S. H. S. Glee Club Will Present Variety Program At Chapel Time

The S.H.S. Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Tom Jackson, will present a variety program next Thursday morning, Feb. 18, in the Chapel of S.H.S.

The Glee Club, as a whole, will present the following numbers:

"Smoke Gets in Your Eyes"
 "Little Big Echo"
 "The World is Waiting For The Sunrise"
 A boys' trio, composed of Emmett Herndon, Ed White, and Billy Brumley, will sing two numbers:

"Carolinella"
 "Pickin' Cotton"
 A girls' trio, composed of Lois Meriwether, Alma Grantham, and Marjorie Hubler, will present one number:

"Glamira Mia"
 A girls' trio, composed of Marjorie Parkins, Ann Wiggins, and Mildred Robson, will present one number:

"In My Solitude"
 There will be two solos on the program:

"Indian Love Call"—sung by Betty King
 "One Alone"—sung by Lucy Ward

The girls' Glee Club will sing "Chirberlin"; and the Boys' Glee Club will present their version of "Heart Hearted Men".

There will also be a novelty fantasia, "Down on Our Farm", presented by S.H.S.'s Orchestra.

Mechanics

Well one semester is gone and mechanics is still as popular as it was when it began at the first of the year.

The autos, which were contributed to us to be torn down and all the parts cleaned, are just about completely demolished.

Ernest Brotherson and Adrian Stacy are the ones to whom the credit should be given for the tearing the Ford V-8s body from the frame. This work was finished Feb. 10 with the help of Rabbit Daniels, Sam Thurmond and Jimmy Ridge.

Billy Southwards new convertible coupe has received most of his attention this week. He has been fixing it up to suit his taste and nearly every student is working on the Packard motor. They put the transmission back in only to find that it had to be taken out because some studs had been left out and they had to be put in before the engine could be placed on the chassis.

"Cracker" Donaldson is leaving school to attend defense school Monday. We will all miss his clowning and remarks. Best of luck, "Cracker".

"Mimi" Altman and I have been cleaning the plates to go back over the valves. We have been buffing the sides of them. It is very interesting to work the buffing machine.

W. L. Hines had been in charge of the tools. He is the official keeper of the tools for a week. A new tool keeper is appointed by Mr. Hoffman each Monday and keeps the tools for the week. It is very interesting to work the buffing machine.

Many of us who are taking this course this semester are working in an air plane factory as a mechanic.

Who's Who

Virginia Kelly, a member of the Senior Class, was born in Evergreen, Ala., Dec. 7, 1924. Her favorite food is pineapple sandwiches. She enjoys her favorite sport.

Girls Gym

"Run around one more time, girls; run lightly on your toes, heads up, chins in, shoulders back, don't look at the floor." This is one of the many warming up exercises Mrs. E. J. our Physical Education instructor is getting us through. She is doing this to increase one's wind for endurance and vitality. After undergoing these "paces", we take breathing exercises to regulate our respiration. Mrs. Samuel is also stressing the importance of a good posture, and is instructing us in the proper ways of walking.

Many of the girls have been going out for practices after school to get warmed up for the class tournament.

Vocational School

HARRY E. BEASLEY

MRS. HALL had a surprise when her son, Gordon, now in the navy, came home for a short visit this week.

The following students have been working at Mr. Kirchoff's Office, addressing cards, this week. MIRIAM SPIEL, the former reporter of this column, is working part time at the Welfare Office in the Meisch Building. WINIFRED LOVELL has passed a Civil Service test and is going to work at the Naval Station soon.

The total number of students from Vocational School who have secured regular jobs since school closed in July 1942 is about 60. The total number of those who have held temporary or part-time jobs is about 20.

The following students took the Civil Service test this week: MRS. E. B. SMITH, RUTH WEI, BOLIV, some of the others are going to take it next week.

The school has been busy this week cutting stencils. We had such a rush that Mrs. Hall had to help out.

