

NEW OLD BUSINESS STREET

In the days when Sanford was the greatest city in South Florida and the only city that had railroad and steamboat connections, and the bulk of trade and travel stopped here Sanford avenue was the main street of the city and that part of the city was the main residence section of Sanford. All the houses that were of any proportions, the stores and the hotels aside from the Sanford House were on Sanford avenue and some traces of the former greatness of the early days were visible a few years ago, although reminders of former days by the appearance in Whittier's poem, "Like a ragged beggar sunning."

From time to time the stores moved and many of the residents moved to other parts of the city and Sanford avenue was left to a few of the faithful who still had hopes of the return of the pristine glory or who could not afford the high rents of the more fashionable part of the business section of Sanford. Some time ago Sanford avenue was visited by a devastating fire that swept two sides of the avenue clean for almost a block and true to the natural order of things the rebuilding was of a more substantial and better architectural order and so far has this building progressed that a visitor to Sanford would now be lost among the elegant brick buildings that are going up on every hand. The Duhart block has been finished, and by the way this block shows the thrift and enterprise of the colored people of our city, this new block being owned by a colored man who after his property was destroyed by fire raised the money for the new building and built of brick some of the nicest store rooms in the city. Just opposite this block C. H. Lefler is building a handsome brick block to take the place of the frame building destroyed by fire. Mr. Lefler is one of the pioneer owners of Sanford avenue property and has had an abiding faith in that section of the city and is now in a fair way of having his ideas realized. His new block is a credit to the city and like the new buildings going up in every part of the city these rooms have, all been spoken for weeks ahead of time.

There is rumor of several more brick blocks on Sanford avenue and that many of the merchants doing business in the higher rental districts will move to Sanford avenue and with First street extended beyond Sanford avenue and the lake front bulkheaded Sanford avenue will arouse from the sleep of a quarter century—arouse in earnest and the building operations now in progress will only be a starter for the good things in store not only for Sanford avenue but every other part of the city.

POSTMASTER IS SAFE

National Committeeman States That Republican Appointments Hold Good
Correspondence has been very active since the election of Woodrow Wilson by those who have aspirations for the large public offices of the government and petitions are being drawn up and letters are being written asking for endorsements, until some prominent men have on file stacks of letters along this very line, to be answered.

National Committeeman for Florida John T. G. Crawford was seen at his office just previous to his departure for Chicago and New York and was asked in regard to federal officers holding commissions, if they would go out of office with the beginning of the Democratic administration.

Mr. Crawford explained that postmasters and all other officers in Florida, appointed by the President, except the internal revenue collector, held their commissions for four years from their date and that in his opinion the President would not remove any such officers except for cause.

"Under such circumstances," said Mr. Crawford, "it is useless and you might thoroughly emphasize this fact that it is useless for aspirants to get up petitions at this time. This for the reason that they cannot possibly come up for consideration by the president until the terms of the several officers are about to expire."

In response to another question, as to the number of applicants already received, Mr. Crawford stated that he had already been requested by several hundred Democrats to endorse them, and he hoped other aspirants would bear in mind the fact stated, as it will save them and the senators and congressmen considerable useless correspondence and conversation.—Times-Union.

Soldier Accidentally Killed
Tobe Roberts, twenty years of age, a member of Company F, Florida National Guards, now on duty in Jacksonville was accidentally shot and killed at 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon while on guard duty on Highland avenue.

Roberts, who was the only support of a widowed mother, who resides in Jacksonville was sent out early in the afternoon to do duty along Highway avenue street car line, and it was while at that post that his pistol was accidentally discharged, the bullet going through his wrist and piercing his heart, killing him almost instantly.

Owner of Appeal Suiicides
Girard, Kans., Nov. 11.—J. A. Wayland, a founder and owner of the Appeal to Reason, a Socialist weekly newspaper published here, shot and killed himself in his home last night. Between the leaves of a book found lying on his bed the following note was found:

"The struggle under the competitive system isn't worth the effort; let it pass." Friends of Mr. Wayland attribute the act to his despondency over the death of his wife, who was killed in an automobile accident over a year ago.

Mr. Wayland was to have appeared in the federal court in Fort Scott, Kans., today to answer to a charge preferred by the government against the several editors and the owner of the Appeal to Reason of circulating through the mails defamatory matter concerning an official of the federal prison at Leavenworth.

Can Cut Whiskers Now

Up in Kentucky where the Rambler lived the election of Wilson means one important thing. Old man Joe Jackson can now cut off his whiskers. Down in Western Kentucky, where Mr. Jackson is intimately known, this will be one of the biggest events of the election. Mr. Jackson entered into an agreement in 1896, not to cut his whiskers until a Democrat should be elected President. He did not have a chance to use his scissors or razor in that year or in 1900 or in 1904, but he had hopes in 1908, only to be disappointed. In the meantime the whiskers continued to grow until last year they were down below Mr. Jackson's knees. He wore them on the inside of his shirt, except on state occasions, and was proud of the whiskers. In fact he is so proud of them that it is doubtful if he will cut them off even though he can do so and keep his word not to cut them until a Democrat was elected President.—"Rambler" in St. Petersburg Independent.

Rains for the North

Washington, D. C., Nov. 10.—Rains in the Pacific states and the extreme northwest for another day or two and their extension over the central and northern portions of the country by Tuesday is forecasted in the weekly bulletin of the weather bureau.

"In the Rocky Mountain region and the northwest the rains may change to snow by Tuesday," the bulletin says, "and after that time there will be a marked rise in pressure, accompanied by fair and colder weather, continuing until the end of the week and gradually extending eastward and southward, reaching the middlewest by Wednesday or Thursday, and the eastern states toward the close of the week."

"In the south the weather will be fair and warm in the first half of the week, probably local rains later with falling temperature in the west gulf states."

On the Doctor

A boy had hurt his foot very bad in a factory and was taken care of by the doctor on the place without being any better. His mother tried to persuade him to follow her to town where she knew was a specialist on broken legs, and she persuaded the boy to go with her. The doctor in town examined the leg and foot and found it necessary to pull it hard and the boy screamed fearfully, but the doctor told him that it would get well in a day or two and they went home. "Well," said the mother, "didn't he do it nice?" Yes, said the boy, but I was not foolish enough to give him the sore foot.

