Donors' Names Not Revealed By Stevenson

No Point In Telling Who Contributed To Special Fund, Candidate Insists

BALTIMORE (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson said today he will not reveal the names of those who contributed to or received money from a special cash fund he set up to supplement the pay of some Illinois State officials.

"There is no point in revealing any names," the Democratic presidential nominee said.

"It would be publicity they do not deserve and a breach of good faith on my part, too."

Sen. Richard Nixon, the Republican vice-presidential nominee, and several other Republicans have demanded that Stevenson reveal details of the fund. Nixon talked about the report to the nation Tuesday night on his own $18,000 fund for political expenses.

The governor discussed his fund at a breakfast of 550 volunteers for Stevenson which wound up a week's campaigning in the East.

He said he chose the method of raising the income of "key state employees" because the positions were filled by men who not only took the jobs at less money than they had been receiving "but gave us security for the hazards of government."

He said one official had at least three times turned down offers from private enterprises at more than three times his public salary.

This loyalty and devotion is very hard to attract, and once attracted it is very hard to tear lightly," Stevenson said.

The Illinois governor said he hoped "this discussion will focus attention on this problem on all levels of government."

He maintained that adequate compensation for public officials is one of the major reasons for good government.

Stevenson closed his campaign swing with the assertion he is sure of victory in the presidential election.

In his final major speech of the Eastern final he declared the Republicans were responsible for inflation and the high cost of living.

C. Wayland Brooks, Illinois Republican national committeeman and former U. S. senator from Illinois, demanded yesterday in a letter to Stevenson that he should draw. He said he was not going to talk about the fund because Stevenson had made a statement about it.

Mitchell has demanded that Sen. Richard Nixon of California resign as Republican vice-presidential candidate because of the $18,235 contributed by a group of California businessmen to supplement his government income and expense funds.

Stevenson has acknowledged that he collected a fund to augment state salaries of some of his appointive officers. However, he said, there was nothing secretive or improper about the fund.

In Baltimore, where Stevenson made a major address last night, newsmen asked his press secretary, William Flanagan, about the demand by Brooks.

St. Louis Chosen As Site For Next Year's AFL Meet

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Federation of Labor today selected St. Louis as next year's convention site—provided it is assured that Negro delegates will not face discrimination.

A spokesman for the AFL Executive Council said St. Louis was chosen on the condition that George Meany, AFL secretary-treasurer, finds that "broad accommodations and other conditions" will be satisfactory.

The spokesman said the AFL wanted assurance that its Negro delegates would be accommodated.

A. Phillip Randolph, president of the all-Negro Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, objected Tuesday when Miami, Fla., and St. Louis were mentioned as possible sites for next September's convention.

The AFL convention here concluded Tuesday and the choice of next year's site was left to the 15-member AFL Executive Council.

The council will hold its next meeting in Miami Feb. 2.

Other officers elected were John Humbley, vice president; F. G. Kilpatrick, secretary; and Roland Dean, member of the executive committee.

Mr. Spencer, who will assume office at the next meeting of the board, is native born and a member of a pioneer family of Sanford. He attended Sanford public schools and graduated from the University of Florida. He is a member of the First Methodist Church and a past president of the Rotary Club.

Frank Evans of Lake Mary expressed his appreciation for the work of G. E. Fouraker on the part of the Chamber of Commerce that he has done more for Lake Mary than any other commissioner in recent years.

Plans were approved last night at an organizational meeting for the construction of a barbecue pit on the Sanford Farmers Auction grounds.

Approximately 80 organizations were represented at the gathering which met in the auction building south of Sanford on Highway 17-92.

All organizations which plan to use the pit will be asked for a small donation which will be used as rent, according to C. E. Dawson, secretary-treasurer of the auction.

Facilities on the grounds for picnics, outings and parties already include running water, a water cooler, electric lights, a telephone, parking space, a large shelter and picnic tables.

City Employees Given Pay Raise Of Ten Percent

Operating Budget Is Set At $427,950. Increase Of $52,822

All city employees were granted a 10 percent raise by the City Commission which met last night in adjourned session to adopt the budget and set the millage rate.

The new operating budget, said City Manager Tom Lemon, was set at $427,950 or $52,822 over $375,128 operations fund set at this time last year. The last year fund was over $300,000.

This year, he added, the city intends to keep within the budget and operating revenues are expected to equal the $427,950.

The Commission passed a resolution to let the rate remain the same for the coming year, 17.4 mills of which 6 mills is for debt service and 11.4 mills for operating expenses.

The budget will go into effect Oct. 1, and at that time the wage increases will go into effect, said Mr. Lemon.

He stated that he is compiling the budget figures in detail and will release them in the near future.

The amount set aside for bond debt service this year will be $144,150, he said.

Revenue from the Water Department is anticipated at $141,150. Of this amount, $59,000 will be diverted to the City budget and will be included in the $427,950 figure. A total of $17,150 will go for debt service, and the rest for operation of the department.

An amendment to the ordinance covering licensing of amusement devices was passed, and all previous ordinances conflicting were repealed.

The ordinance now provides that each operator of automatic pianos, phonographs or like devices pay an annual fee of $100, plus $25 for each machine.

Amusement parlors having games or other amusement devices not otherwise classified by the ordinance are taxed $25, and operators of coin operated amusement devices will pay an annual fee of $100.

The tax on shuffleboard games and miniature pool tables was set at $25, and other similar devices at $15. Coin operated radios are licensed at $2.50 each. Amusement parks will pay $75 each. Amusement devices not covered by the ordinance will have to pay $25 a week.

Ike Declares Truman Afraid Of Red Russia

Administration Hit For Losing Respect Of Nations Abroad; Inflation Rapped

BY JACK BELL
ABOARD EISENHOWER SPECIAL
Dwight D. Eisenhower declared today that the Truman administration seems to "cringe and jump" every time the Soviet Union makes a world move.

Resuming the whistle-stop campaigning after hearing his running mate, Sen. Richard M. Nixon, explain his privately raised expense fund over radio and television Tuesday night, the Republican presidential nominee, began at Chillingolite, O., a day of intensive speaking.

