PRELIMINARY SKIRMISH OVER GIVES WAY TO BUSINESS IN ARMAMENT CONFERENCE

Want to Find Solutions of Near East Problems Very Soon—Fortunes ARE NOT LINKED

AS INSEPARABLY AS SOME MIGHT THINK AND FUTURE TREATIES UNNECESSARY

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Preliminary reconnoitering gave way today to more direct negotiations in endeavors of the armament conference to find solution for the problems of the Far East. Heads of nine delegations sat as committee of whole and Eastern and armament questions began to follow entirely different pathways and there is a growing impression that sooner or later all interested nations with take the view that the fortunes of two are not inseparably linked, as United States held from the first. In some quarters it is felt that with independent armament agreement accomplished fact and with powers eventually agreed to even broadest principles to be pursued in Pacific and Orient, further treaties or specific understandings on details of Far Eastern situation may be rendered unnecessary.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Baron Kato, in behalf of the Japanese delegation today asked and received from conference heads several days delay for examination of the far eastern proposals submitted yesterday by China.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Secretary Hughes called a meeting for the American delegates for 2:30 today. It is understood to be for the discussion of plans of heads of delegations for dealing with the Pacific and far eastern questions.

Chris. Webb Killed on Trestle at Monroe By A. C. L. Train 83

Well Known Resident of Monroe Killed While Walking Trestle Last Night

The body of Chris. Webb, a well known resident of the Lake Monroe section was found at the south end of the railroad draw bridge early this morning. The body was badly mangled, being almost cut in two and the supposition is that Webb was on the trestle walking toward his home when he was hit by A. C. L. train No. 83 and killed without anyone on the train knowing anything about it. The body was found by Harry Lucas, who informed the authorities and the coroner's inquest rendered a verdict of accidental killing by the railroad train.

Deceased was a resident of the Lake Monroe section for many years and was engaged in the blacksmith business, in boring wells and in farming and was well and favorably known by a large circle of friends who will mourn his loss.

He leaves a daughter in Palatka and two sons residing in this section and the sympathy of the community goes out to them in their affliction.

NO SOLDIERS WERE HUNG DURING WAR

UNWARRANTED HANGINGS NEVER MADE SAYS OFFICER IN CHARGE

(By The Associated Press) OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 17.—Charges of unwarranted hangings of American soldiers overseas recently made by Senator Watson, of Georgia, were denied here today by Colonel William O. Gilbert, who had charge of death, dismissal and penitentiary cases at American Expeditionary Forces headquarters, Chaumont, France. If there had been hangings without trial, rumors would have reached officers even though there was no official record, he said.

ULSTER WILL NOT YIELD HER POSITION IN IRELAND ONE PART PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—All parties in Ireland, with the exception of the Nationalists, who, however, are now largely incorporated with Sinn Fein, have had their say in the negotiations regarding the future of Ireland.

The southern Unionists, who are opposed to a dual parliament for the island, saw Prime Minister Lloyd George, Lord Middleton stating the case for them, while the Ulsterites had before them the government's refusal of their counter-proposals for a settlement of the Irish question. It was understood that the government's reply to Ulster contained no new suggestions or proposals, leaving the situation apparently deadlocked.

John Miller Andrews, secretary of labor, in the Ulster cabinet, upon his return to Belfast made it clear, in a statement to the press, that the government's proposal to Ulster was for a single parliament for a united Ireland, and that Ulster had replied that she must have a separate parliament—a suggestion which neither the Sinn Feiners nor the southern Unionists would agree to.

OFFICER LOVED SISTERS, UNABLE TO TELL WHICH, GIRLS DREW DEATH LOTS

Swiss Love Story That Outrivals All of Our President Day Fiction

GENEVA, Nov. 17.—(By The Associated Press)—A love tragedy of twin sisters who drew lots for death by poison became known in Innsbruck court when one of them was tried for murder. She was acquitted after she told the story. The girls, daughters of a farmer named Goldheim, fell in love with a former Hungarian officer, who was unable to distinguish between them, and courted both, thinking he was always with the same sister. The officer, when he realized the situation, asked the girls to decide which would marry him. They solved the problem by preparing a glass of water and a glass of poison. They drew lots and the loser died. When the survivor was arrested the officer disappeared.

NAVAL POWERS WOULD KEEP ONE SHIP YARD

ACCORDING TO BRITISH PLAN BUT IS NOT UNDERSTOOD AT PRESENT

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—British suggestion that each naval power retain at least one naval shipyard capable of turning out one ship annually does not appear to be understood by American naval experts. There was no suggestion in American proposals that any yards would be scrapped as all the United States has will be needed during the proposed ten years naval building holiday in maintenance and repair to fleet retained.

DUVAL HIGH STUDENTS HAD FREE DRINKS AND ICE CREAM.

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 17.—The days of real sport same true for Duval high school students here the other day when peddlers of soft drinks, sandwiches and ice cream fled before the police and left their wares on the grounds at recess. The vendors had been warned against going on the school grounds and those not taken in by the law made haste to flee. No ice cream, soft drink or sandwich was left to go to waste, however, as the students saw to that, some of them said later. It was a memorable recess.

MILITARY REGULATIONS SHOULD BE FOLLOWED REGARDING THE FLAG.

(By The Associated Press) JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 17.—The laxity of some persons in observing military regulations in the use of the American flag for decorating purposes has aroused the ire of Major W. L. Carbine, veteran of the Spanish and world wars, and he is authority for the statement that hereafter infractions of flag etiquette will be prosecuted. The Jacksonville veteran in a letter to a local newspaper referred to use of the flag for decorative purposes on Armistice Day and pointed out that it should never be festooned but allowed to fly free and explained other details. Irregular use of the flag was undoubtedly caused by unfamiliarity with the rules of flag usage laid down by the army and navy, he continued, and so far as he is concerned the violators will be given another chance.

"Nothing will be done about it this time," the major said. "Nothing has been said about it before and there is no reason why the public should have known better. But hereafter, if there are any infractions on the rules of the flag there will be action in the courts. I mean it."

Making Sanford Headquarters for State of Florida

AN AUGUSTA FIRM THAT RECOGNIZED OUR SUPERIOR ADVANTAGES IN FREIGHT RATES.

Sanford is fast becoming the place for the location of all lines of business in the wholesale as well as retail business. This city being at the head of navigation on the St. Johns river, half way between Tampa and Jacksonville, easily accessible to any part of the great south Florida sections and middle Florida as well and with a very low freight rate, has a location second to none in the State. Wholesale firms of all kinds are either locating here or contemplate locating here as soon as suitable quarters can be arranged, and it seems that at least a dozen big firms made this decision in the past few months and all that is keeping them out at present is the finding of a large warehouse.

