Casselberry Eyes Drinks On Sunday

By DONNA ESTES
CASSELBERRY — Major item on the agenda for the 7:30 p.m. meeting of the City Council today is authorization of an ordinance to permit Sunday sales of alcoholic beverages in restaurants equipped to serve 50 or more persons.
The matter was discussed in work session last week but no one appeared in opposition. Council vice chairman Harry Sambrook, member of special committee to determine sentiment of city residents, said a number of persons from outside the city expressed opposition but none was registered within the city.
Other items on the agenda include posting of paving error service ordinance, determination of city letterhead policy and establishment of a committee to investigate acquisition of the golf course.
Again up for consideration is the deed to the Summer recreation property. Policy will be discussed regarding the amount of underwater property the city will accept as part of the five per cent of land required to be donated by developers of subdivisions for recreation purposes. Bids will be opened on garbage service to the community and bids previously opened on police radios will be considered.
Following the meeting, a work session of the council will be held.

Sanford's City Election Tuesday Candidates Tossing Pot Shots

By BILL SCOTT
As the campaign for two Sanford City Commission seats ends in the final day before Tuesday's run-off election, at least three of the four candidates have made "heated" statements regarding claims by their opponents in last minute political oratory.
The incumbent, Robert Morris, who is opposing John Morris for the commission's group 2 slot, today displayed a telegram received from Sen. George C. McGoovern, of South Dakota, a declared Democratic presidential aspirant offering his help to the minister in his quest for the city office.
The telegram, from Washington, D.C., follows:
"I wish to offer you my best wishes in your upcoming election. Although I cannot personally be there, I am sending several members of the McGoovern team, headed by Charles Cherry.
"Again, my best wishes for a successful campaign."
In regard to his candidacy, the minister took "direct issue" with a statement made by Morris in a Thursday speech to the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees, in which he (Morris) said he would attempt to reduce city taxes by having the City Commission direct the city attorney to have the legislative delegation seek approval of a bill which would cut city taxes for these services not provided to municipalities by the county.
Rev. Connelly claimed that Morris had "grossly misled the citizens of this city into considering an elusive and deceptive statement."
The minister called the proposed 20 to 25 per cent reduction of city taxes "a brutal gesture of insincerity, a facade of shallow manipulation," by Morris.
He maintained that if county taxes are cut, then he will have the police department and other city agencies of city government survive. "There simply is no realistically possible way for city government to function without county taxes," Rev. Connelly stated.
In the battle for the commission group 2 seat, now held by W. Vincent Roberts, who is seeking reelection over the challenge of A. A. McClanahan, the worst battle heated up today with an accusation from McClanahan that it was not "ethical" for Roberts to require city employees to do research work on his past attendance at Commission meetings.
The incumbent stippled this morning by stating his position: "I feel a city commissioner, if he has been accused of failure to attend meetings, has the right to ask the official record-keeping secretary to furnish him with the total number of meetings he has attended and the total number of meetings he has not attended to dispel these allegations."
Roberts said by actual count he had attended 95 per cent of the Commission's 1971 sessions and had an overall 92 per cent average for the six years he has held the office. The incumbent said, "It is unfortunate that my opponent had previously referred to the press that he city fails to keep attendance records."
He continued, "If he had taken the time to research the records he would not have made those untrue statements and would have tried to find another

Stock Prices 'Soar'

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices soared today in reaction to the weekend dollar devaluation of the U.S. dollar and realigning foreign currencies. Volume set a record in early trading.
The 11:30 a.m. Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was ahead 11.69 points to 856.89.
During the first hour of trading on the New York Stock Exchange, a record $2.87 million shares changed hands. The previous one-hour trading record was 8.56 million shares traded during the first hour on Aug. 16 the day after President Nixon announced the wage-price freeze.
Among issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange today, advances outpaced declines by more than 10 to 1.

Adjustment Board To Convene

A public hearing will be held tonight at 7 by the county Board of Adjustment on a request for a special exception to construct a 16-unit motel.
Walter Krohne has made the request on the property located in a commercial and agricultural zone located at Fairy Lake Park on U. S. 17-92, approximately one-fourth mile north of Seminola Boulevard.

Agents Have Busy Weekend 11 Arrested On Narcotic Charges

Eleven persons, including three juveniles, were arrested by Seminola County authorities in three separate weekend incidents of repeated drug violations.
Three youths, including James Joseph Devlin, 22, of 3 Quail Pond Road, Casselberry; Herman Joseph Hedrick, 20, Maitland, and Charles Eugene Noble, 19, Orlando, were charged by county vice squad agents, who arranged for the purchase of about an ounce of an hallucinogenic drug.
Lt. A. F. Davis, vice squad, said the trio was arrested after the drug, which has a street value of $12,000, was sold to him for $3,500 cash in an open field on Newburyport Road in Altamonte Springs.
Davis was charged on possession and delivery of a narcotic drug and an additional charge of possession of a concealed weapon after a .38 caliber pistol was found on his person.
Total bond on the two charges was set at $2,500 on Devlin, while Hedrick and Noble were charged with being principals in either the sale or delivery of a narcotic drug. Their bonds were set at $2,500 each.
Assisting in the investigation were members of Altamonte and Casselberry police departments.
S. C. Floyd Sr., department police, arrested two youths at the Prairie Lake Drive-In Theater restaurant on possession of marijuana and possession of paraphernalia charges. Richard Lee Gilman, 17, of 135 Meadowlark Street, and Gregory D. Walker, 18, Maitland, were jailed in lieu of $500 bond each.
George Charles Schmid, 19, of Altamonte, was booked on two drug charges in an arrest by Davis, who served a Circuit Court warrant on the man charging him with sale of hallucinogenic drug and possession of a hallucinogenic drug. Bond was set at $5,000 on both counts.
Det. Sgt. Raymond Parker reported the arrest of five youths, including three juveniles, after marijuana was found in a car containing the five, by Deputy Edward Stanley.
Parker stated Jay Carl Davis, 18, and Arthur Winford Levy, 18, both of Longwood, were charged with possession of marijuana after an investigation conducted by Sgt. B. D. Miller, Sgt. William Hogan, Det. George Abney and Parker.
The three boys were released to juvenile officers but Levy and Davis are being held in lieu of $500 bond each.

A '2-Way' Loser

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
President Zia-ul-Haq, who resigned today, and Zulfikar Ali Bhutto, West Pakistan's most powerful politician, succeeded him as president and chief martial law administrator.
Yahya Khan resigned because of his army's defeat in the 10-week war with India. His resignation ended 12 years of military rule in Pakistan, but the retention of martial law indicated that the army would continue to play a key role.
Bhutto was sworn in shortly after he returned from the United States, where he had argued Pakistan's case against India at the United Nations and conferred with President Nixon on Saturday. U.S. Ambassador Joseph S. Farland was in the large crowd that met him at the airport in Islamabad.
Bhutto said Sunday it was premature to speak of the future of Shaukat Mujib Rahmat, the political leader of Pakistan's now independent eastern province of Bangladesh, who is a prisoner of the Pakistani government.
He told newsmen in Rome that President Nixon, at their meeting in Washington Saturday, had reaffirmed U.S. support for the principle of Pakistan's sovereignty and unity.
"Pakistan is one single thing," Bhutto said. "The nation's unity must be safeguarded. India has forcefully occupied Pakistani territories and a lasting peace cannot be achieved if New Delhi fails to give back what it conspired with its tanks. We do not want to be involved in a war every five or ten years."
Bhutto's leftist Pakistan People's party is the largest in the National Assembly, with 82 of the 132 seats allotted to West Pakistan. Shaukat Mujib's Awami League won 167 seats, all in East Pakistan, and that gave it a majority in the assembly, but Yahya Khan canceled most of the Awami victory when he ordered his army to crush the January 1971 election.
Yahya Khan put Mujib on trial before a military court on charges of treason; sources in Rawalpindi said the trial has ended, but there was no word of a verdict. They added that Shaukat Mujib had sought a meeting with Yahya after the two-week war started, but the president refused to see him.

Auto Accidents Fatal To Two Motorists

By GARY TAYLOR
The fatality count for Seminole County climbed to 28 Saturday night when a grinding head-on collision on Interstate-4 claimed the life of an Orlando man.

Another Saturday accident, this one in Merritt Island, resulted in the death of Clarence (Rusty) Reed, 18, of 187 Lauren Court, Fern Park. Reed was traveling west on Hall Road when he collided with a car at the SR 2 intersection. Hall Road was a stop street but stop signs were reportedly down at the time of the accident due to a previous accident at the same intersection.

The Interstate-4 crash happened in the north lane, just north of the SR 434 exit. Troopers reported Robert Duncan, 45, of Orlando, was dead on arrival at Florida Hospital.