Eisenhower, who threw away a prepared address on inflation in Cleveland Tuesday night, told the Chillingolite train-side crowd that the Truman administration has "lost respect" abroad because at home it has become "inept, incompetent, complacent and arrogant."

Gen. Eisenhower, in a speech he put aside in Cleveland Tuesday night in order to talk about his running mate, said the peril of inflation has reached "staggering proportions" because the administration has "liberally pursued a 'cheap money' policy."

He chose to talk about Nixon and the nationally televised speech Nixon made Tuesday night.

In his prepared text, Eisenhower stormed at the Truman administration for what he called "the result in 'cheap money'." He called "one of the most deliberate and calculated devices of a regime bent on perpetrating itself in power."

He argued while everywhere "likes the comforting feeling of more money in his pocket, the feeling is but an illusion. 'This illusion,' he general said, "the administration in Washington has systematically enriched and enriched for political gain for many years."

Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's speech in Baltimore Tuesday night, along with Eisenhower's prepared text gave the voters newly vented anger over inflation from both presidential candidates. Stevenson, the Democratic standard bearer, blamed "agents in the Kremlin" for having "dumped a large amount of money into the economy."

Just as they disagreed on inflation's causes, so were the two candidates far apart in their view of what to do about it. But there were some areas of agreement.

Both called for a clampdown on federal spending and acknowledged a substantial part of the slash must come in military spending.

Stevenson outlined a four-point program calling for wage, price and rent controls "until prices stop going up" and for taxes on a newly a "pay-as-you-go" basis.

He is a member of the First Baptist Church, and is also a member of the Legion Fair Association and the Legion Sports Association. He is also a member of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Cordell stated that he has no political ties or affiliations with any group. He says, "I am running for this office because I am vitally and sincerely interested in the industrial and all-around growth of our town and I hope that I can do my bit to make our community a better place in which our children can live, however, I have no political promises to make. If the people of Sanford see fit to elect me, I will conscientiously do everything in my power to set in accordance with what I think is to the best interest of the town as a whole and all of its citizens. I can make no special promises because if elected, I will be only one man on a five man commission, but I can assure you I will at all times be acting with the best of intentions, and vote my convictions on all issues."

Republican Chairman Says Nixon To Remain On Ticket

Senator Nixon Carries His Fight To Radio Audience

Candidate Declares He Did Not Touch Fund For Own Use

BY BILL BECKER
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sen. Richard M. Nixon carried his fight for political life to a nation-wide audience last night, and then moved on to Montana today before a day-long meeting with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The young GOP vice-presidential nominee rested his fate on an unprecedented TV radio appeal to the American public. He left the question of his removal from the Republican ticket squarely up to the party's national committee.

Nixon said he plans to meet Gen. Eisenhower "somewhere in West Virginia." The time and place probably will be set today after Nixon finished his speaking appointment in Missoula. Mont. Nixon interrupted his Western campaign tour to return to Los Angeles and make his plea to the nation.

The TV program from Cleveland after Nixon's speech, labeled it "magnificent" and asked to see his running mate "at once."

A flood of telegrams and phone calls followed Nixon's dramatic offer to submit the make or break decision to the National Committee.

"We and write the Republican National Committee whether you think I should stay or whether I should get off," Nixon exhorted, "and whatever their decision, I will abide by it."

The appeal came after Nixon, the young man who zoomed to political prominence in a short six years, said "not one cent of the $18,000 supplemental expense fund raised by supporters here" ever went to me for my personal use."

He denied any moral wrongdoing, reiterating "Every penny of it was used to pay for political expenses." He said he had not been charged to the taxpayers of the United States.

He lauded Eisenhower as "the man to clean up" corruption and "communism." Nixon, at the airport before leaving for Missoula, he declared.

"What happens to me is not important, what happens to Patricia and our two sons is not important, what is important is what happens to our country. What Gen. Eisenhower stands for is for the good of all Americans."

Sen. Nixon's secretary, James Has, set back about a sixth stack of telegrams. The main Los Angeles Western Union office reported handling 5,000 telegrams received by Nixon within four hours after his speech.

The NBC switchboard in Hollywood was jammed for 2 1/2 hours. Billie Cleverly, chief operator said she said the vast majority of callers were pro-Nixon.

Judy Holliday Admits She Was Slightly Stupid

She Hired Investigators To Find Out What Comies Did

BY JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Stage and screen star Judy Holliday told her investigators that in getting mixed up with various Communist fronts she was "irresponsible and more than slightly stupid."

When she had her eyes opened to what was going on, she said she herself turned people to investigate her.

"I wanted to know what I had done," said the actress who won the Motion Picture Academy Award in 1951 for her portrayal of a dumb blonde in "Born Yesterday."

The Senate internal security subcommittee disclosed today that, at closed door sessions last spring, it had questioned Miss Holliday, along with Sam Levinsky, actor Philip Love and singer Ruth Lee.

The testimony of all four was made public. It showed that they all were asked about Communist organizations or activities in which some of the witnesses have been known to have had involvement.

Miss Holliday was questioned before the subcommittee at their own request.

The Senate group has been probing for any subversive infiltration of the radio, television and entertainment industries.

Today's second volume of testimony, with still more to come, followed the subcommittee without comment.

In an accompanying statement, however, Chairman McCarran (D-Nev.) said that "communism has built up a vast apparatus of fronts and fronts of fronts, and it is the duty of every citizen to know what it is doing."

He remarked on what he called "the striking number of Communist organizations or activities in which some of the witnesses have been known to have had involvement."

"We do not want to accuse anyone of guilt by association," McCarran said, "but it is a dangerous type of thinking that leads people into such involvements."

"It is not the sort of thinking that should be permitted to express itself freely in such important media as radio, television and other types of entertainment directed at the minds of our people."

Miss Holliday was questioned for two hours and 40 minutes at a secret hearing here last March 26. (continued on Page Four)

Kiwanians Told By Karl Lehmann Of Scout Work

Three Million Boys And Adults Said To Be Participating

Nearly three million boys and adults are participating in the national program of the Boy Scouts of America, Karl Lehmann, Kiwanis district executive, told Kiwanis clubs today at a meeting at the Yacht Club.

