered submarines that are not close at hand.

If a defender is lucky enough to sight an atomic sub some miles away, he's apt to lose him before getting within striking range.

Scientists working on the program report that no breakthroughs are in sight.

You can discount reports of great new developments. Progress, actually, is painfully slow.

U. S. military men now believe the development of long-range Polaris-type submarines are a Khrushchev top priority.

Thus far, he's had some bad luck in trying to make a submarine and a 1,000-to-1,500-mile missile that could be fired underwater.

But there is no doubt in the Pentagon that Khrushchev's difficulties are temporary.

Khrushchev is known to be working on some technically well thought out medium-range missiles suitable for firing underwater from submarines.

He's known to have developed several atom-powered submarines, now being tested for efficiency.

The mating of the missiles and the submarines should be accomplished within a year or two—or three.

Right now, it's understood that of Khrushchev's 450 submarines, only a dozen or so are set up for firing missiles. These are armed with short-range, 200-300-mile weapons. The subs must surface to fire.

But when Khrushchev develops an atom-powered submarine carrying 1,500-mile missiles, he will be able to blast almost any point in the U. S. at will with Red subs of the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf coasts.

The submarine can lie submerged and undetectable, 300 to 500 miles offshore.

Because so many American military targets are close to the ocean, Soviet submarines will be able to stand as far as 1,000 miles off the U. S.

By coming in closer, close to the coast, the Red subs will be able to fire their missiles at nearby targets with nearly flat trajectories. That is, the missiles would "fly" so close to the ground that U. S. missile defense warning systems would not be able to "see" these missiles in flight.

The anti-missile missiles the U. S. is developing would not be able to handle such low-flying targets. These missiles, fired over such short distances—400 to 1,500 miles—would arrive at their destination so quickly there wouldn't be time for the defense to react.

Bonn Would Press For Wall Removal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — West German Ambassador Wilhelm Grewe indicated Tuesday that West Germany believes the Allies should press for removal of the wall between East and West Berlin in any negotiations with Russia.

Grewe talked with reporters at the White House after delivering a letter to President Kennedy from West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer on the Bonn government's policies.

The ambassador's statements came as Sen. Gale McGee, (D-Wyo.), said the wall was one of two negotiable issues in the Berlin situation. McGee, just back from Germany, put the number of Allied troops in Berlin in the same category.

Katanga Accord Ratified by UN

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI) — United Nations headquarters has ratified the Katanga cease-fire and Katanga President Moise Tshombe has been informed of the terms, a UN spokesman said Tuesday. Tshombe's reaction was not yet known.

It was not clear whether UN headquarters has specified further terms to which he must agree.

The UN ratification said the cease-fire in no way affected the Security Council or General Assembly decisions concerning the unity, integrity and independence of the Congo.

6 Die In Crash Of Navy Plane

TOKYO, (UPI) — A twin-engine U. S. Navy plane on a search mission crashed into the side of a mountain 150 miles south of Tokyo Tuesday, killing six of the eight men aboard. The other two were injured, one critically.

The Navy said the accident occurred at 3:30 p.m. when the Albatross plane from Atsugi naval air station hit Daruma mountain.

Names of the victims aboard the Albatross were withheld until their families were notified.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I and our four children plan to drive up to British Columbia to visit his sister, her husband and their five children. We have three weeks' vacation coming, haven't seen these folks for four years, and think it would be lots of fun. We will stay with them, of course, since we don't know anyone else up there.

Now for our problem: Should we let them know we are coming, or should we just drive up to their back door and surprise them? My husband is sort of superstitious and says it is bad luck to reveal your plans in advance, and he wants to surprise them. Would this be proper?
B. C. BOUND

DEAR B. C. BOUND: This would be highly improper, and I suggest you write first. Your husband's sister might be superstitious about thirteen people in a home that ordinarily houses seven.

