Harry Chides Ike On Public Power Issue

President Truman, in a speech from coast to coast, chided Dwight D. Eisenhower for his "hit and run" tactics after learning "the Republican party line." Truman said the Republican presidential nominee is talking "like one of the lobbyists for the private power monopolies" and if he is elected, "it will be a long time before you see another structure of this kind."

It was another speech in the President's coolly calculated attempt to destroy Eisenhower's prestige in a "give 'em hell" campaign tour from coast to coast. Truman is working the role of the Democratic party's "hatchet man" with the calm and relentless assurance of a veteran campaigner going about familiar work.

Leaving his campaign train at Columbia Falls, Minn., to visit the dam and drive on to Kalspell for a dedicatory speech in the high school gymnasium.

"All of you who are here today had better go over and take an early look at this dam, because if the Republican win this election it will be a long time before you see another structure of this kind," Truman said.

"The Republican candidate for president made it perfectly plain in a speech in Boise, Idaho, a few weeks ago that he was going to take it like this," the President added.

And he said Eisenhower now accepts the "old guard view that dam like Boulder, Elgin, and government transmission lines, and low cost public power" are part of the "sneaking socialism" of which the alien writers for the power monopolies are part.

Eisenhower, Truman said, has "adopted the line of the private power monopoly."

The President cited what he said was a change in view by the general after he became the GOP nominee. He said Eisenhower, visiting the Boulder Dam last June, "started to walk liquidating, and declared: 'I've had a perfect example of doing something for all the people and doing it intelligently.'"

It was after "many men" visited Eisenhower at Denver following his nomination, the President declared, that the general changed his mind.

He quoted Eisenhower as saying at Boise this country has a government applying the philosophy of the left and adding: "The government will build the dams, the government will tell you how to distribute your power, the government will do this and that, the government does everything but come in and wash dishes for the housewife."

Truman went on to say: "We Democrats will stand ready to building the dams. And as far as washing dishes is concerned, (Continued on Page Five)

Ike Swings — With A Shillalah

GEN. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER raises staff a shillalah that had just been presented to him in Baltimore by Maryland's Gov. Theodore McKeldin. In his speech the Republican standard bearer sharply accused the Truman Administration of displaying lack of imagination and firmness in building the nation's defense against Russia. (International)

City Of Sanford Begins Its New Fiscal Year Today

Appropriations For Coming Year Are Fixed At $428,616

Department heads as well as other city employees will receive a substantial increase in pay during the fiscal year beginning today, according to figures for the 1952-53 fiscal year budget released by City Manager Thomas Lawson.

With a total appropriated budget of $428,616, more than half of this amount is for salaries and wages of city employees who have been given a ten percent increase over last year.

A total of $13,000 is allocated to the Fernald Laughlin Memorial hospital, $2,000 to the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and $1,500 to the Junior Chamber of Commerce. One large item of increase is for food for the ambulance in the city, up from the $2,500 of last year. A special fund of $5,000.28 was set up for payment of a note at the Sanford Atlantic National Bank contracted in connection with the Jeffries Report.

The salary of the City Manager was fixed at $7,300, that of the City Clerk, whose work includes that of tax collector and bookkeeper as well, was set at $4,750.40 as compared with $4,327 last year. The Municipal judge gets a raise from $500 to $1,300 and the City Attorney $600 to $5,000.

The salary of the Building Inspector is raised from $3,472 to $5,819.30. The Chief of Police, whose pay last year was $3,900, will get $4,356 and the Fire Chief gets a raise of $270 to $4,073. The City Physician, Librarian, Sexton and the cemetery and foreman at the sue also receive additional compensation.

Anticipated revenues reveal that some $24,000 is received in fines and penalties in the city. The swimming pool is expected to produce $1,800 in revenues, and rentals from housing authority $1,800. The cigarette tax is expected to (Continued on Page Five)

Ike Launches Attack Aimed At Mid-West

Carries His Drive Into Territory Which Might Have Crucial Effect On Outcome

By DON WHITHEAD
ABOARD EISENHOWER SPECIAL
Dwight D. Eisenhower carried his drive today on a 28-state drive that could make or break his hopes to win the presidency in November. Optimism was running high. His special train moved into Michigan on a whistle-stopping push through states that will have 301 electoral votes out of the 531 total — or more than enough to swing the election. Eisenhower carried with him the warm memory of a rousing welcome in Columbia, S. C., yesterday where 20,000 people roared "We want Ike." They cheered his attacks on President Truman and the Democratic presidential nominee, Adlai Stevenson, and his bid for the state's support.

On the steps of the historic old South Carolina State House, Eisenhower was introduced by Gov. James B. Byrnes, a friend of President Truman and one-time secretary of state in the Truman Cabinet.

A lifelong Democrat, Byrnes called for people to vote for Eisenhower above a party label and to elect Eisenhower as the man who could clean up "the mess in Washington" and prevent a third world war.

Eisenhower gave a hint before leaving Columbia, that he is ready to launch an attack on Communist government at almost any time.

Eisenhower has been pressed for comment on a statement by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the superintendent of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank, in a brief speech today before the Kiwanis Club at the Yacht Club.

"Your lackluster drive impressed the most when I first visited Sanford over a year ago," Mr. Bauman pointed out, "Sanford has many things better cities do not possess such as the beautiful woods and lakes for hunters and fishermen."

He offered one suggestion: trees should be planted along the lake front drive west of Sanford. "It would enhance the beauty of the drive," he explained.

"My wife and I have actually fallen in love with Sanford. It is clean and quiet and people speak to you on the streets, something they don't do back home."

Mr. Bauman, who worked for a bank in Aurora, Ill., for 34 years before coming to Sanford two months ago, admitted it wasn't easy to "take up roots" and move to Sanford, but he said, we are happy with our new home here.

Bauman Praises Sanford In Talk To Kiwanis Club

Banker Says Beauty And Friendliness Are 2 Big Assets

Sanford's scenic beauty in the midst of a storming playground of lakes and forests combined with the friendliness of the people were cited as the City's biggest assets by Robert J. Bauman, new president of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank, in a brief speech today before the Kiwanis Club at the Yacht Club.

"Your lackluster drive impressed the most when I first visited Sanford over a year ago," Mr. Bauman pointed out, "Sanford has many things better cities do not possess such as the beautiful woods and lakes for hunters and fishermen."

He offered one suggestion: trees should be planted along the lake front drive west of Sanford. "It would enhance the beauty of the drive," he explained.

Mr. Bauman, who worked for a bank in Aurora, Ill., for 34 years before coming to Sanford two months ago, admitted it wasn't easy to "take up roots" and move to Sanford, but he said, we are happy with our new home here.

"The agricultural development here was a revelation and a new experience for me," he added.

Mr. Bauman was introduced by Howard Mitchell, this week's program chairman.

The Rev. Angus Melms, of the First Presbyterian Church, reported that the church had donated $250 for the construction of a new building. He also reported that the church had received $500 from the community for the same purpose.

The church has also received $500 from the community for the same purpose. The church has also received $500 from the community for the same purpose.

U. S. Guards Kill 45 Prisoners In Korean Rioting

120 Are Hurt In 2nd Worst Outbreak Of Red POWs In Korea

CHEJU ISLAND, Korea (AP) — American guards with blazing rifles killed 45 Chinese prisoners of war and injured 120 others in a appalling riot today.

The POWs were celebrating the third anniversary of China's Communist regime when some fanatics turned the jubilee into an attack on their guards.

The majority of those killed and wounded were shot, said a Prisoner of War Command spokesman.

Two American soldiers were injured slightly.

The spokesman said "It was really a fight due to all the confusion that surrounded an incident like this one many details are lacking."

The 500 fanatical prisoners had tied two infantry platoons about 80 men each in their compound. From a standpoint of fatalities, today's riot was the second largest among POWs in Korea announced by the Army last February, in a similar riot on midwestern Kook Island, 80 prisoners were killed.

Some 5,000 hard-core Chinese Communists are quartered in various camps around Cheju City on the island south of Pusan. Also on Cheju are about 12,000 Chinese captives who have said they would resist repatriation to Communist China.

The Army said the commander of the Cheju camp yesterday issued an order against prisoner demonstrations. Presumably he had anticipated trouble on the Red anniversary.

American guards went to the compound at 7:30 a. m. to form work details to continue construction in a vast winterization program.

An Army announcement added that the guards not only found the prisoners demonstrating, milling around and singing, but found that they had put up improvised Communist flags in the compound.

The guards called the camp commander and he issued orders by loudspeaker that if the demonstration was not stopped, force would be used to effect compliance.

Snider, Robinson And Reese Knock Homers For Yanks

Both Smashed — Russell Quoted In Adlai Support

MIAMI (AP) — Two Southern Democratic leaders said today they would give qualified support to their party's presidential candidate.

Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia said he would "be happy" to introduce Stevenson at a Tampa rally Oct. 11, provided he was permitted to state he did not agree with Snider and Robinson's going to the Senate.

The two men were interviewed by the Miami Daily News just before leaving a plane at Miami. Russell was returning to Washington and Snider's plane was headed for Jacksonville. They had been fishing in the Florida Keys.

Russell told Miami Daily News reporter Rose Malloy he believed Georgia would go Democratic as usual in November.

"However, Dwight Eisenhower will get more votes than any Republican President has in the past 72 years," he said. "He is a popular man."

Russell said the final revelations by members of both political parties represented a "new high in poeignty."

"I am waiting now for the candidates to report their monthly treasury bills to the people," he said.

Russell, who campaigned for the Democratic presidential nomination, declined to say whether he thought the South would go Republican.