Kiwanis of some 100 clubs in the South are participating in the youth program in all 48 states, Lehmann said.

He said that the Kiwanis clubs should be proud to have such a large number of boys and adults participating in the program.

Flood Of Telegrams Reported To Favor Keeping Californian In Campaign

By The Associated Press
The chairman of the Republican National Committee Arthur Sumner said today he is certain that Richard Nixon will stay on as the party's candidate for vice president of the United States.

Dwight D. Eisenhower, the GOP presidential nominee, presumably has the final say and all advance news were that he would keep Nixon.

Sumner told reporters at Cleveland that Eisenhower and Nixon would center at Wheeling, W. Va. tonight 8:30 p. m. EST.

An official announcement is likely to be made after that conference. As for himself, Sumner said "I'm no quitter." He said the final decision was up to the National Committee.

Sumner's answer seemed positive enough. Meanwhile, individual members of the committee have their views to reporters. Not one asked Nixon to quit. In a recent flood of telegrams, he commended his speech and urged him to stick in the race.

Lehmann called the speech "magnificent." The speech also brought rapid and voluminous public reply. West coast clubs sent through one of the greatest big waves.

Thousands of messages flooded across the country. Most of them, based on GOP and Western Union estimates, urged that Nixon stay on the ticket.

The great old California senator was declining himself against elements that he was unethical and morally wrong in accepting contributions from California businessmen.

Nixon said he used the money for purely political purposes and that he saw nothing wrong in his actions.

After Halloran of West Virginia vice chairman of the Republican National Committee, told reporters that he boarded the train at Houston that the favorable reaction to Nixon's broadcast had been terrific.

Republicans kept me up all night calling to ask how they could continue their desire that Nixon be kept on the ticket. Halloran said he had told Nixon that he had telegraphed Nixon telling him "The (continued on Page Four)

Fluoridation: Facts Vs. Emotion

Inasmuch as Sanford has been considering for some time the advisability of adding fluoride to the city's water supply for the purpose of preventing tooth decay, a recent editorial in the Sanford Herald has made it of special interest.

"Despite opposition which is largely emotional, the movement for fluoridation of municipal water supplies to reduce dental decay is making progress in Florida," says a Tampa paper says. "Dayton Beach is the latest city to approve the plan of adding fluorides to its water."

The answer to the first argument is that the U. S. Public Health Service, American Medical Association, American Dental Association and various other scientific bodies have endorsed fluoridation as beneficial. The answer to the second is that a glass of fluoridated water is no more a medicinal dose than a slice of vitamin-enriched bread — in both cases it is a matter of supplementing a natural ingredient which is present in insufficient quantity.

"Parents who wonder about the possible good of fluoridation will be interested in a report just made by the New York State Health Commissioner, Dr. William F. Hillbom. In Newburgh, N. Y., began fluoridating its water in 1944. The neighboring town of Kingston did not. In eight years, Dr. Hillbom's report says, dental decay among the school children of Newburgh has been reduced 47 per cent. In the same time there has been no reduction whatever in non-fluoridating Kingston.

"Newburgh's eight-year experience showed 'absolutely no harmful effects from drinking fluoridated water,' the health commissioner reported. The harmful facts of fluoridation's benefits in Newburgh and other cities cannot be dissolved by emotion. We believe the health of Tampa's children deserves further consideration at City Hall."

Attempt At Unity

On October 2, 1899, the first attempt to establish unity of purpose and cooperation between the countries of North and South America was made. Eighteen countries from North and South America sent representatives to the First International Conference of American States in Washington, D. C. Trade concessions and the lifting of trade barriers were discussed and the foundation for later conferences and agreements was laid.

Events since the turn of the century have made cooperation between the countries of the New World more and more important. Great strides have been made in establishing friendships but there have been some disappointing blocks put in the way of unity. Dictators in several South American countries still preach blind nationalism, ignoring the fact that the prosperity of their countries cannot be secured until the fifty-three years that have followed the first conference in Washington seem to have been a waste of time.

The "Good Neighbor Policy," despite dictators and men of ill will who the Americans want nothing more than to be good neighbors with each other and with the world.

Dream Of Plenty

Dr. Charles Glenn King, a leading nutritionist and a professor of chemistry at Columbia University, believes that the world will have enough good food for everyone in the year 2000. He bases his prediction on the strides science has already made in increasing food production and on the fact that the world's population is increasing.

Dr. King's prediction may seem too hopeful. When one thinks of the millions of hungry people in the world who can never have enough to eat, it is easy to be discouraged and to discount optimistic statements. But more scientists are never discouraged by what seems impossible.

Chemists have discovered ways of producing crops without land. Methods of increasing crops or ordinary lands have been found and immigration and fertilization techniques have turned unproductive land into fertile farms. Who is to say that the limitations are? A look about at all the progress man has made shows that today's reality was yesterday's dream.

"Never Had It So Good"

Alabama Senator John Sparkman, Democratic candidate for Vice President, came to Tampa yesterday to make a speech at the University of Tampa. He also recognized the fact that the South is not a backward area, but a land of progress.

"You never had it so good," Senator Sparkman left the impression that the overlying issue of the South is whether to eat as high on the hog under the leadership of the Southern States. The Senator also left the impression that the opposing candidates are not in a race, but in a struggle.

When General Eisenhower made his recent campaign stop in Tampa, he was met with a warm and sympathetic reception. The Senator's speech must be rated as one of the best ever heard in the South.

It was, in short, a standard for minor citizens. Could have been delivered equally as well in the campaign of 1948, 1949, 1950 and 1951.

These accents show the Senator's determination to determine the situation of people that they are better off than they were before in their lives.

Remember conditions 20 years ago, when cotton brought little and you could hardly give away your surplus. Now you can give away your surplus and still have a surplus. It is a change to what we know. We know what we are getting for our money. We know what we are getting for our money.

THE PLOT THICKENS

It appears that not all Florida Democrats are so inured with down-the-line party loyalty that they are willing to march meekly to the polls and vote the Democratic ticket whether or not the Southern Democrats are far from happy. They realize that they have been used as a tool by the party leadership.