The L. A. Russell Co., of Augusta, Ga., is among the firms that was fortunate in securing a warehouse that would enable them to come in at once and this well known Georgia music house will take the Miller warehouse in the western part of the city, and as soon as possible will open a down town place where they will sell wholesale and retail all kinds of pianos and talking machines. They are now shipping several carloads of pianos and machines to this city, and will be ready for business about the first of December. The Russell Co., have been located at Augusta, Ga., but wanted Sanford as their headquarters for all of Florida and south Georgia, and aside from the pianos, they handle this firm also manufactures talking machines and will cover the entire state with a large force of salesmen, shipping all of their pianos and materials to Sanford and distributing it from this city.

J. H. Huntermaster is already here to represent them and will have charge of their business here.

DRAWBRIDGE NECESSARY AT CROSSING

TITUSVILLE AND GENEVA ROAD AND WILL BE MADE INTO FREE FERRY

Our recent efforts to have a new bridge on the Geneva-Titusville road did not mature on account of a recent ruling of the War Department that the bridge would have to be a drawbridge and the proper kind of a drawbridge would cost between $8,000 and $10,000. It will be remembered that the counties of Seminole, Volusia and Brevard at a meeting decided to build the road and bridge that would give the proper connection with the Ft. Mims and Titusville road through this county near Geneva and the bridge at this point having been burned down, had to be renewed. The county commissioners asked for assistance of the Chamber of Commerce in the matter of obtaining a sufficient sum of money to supplement what the commissioners had available and build the bridge and also the road to Ocala. This was done by the Chamber of Commerce and the sum of money needed was raised by the people of Sanford, Ovids, Geneva, Chuluota and other points in the county. Since that time County Engineer Fred Williams has been informed that the former bridge plan will not be allowed and a steel drawbridge must be built. Since this is out of the question now the county commissioners have very wisely decided that a ferry would be much cheaper and the money that was raised will be used in making good approaches to the bridge and on the Ocala road as planned. This will give the traffic at the bridge much better accommodation than formerly as the wooden bridge was unsafe, whereas a good ferry will be much more satisfactory and being a free ferry will meet with the approval of the traveling public until such time as the counties interested can build a steel drawbridge.

WILSON MAKING RAPID RECOVERY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Former President Wilson has made a good recovery from his recent setback and probably will be able to attend the services in honor of the unknown soldier at Arlington National cemetery on Armistice Day, his physician Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, said today.

Wilson, Grayson said is taking daily motor car rides and has attended the theatre once since he was forced to his bed by "a digestive upset." He indicated however, that it had not been definitely decided whether the former president would attend the ceremonies. Inclement weather might make it impossible for him to be present. If Wilson attends, it will be his first appearance at an official function since he hobbled to the capitol on inauguration day to take a brief part in the ceremonies.

BETTER SPEECH WEEK SUCCESS AT HIGH SCHOOL

CAMPAIGN BY TEACHERS AND SCHOLARS WILL BEAR FRUIT

Monday morning the program for Better Speech Week began with a chapel talk to the High School students made by R. J. Holly in his usual genial style. Mr. Holly is recognized by all S. H. S. as one of its best friends and consequently his words about "Good Speech as a Commercial Asset" were fully taken to heart. During that day the posters made for the contest conducted by the Welfare Department of the Woman's Club were on exhibit at the High School. Since then these have been placed in various show windows about town. Nan Paxton is in Speer's window; Byron Stephens in Hower & Roumillat's Drug Store; Rodman Lehman's at Newberry's and Edward McCalley's in Brady's Jewelry store window. The second chapel talk was made Tuesday at 10:30 by Miss Ora Williams of the Expression Department of the public schools. Her subject was "The Human Voice" on which she gave a free expression lesson, which was fully appreciated by all the students. An entertaining recitation added charm to her words of advice. The High School students were particularly fortunate in having secured Dr. Wm. Fremont Blackman for chapel on Wednesday. Thursday's chapel included talks by Pattye Lyles and Edward Henderson, a reading by Mae Holly and at 2:45 p. m. the awarding of prizes in the poster, play and story contests, as well as the presentation of two short plays under the direction of Mrs. Maxwell and Miss Williams. Dr. Blackman made an eloquent address. Speaking in behalf of Better Speech Dr. Blackman, former president of Rollins College, made an eloquent address yesterday morning to the high school students and faculty on the subject, "Some Masters of the English Language." Dr. Blackman spoke of English as a beautiful and efficient language which we are fortunate to be privileged to speak and urged that we do all in our power to conserve and enrich it. Then in a sympathetic yet discriminating way he spoke of the seven masters of the English language which had made the strongest appeal to him. As the greatest of these masterpieces he named the King James' version of the Bible, and as other powerfully stimulating works the labors of Bunyan, DeFoe, Lincoln, Stevenson, Carlyle and Woodrow Wilson. The address was one of the most beautiful and inspiring which Sanford High School students have ever been privileged to hear and fully proved Dr. Blackman, himself, one of the great masters of our language.

There are few marble palaces in this country, but we have a House composed largely of ivory.

In the letter from Managing Director Meyer it is to be seen that the war finance corporation has laid down certain prescribed rules which must be complied with before loans are extended, and these may be expected to have an important bearing in assisting Florida in developing more tick-free territory. authorized in October was a residence valued in the building permit at $15,000 but which the owner expects will cost approximately $25,000. Building in Lakeland is on a boom never before experienced and with construction of the buildings for Southern College to begin about January 1, and numerous residences and business houses in prospect. 1922 is expected to far surpass this year. The largest project authorized in Daytona during October was a business building of brick and steel to cost $24,000. Sanford, which has made remarkable progress on construction during the current year, in the first ten months more than doubled last year's total for the same period. Permits issued up to November 1, 1920, totalled only $104,925 while for the first ten months of 1921 the total was $281,132. The value of permits for all of 1920 was only $139,375. Permits last month were valued at almost five times those for the same month last year, the total having been $32,150 as against $6,500. Construction of eleven dwelling houses was authorized among permits issued last month and the largest project was a store to cost $8,500.

ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION GREATEST EVER HELD HERE PARADE WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Many Floats and Beautifully Decorated Cars

BRILLIANT ARRAY

OF CARS, FLOATS, YOUNG LADIES, FLOWERS, BANDS, GOOD TIMES, GREAT DAY

(From Friday's Daily)

The greatest celebration of Armistice Day and one of the greatest celebrations ever held in Sanford started off this morning by the blowing of whistles and firing of guns at midnight and from that time until the memorial exercises at the park in which the American Legion took part and Dr. George Hyman delivered the memorial address up to the time of the great parade the city was on the qui vive and the parade made them wild. The parade was one of the longest and one of the best that has ever been staged in Sanford and is a credit to the Legion and to the public spirited citizens who made it possible. Starting at Tenth street and winding its length over the principal streets of the city it was a thing of beauty and a joy as long as it lasted. The Herald tried to get a partial write-up of the cars as they passed and we took our own car out of the parade in order to check the other cars and if any of them are left out the people who witnessed the parade will know why for it was a mammoth and a gorgeous affair and nothing like it has ever been staged in this part of the state. The line and the cars are given as they appeared in the parade:

Phillips with a harp representing the Music Department; Mrs. R. C. Maxwell, with a scroll, representing the Literature Department; and Carmeta Barber and Sara Evelyn Williams, representing dancing girls all dressed in the Grecian costume of pure white with flowing robes and Hampden Dufosse in Greek costume, drove the car.

