

Company Reports New Asset High

The Dec. 31 financial statement of First Federal Savings and Loan Assn. shows assets of $10,372,836, a new high for the legal thrift organization which is finishing its twenty-fifth year service this year.

The past year has been most successful, according to George Touhy, vice president, with an increase in resources of over 20 percent.

There was a marked step-up in savings that show on the statement as $4,023,096, and on the over 3,700 savings accounts First Federal paid dividends of $200,397 during 1938, the latter half of which was at a four percent a year rate.

This steady flow of savings from the thrifty and investment conscious persons in the community made it possible to grant loans that increased in number by 14 percent and in dollars by 32 percent according to the executive officer. This has played an important role in the growth of the district served, he added. Reserves were increased by $148,379 and now exceed one million dollars, the statement shows. This amounts to over 11 percent of the savings account investment, it was pointed out, and is a source of added security even though the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp. insures each account up to $10,000.

"The directors have tried to keep the safety features on a high level and are happy that we rate in the first ten percent of S&L's in the state in our reserve ratio," Touhy said.

Asked about the coming year, the S&L official said that the general economic outlook for the nation and for the state is optimistic and said that there are few localities that have better prospects than this Central Florida area. He feels that in times when incomes are adequate for general "good living", people should have regularly to provide for those times when "things are not so rosy." There is a strong demand for housing in Sanford, Seminole County and this immediate area, and if this savings trend continues as it should, the "tight money" condition should ease considerably, the First Federal operating officer said.

"At this time when we have experienced such a fine year, all of us are disappointed that our president, Howard Faville, should be stricken and in the hospital, unable to thrill to the accomplishment of his leadership," Touhy said, and said that so many of Faville's associates and friends were wishing a speedy recovery for him.

Directors of the association are A. Edwin Shinholser, J. H. Van Hoy, H. James Gut, E. G. Harper Sr., E. F. Doudney, Faville and Touhy. The staff in addition to Touhy are Mrs. Bert Chapman, Mrs. James S. Ekers, Miss Barbara Flynt, Mrs. W. C. Johnson, Miss Edna Powell and Miss Nancy Butler.

Road Improvement Effort Underway

The county commission today set the machinery in motion to improve critical roads in the county.

Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. was authorized to apply for a certificate of availability of county gasoline tax money to purchase right-of-way.

The board will amend its present bond which pledges the county's 20 percent of surplus gas revenue to add another $500,000 for right-of-way purchases for primary road improvements.

The board plans to designate the five major projects for presentation to the State Road Department at its next meeting.

Chairman John Krider will invite an official of the SRD to attend the meeting. "We will pick the roads that have the biggest traffic count," he said.

The major road projects are expected to include widening and

Architect To Be Named For Jail Plan

The County Commission will name an architect at its next meeting to draw up plans for a new county jail. The board last year agreed on the need for a new jail and heard reports from correction department officials that the present jail is inadequate and lacking in proper security.

In other business during the meeting, the board agreed to study a request by a representative of a Negro Boy Scout Camp in West Seminole County for improving the area.

Plans Completed For Ike's Tour Of Latin America

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Plans were virtually complete today for President Eisenhower to make a flying good will tour of four South American countries from Feb. 21 to March 4.

Diplomatic sources said that the White House Monday night delivered final details of the trip to the embassies of the four countries — Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Uruguay.

It appeared certain that all four governments would approve the suggested itinerary.

An official announcement was expected from the White House later this week. Eisenhower also may refer to the trip in his State of the Union message to Congress Thursday.

The president decided to limit his tour to the four countries so he could spend more time in each, sources explained.

They said Eisenhower will be in Brazil from Feb. 20 to 25, in addition to Rio de Janeiro, he will visit Brasilia, the new capital, and Sao Paulo, a busy port and industrial center.

From Sao Paulo, Eisenhower will go to Buenos Aires, Argentina, for another four-day visit Feb. 26-30.

Because the airport in Santiago cannot accommodate his giant jetliner, Eisenhower was expected to cross the Andes in a smaller plane for his visit to Chile and then use the same plane to fly to Montevideo, Uruguay, probably on March 2.

Boys Find Dead Infant In Box

Three boys found a dead Negro infant at Red Bug and Tuslawville roads yesterday.

