Lyman Band To Present Spectacular

By Jane Casselberry
The Lyman Greyhound Band, under direction of Bandmaster Michael Fisher, has planned a real treat for football fans attending the Lyman-Titusville game next Friday night at Lyman.
During the half-time the band will present a spectacular production which will feature a bullfight scene with head majorette Barbara Diggs as matador.
Twelve lovely senioritas will do a Spanish dance with murachas and the Majorette Corps will do a cape routine. Playing an important part in the bullfight will be a real, live trained horse.

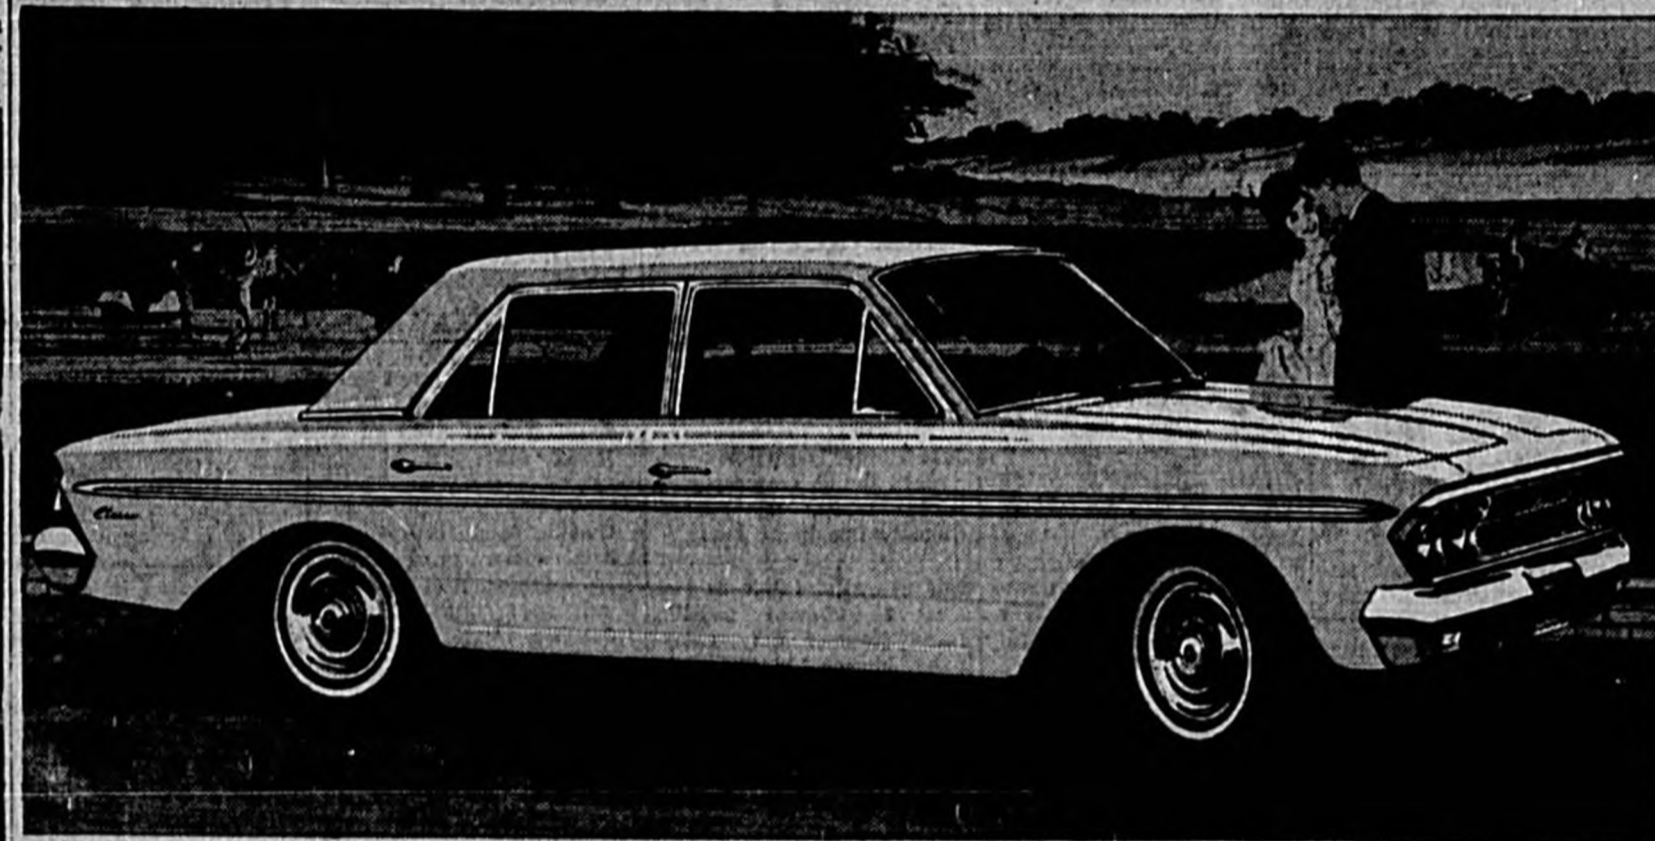

The fate of el Toro is still in doubt but whatever the results are it is certain that the audience will be well pleased with the entertainment.

Daisy Turns From Mainland

The Sanford Herald

WEATHER: Cloudy with showers through Saturday. High today, 85-90. Low tonight, 60-65.

VOL. 53 United Press Licensed Wire Established 1908 FRI., OCTOBER 5, 1962 SANFORD, FLORIDA NO. 555

County Seeks Governor's Help On Bird Sanctuary

MIAMI (UPI)—Hurricane Daisy turned away from the U. S. mainland today and aimed 100 miles an hour winds at the British island of Bermuda.

The Weather Bureau said the season's fourth tropical storm no longer posed any threat to the U. S. seaboard.

But it warned residents of Bermuda to "prepare for hurricane force winds, rough seas, high tides and heavy rain during Saturday with gales, mainly in squalls, beginning over the island tonight."

At 11 a. m., hurricane hunter planes found the storm's center about 430 miles southwest of Bermuda, near latitude 27.8 north, longitude 69.4 west. This was about 700 miles east-northeast of Miami.

The storm was moving toward north about 9 MPH, but the weather bureau predicted it would pick up speed to 12 MPH on a north-northeast course during the day, then shift to the northeast at 17 MPH tonight.

Forecasters said Daisy should not increase in size or intensity today, but it generated new power Thursday night.

Hurricane force winds of 75 MPH or greater fanned outward in a 50-mile radius of the center. Gales extended 350 miles to the north and east of the center and 85 miles to the southwest.

"Small craft in Bermuda should seek safe harbor and vessels in the path of the hurricane should exercise caution," the weather bureau said.

Plant Application Denied

Malland's new sewage disposal plant to be built in the English Estates area of the southend, received a serious setback Thursday night when the Board of Adjustment denied the application of the Bradford Realty Co., to expand their proposed site from 3.4 acres to 10, and rescinded previous approval given

The Board of County Commissioners unanimously voted, at a special meeting Thursday afternoon, to call upon Governor Farris Bryant to bring his power to bear on the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission in an effort to have the bird sanctuary south

Local Trooper Has Close Call In Bus Crash

Florida Highway Patrol Trooper Jim Chambliss had a near brush with death Thursday afternoon when a school bus, driven by Harvey Pugh, 65, Lake Mary, pulled out of Collins Ave., Sunland, in front of his speeding patrol car while engaged in pursuing a traffic violator.