We are sorry to lose the following students: MRS. GAHAN who is moving to Orlando, MRS. RANBOTOM who is moving to Mt. Dora, and all the students who are skipping school. We hope those who have been skipping will soon come back.

The new pupils are: Mrs. FANSHIE KEENER, MRS. PAUL BROWN, MRS. TEMPLEMAN, MRS. MARGIE TILLIS, JOYCE WHIDDON, and RUSSEL CLELAND.

MRS. MAXWELL'S "Victory Class," which was organized last Fall for a stream-lined course in shorthand has now completed the course and nearly every student is working. The new class, which is being organized, is another "Victory Class."

MRS. MAXWELL would like to have all borrowed books returned by the borrower without her having to write them.

The new classes, which started Monday, are in Filing and Office Practice and also Shorthand. If you care to join one of these classes please do so this week if possible.

MRS. McINTYRE has finished second year bookkeeping and is now ready for a job.

It is this semester more interesting we give you a few of the jokes that got around up here, as here are this week:

Mrs. Maxwell, correcting Winifred in her grammar: "You don't know the king's English." Winifred: "Oh yes I do, and so is the queen."

Editor: "No; begin!"
 Mrs. Hall: "Why does the whole class blow for a fire?"
 Helen: "It doesn't blow for a fire, it blows for water. They have the fire."

It is to our credit by these jokes we will close this week, but we warn you there will be more.

Community Service

Community Service

HARRY E. BEASLEY

Jean Whigham, captain of the Community Service Division, announced in order to qualify a student should be planning and have begun preliminary preparation for work in the community or other service occupations, such as: teaching, social work, medicine, stenographer, typist, bookkeeper, salesman, or other distribution or commercial service. At least three of the following will serve as evidence of plans and preparation:

(a) Must have pursued or be pursuing a program which includes courses definitely pointed to preparation for service occupations at the professional level.

(b) Must have pursued or be pursuing a program which includes courses definitely pointed to preparation for commercial distribution, homemaking, or similar community service occupation to be entered upon leaving high school.

(c) Must be engaging in some form of part time work, either paid or voluntary in some form of community service.

(d) Must be participating in a program of military drill.

(e) In addition to these they must be participating in a program of physical fitness which is required for General Membership.

We had more "gods" like Warren Daniels, Jimmy Ridge, and Billy Fleming.

There were more girls with figures like Marjorie Hodges.

There were more good dancers like O.D. Landress, Lillian Walsh, and Bobby Proctor.

There were more good singers like Lucy Ward and Emmett Herndon.

There were more "regular girls" like Helen Hutchins.

There were more students with Sylvia Meisch's personality.

There were more blondes like Audrey Bach.

There were more boys in circulation.

There were more good-looking brunettes like Shirley Eick.

There were more cute seniors like Mary Rabun and Jean Harper.

There were more good chapel programs.

There was a Sadie Hawkins' Day to look forward to.

Graduation came anytime you wanted it to.

War Bonds & Stamps

This week Seminole High School has reached its half-year goal of $4,000 in War Bonds and Stamps.

During the first four days of February, the five persons that have completed stamp books and received bonds were: Lois Meriwether, Florine Trawick, Emmett Herndon, Thorton Madden, and Robert Mincey. We hope that each of us who buys stamps each week will fill our books and receive our bond before June. After all, stamps don't pay interest and bonds do.

It is to our advantage to exchange our stamps for bonds as quickly as possible. During January the following exchanged their stamps for bonds or bought bonds: Billy Brumley, Billy Johnson, Charles Dawson, Harold Hall, Helen Quarterman, Billy Epps, Miss Riser, Mrs. Fort, and Miss Karis.

For ultimate Victory we must continue to purchase War Bonds and Stamps.