Democratic Senate
Washington, Nov. 11.—The positive announcement of the success of Harry Lane, the Democratic candidate for the senate in Oregon, assures Democratic control of the upper house of Congress and places both branches of the national legislature and the Presidency in their hands for the first time in eighteen years. The addition of Oregon to the Democratic list gives that party forth-nine senators, or a majority of two.

In addition to the election of successors to Democratic senators now sitting, Democrats will replace Republican senators from Oregon, New Jersey, Kansas, Colorado, Montana, Delaware and Nevada, and will fill the vacancy in Colorado with a man of their choosing.

The contests in Illinois, where two senators are to be chosen, and in Tennessee and Michigan remain to be decided. The Democrats make positive claims concerning some of the states, but whatever the result in any or all of them, Democratic control of the senate is assured and the Democrats will be able to shape legislation if harmony prevails among them.

At noon yesterday every city car operated upon the Springfield division of the Jacksonville Traction Company's line was called in to the barns on Riverside avenue and manned by street car conductors and motormen, several of whom were in charge of the cars when the strike was called October 29th. According to reports current throughout the downtown district and verified by members of the Jacksonville Traction Company, seventy-five old employees resumed their positions at noon today. This means that enough of the old men have been given positions to equip every car operated upon the Springfield division with old employes of the company.

The first ripe strawberries of the season were taken into Lakeland a few days ago by D. K. Turner, who lives south of that town. Prospects are said to be good for a fine crop of berries this year, which, however, will not be quite as large as last year, owing to the heavy rains which prevailed all fall.

Spectators in the Alachua County Circuit Court room Tuesday morning witnessed the spectacle of a man indicted for murder in the first degree surrender to the officers of the law. This man was M. W. Maples, erstwhile livery stableman of High Springs, and his entry into the temple of justice was as quietly executed as was his exit on the afternoon of May 14th, nearly six months ago.

Dr. J. J. Goran of Lake City had the misfortune to lose his right hand a few days ago, which was blown into shreds by an explosion of a stick of dynamite. It seems that the doctor, along with others, was endeavoring to blow up a yellow jacket's nest when the accident occurred. The hand was so badly shattered that it was found necessary to amputate it a few inches above the wrist. His face was also badly hurt from the terrific explosion.

The State Text Book Board has ordered the publishers of the geography text book just been adopted for use in the public schools of Texas to remove from that book the picture of President Taft and substitute therefor the picture of Woodrow Wilson. Members of the board urged the removal of the picture of Abraham Lincoln from the school history, but the proposition was so vigorously opposed by Gov. Colquhoun that it was abandoned. The Governor informed the Text Book Board, of which he is chairman, that rather than have Lincoln's picture eliminated from the history he would resign from the Governorship.

COUNTY DIVISION NOW

The People Of This Section Are Desirous Of Separation

SANFORD TO BE THE NAME

Will Comprise All Of The Northern Half Of What Is Now Orange County

Orange county will be divided.

Just when this will take place has not as yet been decided but that it will take place is certain and assured and there will be no opposition to the plan. The present plans are to divide the county by cutting it east and west, giving Sanford county the northern portion and Orange county the southern portion.

The matter was brought up at the meeting of the Commercial Club last night and steps will be taken at once to start the agitation and to learn how much of the territory will be divided. A thorough discussion of the affair was given at the meeting of the club and every member present was in favor of county division.

After the club has so unmistakably declared itself as being in favor of the new county of Sanford a committee of county division was appointed. F. P. Forster was named chairman. F. L. Miller, George H. Fernald, Henry McLaughlin, Thomas K. Bates, C. R. Walker, Richard C. Maxwell, Charles M. Hand and W. W. Abernathy constitute the committee.

When the meeting of the club adjourned, the committee on county division went into session and had out its plans for a proper campaign of publicity to be given the project within the area described by the new boundary. Those precincts which were not represented in the meeting will have delegates added to the committee so that each portion of the territory that will be incorporated into the new county will have proper voice in the matter.

Secretary Bates has compiled the following figures regarding the new county:

From the vote polled in the county at the recent primaries and from the official records of registration the new county will have 7,500 population. The last census gave Orange county 19,107 population and by the withdrawal of the north end of the county Orange county will have 11,557 population, officially.

The last census gave population figures for some Florida counties as follows: Baker, 4,907; Brevard, 4,717; Calhoun, 7,465; Citrus, 6,731; Clay, 6,116; Franklin, 5,201; Hernando, 4,997; LaFayette, 6,710; Lee, 6,249; Liberty, 4,700; Ocala, 5,570; Palm Beach, 5,577; Pasco, 7,502; St. Lucie, 1,975; Taylor, 7,103; Wakulla, 1,802; Sumter, 6,696. This makes seventeen counties in the state which will have less population than Sanford county.

Missionary Meeting

The Missionary Society of the Methodist church held their regular business meeting Tuesday afternoon in the church. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. H. H. Chappell, president of the society. After brief devotional exercises the minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. C. H. Smith and the payment of dues followed a report of the treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Abernathy; also reports by the vice presidents of the society, who were present, were made. Mrs. M. A. Miot, fourth vice president, in her report of the gratifying financial success of the recent "Trip of the World" for the committee especially thanked the ladies of the society who so kindly gave the use of their homes and their personal work with their committees in decorating their homes to represent the countries to be visited on the trip.

The president presented to the society a suggestion by Rev. J. D. Langley pastor of the Congregational church, that the missionary society of the Methodist church unite with the missionary societies of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Congregational churches in observing next week as a union week of prayer, as it has been designated as a week of prayer for "Home Missions" by its Missionary Councils of the churches mentioned. The society accepted the suggestion and appointed a committee to confer with Mr. Langley and make the necessary arrangements as to programs for the meetings.

The Wednesday Club

The Wednesday Club held their first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Henry Wight, Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

At this reunion meeting after the long summer vacation there was a splendid attendance of the members of the club with three visitors.

The program for the afternoon was most delightfully opened by Mrs. O. W. Brady, with two violin selections, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Irene on the piano, "Sing, Smile, Slumber," Gounod, and "La Cinquintine," G. Gabriel Marie. Mrs. E. L. Robinson accompanied by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher sang two charming solos, "Little Boy Blue," Nevin, and "Hedge Roses," Schubert.

After this very entertaining introduction, the minutes of the last meeting in May at the home of Mrs. S. O. Chase were read by the secretary, Mrs. Chase, also the minutes of a call meeting of the executive committee and the program committee at the home of the president during the vacation of the club, and a meeting of the executive committee last week at the home of Mrs. L. R. Philips were read by the secretary.