In the same mail I received a copy of a resolution adopted by the Clay County Democratic Executive Committee that voices the same sentiments and urges candidates for far as state and local candidates are concerned.

The Columbia County circular and the Clay County resolution both state in understandable terms why such action is taken. It calls attention to the fact that the platform of the Democratic Party is a platform of peace, justice and freedom for all people.

It points out that the platform and promises of the National Democratic Convention are not wholly acceptable to the Clay County Democratic Executive Committee. Improvements Are Being Made To A&P Supermarket

Work is progressing on improvements to the A & P Supermarket, 1400 Magnolia Avenue and Second Street, and include a new entrance and vestibule and many additions and changes including a "new look" for the store.

The building changes are being carried on by Volle Williams, owner of the building, and will include new stucco coating over the brick exterior, and tile trim below the front windows.

Inside, an acousti type ceiling and wall surface has been added in anticipation of the installation of air conditioning. Manager Earl Evans stated this morning. Ventilation, for the present, has been improved by the installation of two large blower type fans. Canopies on which are lettered the various food divisions, now extend on three sides of the store.

Wider aisle space has been secured by taking six small counters and combining them with additional three long counters, permitting additional space for new varieties of food. A new counter displays soft drinks, and a small new counter displays candies.

More facilities have been provided for frozen foods in the form of an attractive food display case. Other additions include a long new self service meat case, a fish case, self service dairy case and a larger ice cream cabinet. The cereal department has been enlarged.

Another improvement within the store is the new and larger meat cutting room where the temperature is kept at about 45 degrees.

The new vestibule, entrance and exit is shaping up in attractive form with the addition of varicolored slump brick trim. Transoms have been replaced with fluted glass and a window of this material is being installed in the vestibule.

It is hoped, said Mr. Evans, to complete the exterior work in several weeks' time.

Judy Holiday

She said she had let her name be used by Communist front organizations without knowing what they were.

"I have been awakened to a realization that I have been irresponsible and slightly more than slightly stupid," she said. "When I was seduced I always simply said, 'Oh, isn't that too bad. Sure, use my name.'"

"The few things that I actually participated in were things that I couldn't possibly have thought were subversive."

Before ending her testimony, Miss Holiday presented a statement in which she said that she never was a member of the Communist Party, that she was opposed to Communism and that she was wholeheartedly devoted to democracy.

Miss Holiday, who was born Judy Tuvin, testified that in 1948 she was for Henry A. Wallace for president and registered as a member of the left-wing American Labor party. She said she thought of it as a sort of middle party.

Asked if she and her husband, David Oppenheimer, ever discussed politics, Miss Holiday replied: "Only lately. And boy, we talk about it. I don't know if you are similar, when asked if she watches organizations to which she contributes money, Miss Holiday explained: "Oh, do I watch it!"

A few minutes later she said "I don't say 'yes' to anything now except cancer, polio, and cerebral palsy, and things like that."

Levenson, a former Brooklyn high school teacher who has won a reputation on television as a humorist, told the subcommittee he had asked to appear to clear up certain misconceptions which might help you and help me.

Testifying last March 20, Levenson brought with him a to-whom-it-may-concern letter from Harvey Matusow, a former Communist who turned informer for the FBI and who now is employed by the Ohio Un-American Commission.

Levenson said he had read an account of testimony by Matusow before the House Un-American Activities Committee last February implying that Levenson had "knowingly accepted bookings from a Communist dominated organization."

Levenson testified the organization he was referring to was "People's Artists," the subcommittee had previously identified People's Artists, Inc., as the artist's division of People's Songs, Inc.

After learning of Matusow's testimony, Levenson said, he went to Matusow to "clarify to him the meaning of my name in this listing with 'People's Artists.'" Matusow then gave him the letter he presented to the Senate group, Levenson said.

Matusow wrote that "having been an employee of People's Artists I had and actively engaged in Communist activities through that organization. I can attest to the fact that no evidence of Communist party membership nor activity has been undertaken by Matusow during my personal participation in these affairs."

Levenson, in his voluntary appearance before the subcommittee, said he had participated in the activities of a number of Communist organizations without knowing their true nature.

Levenson testified he had been in the Communist Party in the summer of 1944. At that time, he admitted, some of the Communist Party members were not for a long time.

Nixon Speech

financial status and challenged his Democratic opponents, Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Sen. John J. Sparkman to do likewise. He hit Stevenson's reported fund for Illinois officials and Sparkman's employment of his wife.

Gov. Stevenson in Baltimore, declined to comment on Nixon's remarks. But Sparkman, in Grand Island, Neb., retorted:

"Nobody has accused me of getting $18,000 and I haven't any expense fund."

Sen. Sparkman said his wife had worked 10 years and "earned every dollar she ever got." He added that he has never used all of the money allotted him for office expense, saying, "I turn back $10,000 or $12,000 every year."

Senators receive $50,000 annually for office and operational expenses over and above a $15,000 salary. Nixon did not give a breakdown of his $35,000 allowance.

He contended there were additional political demands "taxpayers shouldn't be required to finance."

Nixon did not give the breakdown of expenditures of the controversy $18,235 fund in his talk. But he released an audit report from Price, Waterhouse and Co., accountants, showing:

Total disbursement of $18,168.87, of which $5,102.15 went to Nixon directly, $12,876.72 to persons other than Nixon, from Nov. 15, 1950, to Aug. 20, 1952. The balance remaining was $1,000.

The largest single item listed was $4,237.54 for engraving 10,500 Christmas cards in 1950 and 25,000 in 1951. Airline, auto and hotel bills for Mr. and Mrs. Nixon totaled $2,304.54.

The legality of the fund — which also included recording, postage, stationery and advertising expenses aggregating $5,900 — was upheld by a Los Angeles legal firm engaged by Dana C. Smith, Pasadena attorney and fund trustee.

Elyse H. Conley, a partner in the firm, gave this opinion to Gus Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, Eisenhower's campaign law chairman:

"It is our conclusion that Sen. Nixon did not obtain any financial gain from the collection or disbursement of the fund by Dana C. Smith."

