Japan's Destiny

Japan's destiny has, in the last 20 years, tended to indicate a war with the United States. This destiny has come to high marks in the last ten years—since the Japanese conquest of the Chinese province of Manchuria (renamed Manchukuo) in 1931, and the startling incidents within the last four years, namely the sinking of the United States gunboat, the PANAY, and the damaging of another gunboat, the TUTUILA, by Japan's aviators operating in war-torn China.

Japan's destiny leads to one objective—Jap domination of the Far East. This control can be obtained only after the United States and Great Britain are ousted from the Far East. The incidents mentioned in the preceding paragraphs have been "hints" to the English-speaking people to get out of the Orient and let Japan take over. But the Japs have been rebuked in the last few years by stiff resistance from the Anglo-American combine who have made definite treaties to the Nipponese. They are now waiting for an opportune time to strike and strike hard—maybe when the English are at a new low in their war with the German state. Japanese control of the Far East, including the vital Dutch East Indies, is stopped only by recent joint British-American action in stiff warnings to Japan. The Japs feel that they MIGHT jolt the Americans alone, but not the British Empire too.

This destiny has been guided by Japanese leaders—Konoye, Toyoda, Yonai, Matsuoka, Tojo—who have inclinations toward a dictatorship like that of Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy. Yosuke Matsuoka, former foreign minister, negotiated with Adolf Hitler about Japan's part in the new order and about Japan's possible action against the United States. Matsuoka has been tempted in his actions by an intense hate of this nation. Ex-Premier Prince Fumimaro Konoye, who was less violent in his hopes for Jap control of the Orient, was noted for his Fascist and Nazi leanings, but was removed when he failed to produce action in making a greater Nippon Empire.

Eikji Tojo, Konoye's successor, is known to have a distinct leaning toward Nazi tactics, and is causing much anxiety in this country by his latest actions concerning the United States' aid to Soviet Russia, a traditional enemy of the Japanese empire. Tojo, an army general, has a virtual dictatorship strengthened by army domination. The Emperor of Japan, Hirohito, no longer plays an outstanding part in forming Nipponese action, owing to the increased activity of the army. This dictatorship, Nazi inspired, realizes that Japan's destiny holds in store a battle with the United States. They want to avoid the conflict by bluff if possible—but at the same time are thinking of the complete Japanese domination of the Far East, obtained only through withdrawal of the United States in that part of the globe.

Will the Tojo government risk a battle with the United States? This question may be answered within the next two months with diplomacy, on the part of Japanese ambassador—Admiral Nomura—and American ambassador—Joseph Grew, an important role in this country as well as Japan.

Majoring in chemistry he made a brilliant record and was inducted to an honorary chemical fraternity, Gamma Sigma Epsilon. Also studying Spanish, Walter is being initiated this week to Los Pinos de Gozvedo, an honorary fraternity for this language. Stovall will graduate in June, accomplishing four years work in three years.

To top it all he has made A's in all his courses. Only two other seniors, Charlie Sherman, president of the student body, and Tom Clifton Brown, editor of the campus newspaper, have such a record. We would like to join Walter in saying, "Well done, Walter!"

Seminole High School Glee Club Members Compose Football Songs

Are't we the smart ones? A few students of S. H. S. have written words for some music. This year the band got a new book of marching music, one of the marches was a Yale song, "Down the Field." This piece of music has such a pretty melody that David Gatchel decided to write some words to it. The song is about our high school and its football team, the Celery Feds. The Glee Club introduced it to the student body in chapel the other day.

The words are as follows: "On brave old Celery Feds Fight on to victory, Break through that forward wall Their strength is steady, We'll give 'em cheer for old Sanford High Our Alma mater, Fight team fight for good old S. H. S. And win this game." As the result of our hard thinking, the Glee Club members composed some words to go with the music. "Someone's in the Kitchen with Dinah." These words were also introduced by the Glee Club and both songs welcomed heartily by the students.

The Glee Club's composition is as follows: "Come along Celery Feds down that line, Come on 'em we'll win this time, Show 'em (waiting team) what we've got, (clap) Our team is really red hot. Fe, fi, fiddly, lo Fe, fi, fiddly looo Fe, fi, fiddly lo (clap) Our team is really red hot. We've got half-backs, quarter-backs, fullbacks from way back Centers, tackles and guards. And when you see our team, A-crashing down the green, You know that we are gaining yards. They've got muscles like Superman, Hearts of all the girls, Good gosh a'righty they're a gift to the world. They're a one letter, go getter, Couldn't ever find better, Celery Fed we're the best, You'd better leave 'em alone."