According to Trooper Robert Lovring, who along with trooper C. E. (Eddie) DePuy Jr. investigating the accident, Duncan apparently had left the rest area located near the SR 434 exit and traveled south in the north-bound lane.

Duncan collided head-on with Francis G. Niece, 22, of Lake Mary. Niece was pinned in the overturned wreckage of his 1969 Ford Mustang and was removed from the scene by "Life-saver One," Herndon's Helo-Ambulance.

Assisting at the scene were several state troopers along with a number of units from the Seminole County sheriff's department. Also called to the scene was the Longwood fire department, which washed a considerable amount of gasoline off the road.

One lane of the Interstate was blocked for nearly two hours and traffic at time was backed up for over a half mile.

Salfi Will Hear Pleas 'Shoot-Out' Arraignment

By MARION BETHA
Six of the seven defendants arrested in a drug shoot-out on Dec. 6 at the K-Mart shopping center will face arraignment to the "Mr. Big" of the drug ring, narrow before Circuit Judge Dominick Salfi. All are charged on a five-count information of conspiracy to commit a felony, attempted robbery and possession of marijuana. Weyman Glover, who has been described as the "Mr. Big" of the drug ring, and Joyce Woodbury are the newest to face arraignment, on a five-count information of conspiracy to commit a felony, attempted robbery and possession of marijuana. George Johnston, Eddie Sanders and Gary Herndon were all present last week. Trial date was set for Feb. 7 for Herndon, and arraignment was continued until this week for the others due to absence on a five-count information of conspiracy to commit a felony, attempted robbery and possession of marijuana. The men complained they had been incarcerated a week with only one telephone call being allowed. The court requested the men be allowed reasonable calls to obtain counsel.

LEROY STANLEY, Sanford man, was removed by Sanford Fire Department from his blazing frame house located at 12100 Mangrove Avenue late Sunday, when fire, origin unknown, gutted the $4,000 value house. Stanley was removed to Seminole Memorial Hospital suffering from second degree burns on the body and face, according to Manning Harriett, fire chief. Buster Ward and Frank Hamilton, two other inhabitants of the house, managed to escape without serious injury. Chief Harriett said the home was gutted and was not habitable. (Gary Taylor Photo)

FUNERAL NOTICE

WEEKEND SERVICE — Funeral services for Rusty Reed, 18, of 187 Lauren Court, Fern Park, who died Saturday, were held today at 3 p. m. at Seminole Funeral Home chapel with Rev. Jimmy Johnson of Prairie Lake Baptist Church officiating. Burial in Highland Memory Gardens. Seminole Funeral Home, 434 1/2 Ave. A, Altamonte Springs, in charge.

WE HAVE THIS LITTLE PROBLEM ABOUT IMAGE

In western movies, the funeral director is a shifty-eyed, no-good character who races with his tape-measure in hand to every shoot-out. In contemporary books and shows, he's the shrewd businessman who thrives on death.

How does a guy overcome an image like that?

Perhaps the best way is by setting an opposite example — by serving the living in a friendly, unselfish manner. We hope so, because that's what we've been doing all along.

This little can will keep mosquitos out, decorate your car grill, protect you on the road, take you fishing and help roast your turkey.

Remember all those cans you've tossed away? Well, electricity is giving them a new life. A life that begins at aluminum recycling centers all over the country. Like the three here in Florida.

For instance, with the help of Floridians who care about their environment, the Reynolds Aluminum Reclamation Center in Coral Gables, Florida, receives thousands of cans daily.

The cans enter the complex electric process of being sorted and shredded. Then made ready for melting and re-use. Like window screens, highway guard-rails, boat hulls and, of course, aluminum foil.

So, the next time you look at a clean, beautiful park, or picnic in a place that looks the way nature intended it to look, remember electricity.

It's not only part of the solution to cleaning up the environment, but is ingeniously giving old cans a new life.

EPL Electricity. Part of the solution.

Deed Bill Killed By Legislators

By MARION BETHA
"This is the worst bill I've seen in a long time."
This was the contention of Rep. Walter Sims at a hearing of the Orange-Seminole legislative delegation on the county's bill involving deed restrictions. The delegation killed the bill which would have provided that the county would not be responsible for enforcement of deed restrictions.

County Commission Chairman Greg Drummond, who was to have made the presentation, was ill. County Attorney Thomas Rumberger represented him.

Sen. John Ducker questioned the constitutionality of the bill and Sims' enforcement. Ducker said that even if the bill were not unconstitutional, it would place a tremendous burden on the seller. He continued that every time a deed changed hands there would have to be an abstract.

Randall Chase, A Sanford Leader, Moves On

Randall Chase is gone. What this sad fact means to Sanford, indeed to Seminole County, is something which time alone can disclose.

His record so far as formal listing of the enterprises, the causes, the clubs, the civic and business and political and religious affiliations is long, varied and impressive.

Mr. Chase, however, was not a man whose influences can be properly measured with such a yardstick.

During a lifetime of activity which ceased only when his last breath was drawn, this native of Sanford presented a model of the successful business executive, whose abilities had won top honors in the market place but refused to be confined to this narrow arena.

The challenges of a growing Sanford were seen and accepted by this leading citrus and vegetable grower. Thus he stepped into politics serving as both mayor and city councilman.

Seen as were his perceptions of these, and willing as he was to stand out as a hard-headed business executive who would not blind his eyes to civic duty, it was in the other and less publicized fields of activity that he worked quietly, almost silently, and with great effectiveness.

One of his close associates, a friend of long standing, commented with great emotion on learning of his passing: "...no one will ever know all the good that Mr. Chase has done for so many, in so many ways in Sanford."

His lifetime, he was born in Sanford on March 24, 1897, covered the most momentous, most changeable and most challenging decades of this city's and county's history.

As key executive of Chase & Company, his role as a leader was inescapable. But one of the shining facets of his career is the decision of the Randall Chases to choose the role of supporters and sponsors of those organizations and institutions which would build a community of sturdy character.

Only when the organizations themselves, such as the Boy Scouts who hung the Silver Beaver Award on this dedicated BSA worker, publicly paid earned tribute was the spotlight allowed to shine on Randall Chase.

Those who have had the privilege of working with this gentleman, who have sat on such committees as the board of directors of the United Fund of Seminole County, quickly realized that what Randall Chase had to say, what questions he posed, the attitude which he assumed in undertaking his duties as a director were the best guides to the man himself.

The sense of loss which permeated Greater Sanford when his sudden passing became known should now be followed with the greater sense of appreciation of Randall Chase's many services.

This is the balm which makes such an event tolerable. We extend our sincerest sympathy to Mrs. Julia Chase, his widow and very much a partner in his accomplishments and his daughter Laura, and his sons Randall Jr., and Joshua C. Their heritage is intangible is very great indeed.

It is, therefore, very much in the spirit of Randall Chase that the family has requested any wish-ful contribution to the Good Samaritan Home, Inc., in Sanford — one of the many charitable and worthy causes which enjoyed his support.

Mr. Chase gone? Physically, yes. But what this kind, gentle, and wise man stood for, remains a monument of a size and substance which will withstand the ravages of time.

Life Goes On

We are devoted readers of those little one-paragraph items so handy for the filling of small "holes" in putting together the newspapers every day, for they also help fill in the fabric of our lives.

Consider an item of the other day which informs us that "A British expedition set out for the Galapagos Islands off the South American coast to study the sea life and other activities of penguins living there, scientists announced."

While Vietnam grinds on, the Middle East bubbles in ferment, the nuclear nations scramble and probe towards their own goals and all that, somehow it's comforting to know that some of us have so much confidence that life will go on that the study of the private life of the penguin must be pursued.

Come to think of it, the penguins are getting along better with each other than we are. But for that matter, isn't all of the animal kingdom? — Anniston (Ala.) Star

Hard To Swallow

A $16.05 meal for $1.51 may be a bargain on the menu, but not out in the kitchen.

Senator Margaret Chase Smith gave this example from the Transportation Department's executive luncheon to show how federal bureaus are using tax funds to subsidize meals served at cut-rate prices.

While American housewives are paring their grocery lists to cope with inflation, executives at the Treasury Department are paying $2.45 for a meal which costs $14.31 to prepare. Lawyers at the Justice Department pay $1.66 for a $7.10 lunch.

Mrs. Smith hopes to blow the whistle on this extravagance with some legislation. Meanwhile, how about offering the taxpayer some cut-rate bicarbonate of soda?

Browns The Christmas Trees

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that make a Christmas tree turn brown.

"I think it's beginning to lose its needles already—and we just brought it into the house."

"It looks pretty nasty to me."