Lloyd's Shoe Store had a beautiful float all trimmed in white in which Glenn Whitecomb drove, Robert Holly, represented the Walk-Over shoe, stepping over a shoe and Albert Connelly was trying on a shoe on Ruth Henry while Charles Betts posed as a visitor with Miss Margaret Cox.

The Blue Goose Brand of fruits and vegetables was represented by a truck filled with all kinds of fruits and vegetables—fruits from every clime—and Dorothy Haynes represented Skookum apples, Marguerite Garner, Blue Goose brand, and Carmen Guthrie cauliflower.

Woodruff & Watson had a car representing the gent's furnishings.

The Popular Market had a float representing the meats and groceries and had a nice little pig all ready for the cutting.

The Hof-Mac Battery Service Co., had two cars, one a big black box representing the devil in the box with a real devil on top and another beautifully decorated car trimmed in moss and poppies and bearing the inscription, "A rolling stone gathers no moss, we stay in Sanford," and this car attracted much attention.

Sanford Furniture Co. and Pure Food Market had cars representing their business.

John Smith had a fine car for the Gulf Refining Co., showing a Wayne pump and accessories, the car being trimmed in yellow and white.

Ball Hardware Co., with two oil stoves going full blast and a negro chef getting dinner ready.

S. O. Chase car.

The Yowell Co., had two beautiful cars in the parade that attracted much attention, one of them being "Happiness" trimmed in white in which Mildred Holly drove the car and Agnes Dumas had charge of a bevy of beautiful children, all blondes to correspond with the car. This car was in white tissue and excited much comment. The other Yowell car was advertising Victrolas and represented the Moth and the Flame the girls representing butterflies or moths with Alfred Robson driving and Annie Lee Florence Henry, Mary Lou Brown, Marie Teague, Esther Miller, Allie Gillon on the car holding hands and Bee Howard in the center.

Baumel's Specialty Shop had a beautiful car in white trimmed with yellow daisies and had a bevy of beautiful girls, Kitty Dubose, LeClairo Jones, Daphne Wimble, and Thelma Frazier and several others in large picture hats and evening dresses to add to the beauty of the car.

The Mobley car in red, white and blue, the Ford Tractor float, the Mills Marble Co., with a fac simile of the memorial monument in the city park, were all good.

T. J. Miller & Co., had a fine car displaying their furniture in the shape of a drawing room and ladies sitting at ease on the comfortable chairs wore: Mrs. F. L. Miller, Mrs. Ed. Lane, Mrs. Archie Betts, Mrs. John Smith and Mrs. Howard Overlin.

The Reo car carried out the gold standard car in yellow with a large American eagle on top and a bevy of beautiful Sanford girls in the car.

The D. C. Marlowe car was beautiful in green and white carrying out the vegetable colors and filled with young ladies in white and green, Miss Mardro driving accompanied by Misses Murrell, Geraldine Muriel, and Mrs. Donald Whitcomb.

Haynes & Ratliff had a good float representing job printing with a job press going full blast printing literature to scatter in the crowd and also showing office supplies.

Chase & Co. had a realistic float representing a celery crate all painted life size and twice as natural.

The West Side Grocery, Routh Bros. Bakery, Deane Turner, groceries; Rivers Bros., Lord's Purity Water, Miller's Bakery with display of cakes and bread; Seminole Market, Coca-Cola, Chero-Cola, Seminole Hotel, Gatchel's Store, American Agricultural Chemical Co., Hanson Shoe Shop, Mahoney & Walker and Cleveland Tractors, Sanford Steam Pressery, Hopkins Shoe Shop, Allen Seed Co., Sanford Steam Laundry, Dodge cars, R. W. Pearman, Sanford Battery and many other floats were all good.

The "Hunter's" car in which Tom Williams and Billy Parker represented the hunting season with their dogs and guns and game in a camp scene and the Bel-Jar Coffee Co., with a huge coffee pot all attracted attention and favorable comment.

The Zachary-Tyler Crate Co., had a realistic float, the car being filled with crates which many farmerette girls were making crates and filling them, the girls being Gladys Wilson, May Holly, Margaret Zachary, Lillian Shiholzer and Arthur Zachary, Jr., and Kinchen Powers.

A pathetic note was added to the parade by the old veterans of the G. A. R. and the Confederate Veterans.

The Confederate Veterans organized the Jos. Finnegan Post here just after the war and today only three of them were left to ride in the parade. With them were Messrs. Hart and Holder, of Geneva, and they were under the care of the N. DeV. Howard Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy. They had a smoker after the parade at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George DeCottes and the chapter was their hostess for dinner at the Wolaka Cafe and attended to their wants during the day and making their stay a most pleasant one.

There were many and varied floats and cars and autos and everything. The parade was the longest and the best that has ever been carried out in Sanford in later years. So many cars came in at the last minute that they could not be classified properly and some of them may have escaped the eye of the reporter. It was some job to get them all in the limited time allowed for the parade for when the head of it was marching down First street the last of it was just starting over a mile away.

The prizes had not been awarded at the time of going to press and if any of the cars have been left out let this paper know and we will pick them up with the winners in tomorrow's issue.

After the parade had disbanded in front of the court house Mayor Stevens, upon behalf of the city, presented the fine lot on the lake front to Post Commander L. F. Roper of the Campbell-Lossing Post of the American Legion. This lot is on the corner of the lake front near the old fibre factory and at the foot of Myrtle avenue. It will be in the heart of the city ere long and will be graced by a fine Legion building as soon as possible.

Mayor John Martin, of Jacksonville made the address of the day to a large crowd immediately after dinner that was well received and as we go to press the carnival is on full blast and the athletic stunts and football and all the canoe races and other stunts are being pulled off. All the details of these events will be given in tomorrow's issue.

The colored people had some very creditable cars and floats in the rear of the procession. They represented the schools, churches and societies and the boys who had taken part in the world war.

(From Saturday's Daily)

It took several applications of "revellie" this morning to arouse the tired ex-service men and get them back on the job after a strenuous time of three days and nights of carnival, parades and dance last night. There is probably no city in Florida that had as big a celebration as Sanford regardless of size. There was such a varied and such a large program that it seemed stupendous when looked at after it is all over for from the tap of the bell to the last sound of the orchestra last night there was something doing all the time.

The parade yesterday was the biggest and best that has ever been attempted and it is a source of gratification to the Legion boys and the Auxiliary that the people responded with such a whole-hearted spirit and entered the lists with the feeling that it was all for the boys and nothing is too good for the boys—our boys.

It was a difficult matter to settle the question of the prettiest, the best decorated and the most appropriate car and float in the parade and there were to be three prizes awarded all of them being fine silver cups given by the three banks of Sanford. The judges were strangers in the city and knew none of the people owning the cars or floats and they made their decision only after mature deliberation and after taking about ten of the cars and floats and then by a process of elimination bringing them down to three.

