Felt He Ca. One day I took my little boy to his grandmother's, and while there he got into mischief, grandmother slapped his hands, and he came to me crying, and said his mother had slapped him. I told him at the time, just told him to go away and not bother me, that his grandmother would not slap him if he did not deserve it. Later on I asked him what he did that his grandmother slapped him, and he said: "Oh, it is no use telling you, you love your mother anyhow." —Chicago Tribune

Valentine Bridge Party. There could be nothing prettier than the valentine bridge party with which Mrs. R. E. Tolar entertained on Wednesday afternoon at her attractive home on Magnolia avenue.

The rooms were lovely with the softened glow of red shaded lights beneath which were showers of red hearts suspended by ribbons from the chandeliers. Hearts were everywhere in their radiant beauty against the foliage of green plants. Vases of red carnations and other cut flowers from Jacksonville, prettily arranged with asparagus fern adorned mantels and tall cabinets. The attractive little score cards, suggestive of the day were in the design of a quiver and bow.

The elaborate and delicious refreshment course was served temptingly, the favors being tiny baskets decorated with hearts, filled with nuts and candies. The dainty sandwiches were in heart shape. In all the charming details was carried out the valentine idea.

An interesting game was played in which Mrs. Frank Miller made high score and was given a lovely lingerie hand made yoke. For second high score, made by Mrs. S. Puleston was given a pretty camisole, and the consolation prize of a dainty vanity bag was won by Mrs. Hal Wight.

The spacious rooms were attractively decorated with palms and potted plants tastefully arranged with poinsettias in the living room where the hostess and the guests of honor received together and with pink roses in the dining room. Ferns and fronds of palms were used extensively in the charming arrangements in pleasing combination with the flowers.

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. R. C. Bower and introduced by Mrs. W. L. Morgan. Miss Ruth Mettinger ushered to the dining room where a delicious chicken salad course was served by Miss Charlotte Hand and Miss Fern Ward. One hundred and eighty-five invitations were issued. Possible Base Ball Strike

With only a few more weeks before the sport loving fans will again have their great sport before their eyes, the chances are the fans will have to be deprived of their great national pastime all on account of the players holding the magnets up for money.

Now can you beat this for nerve. Imagine players who never before in their lives had received over $3 a day asking for such high salaries as $10,000 and $15,000 a year.

Now, lets take into consideration the coming strike talk which Dave Fultz is trying to spring on the baseball fans. As we all know Dave Fultz at once time was a star player of the New York Yankees, and after retiring from the diamond he started into the practice of law and for the past three years has been president of the Players Fraternity and when cases came before Sir David he went before the National Commission and argued out for cases for the ball players.

Fultz receives a high salary for looking out for the interests of the player and now he is about to get in "BUTCH" for whenever Fultz thinks he can, through all his power in influence with a strike among the players of the country, and get away with it, then you say Mr. Fultz isn't a high class lawyer.

Now, let's take into consideration the great money that is being paid to the ball players. The great money that is being paid to the ball players is not common laborers and cotton pickers and at that time to draw down $75 a month was great money. Now because they being great ball players they all think they are entitled to a great salary. The first of the money that is being paid to the ball players is $10,000 a year. No, they won't, and why won't they? Because the magnets why pay these huge salaries have put the lid on their high salaries ball players and told them they could either play for the salary offered or pack their duds and get out.

Fultz is kind of peeved now because such stars as Cobb, Collins, Speaker, Wagner, Jackson, Johnson, Sair and several other more or less ooted players have turned a deaf ear to their leader, and with all these stars in the game, the other players who don't amount to a row of pins when it comes to getting the crowds out, when such players as the above are out playing and the strikers are back in the woods laboring for the same old salary.