The president, Mrs. Geo. L. Martin, then brought before the club several important matters, which after a general discussion one item was satisfactorily disposed of and another temporarily suspended to be acted on later.

The business of the meeting transacted, the club listened with pleasure to the kind words of greeting and the address of the president, which was pleasingly prefaced by the salutation and greeting of the program committee on the opening program, "Good friends, dear friends, salutations and greetings to you all." Mrs. M. H. Fowler made a brief response to the address of the president. The club decided before disbanding in the spring to take up the study of Mexico for the present year's work. Mrs. S. O. Chase, chairman of the program committee, entertained the club with a very interesting outline of the work of the committee during the summer, in planning, reading and arranging their subjects and days, and which with the assistance of the committee for the Civics department has resulted in a most excellent and pleasing program. The roll was then called by the secretary and each member responded with a short reminiscence of the summer's pleasure or experience. Three names were proposed for membership in the club. Mrs. G. B. Waldron has been appointed by the president to represent the Sanford Wednesday club as delegate to the State Federation of Women's Clubs, which will meet at West Palm Beach Tuesday morning, Nov. 19th and continues three days in session.

Mr. and Mrs. Gonzales Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gonzales were host and hostess at a very pleasant card party Thursday evening. Three tables of five hundred were played. The ladies' prize, a very pretty picture was won by Mrs. A. P. Connelly. Mr. O. W. Brady made the highest score among the gentlemen and won a deck of cards. After the interesting games of cards were concluded delicious chicken salad, wine jelly, sandwiches and coffee were served. Mr. and Mrs. Gonzales' guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Whitner, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Herndon, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. Samuel Pulgston, Miss Ruth Butler.

Preaching at Moore's Station

Rev. C. H. Summers will preach at Moore's Station Sunday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock. All are invited to attend. As this will be the last time Mr. Summers will be at this appointment before he leaves for the Annual Conference it is desired that a large congregation will be present.

Turkey has now formally applied to Bulgaria for peace, thus forestalling the tardy action of the European concert towards mediation. No armistice has yet been concluded; difficulties have arisen over the terms. It is said that Bulgaria demands the evacuation of Adrianople, Scutari and Monastir as a condition of agreeing to an armistice. Negotiations, however, continue. The censorship is again exceedingly severe and it is difficult to arrive at the correct idea of the military position. The fall of Adrianople is rumored from both Servian and Turkish sources, but this is still unconfirmed.

The Spanish premier, Jose Canalejas, was shot dead Wednesday, while entering the ministry of interior buildings at Madrid to attend a cabinet meeting. His assailant, Manuel Pardo Serrato Martin, aged twenty-eight, of El Grado, province of Huesca, was arrested and then shot himself. He is reported to have died in jail. Martin fired four shots at Premier Canalejas as he was entering the building of ministry of the interior. Three shots struck the statesman behind the right ear and he fell dead on the spot.

The total death list in Tuesday's wreck of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road at Montz, La., is placed at eighteen and seven of the ninety passengers who suffered injuries are in a critical condition. In addition to the unidentified dead taken from the ruins yesterday the body of an unidentified white man was found and the charred remains of one child and two adults were taken from the burned wreckage.

Sidna Allen was placed on trial for his life Wednesday on the charge of killing Judge Thornton I. Mause in the Hillsville courthouse shooting last March. Judge Buxton, attorney for Allen, in his opening address declared they would show that the shot in Judge Mause's chest had been fired from the side of the room occupied by the court officials, not from the side held by the Allens.

The announcement of the resignation of Lee McClung as treasurer of the United States was made this morning by President Taft. McClung tendered his resignation at a conference of the executive officers this morning, and the President announced his resignation was voluntary. It is believed that Carmi Thompson, the President's private secretary will succeed him.

Confederate Memorial Started

More than a thousand southern women, members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, journeyed to Arlington national cemetery Tuesday to lay the cornerstone of a monument to the Confederate soldiers buried there. The monument, looming beside the great stone shafts erected to the memory of Union soldiers, is designated as a lasting evidence that the north and the south are permanently united. For the first time since its organization, nineteen years ago, the United Daughters of the Confederacy held its convention in other than a southern city, when the sessions of the annual meeting began on Tuesday. The organization determined to meet in Washington that the Daughters might conduct the laying of the cornerstone of the new monument, which has been financed largely by that organization.

Col. Hillary A. Herbert, secretary of the navy under President Cleveland, was chosen as master of ceremonies for the laying of the cornerstone. He is head of the committee in charge of the erection of the monument. The orator of the day was William Jennings Bryan. On the platform also stood the officers of the Daughters and Mrs. Marion Butler, who had charge of the progress for the cornerstones laying ceremonies and the convention.

Dr. Thomas was accompanied on her trip by Dr. Crawford, superintendent of the A. C. L. Hospital at Rocky Mount N. C.

Dr. and Mrs. Miller, with Drs. Thomas and Crawford returned to Sanford in the evening, after a most delightful trip.

Champion Potato Grower

William Stafford of this city does not grow potatoes for a steady diet, but last spring he planted a few vines on his place and never looked at them again. They had no fertilizer and no attention and noticing they were making a marvelous growth of vines he dug a few the other day and they were monsters. One of them now on exhibition at The Herald office weighs 15 pounds and measures 11 inches in circumference and 7 inches in diameter. Mr. Stafford is a tinner and well driver by trade, but he has demonstrated that Sanford soil can grow sweet potatoes without any fertilizer, and grow them to perfection.

Lend a Hand Club

The Lend a Hand Club desires to again remind the good people of Sanford that they are in every way that is open to them, living up to their name, when and where it is needed. At their business meeting on Friday, the 14th, they offered to make biscuits for the club, which is a very good idea. The club has purchased a machine for making beaten biscuits, and if so desired they will prepare furnished material for biscuits for the suppers usually accompanying the bazaars.

The club has the money on hand for their tennis court and have also secured the consent of the council to have the court put in the north park, which they will do as soon as they can make satisfactory arrangements with a contractor.

Rev. D. J. Blocker Will Preach

A SANFORD MARKET

The Herald has labored for four years endeavoring to get better markets and better distribution for the great crops of winter vegetables that are raised here in greater profusion than at any other point in the United States. We have taken up the exchange idea and the buying at this end and the idea of a cold storage here to keep the stuff until the glut in the market were easier. None of the plans have worked to the full satisfaction of the grower and we are today as we were four years ago just drifting with the tide and trusting to fate and the markets to give the grower a meagre return for his labor.