In an effort to avoid the bus which had an estimated 15 children aboard, Chambliss, going north on Hwy 17-92 at 70 miles per hour, took to the ditch, spun around on the wet grass, snapped a utility pole in two places, and did over $500 damage to the squad car.

The pole struck the cruiser about three feet behind Chambliss' head on the left side of the vehicle.

The school bus did not stop, but made a left turn into the south bound lane of the highway. Pugh was later found at his home and charged with violation of the right of way section of the motor vehicle statute.

When Chambliss' car struck the pole, a support cable fell onto the highway and a south bound station wagon, driven by David G. Schlosser, 28, N.A.S., was snagged and $50 damage was done. The front end of Schlosser's car was lifted off the highway by the taut cable, and spun around in the path of a car driven by Paul D. Zueger, also of N.A.S. No damage was done to Zueger's car.

Pugh denied seeing the patrol car until he was in the lane of traffic. Chambliss commented that "I am glad I had a chance to miss the bus." The Trooper was not injured, and wrote up the report on his own accident.

French Assembly Raps DeGaulle

PARIS (UPI)—The French National Assembly, haunted by the ghost of Napoleon III, reviled against the growing power of President Charles de Gaulle to day and toppled the government of Premier Georges Pompidou by a crushing vote.

De Gaulle himself remained in office by virtue of the constitution despite the angry deputies arrayed against him.

The rebuff came on a censure motion over De Gaulle's plan to bypass parliament and ask the people to make a constitutional change on the method of electing future presidents.

When the Clayton people refused to accept payment for the site the Malland council started negotiations with the Bradford Realty Co. for a site owned by them. Permission had been granted by the board for the use of of the action of the State agency, expressed themselves in no uncertain terms on the arbitrary action of the game board.

Obey The Law: Hobby To Hunters

Dove shooting season opens at noon Saturday and Sheriff J. L. Hobby said today that just one rule will apply to hunters: OBEY THE LAW.

One group of property owners on lands south-east of Sanford and the Naval Air Station have said they will guard their lands against hunting and will report all trespassers to the Sheriff for prosecution.

Some of the lands in the area which was proposed as a bird sanctuary but turned down by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission are expected to be left open to dove shooting by the owners.

Drainage Woes Heard At Meet

An otherwise routine meeting of the Longwood City Council Thursday night was highlighted by a group of Lake St. residents who came to discuss drainage problems and ask that the city take corrective steps immediately.

Low spots in the street, particularly at Lake and Hardy, are causing the resident's yards to be flooded, in one instance, all the way through to the backyard.

The council studied engineering levels prepared by M. C. Hagan who also was present for consultation at the meeting and decided that members would meet at the site Monday at 9 a. m. with a transit level for an "on the scene" survey and discussion towards finding a solution for the problem.

Fire Threat

HAWTHORNE (UPI)—A gasoline plant fire threatened 100,000 gallons of petroleum and left a gutted office building and storage tank in its wake late Thursday before firemen from three counties brought it under control.

The Bradford site for a disposal plant, but in view of the bickering and misrepresentations by all parties to the dispute, the board refused the application of the Bradford company for expansion of their site to 10 acres.

Appeal may be made to the Board of County Commissioners to overrule the Board of Adjustment.

Both Commissioners Dunn and Fitzpatrick concurred with Avery, and Commissioner Ted Williams, a hunter and owner of 120 acres in the controversial area, declared he would close his property to hunting and refrain from the sport himself, "in the interests of the safety of the people out there."

It was Commissioner Avery who made the motion "that this board, in view of its unanimous action on three occasions requesting a bird sanctuary and having the requests disregarded by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, authorize the Chairman of the Seminole County Board of Commissioners to communicate with the Governor as soon as possible, and respectfully request him to bring his influence to bear on the agency in question."

The motion was seconded by Dunn and approved unanimously.

Soviets Order Attache 'Out'

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Foreign Ministry today ordered the immediate expulsion of the U. S. assistant naval attache here, charging he was engaged in espionage.

Cmdr. Raymond Smith was accused of making observations on an unmarked military object while on a trip to Leningrad Tuesday. It was understood he plans to leave the Soviet Union Monday.

The Soviet action followed last week's expulsion by the United States of two Soviet officials at United Nations headquarters who were accused of bribing a U. S. sailor for American defense secrets.

Moscow radio said the Foreign Ministry summoned U. S. Minister-Counselor John M. McSkeneey to issue a protest and demand Smith's "immediate departure from the Soviet Union."

Polaris Test Partial Success

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—An advanced model Polaris underwater missile streaked aloft today from a sea-launched pad, but it had to be destroyed high over the Pacific.

The Navy called this third test of its A3 Polaris—a new model designed for a range of 2,500 nautical miles—a partial success.

Plane Missing

WINDSOR LOCKS, Conn. (UPI)—A single-engine Piper Cherokee plane with three persons aboard was reported missing today on a flight from Jacksonville, N. C., to Westfield, Mass.

By LARRY VERNEHL

Governor's Aide James Kynes assured the Herald today that the bird sanctuary problem here would receive the attention of the Governor and that a thorough airing would be given the situation and it will be discussed at length with the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission to determine the reasons and justification for their action.

That six man downtown improvement committee will present their recommendations to the City Commission Monday night. It's a sure bet that among the recommendations will be making Third St. a through street from Sanford to Park... moving the light at Second and Park.

We wouldn't be at all surprised to see them back diagonal parking on the south side of First St. on a trial basis and okay a beautification project also.

The word is that Adams Shopping center construction will definitely get off the ground the first of the year... Watch for a big announcement soon.

Tomorrow's the last day to register to vote... you have until 5 p.m.

That $800,000 water improvement program will come up before city fathers sooner than expected. Watch for the green light for engineers to be authorized to proceed with plans.

Conversion of about four miles of SR 46 from a two-laned to a six-laned facility near here has been completed. The $494,966 project extends from Interstate 4 eastward 3.5 miles to intersect with Hwy. 17-92 in Sanford.

Shaggy dog case at 4 p.m. Monday will not even be held in the court chambers... Decided to hold the affair in the commission room.

Added wildlife officers will be here tomorrow just in case coming from Ocala and may bring some more... Did you know there is only one wildlife officer for the entire county?

Bookkeeping system in the courthouse apparently so good... Martin County clerk here to look over the modernized system.

Ed Zimmerman of Lake Mary, who's helped put OUT plenty of fires, will be lighting one along about noon Saturday to barbecue all those chickens for the Fire Auxiliary's dinner coming off at 5 at the Fire Hall. Ed knows all the secrets and the women are excellent cooks... prices are cheap, too, for you and the kids.

Democratic Women tell us that the November elections won't hold a candle to the hotly contested ones that'll be going on at their State Convention in Palm Beach today and Saturday... go to it ladies, show 'em how!

A word of clarification... North America isn't running out of money... contract is just about up and the job is finished and many of the boys going home.

Lyman fans will find cotton by the bales at the field tonight (Friday, that is) as the Athletic Assn. uses the Longwood Fire Dept.'s brand new candy making machine to whirly the delicacy out by the yards.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK begins next week and members of the Sanford Fire Department will be showing special films on how to spot hazards at elementary schools around the city. Here Lt. New Cars Going Over 'Big' With Sanford Buying Public Arrival of new cars in Sanford this week has met with enthusiastic response by the buying public, car dealers reported today.

Replies from dealers, well pleased with the looks of the new cars and happy that the public likes them too, have been as follows:

Ben Howland of Seminole County Motors, "We're well pleased with the acceptance of the public and anticipating a great year."