And when April, the 15th, rolls around you will see all the players right on the job and playing at a great decrease in salary, a few players who received cuts in salary were Archer, Alexander, Maranville and several others. Archer had been receiving $8,000 a year, Alexander the Great had been receiving $9,000 a year and has the courage to play the Jesse James act and ask for a $15,000 salary and President Baker has told his star he could accept what he offered him or else quit. That's the only way to treat the ball players. In five years time such salaries as has been paid in the past will no longer be heard of. These same ball players have broke three millionaires in the course of the game. Chris Von der Ashe lost his entire fortune, Charley Summers dropped a cold million on the Cleveland Indians and the last one to suffer was John B. Day who at one time was the controlling figure in base ball and only two weeks ago this same man applied to the National Commission and asked for aid. The commission realizing the great work done by this noble man was worthy of consideration decided to give him a pension the rest of his days.

John Miller, the noted catcher has charged the various newspapers around the country as being sold out, and to say the charge which he prefers against these newspapers are absolutely untrue is expressing ourselves in a very light way. The newspapers work for the fans and not for the ball players, and when the fans protest, then is when the newspapers uphold them, for without the fans the players are without a job, and ball players may come and ball players may go, and the newspapers over this country will always be on the side of the fans.

Methodist Sunday School. In an interview with Superintendent A. R. Chappell of the Methodist Sunday school some very interesting facts were brought out in relation to their work. They have one of the best and largest Sunday schools of their denomination in Florida, and for several years have been able to present a 100 per cent report on their Standard of Excellence. They were the first church in Sanford to inaugurate a 40 hour course of instruction for the purpose of training their school according to modern plans. They have always had the largest school in the city, and now that their fine new edifice is about complete, furnishing ample accommodations for this new work, and with a live corps of officers and teachers, he expects the school to make phenomenal progress. They have a very fine collection of books, and a very fine collection of hymns, and a very fine collection of every week. The recent house to house canvass located over a hundred new people who should be identified with the church, and special effort is being made to bring them within the active church life. With the information now in hand, he thinks an enrollment of 650, and an average attendance of over 400 is considered a reasonable expectation within the next two months.

All visitors to the city, and those who are not already identified with other churches here are most cordially invited to attend their Sunday school session, which convenes at 9:30 a. m. for a real welcome and a profitable hour will await them.

As described by one authority, the process consists in fitting several large tin kettles with the waste bark and placing each in turn over the fire during the evening hours of the night. The gas is collected from the opening in the top of the kettle during the day. The gas is used for cooking and lighting.

Among The Theatres

Potash & Perlmutter
Millions of persons have read "Potash & Perlmutter" stories of Montague Glass and nearly a million have seen the famous comedy built on these stories, at the Cohan Theatre, New York City. "Potash & Perlmutter" comes to the Lyric on Feb. 23 with a splendid company of artists and some elaborate stage setting as seen on Broadway.

Lyric Theatre Friday, Feb. 16
The Brown & Bowers minstrel will give one of the best shows of the season. The show is good all through as there is not a weak spot in it and several acts are featured. Comedy predominates and that is what the people like. Their excellent hand will parade the street that afternoon. Their olio far better than in majority of shows. It consists of Olio, Nick Pacheco, "The Georgia String Bean" Al Picher, "The Frog Man" European Wonder, Fishers-Carney, "The Long and Short of it," Dutch Songs and Dance, Park & Johnson the Monarchs of Music, "The One, The Only Herbert Swift, Lee Mitchell in Peace Playhouse. This show concludes with the music extravaganza, King Bob's Reception, quite different from any other piece ever used here. Seats will be on sale Phillips' drug store. Prices 50 and 75c.

"Potash & Perlmutter"
Direct from its second year at the Cohan Theatre, New York City, "Potash & Perlmutter" comes to the Lyric on Friday, Feb. 23. No announcement could be of greater interest to the theatre goers of this city who have heard so much about this most remarkable of comedies. "Potash & Perlmutter" is an "up-to-date garment in three pieces" made from the material in Montague Glass' famous stories in "The Saturday Evening Post," and "trimmed with a thousand laughs, and guaranteed to fit all sizes and ages." No play within the memory of the oldest theatre goer made a quicker or greater hit in New York than this delightful dramatization of the joys and sorrows, trials and triumphs of the two quaint, lovable partners who are business men to the tips of their fingers but soft hearted to a fault, and Manager A. H. Woods sends the production here direct from its Broadway home with a brilliant company of artists all of whom have made fame for themselves by their delightful interpretations of Mr. Glass' unique characters.