The first prize went to the Welfare Dept. car of the Woman's Club, driven by Mrs. A. E. Hill and decorated in purple and white, the purple being furnished by wisterias, making a perfect combination, the color scheme being carried out in detail.

The second prize went to the car that held the graves and crosses of those who gave their lives for their country and whose memory will be kept green by such devotion as that exhibited yesterday. The float represented the crosses of Flanders field and the poppies of France waved over the graves bringing tears to the eyes of the people in the big crowd and even to the eyes of the judges of the cars. It might have been sentiment on their part that governed their decision and some may say it was but the float was very prettily arranged, was as true to life as it was possible to make it and it took the second prize. The idea of this float was advanced by Mrs. R. J. Holly at the Auxiliary meeting and was taken from the American Legion Weekly.

The third prize was won by the Lloyd Shoe Store which had a white float upon which the Walkover and the Princess Pat shoes were symbolized by young men and young ladies walking over the shoes and the Cinderella idea as exemplified by the girl in the throne chair and was a beautiful float in every detail.

There were so many beautiful floats that should have received prizes that it was too bad there were not about ten prizes in order that many others could have favorable mention. The judges were puzzled over the decision and said that they had never seen so many pretty cars and floats and it was difficult to place the prizes for some time but their decision will give general satisfaction inasmuch as everybody could not be winners.

Rollins College carried off the canoe race prize as our boys had not sufficient practice in the canoe paddling and Rollins boys are experts. It showed that our boys could do much better if they had canoes and used our lake as it should be used. The silver cup donated by Harry Heeren went to the lucky crew at Rollins and they will have a beautiful souvenir to remind them of Sanford and of Armistice Day.

In the football game Rollins College put it over our boys—but the reason was plain—our Legion boys had not practiced with the pig skin in many years and were rusty although the fat ones could play without creaking their hinges. We had the beef and the brawn and a regular stone wall of defense. All our boys like Hodgson Ball and Tom Merriwether had to do was to sit on the Rollins boys and they just had to be good. However, sitting on them did not seem to be called "touchdowns" and when the final score was chalked up it looked like Rollins 30, American Legion 0. This may not be the exact figures but there was so much sand raised down there in the lake front that the figures were not plain. At any rate the Rollins College won.

Two-Mile Run.

The athletic committee of the American Legion composed of Messrs. Meredith and Ward arranged for a two mile race. The beginning was in front of the Valdez Hotel and three times around ten blocks of the city. About 1,500 people witnessed the race. Guards were placed at street corners and the boys were given the right-of-way.

The winners were as follows:

First prize—A $10.00 football, given by Bryan Cycle Co.; Alton Gunter, time, 11 3-4.

Second prize—$7.00 pair of shoes, given by Perkins & Britt; Wesley Tyler. Time, 12.

Third prize—$4.00 pair of shoes, given by Lloyd's Shoe Store; Clyde Booth. Time, 12 1-4.

Fourth prize—Gold watch chain, given by the Sanford Shoe & Clothing Co.; Frederick Lyons. Time 12 1-2.

Fifth prize—Silver buckle belt, given by Thrasher & Garner; Edward McCauley. Time, 12 3-4.

Sixth prize—Neck tie, given by Woodruff & Watson. John Hudson. Time, 13.

Seventh prize—Neck tie, given by Yowell Co.; Clarence Duffin. Time, 13 1-2.

SANFORD IS GROWING

"SPURLING'S SUBDIVISION" is attracting attention—lots are being sold right along and building in this section is such as to gladden the heart of those who have the good of Sanford at heart.

This is no idle talk—I have weighed the statement and to say just what is my candid convictions would put it most too strong for the careful, conservative person—that person whose eyes are turned backward—The fellow who has VISION will agree with me now—the other later.

Moving Pictures Of Our Big Day For Fox News

Will Soon Be Flashed in Every Theatre in America

(From Saturday's Daily)
Sanford was advertised yesterday as never before and advertised in many ways. We can thank the Legion boys for giving our city a bunch of good publicity and while the Legion made but little over expenses they gave the city much in the line of advertising and not the least of this advertising is the Fox News moving picture that will soon be distributed all over the United States. Through the Legion and the Chamber of Commerce the Fox News man was invited to come here and take moving pictures of the parade and other stunts and the whole world will soon be watching the Legion stunts as pulled off by Campbell-Lossing Post of the American Legion at Sanford, Florida, U. S. A.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS WERE THERE.

The Spanish war veterans were there with the goods yesterday, and had two cars in the parade, making a fine showing. The writer mentioned this fact but somehow or other, the item was missed from the general description of the parade, and as we have no wish to miss any of those participating, this special mention is made because all of us know what the Spanish war meant and know that many of those boys went through as much "hell and brimstone" in a short space of time as the veterans of any other war, and they volunteered by so many millions that President McKinley was obliged to call off enlistments because they could not be placed. Sanford boasts of quite a number of Spanish war veterans, and they should form a good live post and keep their memories alive—this is the only way to perpetuate their memory and their deeds.

The civic committee of the Welfare Department is actively engaged in keeping "civic" week, and are doing every thing to interest the people to help beautify Sanford. Saturday they will conduct a sale of hibiscus and bouganvillea plants.

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't over hungry. I know, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—"

CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

"... I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

CATTLE OWNERS CAN OBTAIN LOANS NOW

WAR FINANCE CORPORATION HAS MADE ARRANGEMENTS FOR MANY COUNTIES

The cattle owners in Seminole county are in a favorable position to obtain loans from the War Finance Corporation, by reason of this county having adopted compulsory dipping of cattle by vote of the people.

All loans must be negotiated before July 1st, 1922, the initial loan being for one year, with privilege of renewal for two years which gives a total period of three years from date of loan, if desired and the maximum rate which can be charged the cattle owners is only seven and one-half per cent per year.

In order to facilitate the making of loans to cattlemen in Florida and Georgia, the two states comprising this regional district, there has been organized the South Florida Cattle Loan Company with a capital of $250,000, which has headquarters in Bartow. Thomas L. Wilson, a pioneer cattleman in Florida and a member of the regional committee, has accepted the presidency.

Following are the terms under which loans may be made, as set forth in a letter from Eugene Meyer, Jr., managing director of the War Finance Corporation, to the regional committee, the Florida members of which are: Thomas L. Wilson, Bartow; W. F. Cochran, Jacksonville; and Dexter M. Lowry, Tallahassee.

"1.—All cattle on which loans are predicated shall be confined in ample pastures or ranges owned, leased or otherwise controlled by the borrower, in such a manner that the herd or herds may be conveniently inspected at any time by the representatives of the War Finance Corporation. Such enclosed pastures or ranges to have an adequate water supply for the cattle, and sufficient dipping vats for tick eradication purposes. In the case of a lease, same shall be for such time as the War Finance Corporation may deem necessary for protection of the loan.