S. H. S. Ramblings

Drums, flags, floats, and marching feet. The biggest ARMISTICE DAY parade ever, has come and gone and now "TURKEY DAY" is on its way.

In tune with the season was a hay ride making its way to SANLANDO—along for the fun were HERMAN BRUMLEY and MARJORIE BURDICK, HELEN HUTCHISON a "PUZZY" MORELAND; ANN WIGGINS a "BILLY FLEMING" and the "regulars."

MRS. FORT'S BIOLOGY class had no interest for MARJORIE JONES last period Friday, not with FRED DYSON walking outside for her.

It ain't every gal who receives long distance calls and special delivery letters. But "GLAMOR-GAL" CALDWELL receives both from debonaire man about GVILLE, GENE HARRISON.

"Here's wishing you many happy returns," MARTHA PAGE. May we drop-in and have a piece of candy from FRANK EVANS!

BO ADAMS up from WEST PALM BEACH, painted "ye ole tavern" red and then came back and striped it. Wow! LEROY HODGE and CONNIE McCALL, K.A. brought a lovely around the town EVERY SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

"There's nothing like an out of town interest," says VIRGINIA HARRIETT, whose steady CHARLEY BAIRD of PALATKA brought a lovely around the town EVERY SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

LUCILLE HALL has taken a shine to the northern part of the state, specially since her little Tallahassee fellow secured her to the JUNIOR DANCE.

HUDUNIT dunt again! We helped re-bring about the ideal romance between "KNOCK 'EM DOWN" ABE ODEAM and FRANCES DAGUE.

EUGENE PENNINGTON and LOUISE LEVY make a cute couple, but wonder who he doesn't pick on someone his own size.

PEGGY MAYER's brother of MIAMI is here visiting her and has he got all the girls hussling! He also is cute!

KINIE WIGGINS seems to be just use the old homestead for a stopping place between weekends. Last week it was the G.A. F.L.A. game and this week she's returning the visit of BISTER PERSONS of KIRKLAND.

Due to the fact that there was no football game and dance this FRIDAY all the "fun seeking students" of S. H. S. had to seek in other directions. But by a look at all the dates they found plenty to do.

LYMAN SCHOOL

The Junior Class enjoyed a Halloween party Friday night at the home of Mrs. Marion Thompson. The party was sponsored by their home room teacher, Miss Marchman. They enjoyed games, motor boat rides in the moonlight.

The Home Makers Club sponsored a box supper at the school house Monday evening. The program for the evening was as follows:

Vocal solo by Dorothy Mason accompanied by Mary E. North. Play, "Two Little Hitch-Hikers," this was a Family Relationship Play. The characters were Jewell Prescott, Eloise Largent, Eddie Meester, Ruth Weaver, and Marion Thompson.

Mr. J. P. Yates auctioned the boxes. The sales amounted to $14.75.

The new officers of the Home Makers Club are as follows: president, Gwenn Howell; vice-president, Ruth Weaver; secretary, Jean Walker; treasurer, Lois Walker; program chairman, Marion Thompson; entertainment committee, Dorothy Mason and Gathel Eging; Club reporter, Eddie Meester; song leader, Wilda Livingston and Betty Rouben; finance committee, Jewell Prescott and Eloise Largent. The club colors are blue and white.

The juniors are glad to welcome two new girls to their class. They are Mary Jane Smith from Mt. Vernon, Ohio, who comes down to Lyman School every year and Mary Dunn from Orlando High School.

Lyman seems to have had luck with its candidates. The head custodian, Mr. Bedenbaugh fell ill several weeks ago and his assistant Old Tom fell and tore the muscles of his leg so he will not be able to work for several weeks.

The students of Lyman were honored by the "Purr" Animal Show. During his act Mr. Perry produced 12 wild animals that he had trained from babyhood. Some of the most interesting were the ant eater, a pair of gila monsters and a porcupine. It is said that the male porcupine has over 30,000 quills and the female has over 24,000.

S.H.S. SASSIETY

Herbert! "Spring has sprung! Fall has fell; winter's here, and it's cold as ice." At the Tallahassee-Sanford football game everyone showed up wearing coats and sweaters.

KATHERINE SPENCER wore a gold wool skirt and a green jacket while her cousin, LUCILLE GORMLEY, wore a cute basket of white wool pop-poms.

DAVID JACKSON was busy with all his might in a white sweater while RAYMOND BEEBE'S tan hat is hard to identify.

While in New York this summer MISS STEVENS made money for cold weather by buying a tweed coat. MISS RISER and MISS DUREEN have been buying red hats.

