Retired Rabbi Dies Under Car Wheels

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Fearing another subway accident, passengers on an L. R. T. train were stampeded into a near panic today when Rabbi Leon Harrison, of St.
Louis, misjudged his footing and stepped in front of a train at the 116 St. Station.

He was ground to death beneath the wheels while passengers were piled up as the motorman jammed on the breaks. Traffic was delayed for 30 minutes while the body was being removed. Rabbi Harrison was on his way to a dentist's office. He was a sufferer from spells of vertigo and was also nearsighted. He was not wearing his glasses.

BRITISH GOLFERS SUFFER STINGING DEFEAT IN MATCH

Americans Lead By Redoubtable Jones, Retain Ownship Of Trophy After Gaining Outstanding Victories

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—(INS)—

Smutting under their worst defeat since the founding of the Walker Cup, the ten members of the British amateur golf team sent here to challenge America's right to the famous trophy, prepared to leave these parts today, satisfied that the better team had won.

The Americans, led by their redoubtable captain, Bobby Jones of Atlanta, retained possession of the 50-pound silver trophy by winning eleven matches to the British ones. It was the most decisive victory since the cup team was put up in 1922.

Only the fighting T. A. "Tommy" Torrance saved the British team from the humiliation of a complete whitewash. Torrance fought Chick Evans, former American amateur champion, to a standstill in the feature singles match of the tournament, winning by the narrow margin of one up.

Previous to that match, most of Britain's outstanding amateur stars had been routed by scores ranging from 3 and 2 to 13 and 17. Among the number to fall by the wayside was T. P. Perkins, the British amateur champion, from whom much was expected.

Perkins and Jones played the first singles match of the day and it proved the greatest rout, from the British point of view. Jones won 13 up and 12 to play.

Dr. William Tweddell, captain of the invading team, fell in the match before the superior golf of George von Elm, the score was 3 and 2. Other results were:

Francis Guinet defeated Major C. O. Hazlett, 8 and 7; Jess Sweet, 2 and 1; L. H. Hayes, 5 and 4; Harrison Johnson triumphed over E. F. Storey, 4 and 2; Watts Gunn swamped R. H. Hardman, 11 and 10, and Roland Mackenzie nosed out ahead of Capt. G. N. C. Martin, 2 and 1.

Aviation Maneuvers To Attend Unveiling

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., Sept. 1.—(INS)—Airplanes coming hundreds of miles were landing today for the air meet to be held this afternoon in connection with the unveiling of a bronze tablet dedicating Miller municipal airport, formally opened last year by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh.

There were planes of all sizes.

The runway occurred at the home of George Belan, film director, following a dinner party.

Carolina Rally For Hoover Ends In Row

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 1.—

(INS)—Their meeting last night having been interrupted by an invasion of Smith partisans, resulting in a number of fist fights and the throwing of at least one egg, members of the Hoover club of Richland County today were planning to hold a "closed" meeting in the near future.

While the session of the Hoover Democrats was in progress, a party of Smith supporters entered the hall. Speeches of anti-Smith and pro-Smith orators were quoted with catcalls. It was never determined whether a resolution calling a meeting of "true Jefferson Democrats," to be held on Sept. 25 was adopted, because of the confusion.

Plans are being made for opening the new store Wednesday morning. The present store occupied by Mr. Perkins will be closed after tonight. Stock will be moved into the new location Monday and Tuesday.

REQUESTS FOR TALKS SWAMP HOOVER CAMP

Solicitations Are So Heavy
That It May Be Necessary
For Presidential Aspirant
To Alter Speaking Program

May Make Visit To Illinois And Ohio

Candidate Plans To Take Half-holiday And Visits Same Between Yankees And Senators

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—

Bert Hoover is being bombarded by so many requests for speeches that it is considered likely among his advisers that he will be compelled to elaborate his tentative speaking campaign, it was indicated today.

Political leaders throughout the country have refused to accept as final the declaration in official quarters that the republican nominee at present contemplates making only three or four set speeches.

With speeches already promised for New York and New England this plan would leave but one or two for other sections. He has been urged to extend his campaign in the East, to make an important campaign speech in Chicago, swing through the South, the border states and the Northwest.