"2.—That loans be made only on cattle in tick-free areas, or in counties which have voted in favor of tick eradication; this provision being necessary in order that the cattle on which loans are made may have access to the markets before maturity of the loans.

"I am glad to be able to inform you that the War Finance Corporation is ready to consider applications from such a live stock company, operating in accordance with these terms."

Members of the Florida committee are doing all they can to help the cattlemen by urging the landowners to make leases at very nominal rates to cattle owners whose stock now are on those ranges, so that the cattlemen may meet the requirements for securing loans to carry their stock until market conditions improve and thereby protect and encourage the cattle industry of the state.

SANFORD WILL SOON HAVE COMMODIOUS NEW CLUB HOUSE.

The contract has been let by the board of governors and the building committee of the club for the erection of a fine club house on their grounds on Union avenue and Lake Monroe, and the building will be completed, on or about March 1st.

It is to be regretted that the building cannot be finished in time to be of more service to the tourists this season but on account of several delays, it was impossible to let the contract and get the plans ready before this time. The contractor, Frank Lossing, has agreed to push the work with all possible speed, and the club will be complete before the contract time, if possible.

The club house, will be approximately 60x70 feet on the ground, one story, and basement, with a fine auditorium. The size of the auditorium is smaller than at first contemplated, but provision is made whereby it can easily be enlarged when occasion demands without any changes in the present building. In fact the club house, as it will be built is a completed unit of the original plan which called for a club house to cost approximately $23,000 and this original plan can be carried out at any time the club feels able to do so. The building to be built at this time is said to cost less than half that amount.

The Sanford Rod & Gun Club now has about 160 members and all are enthusiastic about the proposition. Sanford has long been in need of such a place as is now being built, where the tourists and local people as well can have a meeting place and conventions which are always glad to come to Sanford on account of our central location in the State can have a meeting place.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

FLUSH YOUR KIDNEYS OCCASIONALLY IF YOU EAT MEAT REGULARLY

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

Seminole County Will Do Its Part in This Great Work

ATLANTA, Nov. 14.—Southern Division Headquarters of the American Red Cross sees a veritable triumph of the Red Cross cause in Dixie as a result of reports from every section of the division on the results of early Roll Call activity.

The South, these reports indicate, is keenly alive to the importance of the peace time program of the organization and the response to the appeal of the Greatest Mother is believed ample assurance that the work now being attempted will be carried on throughout the coming year and possibly extended so that every community in the division will feel and know its benefits.

This has been made possible solely through the whole hearted cooperation of people in every walk of life throughout the section. Big business has recognized the benefits that accrue to it from participation in Red Cross activity and the response has been generous, and organized labor has been no less quick to grasp the opportunity to aid a cause that is one of the prime factors in our national life in adding strength and force to the masses.

In fact, practically every labor leader in South has not only enrolled himself as a Red Cross member, but has given his enthusiastic endorsement of the Red Cross program.

The doctrine of Red Cross service has been preached from hundreds of evangelical pulpits in the South and at the same time it has been made the subject of endorsement from prelate and priest, in church and in synagogue.

In fact the cooperation has been as widespread as the cause to which it is given. As a result Division Headquarters officials predict that despite the uncertainties of the times, the South will smash all its records for response to the annual appeal of this great national organization.

STATES GET WAR MATERIALS FOR ROAD BUILDING.

Approximately $150,000,000 worth of surplus war materials, turned over by the war department to the department of agriculture, will be distributed through the bureau of public roads to the various states for road-building purposes.

Under the Wadsworth-Kahn bill this surplus war material is sent to the states with the sole provision that be used for road building purposes. A vast accumulation of machinery, equipment, supplies, and motor vehicles that was to have been used in France has been diverted to a useful peace-time purpose.

Florida will receive $1,483,900. Included in the supplies distributed among the states are 27,108 motor vehicles, mostly trucks; 172 locomotives of various sizes; 25,000 gross tons of rails; more than 4,500,000 pounds of powder, and nearly 10,000 tons of TNT.

What Henry Ford Says About Machine Power Farming

"In the tractor the farmer now has a machine in which is harnessed one of the most adaptable, efficient, economical sources of power in the world—the internal combustion engine.

"The tractor will multiply the productive capacity of each individual farm worker from three to four times over.

"It will put the farmer on a par with the city manufacturer. It will put his produce-producing factory—for that is what a farm is—on to an efficient production basis.

"It will enable each worker to earn so much more that he can be paid more and still leave a greater profit for the man who hires him. It will enable the farmer to work fewer hours in the day, giving him more time to enjoy life.

"I believe the tractor will make farming what it ought to be—the most pleasant, the most healthful, the most profitable business on earth."

FLORIDA IS ALL RIGHT, SHOULD NOT WORRY ABOUT OTHER SECTIONS

McLaughlin Writes About the Great Resources of This Wonderful State

Mr. R. J. Holly, Editor Sanford Herald. Dear Holly: Yesterday I read on the front page of the Orlando Reporter-Star an interview with one of our neighbors just home from a western trip.

He seems to think the trouble with the country at the present time is high freight rates, and says that thousands of tons of hay and alfalfa are in Kansas and Missouri which cannot be moved because the freight will eat up the profit; that we might consume a great deal of it in Florida, but the producers are prohibited by high rates of freight, etc.

It has been my impression that the forage crop in Florida is not short enough to worry us by reason of the fact that Kansas and Missouri cannot supply us and that corn cannot move to Florida from Nebraska. There seems to be no conditions in Florida that will make it necessary for us to haul in an unusual amount of forage during the present year or next spring.

So far as the price of coal is concerned it is proper to express the opinion that it has no bearing on the present food and forage situation. The miners have not worked more than one-fourth of the time during the past two years and the operators of mines, on account of the conditions that have existed during the past two years, might possibly not be able to make any more at the present price of coal at the mines.

As to Florida being able to use some of this western forage. It might be well to direct attention to the crop report published at Gainesville, August 12th, showing the estimated production of corn in Florida for 1921 to be 11,562,000 bushels against 10,530,000 bushels for 1920, and a hay crop for 1921 of 145,000 tons against 152,000 tons for last year.

The Nebraska corn situation was published in the Breeder's Gazette at Chicago, October 6th, showing that Nebraska and Iowa people contemplated burning corn for fuel. This would be a ridiculous thing for them to do, in face of the fact that Kentucky farmers have not sufficient corn to carry them through the year, or until the 1922 crop is harvested.

people will not only have to buy corn for bread but for the stock. I am sending you this little note with a few authoritative figures to show you how very well off we are at home and how little we need to trouble about things in the far west.

Mrs. Ora Layton, of Winter Park, was a visitor to the school last Monday. Mrs. Layton is health inspector of the schools. Mrs. J. S. Dinkle and Miss Olive, were the guests of Mrs. W. B. Zakary, Tuesday.

Mrs. J. M. Woodberry, of Sanford, is visiting her brother, T. J. Williamson and family. Miss Lillian Howell arrived Sunday afternoon from Gray, Ind., to spend the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howell Hall.