Finding herself bored EARL LITTLE LILLY exchanged cheerleading for spectating and she looked scrumptious in a blue skirt, pastel plaid jacket, and a tan pork-pie hat. AUDREY BAUER's multi-colored sweater looked as smart as a shirt with her gray flannel skirt and LOUISE LEVY was a study in black and white in her black coat with white accessories.

Among the new girls at the game were BELORE MERRILL and CAROL LEE. LOUISE LEVY was wearing green pants. Looking as cute as ever were BELORE MERRILL and CAROL LEE. BELORE MERRILL and CAROL LEE were wearing green pants. BELORE MERRILL and CAROL LEE were wearing green pants.

Chapel Program Is Given By Seminole High Key Club

The Key Club, which is sponsored by the Sanford Kiwanis, was in charge of the regular chapel program at Seminole High School last Thursday, Nov. 13.

Edward Marshall, president of the Key Club, introduced Gene G. Baber, who made an announcement concerning the slogan campaign that is being sponsored by the Sanford Merchants Association.

Olin D. King, who spoke on "National Education Week," was introduced next. The speaker urged the students to get all of the knowledge they can, while they are in school, so that they will be prepared for the future.

At this point in the program, Professor G. E. McKay introduced John Galloway, who has recently been elected to the Seminole County Board of Trustees. Mr. Galloway stated that he will do everything in his power to help the students of Seminole High School get the most from their studies.

Mr. McKay next introduced three representatives of the Campbell-Losing Post of the American Legion. The first two, Joe Field and Ned Smith, thanked the students for the part they played in making the Armistice Parade such a success.

Dr. W. A. Brooks, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was the third representative from the American Legion. Mr. Brooks stated that National Education is sponsored by the American Legion, because they know the importance of the public school system.

The speaker discussed briefly the opportunities of the American youth. He concluded by urging the students to stay in school and get their education. In this way they can help National Defense more than if they were to join the Navy, Army, or Marines.

The remainder of the program consisted of a Major Deves Amateur Hour with Mack Cleveland acting as the Major himself.

Gladys Pippin sang, Nell Powell danced, David Gatchel played the trumpet, Robert Evans and Fred Fields played piano solos, and Jack Herring did some swalloving feats.

The first prize which was a year's subscription to the "Celery Feds" magazine, was awarded to Jack Herring. Jack did many different feats, but perhaps the most difficult one was when he swallowed a 21 inch sword.

The students enjoyed this program very much and they will look forward with enthusiasm to another program sponsored by the Key Club.

Strange Events Occur In S. H. S.

By Alice Temple

It's a strange world, where many strange things happen in many strange ways to persons in it; and, not to be outdone, Seminole High School witnesses its full share of unusual occurrences every day.

Of course, it's far from unusual to have Romance abounding in a school, but who would believe there was so much romantic Watch in S. H. S. W. Well, Dr. Root's watch has this distinction: being of such romantic inclinations that it HOLDS HANDS (with perfect timing) every time they get within calling distance of each other.

And while on the subject of timing, Earline Kelly didn't have it figured out just right when she tripped on the microphone wire during cheer practices, because Earline's watch was quite near enough to catch her.

What could it have been that made Mary Helen Tow-dell flat in the upstairs hall? Was it that sympathy was needed from Miss Buchanan who was passing just then; or was it that the floor was slippery?

Was Miss Hand's face red? She just couldn't understand why her sixth period class missed so many answers on the Readers Digest true-false quiz. David Gatchel, positive that he couldn't have missed so many, asked for the key and discovered that she had read the wrong answer. He was Whittaker and Patty Hodge seem to be all thumbs and fingers when it comes to playing volleyball. It's terrible! And bandaged fingers are so awkward.

It was a unique visit of a grasshopper in the fifth period General Science class sent Peggy Steverson scurrying to Mrs. Smith's desk for refuge.

It has just been learned that a certain group of Freshman boys, namely Billy Epps, Charlie Sherman, Frank Robinson and George and Louis Temple, planned to take Home class Economics to learn how to keep house (just like any good boy should do). But after consideration, they decided there were too many girls. Not that they minded that at all, but the girls might show a little bit.

Strange things happen all the time and who can tell what's next?

National Book Week Address Made By Lawton

By Herman Middleton

Prof. T. W. Lawton, county superintendent of public instruction, who speaks on, "Forward With Books," gave the major address of the morning in celebration of National Book Week at Seminole High School last Thursday, Nov. 6.

The speaker, who was introduced by Harry Lee, master of ceremonies, stated that the mind grows and is trained by travel, conversation, and many other things; but the best source is from images which come from well written books.

Mr. Lawton continued by emphasizing that the beauty of a book and the type of paper it is printed upon is unimportant; it is the material inside that counts.