"I am not well enough advised to comment," he said, pointing out he had been in Venezuela on vacation for several weeks before coming here to fish in the Keys.

Snider said he also would vote for Stevenson and that "my long-time conviction is a very intelligent, able and fine American."

"The field for the Democratic within the Democratic Party," he added.

Moonshine Still Found By Officers Near Sylvan Lake

Federal and county law enforcement officers yesterday destroyed a moonshine still hidden on Sylvan Lake near the Lake county line.

No one was arrested in the raid, but a car was impounded and the car was taken to Sheriff P. A. Merz, who made the raid with Deputy Sheriff Howard Hood and Lee Pace, Orlando, federal agent for the moonshine tax unit, with a 10-gallon still, a 60-gallon condenser and seven mash barrels.

A Sheriff Merz said the still had a capacity to produce one or two batches of shine a week of 60 gallons each.

The presence of the still, he revealed, was made known to him by an unaffiliated informant who happened to stumble across it while hiding place in a palmetto thicket on the edge of the lake.

After the still was discovered, Sheriff Merz posted a watch on it for six weeks before the raid was made. During this time, he said, no one came near the still, either to put it into operation or attempt to remove it to another site.

"They were afraid even to go in there and haul it out," the Sheriff pointed out. He remarked that operators of the still must have discovered tracks about the site, which had frightened them away.

WILE VERRE TODAY

A hard workman must have good tools. We are God's tools and our duty is to use them in every good thing to do his will. 12:30 P.M.

We see where another Virginia newspaper has come out for Eisenhower. Just a bunch of Wall Street capitalists.

Congratulations to Ed Lane and his committee for the splendid program they put on in celebration of Sanford's 75th birthday.

The threat of war in 1954, says
General Bradley, is less now than it was a year ago. Yes, but what about the threat of war in 1953?

Seminole High has gotten off to a good start this football season, not only gate-wise, but also on the big end of the football score.

The World Series gets under way today and for the time being less important matters like the presidential campaign will just have to wait.

Polls conducted by the Princeton
Research Service show that Governor Stevenson will carry the South, but General Eisenhower will get the biggest vote ever given a Republican candidate.

Those who would build cheaply should consider the gate receipts at last Friday night's football game at the Municipal Stadium. And the lesson we have learned from the athletic stadium might well be applied to the hospital we are planning to build. If we want to attract to the hospital those patients (those customers) who can afford to go elsewhere and without whose pa-tronnage no hospital can expect to break even, then we have got to build a good hospital. If we want to avoid huge deficits, we must get the trade which is now going to Orlando, Jacksonville, Atlanta, and Baltimore.

We had almost forgotten that another Democratic primary has been scheduled for Oct. 14 when the Democratic party will select its nominee for Supreme Court justice.
There are two candidates, one the present Justice E. Harris Drew of West Palm Beach, appointed by Governor Warren, and Circuit Court Judge Vincent C. Giblin of Miami whose campaign manager is Frank Wright, former big wheel in the Warren Administration. However,
Wright broke with Warren a couple of years ago and is running a publicity and advertising agency in Miami. Whoever is nominated on Oct. 14 will be entered as the Democratic nominee on the General Election ballot for Nov. 4.

The unusual interest which the occasion of the celebration of Sanford's 75th anniversary aroused serves to indicate the rich historical lore which is latent hereabouts. It would be a wonderful thing for our section if all the local people who are descended from those first pioneers would search out from their attics or other storage places all the old letters, documents, manuscripts, or whatever they may have pertaining to this early period and make it available to the Historical Society for study, reference, and research. Such a suggestion is made by Miss Mell Whitner in a letter to the Forum today. In this way the foundation could be laid for an interesting history of our community which some day someone is sure to write.

When General Sanford came to this part of the world in 1871 he found land cheap. He bought some 12,000 acres now comprising the heart of Sanford for $18,200, or about $1.42 cents an acre, we learn from the interesting tale by Ed
Lane at the anniversary celebration the other day. It is worth noting that any acre of land in Florida today that could be bought for less than $100 an acre today, it would mean that all you have to do is sell it to the land baron in Florida today for $100 and sell it for $100,000 in 1952. It is not a word written by the land baron who at the beginning of the century was

Undecided Voters

The crowds cheering General Dwight D. Eisenhower may be larger and more enthusiastic than those attracted to his opponent, Governor Adlai E. Stevenson's speeches may be more lucid and thoughtful than those offered by the opposition. But no one can tell as yet how the election will go November 4. The plain fact is that many people have not yet decided how they're going to vote.

Take, for instance, the elderly lady in San Francisco who turned up at the Republican Party headquarters and offered to attire herself in a Gay Nineties dress and ride an old-fashioned bicycle carrying a sign, "I Ride My Bike For Ike." The plan was turned down. A few days later, undaunted by denial and still convinced her idea had merit, she turned up at Democratic Party headquarters. Her offer remained the same: the Gay Nineties dress and the old-fashioned bicycle, but this time the sign would read, "I Pedal Madly for Adlai." Again the offer was rejected.

If the little old lady was willing to switch allegiances so rapidly, her vote cannot yet be counted in either the Republican or Democratic column. The average voter isn't prepared to make a show of himself for either candidate. But one day he's likely to want to cheer for Ike, the next day he may feel like marching for Adlai. If he makes up his mind once and for all before entering the voting booth he'll be doing well. It's these uncertain votes — millions of them — which will decide the election.

Control Of The Senate

The majority of the Senate is out on bail." This gibe was uttered in 1918 when the Republican control of the Senate depended on Truman H. Newberry, secretary of the Navy under Theodore Roosevelt, who had been elected from Michigan over Henry Ford. Newberry was then under indictment for violation of the federal corrupt practices act in that election, and was convicted; but allowed to hold his seat and the party majority while under indictment. Later the act was declared unconstitutional, and Newberry was relieved from jeopardy.

His vote was important because it made possible Republican organization of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, with the elder Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts as chairman. From this stronghold of power Lodge was enabled to defeat the ratification of the Treaty of Versailles, and the entry of the United States into the League of Nations. Much applauded at the time by partisans, this policy is now seen to have been disastrous.

Control of the Senate is still a prize. To win it any party may be tempted to resort to measures which may unfavorably affect its later reputation. A party under wise guidance will resist the temptation.

Flavor Stimulators

Monosodium glutamate may not sound particularly appetizing, but used in preparing a meal it can make good food taste better. It can even give hamburger the flavor of steak, a valuable attribute in those days of high living costs. A derivative of glutamic acid, which is one of the amino acids, monosodium glutamate is being introduced in many canned foods and is even available these days in convenient-sized packages at the neighborhood grocery stores. Research conducted by Dr. Lutelis R. Iline, Dr. Luitan Long and Dr. M. J. Blish of the International Minerals and Chemical Corporation of Woodland, California, has disclosed that glutamic acid is found in many fresh vegetables as well as in meats, poultry and seafood. They came to the conclusion that the superior flavor of young, freshly harvested vegetables is due to their high content of glutamic acid.

Monosodium glutamate crystals are proving to be a real boon in the American kitchen. They enhance the flavor of frozen and canned foods and make many cooked foods more palatable. They represent another of science's contributions to better and pleasanter living.

Sanford Forum

Sanford, Florida
Sept. 30, 1952
Mr. R. L. Dean, Editor,
Sanford Herald,
Sanford, Florida.
Dear Mr. Dean:

The writer was very much interested in your stories yesterday of early Sanford and some of its settlers. Throughout my life, I have been told many times, Mrs. J. N. Whitner, was one of the few who has written down much of the authentic history and many of the legends. School children and others have used the information compiled by her in 1910 in school papers and news stories.

Time is passing, and with few exceptions, history is being lost. Mrs. Mary Strong has been doing something about it. Yesterday Mr. O. P. Herndon and Mr. E. P. Lane outlined some of the early history, but were those talks written down and preserved for future historical records?

I would like to make a suggestion to descendants of the old families and that is that each one write down the legends, the history of their family, and the stories handed down to them of those early days. Arrangements could be made to assemble them through the Chamber of Commerce, a Historical Committee or through the General Sanford Memorial Society. There is a lot of talk of the General Sanford memorial. Could a place be prepared for this data in connection with the Memorial?

Another suggestion, it would be very interesting to know how many descendants of the old families now reside in Seminole County. If a representative of each family would prepare a list and mail it to the Chamber of Commerce they would compile it, or if a Historical Committee is formed, turn it over to them.

Here is a partial list of some of the old families who it is known have descendants here — Vaughan, Hughes, Evans, Doyle, Lee, Speer, Beck, Ginn, Woodruff, Humphrey, Gwynn, Crippen, Telford, Drane, Cameron, Whitner, Caldwell, Chapple, Herndon, DeForest, Chase, Hill, Olesby, Terwilliger, Pierson, Loeffler, Miller, Fox, McLaughlin and Harold. Also Stringfellow, Harris, Kings, Dandner, Lord, Ensminger, Hickson, Gowan, Lundquist, Anderson, Steinstrom, and Nelson. There are no doubt many more who's families have been here fifty years or more.

Yours very truly,
Mell H. Whitner

The group, who have been members of a committee since 1949, were organized as Mayor of New York to honor the anniversary of the city's founding. O'Dwyer is now a resident of the city of New York. The group is now working on a book which will be published at the anniversary of the city's founding.

Eisenhower

The men who made the "mess" by ending his introduction by saying "If we want to avoid a third world war, to bring an end to the war in Korea and bring an end to corruption in Washington, we can best do it by electing as president of the United States the man I present to you, Gen Dwight D. Eisenhower."