In the wake of these demands came a request from Sen. Simon J. Flexner, of Ohio, keynoter of the national convention that named Hoover. Flexner told him, he said, that if there are but three or four speeches, one of them must be in the better team had won.

The Americans, led by their redoubtable captain, Bobby Jones of Atlanta, retained possession of the 50-pound silver trophy by winning eleven matches to the British ones. It was the most decisive victory since the cup team was put up in 1922.

Only the fighting T. A. "Tommy" Torrance saved the British team from the humiliation of a complete whitewash. Torrance fought Chick Evans, former American amateur champion, to a standstill in the feature singles match of the tournament, winning by the narrow margin of one up.

After having worked in his office from early morning until late afternoon for two days, Hoover planned to take a Saturday half-day today by going the last ball game between the New York Yankees and the Washington Senators.

Hoover saw the opening games of the season but has not seen a game since that time. He has been described as an "occasional fan" and usually sees a half dozen games a season, his friends say.

He is looking forward to a prospective salt water fishing trip in Chesapeake Bay before campaign duties become too arduous.

Tom Mix Vindicated
In Fight With Actor

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 1.—(INS)—

Completely vindicated of battery charges, Tom Mix, film cowboy, today has proved that he had not "soaked" a woman in the eye, or kicked a man when he was down. Will Morrissey, actor, alleged that Mix applied the boot to him when he was down; his wife, Mildred Miller, claimed that Mix "soaked" her in the eye.

The court, so to speak, found that it must have been two other fellows or something. Judge Wilson labeled Mix as a "brutal and red-blooded man." He asserted he believed the Morrisseys were intented, that Morrissey hurried precipitately to Mix and that the film cowboy was justifying in regarding both verbal andistic on the two charges of murder.

The Morrisseys have three other children still living, one, an 11-year-old boy, in a school of correction.

Negro Maid States
Kelly Visited Home
By Sanford Citizens

SANFORD, Sept. 1.—(INS)—

That Mrs. Myrtle Mellus, maid for the murder of Mrs. Myrtle Mellus, had visited the Mellus home, both at day and night, in many occasions, was established today by the testimony of Maggie Farris, a negro maid.

Judge Lewis declared that he and Monaghan are determined to drive gallantly and grafting police from the city. "Philadelphia shall not become a second Chicago," he declared. The police not only can but must break up organized crime, bootlegging syndicates, organized banditry and thuggery.

Mellus told the special grand jury.

Walter Hagen Takes Lead Over Farrell In Tourney For World Championship

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—(INS)—

Walter Hagen, British open champion, was 2 up on Jimmy Farrell, holder of the American open championship at the turn in the second of their series of golf matches for the amateur championship of the world today at Ridgemont Country Club.

Earlier in the week the "Hag" won the first of the series at Detroit by the narrow margin of 1 up.

Hagen won the third and fifth holes of the morning round to turn 2 up over Farrell.

Johnny sliced his tee shot on the fourth off the green in the right, his chip rolled fifteen feet over the cup. Hagen's approach putt stopped two inches short of the cup and John held out a 15-foot putt for a half.

Walter had the better second to the green at the ninth when both narrowly missed long putts for birdies. The halved in par.

Farrell again sliced his tee at the fifth and landed on a neighboring driveway. He shot his second over the green into a stump tree. He was short and Walter won the hole with a par putt.

Jimmy's second shot at the sixth dropped in a trap at the left of the green. Hagen was 25 feet away. He put his approach two feet from the cup and missed for a win.

Farrell's iron on the seventh was inside Hagen's by 12 feet. Walter's approach putt was 5 feet short but he holed in par.

Hagen shot to the flag on the eighth and Farrell's dropped in a tray at the left. Johnny sliced a two-foot over the pin and sank for a 1/2.

Walter had the better second to the green at the ninth when both narrowly missed long putts for birdies. The halved in par.

