House Will Not Send Bill To Committee Which Voted Down Similar Measure

Holland's Tax Message Waited

Outlawing Of Union Shops To Be Considered Wednesday

TALLAHASSEE, May 12.—The House declined today to send to the labor committee a proposed constitutional amendment outlawing union labor's closed shop in Florida employment. The bill, offered by Rep. Jenkins of Alachua, is before the constitutional amendments committee for a hearing at 10:30 P. M.

Rep. Gillespie of Volusia sought to have it sent to the labor committee, of which he is chairman, but Jenkins and others said such an action would result in killing the bill. Gillespie's motion was defeated 57 to 27.

The proposed amendment would provide that "the right to work shall not be abridged or denied on account of non-membership in any labor organization."

The labor committee previously had reported a bill to prohibit closed shop conditions in public utility and other industries.

The bill would prohibit a person from being employed in any business or industry in which the public interest requires the employment of persons who are not members of a labor organization.

The bill also would prohibit a person from being employed in any business or industry in which the public interest requires the employment of persons who are not members of a labor organization.

China Declared Ready To Beat Japanese Alone

U. S. Citizens Said Willing To Defend Democracy's Spirit To Point Of War

CHUNGKING, May 12.—(AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek asserted today that China, without the help of an expeditionary force or naval action but with material and economic aid, was prepared to undertake single-handed the task of putting down Japan.

He added that he believed "with conviction" in the world's spirit of democracy against American democracy would meet with certain destruction.

Chiang said the resolve of the American people "to defend democracy against the forces of tyranny now is such that they will support the policy of their government to the point of war."

"Japanese aggression has now neither the strength nor the audacity to risk a clash with America."

The people look to President Roosevelt this week for answers to questions growing out of this nation's determined effort to aid Great Britain in crushing the Axis powers.

He will speak directly on Wednesday night before the Pan-American Union to a small audience. But what informed congressional sources predict will be one of the most important presidential utterances since the war began will be pointed at a world audience. The address will be broadcast throughout the United States and translated into foreign languages for short wave transmission to other lands.

Great care is being taken to keep secret the import of the President's speech. It comes at a time when the nation is stirred by a violent controversy over the next move by the Administration in the battle of the Atlantic and the effect of every word.

Effect Of Strikes On Defense Effort Is Small, Murray Says

Minimizes Strikes

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 12.—(AP)—C.I.O. President Philip Murray said today the effect of strikes on national defense has been "infinitely small," and asserted that "American labor will fight to protect and preserve democracy."

Murray said in an interview he doubted whether such strikes as those at the Ford River Rouge plant or the Appalachian soft coal mines had impeded "any substantial war production."

The United Automobile Workers C.I.O. yesterday set May 15 for a strike against 61 plants of the General Motors Corporation, which has defense orders totalling $750,000,000, unless an agreement upon demands for wage increases and a union shop is reached by that time.

The deadline was set by a conference of union executives and plant chairmen after hearing a report from their negotiation committee on nine days of conferences in Washington with company officials and a panel of the defense mediation board.

Walter P. Reuther, director of the union's C.M. department, said he brought to the Detroit meeting a request from the mediation board that final efforts to reach an agreement be sought in two more days of conferences Tuesday and Wednesday.

Reuther said the strike call would not affect workers among who are actively engaged on the company's contracts for airplanes, tanks, machine guns, shells and other defense work.

President Charles E. Wilson of G.M. insists the company's operations are an integrated unit and impossible to segregate defense and non-defense workers.

Philip Murray, who is president of the C. I. O., declared today that strikes had not impeded substantially with the defense effort.

Fleet Of 100 R. A. F. Planes Hits Hamburg And Bremen; Many Fires Set

British Flying Bases Attacked

BERLIN, May 12.—(AP)—Rudolf Hess, Hitler's No. 2 political aide, crashed in a plane flight made contrary to the Fuehrer's orders, the Nazi Party announced today, and his adjutants, accused of permitting the flight, have been ordered arrested. The brief announcement did not say whether Hess had been killed or injured but said Hess had been falling health. Hess is said to have been missing since he took off in his own plane Saturday.

London's millions trudged to work today through acres of fire-blackened ruins in the heart of the empire capital—scarred anew by Luftwaffe violence over the weekend—but they knew Germany was at last feeling the sting of a large-scale counter-offensive.