DEAR ABBY: How do you tactfully tell a neighbor woman that you would like to entertain once in a while without her presence? Every time a car drives into my driveway, my neighbor "joins" us. She is a good neighbor in many ways, but we do not travel in the same circles. Many of my friends do not care for her. (Her language is a bit on the vulgar side.) I don't want to hurt her feelings, as we both own our homes and I like to be on good terms with my neighbors, but if I don't find a solution to this problem my husband is going to do it for me, and it won't be pleasant. HELPLESS HOSTESS

DEAR HELPLESS: No one who has a desire for privacy with the courage and a voice to proclaim that desire need be "helpless" against an intruder. Inform her in a kindly way that, when you have guests, you'd like to entertain them alone.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is in real estate, and he is out almost every night of the week on "business." His normal homecoming time is around 9:00 P. M., but lately he has been pulling in at 4:30 and 5:00 A. M. When I ask him where he's been, he says at the corner tavern. They close the place at 2:00, but he claims that just means they lock the door and don't let any more customers in, but anyone who is already in can stay as long as he likes. Is this true? Or am I just plain—
GULLIBLE

DEAR GULLIBLE: True or untrue, the real question is, "What has the corner tavern got that your home hasn't got from 9:00 P. M. to 5:00 A. M.?" If you don't find out, you are more than "gullible," dear. You're sunk!

We The Women: By Ruth Millet

This "togetherness" kick the women's magazines are on doesn't show any sign of letting up.

In a recent issue of one such magazine there is this bit of advice to young husbands: "Please don't bury your nose in a newspaper. News is something that can be shared."

Just how is the young husband supposed to go about sharing the news?

Is he supposed to hold his wife on his lap while he reads aloud to her, so she won't feel left out while he concentrates on the daily paper?

Or is he supposed to ignore the paper and learn only as much of the day's happenings as he can get from a TV newscast sandwiched in between commercials... "I'll be back in a moment, but first a word from our sponsor..."

Or would it be better if he ignored the news altogether, being content just to sit and listen while his wife gives him an account of her day?

Or would it be allowable for him to say to his wife, "Honey, when you're ready to read the paper, let me know and we'll divide it. You know I wouldn't want to sit down and read until you can."

Of course, not many husbands are going to be reading the advice aimed at them in women's magazines.

But their wives will read it. And some of them are bound to get the idea that George or Bill or Jim is being downright selfish to come home at night, grab the newspaper and act for all the world as though world news was more important than news of the neighborhood as reported by their wives.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

In third seat the opening bid of three is the same as in first or second seat — primarily an attempt with a weak hand to make it hard for the opponents to find their best contract.

The opening bid of four hearts or spades is primarily defensive also, but it can be made with a pretty strong hand.

East's four heart opening is one of those strong bids and it paid unexpected dividends.

South knew that his four spade bid was a gamble, but people who don't ever take chances seldom win at bridge and he was not going to be shut out.

Four spades was really slaughtered. South managed to gather in five tricks. Three in trumps and one each in diamonds and clubs.

In addition to the 1,400 penalty was all profit. If East had opened with one heart he probably would have wound up playing four hearts. South would have opened the king of spades, and while the defense might have slipped enough to give East his contract, the chances are that he would have gone down one or two tricks.

Highlights

7:30-8:30 p. m. (ABC) "New Steve Allen Show." Space and time, two topics ordinarily reserved for serious discussion, come in for light-comedy treatment by Steve and players. Allen interviews Igor-Grigoryevich (Bill Dana), an astronaut, who gives a lot of jabberwocky info about outer space via interpreter Don Penney. The time problem concerns a TV producer's difficulties in stretching a half-hour's material into a full-hour program. Joey Forman and Dave Ketchum assist in the sketch. In the musical segment, Jennie Smith does "I Have To Pass Your House," and Jack Jones (son of singer Alan Jones) sings "They Wouldn't Believe Me."

8-8:30 p. m. (CBS) "Father Knows Best—"Kathy's Romance." Life with "Father" can become pretty miserable, particularly when boy friend Burgess drops by for a visit, and the two of them get absorbed talking to each other. As solution to the problem, she arranges to lose a birthday party for her beau which, by coincidence, happens to time with a night her dad won't be home until late. Starring Robert Young and Jane Wyatt; with Richard Eyer playing a girl's best pal—a boy friend!