ATHLETICS DROP GAME TO RED SOX AS YANKEES LOSE

Connie Mack's Players Miss Chance To Advance Whole Game Upon New York Team Which Trimmed By Boston

NEW YORK, Aug. 31—(INS)—The status quo was maintained in the pennant races Thursday, with a time chance to advance a full game on the Yankees and so cut their lead to a game and a half; Connie Mack's Athletics tossed off a game to the Red Sox in the ninth inning, 3 to 2. Meantime the Senators had shelled the Yankees 3 to 1. Philadelphia went into the ninth with a lead of 2 to 1 but in that frame the Bostonians got to Ehmke for two runs on a double by pinch hitter Ruffing. To discourage retaliation, Ed Morris went to the box in the final half inning and fanned Hauser, Speaker, and Collins.

Rain interfered with the momentous series between the Pirates and Cardinals, after the Cards had scored two runs in the opening frame and held Pittsburgh safe in their half. Chicago beat Cincinnati 2 to 9 in the only game of the day with any bearing on the National League race. The game, which rain cut short in the seventh, gave the Cubs a safe hold on second place for the time being and dropped the Reds to a tie for fourth place with the Pirates. Root went the route for the Cubs and besides his performance in the box, he allowed but four hits and hit a sacrifice fly at a time when it was good for a run.

The Yank defeat smacked of the recent trouble of the Giants. A former Yank had much to do with it. Sad Sam Jones, graduate of the Huggins school, pitched a seven hit game marred only by Babe Ruth's forty-seventh homer. In a battle for fifth place the Tigers won 5 to 3 stepping over the Indians who dropped to sixth in the lineup. Vic Sorrell out-pitched Willis Hudlin.

Hudlin's bad start gave the Tigers a three run edge that the Cleveland team could not overcome. Heilmann's boot of Burns' line drive in the fifth made possible two Cleveland tallies.

Starting their series in Boston the Phillips dropped a close session to the Braves 5 to 5. DeMajay was on the firing line for the victory while Ferguson pitched a good ball for the Phillips till the sixth inning when he struck Sisler and Mueller, gave a free base and was hit for a single and a double. Cy Williams of the Phillips and Freigau of the Braves each contributed homers.

John McGraw's Giants enjoyed a day of rest after their seven straight setbacks. They needed it. Today Brooklyn, the mad arch-enemy from across the river will advance upon the Polo Grounds headed by Uncle Wilber Robinson.

The way the Yankees and the A's have jockeyed up and down within the last week sets one to wondering if the decisive games of the race will come on Sept. 9, 11 and 12. On those dates the Mackmen will invade the Yankee Stadium for a four game series that, unless it results in even split, will have great bearing on the standing of these two teams. The Yanks today take their third day off this week. Connie's A's again will meet the Red Sox at Shibe Park and today they have to affect the Yankee lead, unless Jiggs pavins deuces a wet spell in Philly.

Candidates For Navy Team Report Today

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Aug. 31—(INS)—More than 50 candidates for the Navy football eleven will report here today for the second day of practice under the direction of coach Bill Ingram.

Training was begun earlier this season in an effort to put the team into shape for the Notre Dame game at Soldiers Field, Chicago Oct. 12, the third game on the schedule.

Arthur Spring, halfback, will report to coach Ingram Monday while Joe Clifton, another back, will join the squad tomorrow. Several members of last year's Piebald squad show promise of showing up well on the varsity this year.

RUTH HITS 47TH

NEW YORK, Aug. 31—(INS)—Babe Ruth today is seven days and four runs ahead of his 1927 record. The "King of swat" hit his forty-seventh homer yesterday off Sam Jones in the seventh inning of the Yankee-Senator game. The Homer was the only run scored by the Yanks.

HORNSHY SIGNS CONTRACT

BOSTON, Aug. 31—(INS)—The Braves today can look forward to six years under the leadership of Rogers Hornshy, manager of the Boston Nationals and veteran second baseman. Judge Emil Fuchs, president of the Boston club, revealed yesterday that Hornshy had signed a three year contract in addition to his first year guaranteeing his services for three years.