When the grower does not make the money from his crop that he should make not only does the grower suffer but every business man in Sanford suffers. All of us are wrapt up in this vegetable growing industry just as much as the grower himself. This paper has suffered along with every other business when the slow markets made business tight. Therefore it is a selfish reason as well as a benevolent one that spurs this paper into greater efforts for the better marketing of the products that have made Sanford famous. We have never given up the idea that the vegetable growing plan was the greatest stunt ever pulled off in this country. That to have the section where flowing wells drainage and railroad facilities made our section great and that to be able to grow vegetables in the heart of winter and ship them north when that country was wrapped in ice and snow would ultimately prove one of the most profitable phases of business in the south. We believe it just as firmly today as we did four years ago and the question of our ultimate salvation hinges on the f. o. b. market.

Many years ago the editor was in the great grape country of the Great Lakes. Those people raised grapes enough to supply the world or so it seemed to one who was watching the shipments going to the different markets. They were going on consignment just as we ship much of our stuff today. The inevitable crash came in the shape of a glutted market. Enough grapes were dumped into North river to make the fishes drunk for a year. The grape business seemed doomed. Those people the following year becoming wise started an auction market and today they are selling grapes to the highest bidder and the buyers are glad to come there and buy and pay cash. The growers know when they must supply the market and the buyers do the distribution.

The same plan is working to perfection in North Carolina vegetable centers and other fruit and vegetable growing centers. The same plan could be worked out in Sanford and should be investigated. We feel sure that many of the largest commission houses in the country would favor the plan and would have their buyers here during the season. We do not get them here now for there are hundreds of firms some of them large buyers that never come to Sanford. The commission houses would not need a representative on the ground during the season for this business could be handled by a local broker. The grower would bring in his wagon load of vegetables to the auction platform and the buyers would bid on it put it on the cars and the grower would get his check. Just another instance of the bird in the hand being worth two in the bush and Sanford celery and lettuce would have a wider distribution than it can ever hope to have under present conditions. This plan has been tried here at various times on a small scale and proved good but this plan is for the growers to make Sanford the center of the greatest trucking business in the state not only in growing the stuff but in selling it.

You cannot eliminate the commission man in the buying game and the man who talks about doing so is short on brains. The commission man is necessary in the selling game and he will always be necessary. The Herald's plan is not to discourage the commission man but to encourage him to come here and buy the stuff. We want more of them and all of them to come to Sanford and bid for the stuff. The commission man is the boy who ultimately obtains your stuff no matter how you ship or how you consign or how sell. It is the commission man who distributes your stuff and he will be the candy kid for many years to come.

Then wouldn't it be better to have all of them here and ready to bid for the stuff at the station platform? Wouldn't it be better for the farmer to bring his stuff to Sanford and sell it for cash at a fair profit than to consign it and stand the chance of a poor market. If the glut comes and vegetables are not bringing anything in the northern market then it would be better for the Sanford grower to leave his stuff in the field and thereby save the crates and express. Under the auction plan he could do this. Under the auction plan and f. o. b. market the grower would be protected at every point and the grower and the buyer would be on the equal terms and friendly terms and the great question of selling vegetables would be solved for evermore.

Will the growers please look into this plan and give it attention. It works in other sections and would work here. The season is not too far advanced for a trial on the celery crop. It would mean the salvation of the grower and of the whole community.

MODEST EDITOR
Editor Holly, of the Sanford Herald, editorially announces that, "at the very earnest solicitation of many friends," he has "consented" to become an applicant for the Sanford postmastership. Bob's modesty is to be commended. He is the first candidate we've heard about who had to be urged.—Tampa Tribune.

County divisions is getting to be the popular diversion just now and is being played at various points over the state. Orange county will play out a hand or two in a few weeks.

Double Murder at Ocala
J. T. Burgess, an aged farmer near McIntosh, twenty miles from Ocala, and his fifteen year old adopted daughter were murdered near their home Wednesday afternoon by a negro. Burgess was shot down from ambush while the girl was assaulted and her throat cut from ear to ear. The sheriff and his posse soon captured the negro and, fearing mob violence, started with him for Gainesville. Neighbors hearing of this quickly formed a posse and at last accounts were close on the heels of the sheriff and his prisoner, swearing vengeance. The negro was lynched at Ocala yesterday afternoon by a mob.

Ice Doubles in Jacksonville
Ice retailed throughout last week at 20 cents per hundred pounds, but now the price has been actually doubled since Sunday, with the same charge being made by each of the four companies operating in the city—the Florida Ice Co., Atlantic Ice and Coal Corporation, Springfield Ice Co. and Southern Ice Co., which is practically a branch of the Springfield concern.

The sudden and totally unexpected increase in price has aroused citizens of all classes and the skyrocket upward flight of the cooling commodity it is rumored may be subject of investigation on the part of government authorities.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Presbyterian Services
Dr. W. E. Boggs will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, both morning and evening. Dr. Boggs was pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Jacksonville for several years and is well known in Sanford. Everybody invited.

Congregational News
Services as usual at the Congregational church next Sunday, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. D. Langley. There will be special music in the evening under direction of E. T. Woodruff, with a solo by Mrs. E. L. Robinson. Don't fail to be there to enjoy the music as well as the excellent sermon we are sure to have. Church heated by furnace if weather be cold.

Mrs. George B. Waldron has been appointed to represent the Wednesday Club as delegate to the State Confederation of Women's Clubs which will hold their annual meeting at West Palm Beach, beginning Tuesday morning, Nov. 19th and continuing in session three days. Mrs. J. W. Dickens, president of the Welaka Club, and Mrs. H. L. DeForest, delegate, will represent the Welaka Club at the convention. These ladies will leave Monday morning for West Palm Beach.

Young Women

Read what Cardul did for Miss Myria Engler, of Fairbault, Minn. She says: "Let me tell you how much good Cardul has done me. As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kind of pain. Sometimes, I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardul, at the drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better. Today, I feel as well as anyone can."

TAKE CARDUL The Woman's Tonic

Are you a woman? Then you are subject to a large number of troubles and irregularities, peculiar to women, which, in time, often lead to more serious trouble. A tonic is needed to help you over the hard places, to relieve weakness, headache, and other unnecessary pains, the signs of weak nerves and over-work. For a tonic, take Cardul, the woman's tonic. You will never regret it, for it will certainly help you. Ask your druggist about it. He knows. He sells it.