"We're swamped," said Bill Hemphill of Hemphill Motors, "and we're barely getting started. The business climate is excellent!"

"Things are off to a great start, we're taking orders like mad," says Gary Hudgins of Strickland-Morrison.

"Folks have nothing but praise for the new Mercury Monterey, especially the ladies—business is excellent," said Willie Hunt of Hunt Lincoln Mercury.

"Everybody has the 'go attitude' this year," says Don Bales of Sanford Motors. (Due to a transportation mix-up, the new Studebakers will be a week late, but are eagerly awaited by many customers.)

Red Brass of Brass Motors says, "We anticipate a real good year."

At Heller Motor Sales, Emmett Ferrall says, "We've had a nice response and expect an increase of between 10 and 12 percent in sales this year."

Market Place

The Sanford Herald is the market place of Seminole County. Proof of the pudding is found in the fact that the total retail business of Seminole County last year amounted to slightly more than $38 million and of this $28 million was spent in Sanford.

Art, Bargains Slated For Sanford Tonight

Shoppers in downtown Sanford today and Saturday will have the opportunity of viewing the works of Sanford artists as they are displayed in most stores up and down First St., Magnolia Ave and Park Ave.

There are 30 paintings displayed in windows or inside the stores in all media, including oils, pastels and water colors, and depicting varied scenes and impressions, many of them familiar scenes around the Sanford area.

Adams Stresses Quality Needs

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—Secretary of State Tom Adams said Thursday night the State Board of Education has neither "the time nor the staff" to cope with Florida's expanding junior college program.

The Riddle Of Life

More and more people seem to be aware of the fact that life appears to be a riddle. It is evident that the answer to the riddle needs to be given urgently. We are reminded of the fable of the oxen which was by the wayside and asked a riddle to those who passed by. If this oxen could not solve the riddle, she uttered a cry which reached the ears of the farmer, and frustration of our lives seems to be the spirit of the fable.

Those of us who have found that we believe to be the answer to the riddle of life like to share it. It is my conviction that this can be shared if people have the things to share. The first step that I will give you in the solution of this riddle are some things which I think you should know to me. My prayer is that many more people will see them to find an answer for themselves.

The First Step Is That Of ACCEPTING.

Many of us are thoroughly convinced that there is, in every person, an inner consciousness of God. The truth of the matter is that so many express the acceptance of Him as He is revealed in the Bible. There are many obvious reasons. It means a type of sacrifice. Certainly the sacrifice is rapid more than 1:18 we've found to express, but when one is spiritually enlightened, this is a big help to see. There is a need for study and meditation. In our busy lives we are so occupied with many things that these very important ones are sometimes either ignored or put aside until later.

Being a Christian is a gift of God but an offer is not a gift until it is accepted. When it is accepted it becomes a gift.

The Second Step Is That Of DEVELOPING.

Jesus said, "For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you." (John 13:15). Christ is our standard so it is very clear that there is much developing to be done.

Even though growth seems slow and we find that we are to have patience, we are to seek development as quickly as possible, yet not despairing when it comes slowly. Whether the growth be slow or fast, let us be sure that there is food for spiritual nourishment. There are many theories about spiritual nourishment but I have not been able to find strong vital Christian without a balanced spiritual diet of worship, Bible study, prayer life, and the exercise of other means of grace which God has provided for us.

The Third Step Is That Of GIVING.

Giving is needed not only for the person for whom something is given but also for the giver. Giving should be done not only in some "poor" situation but in an all over principle of life.

A mature Christian giver will realize that he has a personal responsibility to God and his fellowman. How easy it is to try to shift the responsibility to the State, or the Church, or the School, and fall utterly to give of ourselves. The person who is willing to start the giving with himself becomes a part of the solution and not a part of the problem that seems to be about us and extends into all of the world. All of this is saying that we are to put ourselves at the disposal of God and He will do the rest.

The riddle of life has been solved already in Jesus Christ. Let us take by this — God's solution.

Altamonte Church Gets New Sign

The monthly business meeting of the First Baptist Church of Altamonte Springs was held Wednesday night at the church.

It was announced through the monthly report of the church trustees that a large outdoor advertising sign, measuring some 30 by 40 feet and the largest of its kind in Orlando, had been purchased and installed and that painting was near completion.

The sign has been placed at the corner of Silver Star Rd. and N. Orange Blossom Trail on Hwy. 441 in Fairville.

It displays a portrait of Christ and the art work and color scheme of the wording and background make an outstanding and attractive eyespinner to the passing motorists, the trustees reported.

They also advised that many comments of praise have been received from members and friends who have seen the sign and invited others to make a "Sunday afternoon drive to view it."

Rally Day Observed In Enterprise

Rally Day was observed last Sunday by the Barnett Memorial Methodist Church School of Enterprise.

Regular order of procedure was reversed with the first 15 minutes being spent in class after which the entire school assembled in the sanctuary for the remainder of the hour.

The new Junior Choir will sing its first anthem for the 8:45 service and the Chancel Choir will sing for the 11 a. m. worship hour.

Thirteen men of the church left today for the Florida Annual Conference Laymen's Retreat being held through Sunday in Leesburg.

According to Roy Wall Grace Methodist lay leader, the conference is "one of the most influential meetings of the year where the laymen truly have their faith lifted and come back for vital Christian service."

Local Sunday School Plans Contest Kick-Off Breakfast

Sunday School teenagers of the Sanford Alliance Church will attend a kick-off breakfast at 8:15 a. m. Sunday at Mrs. Appleby's Restaurant as the opening event of an international membership contest sponsored by the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

Rev. C. C. Dees, pastor of the church, reports that some 30 young people are expected to attend the breakfast.

An unusual feature of the contest is that winning will depend on the number of new people enrolled in classes rather than an increase judged on the old basis of largest average attendance.

Leo Watson, Sunday School superintendent, said today that some 1,200 Sunday Schools in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico are expected to compete towards the goal of bringing total attendance in the Alliance church schools up to 200,000 a gain of about 15 per cent.

The crusade will center around a visitation program to reach new people in each community and all churches attaining a 15 per cent enrollment increase will receive special citations.

Here in Sanford the Sunday School will sponsor a special event each week through Nov. 11, closing date of the contest.

Tom Southerland, chairman of the trustees, gave a short talk on the church business and future plans of the finance committee for the coming year.

Shalimar Opening Held

The seasonal social whirl took its first whirl Thursday with the pace-setting Mayfair luncheon under the management of Everett Kerr opening the glamorous new Shalimar Lounge.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerr and hostess Mrs. Edith Yearine greeted the crowd of guests as they stepped into the new lounge over the peppermint striped red and white "foot-scraper" that matches the Mayfair's significant red and white decor.

Inside the exotic Indian atmosphere was imparted by brass filligree on wall sconces and chandeliers and screens of hand-carved Indian sheesham wood. Gracefully draped ceiling panels of red and white edged with gold braid and dripping gold tassels on each end and carved sheesham wood cocktail tables, topped by hammered brass trays completed the decorations, all imported from India.

A delicious hot and cold buffet was served, and violin music was played in the background. On the orchestra stand was a huge arrangement of champagne-tinted carnations, and another of driftwood and mums.

Dozens of the community's leading citizens enjoyed the unique new Shalimar atmosphere and expressed their pleasure in this beautiful addition to the Mayfair. Interior decorator for the Shalimar was Mr. Otis.