There was service at the Baptist church last Sunday, Rev. Burr, of Winter Park, officiating. Mrs. Leon D. Burdick, nee Nellie Woodberry, and children of Orlando, were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Williamson, on Friday. Mrs. George B. Upchurch arrived Sunday from Birmingham, to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. Geo. Lewis.

Florida is a great state. There seems to be some location in the state where you can grow something that cannot be grown successfully in any other states or at some other locality in our own state. We firmly believe that Florida has more "chosen spots" for different fruits and vegetables than California or some of the foreign countries. It is interesting to note the wonderful possibilities of this state and to know that the half has never been told.

The Sanford Daily Herald took first prize in the recent contest for first page makeup. The contest was staged by the University of Florida Extension department, and was entered by all the papers of the State. To take first prize in front page contests of this kind, makes us feel very chesty, indeed, even though the make up man, Charlie Barnes, did the work. Anyhow, Charlie and "us," killed the bear, and we all feel proud of the fact. The Daily Herald is some paper.

Sanford is fast becoming the great-est wholesale center in this part of Florida, and if the good work of the Chamber of Commerce keeps up, Sanford will one day be the greatest wholesale center of Florida. This may sound far fetched, but it is the logical location, and this goes for Jacksonville and Tampa—they are both too far from the center of the state, and have no better facilities than Sanford will have in a few years, when we get deeper water from the mouth of the St. Johns river to Sanford. It is coming, and all we need is a little more push and pull. With celery and lettuce, with tourists, with wholesale distributors, Sanford will be a city of 25,000 in five years.

The Sanford Herald truly says: "After looking them all over it would seem that Sanford has the best prospects of any city in the state. But you can't lay down on the job and take it for granted. No matter how glorious the prospects of a place may be, unless the citizens of that place get a hustle on and bring those prospects to a certainty—they will be like the man who spent his time in dreaming of accomplishing something great, while other men outstripped him in the race for success. It is up to the Herald to be constantly hammering the fact into the minds of its readers that no matter how glorious Sanford's prospects may be unless the citizens combine to make those prospects become a certainty, the prospects will remain simply prospects and nothing more.—Tampa Times.

THE FAITH THAT FINDS EXPRESSION.

The following editorial written by L. S. Fitzhugh for the Wilmore, Ky., Enterprise, will be interesting to Sanford citizens. Mr. Fitzhugh visits Sanford often as the guest of Geo. A. DeCottes, and he is a real Florida booster:

There is one outstanding characteristic of the average Floridian that impresses the visitor at once, when brought in contact with him, and that is his incurable optimism. In Florida everything is lovely and the goose hangs high at all times and seasons. Drought may burn and floods may sweep, prices may go below the cost of marketing and leave him with a crop that does not pay to harvest and ship, winds may shake the oranges off his trees and the fly may eat them up, banks may tighten on him and the automobile may have to be sold. What might be truly designated hard times and a gloomy outlook may stare him in the face and call on him for sacrifice. But in the face of any or all of these trials, to the ordinary citizen, he faces the world with a cheery smile and an unshaken faith in his state as the favored spot on this earthly footstool and an abiding belief in the good fortune of anyone who is lucky enough to live there.

"Hard times been hitting your country up there?" he will ask in a tone of commiseration, "we haven't felt it here. Of course money has been hard to get—the banks have been a little short of funds and ain't making any loans, they've got to hold the money to market the citrus crop you know—and vegetables didn't bring much more than enough to pay the express on the northern market. The orange crop has been cut in two by the unprecedented dry and hot summer and what is left are small. Trade's been a little slack at the stores and peop'e have been having some difficulty in meeting their bills and keeping their credit up. Men have been having trouble in finding funds to buy fertilizer for the coming season and are straining their credit some. There are even a few who claim that we ARE having the hardest season of years. Of course there are always a certain number of calamity howlers everywhere but they do not represent the sentiment of the community. They are just naturally what you would call bilious minded crooners. They are no credit to the State when they talk their pessimistic gloom."

"Town lots are advancing every day," says another, "and if that ain't a sign of prosperity I don't know what is. There are not many being sold it is true but that does not hinder them from stiffening in price. It shows the holder's belief in the value of Florida property as an investment in a growing state. We are looking for the best season in years and high prices (how many do that every year) and there are more tourists coming this winter than ever before. Hard times? We do not know the word in Florida."

The old cracker sits in the door of his shanty and looks on the waste of sandy ground in front of him approvingly: "The wind blew my stable down, last week, and a tree fell on the old cow and she died right there. The old woman's down with the rheumatism and my oldest son, John, run off last week and got married and left me without any help on the place. Fertilizer got so high last year that I couldn't afford to buy and had mighty little stuff raised in consequence. I been shaking, myself, right smart with the ague and not been able to work much. But the sweet potatoes did fine and the fish hit all right. I killed a couple of alligators and a seven foot rattler and sold the skins for what little money we needed. Its a great country for those who know how to live in it. I'm sorry for them in the north, who have to freeze all winter and can't go barefooted."

"Hard times?" says the real estate man. "This don't look like it does it?" and he unfolds a map. "We are putting this subdivision on the market and have had any number of inquiries as to the price of lots from all over the country. No! we haven't sold many yet but are getting ready for a great rush for them as soon as times get better—I mean as soon as the tourist season open. Prices are advancing and we can't say how long we will hold at the present low figures. Better buy now if you want a bargain. They are going up with a whoop as soon as times improve—I mean as soon as the season opens."

And so it goes. This universal optimism is in the air. It gets in the system of the outsider soon and he too becomes a booster for Florida if he stays any length of time—it is that infectious. It also acts as a tonic of the most beneficial sort. It is impossible to believe that the world wide depression and straitening has left Florida out in the cold. It is reasonable to suppose that she has her share of the burden to bear along with the rest of America. But if she has been wounded she bravely conceals the hurt and distract attention from it. Troubles are largely imaginary anyway. The sky is still bright. The air is soft. It's a favored country and people. Tomorrow is coming and in the meantime today is not so bad. So why worry—Hard times?? None here.

And probably this constant putting forward the cheery note of self congratulation is efficacious in banishing much of the spectre. A thing ignored is apt to become a thing unfelt. At any rate, Florida will tell you that she has not felt any specific depression and it is tolerably certain that Florida believes it from the long repetition.

In the mean time and all the time the native boasts his state and its transcendent advantages over all other states as a place to live, grow rich and be happy. He shows it up in all the bright colors of a glowing picture. He adds to a vivid imagination a sincere belief and leaves an impression that catches and lingers. It is a growing state and he is stimulating its growth by every light he can throw on it. The dark shades he leaves out—if he honestly believes there are any dark shade. And he gets there.

Florida is rapidly filling up and making long strides in development and larger statehood. How much of her advancing growth is due to the persuasive belief and that word of her children can only be realized by those who have come much in contact with them and listened to their untiring song.