"Every Christmas tree is supposed to have one bad side you can only see by turning it to the wall. But that tree has nothing but bad sides."

"I wish you'd gotten a Scotch pine instead."

"You call this thing a Christmas tree? It looks like a coat rack designed by Dal." — "You mean you paid $19.95 for that tree? What's the world coming to? When I was a kid you could have bought two like that for a buck—and still gotten back 35 cents change."

"I don't think half the needles will still be on it by Christmas morning."

HAL BOYLE
"I can hardly wait for the Christmas season to be over with, just so I can get rid of this tree."

"Every morning I wake up, it has dropped another 99 needles on the living room rug."

"All right, speak up now. I want the truth. Which one of you kids gave the cat the idea that it could climb the tree?"

"Wouldn't it be awful if that poor feline tree could hear half the mean things we've said about it? It is just like one of those people who try to do their best, but their best is never quite good enough."

"Well, George, it's time to take that Christmas tree out and throw it away. It's a total mess. Next year, why don't we get a modern plastic or aluminum tree? After all, they don't shed any needles."

A Nixon Victory? Gloom Maker

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
WASHINGTON (NEA)—Quite a few industrial, Democratic, proud of their "realism," are privately saying they have little chance to beat President Nixon next year. Conversely, some hard-headed Republicans are saying Nixon has little chance to win.

I am convinced this kind of talk from Democrats is well serving no one's interest to disturb and kill the President. They really believe it.

They are dazzled by the powers of the office, and by any president's capacity to command events. They figure Mr. Nixon is going to surprise and disconcert them from now until next November. They know the Vietnam war is slipping into the shadows. They look for an economic trick or two. And they think he'll keep running around the world.

Mr. Nixon's drawbacks? The big one, according to the argument, is the Republicans' continuing status as a minority party, compounded by the President's evident inability to attract extra personal support. The GOP doubters say:

"If we're so well off, where's the 50 per cent?"

It is a fact, measurable by the polls, that Mr. Nixon hovers around the 41-41 per cent mark when positioned against a strong potential rival like Sen. Edmund Muskie or Sen. Edward Brooke. He doesn't gain.

Don Oakley Says:

Child Care Inequity In New Law

By DON OAKLEY
NEA Editorial

Because of "family-weakening implications" in one section of the welfare reform bill, involving government subsidization of child development centers, President Nixon vetoed the entire bill.

Then, because he wanted most of the families Congress had hung on the tax bill "Christmas tree," he turned around and signed into law a deduction which will, in effect, pay mothers to neglect their children.

This is the provision which will permit working couples whose combined incomes are under $18,000, who have children under 13 and who file a joint return, to deduct a "business expense" the cost of baby sitters or domestic help or the very same day care centers the President is so leery about—up to $4,000.

To repeat: The working mother, struggling along with her husband on a mere $18,000 a year may now claim the cost of government-subsidized child service to the tune of $400 a month. (In the 20 per cent bracket, this would be $80 a month in actual tax savings.)

Not only that, but the working mother who is helping father keep the wolf from the door with a combined income as high as $27,000 can also claim partial benefits, depending upon the number of children.

Meanwhile, the mother who thinks that the most important job in the world is caring for her family and whose husband is trying to support that family by himself on maybe $7,000 or $8,000 a year will be tapped for their full tax liability. If the wife is sickly and needs outside help with the housework or would like some time off from the kids, that's their problem. Talk about tax loopholes for the wealthy. This one was tailor-made for the middle class—approximately 7 million working mothers with young children in families with total income of more than $18,000 (plus those mothers who will now decide to go up and get some of the gravy).

It is also one more proof that we used to justify a joint return to justify what was once a sensible provision aimed at helping widowed, divorced or single parents and couples with income below $6,000 was ballooned out of all proportion thanks to the lobbying efforts of a group called "Mothers United for Fair Taxation."

"Fair" taxation? As National Observer writer Michael Malloy has pointed out:

Rezoning Bid Rejected

By ANN SIUCZKOWSKI
County Commission approved a request to rezone from A-1 agriculture to R-2 multiple family an area located on the southwest corner of US 17-92 and East Road.

The request was recommended by the planning and zoning board as a low density area.

Planning Director David Farr said the appropriateness of an apartment complex near Seminole Junior College seemed good, and that he had heard many married students and faculty complain about the unavailability of housing near the campus.

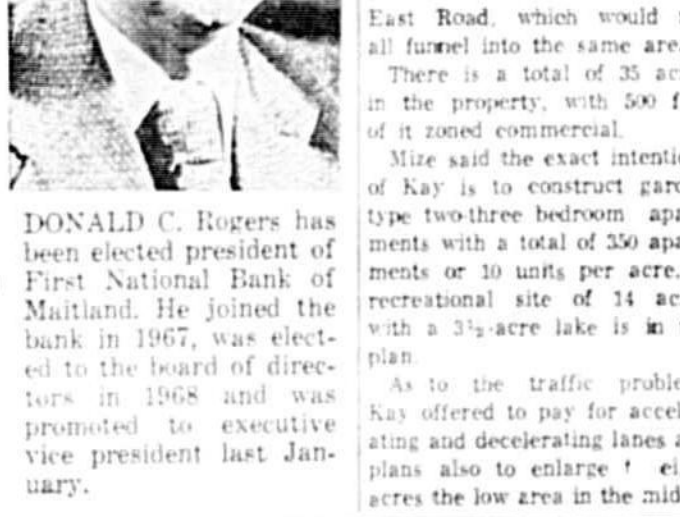

He said, "However, the City of Sanford refuses to furnish water and sewer service unless the area is annexed into the city. Also, the traffic count on East Road is much heavier than we thought. For instance, a 15-hour count from 7 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. indicated that 4,400 cars traveled over East Road. The Junior College is not in opposition to the apartments but officials are somewhat concerned about the traffic and sanitary problems."

Vernon Mize, attorney for Builder Sanford Kay, explained to the commissioners that "we did not feel it feasible to have direct entrances to the complex on 17-92 — rather to have it on East Road, which would not all funnel into the same area."

There is a total of 35 acres in the property, with 500 feet of frontage on East Road.

Mize said the exact intentions of Kay is to construct garden type two-three bedroom apartments with a total of 250 apartments or 10 units per acre. A recreational site of 14 acres with a 3 1/2-acre lake is in the plan.

As to the traffic problem, Kay offered to pay for accelerating and decelerating lanes and plans also to enlarge eight acres the low area in the middle

Land Purchase Totals $455,000

No. Orlando Project Told

NORTH ORLANDO — The second residential development within Florida Land Company's Terrace subdivision in the Village of North Orlando was announced today.

Mark Builders, Inc. of Orlando, signed a contract with Florida Land, a subsidiary of Florida Gas Company, for purchase of 139 lots in the new North Orlando Terrace, part of a 2,250-acre tract owned by Florida Land.

The approximate purchase price was $455,000.

Summer Kramer, chairman of Mark Builders, said construction of the three- and four-bedroom single-family homes will begin about mid-June, following completion of sewer and underground utility facilities now under construction by Florida Land. By late August or early September, Kramer said, the first of the conventionally built homes in the $17,000-$21,000 price range should be available to purchasers.

Work in the North Orlando Terrace subdivision began last October on 40 acres purchased by Willmer Industries, of New Jersey.

Kramer and his partner in the North Orlando project, Larry Leckart, and other associates are currently building a 130-room Sheraton Motel on Orlando at Interstate 4 in Orlando and a Motor Lodge west of Walt Disney World Leeward near Hoonie's Restaurant in Orlando's Colonial Shopping Center and Motor Restaurant and Goshy's Coffee Shop in the Winter Park Mall.

Lake Pollution Studied

The Lake Kathryn problem is still very much with us, according to Landry Adair, county pollution control officer.

Reporting to the board of county commissioners, Adair said, "As I was passing by Lake Kathryn, I saw a noticeable yellow color—a fine grain silt, covering all around the lake, particularly bad on the west end, but also in the canal between the lake and the lagoon to the north."

"Because of the situation, I requested the state pollution control officer to investigate the pollution appearing to come from the mouth of the canal in the lagoon north. Yesterday there was no apparent flow north but today there is a strong flow."

"Workers were present on the shore of the lagoon bringing in fill dirt, dumping it into the lagoon. Since my office was not notified early enough, it will be difficult to take care of the situation."

Lake Pollution Studied

"We are delighted to be associated with Florida Land Company in this North Orlando development," Kramer said, "and we expect our new relationship to continue beyond this immediate project."

Mark Builders has extensive operations in San Juan, Puerto Rico, where it has built 1,700 homes in the last eight years and is now beginning construction of 2,500 additional homes and apartments.