Food and Market Bills

New York State may be saddled with bun laws by bun politicians

New York, Tuesday. The food and market bill drafted by the Wicks Joint Legislative Committee and designed to bring about a reduction of the cost of living by effecting economies in the production, distribution and handling of foodstuffs will be introduced in the legislature this week.

The proposed act would create a food commission by amalgamating the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Foods and Markets, and transferring to it the Bureau of Weights and Measures and certain activities of the Department of Health.

The commission would be composed of the Commissioner of Agriculture, Commissioner of Foods and Markets, and three members appointed by the Governor subject to confirmation by the senate. The chairman of the up-State Public Service Commission and the Commissioner of Public Markets of the city of New York would be ex-officio members and would receive no salary. The Commissioner of Agriculture would retain his present title and the Commissioner of Foods and Markets would hereafter be known as the Commissioner of Markets.

The authors of the bill believe the proposed consolidation will result both in economy and in increased efficiency, as there would be in the field only one set of inspectors responsible to only one department. The new commission's powers and duties would include: The execution of the laws relating to agriculture and agricultural products; full investigation, encouragement, development and regulation by the state in order to protect the health of the citizen and to provide an abundant supply of pure and wholesome food, to prevent frauds and oppressions in the traffic therein, and to eliminate waste and loss in the distribution thereof.

Senator Charles W. Wicks of Oneida, chairman of the joint legislative committee, explained the bill provided adequate machinery to regulate cooperative corporations and associations for the purchase, sale, marketing or distribution of foods within the state, regulate and distribute, its cost at the point of production, the expense of transportation to the leading centers of population and the marketing and distribution to the consumers.

Some Crops Like Villa
Reported all killed but ear lots seem to be leaving the state every day.

After reading the report of the state of the crops by the state agricultural department, it is reported that all crops but ear lots seem to be leaving the state every day. The report indicates that the crops are in a state of distress and that many crops have been killed by the lack of water and the high temperatures.

Wish we could have a hotel opening in Sanford. Well, there is an opening here now but people don't seem to be interested.

No chance for the Germans to sneak up the St. Johns river now to bombard Sanford. We have two search lights on two tall buildings.

The Sanford board of Trade is getting results every day and the members know it. All honor to their busy bunch of hoisters.

The opening of the new hotel at Hovey's last week was one of the biggest hotel openings ever known in Sanford. George Govey, a big, fat, Don't see Hovey does it.

There are rumors of golf links, country clubs, yacht clubs, new hotels, etc. in Sanford. These are even rumored that certain people are coming into the Board of Trade.

Kissimmee fair this week and Orlando next week. Hope they have better weather than Seminole did for no other county in the state could hold a fair under such conditions any other but Seminole.

The stock display at the Seminole County Fair demonstrated that fine stock can be raised here. The pens that were not filled with high grade cattle were probably let for a display of ticks.

A twenty thousand dollar lot will be given free to the first red headed man who comes to Sanford and builds a real tourist hotel. Now get busy, you hotel men, who are looking for the best thing in the hotel line in the south. We have the goods.

Every line in the newspaper costs the proprietor something. If it is for the benefit of the individual it should be paid for. If the grocer were asked to contribute groceries to one abundantly able to pay for them, he would refuse. The proprietor of a newspaper must pay for the free advertising if the beneficiary does not, and yet it is one of the hardest things to be learned by many that a newspaper has space in its columns to rent and must rent them to live. To give away rent for anything less than living rates is as fatal to a newspaper as for a landlord to furnish rent free. Deland Record.

Sanford has fallen in line with other progressive communities and now has a paid secretary for her Chamber of Commerce. If he is any kind of a man at all he will earn ten times over the salary he is paid. The Herald says: "He is taking a great burden off the shoulders of the few people who formerly looked after this work." Not only that but he is doing useful and important work that is generally neglected unless some one insists on it. No up to date progressive community can get along without a commerce organization and a commerce organization without a paid secretary. It is like a Ford without an engine--it won't get anywhere--Lakeland Telegram.