ARMY NURSES IN INDIA

AMERICAN ARMY NURSES are on duty in widely-scattered parts of the globe. Wherever U. S. soldiers are stationed you will find the untiring nurses who care for them. They are in Australia, England, Africa, and New Caledonia, to name a few of the lands in which they serve. They were at Bataan and Corregidor, too. Not all of their day, however, is spent in the arduous duties of their calling. Occasionally, they find time to go on sightseeing tours and have dates. In the photos below, a number of these American girls stationed in India are shown having a bit of recreation between working hours.

BOY MEETS GIRL—on Main Street in India—it's still fun. U. S. Army nurse Lieut. Helen Housman, Fairlawn, N. J., and Lieut. Bob Bruno, Mt. Airy, Ill. hold hands at the Officers Club in New D.

Mrs. McKinnon was very proud to have 12 girls of the Junior Red Cross stay after school to help make bannages.

She had only five girls to begin with. Now other girls have gotten interested in making them. People can salute the flag and sing the Star Spangled Banner, but that isn't enough to win the war. They should make bannages for our soldiers. The Red Cross Room at the Sanford Grammar School is open until four thirty in the afternoon.

Foye Mae Cogburn Room 8

Room 8 has a new pupil who is Sue Smathers. She came to Sanford from Marianna. She came to Florida from California. Her father was stationed in Honolulu for four years before they were sent to California. Ensign Smathers was in Honolulu Dec. 7, 1941 when Pearl Harbor was bombed. At present, Sue's father is instructor at the Sanford Air Base. Room 4 has a new pupil, Carol Bohannon. He came from Georgia. Room 6 has a substitute, Mrs.

S. A. B. Wilkinson. Miss Campbell's father is sick and she has to be away. But we all hope she will be back soon.

Some girls take GARDUI, as directed, three days before "their time" to help relieve periodic pain due only to functional causes. Others take it as a tonic to stimulate appetite and aid digestion by increasing the flow of gastric juices, thus helping build up strength for those demanding days to come. A 62-year record says GARDUI may help. Try it, won't you?—adv.

News Notes

S.H.S. welcomes George Halman from Jacksonville as a Junior.

Joyce Harrell attended the wedding of her brother Sgt. Robert E. Harrell from Sanford, who is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., to Margaret Bolly, also from Sanford. The wedding took place at Phoenix City, Ala. last Friday.

The count taken Monday showed that a total of 254 students and teachers attended some church activity during the week-end.

S.H.S. regrets that Virginia Chapman has been ill with influenza at her home on Nineteenth Street.

The Student Council had its regular luncheon in the Home Economics room last Friday.

Valarie Wells left today for Tampa to take her final examination for enlistment into the WAACs.

Martha Carraway, a former student of Sanford Schools, wrote "The Life of Samuel Johnson" in verse which was published in Seminole County School News last week. Martha, who is a Senior, attends Oviedo School.

Mrs. Brownlee, wife of the Presbyterian minister, will be at the High School each Thursday, beginning this week, to give advice to those students who wish it.

Worth Celebrating

It is always something of an occasion in the life of Sanford when a man of the prominence of a governor or a senator makes a visit to this city, but it is an event of outstanding importance when a governor and a senator arrive here on successive days, especially when both of them are to make public appearances. And when of them happens to be Claude Pepper and the governor Spessard Holland, the excitement is apt to be almost too much for most of us.

Senator Pepper is coming here on an inspection trip of the St. Johns River and will deliver an address before the Rotary Club on Monday. He has not been here since shortly before Pearl Harbor when he so correctly forecast the Japanese sneak attack and like Paul Revere warned us all that the enemy is coming. On this visit his predictions on the course of the war and what is to come after the war will be watched closer than ever, though his primary objective is to study the merits of the proposed 12-foot channel in the river.

Gov. Holland is coming here on the invitation of Mrs. E. F. Housholder to participate in a patriotic rally which will be held at the Band Shell in connection with the departure of a group of selectees for Camp Blanding. Gov. Holland and Comdr. F. Massie Hughes will both make talks at this meeting to which the people of the entire county have been invited. After this a luncheon will be given in the Governor's honor at the Mayfair Hotel where he will again address a large gathering of civic leaders.