The firm also has completed or is currently building homes, apartments, shopping centers and townhouses in Plantation, Sarasota, St. Petersburg, North Miami, Kissimmee and Orlando. Kramer said the company is projecting some $30 million

Military Shrugs Off Nixon

By RAY CROMLEY
WASHINGTON (NEA)—A long dissatisfaction is rife at the highest levels of the Nixon administration with U. S. military leadership.

This reporter has found deep satisfaction among the President's advisers in the State Department and in the top civilian leadership of the Defense Department itself. It exists in the U. S. Senate among men who have been the Pentagon's chief defenders in the past.

The resignation of Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard was in part a result of this dissatisfaction. It is known that he personally had come to despair of getting a handle on the top military brass. Some months ago, in fact, a high Nixon adviser who considered Packard the best official in the nation, told this reporter that Packard had just about given up.

The foremost problem bothering the dissatisfied men close to the President is the inability of the President himself to bring information are selected and analyzed through a dozen layers in the military shops. It is frequently impossible to recognize the original basic data. It is on these final well-massaged papers that the civilian heads must make their decisions.

We are not talking about dishonesty any more than we call most scientific, political, social or economic research dishonest. It is extremely difficult, however, to realize how much unconscious emotional slant enters into interpretations when men genuinely believe the defense of their country is at stake and that their approach is necessary to avert catastrophe.

One cannot fault men for such beliefs. But they can result in disaster all the same, if they are not talking about the same thing. These Nixon advisers have been shocked, too, by the inability of U. S. military leaders to adapt to the different "kind of war" found in Vietnam. They were disturbed that a poorly equipped, poorly armed and often poorly led force could so frequently outmaneuver us.

An Open Letter

Dear Friends,

These are trying times, both nationally and here in Sanford, with many problems confronting us. Tomorrow you will have the opportunity to voice your opinion on who you, the voter, feel will best represent you in solving these problems.

Organized and effective government can only be achieved if those in responsible governmental positions are instruments of the people. We must listen to the opinions from all segments of society and arrive at a decision that is in the best interest of the community.

As your City Commissioner I will be an instrument of all the people, not a tool of special interest groups.

As your City Commissioner my door will always be open to you, the citizen.

As your City Commissioner I will strive to bring comprehensive and responsive government to our city.

May I have your vote tomorrow, December 21st? Thank you!

'Santa' Aids Ailing Boys

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — A millionaire greer who has three healthy teenage daughters and a home next door to Disney World has donated $1,600 to help four brothers in Michigan who aren't so lucky.

Jimmy Pritchard decided to do something "really special" after reading of the plight of the Tausch brothers in an Associated Press story. The four boys, ranging in age from 7 to 15, are all stricken with muscular dystrophy and want to see Disney's new Magic Kingdom in Florida while they're still able.

But the brothers live in Kingsford, Mich., and Robert Tausch and his wife need to save more money before they can afford the trip.

"I looked at my three healthy daughters and felt this was something I had to do," said Pritchard, who was the first to offer financial assistance to the Michigan family.

When an Orlando newspaper reporter called to tell the Tausch family of the offer, both parents broke down in happy sobs and weren't able to talk further. But the brothers had plenty to say. "Great," said Paul, 7, who still can walk and doesn't understand about the crippling, fatal disease that have left his brothers in wheelchairs.

"Good going," added Joey, 12, and Billy, 9.

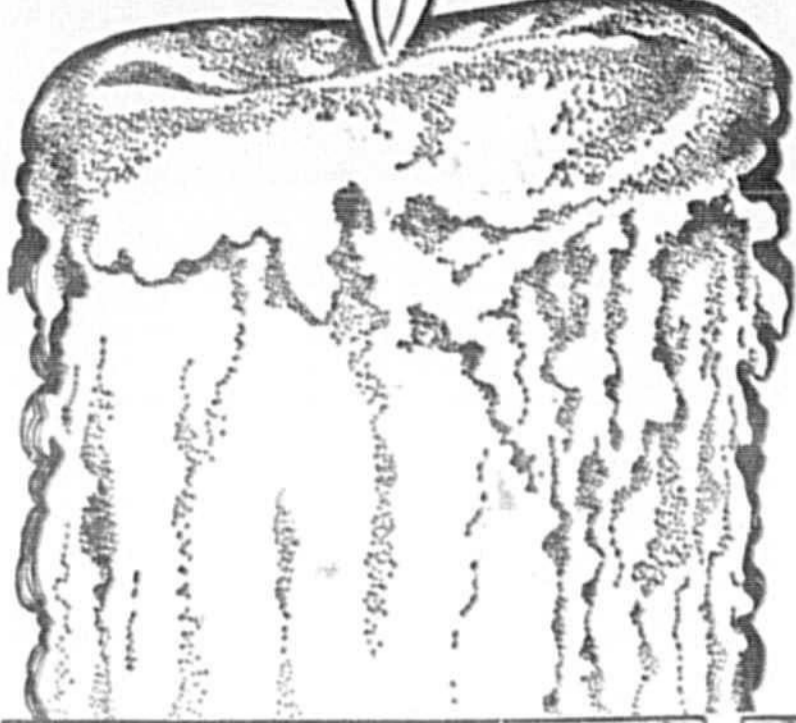

"God bless you all," said Robbie, 15, the oldest and most severely afflicted.

Pritchard, who owns 16 grocery stores in Central Florida, said he decided to help after a family discussion.

"The Tausch family has suffered enough hard luck for 100 families," he said.

The Tausch family said they learned Sunday that a fund to help finance their trip to Florida also has been set up by the Apolonia, Wis. Post Crescent newspaper. It's called the "Four Brothers Fund" and administered by the First National Bank in Appleton.

The family said they hope to make the trip in a converted school bus in March, so they can also see the Apollo 16 moon launch, scheduled for March 17.

Religious Happening At U of F

By REG CROWDER
GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Students pasted religious leaflets instead of anti-war pamphlets and flock to revival cruises.

Leaders sport passages from the Bible.

Such an evangelist's dream is fast becoming a reality at the University of Florida, where an increasing number of students have turned to religion — but in their own way.

The new religious happening is described by a university official as "an inward revival of sensitivity to the supernatural."

"Students are looking inward," said Dr. Robert T. Scott, coordinator of the University Religious Association. "They are looking to themselves. They know how profaned or wide spread this revival is, but I know it is here."

In courting God, however, the students have rejected organized religion. They add new twists to the traditional forms of worship.

Student worshippers who still revere themselves Roman Catholics attend mass in an open yard or under trees.

They sit on grass instead of benches. There are no altars. Priests who accept the "Hare Krishna" philosophy don white robes and exhort students to improve relations with the Krishna godhead by chanting Indian phrases.

Disciples of the local "Sri Sri Krishna Temples" gather daily on the Plaza of the Americas in front of the research library.

Their heads shaved except for a single braid, they sell Krishna magazines and hand out little blue cards with the Krishna chant.

Seeking an answer for the youthful revival Scott said: "It seems to me that the students and others don't have a commitment to the institutions of new society.

"They are all regarded as illegals and outmoded and that being the case it would be strange for students to want to be involved in them.

James Michael V. Gannon, pastor of the University Catholic Center, says the practice of religion is changing radically on campus.

"I think if you young people dislike organized religion, it is the adjective, not the noun they object to. What is different today is that just going to an organized religion does not attract people. But if a church will deal with people on their own level, it can reach them."

He noted his own church has five services on Sunday and said "people come in droves" for the Thanksgiving and Christmas "outdoor" masses.

Some outside groups, such as the Children of God, invade the campus weekly convicts.

The Children of God live in colonies and pattern their lives after the disciples of Christ as described in the Bible.

"When someone joins he gives up all his possessions," said Adams Lamb, a spiritual leader. "We have no secular employment. The Lord provides for us. We are full-time Christians."

Members do not believe in medical treatment. "Our wives have natural childbirth," said Lamb. "We haven't lost a baby or a mother yet."

Students seem reluctant to join the Children of God and other religious communes.

One commune set up in an old fraternity house adjacent to the university folded recently.

'Underground' Outlined At Walt Disney World

By KEN GEPPERT
ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Main Street in Walt Disney World is jammed with cameras, taking tourists, but 14 feet below—hidden to the Magic Kingdom's patrons—one can walk a mile and hardly see a soul.

Disney's secret underworld is not for the vacationing masses. Its traffic consists of electricians, stockroom boys and car lifters but characteristically overstatement, claim the fest was the largest basement in Florida "for just this reason — to keep the mundane and the mad out of each other's way."

"We learned the need for it at Disneyland," said Disney World publicity manager Charles Ridgway.

So before Disney started depicting its California creation in central Florida several years ago, it called in huge International Psychologists to move eight and a half miles in cubic yards of earth and build a 14-foot perch for the Magic Kingdom.