Larry, John, and Billy Chubb had just gotten off the school bus and were walking north on Tuslawville Rd. when they saw a box tied with string lying on the side of the road, Deputy Lt. J. Krider reported.

Opening the box, they found the baby wrapped in old dresses, Krider said. Mrs. Victoria Chubb called the sheriff's office.

Krider said that the baby boy was fully developed but too decomposed to tell whether he had been born dead or alive. The infant, which weighed about 30 pounds, had been dead about five to seven days, Krider estimated. He is still investigating.

Assessment Raises Are Sustained

The County commission today continued its hearing into the tax evaluation problem and sustained 18 assessment increases.

The board had scheduled a public hearing on the commission issues and notified various owners whose property had been raised so that they could appear before the board today.

The board unanimously agreed that all the raises in evaluation were fair and sustained in whole.

Congress To Legislate In New Facilities

By BOB WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Our Capitol dome looks like a giant island of concrete, there is a hole where the Senate steps in. In the rest of the dome, the rest is missing.

Otherwise, everything is in good shape for the second coming of the 86th Congress this week.

Remember how much trouble the rotators had with slow elevators, slippery floors and squawking loudspeakers when the new Senate office building opened last year?

Well, they now have non-skid carpets on the floors, loud speakers that don't speak until spoken to and their own private elevators. What is more, the checks now keep good time.

I checked up on preparations for the new session by making an inspection tour of the congressional premises. This was not as simple as it used to be.

A building where the Capitol hill is expanding both the legislative branch and giving real meaning to the term "legmen" as applied to journalists.

Beginning at noon and in the basement of the new Senate office building, I walked roughly three-fifths of a mile through the corridors and two tunnels, observed three ramps and two elevators and rode in four elevators and one subway.

This brought me to room 7121 in the southwest corner of the new Senate office building, which is as far as you can go until the new house office building is finished.

The Capitol was crawling with workmen who are moving the east front farther east, putting a new subway terminal under the Senate steps and painting the great dome with an anti-rust compound of ghastly reddish hue.

In the basement, more painters were at work, changing depressing tan-colored walls into depressing grey-colored walls. This is an annual tradition.

The paint doesn't make the place look much better but it does keep a lot of painters employed. Next winter the walls presumably will be painted tan again, unless less year makes a difference.

Upstairs in the Senate chamber, I observed that another traditional of this had been performed with the refilling of the Senate staff boxes. Since no senators that I know of still exist, I can't figure out why the boxes become empty. I am beginning to suspect the page boys.

One more major pre-session duty remains to be performed Tuesday — the formal opening of the "fancy" new underground branch line railroad running between the Capitol and the new Senate office building.

The glories of the new subway, with its automatic controls and electric signals, already have been well publicized. I can only add that the walls of the subway tunnel are chartreuse.

CLOSING THE BOOKS ON ANOTHER YEAR

Inez Robb Says

BY INEZ ROBB
What kind of employers maintain yachts, hunting lodges, fishing camps, winter holiday havens both North and South (skating, anyone skin diving, fishing) and automobiles for their faithful employees? How long has this been going on and where can I apply?

It is obvious that over the years I have maintained a too lenient attitude toward my employer. I have wept with delight when he gave me a smile and trembled with fear at his frown. I have asked only that he be polite and pay promptly.

But I seem to have missed a lot, especially winters in the company wigwag at Palm Springs. According to Dale Latham, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, some employees get all the breaks and their employers all the tax breaks.

Mr. Latham has just announced that he is going to put the Federal tax on yachts, and on de credit cards. Such cards "have greatly magnified the problem" of making a man and his expense account come clean, the tax chief says. It does not comfort him at all that the Russians, who haven't even invented credit cards yet, are having expense account problems on the tax level, too.

With his new crackdown on expense-account spending, Mr. Latham may still concede that the best things in life are free—but not while he's in there swinging, tax deductible.

Corporations engaged in missile, radar and space work promise everything except so work and all pay. They keep upping the ante every week. Some Sunday I shall not be surprised if they guarantee to eat up their boy's meat and mash the peas in his potatoes. Why not? Isn't that the next step after free insurance, free medical care and psychiatry on tap?