This excellent address was concluded by the speaker giving short reviews of three books. Perhaps the most interesting was "Saratoga Trunk," by Edna Ferber, which tells of the old New Orleans. This book depicts an important epic of United States history.

Two students of S. H. S., Winifred Lovell and Theron MacDiet, also gave interesting talks. Theron, who spoke on "The History of Book Week," stated that it was started in 1919 with the theme, "Obtaining More Books in the Home."

Winifred, who spoke on "What Our Library Means to S. H. S.," stated that the school library contains approximately 3,000 books and that it subscribes to 28 magazines and four daily newspapers. Miss Edna Chittenden, the school librarian, and her four assistants, Lorraine Prescott, Gwendolyn Hayes, Dorothea Dym, and Leila Pearl McDaniels, are always willing to help the students with their themes, to guide them towards the better books, and the many other duties that they are called upon to do.

A piano solo "Intermezzo," by Robert Evans, and a reading, "Going To Visit Pa' Folks," by Maile Page were also included in the program.

The program was concluded by Prof. G. E. McKay introducing E. C. Steele, principal of the Lake Monroe School. Mr. Steele presented four medals to the winners of the book week contest. He had trained from babyhood. Some of the most interesting were the ant eater, a pair of gila monsters and a porcupine. It is said that the male porcupine has over 30,000 quills and the female has over 24,000.

Emily Anderson is a new member, taking place as Betty Roberts' partner in the stand of Lorena Short, who has moved to Tavares.

The games must be played by Dec. 1, so "clear the courts for action."

Kerch, Entry To Caucasus Claimed Taken

Nazis Announce Success Of Key City To Russian Oil Fields

The Germans today announced the capture of Kerch, eastern Crimea, the gateway to the Caucasus oilfields, opening a probable new theater of action at the southern front.

The Russians described determined counterattacks in wintry weather, throwing back the German drive at Tikhvin, near the Leningrad-Moscow-Archangel railway.

The Germans announced the appointment of Hilfer of Alfred Rosenberg to the ministry in charge of civil administration in eastern occupied regions.

On the far northern reaches of the front, the fighting in winter outside fighting next to impossible, although a Finnish communiqué said that about 100 fortified Russian positions on the eastern front had been destroyed and reported artillery dealing in various sectors.

German confirmation of the effectiveness of winter's aid to Russia appeared in the meager news of the capture of Sevastopol defenses in many places it was the Reds who attacked.

In the Leningrad area, Germans said they had captured 100 fortified positions around the city, including the island of Kotlin, 100 miles east of Leningrad.

Another Nazi gain was claimed in Crimea, where the high command said a "partial" defense of the city of Sevastopol had been broken.

Kerch, the Russian port on the eastern tip of the peninsula which could serve as a bridgehead for a water hop toward the Caucasus oil fields, was captured by German artillery and bombers but remained in Russian hands.

When the battle started, Sergeant Stapler had the medical trucks driven into the woods and concealed. They ran back toward the battle where he met several soldiers who were trying to escape from the far superior force.

Lewis Lays Blame For Walkout On Bethlehem Head

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—(AP)—John L. Lewis, former President Roosevelt by letter today the United Mine Workers had refused to accept an open shop agreement in captive coal mines because it would "invalidate" other agreements in operation throughout the soft coal mining industry.

At the time the letter was released, Lewis was telling the U. M. W. policy committee he blamed the present strike in coal pits squarely on President Eugene C. Grace of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

The Associated Press in Birmingham today said that stopping the supply of coal to iron and steel plants in that area, and a severe curtailment of steel production is not more than two weeks off if the strike continues.

Approximately 8,000 captive miners in Alabama did not start work today.

Elsewhere, a survey of strikes in Pennsylvania coal mines showed fewer than 1,000 miners reported at work today.

Upon and management cooperation in the captive coal mines, a survey of negotiations yesterday, still stalled on the union shop issue, and John L. Lewis, standing firmly on his order for a work stoppage by 5,000 miners, checked the next action up to President Roosevelt and maybe Congress.

With this development, it was apparent that government-labor relations in the light of the defense program had reached a cross, for the President has cleared only Friday that production from the coal mines—owned by steel companies busy with armament orders—must continue without delay.

Highly valuable elements in an emerging situation were the changing threat of an industry-wide strike in the soft coal fields and the possibility of an open break between the government and the U. M. W.

In Detroit yesterday, the executive board of the C. I. O. pledged its unqualified support for the efforts by the United Mine Workers (I. O.) to gain a union shop in the captive mines.

Lewis, president of the miners, replied just as flatly that since the commercial mines operate under a union shop, which requires all workers to belong to the union, the miners "could not extend special favors to the steel companies."