Slapping back at President Truman—who had called him a "front man" for special interests—Eisenhower said the Democratic administration "may go down in history as the scandal-ridden administration."

"An bad or worse than the scandal," he added, "is the attitude of those in high office who—faced these revolutions—have, too often, first denied them, then condoned them and, when public pressure became too great

Dip In Farm Price Figures May Bring Cut In Food Costs

WASHINGTON (AP)—A dip of 2 per cent in average farm prices, with meat and potatoes leading the drop, held out some hope today for lower food costs.

Slipped late yesterday by the Agricultural Department.

At the same time the department said average prices paid by farmers dipped only 1 per cent so that farm prices averaged 101 per cent of parity, compared with 102 per cent both a month and a year ago.

when farm prices averaged 122 per cent of parity.

More livestock are moving to market now as a result of a period of high prices and so market prices were 15 per cent lower than a year ago and lowest since June, 1950, just prior to the Korean War.

Movement of more potatoes to market after a short crop also pushed prices downward as much as 30 cents and more a bushel. They averaged $2.22 a bushel in mid-September and $2.78 a month earlier.

Milk and other dairy prices moved in the opposite direction, probably because of widespread drought and high prices for livestock feeds. The survey showed an 8 per cent increase in average dairy prices and the highest average for any September in 43 years that records have been kept.

Prices of things that farmers buy, including some foods at retail, were down slightly for the month.

But offsetting this were higher prices for sugar, corn meal, flour, coffee, milk and eggs.

Millions Of Japs Are Voting Today In Free Elections

By WILLIAM JORDEN
TOKYO (AP)—Millions of Japanese voted today in this nation's first completely free election since World War II and the fate of post-American Premier Shigeru Yoshida rested with their decision.

Voting was heavy at the 46,000 polling places. By mid-afternoon an estimated 60 per cent of the 46 million registered voters had cast ballots.

Yoshida's dominant Liberal party was expected to win the great majority of the 100 Parliament seats sought by 1,243 candidates.

Yoshida's main foe was within his own party. His leadership has been challenged by Ichiro Hatoyama, founder of the Liberal and head of the party until he was purged from political life by the Allied occupation.

Hatoyama turned over the party reins to Yoshida in 1948 and the latter guided Japan's government through the occupation.

Hatoyama is not anti-American. His differences with Yoshida are over financial policy. Yoshida wants a stable budget. Hatoyama is willing for Japan to have an unbalanced budget so it will get its industry rolling again.

Their supporters are opposing each other in many districts. There was a possibility that if Yoshida's candidacy failed, a majority of the Liberal seats Hatoyama would bolt the party and join with the new Progressive party to form a coalition government.

THE WORLD TODAY

By ARTHUR EDSON
(For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON (AP)—It looks as if the nation's most secret organization, the Central Intelligence Agency, may have been a one-day political sensation.

The CIA is the organization on which the safety of this nation depends. Its awesome chore: finding out precisely what any potential enemies are up to.

The CIA became involved in politics because of something its director, Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, said at the tail end of his testimony in a deposition hearing in Sen. Joseph McCarthy's two-million-dollar libel-slander suit against Sen. William Henton.

Smith said he believes Communists have worked their way into every security agency, including his own. Later, he qualified his remarks by saying:

"They're (the Communists) so clever you've got to proceed on the assumption they can infiltrate you, and that's what we do."

But never, he said, has a Communist dollar libel-slander suit against Sen. William Henton.

The Republicans, who have maintained all along that the administration has been lax in its attitude toward Communists, retorted quickly.

Arthur E. Summerfield, Republican national chairman, said: "Shocking revelation x x x incredible looseness."

But the Democrats, as represented by their presidential nominee, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, began to cool off. Said a spokesman for the Republican National Committee: "We have no plan to make a political football" of Gen. Smith's statement. An aide to Gen. Dwight Eisenhower said the GOP presidential nominee would not do anything to endanger the security of the U.S. or the CIA.

Miss Legendre Is Engaged To Marry

Dr. and Mrs. Carnes Weeks of Midway Plantation, Mount Holly, S. C. announce the engagement of Mrs. Weeks' daughter, Miss Legendre Sanford Legendre, to Peter H. Wood, son of Walter A. Wood of Fortunate Field, Far Hills, N. J. and the late Mrs. Foresta Hudson Wood. Miss Legendre is the grand niece of Mrs. Abbott Wood Derby and great granddaughter of the late General Henry Shelton Sanford after whom the City of Sanford was named.

Miss Legendre was graduated from Forcroft School and attended Bryn Mawr College. She is the daughter of the late Sidney J. Legendre, an explorer, who led expeditions into Abyssinia, French Indochina, Southwest Africa and Persia for the American Museum of Natural History. Miss Legendre's mother was Gertrude E. du Bois Sanford and she is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford of New York. Her uncle is Stephen (Ludlow) Sanford, internationally known polo player, and her aunt is Mrs. Marie Pansa of New York.

Mr. Wood was graduated from DeWolf Academy and is a senior at Haverford College. His father, also an explorer, is a director of the Arctic Institute of North America.

Personals

Mrs. H. C. Waters Sr. has returned from a two weeks' vacation at Camp Lejeune, N. C. with her son and daughter-in-law, Sgt. Raymond W. Locke and Mrs. Locke. She also visited friends in Charlotte before returning to Sanford.

Williams' Home Is Setting For Party
Mrs. Blake Sawyer and Mrs. Eugene Williams entertained last evening with a Canasta party at the home of the latter on Corvada Drive in Hilland Park at 8:00 o'clock. The rooms were attractively decorated with arrangements of varicolored hibiscus and greenery.

Several games of Canasta were enjoyed by the guests with prizes being awarded to Mrs. John Kader and Mrs. Walter Steele. Refreshments were served buffet style from the dining table. The table was covered with an ecru lace cloth and centered with an artistic arrangement of brilliant orange and white hibiscus. Crystal conchabina held white tapers and crystal appointments were used. The guests enjoyed open faced sandwiches, cheese crackers, cookies, party mints and Coca Colas.

Those invited were Mrs. Ashby Jones, Mrs. Rudy Sloan, Mrs. Lowell B. Howard, Mrs. Robert Skinner, Mrs. Steele, Mrs. M. W. Castle, Mrs. Max Fudom, Mrs. Donald Jones, Mrs. Charles Atkinson, Mrs. Wally Sipple, Mrs. Marvin Dyal, Mrs. Ben Wiggins, Mrs. H. C. Smith, Mrs. M. L. SEMINOLE HI By BEVERLY GRAY

Friday night is another home game and this time we'll be playing Leeburg at the Municipal Stadium. It would be wonderful if we could have a huge crowd as before. In supporting the Feels, attendance reports counts and we could certainly be proud of last Friday night's crowd. Now with one victory behind and a little more experience we'll whip Leeburg with as good or even better score.

Various Show matches is going strong at S. H. with that day not far away. The Triple Trio this year, which seriously I think is the best yet, has some numbers that are going to lose. If you haven't heard their rendition of "Music, Maestro, Please," you've really missed something that is beautifully done. Not only is this song one we all know, but the second soprano in certain parts is just wonderful. The Trio this year consists of: Joan Wright, Ann Robison, and Mary Ann Wiles, first soprano; Mrs. Hayes, Merle C. Risale, and Eloise Snyder, second soprano; Sandra Dunn, Joyce Jones, and Harlan Hogue, tenors; and hear the girls' Club has a lot of cute dances and songs worked up for the show, too. Congrats to Judy Irvin for accompanying on these!

Everyone is proud of the Celery Feels for their grand game this past week! Congrats to 'em, for proving something we knew could happen. A special silence for Ray a fat fact, too!

Our cheerleaders were doing nicely themselves Friday night. All of them have their gym period devoted to practicing cheering each day, which is a wonderful idea and a big help for them. They've really been working, too, and you can tell it.

Don't forget the dinner after the game Friday! You boys be sure to make it a date to celebrate another victory.

Mr. Morris will have the chapel program tomorrow morning. We'll after that the Thespians will present a short skit.

Don't forget to have a date for the game and dance this weekend! Watch for the Friday night details... Be seen! ya them!

Opening the new season, members of the Sanford Women's Club held their first meeting of the fall today at the club house, beginning with a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock. Following the luncheon and a business meeting Senator Lloyd E. Boyle spoke to the group. Capable leaders who have been elected to hold office for the coming year are: from left to right, Mrs. Roy Tillis, president; Mrs. B. B. Crumley, vice president; Mrs. E. T. Mervin, first vice president; Mrs. George Wells, second vice president; Mrs. Ben Wade, third vice president; Mrs. L. E. Spencer, fourth vice president; and Mrs. Arthur Beckwith, corresponding secretary. Mrs. W. B. Ellye, treasurer, was unable to be present when the above picture was taken.

Today's Women By DOROTHY ROE

AP Women's Editor
If occasionally you feel an uncontrollable urge to break a plate at your husband, don't be alarmed. It's simply a normal feminine impulse, says Dr. William V. Silverberg, well-known psychiatrist.

The much-discussed "battle of the sexes" begins before the age of 6, says Dr. Silverberg in his new book, "Childhood, Experience and Personal Destiny."

Men and women are born to battle from the cradle to the grave, and though the period of courtship and early marriage may bring about a temporary truce, don't kid yourself, says Dr. Silverberg.

It's only temporary. As boy and girl progress through high school and college, the battle lines are more firmly drawn, with the handling of the rivals in groups of their own sex—gangs, clubs, fraternities and societies.