Probably the yachts and ski lodges are old stuff in this league, another indication that I was born 20 years too soon.

Well, these fringe benefits trouble Mr. Latham, and so do credit cards. Such cards "have greatly magnified the problem" of making a man and his expense account come clean, the tax chief says. It does not comfort him at all that the Russians, who haven't even invented credit cards yet, are having expense account problems on the tax level, too.

Special inspection teams will observe and evaluate every phase of the squadron's activities during the ten days at sea. VAH-11's twin jet ASD Skywarrior will make radar scored bombing strikes on East Coast targets. Air Intelligence briefings, target study techniques, and aircraft maintenance proficiency are also to be evaluated.

The operation will provide the Checotilla an opportunity for a final tune-up before they depart for the Mediterranean later this month.

Three of Florida's universities have entered their prettiest co-eds in the annual Florida Citrus Queen contest—University of Tampa, University of Florida, and Florida State University.

Assignment Washington

BY ED KOTTERA
It is a job (Ninth of a Series)
FRAGUE — Enclosed in glass in the lobby of the Regency Hotel is a small billboard showing a sexy woman, and under the picture are these two questions:

"Homosick? Lonely?" If you are, it is suggested you step downstairs into the night club where, it is presumed, there are girls to make you forget home and loneliness.

I pictured a neat of Meta Harris down there, and proceeded into that den of iniquity only in the company of two male American school-teachers from a military base in Western Europe, here on a one tour.

They protected, I let out the reins a bit on my curiosity. And at a table in the shadows a brunette who appeared reputable enough made certain indications with her eyebrows and I went to her table, at which there was a party of people.

I properly introduced myself and we chatted in Czech. She was quite loquacious but she conveyed nothing that would make news in Kalamazoo. I hadn't noticed the chill breeze blowing stiffly from the other end of the table.

Later, the waiter caught me alone and whispered: "Mr. for your information, that young lady is the prostitute friend of that state official who has been glaring at you. . . I think he resents you."

Since I had no intention of doing a Klugey on communism at that particular time, I left my research on morals to another day. Then I was to come by some interesting findings.

From hotel clerks I learned that prostitution is not only condoned by Communist police, but supervised by them. From foreign travelers I learned that Prague's "A-mor-bus" girls had moved from the communist Alvena Hotel to the Yalta.

But from the man on the street I learned that since the Communist coup of 1948 morals have slipped so steeply that it's now an aching problem, even to the Reds who had brought it on.

Abortions have been legalized in Czechoslovakia, under certain conditions, and the number of operations is said to be shockingly high.

Another cause of rotting morals in the crowded living conditions. Usually several families live in one house of no more than three rooms.

Today, Czechoslovakia is one of the most alcoholic countries on earth. Czechs spend nine billion crowns for alcoholic drinks last year. That's an average of 1,200 crowns per adult — or a good month's wages.

One woman said she thought the drinking was due to increasing "nervousness." She told me that more and more women are taking to drinking heavily. She also said that women are now smoking more cigarettes than men. From what I saw, this seemed to be true.

Czechs brew beer in five strengths — 16 percent, 12, 14, 16 and 18. The 18 percent beer, an "invertebrate" sipper, told me, "makes you forget your troubles faster."

Perhaps the most tragic cause of slipping moral conduct in Czechoslovakia is a situation brought on by the Communist doctrine in schools — the attempt to bring children closer to the state and to break down respect between child and parent.

A disconsolate old father told me that when he threatens to reprimand his son around the house, the child says: "If you do, I'll tell my teacher on you."

There is one other major cause — the glamorizing of atheism in this once predominantly-Catholic country. But that's another story.

With trouble threatening in neighboring Laos, one of the things that give U. S. military officers in Thailand the "creeps" is the almost total lack of electronic radar installations. "They could hit you without your knowing it," was the way one officer summed it up.

Despite denials, there are persistent reports of deadlock which could delay scheduled independence for Cyprus on Feb. 19. Seminoles Host Oviedo In Cage Tilt Tonight

The Sanford Seminoles and the Oviedo Lions go against each other tonight in the SHS gym with the first game getting underway at 7 p. m.