"That Sen. Nixon did not violate any federal or state law by reason of the operation of the fund."

"And that neither the portion of the fund paid by Smith to third persons, nor the portion paid directly to Sen. Nixon to reimburse him for designated office expenses, constituted income to the senator which was either reportable or taxable as income under applicable tax laws."

Accompanying the legal opinion was a letter of solicitation which Smith sent out Sept. 25, 1951. It read in part: "We have limited contributions to a minimum of $100 a year and a maximum of $500. The reason for the maximum was so that it can never be charged that anyone is contributing so much that he is entitled to special favors."

Smith, incidentally, said he is getting mail supporting Nixon at a 25 to 1 ratio and banked $550 received Monday for Nixon's campaign.

In revealing his personal finances, Nixon disclosed:

In addition to his salary as congressman and later senator since 1946, he had received a total of $1,500 from estates in his law firm; $1,500 a year from lectures; and he and his wife had inherited $4,500.

For four years they lived in a $80 a month apartment, then they a Communist, because I am against that philosophy."

Loeb, an actor on the New York stage for many years who also has played in motion pictures, was the husband of Mollie in the Goldbergs radio program until, as he put it, he was "thrown out of the air."

Testifying last April 23, Loeb said he was dropped from the program after his name was connected by Red Channels, a book which the publishers described as a report on Communist infiltration in radio and television.

Loeb swore "I never was a Communist in my life" and testified that he never had knowingly been connected with any Communist movement.

Senators Insist Farm Program Is Costing Too Much

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two senators said today that mistakes in the government's vast farm price support program—estimated to have cost the taxpayers millions of dollars—can be corrected without legislation.

Sen. Clinton Anderson (D-N. M.), former secretary of agriculture, told a reporter that "there is plenty of authority now to correct errors and deficiencies."

Sen. Milton Young (R-N. D.) agreed with Anderson in a separate interview.

"All that is needed is more and lighter supervision at the top," he said.

Both Anderson and Young, members of the committee, said they regarded the report and its recommendations as fair.

The report estimated that more than 10 million dollars worth of government-owned grain, acquired under price support operations, had been embezzled or taken by "criminal conversion."

The report agreed with Secretary Brannan that no Agriculture Department officials or employees had personally profited from their actions or been involved criminally in the grain shortages.

Most but not all of the shortage or conversion cases involved grain that had become government property and was stored in warehouses or with private grain traders.

In addition to outright conversion or theft of government commodities, the report said the department had suffered millions of dollars of losses through spoilage or deterioration of stored grains.

The report sharply criticized Agriculture Department officials for dropping criminal prosecution when a warehouseman or farmer agreed to pay up shortages and convert a sample check in two days.

The report also cited C. M. Walker, former director of PMA's Cotton Branch, for passing purchase orders for a Washington, D. C. home for $41,000, which has a $20,000 mortgage. They also own a $13,000 home in Whittier, on which the senator first said he owed $3,000. Later he said the mortgage was $10,000.

He also said he owed $4,500 to the Rice Bank in Washington and $2,500 to his parents, and was paying interest on both loans.

The Nixon owns a 1950 Oldsmobile, their furniture, but no stocks or bonds, and only $4,000 in life insurance, plus his GI policy which runs out in two years.

"We have no interest of any kind, direct or indirect, in any business," the aspiring seep said.

Win or lose in his biggest battle, Nixon said he intends to go on campaigning for the Republicans. His last words in 128 paragraphs who saw him off at the airport.

"The important thing is to get new leadership for our country."

Republican Party in Stride to Have You for its Vice Presidential Nominee

Wayne J. Hood, the committee's executive director, called in reporters in Washington to tell them that the public is overwhelmingly in favor of retaining Nixon.

Members of the committee will give their views on the Nixon affair in a unanimous agreement that Nixon should stay on as the vice-presidential standard bearer.

Republicans and Democrats all over the country joined in the seemingly endless tide of statements.

In general, this is what they said:

Republicans: Nixon gave a forthright report on his financial affairs and proved his own personal integrity.

There were words like "Courageous," "A man of standing integrity," "All questions about his integrity were answered 100 per cent," "He said and did more than I could expect," "Magnificent statement," "Completely examined."

Democrats: Nixon did not give a full report of his financial affairs. The speech helped the Democratic cause.

There were words like "Nixon failed out," "He gave more than I could expect," "Did not answer the questions," "The best service the Republican Party could do would be to accept his resignation."

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, unsuccessful aspirant to the Democratic nomination for President, said he doubted whether Nixon did anything intentionally wrong in accepting the expense fund.

"Many members of Congress have businesses of one kind or another," he said and "they open their books for federal officials to look at. It is not fair to say that any one, even a poor man, should be able to see and hold any public office, including an ambassador, if he is not familiar with the requirements for applying for this training. Here are some of the main requirements: You must be under 21 as of July 1953; you must be a high school graduate; you must be unmarried and you must be physically qualified. There are more but if you meet those four qualifications, there is a good chance you will be eligible to apply for the NROTC program."

There is only a short time left to get in on this opportunity so if you feel you might be eligible and would like more information about applying, contact the Education Officer of your activity as soon as possible. The men selected to enter this training will be sent by the Navy to a college or university and upon receiving a degree from that college or university will be commissioned as an Ensign.

Blues In The News

Don and "Honey" Taylor returned to Sanford today from a short visit to their home in Christopher, Ill. The Taylor's live on Fourteenth Street in Sanford and Don is attached to the NAAR Personnel Office.

Lake Golden aboard the Station has been reopened for swimming after being closed for a short time. With that cold weather creeping after us, you all better take a jump out to the lake and get in all the swimming you can. Of course, some people go swimming the year round in Florida but I've been told those "year round swimmers" are all tourists. Tourist or not, the lake is open for all naval personnel and Walt Reiter is on duty as lifeguard after he secures for the day in the Supply Department.

Carl Swanson, Aviation Ordnance second class, will leave the station and go to Sanford today for Brooklyn, N. Y. where he will be assigned to sea duty. While aboard the station, Carl was a member of the NAAR Ordnance Division of the Operations Department.