As far as we can recall this is the first time any Governor has ever come to Sanford for a public appearance after he was elected governor. Former Gov. Sholtz did participate in the dedication of the St. Johns River bridge at Monroe near here. A number of other governors have been here for informal conferences, and of course all of them have been here before their election. But we believe this is the first time one has made a public speech here after election.

It will be a great occasion for Sanford and we hope that everyone, not only from this city, but from the county towns as well, will turn out to hear him. There are many big problems, many of them dealing with taxation, which are waiting to be solved in the Spring session of the Legislature and we know the public will be interested in learning the Governor's views.

But more than all, we know that everyone will want to have a part in this patriotic rally.

Easy Driving

One of the compensations for the various inconveniences of war time is the improvement of traffic conditions for motorists who still drive. Except for the fuel stringency, driving is pleasanter than it has been for many years. There are so few cars on main streets and highways that a driver almost feels as if he had the road to himself. Sometimes the speed limit is felt as a handicap, but 35 miles an hour isn't bad when one gets used to it. There is compensation, too, in the knowledge that fuel is being saved and the life of the tires prolonged.

Not the least blessing of this forced economy is the recent order issued by Joseph B. Eastman, director of the Office of Defense Transportation. He wants the traffic stop signs, lights and cycles readjusted so as to interfere less with motor traffic. What motorist ever expected such cooperation as this? It is done, however, not as a favor to the driver in a hurry, but to avoid the waste of rubber and gas in needless stopping and starting.

Baseball's Nestor

Cornie Mack is 80 years old. The grand old man of baseball seems likely to go on forever. Anyone who has had to watch the Philadelphia Athletics for the last 10 years must be proof against the ordinary hazards of life. What buoy him up as he looks at his floundering athletes of today is the recollection of his triumphs of the past, and the hope of others yet to come.

Once before he went through a long series of reverses. After breaking up the famous team of 1910-14 he had to manage "fall-enders" for 15 years before the slow process of building up a pennant contender produced results. The end justified the wait. Teams that included such players as Blinnson, Cochran, Frank, Grove and Earnshaw "did not take off their hats to any nine anywhere."

From the crest of the wave he descended into the trough, and has been there for 10 years. But Cornie has faith. He knows that, given time, he will some day have a real ball team again. Like the Count of Monte Cristo, he can justly boast, "Time and I against the world."

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13. (W. W.)—According to the District of Columbia division of the American Automobile Association, the national statistics show the year 1942 was the "year of the car."

The AAA survey, conducted in 1942, shows that car activity in the United States has increased by an average of approximately two persons per car, so slight an increase over the start of the automobile era.

Not only that, but the AAA has found that the car is the most important item in the household. It is the most important item in the household, and the most important item in the household.

The AAA survey also shows that the car is the most important item in the household. It is the most important item in the household, and the most important item in the household.

THAR SHE BLOWS!

Questions - Answers

1. Q. I am a shoe retailer. Is the shoe rationing regulation in effect even if I don't have a copy of it?

A. Yes, the rationing order becomes legally effective as soon as it was filed with the Federal Register, Sunday afternoon, February 7, 1943.

2. Q. How does an individual who has given his Ration Book to a boarding house, dormitory or other institutional establishment get stamp No. 17 to buy shoes?

A. He must borrow his Ration Book and take it with him to buy his shoes. The Ration Book must be returned to the boarding house or institution immediately.

3. Q. Can a stamp No. 17 which is removed from Ration Book be used to secure a pair of shoes?

A. No. You must remove the stamp in the presence of your shoe merchant. The one exception is when you order shoes by mail. A loose stamp must be attached to your order.

4. Q. Under rationing, how do I return shoes to my dealer for cash refund or credit to my account?

A. If your dealer agrees to accept the change of mind, he will also return to you one stamp No. 17 and a cash refund receipt or credit slip. If under these circumstances you present a loose stamp to another merchant, you must also give him your credit slip or cash refund receipt.