The doctor who speaks from 30 years of psychiatric experience, warns women to beware of the excessively chivalrous man, the one who is always first to open a door, hold a coat or light a

HOLLYWOOD By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — No kidding, this girl Jean Peters actually turned down a bulldog as a sexy dish. What's more, she added that sex has been overdone in Hollywood.

How do you figure a gal like that, boss? She's trying to go against the trend. Let me tell you how it all happened.

This gal Peters was assigned to "Blaze of Glory." That's the one account of her sex life, and Betty Grable wouldn't do on account of she wants to remain the happiness girl in films. Grable got a suspension.

Well, this guy guided me across the movie lot to see Jean Peters. This guy—I think he was from the publicity department—spoke hopefully that the role was changing the whole course of Jean's career. From now on, she was going to be a sinky, sexy dress.

She looked the part, being decked out in a low-cut, form-fitting dress. "I've got news for you," informed the onetime Ohio State coach. "As soon as this picture is over, I'm going right back to blue jeans."

This guy—I'm pretty sure he was from publicity—looked crushed. He said, "So he's coming back to blue jeans?"

"Look," she said, "so I'm doing a role of a sexy dish. That doesn't mean I have to assume the part in real life. I'm not the type. I don't go in for tight skirts, I like sport clothes and suits. And I don't think I should be expected to change my life just because I'm playing a role. An actress shouldn't be expected to."

"Besides, I think sex has been overworked by Hollywood. The bosoms, for example. They have been so over-exploited that nobody even notices them much any more. Even so, Lana Turner was a sensation when she wore a sweater. Nowadays, people see a girl in a sweater and they say, 'So what? So she's cold.'"

"I agree that sex is a fascinating subject for conversation. But it isn't everything. It's the goal of every woman to be attractive to men, but she can't do it only with a face and figure. She must have other qualities."

Jean said she didn't at all mind taking a role which had been played by two other gals for varying reasons.

Gators Alternate Strong And Weak Elevens On Slate

By F. T. MacFEELEY JACKSONVILLE (The Florida Coach) Bob Woodruff appears to have learned one lesson well when he sat at the feet of the old football master—Gen. Bob Neyland at Tennessee. Neyland developed a high skill in the art of schedule making—an easy game one week, a tough one the next. Florida started out against Stetson and won easily as expected. Next came Georgia Tech, rated third in the nation in the Associated Press pre-season poll. After a bit of effort, Florida lost, 17-14. Now—Saturday night in the Gator Bowl—comes Citadel, loser to Georgia Tech, 34-0, and to Virginia Tech, 14-7. Woodruff can spend this game seasoning the inexperienced men and continuing the search for a top-grade fullback. Injuries have cut down three prospects and he now plans to try sophomore Bob Watson in the spot. Rick Casares, leading Florida runner and scorer at Hubback in 1951, also may see some action back at that spot. He replaced Raywood Sullivan at quarterback, but if sophomore Fred Robinson can fill that spot Casares could be freed to get back into his running shoes. Woodruff tried this combination a bit against Georgia Tech. And he indicated the experiment may continue. It gives the Gators a well-rounded running attack with Casares joining halfbacks Buford Long and J. A. (Pat) Hall as ball jugglers. The drawback is Robinson's inexperience at quarterback. He threw only three passes against Tech and two were intercepted. Florida's pass defense is certain to gain experience against Citadel. Quinn Decker's Bulldogs have their offense wrapped up in the passing arm of Buddy Friedlin, a Jacksonville boy.

Blues In The News

Ever since the service-wide examinations for advancement in rating were held aboard NAAS in July, those men that took the exams have been patiently (?) awaiting the results. The results were received Monday and nearly 60 per cent of the men who took the examinations made a passing score and have been recommended for advancement. The Commanding Officer will advance those men eligible in all respects on the 10th of October. Don't forget men you'll all be expected to uphold the age-old tradition in the Navy—be late, to pass out cigars to all your friends aboard the station. My congratulations to you all—I'll take 'em Tans!

Third Dimensional Films Will Bring Realism To Movies

By EDWARD CURTIS NEW YORK (AP)—You can now take a dizzy ride on a roller coaster sitting in a movie seat. You'll gasp, get clammy hands, it's real. It's Cinerama. This is a new movie system of projecting pictures which gives an illusion of the third dimension—depth. After its premiere last night at the Broadway Theater, old movie man Louis B. Mayer exclaimed: "I think it means new life for pictures. It'll do for the industry what sound did for silent pictures. It's really looking for a new film is pitched on its technique rather than a dramatic story. The backers of the new process wanted to show what it could do. The result is a series of beautiful and at times startling sketches in color of European and American scenes. The film is projected on a curved screen. It's looking into the bottom of a "U." The screen is about six times the size of the one in your neighborhood theater. The image on the screen is not one picture. It's really three. In making the movie, the photographer uses a camera with three lenses. One looks straight ahead, a second to the left and a third to the right. The projection is the same way. You see three pictures joined together as one on the "U" screen. Because of the curve in the screen, you get the illusion of depth. With the new projection system, Cinerama also has come up with new sound. There are five loudspeakers spaced around the curved screen and other loudspeakers are at the sides and in back of the theater. The most exciting sequence in the film, "This is Cinerama" was the opening one. This took the audience on a roller coaster ride with all the realism of being in the front coaster seat.

MILK PRODUCTION WINTER PARKS (Special)—Six thousand new babies every day means that by 1975 U. S. farmers will need to increase milk production by 80 million pounds, according to the Florida Farm Bureau. The increased population will also make it necessary for U. S. farmers to increase production in other foods, the Bureau points out. It mentions 15 million more head of beef cattle; 25 million more hogs; 600 million more bushels of corn and 250 million more bushels of wheat. Compressed air from construction of a tunnel was first used in 1878 in work on the Hudson River tunnel between Hoboken, N. J., and New York City. The following year, however, it blew a hole through the tunnel roof, flooding the job and drowning 30 workmen—and the tunnel was not opened until 23 years later.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Make a cross mark (X) after "For the Amendment" or "Against the Amendment" in voting for or against the Constitutional Amendments.

NO. 1 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE XII, SECTION 18 Proposing an amendment to Article XII, by adding thereto Section 18, providing that beginning January 1, 1953, and annually thereafter for thirty years, an amount equal to four hundred dollars ($400.00) multiplied by the total number of instruction units in all the counties of Florida shall be taken from the first revenues derived from the licensing of motor vehicles and shall be placed in the county Capital Outlay and Debt Service School Fund and be used for county capital outlay projects for school purposes and for debt service school purposes; permitting the issue by the State Board of Education of bonds and motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates in behalf of a county requesting the same, and prescribing the duties and powers of county boards of public instruction and of the State Board of Education in connection therewith.

NO. 2 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE V Proposing an amendment to Article V relating to the Judicial Department, repealing Sections Two (2), Three (3), Four (4), Five (5), Six (6), Seven (7), Eight (8), Forty-four (44), and Forty-nine (49) thereof and inserting in lieu thereof Sections Numbered Two (2) to Eight (8) inclusive. Said Sections provide for increasing the number of Justices of the Supreme Court to Ten (10) and pertaining to the organization, powers and jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; the assignment of Judges to hear and determine cases and eligibility of retired Justices and Circuit Judges for call to temporary active duty.

NO. 3 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE VIII, SECTION 1 Proposing an amendment to Article VIII, Section 1 relating to counties as political subdivisions of state and providing that the Legislature shall have the power to grant to any county a charter under which it may regulate and govern itself in respect to its local and internal affairs not directly related to any state function or responsibility as established by the Legislature, and under which may be designated and regulated the duties, jurisdiction, classes, terms and compensation of all county officials except judges of courts created by the Constitution and the members of the county boards of public instruction.

NO. 4 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE V Proposing an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of the State of Florida, by adding thereto an additional section to be numbered by the Secretary of State providing for an additional Circuit Judge for the Second Judicial Circuit embracing the State Capital, and further providing for the appointment by the Governor and confirmation by the Senate of the first such Circuit Judge and his election thereafter.

NO. 5 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE VII, SECTION 6 Proposing an amendment to Article VII by adding thereto Section 6 providing for the creation of one additional Senatorial District to be known as the Fortieth (40th) Senatorial District and to consist of Bay and Washington Counties and making provision for the election of senators therefrom.

NO. 6 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE VII, SECTION 6 Proposing an amendment to Article VII by adding thereto Section 6 providing for the creation of a Senatorial District for Monroe County to be known as the Thirty-ninth (39th) Senatorial District and making provision for the election of a Senator therefrom.

NO. 7 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE VIII Proposing an amendment to Article VIII by adding thereto an additional section to be numbered by the Secretary of State, providing for Monroe County, Florida, after January 1, 1954 for assessment by the County Tax Assessor of all state, county, school and municipal taxes to be levied in said county by the state, county, county school board, school districts, special tax parcel districts, port districts, drainage districts and any other taxing districts that their laws be so amended and provision for the Legislature to fix the amount and provide for the duties and compensation of the Tax Assessor.

Only 7 Jets Lost By U.S. in Bagging 62 Russian Planes

By GEORGE A. McARTHUR
SEOUL, Korea (AP) — The Air Force announced today that only seven American jets were shot down in the furious September air battles that cost the Reds at least 62 MIGs.

The announcement came soon after the Air Force's attack on the month of air blows with a massive B29 attack against a sprawling chemical plant only 40 yards from the Manchurian border. An armada of 48 Superforts dropped about 425 tons of high explosives on the Namsan plant in one of the biggest B29 raids of the war. The Air Force said the Reds threw up "incapable to moderate" ground fire. All B29s returned safely.