It will be the first action for either team since the holidays and both will be seeking to hit the victory trail once again.

The Seminoles will be seeking their fourth victory in as many games and they go into tonight's game as slight favorites. The Seminoles have a well balanced club this season and if all the Seminoles come through for Coach Bud Layer they should be able to outscore the Lions.

High scoring Jim Gracey will be counted on heavily to continue his basket making talent and should be set for a good night. The six foot senior has averaged 20 points in the first three games and his rebounding has been improving steadily. Gracey will be paired at the forward position with senior Terry Christensen who is also capable of making points but has yet to have a big night.

Junior Doug Tanny will be the probable starter at the pivot spot and his duties will be shared by lanky Charis Oravet. At the beginning of the season rebounding was the big problem but on this point these big lads have more than pleased Layer.

The Seminoles have gotten a big boost this year with the fine play of George Perides at the guard position. George is probably the most serious player on the squad and is constantly working to improve his game. The combination of Perides and All-ABC guard Ray Lundquist gives the Seminoles good ball handling and play making.

Coach Paul Mikler of the Lions will be counting heavily upon center Johnny Tansky and guard Mike Duda to pace his squad. The JV's, who have a 2-1 record, will face the JV's from Oviedo at 7 p. m.

Courtesy Tourney Slated Tomorrow

Sanford Women's Golf Association members will tee off in a courtesy tournament at the Mayfair Country Club tomorrow morning. Mrs. Keen Ivey, Mrs. Ruth Heron and Mrs. Donna Dondanville; Mrs. Hazel Durso, Mrs. Mary Horowitz and Mrs. Susy Dickey; Mrs. Myrtle Adams, Mrs. Mildred Smith and Mrs. Cindy Brown; Mrs. Meg Urquhart, Mrs. Ann Marsh and Mrs. Jane McKibbin; Mrs. Jeanne Fouk, Mrs. Jo Symes and Mrs. Harriet Williams. Mrs. Lucille Heard and Mrs. Jimmie Livingston players are urged to tee off early because of the crowded conditions on the course.

Covington Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON
The Seminoles begin their long stretch of the season here tonight as they go against Oviedo in an important county battle. In last year's meetings between the two clubs, they each came up with a victory to tie for county honors.

So far the Seminoles have knocked off their first three opponents but they still have to come up with a victory over some of the tough ones before we can tell how they'll do this season. Oviedo should be a pretty good test for them but, this Friday we will really see just what they can do against a rugged opponent. The squad will face powerful Wildwood for the first time since they have been admitted to the OBC and it promises to be a top-notch contest. Right now the tough ones are shaping up as Winter Park, Apopka, and Lakeview. Anyway you look at it the conference champion will really have to battle when the tournaments start February 19 because every team is much improved over last year.

Although Coach Bud Layer is being cautious about any predictions as to how his team will do, this year's squad is the most solid that we have seen here in a long time. With fellows like Jim Gracey, Ray Lundquist, and Terry Christensen as a foundation we could go a long way.

Speaking of basketball, we had a fine turnout at the home opener so let's remember to come back again tonight.

McRoberts Tire Supply in the City League continues to knock off all their opponents and it looks as though they will continue to do so. They have won six straight without a loss and I have my doubts if anyone will beat them. Joe Rogers, Frank Stafford, and Buck Metts have been pacing the Tirenans all season and these fellows look more like a semi-pro team than a city league team.

A tentative schedule for the 1960 season in the Florida State League has been announced and the Greyhounds will face the Leesburg Orioles in the opener here April 20. Before you know it we will be back in action and as for me it can't be too soon.

Cincinnati Topples UPI Major College Ratings

NEW YORK (UPI)—Oscar Robertson and his Cincinnati Bearcat basketball mates today topped United Press International's major college ratings with 246 points, the second highest total ever recorded in the voting.

The only higher total recorded during the 10-year history of the ratings was the 248 total collected by the Bill Russell-sparked San Francisco Dons on Dec. 27, 1955.

The maximum possible score is 350. Each of the 25 leading coaches who rate the major schools for UPI selects 10 teams in the order he ranks them nationally. The points are awarded on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis.