Construction crews then burrowed back down to the original level and carved out a Nether-Nether Land maze of tunnels and storage rooms covering more than eight acres.

Disney people, with only a few characters in street clothes, claim the fest was the largest earth moving job in the world.

"Without a map or guide, it's easy to get lost in this subterranean Disney World. Tunnels snake off in all directions, winding past storerooms stacked with souvenirs, wardrobes bulging with 18,000 costumes and a cafeteria to sustain employees who must face the crowds overhead.

"The tunnels serve as a cloak for numerous behind-the-scenes activities. For example, costumed employees can get to and from their posts inside the park without upsetting the "themes" of the five lands.

"Indiana don't have to wander through Tomorrowland to get to their jobs in Frontierland," Ridgway said.

Employees walk to work underground, entering the Magic Kingdom only through one of 13 doors which open into backstage areas out of view of the curious crowd. They then slip around the corner and blend into the crowd of the public's eyes.

Office workers dart up two flights of stairs to their desks on the second floor of all Main Street buildings. The thousands of tourists pass by outside, their sounds, muffled by a five-foot false floor on second story store fronts.

A basement also supports a maze of backdrops of Mickey Mouse T-shirts, Winnie-the-Pooh dolls and countless other supplies. Specially designed electric trucks rumble through the 20-foot wide tunnels to keep the storerooms well stocked.

Disney World's unsightly utility services are hidden underground too. Electrical wires, water pipes, sewer lines and vacuum tubes for solid waste disposal cover tunnel walls and ceilings, accessible for quick repair.

Victimless Crimes To Be Studied

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Legislators are studying crimes without victims, Attorney General Robert Shubin says it would be better to let "300 crackshooters go free if we could prevent one murder, rape or robbery."

Shubin, who thinks of himself as "Florida's No. 1 Crime fighter," said it was time to get tough on the appropriate dealer and back room poker games and into the streets where the criminals are.

Shubin endorsed a House Criminal Justice Committee study on streamlining Florida's 1,159 criminal laws.

Committee Chairman William Yancy, D-Lakeview, said a major goal of the one-year study will be to repeal "victimless crimes . . . which create more problems than they solve."

Shubin said he saw little objection to repealing laws against fornication, adultery and gambling. "If it's an unorganized type of gambling, I don't know that that should be the concern of the state, but if we're talking about bookies bankrolled by organized crime, I think it should be a violation of the law and be prosecuted against."

Demo Women's Party

Artists Celebrate Holiday Season

The Sanford Seminole Art Association held its annual Christmas dinner at the Holiday Inn on Saturday, Dec. 11 at 7:30. The dinner was preceded by a happy hour when all of the invited guests participated in liquid refreshments and much chatter. The appointed party area was festively ornamented with Christmas arrangements, glowing candles, and many times garlands. A delicious roast beef dinner was served to the members and their invited guests and was followed by an important fun and song hour directed by Trade Nopper, the overall chairman of the festivities. Prizes were donated by Art, Seakirk Paint and Glass Co.

Collins Frames, E. B. Stone, Amabel Jennings, Paul McJohn, E. Hooper, Mildred Babcock, Judy Alonides, Marie Richter, Rosamond Chapman and Ruth Jamieson. Mrs. George Touby, organist, presented a program of appropriate musical music. The church was decorated with basket arrangements of pink and white carnations, greenery, and two candelabra. A kneeling bench was used and family pews were marked with sprigs of flowers and greenery. Given in marriage by her brother, the bride wore a pastel pink gown of silk organza over tulle featuring long bell-shaped sleeves, empire-waist, mandarin collar and train. Accenting the neckline, bodice, train and cuffs were appliqués of white lace daisies. Her short white veil of silk illusion was attached to a headpiece of white daisies and she carried a prayer book, topped with white ribbon streamers with prayer beads. Mrs. Linda Kesting, matron of honor, wore a gown of working pink organza over tulle. The empty waist was accented with white daisies with pink centers. She wore a headpiece of white daisies and carried a bouquet of bright pink carnations.

Mrs. Mayme Sieg Honored At Birthday Luncheon

GENEVA — Mrs. Mayme Sieg was honored by the Woman's Missionary Society at the First Baptist Church fellowship hall on the occasion of the 82nd anniversary of her birthday. The luncheon was held on Dec. 12, but because of conflicting dates the women gathered on Dec. 21. A covered dish luncheon was served to all in attendance and a special song was sung to Mrs. Sieg by Vivian Dunn. Those attending were Mrs. Sieg, Mrs. E. W. Allen, Mrs. Cader Hart, Mrs. T. Albert Scott, Mrs. Vester M. Smith, Mrs. Vivian Dunn, Mrs. Bobby Bradley and Mrs. Joseph E. Mathews. Each person present brought a special personal gift for Mrs. Sieg. Mrs. Sieg will be pleasantly remembered for having taught for more than 40 years in the public school system of Seminole County.

The groom's mother chose a cool dress of green shantung, match girl accessories and a green and white matching accessories and a pink orchid corsage.

Give A Book For Christmas

BY VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer
Time was when a Christmas gift book was considered a snacking staffer—a little something extra. But many books of interest to homemakers in our "busy" society may become the piece de resistance of Santa's list. One of the most interesting books on the market today is "Antiques You Can Decorate With" by George Greig. It is a valuable guide for people who want a guide to antiques and their prices. The book is useful for new collectors as it discusses such things as color, pricing used by dealers, and the prevalence of fakes. The author points out the most widespread takes are those paintings done on glass for the doors of old clocks.

Female Doctor Strikes Blow At Women's Lib

By OTTO DOALLING
FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — "Women let men work for them, think for them and bear responsibility for them. Women exploit men. Yet men are strong, intelligent and imaginative while women are weak, stupid and without imagination. Why then are men exploited by women and not the other way around?" This blow against women's liberation was not struck by a male chauvinist. It comes from a petite, 38-year-old woman, physician and writer who was born of German parentage in Argentina and who now lives in a small village near Munich. Esther Vilar's latest book is a choice between leading the kind of life that a man does or that of a dumb creature of luxury and Scandinavia. The German title is "Der stressierte Mann"—The Trained Man. Her theme is that the human male, superior to the female in all respects but dignity, has been conditioned to be a beast of labor for women ever since his mother first hugged him to her breast. Women's main weapon, in Frau Vilar's view, are sex and praise—neither of which the male can do without. Interviewed at the recent Frankfurt International Book Fair, Frau Vilar said she began writing the book during a visit to New York, where she observed the burgeoning women's lib movement. The book is meant as a provocation, she admits. "I do not care to have the image of a housewife. Their image is very bad at present," she remarked. "Through reduction of women, she thinks the situation can change—perhaps in another three generations." "But I have also found a positive echo, especially among intellectual women," she said. "In fact they consider it a compliment when feminists describe them as strong, evil and intolerant." Her book is replete with facts and women's lib, such as: "Most men do not want to admit they are trained," she said. "In fact they consider it a compliment when feminists describe them as strong, evil and intolerant."

Sanford Plaza 10 A.M. to 10:30 P.M. Mon. - Thurs.

DEAR ABBY: I'm not telling you this to boast, but just to give you some idea of my situation. I am 25, my figure is 37-25-36 and I have won several beauty contests. Two years ago I married what everyone (including myself) thought was a prize. He was 30, college educated, good job, rosy future, etc. Well, this "prize" has made love to me exactly five times since Jan. 1, 1970! (Twice he came right out and told me he was to shut me up.) I have tried everything, including treating him as the deer in the headlights, but through neglect. And he says, "Hi, What for supper?" I told him he should see a doctor, and he said I should never satisfy! Am I abnormal or is he? Any suggestions?

'Prosecutor Bill' Is In Jeopardy

By MARION BETHEA
A bill which would take the county prosecutor off the free system and place him on a budget system and salary will "die" if there is not another hearing of the Orange-Seminole legislative delegation.
The bill was to have been presented by Roger Berry but Berry did not attend the last meeting nor send a representative. Delegation Chairman Rep. William Gorman said that there probably will be another meeting of the delegation and that "we will have to do the best we can with it" (the bill).
Sen. John Tucker injected that it was his understanding that the bill was to have been presented at the last delegation meeting. Gorman maintained he was not going to "kill the bill" because Berry was not there.
Considerable verbiage ensued between Tucker and Gorman over the meaning of "temporarily pass." Tucker asked when another meeting would be held. Gorman, obviously agitated, said he did not know, and that "you know what temporarily pass means" (Tucker is the delegation attorney).
Unanimously approved by the circuit and county judges to participate in insurance benefits upon the same basis as other county employees.
Also unanimously passed is a bill for revision of the Sanford police department pension plan. The bill provides that employees, who contribute to the pension plan and who terminate their employment may receive any moneys which they have paid into the plan.