Brightly colored pennants fluttered on the Western Front as Chinese Communists celebrated the third anniversary of the founding of their Red regime. The Reds added a gruesome touch by displaying the body of a dead American soldier before one forward position.

Savage close-in fighting flared on the Central Front west of the Pukhan River when a company of Chinese tried to capture an Allied hill position.

The hand-to-hand fighting lasted nearly two hours. U. N. troops stood their ground and forced the Chinese back with bayonets, grenades and fists.

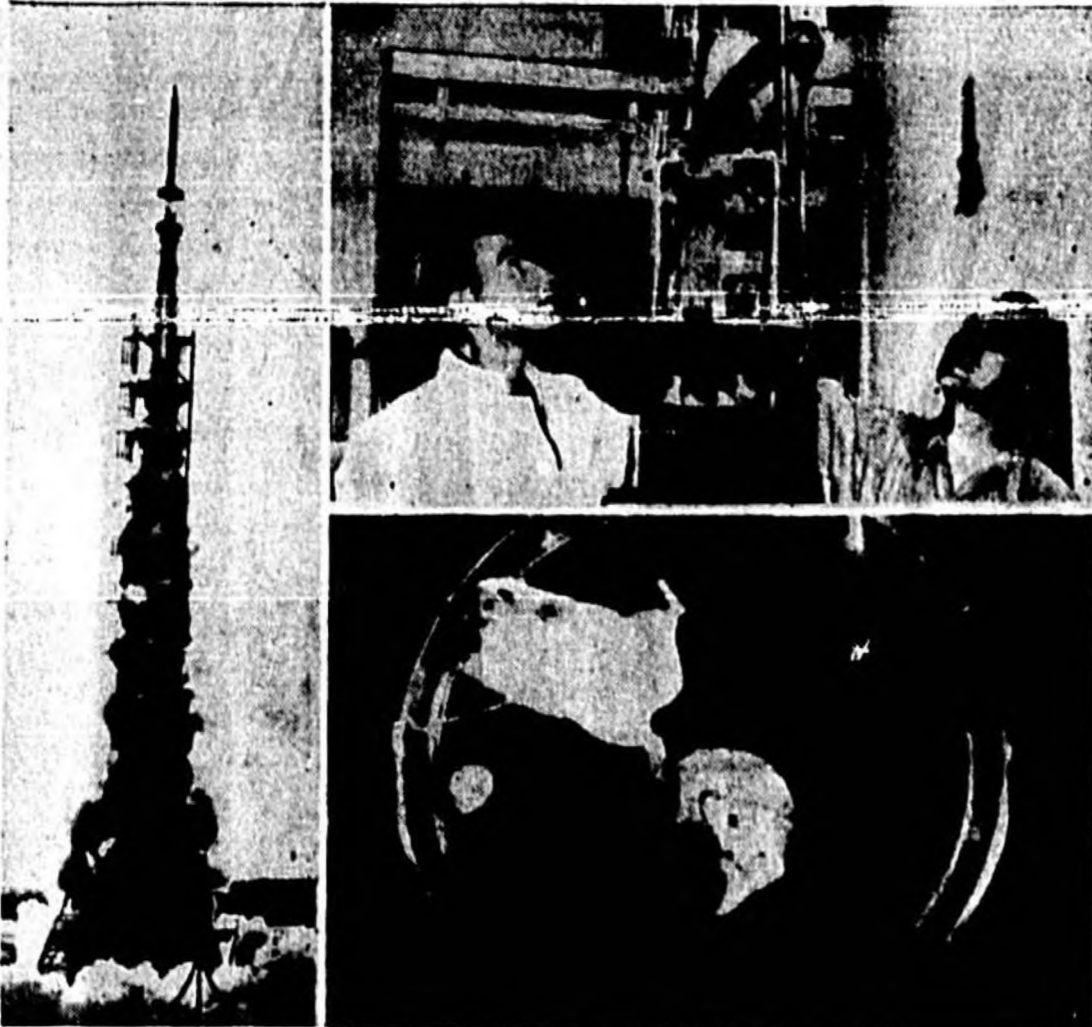

The U. S. Eighth Army said the Reds lost 3,171 men killed, wounded and captured last week in ground fighting.

The B29 attack on the Namsan plant was the first of the war. An Air Force spokesman said it was "one of the most important industrial facilities in North Korea." It produced tungsten, carbide, black lead and other chemicals used in making munitions.

The bombers made their runs in single file through a network of searchlight beams and ground fire from both sides of the Manchurian border.

Two white mice (bottom) are shown on film after separation of the rocket nose from the Aerobee. Mouse in front is floating in air as is the rubber ball. Other mouse grasps sides of platform. John Lewis Gains Wage Boost But At Harm To Industry

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (AP) — For the second straight year John L. Lewis has come up with a wage boost for his miners without a strike — but at a price that industry leaders say may force many mines out of business.

Southern coal producers came to terms with the United Mine Workers' chief late yesterday, thereby avoiding a threatened walkout today of their 100,000 miners.

The Dixie group agreed to the same terms Lewis had previously negotiated with the rest of the industry: a $1.90 daily pay increase, plus a 10-cent-a-ton hike in the operator-paid royalty for the miner's welfare fund. The daily wage now becomes $18.25 and the royalty 40 cents a ton.

A number of industry leaders said they undoubtedly a number of mines would have to close, rather than try to pay the new costs. These, they said, are the less-mechanized, hand-labor mines where labor cost is relatively greater.

Even union leaders conceded privately some mines would have to close. One union man told a reporter: "Just as the farmer with a single hand plow can't keep going today against the competition from his mechanized farm, neither can a coal producer keep going without modern methods."

Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers Association, said a number of his member owners plan to close down some of their high-cost mines.

Moody said this would be true even if the government insists coal price ceilings. On that point Moody observed: "I'm going to try to get a dollar a ton increase because, if we don't get it, we won't be in the coal business very long."

Sam Jethroe of the Braves established the International League record for stolen bases with 89 in 1949.

Fisticuffs And Defiance Mark House Red Probe

Lawyer Witness Says
He Holds Only Contempt
For Hearing

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Defiance from six attorney witnesses and an eruption of fisticuffs in a picket line marked the second day of hearings of the House Un-American Activities Committee in Los Angeles.

The parade of lawyer witnesses was topped by Ben Margolis, 44, chief counsel for 11 California Communist leaders recently convicted of conspiring to teach and advocate overthrow of the government by force.

At the outset yesterday, Margolis attempted to read a statement. When he was told to file it instead, he snapped.

"Stool pigeons can say anything they want to before this committee," Margolis said. "I'll make a speech if you get down on your knees."

He emphatically refused to answer questions about Communist affiliations, if any. At one point he declared: "I am not going to answer that question, whether you shoot or how you try. Once the committee can say that you can be a member of that and not a member of that, that's the end of Democracy."

At another point Chairman John S. Wood (D-Cal.) said he was growing tired of Margolis' "contemptuous attitude." Margolis replied: "I feel nothing but contempt for this committee and I'm proud of it. This committee has no right to tell people how to think."

Several hundred persons picketed the Federal Building, scene of the hearings on Communist infiltration into the professions. The demonstration was staged by the Southern California Council to Abolish the Committee on Un-American Activities.

Pickets picketed the pickets. Two anti-Communist pickets started trading punches with each other after one of them, George Redman, 28, claimed the other, John Huya, 39, stepped on his toes. Huya emerged with a bloody nose.

Truman Attack

Truman made a lot of progress on that too.

"We've made it possible for housewives to get cheap electricity so that they can afford to have electric washers to do the dishes and we have brought electricity to millions of homes that never had it before. And this has been done over the opposition of the Republicans and the utility companies."

And he said he wanted to make it clear that "no one can accuse the Republican party of doing anything to help the housewife wash the dishes."

Henry House, the world's fourth largest, third highest concrete dam, towers 544 feet above the bed of the south fork of the Flat Head River.

Truman said that Rep. Mansfield (R-Mont., now running for the Senate against Sen. Ecton R-Mont.) was the man, more than any other, responsible for the dam, and "he is the man you are going to send to the Senate this year."

City Of Sanford

Sanford's 1952-53 utility revenue tax another $41,000. Some $100,000 is set up as anticipated from the Department of Water Policy for operating expenses of the general government.

The operating levy on the tax roll produces $80,000, and the debt service levy $110,000.

House Probers Blame McGrath For Balking Quiz

Say Justice Department Tried To Keep Files Out Of Sight

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON.—House investigators said today that former Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath showed "no enthusiasm" for a Justice Department clean-up rather, he "appeared to wish to delay and frustrate investigation."

From their findings, investigators said, it appears clear that the Justice Department under McGrath wanted to prevent an examination of its files for reasons which "cannot but arouse suspicion."

McGrath, fired last April 3 by President Truman after the administration clean up drive bogged down, was raked over for a second time in Part II of a report by a House judiciary subcommittee.

Chapter I of the report, issued last Monday, criticized McGrath's appointment of Newbold Morris, New York lawyer, to head the clean up campaign and questioned McGrath's good faith in making the appointment.

In reply, McGrath commented simply that "the report is beneath the dignity of men who care to be honest and honorable."

Advised of today's second installment, the former attorney general told a reporter he had no intention of engaging in a cross-fire of discussion on each of the committee's interim reports.

"I shall wait until they have concluded their work," he said, "and at that time I shall say what I think is appropriate."