5. Q. If I ordered shoes, or if I had them made, on February 7, 1943, and I claim them later without a ration stamp?

A. Yes, you may acquire shoes that were shipped or mailed to you before the effective date of the order, or that were arranged, marked, or held for delivery as well as shoes placed in day-away departments, on or before February 7, 1943, if they are delivered to you on or after that date for delivery to you within three days, Tuesday, February 9, 1943, or Wednesday, February 10, 1943, if they are delivered to you after the effective date of the order.

6. Q. If I am a consumer, retailer, jobber, manufacturer, or producer, how do I get my ration stamp?

An Easy Lesson On How To Get A Coaching Job

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Feb. 16.—Take it from Dr. Eugene Lambert, average athletes have a better chance of getting coaching and teaching jobs by attending their own state university.

His statement was made in connection with the comment that the University of Arkansas, of which he now is athletic director, must improve its system of obtaining football talent if Razorback teams were to return to the high place attained in the Southwest Conference during the late twenties and mid-thirties.

Arkansas hasn't won a conference football game since the middle of the 1940 season.

"It's easy for stars to get jobs whether they attend their own state university or anywhere else," Dr. Lambert declared, "but stars are few and far between and, for every star, there are at least a dozen players making the stars' seats possible."

Clarence Geis was a steady and smart quarterback for Arkansas although he didn't make long runs for touchdowns, Lambert said, but Geis now is coach of Little Rock High School. Al Harris, he added, was a loose observing quarterback for the Razorbacks who didn't get the plaudits of the crowd, but he's now coach of Pine Bluff High School.

Other Arkansas footballers he recalled among the "average players" included Emil Boepfle, coach of Memphis Technical High; Leslie Nations, former Fayetteville High coach and now assistant at Fort Smith High; and Estes McDaniel, Harrison High coach.

Dr. Lambert said an athlete's own state university would lean over backward to keep a state athlete in school while many schools that desired one athlete from another state would encourage three or more to attend from that state, and later cut off the scholarships from all except the one picked as the best.

smoke," Chief Cleveland concluded.

If Mrs. Jones recovers, and Dr. Stark gives her a fifty-fifty chance, it will be due to the prompt action of the negro boys, names unrevealed, who returning from a dance heard the screams of Mrs. Jones, as clothing aflame, she fled from the burning home. Tearing the flaming clothing from the woman, the boys quickly enveloped her in an overcoat, according to Daisy Kinard, a neighbor, who with her husband had been roused from their bed by the screams. Samul Kinard their son then drove Mrs. Jones to the hospital.

Frank Marshall, orange picker for Chase and Company for whom Jones had worked in the same capacity, was asleep with his wife in another front bedroom. Hearing Mrs. Jones screaming, he stated that he rushed to the rear door and saw the boys tearing the flaming clothing from her. He then called his wife, and both escaped without any ill effects from the fire, other than loss of possessions.

City Inspector Grady Duncan who visited the charred home this morning, pointed out that there were three doors in the bedroom in which Jones was trapped. Against the one in the front opening to the porch was a trunk, while charred remains showed that a table had stood against a door at the side. Only the door to the kitchen offered escape and that opened inward.

Calling Negro Man "Mister" Arouses Southern Senators

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (AP)—Embodied over the pros and cons whether certain government people are "crackpots" and if so what to do about it, the House heard debate recently ranging from the war to Errol Flynn's acquittal.

The outstanding developments on the floor were:

1. Clarence Cannon, Democrat, of Missouri, chairman of the Appropriations Committee, announced that he would "take the House tomorrow to authorize creation of a five-man subcommittee to pass on the qualifications of Federal employees whose loyalty or fitness is questioned. It would hear testimony on both sides and report to the House, and Mr. Cannon promised that it would not encroach on the Dies committee.