FLORIDA CITRUS EXCHANGE

To Our Independent Friends:

Just now is an opportune time for a heart to heart talk. For three years we have been urging upon the growers in this state to hold their citrus fruits until they mature on the trees, as this is the only kind of fruit that people will buy at a fair price. We have presented facts which, in the main, the most of you have admitted justified our position. There is not one of you today who will not admit in your heart that the shipment of green and immature citrus fruits kills the market, and makes it impossible for any factor to get what the fruit is worth. Hence, the grower suffers, the industry languishes and the state does not develop as it should and would, if all interests were busy assisting the Exchange in keeping this market-killing stuff off the market.

Now you have tried again this year. You have calculated that if you could get out first cars you would make some good money on fruit that you bought at low prices from the growers. Perhaps you do—on a few cars—but you know the grief you have suffered. Some of you, because the Exchange was boosting Parson Browns, have shipped fruit that you knew was not Parson Browns, and you have not only hurt yourselves, but the injury to the industry is irreparable. You know that we are pushing Parson Browns because they are good to eat early and that we know that if people eat good oranges in the beginning of the season they will continue to eat them; but if they eat a sour orange they will buy no more for a long time. You know that just as well as we do. You know it to your sorrow, or to the sorrow of the growers whose oranges and grapefruit you have led him to believe you could sell at a good price. You have succeeded this season in crushing the market before there was a market. You killed it a-borning. Why? Answer that your own way.

That you did it, you know. Now what are you going to do about it? The Florida Citrus Exchange has done all in its power to restrain its associations from following your foolish example, but a few have gotten away. In the main, they have been staunchly with us, and are now are you going to continue this slaughter that you have begun, or are you going to stop and give the market a chance to clean up the rotten punk that you have dumped on it, and wait for a market? It is of no good to you to deceive yourselves into believing the things that some of you have imagined and given expression to about the Exchange in this connection. You know, or at least that part of you who have any facilities for keeping up with current business, that the Exchange has not followed you, but has given you a clear field. The Exchange has not gone below $2 f. o. b. packing house for oranges that were known to be up to the standard of color and development. It has handled a number of cars in markets where some of you have shipped on order at $1.50 f. o. b. and got what was coming to you when the fruit arrived. You know what it was. Oh! how sore some of you are! If you could produce low quotations made by the Exchange in those markets, how you would howl! My friends, the Exchange has quotations from you received from all parts of the country, ranging from $1.25 to $1.50 f. o. b. for early sweet oranges and for Parson Browns. Oh! you say you did not do it. It was the other fellow. Don't you know that any one who is classed, or classes himself as an Independent, is in the Independent Family? and that the Independent Family, as a whole, is hurling all of its weight—and has done so since the beginning of the season—against the efforts of the Florida Citrus Exchange to stem this tide of green, sour fruit that you, as a class, have turned loose upon the country.

Now again, some of you are taking orders, and have been doing so for three months, at a price and guaranteeing that price against decline. Accept it as a fact, that the Exchange has no intention of following you in this assinine course any more than in the other. Fill yourselves up on these orders and keep busy. What the Exchange wants is the market price, and whatever price you may name cuts no figure with the Exchange. It helped you last year by sending buyers to you, and will do the same thing this year, if your prices are as foolish as they were last year. The Exchange is engaged in a general uplift of the citrus industry of Florida, and the business that you are seeking for will not pay for fruit put up the Exchange way. The people who will pay for fruit put up the Exchange way will not pay for the kind of junk that will go out on these cut-throat prices. With this understanding, let us urge upon you that you go to it with all your might and main. The Exchange is not trying to take the class of business from you that you are seeking to get.

Here are some of the recent choice bits of information coming over the wires:
 Boston, October 31.—"North American offering any part of ten cars Parson Browns now en route Potomac Yards $1.40 Florida."
 Dallas, Texas, November 2.—"Competitors are making open quotations of shipped car 30th $2.35 delivered Johnson brand Parsons Chase. Will lose order if cannot get car on equal; telegraph immediately best you can do."
 The freight from point of origin to Dallas on the fruit quoted above, is 85c per box.
 Cleveland, Ohio, November 4.—"Weather cold but clear and pleasant. Market is unchanged today. One oranges sold $2.15 to $1.80, one grapefruit $2.60 to $2.45."
 Philadelphia, Pa., November 4.—"Competitors sold at auction today four oranges average $1.90, two grapefruit average $2.10. Competitors' cars on track five."
 St. Louis, Mo., November 4.—"Weather cool and pleasant, market is dull under light demand for oranges. Market is doing better on grapefruit. Competitors sold at auction today one grapefruit $1.80 to $3.40. One Louisiana mixed green oranges $1.50, grapefruit $1.55."
 Kansas City, Mo., November 4.—"Three cars oranges received here so far, two consigned pale color, some green quality fair. Car Sweetheart bright grapefruit sold Friday auction $2.70 to $2.60. Car Paradise sold today $2.10 to $2.50. Both consigned."
 Indianapolis, Ind., November 4.—"Give price car oranges. Buyer claims he is offered Parson Browns at $1.50 f. o. b."
 Buffalo, N. Y., November 4.—"Auction today North American Exchange car Parson Browns $1.00 to $1.75. Crutchfield car Lone brand 55c to $1.75. Chase car early hammock 90c to $1.90; fruit green; poor in quality."
 St. Louis, Mo., November 6.—"Weather cold and raining. Market is overstock with oranges; other fruits."
 Nashville, Tenn., November 4.—"About five cars have arrived on this market, two cars being sent here at $1 per box advance to the buyer, and this dealer is offering these oranges to the trade at $2 per box delivered. The other three cars were consigned."
 There is no meaner type of competition than this consigned stuff, and the meanest of that type is the stuff on which some dealer advances a low price. Of such are independents.
 Memphis, Tenn., November 4.—"For your information B. & T. of this city are unloading a car of oranges today bought through Crutchfield & Woolfolk, and the shipper is Eureka Grove, G. G. Crocke, Mims, Fla. They were sold at $2 delivered. It is a car of all brights with unusually good color and are very good eating fruit for this variety."
 We might go on and on and extend this story of indiscriminate slaughter, but you know it. You read the details in your various offices and it is needless to rub it into you too hard. What we are interested in now is to know what you are going to do about it. Are you going to stop this foolishness and get in line, or are you going to continue to slaughter this stuff that is consigned to your care by independent growers. There was never a fairer prospect for a season's business than this year. There was never a greater exhibition of futility of an effort to market the citrus fruits of this state as you are at tempting to market them. If you are so strongly prejudiced against the Exchange that you cannot co-operate with it, then in the name of the growers of this state, get together on your own account and have some organized system by which you can know what conditions are and stop this ruthless murdering of the citrus industry of this state.