In today's installment—the third in the next week—the subcommittee, headed by Rep. Chas. (D.K.) McNair, criticized McGrath as an official who exhibited "a deplorable lack of knowledge of the department he was supposed to administer."

"His testimony and his record as attorney general indicate that he was content to let the status quo remain without knowing what the status quo was."

In particular, investigators said of McGrath:

1. He made "inappropriate appointments to high office" especially the appointment of A. Devitt Vanech as deputy attorney general. Vanech, investigators said, had made "improper representations to gain admittance to practice before the Tennessee and U. S. Bars."

Vanech was shown by investigators to have failed the District of Columbia Bar examinations three times and the Virginia Bar examination once before being admitted to the Tennessee Bar as non-resident.

2. He (McGrath) had little interest in purging the Justice Department of "wrongdoers and incompetents" and gave little aid to Newbold Morris after naming him to direct the ill-fated house-cleaning in Washington last spring. McGrath fired Morris just before he himself was forced to resign by President Truman.

3. He "completely" to cooperate with Chief committee investigators and "surrounded himself with subordinates of the same view."

Investigators added, however, that "in fairness to Mr. McGrath, it should be noted the majority of his subordinates were originally placed in top positions by Tom Clark, McGrath's predecessor who now is a Supreme Court Justice."

One was Vanech, the report noted. Another was T. Lamar Caudle, fired by President Truman over McGrath's head as chief of the Tax Division last November following tax scandal disclosures.

The report devoted considerable space to the committee's difficulties in obtaining information from the Justice Department prior to the appointment of James P. McGrath as attorney general.

The report said delaying and hampering tactics were employed by McGrath, and subsequently by Acting Atty. Gen. Philip B. Perlman.

An easy roller down the first base line.

One run, two hits, no errors, none left.

Third Inning Yankees
McDougal tied it at 1-1 with a homer into the left field stands. Martin and Reynolds went down swinging. Bauer was called out on strikes.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

Third Inning Dodgers
Furillo fouled to Berro and Black watched a third straight strike whiz by.

Cox drew the game's first walk on four pitches but went out trying to steal Berro in Rizzuto who made a spectacular catch of a bad throw.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fourth Inning Yankees
Rizzuto singled into left and went to second when Mantle beat out a bunt to the left of the mound.

Mantle was forced at second. Hodges to Reese, and Rizzuto went to third on Berro's grounder.

Furillo made a running catch of Collins' liner to right and drove Rizzuto back to third with a fine throw to the plate.

Noren rolled out, Robinson to Hodges.

No runs, two hits, no errors, two left.

Fourth Inning Dodgers
Reese lined to Mantle, Snider doubled off the right field screen and Robinson walked.

Campanella grounded into a double play. Martin tagging Robinson and throwing to Collins.

Fifth Inning Yankees
McDougal drew the first walk from Black but was out at third on Patko's fine throw when he tried to go too far on Martin's single to left. Martin went to second.

Reese threw out Reynolds and Patko made a sensational diving catch of Bauer's drive to left center.

Fifth Inning Dodgers
Patko filed in Bauer, McDougal threw out Hodges and Furillo went down the same way.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Sixth Inning Yankees
Rizzuto fanned, Mantle singled to left and was forced at second on Berro's grounder, Hodges to Reese.

Collins grounded out to Hodges, unassisted.

No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Sixth Inning Dodgers
Black again was called out on strikes and Cox fouled to Berro.

Reese singled to right and went to second on Reynolds' wild pitch. Snider walloped a towering home-run over the scoreboard in right field to make it 3-1. It was his first Series homer.

Robinson was safe on McDougal's error, first of the game. Reynolds threw wild trying to catch Robinson off first and the runner went to second.

Hitzerto tossed out Campanella.

Two runs, two hits, two errors, one left.

Seventh Inning Yankees
Noren walked but McDougal hit into a double play, Cox to Robinson to Hodges.

Cox followed this with an even more spectacular play, nailing Martin's vicious grounder to his backhand and getting his man with a fine, long throw.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Seventh Inning Dodgers
Patko filed long to Bauer. Hodges was called out on strikes and Furillo lined to Rizzuto.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Eighth Inning Yankees
Gene Woodling batted for Reynolds and tripled off the screen in right center. He scored on Bauer's fly to Snider.

Rizzuto filed to Furillo and Mantle fanned.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

Puerto Rican Fruit Giving Bad Name To State's Grapefruit

LAKELAND (AP)—Puerto Rican grapefruit is giving the Florida variety a bad name in the North, the Federal Shipping Control Committee has been told.

Several citrus men told the committee Tuesday that Puerto Rican grapefruit, imported without any maturity requirements, is being retailed in many markets as Florida fruit. Florida grapefruit must pass state maturity tests and grade and size regulations set by these committees.

Committee men asked M. F. Miller, U. S. Department of Agriculture representative here, to see what could be done about the situation. Miller said the import duty could be raised on foreign grapefruit if unfair competition is shown and he would investigate.

In order to create a steadier market for grapefruit, the committee removed the smallest size of pink seedless grapefruit from the approved shipping lists, effective Oct. 6, for two weeks. The small fruit has been meeting with heavy price discount.

The new regulation on pink seedless makes size of the smallest that can be shipped after this week. Current regulations on all other citrus varieties were retained.

The committee rejected a suggestion that orange rules be relaxed to allow slightly smaller fruit to leave the state. They said quantity shipments of oranges aren't likely before the third week in October and the committee will meet again before then to take any steps that seem advisable.

While these committees were considering the fresh fruit situation, the Florida Citrus Commission reported sales of frozen concentrate for the week ending Sept. 29 were 1,041,000 gallons, down 64,000 gallons from the week before. The average retail price was 14.1 cents a six ounce can, down three-tenths of a cent.

Sales of single strength orange juice were up 63,000 cases to 395,500 cases to 240,000 and blended orange grapefruit juice up three thousand one hundred cases to 89,000.

MARKET SCHOOL
A two-day school of instruction for new county committeemen in the Production and Marketing Administration program will begin tomorrow at the Seminole County Court House, according to Homer Ballard, county administrative officer for the PMA.

The school will be conducted to acquaint the committeemen with methods to be used in contacting farmers with regard to the most needed practices available under the 1933 PMA program, he said. The deadline for filing under the program is Nov. 29.

DALE CARNEGIE COURSE
A full class will attend the final of the series of sessions of the Dale Carnegie course in public speaking tonight at McKinley Hall, Ozma Osmond, Mount Verde, will be the instructor.

According to James Arch of the Florida Institute, sponsor of the course, an "excellent class of prominent business men and women" will participate in the activity.

Classes will continue twice a week each Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. and at 4:30 p. m. on each Thursday night, for 15 weeks.

Eighth Inning Dodgers
Ray Scarborough went in to pitch for the Yankees and fanned Black. McDougal threw out Cox but Reese restored the Dodgers' two-run lead with a homer into the left field stands. This and a round-tripper in 1940 made him the first Dodger ever to get two homers in a Series play.

Scarborough threw out Snider.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

Ninth Inning Yankees
Berro filed to Snider, Robinson threw out Collins and Noren was called out on strikes.

No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

Senator Boyle

(Boyle) he had contacted "were afraid of it."

Amendment No. 4 deals with providing an additional circuit judge for the Second Judicial Circuit, embracing the state capital, Tallahassee, while amendments Nos. 5 and 6 provide for additional senatorial districts in Bay and Washington counties (one senator allowed) and Monroe county.

Amendments Nos. 7 and 8 deal with the consolidation of certain county-city functions. The first deals with duties of the tax assessor in Monroe county while the latter with the tax assessor in Lee county. Amendment No. 9 concerns the abolishment of the office of collector in Dale county while the 10th amendment deals with abolishing the Court of Record in Escambia county.

The final amendment deals with placing county officials in Escambia county on a salary basis instead of having them receive their pay under the fee system.

The senator pointed out that the state legislature is working on an amendment of similar nature which would affect the whole state.

Concerning one of the additional bills he said, "I think nothing is really necessary," and asked that the action receive support. He explained the proposed legislation applies only to state and county highways, providing for legal assistance in the "beautification" of them. The proposal provides definite rulings concerning what may be erected on right-of-way.

The ballot on the county hospital proposes a three mill tax for the construction and maintenance of a 25-bed county hospital. Senator Boyle said he pointed out that 60 per cent of the funds for the construction of the hospital would be provided through the sale of bonds and the remainder through a federal grant.

"We're going to get one, one way or another, before long, I'm sure," he said. A commission appointed by the Governor to study the problem would figure the necessary amount of funds which would be needed in the project.

In speaking of the proposed amendments concerning the addition of senatorial districts in the state he recommended voting for the sixth and against the fifth amendment.

The state of Florida is being run by north Florida," he exclaimed. He said that legislators in the northern portion were "on the majority side and make us pay the bill."

He provided ballots for those attending the club luncheon and explained the procedure in voting. He pointed out that a special primary would be held Oct. 14 for the nomination of a Supreme Court Justice. This space was left blank on the sample ballot. He also provided literature which dealt favorably with Amendment No. 1.

In a full class will attend the final of the series of sessions of the Dale Carnegie course in public speaking tonight at McKinley Hall, Ozma Osmond, Mount Verde, will be the instructor.

According to James Arch of the Florida Institute, sponsor of the course, an "excellent class of prominent business men and women" will participate in the activity.

Classes will continue twice a week each Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. and at 4:30 p. m. on each Thursday night, for 15 weeks.

GAMBLING TAX ATTACKED

The four, all charged by a federal grand jury with not buying stamps, are Travis Dallas Bowen, Winter Haven, and three Tampanians: Steve Rodriguez, Manuel Fernandes and Theo John Lelekis.