2. Representative Jerry Voorhis, Democrat, of California, a member of that group (the House committee on un-American activities) severely criticized Chairman Martin Dies, Democrat, of Texas, for submitting to the House last Monday a list of thirty-five Federal officials to be barred from employment on what Mr. Voorhis called the "generalized charge" that their views were "unacceptable to some one else."

Mr. Voorhis contended that it was not the committee's "province" to sit in judgment on the political views of any loyal American, he be reactionary or radical.

"It is quite a possible to make up a list of persons that one can describe as 'crackpot' on one side of the fence as it is upon the other," he continued. "A man can be a 'crackpot' conservative as easily as a 'crackpot' radical."

Following Mr. Voorhis to the floor, Representative Vito Marcantonio, American Labor, New York, remarked that "while Americans are gloriously fighting at Guadalcanal and North Africa, and the Red Army is smashing the enemy at Stalingrad and Rostov, Hitler and Martin Dies are still crusading against Communism."

The lively discussion arose when Mr. Dies took the floor with further accusations against William Pickens, Negro securities promotion specialist, whose continued employment by the Treasury the House had voted to prohibit under an amendment by Representative Joe Hendricks, Democrat, of Florida.

Mr. Pickens was on Mr. Dies' list last week and the Texan detailed what he called a record of Mr. Pickens' Communist affiliations, at the same time disclaiming any racial prejudice.

Mr. Hendricks likewise disavowed any racial prejudices. He said he did not know, when he offered his amendment to an appropriations bill, that Mr. Pickens was a Negro, and indicated that the proof of this was that he had called the man "Mr. Pickens."

"Any man from the South doesn't call a colored man 'mister,'" Mr. Hendricks explained.

It was Mr. Hendricks who brought up the Flynn case, after others contended that Mr. Pickens was entitled to "a day in court" before being penalized.

"I've had a trial out on the coast last week," Mr. Hendricks observed, "and I understand that Errol Flynn, the movie actor, was acquitted Saturday of certain charges. He had his day in court, understand—and was acquitted."

"But would any of you good gentlemen in this House want your daughters to take a trip on his yacht with Mr. Errol Flynn?" Representative William L. Dawson, Democrat, of Illinois, only Negro member of Congress, making his first speech before the House, drew lengthy applause when he recited why he believed "William Pickens is not a Com-

cratic floor leader, took the same tack and exhibited obvious anger as he shouted that the House "must act with decency and an Anglo-Saxon sense of fairness."

FOR VICTORY Use Gas Wisely

- 8 Ways You Can Help Save Gas
- Do not use your Gas Range oven or top burners for heating your kitchen.
 - Cook whole meals in oven.
 - Cook "one-dish" meals on top burners.
 - Don't wash hands, shave or wash dishes in running hot water. Repair leaky faucets.
 - Use as little hot water as possible. Heat no more water than necessary. Turn off burner promptly.
 - Keep room temperatures at 65 degrees or lower.
 - Close bedroom doors at night. Close off unused rooms.
 - Never leave refrigerator door open. Cool cooked foods before placing in refrigerator.
- USE LESS GAS FOR COOKING AND CONSERVE OIL FOR THE WAR EFFORT
- Because oil is used in making gas, every bit of gas you save releases oil for our fighting forces and for war production plants. That's why your government is urging you to use LESS gas for cooking, heating water, refrigeration and heating purposes.
- We are cooperating with the War Production Board and the Petroleum Administration for War to save all the oil we can in our manufacturing plants. You can help by following the simple rules at the left.
- To do your part in saving oil for the war fronts—use LESS gas today and everyday.

Nazis In Headlong Retreat To Dnieper River From Kharkov

Red Armies Advance Near Taganrog In Pursuit Of 250,000 Fleeing Germans

(By Associated Press) With Kharkov fallen and the winter defense shattered, the German armies were reported today in headlong retreat toward the Dnieper River in the heart of the Ukraine amid the conjecture that the swift-moving Russian might beat them to their goal.