8:30-9:30 p. m. (CBS) Checkmate—"Waiting For Joe." Those who have seen his current portrayal of Christ in "King of Kings" will be startled to see Jeffrey Hunter in this one, as a dangerous psychopath with murder in his heart. Hunter's performance is regular and fascinating. Of the regular stars, Sebastian Cabot takes the most important role here, but Doug McClure and Anthony George get in a few innings. Released from jail, Jack plans Hyatt's death in reprisal for his testimony some years back. A lagging pace midway in the hour is more than compensated by a most exciting finish.

9-10 p. m. (NBC) "Perry Como Show." Color. There's ample change of pace in tonight's variety program. However, the most impressive sight is a 100-foot-square scale model of the 1962 Seattle World's Fair, which Perry displays in salute to the exhibition. Then, there's a man named Anthony Benedetto, who does a singing act. You may know him better as Tony Bennett. Also on stage are "The Players" doing their fractured

TV Time Previews

ed version of "Peter Pan." Other guests include Kaye Ballard and Sandy Stewart. Among ballads featured are "My Blushin' Rosie," "Cabin in the Sky" and "Indian Love Call."

9:30-10 p. m. (CBS) "Mrs. G. Goes To College." Comedy blends with pathos in this chapter. Sarah (Gertrude Berg) decides to prepare her traditional large Sunday dinner, only to come to the realization that all her friends are away for the week end. It looks like dinner by herself, as Sarah searches all over the college for someone to share her food.

The name Honduras, the Central American country, is Spanish and may be translated "warlike."

Seminole Gridders Ranked Fourth In State

Tops In Central Florida

By OSCAR FRALEY
Herald Sports Editor

Our bowler's salute of the week to the following individuals who captured the high spots in their respective leagues for bowling high game and/or series:

Jet Lanes Keglers—Don Brunfeld 294 and William Ward 248; Douglas Aircraft—No last name listed for Hank who bowled for the Chip Chasers—211/553; Thursday Nite Mixed League—J. Anderson 294 and P. Fitzpatrick 268; Heller Motors/Navy Wives—Bettye Allen 192/330; Friday afternoon Spare Ribbers League—Kromberger—200 & Husy Long—204; This past Thursday Nite's League play—Dave Dearolph 218 and Margie Woods 195 were hi game winners while these same two also copped series with a 212-213-216/641 series for Dave and Marge had a respectable 330.

On the nite of 10/19, the Jet Lanes Keglers leader was Ed Michalek with a 212-220-180/625 series; T League—Mary Jane Gorton 184 and Dot Buton 305; Kingswood Builders/Sunland League had Marty Kinnard picking up all honors with a 175/475 series.

All Stars—Dick Richards 240/614; City League—Ed Michalek 243 and Phil Roche 615; Sandspurs—Phyllis Laffel 190 and a tie for hi series between Midge Woods and Maxine Koehler with a 478.

Dot Buton repeated top-notch honors in the Wednesday afternoon Hi Nooners with a 183/601 series; Midget Foodmart/Country Club Manorettes League—Louise Cadenhead 158 and Clara Barber 630; Kay Bowman's 212/336 was tops in the Jet Bowlerettes League.

The Friday Nite Mr. and Mrs. League had Al DePalma taking hi game and series for the men with a 225/286. Shirley Martin was hi gal with a 187 game and Grace Mallo continued her winning ways with a nifty 504 series.

Richard Zuckerman continues to improve his game as demonstrated with a 203 hi game for the Tuesday Nite Businessmen's League. Barnes of LeRoy Benton's team was hi in series with a 540. The Saturday morning Junior League keglers had these two winners in the hi game department—Pat Franklin 188 and Judy Beauchamp 149. Pat's brother Mike Franklin was hi for the boys with a 468 series while Judy led the gals with a 395. Adults please note that the

Incidentally talking about Monday night—It's the best night to come out for open bowling as this is the only league scheduled for that night. We can guarantee you that you'll not have to wait long, if at all, for an open lane.