Hearing Is Slated For Casselberry Limits On Nov 8

Circuit Court proceedings to determine the legality of annexation of certain sections of Highway 17-22 by the town of Casselberry will be held Nov. 8, according to papers on file at the Circuit Clerk's office today.

Suit has been brought against the town by Richard W. Fern, attorney general of Florida, in response to objections voiced by property owners along the highway right-of-way.

Casselberry is attempting to annex six parcels of land, now in Fern Park, located on approximately two miles of highway between the north and south limits of the town.

A writ for appearance was served on H. R. Jones, mayor of Casselberry, by Sheriff P. A. Moro last week and was filed in the Circuit Clerk's office today.

Co-relators or objectors listed in the information on file are Mr. and Mrs. Delmar T. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Neill O'Brien, C. A. Wales, Frank Russell, Mr. and Mrs. George McGrath, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bright, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Eidel and Vaughan, Inc. They have employed Attorney Richard H. Cooper, Orlando, to represent them.

The information relates that an ineffective attempt has been made by the town council of Casselberry to annex portions of Highway 17-22 which are not already in the city limits.

The file of the suit continues that land under question generally is not considered a part of Casselberry as they have for a long time been viewed as a part of the community of Fern Park. Co-relators, the information states, have mailing addresses at the Fern Park Post Office, and, in advertising their products, have eroded the point of shipment as Fern Park, and have established their commercial dealings in such a manner.

The "attended annexation of said highway gives an erroneous impression that the property of said co-relators is a part of said town, thereby decreasing and diminishing its value," the information file states. The annexation also "would result in jurisdictional questions involving traffic regulations and regulations of outdoor advertising along said highway right-of-way which can only be settled with finality by a judicial determination of issues herein."

Territories in question, it said, are used solely for highway purposes and are not needed for any municipal purpose.

Driver's Licenses Now Total 11,574

A total of 11,574 driver's licenses were issued in September prior to the deadline yesterday, Mrs. Leta Fowler, clerk to the Seminole County Judge's office, said today.

The annual renewal business for the month was transacted Monday when 200 licenses were bought by motorists. A total of 963 licenses were issued on the final day.

The delinquency fee of $1 went into effect today. Any license applications that were mailed and not marked prior to midnight, Sept. 30, she said, will be honored for the regular price.

Speaking of the large task, Mrs. Fowler said, "Everything went off very well. Everybody was generally cooperative, aside from the fact so many waited until the last minute."

The office was flooded with mail from license seekers.

Customist Frank Henry Temple Bellows, in 1932, drew the first picture of "Uncle Sam," whose original was Samuel Wilson, a U. S. Army inspector of provisions.

Campaign Lingo Is Used In Describing Ordinary Activities

By HAL ROYLE
HOMETOWN, U. S. A.—Willbur Peed-Je, America's average citizen, joined a group reading a notice his boss had just pinned to the office bulletin board.

The notice said:

"To all employees:

"The management has been asked whether it plans to start a gift fund to retain high caliber employ-

"The boss' boss' office is getting a new job at three times their present salary. We don't."

"A statement of the firm's financial position is attached. Attention is directed to the portions in red ink."

The management also announces that if the employees wish to start a private fund to help the firm meet its expenses their contributions will be gratefully accepted. (Signed) THE BOSS.

Willbur shook his head. Later in the morning he sneaked downstairs to get a haircut on company time.

Before attacking with his shears, the barber bowed and handed him a sheet of paper covered with figures.

"What is this, Tony?" asked Willbur.

"My profit and loss statement for the last 20 years," replied Tony.

"What do I care about that?" said Willbur.

"I'm tired of hearing the public say barbers are scalping them," said Tony. "You will please note my car is five years old and I am still using the same scissors. I started business with just can't afford a new pair."

"Taxinated, Willbur studied the figures. After work he dropped into a bar across the street. With his martini the bartender held out a black notebook.

"My income tax payments for the last five years," he said. "The politicians say they are clean as a hound's tooth—well, I'm cleaner than a toothless hound. You can see no tax payment for 1949. I want to go into that in detail. I worked for my brother that year and anybody knows when he works for a member of his own family he can't even steal enough to make him owe taxes."

Still later, when he entered his neighborhood grocery store, Willbur was dazed by the butcher scribbling like mad.

"The housewives are demanding a complete accounting of my finances," he said. "They even started an ugly rumor that I was curing my lumbago with a mustard plaster made of 500 bills. Come with me, Mr. Peed-Je. I want you to know the full truth."

Willbur followed him into the back room, where the butcher peeled to the waist. Five 500 bills were bandaged across one kidney.

"You can see how easily things get exaggerated, can't you?" demanded the butcher.

"The political candidates now have got the voters following their bare-your-backbone campaigns," he told his wife, and added jokingly, "When are you going to give a public report on your private fur coat fund?"

"I'm ailed you brought that up, Willbur," said Trellis Mae. She went to a vase and shook out a small alarm of paper.

"The fund is empty," she said. "But I have ten of your 100 U. S. totaling $10. What I want to know is what you did with the money. And don't tell me you used it to fight communism. Are you set on fighting that new blame sloganizer in your office?"

Willbur's mouth opened and closed like a stunted goldfish.

"I deny all," he said. "I will not dignify such baseless accusations with an answer. This trend toward financial nudism has got to stop somewhere, and it is going to stop right here in your office."

But if you think it did—well you just don't know Trellis Mae.

Marion Davies Will Toss Big Party For Singer Johnny Ray

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD—Marion Davies, once movieiland's most fabulous hostess, will toss a $25,000 party tomorrow night for Johnny Ray, a singer she must have heard but never has met.

The source gives every indication of being the biggest social affair in Hollywood in years. The accepted list, numbering 500 already, is growing—years like pages from the movie almanac.

Miss Davies has talked with Ray on the phone and she knows his bride, the former Marilyn Morrison. Mrs. Ray is the daughter of Charlie Morrison, owner of the Mocambo. But what brings Ray to town, ironically, is an engagement at Ciro's, the Mocambo's rival for Sunset Strip night life trade.

Ciro's signed Ray for a crying engagement at the first inkling of Johnny's romance with Morrison's daughter.

Capt. Horace Brown, Miss Davies' seafaring husband, will be at her side receiving guests in her spacious Beverly Hills home. Some of those will be Joan Crawford, Gary Cooper, Hoagy Carmichael, Ethel Merman, Debbie Reynolds, Jack Benny, Spike Jones, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Cliff Webb, Conrad Hilton, Van Johnson, Edward G. Robinson, Bill Boyd, Jean Simmons, Stewart Granger, Bill Powell, Charles Farrell, Jerry Lewis, Esther Williams, Lana Turner, Fernando Lamas and Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll, better known as Amos 'n' Andy.

Huge tents will be erected on the grounds. Three rooms within the mansion are being redecorated to resemble three New York night spots—the Stork Club, 21 and El Morocco. There will be three bands and a host of butlers to serve. There will be a half dozen bars.

It will be something like the parties Marion used to give in her king sized beach front cottage at Santa Monica.

An aide to the former movie queen estimates the cost of this affair at $25,000—and that's conservative," he added.

Jacobson's New Store

The interior of Jacobson's ultra modern store at 228 East First Street which will hold its formal opening tomorrow night between the hours of 8:00 and 10:00 o'clock. The store will feature women's apparel and accessories, lingerie and shoes. Striking in store designing is evident in the unique treatment of curving and slanting walls and the unusual color combination of the equipment and fixtures. At the left a partial view of the saloon bar and other features are attractively displayed in the glass case and recessed fixtures at the right.

Russia Claims It Is Establishing New Record In Grain Production

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
MOSCOW—The biggest news in Russia this fall is the harvest. "Almost everywhere" the agricultural scientist I. Yakushkin wrote in the Literary Gazette. "From the Estonia Republic to the Khabarovsk region in the Far East, collective and state farms have raised a high harvest."

Statistics on the results, even in the most general form, will not be available for some weeks or even months, but Russians in Moscow already are frantically claiming that the all-time record for grain crops in the USSR will be broken.

For over four years now the Soviet grain harvest has hovered seven billion pecks, as announced by responsible officials here. (A peck is 36 English pounds.)

This is the figure which up to now in the Soviet Union has indicated a good crop. It is the equivalent of roughly 115 million metric tons.

The all-time grain harvest high was scored two years ago in 1950 with a crop of 16 billion pecks (124 million metric tons). In 1951 had crop weather in certain areas led to a "needle-wielding" to waken needlessly at all hours of the night to give the drink to a sick child, and (4) build up fears in a child of a "needle-wielding doctor."

Lincoln Protests To Vote For Eisenhower

MARTINSBURG, Va.—Mrs. Odell Eason Taylor, whose father was Ab. Lincoln, today protesting will vote for the Republican in presidential candidate.

Although 90 years old, Mrs. Taylor is actually going up on the top of politics. She was living in France when women won the right to vote in 1920. And after returning to the country about 17 years ago she lived in Washington, D. C. when residents do not have the right to vote.

She moved here more than a year ago, long enough to qualify for the year's election.

Caution Advised In Appraising Claims Of Wonder Drugs

By FRANK CAREY
WASHINGTON—Doctors should be wary of appraising the powers of the wonder-drugs in the way grandmas measured the success of onion poultices, a Washington physician says.

Declaring that medical practitioners are all too prone to credit a wonder-drug like penicillin with the cure when a patient treated with such a drug for a poorly defined ailment—especially of the nose or throat—gets well, Dr. John A. Washington told the annual Scientific Assembly of the District of Columbia Medical Society late yesterday.