There is no meaner type of competition than this consigned stuff, and the meanest of that type is the stuff on which some dealer advances a low price. Of such are independents.

Memphis, Tenn., November 4.—"For your information B. & T. of this city are unloading a car of oranges today bought through Crutchfield & Woolfolk, and the shipper is Eureka Grove, G. G. Crocke, Mims, Fla. They were sold at $2 delivered. It is a car of all brights with unusually good color and are very good eating fruit for this variety."

We might go on and on and extend this story of indiscriminate slaughter, but you know it. You read the details in your various offices and it is needless to rub it into you too hard. What we are interested in now is to know what you are going to do about it. Are you going to stop this foolishness and get in line, or are you going to continue to slaughter this stuff that is consigned to your care by independent growers. There was never a fairer prospect for a season's business than this year. There was never a greater exhibition of futility of an effort to market the citrus fruits of this state as you are at tempting to market them. If you are so strongly prejudiced against the Exchange that you cannot co-operate with it, then in the name of the growers of this state, get together on your own account and have some organized system by which you can know what conditions are and stop this ruthless murdering of the citrus industry of this state.

Plan to ship your truck early

HOW to get it out early is no secret, for those truckers who have been in the business longest agree that it is almost wholly a matter of supplying quickly available fertilizers.

BRADLEY'S FERTILIZERS

are this sort of fertilizer. They supply quickly available plant food in the best forms, not only to start off the crop quickly and keep it growing vigorously, but to back it up through the season, and to ripen and harden off the product. It is this sort of combination that has brought success to many Florida truckers in the past thirty years and for this reason they swear by

BRADLEY'S FERTILIZERS.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germ must be washed out, and no salve or ointment has ever been found worthy of the name. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

BLOOD POISON

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY THAT CURES OLD SORES, SOROFULA AND ALL DISEASES CAUSED BY IMPURE BLOOD.
Remedy for Disease of the Blood Sold on $1000.00 Guarantee.
The old-fashioned sarsaparillas, specifics and other blood medicines of our grandfathers won't do in this advanced age.
Your great-grandfather didn't take Leonard's Blood Elixir any more than he used the electric light or the telephone.
But his children and grandchildren, the grown ups of today, are taking this great modern medicine and getting rid of the terrible blood diseases—scrofula, tumors, syphilis, rheumatism, pains in the bones and all diseases arising from impure blood that the old unscientific preparations were unable to cure and are unable to cure today.
Leonard's Blood Elixir has as little in common with any of these old-fashioned remedies as modern life-saving surgery with the practice of a few years ago which was attended with so fearful a death rate. The half century since these old-time medicines were first made has been the most fruitful age in medical discovery. It has seen the most effective discovery of medicine the world has ever known.
As a remedy for blood poison, rheumatism, boils, tumors, debility, catarrh, skin diseases and all troubles arising from impure blood, Leonard's Blood Elixir has been welcomed by physicians and publicly recommended for the cures which it has accomplished. No other medicine ever equalled Leonard's Blood Elixir in its wonderful success in all diseases and ailments due to impure blood and nervous debility.
It is as unlike any remedy that has gone before and as superior to all of them as the electric light is more brilliant than the tallow dip. It is not a mere improvement or development of any of the old-fashioned remedies. It is a totally new departure in the cure of blood diseases and cures where others fail because it embodies the latest knowledge and the newest investigations into the source of blood diseases.
And that is the reason why Leonard's Blood Elixir is the most successful remedy in the world.
Leonard's Blood Elixir is the one remedy for diseases caused by impure blood that is sold on a $1,000.00 guarantee of money back on first bottle if it fails to cure. This unusual guarantee proves conclusively the great superiority of this remedy.
Purify the blood with this great remedy and there will be no headaches, no indigestion, no nervous troubles, no weakness nor debility. You can't afford to be without it in the house.

From The Nation's Capital

News And Views From Our Washington Correspondent

Washington, D. C., Nov. 5.—With the "tumult and the shouting" over as the result of Tuesday's election, the carpenters and the joiners will begin the construction of a cabinet for President-elect Woodrow Wilson, and the names already suggested, give some indication of how the various elements in the Democratic party view their tremendous victory.

William Jennings Bryan, the "Warwick" of the incoming administration, is most generally touted for Secretary of State, although there are those that believe the "Commoner" would rather be a free lance than attach himself to the person of the President in a ministerial capacity, believing that he could do the party greater good in the open than by holding down a cabinet position. Undoubtedly Bryan can have the choice of any position should he so desire.

Louis Brandeis of Boston is among the favored ones suggested for Attorney General, although William F. McCombs, chairman of the National Democratic Committee must also be reckoned with, as he has been a tower of strength for Wilson, and as he is a lawyer of repute might find the Department of Justice to his liking.

It is generally believed that Congressman Albert S. Burleson of Texas will be accorded a cabinet position and possibly may accept the Interior portfolio, although it is known he has a leaning to the Secretaryship of Agriculture. But Dr. Harvey S. Wiley, late chief chemist of the Department of Agriculture is seriously mentioned for the head of the Department with which he has been connected for so many years.

Josephus Daniels of North Carolina, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, who had charge of the publicity end of the Wilson campaign may possibly become the "headman" of the new administration, more generally known as the Postmaster General. Daniels is a "live wire" and undoubtedly would take rare pleasure in relieving the "hated" Republicans of their postoffice jobs.

Then, too, one hears the names of Rolla Tull of St. Louis, William G. McAdoo of New York, Walter Hudspeth of New Jersey and even Senator Robert M. LaFollette for cabinet places and the "carpenters and the joiners" have just begun the construction of President-elect Wilson's official family.

XXXXX

The forthcoming Convention of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress which will be held in Washington on December 4th, 5th and 6th gives promise of bringing together a larger number of influential business and professional men than ever before participated in the deliberations of this great Congress organized for the purpose of securing annual appropriations for the improvement of the rivers, harbors and canals of the country and to bring about a fixed policy of waterway betterments on the part of the general government.