Income Tax Cuts Effective Jan. 1st

By MIKE SHANAHAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Cuts in federal income taxes that take effect Jan. 1 will put more cash into the pockets of most Americans.
Families with just one wage earner will benefit the most, but there's good news for all most taxpayers.
Some of the decrease in federal deductions from paychecks may be offset by higher state and local taxes. There's also an increase in the income tax for Social Security taxes, though the 5.2 per cent rate of deduction probably will remain the same.
The ceiling goes from $7,000 this year to $5,000 in 1972, meaning deductions will continue for a longer time next year. But the changes in federal tax exemptions and allowances (big power to levels never seen before, according to Internal Revenue Service officials).
A generous 82nd Congress raised the standard exemption for individuals and their dependents from $675 in 1971 to $750 in 1972. That means the IRS will count on bigger personal exemptions next year and so will take out a smaller chunk of each paycheck.
Then there's the standard deduction for taxpayers who choose to claim an estimate of items like medical expenses, moving costs and local and state taxes, rather than taking the trouble to figure them out item by item.
Next year's standard deduction will be 13 per cent or $2,000, whichever is lower, compared with 13 per cent or $1,500 this year.
Poor people also get a break. The government is in the third stage of an effort to lift the federal tax burden from their backs. A special low-income standard deduction built into the tax tables goes up from $1,050 in 1971 to $1,300 in 1972.
IRS officials say there is a potential saving developing for married taxpayers with one wage earner in the house, because of an attempt to find a more equitable tax rate for single persons.
Here's what happened. The IRS this year tried to assure that single people would not pay more than 25 per cent above the tax paid by couples in the same income bracket.

County Commission Overrides P-Z Unit

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI
Shell Oil Company requested of County Commission the 170-acre property located at the northwest corner of Howell Branch Road and Lake Howell Road be rezoned from C-3 commercial and R-2 duplex to R-3 multiple family. The request was granted. By the request, County Planner David Parr said that the request was not recommended by the planning zoning department nor by the planning department. The reason for this judgment was that to rezone back from R-2 would be in contradiction to earlier plans for a buffer zone between residential and commercial areas. This would be establishing a too high density area right up to Dommerich Hills.
Kenneth Higgins said that after conferences with the planning and zoning departments and with the residents in Dommerich Hills, the company is willing to consider an area of four to five acres total, with 14 units per acre being planned.
"When the property was purchased, the present zoning was in effect and we planned apartments and a shopping area. Three or four months ago, we learned that apartments could not be constructed in C-3 zoning area," Higgins explained.
On Dec. 6, the company sold part of the property to the Lutheran church. The developer would try to build professional buildings with the same motif as apartment buildings under new zoning.
"If the area as R-2 has to be rezoned as C-3, it will be difficult to get a developer to come into the area," Higgins said. Continuing, Higgins said that the company was planning two-story town houses for rental purposes and that $1.6 million already had been committed.
He said that General Water Works told the company that they preferred the area remain under the same zoning. "We feel that any commercial development we may get, won't pose the problems this proposed apartment complex could cause. We don't anticipate any large commercial ventures—perhaps some small convenience type stores."

Ag-Sec'y. Politicks For Nixon

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz has burst onto the 1972 political scene as the key downfield blocker in President Nixon's race through the farm belt.
Charges that the administration is against small farmers and for huge, corporate interests will be challenged with a bang, not a whimper. Butz, 62, says he's a fighter and likes to punch.
Moreover, Butz said in an interview, he will stump the farm belt on behalf of Republican candidates "on our team" in 1972.
Butz said he expects 1972 to be a lively scrap for the hearts and votes of rural America.
An example of the fray ahead was signaled last Friday by Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, who told a National Farmers Organization audience Nixon "has turned his back" on farmers.
"Earl Butz stands for factory buying, which drives merchants out of business, small towns out of existence and families out of farming," Muskie told the NFO in Kansas City.
Butz, who had read a copy of the Muskie speech, said such claims were "totally wrong" and that farmers would be the judges of Nixon policies.

Vote Tuesday, Dec. 21 for Dr. W. Vincent Roberts

A look into the past accomplishments and future aspirations of...

Dr. W. Vincent Roberts
CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION TO THE
City Commission
Group One
CITY OF SANFORD

For the past six years I have served as your City Commissioner and, during 1968, as your Mayor. During this period much was accomplished by your city government. I am proud to have been a part of the progress that has taken place in these six years which included the void produced by the departure of the Navy and the beginning of the impact of Disneyworld. During this period your City Commission has faced up to many problems and many decisions have had to be made, in - the construction of the Marina, the acquisition of the airport, the development of the Airport Authority, residential and industrial annexation, paving of streets, street drainage, street lighting, the Zoo problem, the ever present problem of runaway inflation as it involves all city expenses. I have not been responsible for the solution to all these problems and no City Commissioner is due credit or blame for any of them. It is the action of the total Commission that is right or wrong.

be vital in handling the municipal problems in the next few years. I have, I believe, demonstrated my sincerity and my honesty, my devotion to duty during these past years, and I pledge renewed efforts on behalf of our citizens in the future.

The only issue my opponent in this election could bring up concerned my being a busy physician and unable to devote the time to the job. This is false conjecture and he knows that full well. I have devoted the necessary time and effort for the past six years. Why is there any question as to whether I can in the future? He claims that he will be a "full time Commissioner." This is a half-truth because he knows full well that any Commissioner that has ever served has been "full time" from the moment of taking the oath of office. He states that he will give all the time that is necessary to do the job - well - so has every Commissioner with whom I have had the pleasure of serving. We all take our duties and responsibilities of our office most seriously. My opponent has utilized every available opportunity therefore to place a question mark in the minds of the voters regarding my availability for city business. He is never specific - only by inuendo. He has dealt then in half-truths and why? Because he doesn't care to tell the public that by actual count I have had better than a 95% attendance record at all official meetings of the City Commission during 1971, and my average attendance over the 6 years is 93%, and that even with my busy schedule as a physician, I have had the time to be an active member of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, The Good Samaritan Home, The Central Florida Chapter of the American Red Cross, The Advisory Board of the Salvation Army, The Board of Education for All Souls School, of which I am now serving my second term as President and many other activities and organizations too numerous to mention. I believe that an individual has the time to do what he wants to do - and as I have stated - I want to serve my community where I can.

Prior to the recent election I did essentially no campaigning. There were no expensive mailouts, advertisements, signs, circulars, and other promotional ballyhoo to place a name in the public eye - rather I felt that it would be better to accept no campaign contributions and to spend only my own money. Therefore I would incur no obligations to any unknown, unpublished person who may someday expect to be repaid by some sort of favoritism. I have never accepted a campaign contribution in any of my elections. Additionally, I have made no campaign promises, made no personal attacks on any other candidate and have not dealt in any fashion with half-truths, inuendo or other deceiving material. I have only offered my candidacy in the service of our community.

Many friends, business and professional leaders have asked me to run again and still many others concerned that my service and experience would

I have given one-fourth of my life to the City of Sanford and served in the best interest of our community. I have served as a Commissioner, always maintaining the highest of ideals of government, with justice, fairness and economy to all and the conservative management of our municipality. I believe that government should serve the people and be available to all. I believe that government should keep its faith with the people. I believe that service must come first. This I have done in the past. This I will do in the future. I ask for your support. I ask for your vote. I ask that we all place service above self.

Dozen Candidates Seen Demo Voting Analyzed

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — With as many as a dozen Democratic candidates expected in Florida's March 11 presidential primary, Secretary of State Richard Stone says he thinks it will go to anyone who garners more than 30 per cent of the vote.

The running list at present includes such notable Democrats as Sen. Edward Kennedy of Massachusetts — and could reach or pass the dozen mark if others known to be interested decide to take the plunge.

Some will nominate candidates for review by a six-member selection board. The criteria for getting on Stone's list include being prominently mentioned as a Democratic candidate in the national and state press.

Right now, Stone's potential list contains 25 Democratic names, including Sen. Vance Hartke of Indiana because "he was mentioned in Women's Wear Daily," he said.

The nine Democratic names destined for the ballot at present are:

Sen. Shirley Chisholm of New York; Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota; Sen. Henry Jackson of Washington; Mayor John Lindsay of New York; former Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota; Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota; Sen. Edmund

Wallace of Alabama; and Mayor Sam Vary of Los Angeles.

Sen. Fred Harris of Oklahoma announced his withdrawal from the race earlier this year. He said he is keeping Harris file active because he has not disavowed the "55 campaign" mounted by Harris supporters who want their candidate to reconsider.