LOOKS LIKE A WINNER

Acceptance in principle, by both Great Britain and Japan, of Secretary Hughes' proposals for naval reduction, shows that this country has, at least, made a hit at the beginning of the armament conference.

Mr. Hughes, at one stroke, has disarmed, for the time being, all those critics who were arguing that the American desire for disarmament was only half hearted. He has put the other nations on the defensive, and in a position where they must "show cause" or submit to the odium of being classed as advocates of militarism. He has taken the wind out of the Japanese sails by complying with Japan's expressed desires of discussing arms reduction before attempting a settlement of the Eastern question generally.

The best that can be said of the Hughes plan, however, is that it is a start in the right direction and would effect a saving of a good many million dollars annually to the tax payers. And this is much to the good that in rejucing over it the public might conceivably lost sight of the fact that it neither makes future wars less liable nor alters the relative strength of the probable belligerents in case of war.

It is a practical rather than an ideal reduction. It does not convert swords into plowshares, but by keeping down the size of the sword all around, it leaves more room for the development of those peaceful vocations, which, by the way, are just as essential to the successful management of war as the more militant trades.

Acceptance in detail may be forecast, because, as the other nations pretty well understand, if the present naval competition should go on, this country with its immense resources, could and would soon have a navy which would put all the other countries to shame. America can afford to make the offer announced by Mr. Hughes, because it has nothing to lose by letting its navy rest while building up its other industries; the other nations can not afford to reject the offer, because the alternative would leave them in a poorer situation relative to this country than they now enjoy.—Lakeland Telegram.

"FLORIDA HONEY WEEK"

The beekeepers of the entire State are enthusiastically in favor of the subject, "Home Market for Home Products," and as nearly as can be figured out they are "hitting the nail on the head."

Honey is the beekeepers' home product, and he is getting tired of seeing his honey shipped out of the State to be mixed with other honeys, and then sent back here for sale at three or four times the price that he is willing to take for it at the start.

There can be no question as to the quality of this "Florida First Honey." It is pure and nice and wholesome, and it is to impress the consuming public of Florida with these facts and to encourage the more sensible plan of home consumption that Florida beekeepers, in co-operation with Florida storekeepers, are proposing to devote the week just before Thanksgiving to showing up the facts just as they are.

"Florida Honey Week" will be do-voted to demonstrations that will tend to convince us that we do not need to add other honeys, and freight charges, and commissions, and middlemen's profits to our own fine honey to make it the best ever. It is that already. Like the rainbow, it needs no retouching.

The newspapers heartily approve of this first class business move, and if you will go to your groceryman he will tell you that he is in favor of it, too.

When the time comes let us all stand up, and join the "Florida First Class."—Plant City Courier.

WEATHER AND CROP

Conditions in Florida for the Week Ending November 15, 1921.

Temperature:—The temperature was moderately low over much of the northern and western portions of the section from about the 11th to 13th, being near freezing at some interior portions of extreme northern and western counties. Frost was reported several times during the week, but without damage.

Precipitation:—There were beneficial showers and locally heavy rains over all portions of the section, although more rain is needed west of the Suwannee river—mainly, however, west of the Apalachicola river, but even this relief was doubtless received during the last day of the week, when amounts exceeding an inch were reported from regular and special stations.

Condition of Crops:—Reports are generally more favorable than during the weeks immediately following the October storm. Although some complain that citrus fruits are still dropping a as result of the storm, reports generally indicate a very satisfactory condition of orchards; fruit is coloring nicely, and shipments are active; a large portion of the fruit damaged has been forwarded. Seed beds and recently planted truck have done well. Some beans, eggplant, and other truck are in the market, and cabbage, celery, and lettuce made progress. Sweet potatoes are being dug, and cane cut, the latter for syrup making. Onions are being planted—some are up and look well. Ranges have responded to the recent rains. Much general plowing is being done. The soil over practically all the section is in good condition.

AVOIDABLE ACCIDENTS

Accidents will happen, we presume, as long as the human race lives, but at that, it would appear the most of them, should never have happened. At the recent national safety convention in Boston statistics were given showing that there were 23,000 fatal accidents in industry in the United States in 1919. Non-fatal accidents amounted to the staggering sum total of 575,000 in the class of those necessitating four weeks' absence from work, while upwards of 3,000,000 were hurt by accident sufficiently to lose one day from regular tasks.

It is thought that these fatal accidents do not include household accidents and starting as the total of all the accidents record is, it is entirely reasonable to suppose that no effort was made to eliminate such casualties. The speed mania is responsible for a large share of the accidents listed and the victims were largely from the ranks of childhood. The Record has pointed out time and again that the average death from the automobile is nothing short of murder.

The mania is speed, more speed, notwithstanding when fact are sifted in court the speeder was going nowhere in particular. Simple precaution in driving and a sane speed limit would, in our opinion, cut down the appalling death rate of accidents. Then there is the carelessness of the airplane mechanic and the consequent tragedy. While the industrial institutions apparently care little what becomes of the worker, the worker, in a greater number of instances, cares even less.

There should be as big a campaign on to ban accidents as there is to ban sickness and disease. In the one respect the United States leads the world in fearfulness and in the other, this country has nothing to boast about. It is time that we quit propagating about trifles like a drink of corn liquor and give attention to remedying the evils of useless accidents. Possibly this doctrine will win very few votes in the mad whirl of the people toward the devil, but that does not prove that it is not worth trying.—Columbia State.

ORANGE BELT BEE KEEPERS ASS'N BUSY AS BEES

Read at a meeting of Orange Belt Beekeepers' Association held in Sanford, September 21.

The Orange Belt Beekeepers' Association is a thing of recent birth. Perhaps you have not heard of it...

One does not know it all. Its organization brings success. Be your business great or small...

The curious indifference of the American people towards honey, has cost this country more in dollars, cents, public health, and common com-

The manufacture of refined sugar in no wise assists in the development of the nation's most important agricultural industries...

Neglect of the bee, through over-emphasis of the importance of the cane, beet sugar and glucose industries, has not only resulted in the withdrawal from the human family of a sugar food and sweetness of infinitely greater value than refined sugar...

That honey and the honey bee should have been lost sight of in the advance of civilization constitutes one of the many curious blunders which humanity, while priding itself on its progress, is so prone to commit.

It is not generally known that in the United States we consume only 40,000,000 pounds of comb honey and 120,000,000 pounds of extracted honey annually.

The Van Rensselaer apple orchard in Medina county, Ohio, tells the whole story which the farmers of America might well heed to their advantage.

Yet, not so long ago, bees were looked upon by the farmers of the United States as a nuisance and many lawsuits have been bitterly prosecuted in order to destroy the so-called pests.

Mr. Repp, of New Jersey, who owns a large apple orchard, producing 120,000 bushels of apples, says that bees are so indispensable to the growing of fruit in this country, that fruit growers can afford to pay five dollars a colony to local bee men for putting the bees in orchard during bloom, taking them away again at its close.

These men knew the fruit growers did not understand they were driving away the very agency necessary for the proper pollination of the fruit bloom when they were fighting the honey bee as a pest.