The convention, which is ninth in numerical order, will be of intense interest to the nation, as it is hoped President-elect Wilson will be present and in an address to the delegates define his position on many of the questions relating to the water highways of the country. President Taft will open the convention with an address, while with him on the program are a score of the ablest men of the country who are down for addresses during the days of the convention.

Declamation Contest

The annual declamation contests for the Florida Educational Association Medals will be held in Ocala, January 2, 1913, 8 p. m., under the following regulations:

1. The contests are open to regular, bona-fide students in all high schools in Florida. 2. No high school shall enter more than two representatives, one boy and one girl. Separate contests shall be held in Ocala, January 2d, for each sex, the winner of each contest in Ocala to be awarded a gold medal, one medal for boys and one for girls.

3. All contestants must be entered by November 24th. In case more than ten are entered in each contest, preliminary contests may be held in convenient cities December 9th, the number of such contestants entered and on the location of their schools. If such preliminary contests are to be held, principals will be notified in sufficient time to permit their pupils to be present.

4. The winners of such preliminary contests as may be held shall be entitled to contest at Ocala for the Florida Educational Association medals.

5. In entering a contestant, a principal should send to the chairman of the Executive Committee of the Association, Starke, the name of the contestant, sex, age, grade, date of entering school, number of regular studies carried by such pupil, and the title of the pupil's declamation. The title of the declamation may be furnished by December 9th.

6. In awarding the medals, or in deciding any preliminary contest, the judges shall grade each contestant on (1) stage appearance, (2) clearness of enunciation, (3) correct interpretation of the spirit of the selection, (4) general effectiveness, and shall award the medals to the contestants having the highest general average on these four points.

COUNTY DIVISION AGAIN AGITATES THE PUBLIC

Several New Counties Want Divorce in the Legislature

FLORIDA NEWS AND VIEWS FROM EVERY SOURCE

Daily Happenings in The Land of Flowers Culled and Tied Into a Nosegay of Brieflets

County division is rampant now in several counties of the state and the matter will become so popular by the time the next meeting of the Legislature takes place that all the counties that are too large and where the inhabitants thereof are dissatisfied will certainly separate and the legislators can be depended upon to give the majority what they want. Among the counties now talking county division are Volusia and Orange and it is already conceded that these counties will get division. There is also considerable agitation about the making of a new state of West Florida and this step is being discussed already west of the Apalachicola river. In case of a state division Tallahassee could never hope to hold the state capital.

Fishermen who returned to Pensacola a few days ago after a three weeks' trip to the snapper banks, had the distinction of bringing with them one of the largest devilfish, or octopus, ever brought to that port. The octopus measured no less than six feet from mouth to the tip of his longest tentacle. The monster will be preserved.

The new bank building at Groveland is nearing completion and the bank expects to be doing business by the first of next month. It is a handsome brick building and will add much to the appearance of that town.

Jacksonville's financial district is to have still another institution located in its very center, for articles of incorporation are now being prepared for the organization of the United States Trust and Savings Bank which will begin business on or about January 2, 1913.

Two large warehouses of McIver & Mackay at Ocala were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon and several adjoining buildings were damaged. The estimated loss is about $20,000, about half covered by insurance. Sam Pyles, an employe of McIver & Mackay, fell through a skylight to the floor, a distance of about twenty-five feet. An examination showed one broken rib. Several volunteers had narrow escapes.

Seriously injured, his injuries self-inflicted, perhaps with suicidal intent, O. S. Goodrich, manager of a land company at Green Springs, is at the Gordon Keller Memorial Hospital at Tampa to which place he was brought from Green Springs. He is suffering from gun shot wounds in the head, a load of bird-shot having torn away a part of the skull on the left side of his head, just missing the brain.

While there is a great number of persons laying their plans for federal appointments during the next administration, it is apparent also that those who wish appointments to state positions are not asleep on the job. It is understood that a hundred or more have already made application to Hon. Park Trammell, the next governor, for appointment to different places by him.

Leaving a letter of apology to Manager Tallavaat for the trouble his death would cause, Lieut. Fred de Mannerfelt of the Royal Life Humors of Sweden has morally committed suicide in the Humboldt Hotel by shooting himself through the heart with an automatic pistol.

Judge Perkins of this circuit today handed down a decision in the Orange county prosecution against S. J. Bligh, for shipping immature citrus fruits, in which he holds the unconstitutionality of the law. Judge C. B. Parkhill of Tampa and Attorney Starbuck were attorneys for the prosecution and Thomas Palmer of Tampa and Carl Robinson of Orlando appeared for Bligh.

LETTUCE IS NOW MOVING

Over Fifty Car Loads To Go This Week

BRINGS GOOD PRICES HERE

Lettuce Crop Will Prove Paying Venture If The Cool Weather Continues

Lettuce now holds sway in Sanford noted for the celery crop that every year continues to make this section famous is also the greatest section in the world for the growing and shipping of lettuce.

This week there will be over fifty solid car loads of this crisp vegetable go north to tickle the palate of the rich and poor alike for the price while bringing the grower a nice profit is low enough to be reached by the millions in the large cities. Just at this time when the tender vegetables at the north have all been killed the succulent Sanford lettuce looks mightily good to the eyes of the purchasers of vegetables.

Lettuce has been steady at $1.25 and $1.50 f. o. b. Sanford and will continue to bring a good price as long as the weather remains cool. The lettuce this season is said to be the finest ever shipped from Sanford and the buyers are on the ground ready and willing to pay the price at the platform.

Usually the good prices and the good shipments came in about Thanksgiving time, but the cool weather and the early lettuce this season have conspired to hand the growers a present and the increased shipments and good prices are making business assume a most prosperous phase.

Notice Wednesday Club

On account of the fire at the Wight home today the Wednesday Club will not meet there tomorrow as scheduled, but will meet at the home of Mrs. S. O. Chase on Oak avenue at 2:30 o'clock.

Helping Hand Society

The Helping Hand Society of the Baptist church gave a very entertaining 16 social at the parsonage Friday evening. The number 16 was Uniquely honored and represented in various ways. The social was expected to begin at 7:16 and end at 10:16. Some of the many families, supposed to be present, were found by actual count to have 16 members—showing that the Smiths, Browns, Jones and others too numerous to mention were out in full force. Several very entertaining games were enjoyed by the large number present, and especially the recitations by Mrs. R. C. Maxwell and charming vocal selections by several of the members of the society. Wafers and chocolate were served with 16 different kinds of refreshments daintily tied in a pretty paper doily.