An armada of 100 R. A. F. warplanes bombed the ports of Hamburg and Bremen in overnight assaults, leaving "many large fires" raging in both cities from the rain of Britain's new super bombs.

Other R. A. F. squadrons attacked Nazi-held Holland.

In an evident attempt to cripple the R. A. F. (confirmed striking power, German planes concentrated the weight of their overnight assaults on Britain's night flying bases. London itself had the lightest night raid in three weeks.

Westminster Abbey and the House of Parliament, including Big Ben, were among the venerated symbols of the British Empire scarred in the weekend's bombing. The Luftwaffe used between 800 and 400 planes. The British said about 10 percent of the invading bombers were destroyed.

The Soviet government announced that diplomatic relations had been established between the S. S. R. and Iraq at Iraq's request. The significance of this move was not apparent immediately.

On the African war front, the British reported imperial Indian troops advancing toward an Italian stronghold at Amba Alagi, in northeast Ethiopia, had caught 38,000 Italian soldiers in an escape-proof trap.

Nazi bombs caused death, flame and destruction in Britain's imperial heart Saturday night, wrecking the House of Commons chamber, dumping debris upon Westminster Abbey's shrine, firing the British Museum and blackening the weathered face of Big Ben, official reports disclosed last night.

But Big Ben's massive hands still whirled the hour and the (Continued on Page Two)

Hospital Day

Today, people throughout the United States will visit their local hospitals to familiarize themselves with the operation, function, and services of these institutions which form such an important part in the relief of suffering.

Most of us take hospitals so much for granted that we scarcely ever stop to realize how vital they are to the welfare of mankind, and few of us have paused to consider what a modern city would be like without one.

For the purpose of helping to create a public awareness of a hospital's importance to a community, National Hospital Day is held each year in honor of Florence Nightingale, whose contribution to the profession of nursing was as important in its field as was the Magna Carta in the realm of civil liberties.

In our own hospital, people will find nurses and doctors carrying on in a surprisingly efficient manner considering the inadequacy of the building and lack of proper equipment. We hope these visitors today and tonight will come away more resolved than ever that these splendid nurses and doctors will not long have to suffer the handicaps of an outmoded plant and scarcity of accoutrements, and that a new hospital shall be built as soon as possible.

Good churches, good schools, and good hospitals are three important attributes of a progressive and enlightened city, and we hope that Sanford will shortly fill the gap in an otherwise good record by pushing the hospital project to the limit of civic effort.

Action Against Strikes

The President of the United States will go before the country next Wednesday with a radio talk in which he is expected to enunciate policies of far-reaching effect on all of us.

There is another point which we would like to hear the President discuss and that is the ever-increasing menace of strikes in our defense industries, for it is a self-evident fact that any effective action on the part of this country can only be taken if the wheels of industry turn as they have never turned before, and this cannot be done if walkouts are to plague the country.

In this connection the New York Herald Tribune points out that the hour of decision is at hand, "no longer can the United States temporize and dally, hoping Micawber-like, that something would turn up to make it unnecessary to follow the policy of aid to Britain to its logical conclusion.

The proposition is strikingly simple—to produce the goods and to see that they are delivered. Nothing is gained by producing them for Davy Jones's locker. Everything may be lost if production can be effectively stifled. This is why, in addition to unvoicing, the Administration can no longer escape cracking down on all who interfere with production.

The hour of decision is at hand, "no longer can the United States temporize and dally, hoping Micawber-like, that something would turn up to make it unnecessary to follow the policy of aid to Britain to its logical conclusion. We pointed to the futility of sending supplies to Britain which ended, up on the bottom of the ocean. It is mere chance that as the inevitability of conveying becomes apparent, the forces that are seeking to paralyze American help are attempting to stifle production with the intent of delaying the help to Britain that she needs? The crippling of production is, in fact, even more valuable to the enemy than the destruction of shipping, for it not only delays the output of goods destined for Britain, but also retards the arming of America.

Entry Of U. S. In War Debated In German Press

BERLIN, May 12.—(AP)—The possibility that the United States might plunge into war became the subject of earnest and increasingly intense speculation in Berlin Saturday night as the German press expressed the belief that "war might" in that country were gaining ground.