Wallace does not yet fill the requirement of being nationally mentioned as a prospective

Democratic candidate. There is more talk of him running as a Democrat already hovering in the wings. Stone said such an announcement by Harris would be to announce to Stone that he is keeping tabs on only President Nixon, Rep. Paul McCloskey of California and Rep. John Ashbrook of Ohio.

Things are quieter on the Republican side, where Stone said he is keeping tabs on only President Nixon, Rep. Paul McCloskey of California and Rep. John Ashbrook of Ohio.

Cuban Spies Slipping Into U. S. - Defector

MIAMI (AP) — The biggest remaining intelligence officer ever to defect from Communist Cuba says Fidel Castro regime has "never had any real difficulty in infiltrating agents into the United States."

The Cuban intelligence apparatus, working in conjunction with the Soviet KGB, "has been utilizing the stream of Cuban refugees as a cover for the infiltration of agents," said

Castro Hidalgo in a book published here this week. Castro Hidalgo, a turn secret agent in the Cuban embassy in Paris, defected in Luxembourg in 1960 and was granted political asylum in this country. He has been living in the United States under an assumed name since his defection.

His book, "Key for Fidel," details the operations of Cuba's Directorate General de Inteligencia (DGI). Castro Hidalgo writes within Cuba and in Europe, Latin America and Africa. He says the DGI's headquarters in this country is the Cuban Mission to the United Nations.

Because of the large numbers of refugees arriving in this country daily, "there is no way of screening out all the men and women who may be working for DGI," Castro Hidalgo writes.

Festivity, Family And Food

Family, friends, festivity and food — all go into the merry mix that makes for happy holidays. Chances are you'll be swept up in the spirit of the season and start making party plans. Will it be a special dinner, a beautiful buffet, a gay open house or all three?

Sure to satisfy appetites on any occasion are more elegant versions of everyday food combinations, such as America's favorite menu mates — beef and potatoes. You can capitalize on the popularity of this pair for an event.

For a deluxe dinner, make it a regal rib roast and baked Idaho potatoes. The success of this festive pastiche is determined by top restaurant billing. Tender and juicy roast beef, a traditional holiday choice, can stand on its own (have meat, no time-consuming extras are needed). Today's rib roasts are tailored and trimmed to provide more servings per pound.

Peasoles from Idaho boast special flavor and unique texture that make them the choice, not only for baking for which they're justly famous, but for every other cooking method.

Quick flavor additions, in form of envelopes of seasoning mixes and bottled salad dressings, are special blessings during this busy season. Just try California Onion Dressing on any green vegetable!

If a party buffet is included in your holiday hosting, event on the beef and potato combo to build a satisfying menu.

ROAST BEEF

Place roast, fat side up, on rack in open roasting pan. Insert meat thermometer so bulb is centered in the thickest part of roast. Do not add water. Do not cover. Roast in a slow oven (325 degrees) to desired degree of doneness. The meat thermometer will register 140 degrees for rare, 160 degrees for medium, 170 degrees for well done. For a 4- to 6-pound roast, allow 20 to 22 minutes per pound for rare, 24 to 28 minutes per pound for medium and 40 to 45 minutes for well done. For a 6- to 8-pound roast, allow 23 to 25 minutes per pound for rare, 27 to 30 for medium and 32 to 35 for well done. For easier carving, allow roast to "stand" in a warm place 15 to 20 minutes after removal from oven. Since roasts usually continue to cook after removal from oven, it is best to remove them when thermometer registers about 5 degrees below the temperature of doneness desired. Before carving, remove roast from oven, with a sharp knife, remove backbone and leather bones from roast.

*To make carving easier, have retailer loosen back (chine) bone by sawing across ribs, and tie roast.

BAKED POTATOES

8 Idaho potatoes
2 1/2 cups milk
1/4 cup butter
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 egg whites
1 cup dairy sour cream
1/2 cup snipped parsley
1/4 teaspoon salt

Scrub potatoes, prick each with a fork and bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) until done, approximately 1 1/2 hours. Cut slice from top of each potato immediately and scoop out centers, being careful not to break skins. Mash potatoes; add milk, butter, 2 teaspoons salt and pepper and beat until light. Pile mixture into potato shells. Let cool, if desired.

To prepare topping, beat egg whites until they hold peaks. Combine sour cream, parsley and 1/4 teaspoon salt and fold into whites. Spoon topping on stuffed potatoes and return to oven for 15 to 20 minutes, until topping begins to brown.

*Potatoes can be baked with roast at 325 degrees until done, approximately 2 hours, and allowed to cool, reheat for 15 minutes in 325 degree oven before adding topping.

ONION DRESSING

1/2 cup Wash-Bone California Onion Dressing
2 packages (10 ounces each) frozen or 1 bunch fresh broccoli, cooked and drained
1 tablespoon chopped pimiento

In small saucepan, warm California Onion Dressing. Pour over broccoli before serving. Sprinkle with chopped pimiento. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

National Guard Numbers Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — The number of National Guardsmen in the United States has fallen to its lowest point in about six years, even as the guard is being assigned important new missions in the nation's contingency war plans. Latest reports reaching the Pentagon from the 50 states indicate guard strength at the end of November had slipped to about 381,000 men.

This is about 16,000 men below its authorized manpower level of 397,000 and the smallest number of guard ranks since 1965 when young men began flocking to the National Guard in preference to being drafted for the Vietnam war.

The National Guard is mounting a major recruiting campaign, having trained several thousand new recruits to "go out and beat the bushes" for recruits, as an official put it.

But the steep decline in draft calls and Nixon administration's promises to try to end the draft in about 18 months is making it harder to attract young men into the guard.

The difficulties come at a time when Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird has made it clear he expects the guard to fill a major front-line role in U.S. preparations.

This is because the size of the regular Army is about half a million below what it was at the Vietnam war peak in 1969 and is due to fall even lower.

The Army now totals about one million men.

FINISHING touches are added to the Christmas tree at Altamonte Springs city hall by Shirley Moses of the accounting department. Mayor Lawrence Swafford provide the tree and Miss Moses the decorations with assistance from Mrs. Betty Davis, the mayor's secretary. (Donna Estes Photo)

95 Drug Offenders Paroled

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Six months ago, 191 drug offenders were behind bars in Florida. Today, 95 of them have been paroled under a new program to give speedy parole to some first-time marijuana law violators.

Bill Kyle, assistant director of the Probation and Parole Commission, says, "Everyone who met the qualifications has been paroled."

Senate President Jerry Thomas sponsored the resolution which urged that marijuana offenders caught with less than five grams of the drug be released. The resolution came after the state penalty for possession of marijuana was reduced in May.

Fellow Members Hoped For More House Speaker Disappointing

By JOHN W. BECKLER Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) —

House Speaker Carl Albert's performance in his first year on the job has disappointed members who hoped he would investigate the age-diffused legislative body.

But, although most of them feel Albert could have done more, their general attitude is that any change was probably too much to expect.

Even one of Albert's strongest supporters, Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., who admits, finds it necessary to qualify his year-end judgment.

"Given the circumstances," says Bolling, "he's done a good job."

The circumstances Bolling referred to also are the ones that led to the disheartening of those who expected more of Albert.

The frustration stems from the speaker's system that leaves the speaker as the weak link surrounded by the powerful status quo rule House committees.

Albert learned that power early. One of his first acts as speaker was to put through the Democratic caucus—over the opposition of the chairmen—the rules change that would have given him a key to open committee deadlocks on legislation.

After that instructive lesson, Albert slipped back into the role of broker and mediator between the chairmen and the various blocs of members interested in specific legislation.

Under normal circumstances, the speaker functions as the President's legislative boss, having available the full arsenal of rewards and punishments that can be meted out by the executive branch to bring chairmen into line.

Now the presidential power is being used with increasing effectiveness to block Albert's designs, both through vetoes and the threat of them, and through the Republican-Southern Democratic coalition, which can produce a majority whenever the right buttons are pushed.

Hemmed in and harassed as he is, however, many critics say Albert could still exert a more forceful leadership role if he chose to.

In particular, they think he should speak out more on major issues. An example of the influence a few words from the speaker can have was seen in the recent House vote on a proposed constitutional amendment to permit public school prayer.

After maintaining silence for weeks despite urgings from both sides to make his views known, Albert said at a news conference shortly before the vote that he opposed the amendment and delivered a brief but telling speech against it during debate.

It was defeated and both sides feel Albert's statement was a crucial factor in the outcome.

Despite their disappointments many House Democrats, like faithful fans of a losing baseball team, are looking for better things next year.