Go-To-Sunday-School Day
State wide Go-to-Sunday-School Day was a pronounced success. Reports coming to the office of the Florida Sunday School Association indicate a heavy movement of new pupils to the Sunday schools of all denominations last Sunday.

When the first call went out for the observance of this day, the schools of the state were asked to attempt an increase of 50 per cent above the average attendance. In many sections of the state the interested people went to work with a vim. While many schools fell below this mark, many others far exceeded it, some schools reporting more than 150 per cent increase. The state office is receiving many letters of appreciation. One superintendent wrote: "We had the highest attendance in the history of our school."

Indications point to the fact that the goal originally set for the state by the Florida Sunday School Association that 40,000 new pupils should be added to the schools will be almost if not altogether accomplished. It is estimated that 85,000 pupils attend Sunday school in our state. It was planned to bring this number on February 11th up to 125,000. This is by far the largest number ever attending in Florida on any one day.

Go-to-Sunday-School Day was made an annual event when the last state Sunday school convention voted to join with practically all the southeastern states in the use of the second Sunday in February. The Florida Sunday School Association announces that this day will again be observed in 1918.

Usage What We Have is the practical tool for God Sunday's message. Some folks, especially the young folks, misuse their strength, opportunities and other blessings. and do not see the good points of it. Use it to the point where it is a blessing to you and others.

They reporter in Tavares speaking of work in their town with "We will never get our hands dirty" but isn't he doing the things where he is?" That is Rev. Fred Marsh, new pastor of the Congregational church in Jacksonville. Miss Burleigh alludes to.

Central district workers have the field spirit strongly. A new society has been started in Astatula, another in the Methodist church of Wildwood and more are in view. The auto route is bringing Endeavorers together in a fellowship way impossible until the past few years. Let us be thankful it is so.

Kindly letters recently came from Editors C. E. Woods of The Eustis Lake Region and W. F. Stovall in Tampa and its Morning Tribune. Such favors are appreciated and indeed so are all the favors shown this press writer by Florida newspaper men.

Mrs. J. W. McBride, the splendid secretary of the village society at Monroe, near Sanford, sends splendid news letters. They have organized an Intermediate Society with twenty members. This will be good news for our good Intermediate leader, Miss Lucy Harris of Bradentown, who is working hard to get several such societies organized before the end of the State Union year which closes at the April convention in Orlando.

A late issue of the St. Petersburg Times describes in glowing colors the pleasure of the tourist picnic given by our hospitable friends, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Whitbeck at Gulfport, a suburb of the "Sunshine" City. It is nice to read such tributes to faithful C. E. Workers.

Some kindly readers, long-time of our press columns may be glad to hear that the Townsend orange grove escaped serious injury either to fruit or blossoms in the recent cold spell. So we need not give you frosted fruit if you come to call on "Secretary Grace."

In the Iowa Christian Bulletin for February it tells of 53 Endeavorers taking part in a lawn prayer meeting one hour long. How is that for speed in "saying things?"
Grace A. Townsend.

SIXTY PER CENT PROFIT

They are the Return on Money...
The counties slow in tick eradication work in any state always realize the smallest returns from their investment, as it costs just as much to do the work at one time as another. If the neighboring counties get the jump on the slow counties they will establish conditions for better raising of cattle and encourage settlers to locate in their territory.

There is no question about the tick eradication work being practical under either open range or farming conditions or a combination of both. This was shown at the University of Florida live stock institute. Facts and figures were presented to show that more than 40 per cent of the entire original quarantined area in the southern states has been freed of ticks. Florida has 3,800 square miles of freed area in Dade, Broward and a part of Palm Beach counties, and the remainder of Palm Beach county will be quarantined at once. Monroe county is doing regular systematic dipping and several other counties are organizing for systematic work.

Freed areas are protected by law from reinfestation. Persons who undertake to ship, drive or allow their cattle to drift from the quarantined areas into free territory without first having them properly disinfected, run the risk of vigorous prosecution by the state and government.