Youthful American Tennis Combination Is Prepared To Play French Champions

Connie Mack's Players Miss Chance To Advance Whole Game Upon New York Team Which Trimmed By Boston

PARIS, Aug. 31—(INS)—

Having forsaken a rough and ready, powerful brand of tennis for a scientific game, George Lott and Johnny Hennessey, America's stars were prepared today to make the final effort here to defeat Henri Cochet and Jacques Brugnon, world's championship doubles tennis team, and place the Stars and Stripes in the finals with the flag of the British Empire established by Patterson and Hawkes.

The match will be an added thrill for ten tennis-hungry courtiers of New England, Lot and Hennessey, the brilliant mechanical duo from France in the semifinals yesterday. The match went into the fifth set with the American and the champions knotted at four all before being called on account of darkness.

The youthful Americans are strong favorites to shoot to the top rank in the tennis firmament by defeating Cochet and Brugnon in the play-off this afternoon. Mrs. Mallery and Mrs. Louise Lester of Brooklyn.

The other match in this tournament brings together Mrs. George G. W. Wightman of Brooklyn and Miss Penelope Anderson of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Governor Morris and Miss Lee Palfrey.

In the semi-finals of the national mixed doubles tournament today Mrs. Mallery and Jack Crawford will meet Penelope Anderson and Lott, and Miss Cross and E. F. Moon are to play Helen Wills and Hawkes.

The national father and son tournament also reaches the semi-finals today with J. D. E. and Arnold Jones matched against N. H. and G. Mundy, and Donald M. and M. T. Hill scheduled to play Arthur Ingraham, Sr., and Jr.

For the national veterans title L. C. Wright and H. L. Johnson are carded to meet William Rosenbaum and Fred Baggs.

Patterson and Hawkes both watched the play of the Americans.

Franc Stabilization Throws Much Gold On French Market

PARIS, Aug. 31—(INS)—Stabilization has finally convinced many French gold hoarders that they might better empty their old woolen socks of golden "louis" and exchange them for some pretty colored paper bills. In spite of the fact that every Frenchman was urged to turn in every bit of gold to turn in every bit of gold during the war, long lines of people are now standing before the exchange windows in the Bank of France, eager to convert their savings.

Occasionally one deposits a large bag of the gleaming pieces, others carry it in the proverbial "golden sock" and many others come with various fancy receptacles of tin or glass. The rate is the same for all of them—ninety-seven francs fifty-five centimes, approximately four dollars, for a bright twenty-franc gold piece, providing all of the original gleam is there.

The Bank no longer receives silver pieces.

HERB PONDERS PLEA TO MAKE DRIVE IN SOUTH

no plans for a drive in the South similar to that in other states, it was indicated. Chairman Walter H. Newton of the Speakers' Bureau, after conferring with Hoover, said that "Speakers will be furnished the South if they want them." Starting his second day in his new personal headquarters in the Moran mansion here, Hoover continued to familiarize himself with the machinery which has been set up to sift him and to receive reports of political observers.

Each state leader is being impressed by Hoover with the idea that the business of the state organization is to carry the banner to victory. State Chairman H. Edmund Machold of New York and William H. Hill, chairman of the Hoover-Curtis Campaign Committee of New York, made known the candidate's views after a conference.

The conference with Eastern leaders, however, had divulged no change in the prohibition attitude or Hoover's policy with reference to this issue in the East. Michod denied that he discussed prohibition with Hoover, but said that it would be a big issue with voters in New York City. Nor has the Republican State Committee any particular plan to meet it, he said.

Hoover, it was learned, declined another invitation to express himself further on prohibition apparently feeling that he had covered the subject.

Labor Day will be a real holiday for the candidate, according to present plans. Having decided not to make a special Labor Day speech, it was said at his office that he had no plan to issue a statement on that day further expounding his views on Labor.

Hoover, it is said, is adverse to using the holiday for political purposes.

AMERICA HONORS DEAD ARCHITECT FOR PARIS WORK

Plans Made 2 Centuries Ago By Gabriel To Be Included In Handsome U.S. Embassy Building Located In Paris

PARIS, Aug. 31—(INS)—

The celebrated French architect Gabriel, who constructed the two fine palaces on the Place de la Concorde, one of them now the well-known Hotel Crillon, and added in 1782, has just received an important order from the American government for which French people in general are very grateful.