Arthur Pedigo and Carson Fundebark, both of NAAR, have returned to duty today after spending leave here in the state of Florida. Art visited his relatives in Orlando while Carson went to Miami to be with his father, who was reported to be ill.

Leo G. Fraboni joined the ranks of the "brownbaggers" last Thursday as he exchanged the marriage ring with a hometown girl, Leo and his wife Irene, are now residing at 812 Magnolia Avenue here in Sanford.

Although there has been quite a bit of publicity aboard the station concerning the 1953 Naval Reserve Officer's Training Program, there has not been a single application received at the NAAR Education Office. Perhaps most of you are not familiar with the requirements for applying for this training. Here are some of the main requirements: You must be more than 17 years of age as of July 1953; you must be a high school graduate; you must be unmarried and you must be physically qualified. James E. Davis
Chairman of the Board
Winn & Lovett Grocery Co.

Florida fruit and vegetable growers were called upon to produce a green top, sweet carrot, a sweet potato in the size and quality that will sell in food stores and to raise dry unions, perhaps in the gladiolus producing section of the state, by James E. Davis, chairman of the board of Winn & Lovett Grocery Co., in an address before the annual convention of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association in Miami Wednesday. In urging production work by the growers to expand the industry, Mr. Davis pointed out that in 1920 Florida produced only 3.5% of the nation's vegetables and this figure has now grown to 7.7%.

Scout Council, said, "One of the main reasons people don't vote is because they don't register in time, or at all." He told of the program of the Boy Scouts in striving to get out a vote this fall at the polls.

He showed a placard which is being distributed to business concerns and said door knob hangers would be put out at the time of being taught high school boys. "If they are going to vote, these ideas, they will need help all along the line." He emphasized that Scouting brought out best qualities of church, home and the school.

He told of its origination in Great Britain as an outgrowth of the Boer War and how it eventually came to this country.

"Last year," he said, "2,400 Boy Scout troops were sponsored by Kiwanis Clubs."

Mr. Lehmann has been awarded the Scouts' Silver Beaver medal for his services to Scouting, with which he has been associated for 30 years.

Following the main speech, Frank Caldwell, DeLand, field officer of the Central Florida Boy Scout Council, said, "One of the main reasons people don't vote is because they don't register in time, or at all." He told of the program of the Boy Scouts in striving to get out a vote this fall at the polls.

He showed a placard which is being distributed to business concerns and said door knob hangers would be put out at the time of being taught high school boys. "If they are going to vote, these ideas, they will need help all along the line." He emphasized that Scouting brought out best qualities of church, home and the school.

Marciano Quells Critics By Taking Title From Walcott On Knockout

By MURRAY ROSE
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Rocky Marciano, the guy Jersey Joe Walcott and many others said "can't fight," is the new world heavyweight champion.

"They'll probably say he still can't fight," said trainer Charley Goldman shortly after the dynamic, 28-year-old flattened Walcott in 43 seconds of the 1952 fight with one perfect right and sent him into retirement.

"But who's going to beat him?" Marciano's manager, Al Weill, said, discussing the future of his fighter, said early today that Rocky's next opponent might be Rex Layne, Roland La Starza or Exard Charles. "Maybe it will be Walcott again," added the portly manager. "Who knows? Maybe he'll change his mind and not quit. All I know is that I signed a contract to meet Walcott again in 90 days and if he wants that fight he can have it. Only it's got to be where I say—maybe Miami and maybe Chicago."

"If Walcott is really through, then we'll see about the others. He's gonna be a fighting champion, ain't he Rocky?"

"Sure," said Rocky as he held a wet towel to a mouse under his left eye while blood trickled from a cut on his scalp and from a gash between his eyes. It took eight stitches to sew up an ugly inch and a quarter on his head and six to patch up the cut on his forehead.

"But first my wife and I are going to have a wonderful time," said Rocky. "We're going to go to New York and see if we can't get a good one."

All the while Rocky was in training for the climactic fight of his career, his wife Barbara was barred from camp. Although she expects a child in November, Barbara watched the thrilling slugfest along with 40,379 paying fans in mammoth Municipal Stadium.

She saw her husband, battered and bleeding, knocked down for the first time in his career, come back to end one of the most exciting battles of modern times with one perfectly executed right hand blow to Walcott's jaw.

When the stricken champion's head as the 38-year-old Walcott slowly fell to the deck. But it was the right that turned the tables just as it was Jersey Joe's one left hook that enabled him to knock the crown off Charles' head in the steaming heat of Pittsburgh on July 18, 1951.

Walcott's eyes went blank. The old guy, who put up one of the greatest fights of his long career, sank slowly to the canvas. One knee was twisted under him and his forehead rested on the floor as Referee Charley Daggert tolled the fatal 10. Then Walcott stretched out on his back.

By then it was too much for Walcott's way. Jersey Joe floored Marciano in the first round. It was the first time the Rock had ever gone down. But he was up at the four count.

It was a dilly the rest of the way. In the sixth, when they fought head to head, Walcott came out with a wide cut over his left eye while Rocky suffered his scalp wound.

The old gent was well ahead on the scorecards of all three officials at the end. Referee Charley Daggert had it 7-4-1; Judge Pete Tomasco scored it 7-3 and Judge Zach Taylor saw it 7-2.

The AP scorecard had Walcott in front 7-4-1. There was hardly a dissent in the house.

Thus, as he won the title, Jersey Joe lost it—with one blow.

"He's through," said Walcott's manager, Felix Bocchicchio. "Whatever Felix says I'll do," said the heart-broken ex-champion. "He looked pathetic against the ropes and I don't want him to get hurt," said Bocchicchio. "He still has all his faculties and has money in the bank. Joe made over a million dollars in the ring. He's retiring. Joe has been a great champ and that's the way we want people to remember him."

Probably millions of dollars (traded hands on the one punch. It was one of the biggest betting lights in years with Rocky winding up as the 9 to 5 favorite. Walcott, oldest champion ever to defend his crown, outweighed Rocky 196 to 184.