The disadvantage and expense of living under quarantine restrictions increase as the surrounding area is released from quarantine. Conditions in Florida warrant a state wide movement to eradicate ticks in every region of the state.

Estimated Citrus Damage

Gainesville, Fla., Feb. 9, 1917.
The Bureau of Crop Estimates, U. S. Department of Agriculture, through the field agent for Florida has made a careful investigation into the citrus situation since the recent cold weather, particularly as regards the fruit which remained to be shipped. The field agent has visited personally a very considerable part of the producing sections, consulted with authorities from every county except from Brevard south, on the East Coast. In addition several hundreds of inquiries were sent to a special list by mail, to which there was a full response.

From all data available, it appears that approximately 85 per cent of the oranges and 75 per cent of the grapefruit remaining in the state were more or less badly iced. It is estimated that there were about 2,000,000 boxes of oranges and 700,000 grapefruit in the state.

In the northern tier of citrus counties, the loss of fruit was practically total. In the next tier to the south the loss appears to be somewhat less, although 100 per cent is reported as badly frosted in many localities. In the other hand, isolated groves report the fruit saved by firing. Parts of Pinellas, the northern part of Polk, that part of Osceola southeast of Lake Tohopekaliga and Merritts Island, report the fruit loss as light. The same is true of the East Coast south. A considerable portion of the fruit is being and will be shipped; just what this proportion will be is problematical.

Young groves suffered severely, many being killed to the bank.
C. C. Hare,
Field Agent for Florida.

THE FIVE COUNTY FAIR

Orlando Promotes Something Good Next Week at Fair.
Splendid exhibits in all departments showing the wonderful resources of central Florida, sensational aeroplane flights by Karl Kuhl, an Orlando boy who has made good in the aviation world, spectacular fireworks on the opening day and night, many free attractions of interest and a first class midway are some of the features of the Five County Fair to be held in Orlando February 20th to 24th. One of the best ever seen in this section of the state. Crowds are expected from far and near.

The poultry show under the direction of Mr. Warden is always a special success. Some of the finest birds in the state will be shown. The poultry show under the direction of Mr. Warden is always a special success. Some of the finest birds in the state will be shown.

The domestic and the art departments are always of great interest to womenfolk and entries are already pledged in great number from Orange and surrounding counties. Miss Hope Starback, in charge, has her arrangements well in hand for these departments.

The citrus fruit department will show up unusually well this year as new classes have been arranged including nearly all standard varieties of citrus fruit. Hitherto general prizes have a sure chance for a premium.

The agricultural department always shows up the resources of the five counties well. Different sections are already well organized and are planning to arrange the space allotted to their various communities to the best advantage.

The aeroplane flights will be of unusual interest as they will include many aerial stunts never shown south of Jacksonville before Mr. Kuhl's "death drop," his "loop the loop" and various other maneuvers have new twists to them that thrill the spectator.

Business Meeting.
The regular monthly business meeting of the club was held Wednesday with Mrs. Deane Turner, first vice president, presiding with gracious dignity.

The special order of the day was at once taken up and the revision of the constitution and by-laws were placed upon their first reading. The committee were Mrs. J. W. Dickins, Mrs. Geo. L. Maris and Mrs. Henry Wight. Read by Mrs. Dickins. The articles of incorporation now being the constitution, the constitution which has heretofore prevailed becomes the by-laws. Several amendments were suggested by the committee which will be voted upon at the annual business meeting in March. Nominations of officers to fill the vacancies which will occur in March followed, after which the regular routine business was disposed of. Reports from the club officers and chairmen of departments were most encouraging. The Social Department reported $79.00 on their part of the obligation on the club house debt and the Welfare Department reported $61.60 for the same purpose. The team composed of the board of managers and the Literature Department team reported progress.

Chairmen of standing committees reported their various committees to be actively at work. The treasurer's report showed the club's finances to be in excellent condition. The corresponding secretary read a communication from the state chairman of the press committee urging subscription to the Federation Magazine and urging cooperation of the local club press committee for a monthly letter to the state papers which publish a Federation page.