Cincinnati's Robertson, setting single game (50) and tournament (12) scoring records, won the Holiday Festival last week in New York and downed Dayton Saturday night to boost his season record to 16-1. The record earned the Bearcats 23 first-place votes, two second-place votes and one third-place vote. The coaches based their ballots on games played through Saturday night.

California, which defeated West Virginia in the Los Angeles Classic last week before being upset Saturday night by Southern California, replaced the Mountaineers in second place. West Virginia slipped to third. Bradley, beaten only by Cincinnati, advanced from seventh to fourth. Ohio State, beaten last week by Kentucky, slipped from fourth to fifth.

Utah was sixth. Southern California, tied for 18th last week, advanced to seventh. Georgia Tech, 17th last week, moved to eighth. St. Louis dropped from sixth to ninth. Texas A & M, winner of the Southwest Conference tournament, advanced from 12th to 10th to become the third newcomer in the top 10.

Southern California, Georgia Tech and Texas A & M replaced Indiana, Illinois and New York University in the select group.

Wake Forest headed the second 16 group. It was followed in order by North Carolina, Indiana, Villanova, Iowa, Iowa State, Utah State, Southern Methodist, St. Joseph's (Pa.), Kentucky and Illinois for 20th.

Packer End Named Top 1959 Rookie

NEW YORK (UPI) — Boyd Dowler, young star for the most successful Green Bay Packers team in 15 years, today was named the National Football League's top rookie of 1959 in the annual United Press International poll.

Dowler, former University of Colorado quarterback who played offensive end for the Packers, won by one vote in balloting by 21 sports writers who covered the 1959 campaign in the 11 league cities.

With no one player overshadowing the first-year performers as Jim Brown of the Cleveland Browns did in 1957, only two votes separated the top three players in the poll.

Dowler received seven. Nick Pietrosanti, Detroit Lion fullback from Notre Dame, was second with six. Billy Stary, Chicago Cardinal safetyman and kick ruckback specialist from Mississippi State, was third with five.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Twenty-nine football fatalities were recorded last season for the highest total since 1947.

Nixon's Political Stock Gets Big Shot In Arm

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon's political stock seemed today as a result of his backstage role in settling the steel dispute. But some Democrats charged it was a phony build-up.

Many other Democrats conceded privately that Nixon's dramatic efforts to bring about a steel agreement made him a more formidable opponent in the 1960 presidential race.

The settlement also brightened the political future of Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell, Nixon's partner in the behind-the-scenes negotiations. Mitchell often has been mentioned as a vice presidential running mate for Nixon.

Republicans from President Eisenhower down heaped praise on Nixon for ending the eight-month-old steel controversy. Mitchell declared, "without the vice president we would not have had a settlement."

Nixon and Mitchell worked as a team in a series of secret meetings with management and union leaders. Some eight or 10 of the meetings were held at Nixon's home here.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Nixon acted throughout in accordance with Eisenhower's wishes.

It was learned from other sources that Nixon initiated the delicate backstage discussion last July. Both sides approached him as an intermediary when he attended the All-Star baseball game in Pittsburgh.

Rep. Roman C. Pucinski (D-Ind.) charged that the steel settlement was arranged to give political advantage to Nixon, who apparently will get the GOP presidential nomination.

Rep. Ray J. Madden (D-Ind.) said, "Nixon personally had as much to do with settling the strike as I had."

Madden, whose district includes the steel center of Gary, said an agreement that Nixon arranged the steel agreement was "just political camouflage to build him up" for the Republican presidential nomination.

Mitchell flatly denied that campaign politics had anything to do with the agreement.

Three Killed In Fiery Car, Truck Collision

ONECHOBEE (UPI) — Three persons were killed late Monday night when a car and trailer truck collided at high speed and burst into flames.

The accident occurred about 25 miles north of Lake Okechobee on U. S. Highway 44.

Dead were Dorothy Cummer of St. Cloud, driver of the car, and her companion, Ray Lee Peasley, 21, of Rockwood, Tenn. The driver of the truck was tentatively identified as Ervin Baker, 45, of Lake City, S.C.

The bodies of the men were burned beyond recognition. Both the woman's arms were severed.

Highway Patrol Cpl. Register Windham, who handled the collision near here Saturday which took nine lives, described the accident as "one of the worst I have ever seen."