Claude... boomed 'em home in the Navy Intramural League with a 218/391 series. On 10/11 Jane Adcock was the honoree of the Sandspurs title as she whipped the new pins to the tune of 182/690.

And now as time and space permits, let's try to highlight some of the 'other stars' in these various leagues.

Dick Bollinger of the GCA live-some made the difficult 6-7 split and on the same night was one of the few who had a 'big' 2'-201. The other was VAH-3's Scruggs 203.

In the Junior Circuit, Bob Martens had a nice 164 game as did Rocky Bowen have an equally productive AM with a 180.

Notice how few 300 games are being listed as a result of the new pins? You gotta put 'em right into the pocket to collect the BIG X on your score-sheets.

A couple of goodies rolled by the Jet Bowlerettes—D. Beauchamp of Bill's Taverna 170; Elaine Kostival of the Toy Correll with a 180 and Verna Bolton bowling for Ivey's had a 163.

Those lessons are starting to be reflected in some of the gals scores. Previously, it was a low 80's game and now one gal specifically is bowling in the 140-150 category. Real, real proud of you my ladies!

I see that Judy Clarke had a 188 game while bowling for Monroe Harbor in the Hi Nooners League. In this same league, Louise Owens who hasn't bowled for quite some time, came back with a 165 game. Nice goin', Louise.

Ge, that WSFR and Stenstrom game must have been something what with all of those big ones being rolled by Mary Elmore 168, Marty Kinnard 167, Cathy Poulter 179, Kathy Gray's 170 and 176 games plus Betty Callen's 176 and 164.

There were 7 two-hundred plus games bowled by the All Stars—Phil Roche's 205; Dan Ritzke 209; Bob Steele 224; Don Hamilton 210 and Al DePalma with 200 and 221.

Meet The Seminole B Squad Cheerleaders

As the Seminole High School Junior Varsity football team winds up their second unbeaten season at Memorial Stadium tonight, these six pretty girls, members of the B Corps Cheerleaders, will be right there as they have been all season, to cheer the boys on to victory.

Just as lively and pretty as their A squad "sisters" the peppy B squad girls have exclusive territory at the Junior Varsity games, as they lead the crowd to boost the players on the field, with their vocal participation.

Not a small part of cheerleading is making good grades, as scholastic standards must be maintained. In between studying and class work, the girls meet to drill, exercise and work out their cheers and dance steps.

Girls on the B squad are led by Judy Ogden and the team members are Robbie Blake, Carol Samuel, Nancy Sikes, Bonnie Caolo and Carol Oxford.

Dixie corn cakes are a reminder of the old South. Have the coffee pot next to the griddle, timed to be ready just as the corn cakes are scooped onto the plates. Serve hot off the griddle, with butter and hot maple or apple syrup and, of course, steaming cups of coffee.

Study Planned By First Baptist WMU

Mrs. John Maguire of Jacksonville, who is the wife of the Executive Secretary of the Florida Baptist Convention, will teach the book, "Hands Across The Sea," at the First Baptist Church this Friday, beginning at 7 p.m. whence they came and how American Baptists can help them in their growth. It is a very inspiring book, and Mrs. Maguire is known by many in this section as a very capable and interesting speaker.

A large crowd is expected to be present for this presentation. Simultaneously with Mrs. Maguire's teaching, a book for Primary Sunbeams will be taught. A nursery will be provided for small children.

Preceding the study, at 6 p.m. there will be a church wide family supper served by the WMS to which members of the WMU and Brotherhood and their families are invited.

Members of the North Orlando Garden Club met for the first time in the North Orlando Baptist Chapel to conduct their October meeting.

The business session, with Mrs. Vera Anderson presiding, was opened with the invocation by Mrs. Hilda Sommers after which Mrs. Maureen Riddley, secretary, read minutes of the last board meeting and of the last general meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Anderson.