"Like grandmothers with onion poultices we credit our success to the medicine in use at the time the temperature drops," he said.

The George Washington University pediatrician said that while the antibiotic wonder-drugs are valuable tools of certain specific infections, there are others against which the drugs have no power at all—and that some of these ailments are subject to spontaneous recovery.

He made the remarks in cautioning doctors against "unnecessary" use of the antibiotics lest they be in the risk of some kind of a reaction from the drug; (2) subject a family to unnecessary expense for the drug; (3) cause mothers

Teachers In Public Schools Eligible For Fellowship

NEW YORK (Special)—Teachers in the public high schools of sixteen states, including Florida, are eligible to apply for fellowships for graduate work in the humanities offered by the John Hay Whitney Foundation.

The program, which was announced today, Men and women selected for the fellowships are designated as John Hay Fellows and will attend Columbia University in 1953 with full salary, tuition, and transportation paid by the Foundation.

States from which qualified teachers may apply before December 15, 1952 are the following: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Wyoming.

Each teacher accepted for study as a John Hay Fellow will be granted a year's leave by his employing school system and agrees to return following his university work. An applicant must be nominated by his local superintendent of schools or other official who is in a position to help him to plan a proposed program of graduate study and to refer to his own experience when he returns to his school.

The first twenty teachers selected of last May for these fellowships will be in attendance at the two-year program during the present school year. These fellows must be women received special stipends of $500 per year from the Foundation, earmarked by the Foundation.

In 1952 for work in the humanities over a three-year period. Members of this initial group of John Hay Fellows are from school systems in certain states of the Pacific Northwest, Middle West, Upper South, and Middle Atlantic regions. They represent the field of English, social studies, Latin, and the fine arts.

The study during the second year of the program, teachers in other subjects may apply also, providing each individual making application has demonstrated a combination of talents as expressed in literature, language, art, and history.

To qualify, an applicant must be teaching at the senior high school level in one of the sixteen designated states, and have a minimum of five years of experience in this field in the present school system. The teacher must be between 30 and 45 years of age, and should hold at least a bachelor's degree from a recognized college or university.

December 15, 1952 is the deadline for applications for study during the academic year 1953-54. Inquiries from teachers and administrators should be directed to the Division of Humanities, John Hay Whitney Foundation, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, N. Y.

Collier County To Afford Residents
Public Health Aid

EVERETT SPAHN, Collier county health officer, today announced that the county will become Florida's first health department to provide a new health service to its residents when a new health department is organized here Oct. 1.

"This means that our work of establishing local public health services in one county," Spahn said, "without an organized county health department," says Dr. William T. Scudder, State Health Officer with headquarters in Jacksonville.

"With the establishment of the Collier County Health Department with headquarters at the County Seat of Escalante, the public health services of Collier County will be covered by this protective feature."

Collier County will join with its northern neighbor, Lee, in establishing the new two-county public health unit.

Funds will come from state and local sources, with $6,997 provided through the State Board of Health, and $7,470 assigned by Collier County. The health department will be organized for the first year of operation Dr. Scudder said.

The fund for operation will provide the services of a full-time nurse, sanitarian and clerk. Dr. Merwin Bushward, Lee County Health Officer, will spend part of his time in Collier County as medical director of the two-county health unit.

Other personnel assigned to the unit include: Sanitarians, William Boyles, and Mrs. Thea Call. Both have previous experience in county public health work.

Choice of a nurse will be made during the next few days, it was stated.

Dr. George A. Dams of Jacksonville, director of the State Board of Health, said efforts are continuing to organize a county health department in St. Johns.

Collier County Commissioners voted at one time to establish such a service. Dr. Dams said "but made no funds available at that time." The State Board of Health hopes that St. Johns County will soon join the other 66 counties by providing for a modern health department.

Florida Banks Are Cited For Work In Aiding Agriculture

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (Special)—The banks of Florida were cited today for the outstanding service to the state's agriculture, when the Florida Bankers Association was presented with the 1951 award of the Agricultural Commission of the Agricultural Bankers Association.

The award was presented at the annual dinner of the A. B. A. 78th Annual Convention, which has been in session here since Monday. Dale S. Smith, Cashier, High Springs Bank, High Springs, Chairman of the Florida Bankers Association Agricultural Committee.

The award was presented in recognition of the high quality of service banking services provided to the farmers of the state as well as for agricultural projects sponsored by the Association's member banks in the agricultural field during the past year. This is the sixth consecutive year that the state's banks have received the award.

Points toward the award are given by the A. B. A. for such activities as promotion of soil conservation and land management; cooperation with the extension service of the state agricultural colleges in holding the farm children clinics and in other activities; support of farm youth groups such as Future Farmers of America and 4-H Clubs; special activities such as farm credit schools known as the Bankers Agricultural Credit Conference; and other programs which strengthen banker-farmer relationships.

Quality of regular bank service is given large consideration in awarding the award. In addition, price increases are placed upon the appointment of bankers in each county to represent the state bankers association in agricultural matters and coordinate the farm programs of the banks in their respective communities.

Committee Considers Stricter Fruit Rules

LAKELAND.—With activities of the new citrus season speeding up daily, the Federal Citrus Control Committee met today to consider stricter regulations on fresh fruit leaving the state.

The first car of Florida oranges shipped this season was moved Monday by an Orlando firm. Citrus shipments have been increasing for 10 days.

Dr. W. L. Hester, committee chairman, will preside over the first of eight operations for the new citrus year Monday. That will be to determine whether it is safe to export citrus.

Florida Citrus Mutual said other states probably will make their own laws before opening.

TO PROTECT REPARATIONS

CAROL.—Eighteen members of the Agricultural Bankers Association will join other A. B. A. county representatives in a series of negotiations agreement between West Germany and France. The A. B. A. will be one of the representatives. The group should be in Berlin before the end of the year.

Eisenhower's Temper Is Being Aroused As Harry "Pours It On"

General Set To Lambast Truman As He Pushes His Drive Through Illinois

By DON WHITEHEAD
Aboard EISENHOWER Special on Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's presidential drive surged into Illinois today with reports that his temper is being aroused to hot resentment under the bitter criticism leveled against him by President Truman.

The long time friendship between the two appeared to be at a breaking point as they exchanged long-range verbal blows, obviously aimed at each other's prestige. Truman has termed the five-year general—once reported to be his choice for the White House—his "front man" for lobbyists and he has accused Eisenhower of misleading the American people about the perils of communism after World War II.

In turn, Eisenhower has called Truman's administration a corrupt, extravagant, bungling leadership weak in morals and in the pursuit of justice. He called it a "scandalous day" administration. An Eisenhower aide said the general was ready to attack the Truman administration all through his while stop push into Illinois—installing what he has called a false wartime prosperity. He has insisted Republican leadership can bring prosperity without war.

Eisenhower's schedule on this 28-state campaign called for him to make six speeches during the day in the home state of his Democratic opponent. He has a four-hour opening with a whistle-stop at Chicago and ending with a major speech tonight at Peoria at 9:30 p. m., Eastern Standard Time. Then he was due to head tomorrow into Wisconsin, the home state of GOP Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, whose Communist-involvement charges have created a furor across the nation in both political parties.

There was considerable speculation on just how far Eisenhower would go in endorsing McCarthy and whether the two would be side by side in the rear platform appearance that the general is due to make in Wisconsin. Privately, Eisenhower has been bitterly critical of McCarthy's attacks on his friend, Gen. George C. Marshall, former secretary of state, former secretary of defense, and wartime chief of staff of the Army. But he has said he would support McCarthy if necessary for election and presumably this would include entering it.

Carolina Cancels 2 Games Due To Polio
CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—The University of North Carolina today cancelled its football games of the next two Saturdays because four students have been afflicted with infantile paralysis. One is a football player, Fullback Harold Davidson of Murphy, N. C.

The games cancelled were those with the University of Georgia Saturday at Athens, Ga., and with North Carolina State at Raleigh, Oct. 11.

Wally Butts, Georgia head coach and athletic director, said he was informed by North Carolina officials just after lunch today. Butts said he is trying to line up an outstanding service team to fill in the date.

Butts said he was told by phone that only one player was stricken by the disease, but that the case was a bad one.

He said Carolina physicians termed the game "absolutely impossible."

Elks Seek Funds For Harry - Anna Home
Various activities of the Harry, Anna Crippled Children's Home, owned and operated by the Florida State Elks Association, are vividly portrayed in an exhibit on display at Cowan's Stars on East First Street.

The treatment of a particularly crippled child is graphically illustrated through a series of slides which show steps leading to an eventual cure.

Russia Issues Stiff Warning Against Danes

Says Use By NATO Of Bases In Denmark Is Threat To Security Of Red Union

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
MOSCOW (AP)—Russia has accused Denmark of negotiating with the United States to set up NATO bases for foreign troops on Danish territory. Such bases, a firmly worded Russian note declared, would create a "threat to the security of the Soviet Union."

The formal Russian protest published today in all Moscow newspapers and delivered yesterday to the Danish minister here, said establishment of such bases would violate Danish-Soviet agreements reached since the end of World War II.

"The Soviet government puts upon the Danish government all responsibility for possible consequences of such a policy," the Russian note declared.

The protest followed close on Soviet press attacks on the recent visit of NATO Ambassador Hans Christian Andersen to Moscow and Denmark. Both Atlantic Pact members. Russian newspapers had described the visit as "a move toward a landing of U. S. Marines on Denmark. Inland Penetration as evidence of aggressive intentions toward Russia."