He said the late model sedan was squashed like an accordion to about half its normal size. The truck was also a total loss.

Windham said the accident occurred shortly before midnight when the automobile apparently swerved suddenly across the center line and hit the semi-trailer head-on.

The truck pushed the car about 75 feet down the highway before coming to a stop and bursting into flames.

'Angry' TV Fan

CANTERBURY, England (UPI) — John L. McNally, 38, had had enough.

For two years his television set acted up. The screen would go dark when his wife tried to watch the afternoon housemakers program.

It would break down during the westerns, causing the children to burst into tears.

He kept losing his favorite program right in the middle.

McNally brooded about this and the shop where he had purchased the faulty device. His anger overcame him and he entered the shop with a 21-pound sledge hammer and smashed every television set in sight.

McNally went into the shop a very angry man," defense lawyer Michael Lewis told a court Monday. "He got himself worked up."

"I am satisfied that what you did was under great provocation and in circumstances which might make a man angry," said Court Deputy Chairman Christmas Humphries. "You were justified in being cross."

But Humphries sentenced McNally to six months in jail.

Lawyer Advises Lynch Witnesses Not To Answer Grand Jury Questions

BILOXI, Miss. (UPI) — A lawyer said today he has advised eight prospective witnesses to refuse to answer questions of a federal grand jury investigating the lynch-murder of a young Negro.

The lawyer, who asked that his name not be used, told a UPI reporter he advised eight of his clients to plead the Fifth Amendment when questioned by U. S. attorneys about the abduction and murder last April 25 of Mack Charles Parker, 20. At least one witness questioned by the grand jury Monday said he followed the lawyer's advice.

The 23-man grand jury, which includes one Negro, began its investigation two months after a county grand jury at Poplarville, Miss., refused to take any action in the case.

Parker, a Negro truck driver accused of raping a young white woman, was dragged from his jail cell at Poplarville by a mob of masked men. He was shot to death and his body dumped in the Pearl River near Bogalusa, La.

Four witnesses, including the husband of the woman Parker was accused of raping, went before the grand jury Monday. The hearing was recessed while Jeff Lee, a young mechanic, was in the room, and Lee was the first witness today.

Lee said the FBI, which investigated the lynching for a month last summer, accused him of being in Hattiesburg, Miss., the day before Parker was abducted, "looking for somebody to join the gang." Lee said he had gone to Hattiesburg only to look for a job.

The witnesses heard Monday, all from the Hattiesburg area, were reported to have rejected invitations to attend a meeting at which the lynching allegedly was planned.

Federal Judge Sidney Mize told the grand jurors they may indict on civil rights and conspiracy charges only if it is shown that law enforcement officers conspired with the lynch mob.

Train Plunges Off Bridge; 25 Believed Dead

MILAN, Italy (UPI) — A six-coach train jammed with commuters plunged at high speed off a fog-shrouded temporary bridge today and crashed into a factory yard 25 feet below.

The Transport Ministry in Rome said 25 were known dead and 100 injured in one of Italy's worst postwar disasters. The news agency Italia estimated 30 persons were killed.

The train, made up of a locomotive, a baggage car and six coaches, was carrying commuters from Sondrio and another town to work in Milan. It jumped the tracks on the temporary bridge on the outskirts of suburban Monza. Railroad officials said heavy fog prevented the engineer from seeing signals which ordered speed reduced to six miles an hour the temporary steel bridge.

34 Killed As Airliner Crashes Into Swamp

BOLIVIA, N. C. (UPI)—A National Air Lines plane carrying 34 persons on a vacation flight from New York to Miami crashed with explosive force in a swampy area early today and all aboard were killed.

The North Carolina highway patrol said there were no survivors. The passengers had planned a jet flight but last-minute technical difficulties forced them to transfer to the ill-fated DC8B. The plane crashed in a light rain a few miles from where it was to cross the coastline on the over-water portion of its flight.

The jet had been taken out of service when a crack was noticed in its windshield shortly before the takeoff time. The 105 passengers were divided among two smaller planes.

Biggest In County's History, Krider Says

Work is expected to start "as soon as possible" on a giant $5 million road improvement program with all the projects expected to be completed by mid-1961, County Commission Chairman John Krider announced today.