In the reports from active committees, Mrs. Phyllis Black, chairman of the Garden of the Month Judging Committee, announced that the October award had been presented to Mrs. Elizabeth Harick. She advised, too, that the committee had voted to give each winner a small gift in addition to the awards plaque. Judging on lawns will be done on the basis of its all around general appearance, placement of flowers and shrubs and neatness and trimness of the overall picture, she said.

Mrs. Beverly Kreck, program chairman, gave her outline for remaining meetings of the year and club members voted to take over upkeep of shrubbery at the front entrance to the Village until such time as the repaving work on the Longwood-Oviedo Road necessitates its removal.

It was announced that Mrs. Lois Wallace will serve as club historian since Mrs. Pat Levy, original holder of the office, has moved from the community. Mrs. Anderson asked that books purchased by the club now held by the historian be given, instead, to Mrs. Etta Harville, parliamentarian, as was voted and approved at the last meeting.

Newly appointed committees announced included Year Book, Mrs. Lois Wallace, Mrs. Betty Nail and Mrs. Ruth Clark, and Flower Show. Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Doris Dean and Mrs. Myra Stodden.

Those attending enjoyed refreshments of coffee and sweets at the close of the meeting.

SAMUEL M. Whitehead Jr., was graduated from nine weeks of recruit training at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes last week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mark Whitehead Sr., 116 Grove Lane, Sanford.

Lyman Schedules Adult Spanish Class

An adult class in Conversational Spanish will open at Lyman High School at 7 p. m. Monday, according to an announcement by E. S. Douglass, Director of Vocational and Adult Education.

The instructor will be Stan Houston of the Lyman faculty. Houston is a graduate of Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, and lived in South America for two years. Last summer he attended National Defense Education Act foreign language institute at the University of Florida.

The course at Lyman will use the A-LM or Audio-lingual Materials approach. This approach was developed by a group of outstanding authorities, known as the Glastonbury Group, in the teaching of languages.

This research was carried out under the National Defense Education Act. Recordings are used to develop speaking and listening skills after which reading and writing skills are developed.

The materials for this course are sold at a nominal cost and the only other charge is the registration fee. Information on this course and others is available from E. S. Douglass, director of Vocational and Adult Education in Seminole County.

Village 4-H Club To Enter Parade

By MONA GRINSTEAD
The monthly combined meeting of all Project Groups of the North Orlando 4-H Boys and Girls Club was held at the home of Mrs. Anton Kreck, club leader, last Thursday immediately after school.

Coming up for general discussion by all members were field trips scheduled for the near future and a club entry in the annual Jaycee Christmas Parade in Sanford. The group voted to enter its own float as an individual club with Margaret Stevens, junior leader and recreation chairman, to head the parade committee. Weekly meetings of Project Groups also are held after school at the home of Mrs. Kreck.

Halloween Party 9 A. M. Saturday

The spooks will turn out in broad open daylight to kick off the Halloween season at a party Saturday morning for the preteens at the Arts and Crafts Building.

Host to the ghosts will be the Sanford Recreation Department with Mrs. Sue Torres, director of the Pre-Teen programs, in charge.

Mrs. Torres has arranged prizes for all who attend the party. Other prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. A door prize and awards for winners of the various games, also will be given.

All refreshments will be free and there will be plenty for everyone, says Jim Jernigan, director of recreation and parks.

Mrs. Torres says that children between the ages of 6 and 12 are invited to the party and that all interested in attending should be at the Arts and Crafts Building by 9 a. m. Saturday for the fun.

In last week's program the bubble blowing contest was the highlight. In the boys' division Lamar Oxford blew the first bubble and also the largest. For the girls Karen Dodridge blew the first bubble and Nancy Bone the largest. Judging the contest was Carol Torres.

Troops Escort American Into East Berlin

BERLIN (UPI) — The U. S. Army sent three jeeps loaded with armed soldiers, with guns loaded, past Communist guards today to escort an American civilian sedan into East Berlin.

For the second day in a row, U. S. troops drove into East Berlin to show American determination to keep the divided border open to Western traffic.