Welfare Dept. Program Feb. 21st
At the regular meeting of the Welfare Department on Wednesday, Feb. 21st, an interesting program on "A Good Woman's Influence" was presented by Mrs. E. D. Brownlee, principal of the east side primary school, and County Supt. T. W. Lawson will give an informal talk on the subject of the afternoon. Songs and a march by some of the primary pupils, a song by the boys of Miss Edna Plant's school, and a quartet by some of the interesting features of the day. The meeting will be an open meeting to which all members of the club and the community are cordially invited. The program will be published in Friday's issue of The Herald.

COUNTY HAPPENINGS

Too Late For Regular Page

WEST GENEVA AVENUE

We are having some fine weather now since the cold weather has left us behind it. Mrs. Will Robinson and Mrs. Jack King and little daughter, Gladys were the dinner guests of Mrs. Jack Vaughan Sunday and all report a pleasant time.

Mrs. Jack Vaughan was in town Monday shopping and attending to some business.

We sure need some rain now to start the orange trees to putting out their young buds again for bloom.

The cold way sure did do us all bad, but it is God's work and we ought to be thankful, for it could have been worse.

LONGWOOD PICK UPS

Mrs. J. M. Woodberry was visiting friends in Sanford last week. C. B. Searcy was a visitor in Orlando Sunday.

Mrs. R. C. Fatout, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fatout and son, Mrs. Clark of Indianapolis are occupying the Clouser house.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daboll and Mrs. Edith Grosebeck are the visitors of Mrs. J. A. Bryan.

Longwood was well represented at the Seminole fair.

Misses Olive, Diikel and Lillian Bryan and Messrs. Boyce Chase and James Bryan were visitors in Orlando, Monday.

There is to be a mask dance at the Longwood Hotel Feb. 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daboll, Mrs. Edith Grosebeck and Mrs. J. S. M. Woodberry were on the 19th and 20th.

The Bible school spent the week in Tampa.

The ladies of the Civic League are having a Valentine party Wednesday evening. Every one seemed to have a good time.

EAST SANFORD

Mrs. Ballinger were also guests there.

Noah Fry and a friend of his came up from Wintermere Sunday to get his wife, who has been in town attending the Fair and visiting their son and wife for a few days. Ere returning home they called on her sister, Mrs. T. Q. Tyrer, and Miss Mabel returned home with them.

Emil Magnuson returned home Thursday from his orange packing on the East Coast. He had been helping Chase & Co. in town for a few days.

We work all hard hit by the recent freeze but some think not all the fruit is gone and are busy again fertilizing and working up their groves.

Sorry we could not attend the Fair but we hear good reports from those who did, especially as to the school exhibits and the poultry.

Mrs. Vernon Castle Tells What the Gorget Is

Mrs. Vernon Castle, star of "Patricia," the International serial supreme, released by Pathé and to be shown at the Lyric Theatre every Tuesday is well known as the originator of many styles of dress for young women which have become the vogue of two continents. Any distinctive features in women's apparel, original with her, have become the fashion and her costumes, all of which she designs herself, have been copied in fashion papers and by modistes all over the United States and in Europe.

Mrs. Castle's very latest creation is the gorget, which goes with an automobile costume she wears in one of the scenes of "Patricia," and which is destined to become the fashion with women everywhere. Many who have seen it in photographs of Mrs. Castle in "Patricia" have been somewhat puzzled to know what it is.

The gorget is a neck piece made of white satin covering the throat entirely, fastened with satin buttons straight up the front, reaching over the chin, and then going into a hood that fits the head. Over this Mrs. Castle wears a large becoming summer hat, the whole effect being novel and thrilling. The gorget is a new idea, and is being made up by the makers of the wardrobe in New York and here in the winter, without recourse to the hideous white Petticoat the woman motorist is only refused.

Speaking of her latest creation, Mrs. Castle said: "The gorget is not an invention, but a revival of the fashion of the 18th century. When the sea was quite common, ordinary sea parties was a piece of armor plate or of brass, and the gorget is a revival of that. It is a very elegant protection from dust when motoring. It fits a long felt hat and I hope others will find it so."

Lyric Tuesday.