Congress Hopes For Wrap-Up

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress, plagued with impetuousness, today gave itself about a 50-50 chance of finishing its 1962 session by Saturday night.

Despite pressure from legislators who must go home to campaign before the Nov. 6 election, the odds for adjournment this week had slipped.

Final votes still had to come on money bills for foreign aid, public works, agriculture, state-justice and supplemental needs—bills which under the rarely-observed rules should have gone to the White House by July 1.

Conferees Thursday night agreed to fix the foreign aid money bill at $3.9 billion. But they still had to iron out differences over aid to Yugoslavia and Poland and countries that trade with Cuba.

Still hanging, too, were a $1.1 billion highway authorization bill, a war claims measure, and a $3.6 billion rivers and harbors authorization bill. Final approval was expected routinely on a bill boosting postal rates and federal pay.

But the real hitches to adjournment this weekend lay elsewhere. They centered in a personalized fight over a $17.5 million peanut research item in the farm money bill and on what President Kennedy will do about a bill now on his desk to let self-employed persons make tax-free payments into their own retirement funds.

Backers of the pension bill have planned to add it, if Kennedy should veto the measure, to the pending supplement appropriation. They figure the President would accept it, however reluctantly, as a rider on this bill.

But at least one key supporter of the pension measure questioned whether the Senate would muster the necessary two-thirds vote to permit adding such legislation to an appropriation, lest the normal procedures be too badly "torpedoed."

The House planned to act today on the postal-pay and public works bills, along with a resolution favoring a fight necessary policy on Berlin.

The Senate scheduled an afternoon vote on its war claims bill and any other measures that were ready.

Head Cold And All...

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy, despite a head cold, planned to set out today on a fast-paced week-end of politicking aimed at helping Democratic candidates in Kentucky, Ohio, Michigan and Minnesota.

Kennedy's political trip scheduled to start with a 4 p. m. jet transport departure from nearby Andrews Air Force Base, Md., was his first full weekend of out-and-out electioneering in the 1962 congressional campaign.

The Chief Executive also was scheduled to carry through two appointments with international importance that he called off Thursday because of a "minor upper respiratory infection."

Another great step to reduce your cost of car ownership

FORD MOTOR COMPANY EXTENDS UNIQUE LINCOLN CONTINENTAL 24-MONTH-24,000-MILE WARRANTY TO ALL '63 PASSENGER CARS AND TRUCKS

These are the cars

- FORD Falcon
- Fairlane
- Galaxie
- THUNDERBIRD
- MERCURY Comet
- Meteor
- Monterey
- LINCOLN CONTINENTAL

This is the total-car warranty

Ford Motor Company warrants to its dealers, and its dealers in turn warrant to owners, as follows: that for 24 months or for 24,000 miles, whichever comes first, free replacement, including related labor, will be made by dealers of any part with a defect in workmanship or materials. Tires are not covered by the warranty; appropriate adjustments will be made by tire companies. Owners will remain responsible for normal maintenance services, routine replacement of parts, such as filters, spark plugs, ignition points, wiper blades and brake or clutch linings, and normal deterioration of soft trim and appearance items. The benefits of the warranty are available to the original purchaser and to subsequent owners of the vehicle during the time and mileage limits prescribed in the warranty.

Here is what it means to you

The new 1963 Ford-built cars and trucks are quality-engineered and manufactured to serve you better and last longer than ever before. The proof is in the warranty... proof of quality unheard of a few years ago.

In fact, it was only two years ago that Ford Motor Company announced the 12-month, 12,000-mile passenger car warranty which became the industry standard as other manufacturers followed Ford's lead. At the same time, Lincoln Continental became the only American-built car warranted for two full years or 24,000 miles, whichever came first. Now, this warranty applies to all Ford-built cars, regardless of price. Why is this possible?

Actually, the new warranty is a natural outgrowth of the engineering leadership that has resulted in twice-a-year (or every 6,000-mile) passenger car maintenance. It goes hand-in-glove with such Ford-pioneered service savers as the elimination of the 1,000-mile inspection... 30,000- to 36,000-mile intervals between major lubrications, 6,000-mile intervals between oil changes and minor lubrications, self-adjusting brakes, aluminum mufflers, and longer-life electrical systems.

These features that save you time and money as you drive are a direct reflection of the total quality achievements of Ford Motor Company.

What is the variety of an art show, presented by local artists will draw large numbers of people downtown to see the efforts of their friends and neighbors, who have discovered the pleasure and rewards of the artistic discipline.

This is an opportunity offered just by the Downtown Merchants Association, who feel the work of the members of the Sanford Art Association should be shown, and they have offered their places of business as the showrooms. Go downtown and look, and when you are there DO YOUR SHOPPING.

Cautious Optimism

Republican leaders charged with moving the party activity in the South took hope of adding 10 to 15 congressional seats to the seven they already have in the area.

But more cautious party men think the gains are more likely to fall in the range of four to seven.

Gains are highest in Florida, where there are four brand new seats; Texas, with one new one; North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Virginia.

Working the strengthening GOP effort in the South, political specialists disagree as to the long-range southern prospects for the party.

Some, including individuals in the party's upper echelons, believe the Republicans have a very limited prospect so long as their southern leaders present themselves — as many do today — in more conservative garb than the rival Democrats.

But others argue that the conservative posture is the natural one for the Republicans, that it will make the party more cohesive nationally, that in this stance it has a good chance to win millions of conservative southerners now still tied to the Democratic party.

The contention is made that as Negroes vote in larger and larger numbers in the South, they are most likely to choose the Democratic party as their habitat — as they have done in overwhelming percentages in the great northern urban centers.

Those who contend thus also predict that this and other factors will tend to push the southern Democratic party toward the liberal end of the spectrum. In this view, the net effect would then be to have a national Democratic party more generally liberal than today with the Republicans offering uniformly conservative alternatives everywhere.

All this plainly is the current speculation. Up to now, not only in the South but elsewhere, both parties have stoutly resisted sharp conservative-liberal realignments. Both have served as huge tents covering a wide range of political orders.

Even if some such realignment is in the wind, it seems evident that change will come quite slowly. The major parties are great masses affected by marked inertia. Their diverse elements are powerful, and vocal.

Yet it is a fact that political change is occurring in the South. The Republican party is only in the starting phase in most areas. But the best forecasts are that it will get beyond this into real accomplishments.

When it does, when there is a real, active, driving Republican party throughout the South, then some sort of realignment would seem inevitable. It is hard to see how two major parties can find success at the same end of the spectrum. Unless they are different, the voters will have no choice at all. Unless they are different, the success of one or the other would seem destined to be short-lived.

The story lies in events yet to be unfolded. But unmistakably we are on the threshold of those events.

Life in the White House is nothing if not varied. Viewed from the outside there may seem to be some monotony in the problems absorbing the President lately. Judging by the papers, for Mr. Kennedy is in Cuba, Berlin and Congress on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays—Congress, Berlin and Cuba on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

But behind the scenes there is variety nonetheless. The President and the intimate circle around him still give considerable time to good old-fashioned politics. It was still in that department that put

No Longer a Little Rock

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE N-447: Lorna B., aged 27, is the popular English teacher who perks up her classes with practical projects from the field of psychology.

"Dr. Crane," she told me a few months later, "I followed your suggestion and had my students bring magazines and newspapers to class in which they saw any notice of a prize contest."

"And they also collected empty blanks from the grocery stores about similar contests still in progress."

"So I let them pick out two contests apiece. One was to involve completing the last word of a 2-line linealick."