The fight grossed $504,645 at the gate and theater-telivision probably will add another $125,000. Of his 40 per cent, Walcott earned approximately $188,000. Rocky, cut

New York Nears 10th "Subway" Series Since 1921

Bronx Bombers Move 1 1/2 Games Out In Front Of Indians; Play Bosox Twice

By RALPH ROSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The prospect of New York's 10th "subway" World Series since 1921 is extremely bright today with the Brooklyn Dodgers already "in" and the New York Yankees pounding on the door.

Brooklyn's long-suffering fans of Flatbush their first restful sleep in three years last night as they clinched the 1952 National League pennant, their ninth since 1890.

True, the Brooks won the playoff.

The Brooks nailed it up as Johnny Rutherford pitched Drexler's Dodger to a 5-4 victory over Philadelphia in the first game of a two-night doubleheader. The Phils won the anticlimactic game, 1-0, in 12 innings.

Rutherford's seven-hit triumph gave Brooklyn 95 victories and made it impossible for the second-place New York Giants to pull another miracle. The Giants have 88 victories and only six games remaining.

The Yanks, meanwhile, moved 1 1/2 games ahead of Cleveland in the waning American League struggle without flexing their muscles. While the Bombers looted in Boston, the Indians were ambushed 10-1 by the Chicago White Sox. The Yanks' game with the Red Sox was rained out.

New York can assure itself of no worse than a tie for the flag by winning only three of its remaining six games. Both the Yanks and Indians have each won 80 games but the creditless Indians have lost three more.

Joe Dobson, a member of the Indians many moons ago, checked off his former associates on a list while the White Sox played Mike Garcia and three firemen for 14 assorted blows.

The A's nipped the Senators, 4-3, with old Bobo Newsum gaining credit for the victory. Bobby Shantz was struck by one of Walt Masterson's pitches in the second inning and suffered a broken left wrist.

Brooklyn was forced to come from behind to beat the Phils before 24,408 screaming fans who showed up at Ebbets Field for the Gran Hammer rocked Rutherford for a grand slam homer in the third to give the invaders a 4-1 lead.

The Dodgers got one back in the fourth on a four-bagger by George Shuba and locked it up against Karl Drews with three in the fifth.

Pinch-hitter Johnny Wyrostek doubled home Ed Walkus with the winning run in the marathon nightcap.

The jubilant Dodgers hoisted Manager Charley Dressen on their shoulders during a gala celebration in their clubhouse.

Dressen praised rookie relief ace Joe Black and reserve outfielder Shuba. "We'd never won the pennant without them," Chuck said.

The happy Dodger skipper said he may start Black in the first World Series game and added, "We'll give them a battle, no matter who it is."

In other games, the St. Louis Browns defeated Detroit, 3-1 behind Bobby Cain and the St. Louis Cardinals nipped Cincinnati, 4-3, in 15 innings. A doubleheader between the Giants and Boston Braves was rained out. Pittsburgh and Chicago were idle.

Florida Might Be Set For Georgia Tech If It Rains

By The Associated Press

Florida may be ready to play Georgia Tech Saturday—if it rains.

The Gator practice field, soaked by two hours of heavy rain Tuesday, gave Quarterbacks Fred Robinson and Rick Casares plenty of practice in handling a slippery ball.

In Atlanta, Coach Bobby Dodd of Tech predicted the Florida team would test his players with its offensive line. Tech has beaten Florida 16 times in the 23-game series and three games ended in ties.

The Tennessee Vols held lengthy passing and kicking drills in Knoxville. At Stillman College, Georgia Tech was called on for the passing and kicking while Jimmy Wade and Pat Olekajak nursed knee and muscle injuries. The latter may not see action against Mississippi State Saturday.

Mississippi State added another name to its injured list Tuesday. Linebacker Ollie Fairchild was hurt in a pass defense drill. The Maroons worked on pass defense and running plays against the Tennessee single wing formation.

At Baton Rouge, Coach Gwynell Tinsley watched his Louisiana State team scrimmage for an hour on offense and defense and let out a sharp cry of pain.

"Today's practice," he moaned, "showed a very definite lack of sharpness. The Tiger offense must improve considerably if we are to stay on the field here against Alabama Saturday."

Practice at Tusculooon confirmed Tinsley's fears. The Tide's varsity showed well against LSU while Bobby Marlow, Carley Tharp, Bob Cunney and Cecil Ingram all making good runs.

Tulane and Georgia played against the tactics of each other and Coach Raymond Wolf of Tulane thought his team's defense looked good. Georgia may withhold the services of Dexter Foss, defensive left end, Saturday. Foss said a twisted knee was repairing rapidly but trainers doubted he could start.

Kentucky got another hard workout for its Southeastern Conference opener with Mississippi. Kentucky scouts have passed the word that Mississippi has some of the best backs in the conference. They also praised Jimmy Lear, the Mississippi quarterback who directs the team's split "T" attack.

City To Extend Memorial Park's Wall By 15 Feet

By The Associated Press

The extension of the Memorial Stadium's left field fence outward by 15 feet will conclude the City's program for the opening prep football game to be played here Friday night when the Celery Feds clash with Eastus. It was reported this morning by Tom Lemon, City manager.

Sid Richard, City superintendent of public buildings and sewers, said that the work was begun today to extend the stadium's left field fence to a point in centerfield where a diagonal barrier will be extended to meet the old centerfield wall some 15 feet beyond the present left centerfield.

Meanwhile, Lemon said that the ground work was complete with the new turf covering the diamond planted with rye. "Weather conditions of late and the shortness of time has necessarily delayed a substantial growth of grass for the opening football game," he said, "but we will continue to reseed the diamond all through the fall in order to get a good stand of grass."

Following on the footsteps of the Seminole-Eastus game Friday night will be the Crooms Academy opening contest with New Smyrna Beach on Saturday night.

Seminole High will display their new orange, black and white uniforms for the first time in Friday night's grid opener.

The Celery Feds concentrated on plays yesterday while taking the links out of their blocking and defense. Earlier fears on the part of Co-coaches Fred Gana and Bill Fleming with regard to the space available for the gridiron in the Memorial Stadium were spelled with Monday's announcement that the field will be enlarged on the north side by some 15 feet.