The money for the projects will come out of primary road money from the State Road Department, secondary gasoline tax money and this year's road and bridge fund.

"It will be the biggest job ever undertaken to improve county roads," Krider emphasized.

He added that work is expected to start within the next few days on county roads and work by contract in early February.

Among the major road improvement projects that will start will be Sanford Ave. from Glanderville to Geneva; SR 427 from Allamonte Springs to the Orange County line, West First St. from French Ave. to Interstate 600, SR 438 from Allamonte Springs to the turkey farm, SR 415 connecting a link from Geneva from Mellowville to French, Bear Lake Road to the Orange County line and SR 427 from Longwood to Allamonte Springs.

Out of this year's road and bridge fund money the county will take $133,000 for new roads which will include Sanford Ave., Park Ave., Wiley and Rose Drive, Myrtle Road and Geneva Lake Road in District 1.

In District 2 the county will work with the city in widening Sanford Ave.

In District 3 road improvements will include Humphrey, Cecilia Ave., Jewel Drive, South Street and Lyman School road while District 4 road improvements will include Prairie Lake Drive.

District 5 will see improvements in Banner Lakes Road, Seminole Fish Camp Road and Loch Arbor.

Krider stressed that these improvements do not include resurfacing projects now underway.

The board of commissioners yesterday also ordered the purchase of $75,000 in equipment for the engineering department including mowers, tamper, pickup, loader, four trucks and a dragline.

Raging Snow Storm Whips Across Dixie

A Yankee-style snow storm marched through Dixie today, spreading winter misery from Texas to Virginia.

Schools and highways were closed in the storm area. Some communities were crippled when power lines snapped under the weight of ice and snow.

At least three persons were known dead in the storm's wake. Three others were missing in a private plane.

The fierce storm, second of the new year, roared out of New Mexico, leaving that battered state covered with up to five more inches of snow.

It swirled into Oklahoma, knifed into the Texas Panhandle and then hit hard at Arkansas. Crossing the Mississippi River, the snow headed eastward, blanketing Tennessee and Kentucky.

The storm roamed through parts of Mississippi, Alabama, West Virginia, Virginia and North Carolina. It was expected to push northward into parts of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio later today.

The Weather Bureau warned up to seven inches would accumulate in Tennessee and Kentucky. During a six-hour period Tuesday night, five inches fell in Bristol, on the Tennessee-Virginia border.

The big Memphis-Arkansas bridge spanning the Mississippi River at Memphis was closed to all but emergency traffic, stranding hundreds of West Memphis residents on the wrong side of the river. The bridge was reopened at dusk, and the snow stopped Memphis after falling for 36 hours.

Schools in several West Tennessee towns were closed by the snow. The snow piled up to 12 inches in eastern Oklahoma. All roads in the state were reported hazardous. U. S. 89, "the main street of America," was blocked for 50 miles from El Paso to Clinton, Okla.

Courthouse Sets New Office Hours

The courthouse will keep its offices open during the noon hours starting Monday.

The courthouse has been jammed this week with residents filing homestead exemption, picking up their 1960 auto tags and paying their taxes.

Dickinson Enters Governor's Race

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Sen. Fred O. Dickinson of West Palm Beach jumped into the governor's race today and announced he will make development of roads and waterways his principal aim.

The 37-year-old Dickinson, who has never lost a political campaign, said he will wage the "hard-fighting, no-nonsense" ever waged by a candidate for office.

"I am out to win and I'm going to win," he told a group of newsmen and Tallahassee supporters in an hour and one-half long press conference.

He said H. Elmo Robinson, West Palm Beach attorney, who managed the South Florida campaigns of Sen. George Smathers and all campaigns for Congressman Paul Rogers, will be his state campaign manager.

He said he will propose a system of inter-connecting lakes that will permit a man to travel to every section of the state without taking his boat from the water.

He predicted such a program would greatly increase Florida's tax revenue.

He also proposed a 25-year road building program, written into law so that each new governor would have to follow it. It would be partially financed, he said, by earmarking some 70 to 80 million dollars per biennium from auto license tag revenues in addition to the present gasoline tax funds which go to roads.