According to the plans which he made nearly two centuries ago, house the American Embassy will go up on the corner of the Avenue Gabriel and the rue Boissy d'Angues.

"Respecting this illustrious cor-nidor of French art," writes Clement Vautel in "Le Journal," "the Americans are not going to put up a skyscraper or building in the latest modern style. Fortunately, they wish to form the 'pendant' of the celebrated palace of the Infanteado to the right, one of the historical monuments of old Paris."

It was here that the Czar Alexander I lived at one time and here that Talleyrand died in 1815.

Monsieur Vautel, together with other artistic Frenchmen, feel that the Americans are thus giving a good lesson to many others who persist in destroying the natural beauty of the French capital by putting up dreadful "eyesores."

And speaking of Franco-American coincidences, one is reminded that an American girl of Chicago Margaret Dowdell, is the owner of an antiquarian shop in the Rue du Commerce, once the house of the celebrated Madame de Pompadour. She has left intact all the pleasant reminders of the French woman such as the handsome crystal chandelier in her salon and the "LL's" worked into the fine forged iron balustrade. At the entrance of the courtyard is the same old bell Madame de Pompadour used to ring in the dedication game for the new Butler stadium at Indianapolis.

A game with Chicago on November 17 winds up the road trips.

The schedule is as follows:

Oct. 6—Bradley at Illinois.

Oct. 13—Coe at Illinois.

Oct. 20—Indiana at Illinois

(Dad's Day).

Oct. 27—Northwestern at Illinois (Homecoming).

Nov. 3—Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Nov. 10—Butler at Indianapolis.

Nov. 17—Chicago at Chicago.

Party Is Given For 2 Sanford Visitors

Mrs. James Estridge, Mrs. Herman Middleton, and Mrs. Irvin Estridge were joint hostesses at a lovely bridge party Thursday afternoon at the home of the latter on Mellonville Avenue, honoring Miss Ruth Mildred Richard of Terre Haute, Ind., and Mrs. H. E. McBride of Tampa, who are the guests of Mrs. C. E. Proctor. The rooms of this attractive home were beautifully decorated with a profusion of zinnias in pastel shades, and scores were kept on hand-painted tallys in shades of blue and maize.

After several progressions of bridge had been played scores were totaled and it was found that Mrs. Robert Masska held high score, for which she was awarded a lovely box of stationery. Miss Ruth Mildred Richard, who made low score, received playing cards, and Mrs. H. Methvin was given two attractive pot holders for being lucky at cutting. The hostess presented each of her honor guests with a dainty bohoir pillow.

After the awarding of the prizes a delicious salad course was served to the following guests: Miss Richard, Mrs. McBride, Mrs. Robert Masska, Mrs. A. C. McLendon, Mrs. B. G. Methvin, Mrs. B. B. Wright, Mrs. Leslie Bryan, Mrs. E. J. Taylor, Mrs. L. McMullen, Miss Eugenia David, Miss Kathleen Long, Mrs. Don McDonald, Mr. C. F. Proctor, and Mrs. A. C. McReynolds.

Prayer League Holds Interesting Meeting

The members of the Jubilee Prayer League of the First Methodist Church had a most interesting meeting Friday afternoon at the church. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. H. C. Smith, and the subject was "Life Re-evaluation." This subject was divided into two sub-topics, "Let us awake lest we lose our church," which was presented by Mrs. I. D. Martin, and "Let us awake lest we lose life itself," presented by Mrs. H. C. Smith.

In concluding the program several songs were sung, including "Take Time to be Holy," "He Leadeth Me," and "More Love to Thee, Oh Christ."

The program was pronounced most helpful and inspiring by each member who attended.

EPWORTH LEAGUE TO MEET

The Senior Epworth League of the Methodist Church cordially invites all the young people of Sanford, not attending any such organization, to meet with them every Sunday.

The program for September 2 is "Do You Know That?" Many Bible questions which teachers often omit will be asked and answered by the members. This program has been prepared in a very interesting and entertaining fashion by one of the members, Mr. George Simms. All members are urged to attend as a friendly attendance contest is being held between the departments.