"The other contest must involve writing a 25-word letter. And before the week was over, our entire high school was buzzing. During lunch hour, the pupils in other classes would be studying these contest assignments, too."

"After my pupils handed in their reports, we discussed them in front of the class and made all the corrections or suggestions for improvement that we could think of."

"Then I graded their entries and urged them to submit the best ones in the actual contests. This involved only a postage stamp and a soap wrapper or other proof-of-purchase, so most of my students sent out their classroom assignments as official entries."

"And do you know what happened? When the winners were finally announced, three of my students had won something. Two of the prizes were for $5 and $10. But one girl won an electric refrigerator!"

"Why, our class was written up in the school newspaper! And the changed attitude of students has literally been a miracle."

"Boys who seemed indifferent to English composition and who were almost illiterate before, now began to take a very respectful attitude toward writing."

"And at present I am being swamped with requests to get into my classes next year."

"In fact, the only drawback to the whole program of practicalizing English composition, is the fact that some of my faculty colleagues are now jealous of my big classes and the demand of students to be registered for my courses."

"If they'd just do likewise, then they'd have popular courses and heavy registrations, too."

"Dr. Crane, why is it that a teacher who learns to motivate students more effectively, thus falls heir to jealousy of her own fellow teachers?"

Lorna should just remember the old proverb about the apple tree.

"It's only the tree that bears the big, juicy apples that has the sticks thrown at it!"

For trees with rusty, new or withered apples are not attractive enough to rate attention.

Faculty jealousy routinely is directed to the successful teachers (or preachers, doctors, etc.).

Teachers, just remember that nobody has a corner on practical psychology projects. Even if I were teaching math or English, I'd imitate Lorna and motivate my students by making assignments that fitted the hungers of the students.

So send for my "Test for Good Teachers," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(REA)—After the new Trade Expansion act goes into effect, there will be a long series of negotiations to conduct with GATT.

The General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade organization, GATT is expected to continue operations much as it has.

There was a time when GATT was regarded as a very low-level word by high tariff advocates.

Announcement of the United States to GATT has never been justified by treaty. It functions by executive agreement.

Congress now appropriates money for U. S. operations in GATT, so it is here to stay.

A preliminary step to the GATT negotiations is probably the admission of the United Kingdom to the European Common Market.

There are now 16 other applications for admission to or association with the Common Market. Countries like Norway and Denmark may be admitted in short order after the U. K. membership is ratified.

But the Greek application for association took 15 months to work out. This gives some indications of how long it will take to develop a real world trading community that can construct new tariff agreements.

There probably will be a number of new international commodity agreements to work out like the wheat, sugar, coffee, tin and rubber pacts now in effect or under negotiation.

Whether there will ever be an International Trade Organization under the United Nations is doubtful. An ITO charter was drafted at a long Havana conference after World War II, but the U. S. Senate refused to ratify it and that killed it.

There is now an international trade action in the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development. The United States is a member by Senate treaty ratification.

Present thinking is that any new international trade institutions may come from OECD, if it materializes.

Nikita Khrushchev's and Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's current demands in the United Nations for a new world trade conference is regarded principally as propaganda.

There is no indication that the Russians are anxious to submit to trade regulation. International trade is a state monopoly. The Soviet borders are closed to all imports and exports except those the state wants.

Russian trade practices are now a part of Communist economic warfare. This Soviet demand for a conference is primarily aimed at breaking up the European Common Market, which Russia fears as a competitor and potential enemy. Similarly, the Russians have reason to fear the new U. S. Trade Act.

In shepherding this legislation through the Kennedy administration and through Congress, the President's special assistants on international trade, Howard C. Petersen, has done an outstanding job with a minimum of fuss.

There has been no apparent White House pressure on Congress. Petersen, a Philadelphia bank president and a Republican, has made it a nonpartisan measure.

The original Kennedy administration bill of last January has been amended by Congress, it has been strengthened.

One of the more noteworthy amendments is a provision which gives the President power to increase tariffs against countries that do not co-operate with the United States on trade through quota restrictions or subsidies to their own industries. This is the first time anything like that has been in the program.

Red Plan Abandoned

To this end, the Communist - directed "national liberation front" sent a delegation to Jakarta where it reportedly obtained from President Sukarno of Indonesia endorsement of their "just" war against American imperialism.

Further, the Communists quickly endorsed a request from Cambodia that another Geneva conference be called.

San Meouth is a key road junction close to the Cambodian border and almost exactly between the rich rice - growing delta to the south and the 17th Parallel which divides South Viet Nam and Communist North Viet Nam.

The colonel explained that militarily the plan had been first to sever South Viet Nam at the midway point, then to bring pressure on the capital of Saigon from west, north and south, and finally to force upon South Viet Nam a Communist-style neutral government.

This week, President Ngo Dinh Diem of South Viet Nam announced that his troops had gone over to the offensive against the Communists.

It is an offensive of air - borne thrusts in an operation called "clear and hold," meaning that it clears out pockets of Viet Cong resistance and then sends in administrators whose task is to educate the people and attempt to hold the land thus won.

In this sense, then, the South Vietnamese have gone over to the offensive and vast American aid, which includes thousands of American advisers, has upset the Communist timetable of conquest.

But a Communist advantage is their ability to shift quickly from one pressure point to another, whether it be political or military. Furthermore, they regard South Viet Nam only as one portion of a war theater involving the whole of Southeast Asia, including Thailand.

One goal is to force the United States into another Geneva conference such as the one which set up the still questionable neutrality of Laos.

Lyle C. Wilson Says:

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The predicament of former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker fringes were as generous as the invites speculation whether the good fairies of the right good fairies of the left.

The good general is in the pique, where it was determined that the public safety required that he remain unless his good fairies could come up with $100,000 bail bond. This is a good round sum. When family and friends got the ball money together, the federal court laid another lock on Walker, ordering him to be held for psychiatric examination at the U. S. prisoners hospital where he is confined.

The bail bond laid upon Walker is identical with the sum assessed against the freedom of the late Robert Soblen when he, too, was in the pique and lacked the scratch to get out. The good fairies of the left could not bear the thought of the late Soblen being so confined. They put up $100,000 to bail the spy and off he flew to Israel.

That was a bad investment. Soblen will not be back, having been brought down by his own hand in London. He was helped by British good fairies who just could not suffer the poor fellow to serve his time. This fluttering of the heart muscles among the good fairies here and abroad in behalf of a convicted agent of the Communist conspiracy is enough to baffle the average man.

Robert Soblen's motives may have been of the purest, but that would depend on the angle from which they were observed. Soblen sought little more than to help Nikita Khrushchev bury us. A pure enough motive if viewed from the angle, say, of the Kremlin front door.

The Justice Department seemed to equate the menace of Walker with the menace of Soblen, $100,000 each.

This even though Walker's invasion of Mississippi with his flag, his tent and his skel-et made even Don Quixote look good. After that of James H. Meredith himself, the saddest personal tragedy in the horrid events at Oxford, Miss., was the personal tragedy of Edwin A. Walker, former major general, USA.

No chance now for Walker to be sprung, unless by writ of habeas corpus. There could be great public outcry if Walker were freed pending trial because many persons consider him a dangerous man.

Yet there was no public reproach when Comrade Soblen's good fairies sprang him from jail. Whether Walker is or was dangerous to our way of life is not subject to instant proof. As of now he is charged but not yet proven guilty of any crime.

Soblen was a Communist and a felon by official record when his bail was set and met, convicted of spying in the United States in behalf of the Reds. The price tags on Walker and Soblen were the same, far out of proportion to their respective threats to the welfare of the United States.