The High School is erecting the 1000 temporary bleacher seats on the east sideline for Friday night's contest. The gridiron will run north and south with its western edge bordering the old left field foul line.

With the addition of 15 more feet to the playing field, there is now sufficient clearance for the 800-foot football gridiron. There will be 25 more feet than the necessary minimum requirement at the end zones for the game Friday.

In a workout Tuesday the Miami offense clicked for 12 touchdowns in 32 plays with Freshman Quarterback Frank Tracy, Chicago, firing four passes that went for touchdowns and scoring another himself.

Crooms Gridders Battle Saturday With New Smyrna

By T. V. DAVIN

Crooms Academy will open its 1952 football season with New Smyrna Beach Saturday night at 8:00 o'clock in the Memorial Stadium.

The inaugural clash had been originally scheduled for this Friday night, but a conflict with Seminole High School's opener with Eastus here Friday night forced the shift to Saturday evening.

Officials at Crooms expect a record breaking crowd in the revamped Memorial Stadium this Saturday night. Handicapped by late arrivals from the north, head Coach Franklin and Athletic Director H. L. Douglas have been doing a terrific job of whipping the Panthers into shape for the Smyrna tilt.

The Crooms grid team has yet to name its captain and co-captain for this season. Last year's captain was Robert Felles and George Evan was co-captain.

ATLANTA (AP)—There was a time when Florida played Georgia Tech in football that you picked Tech, gladly gave Florida at least 28 points, waited until the game was finished and picked up the pot.

Some Tech supporters practically made living doing that early every fall before Florida's hopes took their annual tumble.

This year, though, no one had better try it—not even if Tech does rate third best in the nation, first in the Southeastern Conference and even if the Tech team may turn out to be the best Tech ever had.

The Gators carry a lot of weight and they want to whip Tech in Atlanta Saturday something terrific.

The game likely will be a running classic with enough passes mixed in to keep the opposition from tightening and to satisfy these pass-happy Southern Conference football fanatics.

Eight of the best runners in Dixie will herd into two strong defensive lines. Florida foot troopers are Rick Casares, very possibly the most underrated man in Southern football, and the 1951 NCAA high jump champ, and Buford Long.

Tech runners are better known because of their undefeated 1951 season and the Orange Bowl victory. They are Leon Haideman, Larry Huffin, Bill Teas, Dick Pate, and Glenn Turner.

Last week each maulled small time—Tech by 54-0 over the Citadel and Florida by 33-6 over Stetson. Neither found it necessary to show the fancy stuff and give accurate diagram matter. Good as each looked, their substitutes are not as deep as expected.

However, each had a better passing game than credited with. Bill Brieman and Pepper Rodgers will do most of Tech's throwing and Casares—an ex-futack now quarterbacking—will do most of Florida's.

Both teams are in good physical shape in the line Florida offers a great tackle in Charles LaPradi and a fine guard in Joe D'Agostino. Tech's best are Linebackers George and Larry Morris (not related) and Tackle Hal Miller.

Both coaches justifiably feel a little apprehensive. Bob Woodruff of Florida said his "running game

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—This was one that will go down in the history of great heavyweight fights. There hasn't been a greater one in the past 21 years to our certain knowledge.

Going into the 13th round last night at Philadelphia Stadium, we didn't think Rocky Marciano had an earthly chance of winning the title from Jersey Joe Walcott. The boy from Brockton was behind, 7 rounds to 5, on our scorecard, and he appeared to be fading.

Then the Rock shot his right, and it landed flush on Walcott's jaw—almost the first punch of the round. It carried behind it every ounce in the sturdy frame of the shoemaker's son, and from the instant of its sickening impact there was never a doubt of what had happened.

Fighter Joe, an admirable old fighter in his final defense, went down as though he had been poleaxed. A left hook caught him in the face, but it meant nothing. He was insensible as his head struck the floor, and there was never a chance he would get up again.

But as long as he was in there throwing those six punches, the Tappo (fuy from Camden gave the roaring throng as great a thrill as it is ever likely to get at a sports event. Marciano won the respect he had never known before. He fought his powerful young opponent with a heart and a fury which were at times astonishing.

Several times, even toward the end, Walcott ripped into Marciano with lethal left hooks to the body and head which almost sent the new champion down. Only a wonderful constitution kept Rocky on his feet. That is, at course, one of the requisites of a champion.

Will have to improve a great deal if we are to be ready for Tech."

Tech's Bobby Dodd, whose team has more at stake than Woodruff's, considers the game "the key to our season. We've got to win to get on the right foot mentally."

Nationally speaking, Tech is the focal point since the Engineers haven't lost in 15 games.

Talmadge Lafayette Abernathy lost his only three decisions as a pitcher with the Philadelphia Athletics in 1948.

Truman Urges Public Report On All Funds

President Refuses To Comment On Vindication Of Nixon; Mum On Stevenson

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman said today that all congressmen should be required to make an annual accounting of all their income, public and private. He said all top government officials should do the same. But the President declined to comment at his news conference on the Republican Party's "vindication" of Sen. Richard Nixon of any wrongdoing in connection with the use of a private expense fund of $18,235. He refused comment also on the special fund used by Gov. Adlai Stevenson to supplement salaries of certain state employees. Truman did say, in answer to a question, that he himself never had such a fund. Truman's plea for an accounting was not new. Last Sept. 27, he sent a message to Congress asking that legislation be enacted requiring an accounting of income for all top public officials. Legislation along that line, he said, would help prevent "improper conduct" and "unfounded suspicions."

He is a former chief petty officer in the Navy, served eight years in the army and is now a master sergeant in the Army Reserve. In addition to shoe repair services, Mr. Davis conducts a mail order business in the manufacture of leather goods such as dog collars, which he advertises, he stated, in Field and Stream and other sport magazines. He has received orders, he added, from Alaska, Japan, Korea, Canada and other foreign countries. The Davis family, now located here, include Mrs. Davis, a son, Chan, 17 and a daughter, Marion, 14. He has been written up in North Carolina newspapers concerning his skill in making exact miniature models of shoes. While in Bakersfield, Calif., he received publicity for making a complete cowboy outfit in miniature, including saddles, boots and shoes.