The Russian command announced their armies had stormed within 17 miles of Taganrog in pursuit of 250,000 Germans fleeing along the shores of Sea of Azov.

Russian troops in furious battle captured the skyscraper city of Kharkov yesterday, toppling the most powerful Nazi base in all Southern Russia, and impelling all German units occupying the battle area east of the Dnieper River, a special Soviet communiqué declared last night.

The fall of the important industrial center and former capital of the rich Ukraine marked a 375-mile advance west from Stalingrad since the Russian Winter offensive began in November, and the most significant victory for Soviet arms outside the triumph at Stalingrad itself.

In the final assault, Red army men routed some of Hitler's best SS and Panzer Corps in a series of bitter battles that culminated in a drive from Kharkov on January 21. The fall of the city, a strategic stronghold of the Nazis, was reported by the Soviet Ministry of War yesterday.

From Kharkov, vital railway center second in importance only to Moscow, the Germans threatened new traps for German forces retreating across the plains east of the Dnieper.

Kharkov had been in German hands since October 24, 1941, months after the start of the Nazi invasion. It normally was a city of 800,000, was immense industries and the trunk railroad lines radiating from it.

At Kharkov the Russians now stand about 125 miles northwest of the Dnieper at Dnepropetrovsk and the speed with which their offensive has crunched forward indicates the Germans' whole system of "Hedgehog" defenses in Southern Russia is virtually eliminated.

Richard Giles Is Second Lieutenant In Army Air Corps

NAPIER FIELD, Dothan, Ala., Feb. 17, (Special)—Second lieutenant's bars and the silver wings of an Army Air Corps pilot will grace the uniform of Aviation Cadet Richard S. Giles of Sanford, following his graduation today from the Army Air Forces Advanced Flying School, Napier Field, Dothan, Ala.

Aviation Cadet Giles and other members of his class will be graduated at ceremonies in the Grand Chapel at Napier Field with Colonel James L. Daniel, Jr., Commanding Officer, presiding. It has been announced by the Public Relations Office. The oath of office will be administered by Major Herman L. Harris, Post Adjutant.

Cadet Giles' graduation today will see him completing flight training that has carried him through primary, basic and advanced schools. When he receives his diploma from Colonel Daniel he will be entitled to take his place in the ranks of the young aviators who are flying throughout the world for the Army Air Corps.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Giles of Orlando, Cadet Giles attended the East High School. He was employed by the Jita Theater in Sanford until he entered the armed service March 17, 1942. He was accepted for Army flying training May 13, 1942.

R.A.F. Returns To Attack Sub Nest At Orient

Nazis Retaliate, As Aircraft Strafe Coastal Towns In Southern Wales

(By Associated Press) R. A. F. night raiders returned to attack on the battered U-boat nest at Orient, France, while German planes strafed coastal towns in South Wales.

The radio followed up attacks by United States four-motored Flying Fortresses and Liberators on the German submarine base at St. Nazaire in France.

A daredevil German flying circus and a certain of distracting antiaircraft fire met the American bombers as they made their second attack against Europe in two days and the third Allied assault against battered St. Nazaire in four days.

They attacked us right after we dumped our bombs, came in again and again, and kept after us for nearly an hour right until we got to the channel," said Capt. J. W. Carter of Lawton, Ohio, pilot of a Fortress called "Carter and His Little Pills."

The crews came back feeling that they had done a hard day's work after dropping their bombs dead on the target. Their planes carried an assortment of holes in the noses, wings, fuselages and propellers as evidence of the heavy fighting. But individual casualties appeared to have been light.

German planes, taking advantage of bright moonlight for their heaviest night raiding in several weeks, bombed scattered areas in southwestern England and South Wales last night. At least three enemy bombers were destroyed.

A few raiders visited the South Wales coastal area for the first time this year and dropped high explosives and flares over a coastal town and the surrounding district. Preliminary reports said there were a number of casualties and several houses were demolished.