TV Previews

7:30-8:30 p. m. CBS. Rawhide. "Incident of the Portraiture." Action is keyed on suspense and it's unusually good. Trail boss Gil Favor (Eric Fleming) has his hands full with a blind girl (Nina Shipman) as a passenger who is unaware that the man driving her wagon is her father's killer. The heavy is played quite well by John Ireland. Fleming steals all the acting laurels from co-star Clint Eastwood, but Clint will have his innings next week.

7:30-8:30 p. m. NBC. International showtime. "The Great Circus of the Women." (color) A highly enjoyable show, especially for the fanciers of La Femme. The Circus is really not an all-female show, but rather the selected acts of the Cesar and Oscar Togni Circus that features the ladies in such roles as a tiger tamer, foils for a clown, acrobatic twins, and a high-wire act. The program was filmed at Ravenna, Italy, with interesting scenes showing the caravan setting up its tents on arrival. Don Ameche is host.

7:30-8:30 p. m. ABC. The Gallant Men. Premiere. Another series based on action during World War II. Here, we have a set of heroes fighting in Italy. Opening episode is fairly absorbing but has a weak plot. A captain doubts he'll acquire himself under fire and a war correspondent sees it that a former officer who suffered the same doubts aids him. Regular stars are William Reynolds as the captain and Robert McQueney as the war correspondent. Opening episode includes official clips of the real action on the Italian beach and the attack through Naples to the mountains.

8:30-9:30 p. m. CBS. Route 66. "Man Out of Time." A sometimes exciting, sometimes humorous, but always absorbingly human story has Tod and Bud (Martin Miller and George Maharis) as Chicago taxi drivers. Luther Adler is particularly good as a panic-stricken ex-convict who believes someone from his past wants to kill him. He uses Tod's cab to search for the supposed assailant. Good in a humorous spot as a news reporter is Frank McHugh, properly ominous is Bruce Gordon as a prosperous but questionable businessman, and colorful is Glenda Farrell as the ex-con's former girl friend. Entire sequence was shot in Chicago.

Tree-Tagging Time At U Of F Campus

GAINESVILLE — Separating the trees from the forest on the University of Florida's 1,800 acre campus is a massive tree-tagging operation now underway.

The project has turned the famous "pine and palm" campus, immortalized in the University's Alma Mater, into a botanical garden with approximately 5,500 trees and 153 species identified to date.

Adding to its reputation as one of the most beautiful colleges, the University of Florida now makes its campus an outdoor classroom providing visitors and students with botanical information as they stroll the traditional walks.

Familiar pathway landmarks take on new meaning as students discover a co-ed retouching her makeup beneath the Devil's Walkingstick, or take refuge from the rain under a Chinese-parasol-tree.

The guide map will also lead them to the Puerto Rican Hat Palm, the Brazilian pepper, the Italian Cypress and the Japanese Privet which long ago took their stand amid Southern magnolias, slash pines and giant water oaks.

Project directors Samuel E. McFadden, ornamental horticulturist, and Daniel B. Ward, botany professor, say that at least 1,100 campus trees will be tagged. They will be numbered to correspond with those on a free campus guide. The guide will include the scientific and common names of each tree, such as Pinus taeda Loblolly Pine, and its native habitat.

The tagged trees in the "outdoor classroom" will be located along campus walkways,

Lyman, Oviedo Face Grid Tests Tonight

Mira Ready For FSU

By United Press International
Mira of Florida, striving for national recognition, and the top quarterback, George Mira, at once candidates for playing honors, both face a still challenge when they come up against Florida State in the Orange Bowl Friday night to help him off another big season of college football.

The Seminoles of Miami have crossed a big step in their only two games, and Mira was the leading force as he completed 10 passes for 147 yards. In a 27-10 win over Miami in the first weekly ratings of the United Press International board of coaches, and Mira currently ranks sixth among the country's passers.

But Florida State could be the team to knock the wind out of the Seminoles. The Seminoles haven't allowed a single point in three games (one a scoreless tie) and are third in the nation in total defense and fourth in pass defense.

Giants Back In 'Reality'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Yankees, having brought the Giants back to reality, sent out ace right hander Ralph Terry today in an effort to make it two in a row and possibly wind up the World Series in New York.

"We're going to win it and I'd like to do it at home," said beaming, confident Yankee manager Ralph Houk.

Terry, a 26-game winner who never has won a Series game, faced Jack Sanford, a 24-game winner for the Giants.

"Don't count us out," cautioned manager Al Dark of the Giants.

"They've been counting us out all year, but here we are in the series. We're down, but far from out."

Dark recalled that the last time they were counted out was Wednesday at Los Angeles—when they went into the final inning of their third game playoff against the Dodgers for the National League pennant, trailing, 4-2. But they scored four big runs to pull it out 6-4 and roll into the series against the Yankees.

After today's game, the teams take off Saturday for transcontinental travel, the series resuming in Yankee Stadium on Sunday. The third, fourth and fifth games in this best four out of seven series are scheduled there. If the sixth and seventh games are necessary, the teams will come back here.

Dark announced three lineup changes for today's game. He decided to bench his long-ball hitting first baseman, Orlando Cepeda, "because he's dead tired."

He put the left handed hitting Willie McCovey in his place. Dark also pitched Matty Alou, another left handed hitter, into left field in place of the right handed hitting Harvey Kuenn, and Tom Haller behind the plate.

Houk planned to go with his same lineup—except for winning pitcher Whiskey Ford and the possibility that Bill Skowron might not be able to play at first base.