'Recipes For Little Hands'

SMALL-FRY FUN — Youngsters can make their own pizzas with English muffin halves, tomato sauce and grated cheese.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE Associated Press Food Editor

A 46-page booklet called "Recipes for Busy Little Hands" compiled by Dorcas Craft and Manning from nursery school work, includes a charming recipe for a happy day.

1 cup of friendly words
2 heaping cups of understanding
4 heaping teaspoons of time and patience
Pinch of warm personality
Dash of humor
Instructions for mixing: Measure words carefully. Add heaping cups of understanding, use various amounts of time and patience. Cook on the front burner, but keep temperature low. Do not boil. Add generous pinch of humor and a pinch of warm personality. Season to taste with spice of life. Serve in individual molds.

Besides recipes for paint, plastic art, finger plays and other things children can do, "Recipes for Busy Little Hands" contains food recipes. A list of suggestions for letting children help in kitchen work is worth noting.

Let children shell and cook peas.
Make popcorn in an electric popper with a glass top so children can see what is happening.
Let children dice cooked potatoes for salad with blunt knives.
Make pizza with English muffin halves, tomato sauce and cheese.
Dice or mash boiled eggs for sandwiches.
Let children cut up marshmallows, apples, bananas, pineapples and other fruits for Waldorf Salad.
Provide children with plastic measuring cups and paper cups and let them pour their own drinks.

Savory Roast Lamb

By CECILY BROWNSTONE AP Food Editor

underside of lamb. With a small sharp knife make 8 small deep slits through top surface; need garlic, cut into slivers and insert in slits. Mix together the flour, salt, pepper and paprika; rub over entire surface of lamb. Roast on a rack in a shallow roasting pan in a 325-degree oven until roast meat thermometer registers 125 degrees (for medium done)—about 30 minutes per pound; if you like lamb a little pink, reduce the roasting time. Makes 5 servings.

Special Turkey Stuffing

A plump, beautifully broiled turkey is the highlight of many holiday dinners, but often it is the stuffing that distinguishes the holiday bird. Today's sausage-stuffed turkey is an old-fashioned one, bread dressing delicately seasoned with onion and sage. When preparing your traditional turkey dinner, be sure to include this exceptionally good stuffing for the turkey.

SAUSAGE-APPLE STUFFING

For one 16 to 18 lb. turkey plus a 1 1/2 qt. casserole

1 1/2 cups enriched corn meal
1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg, beaten
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup vegetable oil
1 1/2 tablespoons sugar
1 egg, beaten
1 cup milk
1/4 cup vegetable oil
Heat oven to very hot (450° F.). Mix together corn meal, flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add egg, milk and oil. Pour into greased 1 1/2 qt. casserole. Bake in preheated oven (450° F.) 20 to 25 minutes. Cool.

At least two head football coaches from Seminole County schools have expressed interest in the football opening at DeLand High School. Reliable reports have it that one coach has sent a letter expressing his interest in the job, while another local coach has at least talked to the DeLand school officials about the position and possibly also put it in writing.

Sometimes I'm really ashamed to say I'm from Seminole County. Like this weekend when we had three fine teams in from around the state to join the Raiders in a holiday invitational tournament which they've made enough money to pay for the officials. Which brings me to another point.

Speaking of basketball who not plan to attend at least the first round game of the Tampa Catholic Invitational with the Sanford Seminoles playing Sanford Langley with Tampa Jesuit in a 7 p.m. game Monday night. The Seminoles are boasting a 6-2 record and this should be a real fine contest.

Oviedo's Hal King, now property of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, was hitting at a .340 clip in the Venezuelan Vanguard League.

Continuing on winter baseball, not all of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates are on the banquet circuit. There are quite a few playing Winter Ball and doing exceptionally well.

Jose Pagan, the aging veteran of the Pirates' infield, is one of the leading hitters in the game, leading hitting .313. Leading the league is Richie Zisk, who happens to be property of the Pirates. Zisk is hitting a lousy .400 and has nine homers and 23 RBIs. The afore mentioned slug along with reserve catcher Mike May, who also has nine homers, play for San Antonio.

A pair of cross country runners from SJC recently competed in the National Championships at Danville, Illinois. Rick Nutty and Nancy Tunoi made the trip and both did quite well.

Timothy finished 393 and Nancy placed 27th. For his outstanding finish, Tunoi was named All-American. It marks the first time a distance runner from SJC has gained this honor.

It seems there was a mix-up and state around the South coasted the Washington-Cleveland game. Suddenly the game switched to a contest between New England and Baltimore.

The fact that Oviedo junior varsity basketball coach Dale Phillips was to be married the next day didn't seem to affect his coaching abilities Friday night as his quint posted a 46-30 win. After the game Phillips commented, "I'm nervous now. Before I had the game to worry about and no time to get nervous. Now I'm really nervous."

Handle Record Shattered At SOKK 'Formulated' Winner In Inaugural Race

All-time wagering records are usually not established on opening nights. According to Sanford-Oviedo Kennel Club (SOKK) general manager Jack Ledoux, this is because there are many new sellers and they can't handle the bets as fast as they can after a little experience. But for every rule there is an exception and Friday night's opener at SOKK was just that.

Greyhounds Are Blasted By Winter Park 'Cats'

The Winter Park Greyhounds mauled the Lyman Wildcats Friday night 87-41 and kept Seminole County's entry in the Metro Conference still winless in local play. This week the Greyhounds will have the opportunity to get back on the winning side of things when they entertain Oviedo, Apopka and DeLand in the Greyhound Christmas Classic.

The Wildcats put four careers in double figures for the evening while defending the homecoming leaders, Steve Nelson and Randy Wright to 16 points apiece for the evening.

Continuing on winter baseball, not all of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates are on the banquet circuit. There are quite a few playing Winter Ball and doing exceptionally well.

Jose Pagan, the aging veteran of the Pirates' infield, is one of the leading hitters in the game, leading hitting .313. Leading the league is Richie Zisk, who happens to be property of the Pirates. Zisk is hitting a lousy .400 and has nine homers and 23 RBIs.

Timothy finished 393 and Nancy placed 27th. For his outstanding finish, Tunoi was named All-American. It marks the first time a distance runner from SJC has gained this honor.

Holloway Paces Oviedo To Win Over Lakeview

By LARRY NEELY
Herald Sports Writer

WINTER GARDEN — Rick Holloway paced Oviedo to a 22-7 victory over Lakeview in the first round of the playoffs on Saturday.

Down by five points at one point in the early minutes of the initial game the Lions knotted the contest at 13-13 with 4:45 remaining in the period and went ahead 17-15 at the close of the first quarter.

The Lions continued to build their lead in the fourth period and saw the game tied at 21-21 lead over the Lakeview before putting in the reserves. Oviedo scored 12 of their 18 points in the fourth quarter.

Division Football Crowns Decided

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

A year ago, the Detroit Lions kept Los Angeles out of the National Football League playoffs by winning their final regular season game. This time they did it by losing.

The San Francisco 49ers edged the Lions 31-27 Sunday on John Brodie's 19-yard touchdown scramble with 10 minutes to play. That gave the 49ers the National Conference's Western Division crown and relegated the Rams, whose 23-14 triumph over Pittsburgh already was on the scoreboard, to another meaningless second-place finish.

Last season, the Rams beat the Giants in New York on the final day to stay alive, only to have the 49ers defeat Oakland and win the West while the Lions whipped Green Bay for the first regular season record in the NFC and the conference's wild card playoff spot.

Other results Sunday were Cleveland 20, Washington 12, Kansas City 2, Buffalo 9; Minnesota 21, Chicago 10; Atlanta 24, New Orleans 20; Oakland 21, Denver 17; New York Jets 25, Cincinnati 21; Philadelphia 41, New York Giants 28 and Houston 49, San Diego 3.

Brodie, who earlier threw scoring passes to Dick Wicker, Ken Wallard and Gene Washington, pulled San Francisco from behind for the third time with his decisive gallop. He faded to a limp in the fourth quarter and scrambled up the middle.

Tossie, Oviedo's leading scorer, was in foul trouble in the second half of the contest and saw the game tied at 21-21 lead over the Lakeview before putting in the reserves. Oviedo scored 12 of their 18 points in the fourth quarter.

Don Shula Eyes Big One

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

MIAMI (AP) — Don Shula shaped the "Sammy the pros" to be his wide receiver, and he showed signs on the receiving end of the Miami Dolphins' offense.

"What'll we do with all those Cleveland fans now?" smiled Shula.

MIAMI (AP) — Don Shula, Miami's coach, said he would like to see the Dolphins win the AFC championship game on Sunday.

Brodie, who earlier threw scoring passes to Dick Wicker, Ken Wallard and Gene Washington, pulled San Francisco from behind for the third time with his decisive gallop. He faded to a limp in the fourth quarter and scrambled up the middle.