Five tanks and four armored personnel carriers roared up to the border when the civilian car first was stopped at the crossing point this afternoon. They stood fast as the jeeps—one in front and two behind—escorted the vehicle past the Red guards.

The combat-clad soldiers in the jeeps carried M-14 rifles with fixed bayonets and had their sub-machine guns cocked and loaded. The convoy went through the zig-zag maze put up by the Communists to slow traffic.

Once past the checkpoint and the Communist guards, the civilian car disappeared into the town and disappeared into East Berlin. The jeeps came back at high speed and a few minutes later, the civilian car also returned.

Earlier, the Communists stopped a U. S. official in civilian clothes who was carrying a message from Berlin's American commandant to the Soviet commander. He was permitted to cross into East Berlin only after he changed into an Army uniform.

The later incident came at mid-afternoon. Five tanks and four armored personnel carriers roared up to the border. Four jeeps of U. S. military policemen, wearing bullet-proof vests and steel helmets, fixed bayonets on their M-14 rifles. One of the tanks was going so fast it shot about five yards into East Berlin before it was stopped and turned around.

West Berlin police cleared the streets in the area of automobiles, and pushed back a crowd of about 500 spectators about a block.

Sanford Plea For Higher Osteen Bridge Rejected

The approved Osteen Bridge of 25-foot vertical clearance and 50-foot width would not be a "serious detriment" to the proposed Sanford-Canaveral Canal said Max Brewer, a member of the Florida State Road Department, today in a letter answering the City Commission's protest to the present dimensions.

Brewer's letter, dated Oct. 18, was directed to Mayor Joe Baker and outlined, he said, the thinking of the Road Department on the Osteen Bridge.

Brewer said that no one had been able to give the board any assurance as to the year the canal would be built. He explained that the Osteen bridge would be only one of several conflicting structures along the proposed route of the canal.

He listed the other structures as a four-lane highway bridge on U. S. 1, a four-lane highway bridge on I-95, a two-lane highway bridge on State Road 46 and a railroad bridge on the Florida East Coast Railroad.

Brewer said that constructing a bridge of 45 feet vertical clearance and 90 feet width before the canal is definitely approved would require a greater expenditure of highway funds than is justified and that such bridge would be of no direct benefit to highway users. "It would, in fact, benefit no one until and unless the canal is completed and at present we have no assurance of this," he said.

Brewer explained that when the canal is constructed it would be possible to build a detour, remove a part of the bridge structure and install a draw span. He said that this would cost more than a high level bridge built now.

"We have a choice at this time of either constructing the bridge on the basis set forth on the budget or delaying it indefinitely since the added cost of a 45-foot bridge is not available in this year's budget," Brewer concluded.

Navy Completes Jet Crash Probe

The Navy late Wednesday completed its investigation of an air collision of two jet bombers near the Sanford Naval Air Station Oct. 12, but said it would be some time before results of the probe are announced.

All six crewmen of the A3D Skywarrior jets were killed when the planes collided while practicing landings at Sanford, where they were based.

Capt. L. C. French, who headed the investigation board, said seven Navy men, all connected with the landing and air traffic systems at the base were called to testify before the board. They were not identified.

No charges have been made, said French, who is assistant chief of staff to Rear Admiral Joseph M. Carson, commander of Fleet Air Jacksonville.

The Navy also announced that night air traffic at Sanford was curtailed from Monday through Wednesday because the seven men called before the board were not available to perform their regular duties.

Kidnap Threat

ENCINO, CALIF. (UPI) — Police protection was given Roy Gable, widow of actor Clark Gable, early today following a report of a plot to kidnap her 7-month-old son, John Clark Gable.

Kennedy To Cut Spending In Face Of Huge Deficit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy, faced with a prospective federal deficit of nearly $7 billion, told his Cabinet today that he intends to spend "substantially less" than Congress authorized for the current 12 months.

The White House did not say how big a tuck Kennedy will take in expenditures. But press secretary Pierre Salinger said this would be reflected in the mid-year budget review which will be made public Sunday night.