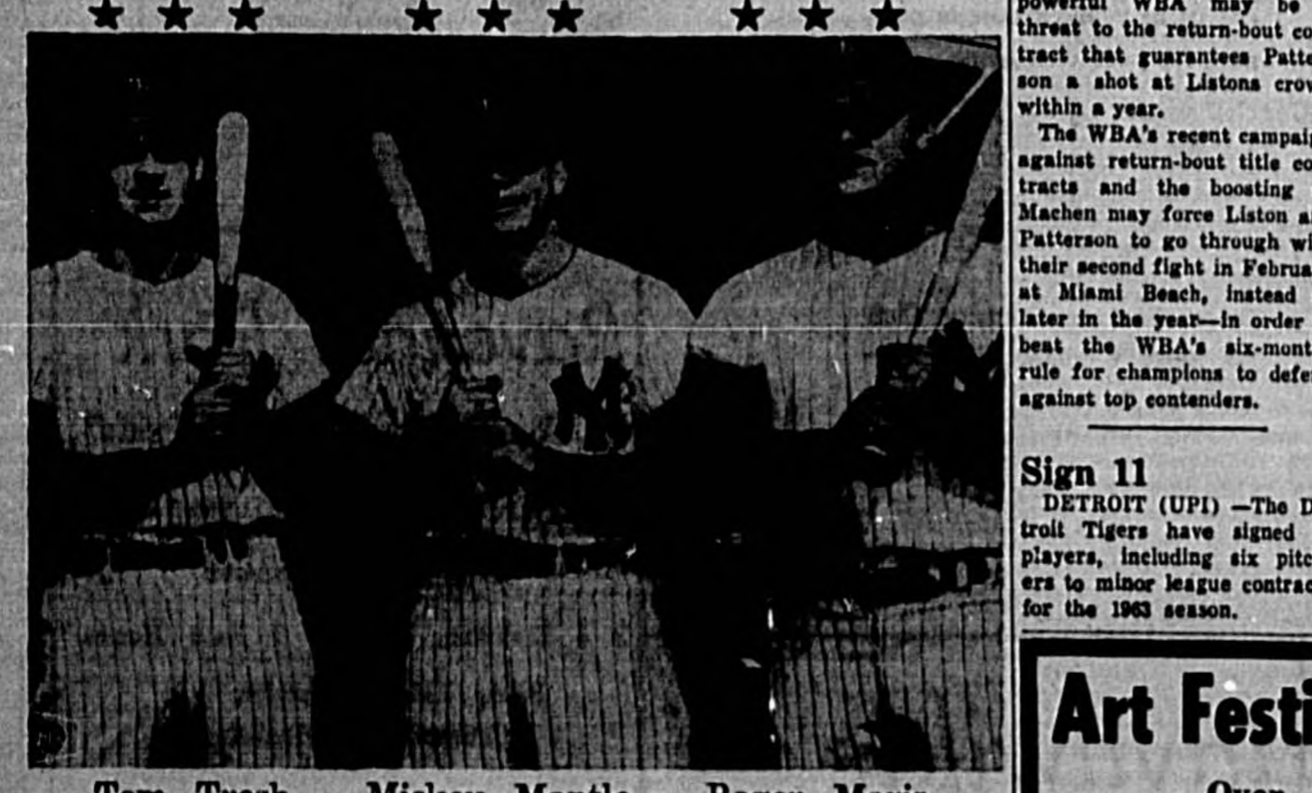

Skowron, suffering from a cold, hurt his back in a workout Wednesday but asserted he was ready to play.

Sidelights!

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — World Series sidelights: While Ralph Terry is pitching for the New York Yankees today, he may have his mind on something besides the Giants.

Amid Wednesday's wild celebration over the Giants' pennant playoff victory over the Dodgers, a man watched delirious fans swarm over a Powell Street cable car, hug strangers and sound long blasts on auto horns. Beaming, he said, "It's wonderful the way they're cheering our astronaut."

Business slowed to a virtual standstill in San Francisco, including the courts where the most frequently heard and granted request was for a motion for continuance.

Gators Ready For Duke

By United Press International
Florida is pegging its football hopes Saturday on a 19-year-old sophomore in its non-conference battle with mighty Duke.

Coach Ray Graves announced that Tom Shannon, 170-pounder from Miami, probably will start for the Gators in place of the injured veteran thrower Larry Libertore.

Coach John Vaught said the Rebels will "have our sternest test of the season" against the Cougars who have defeated Baylor and Texas A&M in their two outings this season.

Coach Bobby Dodd indicated he expects a low scoring battle when his Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets tangle with Louisiana State Saturday.

"We're depending on Tom," said Graves. "He's been showing real well in practice the last few days."

Senior Am-Play 'Torrid'

CHICAGO (UPI) — Mike Cestone, Montclair, N. J., the 1960 champion, and three other golfers tied off today in the semi-finals of the eighth annual Senior amateur tournament of the U. S. Golf Association.

Cestone, 38, was paired against Merrill Carlsmith, 57, Hilo, Hawaii. The other semi-final match pitted Col. Williams K. Lanman, 58, Chicago, and Willis Blakely, 61, Portland, Ore.

Along with Glad and Touhy in the line, there was Joe Gazil and Gary Watson to add key tackles for the evening. The Baby Seminoles looked excellent in all departments of the game with good tackling, blocking and real hard running.

After the running game slowed down, Hinson started throwing to Black, Barks, Tillie and Watson. All of these boys hauled in some fine catches as the Indians moved to victory lane.

Broncos Can Take Over 1st In Grid Loop

USE ENOUGH MAKE-UP Don't make the mistake of applying make-up too sparingly in an attempt to achieve a natural-looking effect. The "natural look" often requires more make-up to cover every blemish and to blend the color to an even tone.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: For 10 years I have been trying to convince my wife that it is her duty to get up in the morning and prepare breakfast for me. She doesn't have to go to work, so if she went back to bed afterwards it would be all right with me. She tells me that I am behind-the-times and that 98% of the wives sleep in the morning and their husbands either get their own breakfast or go out and buy it somewhere. Can you tell me if this is correct? I would like to know approximately how many wives in our nation still get up in the morning to prepare a decent breakfast for their families? NO BREAKFAST

DEAR NO: Your wife must have "dreamed" those statistics. I am willing to bet that at least 75% of our wives have the coffee perking at 7:30 a. m. How about it, girls?

DEAR ABBY: A teacher in our school has started the "Honor System." During tests she leaves the room and the students are on their "honor." I do not cheat, but several of the others do. They look up the answers and copy them straight out of the books. Consequently they make better grades than I do. What is your opinion of our "honor system?" HONEST

DEAR HONEST: I think the teacher has the honor and the kids have the system. Tell your teacher to take off the rose-colored glasses.

Here is his sad story: "My luck had been bad as usual, but I finally got vulnerable and picked up a nice comfortable no-trump hand. "I played the three from dummy and East went into conference with himself. Eventually he played the eight and from then on my cause

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

A psychology professor says it's fine and dandy for a married couple to quarrel occasionally if they keep the quarrels "civilized." The professor didn't lay down a set of ground rules for keeping a husband-wife argument "civilized" - but how about these for a starter set? Don't yell-or, worse yet, talk in icy, cutting tones. Don't drag a past disagreement into a current argument. Stay on the subject. Don't try to settle more than one problem at a time.

Diagonal Parking Plan Expected To Get City Approval

By LARRY VERHEIJL

What were you doing Saturday afternoon? . . . Watching or hearing a football game . . . talking to a loved one? Well, we know of one member of the Boosters Club that spent her afternoon using the phone for three hours trying to get some volunteers for the concession stand for the next Seminole High grid game. . . She was about as successful as the Gators.

A CONVERSATION WITH WILDLIFE OFFICER BOB JOHNSON: Yes, one by the Reporter: Well, were the hunters out Saturday? Johnson: They sure were; hundreds of them. Reporter: Anyone shot? Johnson: Yes, one by his Black Hammock area by Oviedo. Reporter: Any arrests? Johnson: 12.

How many cars in the Sanford area were pelted Saturday? We know of three.

County Commission meeting should be lively tomorrow. Appeal scheduled on the board of adjustment ruling on that Mallard Sewage treatment plant case.

County received 12 new UMF rifles today and walking through the engineer's office it was like watching a couple of kids with a new toy.

Art Festival was interesting here . . . but why only still lifes on display?

Big decision I hope I don't have to make . . . Whether to watch the world series or attend that shaggy dog trial this afternoon.

Our South Seminole Agent X-9 dropped the intelligence over the weekend that the members of the Casselberry Country Club are unhappy over the lack of life guard at the club pool. Told us some 30 kids were swimming yesterday and no guard was on duty, nor was there any attendant nearby.

The Courthouse Committee meets again tonight at 8 p.m. in the commission room to delve further into problems of the county home and some office space for the new county administrative aide.

Gogged rehearsals last week for the big show (?) coming off at Lake Mary's Catholic Circle Luau on Oct. 13. Yow-e-e-s, some collection of females . . . and WHAT COSTUMES!!! You fellas better put this on your MUST list . . . there's plenty of surprises in THAT chorus line.

Governor's Aide John Evans reported today, from Tallahassee, that Governor Bryant's staff is working on the sanctuary problem, and is today conferring with the Game and Fish people to find out their position and the reasons for opening the area so soon after closing it. We will keep in touch and bring you the latest.

A cursory survey of the dove hunting area southeast of town Sunday revealed there were five Seminole County cars, 13 Orange County cars and eight from counties other than Seminole and Orange.