A portion of the press took a serious view of the matter and denounced American interventionists. One reaction was a revival of the suggestion that the continent of Europe must be welded together as a unit to oppose the Anglo-Saxon world, with indications that France was being thought of as a part of this European unit.

Commenting on James Roosevelt's assertion that the United States is in the war already, the newspaper analyst said: "Children and fools usually tell the truth, although in this instance it is the wishes of certain war agitators which are naively repeated."

Tobey Will Demand Anti-Convoy Vote

BOSTON, May 12.—(AP)—Senator Charles W. Tobey told a Mother's Day crowd that he would introduce an anti-convoy resolution as an amendment to the ship seizure bill in the Senate this week.

Assuming he would demand a roll call on the amendment, Tobey said: "I measure my words when I say that the vote on that anti-convoy amendment will be a test vote. It will be a vote to decide whether the United States shall enter the war or stay out."

Jaycee Legislative Work Is Discussed By Harold Powers

Continued From Page One... The tournament is being endorsed and competent surveillance, rehabilitation of the maladjusted, and return him in national state to normal community life.

State Jaycees with their affiliates in nearly every town in Florida, during the last session of the legislature sponsored the driver's license and highway patrol bill and were proud of its passage and adoption.

Through participation in state and national projects, members of local Jaycee chapters are able to test their wings under able guidance without having to cope with old timers who are set in their methods and whose thinking conform to routine patterns of past decades.

Matsuoka Should Know the Answer To Soviet Puzzle

By CHARLES F. STEWART Central Press Columnist

IF FOREIGN MINISTER YOSUKE MATSUOKA of Japan visited Washington soon, as it is reported from Tokyo that he intends to do, he will find a puzzle that is really and honestly "well explained" on our side.

Yosuke Matsuoka cuss the Axis proposal on the basis of Germany domination of Europe, except Russia, Japanese domination of the Orient, except Siberia, Soviet domination of European Russia and Asiatic Siberia, and of our reduction in the strength of our navy and our pledge to quit trying to consolidate the Americas, North, South and intermediate—if that's the notion, he needn't bother to come.

What Washington's diplomacy (you) and the hopes of our armed forces, especially our naval command) would intelligently like to know, however, is what Russia is, as to Ambassador Gromyko, the Kremlin's representative, says, "I am not sure that Matsuoka was in a position to sign a pact with Joe Stalin and signed up a pact with Soviet Communism Molotov, it is surprising that he never saw the light of the press's foreign policy.

Yet the other day the Kremlin placed a bet on the transportation of war supplies of any sort across Soviet soil, either way.

Spain Mattered This is an obvious embarrassment to the Japanese who urgently require lots of such supplies, with which to fight the Chinese, to prepare for grabs of the Philippines, the Dutch East Indies, maybe Australasia, and to arm in anticipation of a possible clash with the United States. They've been getting them from Germany, they've got to get them from Russia, and now they're shut off.

The Russians, though, can continue supplying China with anti-Japanese arms, and they've been getting them from Germany, they've got to get them from Russia, and now they're shut off.

Germany Feels Sting of Hard Aerial Assault

No raiders appeared, however, and a little later the all-clear was sounded. Saturday night's attack, it seemed plain, was without equal for damage wrought upon British air defenses, followed by the results of what the attack did:

1.—Damaged the Commons chamber so gravely that it was doubted the mother of parliaments could again assemble there until the structure had been rebuilt.

2.—Scattered the Bow's face, putting out of kilter the apparatus that broadcasts the chimera to far-flung outposts of the empire on which the sun never sets, but falling to halt the clock in the hands of the clock tower.

"American Mother" Fears For Future

NEW YORK, May 12.—(AP)—Mrs. Dena Shelby Diehl, Danville, Ky., the Golden Rule Foundation's "American mother of 1941," said today she hoped there would never be another Mother's Day when too many mothers are torn with anguish as their sons face the battle line which may shatter the lifelong dreams of both mother and son.

Introduced by Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, the President's mother, who spoke from Hyde Park, N. Y., Mrs. Diehl's talk was heard over the NBC Red network and transmitted by short wave to South America and Europe.

Mrs. Roosevelt asserted that this was "probably the most crucial year in history."

Byrd Asks Figures On Supply Losses
WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—Senator Byrd, Democrat, Virginia, asked yesterday that the government make public figures on the dollar value of losses—losses sunk on their way to Britain.