When leaving, the guests were advised to stop at the postoffice, in charge of Miss Clara Millen for their mail and each applicant received a note in the shape of a shoe, which was an invitation to a "Bootee Party" to be given by the Helping Hand Society at the parsonage next Friday evening, and requesting that the recipient of the invitation should multiply the size of his or her shoe, as the case might be by the number four, and bring the result in money to the party with them.

These pleasant and certainly beneficial entertainments should be well attended, as this is one of the means by which the Helping Hand Society is trying to secure funds with which to enable them to do some of the many kinds of church work that is so much needed. The Bootee Party should be largely attended.

ASSOCIATED CHARITY

Sanford Organization Is Doing Excellent Work

BUT MORE MONEY NEEDED

Secretary McDaniel Writes on Organization And The Needs That Are Apparent

What is the Associated Charities doing?" has been recently asked us, and for the benefit of those who up to the present time have not been especially interested or in touch with the work, a brief resume of what has been going on in the Charity office should be given out.

In the first place let me state that the society was organized because it was needed in Sanford. Those who took the initiative and started this movement saw this need when cases of want and distress, the same as will arise in every community, were being continually referred to them. They realized the importance of relieving these cases in a systematic, businesslike way, all of which required time, thought and money. Therefore, this center of communication was established. A place where the various charitable organizations and churches of Sanford can affiliate and work together to relieve want and distress, to work out careful plans to help families and individuals, and to suppress begging on the streets. This is being accomplished to some extent, and with the cooperation of every citizen it can be proven beyond a doubt that the Associated Charities is a benefit to the town as well as to individuals. Aid is dispensed, yet money is saved because frauds and impostors are weeded out and help is given only where it is needed. Already merchants and business men have stated that the organization of the Charities has been a help to them, as it has lessened the number of appeals to them for help by the professional beggars, and that they could double their subscriptions to the Associated Charities several times and still spend a good deal less than they have been giving to these strangers. There is a small army of these individuals and they are marching from one end of the country to the other, their travelling expenses paid by the public. They usually want help to get to another town where they claim they have relatives, friends and perhaps work. The same story is repeated as they go from place to place. It will be a saving to the town if these beggars are promptly turned down and sent to the Charity office. If they are not impostors they will apply there for help and always get it, otherwise they will decline to do "business with those people" as one stated recently when directed to the Associated Charities after working some of the business houses on First street.

Nearly thirty cases have come before the society since its organization and each one has been given careful attention. Lodging has been given nineteen times and thirty-one meals provided for those asking help. Transportation, groceries, clothing and some furniture have been provided. Employment has been secured for eleven and about fifty visits made to those who needed attention. A careful record is kept of every case.

Right now the Associated Charities is in need of money with which to conduct the business during the winter months, as the calls are more frequent at this time. Membership cards are $1.00, and the amount subscribed, for relief is voluntary. Subscriptions may be paid to any of the membership committee: C. H. Leffler, H. C. Dubois, E. B. Rourke, Mrs. R. L. Peck; or the finance committee: B. F. Whitner, Jr., D. L. Thrasher, W. A. Leffler, Mrs. W. M. Hynes, or the secretary at the office, 105 First street.

Mrs. J. C. McDANIEL, Secretary.

Fire Pressure Was Good

The pressure at the Wight fire this morning was excellent and with three streams playing on the fire at one time the amount of pressure was kept up to the limit. The Herald wishes to make this note because at various times there has been criticism on the pressure of the water company, at various fires, but there can be no criticism on the pressure this time for the Water Co. was Johnny on the spot and had the goods at every stage of the game.

Week of Prayer

This week is being observed by the Presbyterian, Congregational and Methodist churches as a week of prayer for Home Missions. Interesting as well as instructive programs, setting forth the different kinds of work being done by the missionary societies of the different churches, and specifying the causes just now most in need of prayer and material aid. It is hoped this week of study and prayer will be instrumental in impressing the minds and hearts of the Christian people with a greater interest in the cause of missions and a desire to do all that is in their power to assist in answering their own prayers for the success of the causes they are asked to pray for.

Flower Sale a Success

The flower sale held two days last week by the ladies of the Civics Committee of the Welaka Club was a great success and they sold out all of the fine roses and other plants in record time and could have sold more if they had had them. In fact the sale was so successful that the committee will hold another one soon. The Herald office is indebted to Mrs. Lake and the committee for the receipt of two fine rose bushes. They are planted in the grass plot in front of The Herald office where they will be a constant reminder of the generosity of the ladies and also of their efforts to make Sanford beautiful.

Chief Underwood Ill

Fire Chief W. H. Underwood is ill at his home and was unable to appear at his post at the Wight fire this morning.

The Turkish fortress of Monastir surrendered this afternoon to the Servian troops. Fifty thousand Turkish soldiers and three generals laid down their arms. Monastir virtually had been surrounded by Servian troops for several days, while Greek troops coming from the south had cut off the Turkish line of retreat to Oschrida. On Saturday the Servian troops, after desperate fighting throughout the day and night, captured two important heights commanding the city. They then advanced through the morasses upon the interior fortifications, which surrendered today. Monastir is the headquarters of the Sixth Turkish army corps, commanded by Pethi Pasha, but many other Turkish troops fleeing from surrounding towns which had been covered by the Servians concentrated there. David Pasha, the commander of the Seventh Turkish army corps, went there with many of his soldiers after the fall of Uskup to the Servians.

That all postmasters should dispose of their own dead letters and that letter carriers should be used to carry the lighter parcels post articles, even if they do come to look like Santa Claus, was advocated by First Assistant Postmaster General C. P. Granfield in a talk to the Postmasters' Association of New England. Mr. Granfield predicted the limit of weight of parcels post matter would soon be raised from 11 to 100 pounds. He wanted the rates in the first zone reduced, for otherwise he said the parcels post would not compete with the express companies. "My answer to the critics who say the cost of the Postoffice department is excessive is just this," said Mr. Granfield, "the revenue from mail which is now franked, if paid, would bring an annual income to the Postoffice Department of $22,000,000."

I believe there should be an extra session of Congress at the earliest possible date after March 4, to fulfill the pledges made by the Democratic party," said Speaker Champ Clark upon his return to Washington today. The speaker had prepared a statement pledging himself to an extra session and gave it out when he arrived at his offices in the capitol. Speaker Clark said he had come to Washington to take up the legislative program for the approaching session of Congress.