Honey cannot be adulterated. Many think if honey is granulated it is not pure honey. But all pure honey will become solid unless heated to 160 deg. fahrenheit, and held at that temperature for a certain time.

NEWSPAPER CONTEST WINNERS WERE GIVEN OUT YESTERDAY, DAILY HERALD WINS ONE PRIZE

The Front Page Contest Among Six Column Dailies Was Very Close

The winners in the state newspaper contest put on by the General Extension Division of the University of Florida were announced last night after exceedingly close contests in a number of the classes in which there were approximately a hundred and twenty-five entries.

Prof. Adams says that he found the weekly papers most interesting and hardest to rank. They represented the largest numbers in entries, and first, second and third prizes were given for front page make-up, for editorial page, and for best handling of farm news.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

Aviator Johnson, of Lakeland, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Volle Williams, for the Armistice day festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bertelson took a trip to Geneva on the afternoon of the 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lundquist and son, Raymond, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hodgins on the 11th.

Chase & Company, are moving a lot of grapefruit from the Haines grove this week.

Mrs. Benton and daughter, Miss Alice, arrived Saturday and are guests at the home of her brother, A. F. Westerdlck and wife. They took them down to visit their grove near Maitland, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballinger had a treat on Sunday as Rev. Burhans came out for them for the morning services in Sanford and in the afternoon the writer enjoyed a ride with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ericson to Geneva.

Mrs. V. C. Collier came out Wednesday to spend the day at the home of their nephew, Charles Cramer.

heated in this may loses all its fine flavors and distinguishing characteristics, although still wholesome and delicious.

Honey is not put through any refining process to prepare it for consumption on your tables, but is eaten as made by the bees, while sugar, glucose and syrups of all kinds, undergo all kinds of refining and concentrating before fit for our use.

It has been found that a person suffering from diabetes can use honey in moderation when they can not consume a single cube of granulated sugar without suffering the keenest distress.

The writers personal experience showed that while children suffering with a severe case of whooping cough often can not retain enough food to nourish them, honey not only stayed in the stomach but contained enough nourishment to keep the child in good strength.

Cakes or cookies containing honey retain their moisture much longer than those sweetened with sugar only.

Drop Cakes. One cup honey. One-half cup sugar. One-half cup shortening. One-half cup sour milk. One egg. One-half teaspoon soda. Four cups sifted flour. Flavor to taste. Drop on greased pan.

public upon the value of our newspapers to their communities and the state.

For the dailies, only first prizes were awarded in these three classes, in addition to the general prizes already mentioned.

The complete list of awards follows:

Best front-page, weeklies: First, Fort Pierce News-Tribune; second, Florida Advocate, of Wauchula; third, Lake Wales Highlander. Others particularly deserving of mention in this class are: The Sarasota Times, Leesburg Commercial, Cocoa Tribune and the Kissimmee Valley Gazette.

Best editorial page, weeklies: First, Fort Lauderdale Herald; second, Titusville Star-Advocate; third, Leesburg Commercial.

Best farm news treatment: First, Wauchula Florida Advocate; second, Lake Worth Herald; third, Bay County Beacon-Tribune, of Panama City; with the Sarasota Times as a close contender.

Among the seven-column dailies, the Miami Herald had things all its own way, partly because there were comparatively few of such papers entered. That should not detract from the sterling worth of this paper which won firsts on front page, editorials and farm news.

In the six-column dailies the competition was closer. The best front page was that of the Sanford Daily Herald; the best editorial page, Orlando Morning Sentinel; and the best farm news treatment, South Jacksonville Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lundquist and son, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hirschi, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. E. Lundquist and Mrs. E. W. Lundquist visited Tuesday in Grapeville, the latter calling also to see Mrs. Ballinger.

This seems to be moving week. Mr. and Mrs. Stedt are moving back to their own home after having lived on, and had charge of Mr. Rantoul's house for over a year and a half; the most of the furnishings of the latter home have been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams, of Sanford. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Campbell and children have moved into Sanford and are now located on Holly avenue, near the ball park.

Leonard Vihlen has been assisting his daughter and son, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Robbins, to move out to his cottage in Upsala as they have recently rented their bungalow in Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Hirschi and children are now located in their neat five room bungalow, which he has erected himself on their place near the Presbyterian church. They used the garage until he could get time to build.

Nearly every one from this section was in Sanford on Armistice day to see the parade, two among our number at least taking part, Miss Margaret Ericson, with a bunch of pretty girls in the Holly car, which was decorated as a basket of red roses and, Charles Cramer, one of our soldier boys, drove the car representing the camp scene of the boys in gray.

Carl Pierson attended the social and fish fry at Upsala, Saturday evening.

Rev. Albertson confirmed the truth of the report of the death of Dr. R. W. Edwards, of Jacksonville who has so long ministered to this and the Lake Mary churches, of pernicious pneumonia. His death came as a great shock to all; he was to have opened the Presbyterian synod held recently at Miami; indeed the paper stated that he did, but word came from his doctor he was too ill to leave his bed and in two days he was dead. It cast a sadness over the whole meeting, which Rev. A., and wife, attended, going down in their car for the ten days.

Rev. Edwards has many dear friends all over the state who will sorrow at his going, and leaves a wife in Jacksonville, a son, who attended at Gainesville, and is now taking up special agricultural studies under Ohio teachers, and a daughter, Miss Margaret, a dietician, who is now in Washington, but was for some time at the Woman's College at Tallahassee.

Miss LaRue Davis, of Chattanooga, Tenn., only weighed 70 pounds. After taking three bottles of Tanlac, she now weighs over 100 pounds and is enjoying the best of health.—Union Pharmacy.—Adv.

MANY THANKS. Editor Sanford Herald:

Will you give us the privilege of expressing in your paper the deep heartfelt appreciation of the regard and kindness shown the old Confederate Veterans by the good people of Sanford on Armistice Day. The occasion awakened cherished memories and made us realize afresh, that the principle for which we fought has lost none of its lustre by the lapse of years.

The Sanford Rod & Gun Club held its regular trap shoot at the club grounds on last Thursday, but on account of the many activities surrounding the celebration of Armistice Day the results have not heretofore been published.

The scores as a rule were better than usual and almost every one of the contestants improved their score. The day's score together with the season's average is as follows:

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.—Adv.

DANCE WAS GREAT AFFAIR.

(From Saturday's Daily)

The dance of the American Legion at the court house last night was the end of a perfect day, and everyone who attended the dance was well pleased with the music, with the floor, with their treatment and with the affair. Post Commander L. F. Roper, and Mrs. Roper, led the grand march promptly at nine-thirty, and from that time until some time after twelve, the merry dancers enjoyed themselves to the fullest. The court house floor is one of the best in the city, and is perfect for dancing. The Daytona orchestra furnished the music and there were so many on the floor that dancing was difficult, but it did not dampen their ardor or curtail one dance and all went merry as a marriage bell rounding out one of the finest days of our existence.