Byrd said that because of the public interest aroused by recent demands that the United States "deliver the goods," he had addressed a telegram to Harry Hopkins, assistant administrator, requesting information on the value of equipment lost in transit.

"The argument has been advanced," Byrd told reporters, "that we have appropriated $7,000,000,000 to furnish aid to Britain and we ought to see that the aid gets there. The people should know how much of the equipment they have paid for is being sunk. They will then be in a position to decide what ought to be done about it."

War Games Open At Big Hawaii Base
HONOLULU, May 12.—(AP)—The mightiest military force ever assembled in Hawaii, the United States flag, opened the Army's 1941 Spring maneuvers today.

About 40,000 soldiers will be deployed to demonstrate and test the defenses of this Pacific bastion. The maneuvers, incorporating the latest trends of strategy gathered from the European and Chinese warfronts, including the use of parachute troops, will end May 24.

Croat Sailors Forced To Leave Their Ship
RECIFE, Brazil, May 12.—(AP)—Twenty Croat sailors, including the captain and six officers, were forced to leave the Yugoslav freighter Bopolika 3000 tons, yesterday after they refused to consent to an order by the Yugoslav minister in Rio de Janeiro transferring the ship to the British.

Thirteen names, mostly British sailors, remained aboard the ship and vacancies in the crew, it was said, will be made up partly by survivors of the British mail steamer Empress which was torpedoed near the Azores.

Profits Tax Report Delayed Third Time

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—Members of the House Ways and Means committee will have to remain in the dark a little longer as to how the Treasury proposes to tackle the profits tax which will add 400,000,000 additional revenue.

Assistant Secretary Sullivan was tentatively scheduled to present the Treasury proposals on that subject to tax but some matter arises and his appearance would be delayed again. It was the third postponement of the testimony since Sullivan first recommended the revision.

Officials said the delay was due chiefly to the time required for analysis of the Mar. 15 corporation tax returns.

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary wish to announce that Charles S. Morrison donated the passes to the Ritz Theatre matter after he and his appearance would be delayed again. They regret that his name was omitted in the list of donors.

This family of Plymouth, England, is lucky; it has a trailer to escape in when Nazi planes bomb the city with merciless regularity. They merely pack belongings and go to a spot in the country where there is comparative safety. Each day they may return to see if their house is still standing. From the side of the road, it would seem that the neighbors must have come along this trip.

This plane is well named. It is the Lockheed Lightning, officially known as the P-48 telescopic-piston, shown in flight over the mountains near Burbank, Cal. The bi-motored craft is said to be one of the fastest in existence, able to do 400 miles an hour, and more. The first batch of P-48's is now rolling off the production line for the U. S. and British air forces.

Heavy Rains Hit Truck Crop in Everglades Area

ORLANDO, May 11.—(P)—Further crop damage in the Everglades area from heavy rains was reported yesterday by the Federal Agriculture Marketing Service.

Heavy rains ranging from 2.5 to 9.35 inches in the Belle Glade area practically wound up the shipping of snap beans and tomatoes, the report said.

"Celery in this area also sustained some damage. In other sections rains were light and although considerably below normal harvesting continues."

The bureau said because of heavy rains in the Everglades May 7, shipments of snap beans from Florida would show a sharp reduction this week of May 11, and should be completed about May 20. Most of the supplies will come from North and Central Florida. Lima bean shipments also will be light because of rain damage.

Harvesting of late celery plantings was reported under way at Wierdale, with cutting due to start at Citra May 26. The Spring production of green peppers in the state was estimated at 450,000 bushels, a 20 percent reduction from last year and heavy shipments are not expected until next month.

Early Irish potatoes already are being harvested at Hastings. Watermelon shipments are not expected in any volume until June. Early production of melons in Florida and the Imperial valley of California is placed at 9,925,000 melons compared with 9,180,000 last year.

American Farmers Warned By Germans

BERLIN, May 11.—(P)—In a long article on the blockade, the Frankfurter Zeitung last night warned of the consequences of President Roosevelt's policy for the American farmer.

Roosevelt, whom the Nazi press calls the new Wilson, will not accomplish his "objective of finally checking Germany through a war of hunger against Europe," the newspaper said.

"But he will accomplish something," the paper added. "He will ruin the market for American farm products after the war and American farmers then can thank him that he sacrificed their interests for his illusions."