Kennedy, in a long statement to the Cabinet and a group of 13 agency heads, urged them to cut down all spending commitments "not absolutely necessary to the national interest at this time."

He also said he believed the government could function efficiently with fewer employees than Congress voted funds for. The White House declined to say whether this meant a reduction in the present federal force or a freeze on government jobs.

The president emphasized the need for a slowdown in spending programmed earlier this year for specific anti-recession purposes, saying the recuperative force of private enterprise has reversed the downward trend in income and employment and brought about a "steady and strong recovery."

Florida Ready To Slap Embargo On Livestock

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — An embargo against shipments of most livestock into Florida was expected to go into effect momentarily today—intended to prevent a recurrence of screwworms in Florida.

Agriculture Commissioner Doyle Conner ordered the step Wednesday but did not set a definite date.

The order came on the recommendation of Conner's technical advisory committee on livestock. The committee acted on the advice of federal and state officials in Alabama and Georgia, who said they were experiencing a "critical" situation with screwworms and warned Florida to seal off its borders or face the same problem.

Conner said the screwworms—an animal parasite—were spreading southward at an "alarming rate" and once established in Florida, where they can survive the warm winters, "could migrate north in warm weather and once more menace the livestock industry in the entire Southeast."

He said the order would be a temporary hardship on some persons, but that it was necessary to protect the industry.

DELAND (UPI) — Two school officials were expected to appear today before a Volusia County grand jury investigating a $15 million school construction program.

Robert Graft, director of school planning and John R. Godbee, school attorney, were expected to testify on reported problems at three West Volusia schools under construction.

Wednesday former Volusia County finance director John Martin met with the jury. County School Superintendent John H. Smiley was the only witness.

Every week draws nearer to the coming holiday season and now is the time for shoppers to be looking over the wonderful stocks of gifts, clothing, appliances, furniture and many other needs and wants for the home and family and for personal giving.

Sanford merchants in the wide-awake, lit-up, music-enhanced downtown area are projecting Friday nights, when the stores are open until 9 p. m., as a good time to look things over, layaway, use your charge account, or buy now and they will hold it for you.

Merchants Gift Certificates in the amounts of $40, $30, $20 and $10 will be given away for the lucky ticket holders at the sound truck located on the corner of First and Magnolia at approximately 9:15 p. m., Friday. A few of those gift certificates could go a long way to supporting that Christmas shopping list.

Clean Bill Of Health Given After Inquiry

The Seminole Grand Jury this afternoon gave the County Home a clean bill of health and reported that charges of "misconduct and mistreatment were unfounded."

In a two paragraph statement submitted to Circuit Judge Roger Barker of Orlando, the jury found that the charges of "misconduct and mistreatment made against county employees at the County Home and as a result of a full and complete investigation into these charges, it has been determined that they are unfounded."

"The grand jury wishes to express its appreciation to the public officials who have assisted them in their performance of their job."

After the jury submitted the report to Judge Barker, the judge told them their term expired Nov. 6, and that unless other matters were brought to their attention their job was completed.

Last month, The Herald received a letter from a resident of the home claiming mistreatment of three residents there.

After an informal County Commission meeting, the board also gave home superintendent J. P. Boal a clean bill of health.

JOE BAKER

Baker To Stand For Re-Election

Mayor Joe Baker has officially announced his candidacy for a second term as a member of the Sanford City Commission.

"During the last three years," Baker said, "I have tried to represent all of the people of Sanford in a fair and efficient manner."

"I feel that the knowledge and experience I have acquired through operating my own business, plus the experience of helping run our municipal government, will qualify me for re-election in the eyes of the voters."

"It has been a great satisfaction to me to have been able to participate in the accomplishments of our city. I urge everyone to consider my voting record and feel free to ask me any questions."

Baker, 31, a lifelong resident of Sanford, is an owner-producer of Perfection Cooperative Dairy. He attended local schools, graduated from the University of Georgia with a degree in Business Administration and served two years as an Intelligence Officer with the Strategic Air Command.