Attention goldfish lovers. Keep your loved one out of the Cordova section . . . there's a mixed up German police dog there that craves 'em.

VAH-7 coming back home Thursday morning . . . Been gone since the first of August!

The City Commission tonight is expected to establish diagonal parking on the south side of First St. from Oak to Sanford Ave., the Herald learned today.

A special six man committee is expected to submit its report at the regular meeting of the city board emphasizing three major points to help boost the downtown area.

Shouts, Jeers 'Interrupt' UN Cuban Talk

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—Shouting spectators interrupted Cuban President Osvaldo Dorticos repeatedly as he addressed the UN General Assembly today.

Assembly President Muhammad Zafulla Khan threatened to clear the public galleries. Guards hustled the shouting spectators out as they roared, one by one, in different parts of the gallery while Dorticos spoke.

The assembly hall was packed and light security precautions were in effect. Newsmen required special passes to enter the assembly hall, where extra details of guards were placed in the public section.

Outside UN headquarters, uniformed and plainclothes details of New York were on police while demonstrators picketed quietly behind barricades on the opposite side of the street.

The first shouting occurred in the hall when Dorticos first touched on the Cuban situation some 10 minutes after the start of his speech.

Calling for speedy implementation of the UN resolution on an end to all colonialism, Dorticos said: "We are eye and body witnesses of what foreign military intervention can do."

A woman rose and shouted in Spanish. Others followed, their single voices raised in different parts of the gallery. Guards went into action quickly.

Utility Company Report Expected In Casselberry

Reports on the financial status of Casselberry Utilities, which is seeking to raise water rates in Casselberry are expected at today's 7:30 p. m. meeting of the Board of Aldermen in the Casselberry Women's Club Building on Overbrook Dr.

Hibbard Casselberry, owner of the utility company, was asked to prepare the report at a continued meeting of the board on Sept. 17.

West Protests Soviet Move

BERLIN (UPI)—The Western Allies today protested to the Soviet ambassador in East Berlin against the Communist refusal to allow a British ambulance to enter East Berlin Saturday to tend a youth wounded by Red gunfire.

In identical notes the United States, Britain and France said the Communist refusal was "in flagrant violation" of the four-power right of circulation in Berlin.

Getting Ready

JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—A half million pounds of supplies will be transferred from a government warehouse to 14 buildings in the downtown section tomorrow as Jacksonville stocks up fallout shelters in case of national emergency.

'Fogbound' Tops Art Festival

Miss Frances McDougal, long time Sanford resident, who lives on East Celery Ave., has won first prize for her painting of boats moored to a dock, with the title "Fogbound." The painting was one of 30 exhibited by local artists during the two-day Festival of Art sponsored by the Downtown Merchant's Assn.

Second place winner was Mrs. Georgia Bell's painting of windswept sea dunes and third place went to Mrs. Marguerite Pope for her gay painting of Mexican sunflowers.

Prizes of $25, $15 and $10 will be awarded to the three ladies by the Merchant's Assn. Judges were Mrs. J. Doris Fleming and Mrs. Gordon Sweeney.

Miss McDougal said that her first-place winning painting was done from memories of a visit to an island off the coast of France, several years ago. It was created by the use of a palette knife and string and thick heavy paint.

The painting was shown in Badcock's Furniture store. Mrs. Bell's painting of sand dunes was seen in the window at Cowan's and Mrs. Pope's sunflower painting was exhibited at Mary-Esther's.

800 New Voters In; 'I'm Delighted,' Says Bruce

A "delighted" Supervisor of Registration Camilla Bruce reported over 400 new registered voters in the county last week and over 800 since the May Democratic primary.

The final day for registering for the fall election was Saturday. Records reveal that there are now 15,845 voters in the county.

Mrs. Bruce said she was delighted with the registration turnout. She added that there will be more interest in this year's election than in any previous off-year vote she could remember.

Out of the new registered voters, about half are from Sanford, Mrs. Bruce added. On the ballot this November will be senatorial, congressional and legislative races as well as railroad and public utility posts up for grabs.

South End Store Robbed Sunday

Jackson's Mini Market, in Casselberry, was robbed of between $1,600 and $1,700 sometime Sunday afternoon, according to a report by the Sheriff's Department.

The store's assistant manager, James Mathis, who was on duty, discovered the loss between 2 and 3 p. m. when he went to the safe, in the back room of the store, to get some additional change for the cash registers.

Mathis said the safe was locked, when he went to the back room, and when he opened it the money was gone. He promptly called the Sheriff's office and Deputies responded.

According to the Sheriff's Office there were no signs of the safe having been forcibly opened and the department is working on the theory the safe was either opened by someone who knew the combination or that the safe was left unlocked.

County Insurance Board Given Clean Bill Of Health By State

The County Insurance commission was given a clean bill of health by the State Insurance authorities who concluded an investigation into the operation of the insurance business controlled by the county commission.

A letter from Richard F. Strickland, deputy director of the State Insurance Department, to County Commissioner James P. Avery, Jr., stated the result of the study conducted by the department to determine whether or not there had been a violation of the insurance rating laws revealed none, and the "department has no criticism of the Seminole County Insurance program or the agents writing it."

A second letter, received by Avery from Strickland, pointed out that the proposal made by one local agent for a nation wide company, indicated there would be a saving of $350.00 per year in one type of coverage, but neglected to point out that over a four year period there would be a saving of slightly over $1,000, according to the commissioner.

It was said, by Strickland, in conversation with Avery, that the county should cancel its policies on county vehicles for fire, theft and collision, and a public liability policy should be purchased, presently in force there is no recourse for a citizen if involved in an accident with a county vehicle and the latter is at fault.

Bible Reading Rule Due

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court agreed today to rule on the constitutionality of Bible reading in the public schools.

The decisions are expected to provide far-reaching guideposts in the running controversy over the question of state vs. religion in American life.

The justices accepted two challenges to Bible reading practices brought by parents in Pennsylvania and Maryland. The Maryland case also involves recitation of the Lord's Prayer as part of school opening exercises.

Acceptance of the two cases played the court into its new term on the same explosive note on which it adjourned last summer. At that time it held unconstitutional the reading of a state-written prayer in New York schools.

The Maryland appeal was brought to the Supreme Court by Mrs. Madalyn E. Murray who described herself and her son William J. Murray III, as atheists. William attends a Baltimore school.

The other Bible case was initiated in Philadelphia by a Unitarian couple, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis Sehepp. Their children attend a high school in Abington Township.

Today's decision means that the high court will hear open arguments in the two cases and later hand down its rulings on the constitutionality of such practices.

The court also refused, as expected, to review lower court orders which brought about the admission of Negro James H. Meredith to the University of Mississippi.

Upheld two lower court decisions which struck down racial barriers in bus and railroad terminals in Louisiana and Georgia.

Army Calls Back Crisis Troops

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Army announced today that all active forces on duty for the Mississippi integration crisis will be sent back to their home stations, starting immediately.

The 5,600 troops have been deployed in Memphis, Tenn. and Columbus, Miss. They were sent into the area after rioting erupted on the University of Mississippi campus a week ago over the enrollment of Negro James H. Meredith.

The forces will be returned to their home bases by air and truck, Army Secretary Cyrus R. Vance announced. Still on duty in the area are forces of the Mississippi National Guard, which was put on federal duty by President Kennedy the night before the riots began.

Some of these Mississippi troops were released last weekend. Others were kept on call, and the remainder still are on duty.