He is a deacon in the First Presbyterian Church, vice-president and director of the Seminole County Farm Bureau, member of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees and the Navy League.

Baker lives at 521 Plumosa Drive with his wife, Jean and children Susan, Cindy and Stephen.

Smathers Irked By OAS Lethargy

LAKELAND (UPI) — If the Organization of American States doesn't act soon to condemn Cuban Premier Fidel Castro, Sen. George Smathers says he will urge the formation of another hemispheric organization.

Smathers made the comment in a speech Wednesday night. Earlier he condemned the OAS for failure to act against the Castro regime.

Smathers proposed a NATO-type military force ready for mutual defense against Communism in this hemisphere. He said it would be formed outside the OAS.

Frank G. Lucey First To Qualify At Casselberry

Frank G. Lucey qualified Tuesday and became Casselberry's first candidate to enter the Dec. 4 election contest.

Running on an independent ticket, Lucey will seek a seat on the Board of Aldermen where terms expire this year for Lytle Swaps, present chairman of the board and Ben Evans.

In his five-point platform, he proposes a municipally owned road maintenance department; enforcement of existing ordinances rather than creation of new ones covering many of the same problems; the division of the town into wards or precincts with responsible representatives from each to provide the town government with pertinent information concerning problems or improvements vital to the welfare of each section; streamlined board meetings with allotted time for public question and answer periods and creation of supervised neighborhood playgrounds for younger children.

Lucey says he believes all of the proposals "for the right reason and that they would go far toward making a better town for all concerned."

Other offices open are those of the mayor, the town clerk and town marshal. Candidates may qualify and voters may register at the offices of Mrs. Lillian Beisel, clerk, in the Town Hall on Tuesday and Thursday mornings of each week through Nov. 24.

Drought Spreads Across South

United Press International Winds of near hurricane force pounded the Great Lakes and rain fell from New York to Virginia and Illinois today but the drought continued unabated in parched Dixie.

Western Pennsylvania's mountains got their first freeze.

A low pressure in south-east Canada produced rain from Chicago to the Atlantic and gales on the Great Lakes. Texas had thunder storms.

Extended drought brought forest fire warnings from Florida to southern Illinois.

A nearly rainless six-week period has forced closing of some parks and recreation areas in Dixie.

Hoffa Loses In Election Ruling

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa suffered a legal setback today in his efforts to block the anticipated defection of 2,000 teamsters in the Cincinnati area.

Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff rejected the union's request to halt a National Labor Relations Board representation election scheduled for next Tuesday.

About 2,000 employees of Cincinnati area dairies and ice cream plants are scheduled to choose between Teamsters' Local 98 and the rebel union led by James Luken, a long-time Hoffa foe.

Hoffa, who was in the courtroom, said his union would appeal the ruling.

Luken's local already has voted overwhelmingly to leave the teamsters and apply for an AFL-CIO charter.

By LARRY VERHEL. What's this about County Judge Vernon Mize and City Judge Ken Melstosh taking up weight-lifting? The word around the courthouse is that department heads are really "bumming" over the 15 parking stalls placed in back of the facility. Seems the majority of them don't feel that the County Commissioners need five reserved places while their office staff is left out in the cold. One official told us: "They're here once every two weeks. Why do they need a special place?"

The new vote precinct 22 will be your Home Food service plant at 410 W. 13th St. Supervisor of Registration Camilla Bruce tells us that post cards will be sent out early next week to notify some 8,000 voters of a change in their precincts.

Insiders have been wearing "I told you so" looks these days with the formal incorporation of a non-profit organization to extend legalized gambling to include casinos and state controlled lotteries. State Rep. Mack Cleveland was cornered on this issue and told me, he would never vote for any extension of legalized gambling. "The only reason I voted for the horse track here was because it was a mandate of the people."

By the way, Florida only permits gambling on jai-alai, and on horse and dog races at present. And wasn't the state's attorney asked to look into lottery operations in the area?
