HEAT AND STORMS SWEEP OVER NORTHERN STATES CAUSING DEATHS IN WAKE

TORNADOES AND ELECTRICAL STORMS FOLLOW AWFUL HEAT WAVE

NUMBER OF FIRES

Start From Heat and Storms and Electrical Damages and Property Loss is Great

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 27.—Electrical storm which swept the metropolitan district last night at Long Beach, Long Island, killed Bert Savoy of stage team of Brennan and Savoy, and Jack Grossman, also of the theatrical profession and caused the death of a woman in Brooklyn and a man in Yonkers. A number of fires were started, but the loss was small.

PHILADELPHIA, June 27.—Although the temperature was an even 100 in the court room, William Shepard appeared in heavy winter clothing, carrying a furlined overcoat with heavy collar. He had been in jail since winter.

SANDESBY, Ohio, June 27.—With the mercury hovering around 92 in the shade, motorists here are "brick pavement shy" today. City authorities said excessive heat was responsible for the "explosion of a strip of brick pavement" here, which threw Lee Jeffrey and his automobile into a ditch.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 27.—The burglar who robbed Mrs. J. H. Calvin during the height of the heat wave was a considerable fellow, according to the victim. He scorned her bathing suits, but disappeared with a $50 fur coat and other winter clothes.

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich., June 27.—Frank Joy was stricken with a "cake" of absent mindedness as a result of the heat. He got under the cold shower at a country club here after having removed only the shoes of his golf attire. He discovered his predicament when he reached for the soap.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 27.—The terrific heat caused a wreck in the Hudson yards of the Delaware & Hudson railroad, tying up traffic for several hours. A switch expanded and two freight cars were piled up, blocking two lines.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 27.—A maniac believed crazed by heat still played "you chase me" with a squad of police in Edgewater park here today after being "it" all night. With large bouquets of flowers in each hand, the young man darted in and out among bushes and driveways, shouting to patrolmen from behind corners and then disappearing again.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The heat-weary East dragged itself Tuesday through another steaming period toward the boon of "lower temperatures" promised for today by the weather man.

A little relief was in prospect during the day, however, with local thundershowers likely to wash the stale air and freshen things—including tempers—up a bit.

TORONTO, Ont., June 27.—Damage estimated in millions was caused by a violent electrical storm which swept the western part of Ontario Province Tuesday.

NEW YORK, June 27.—One woman was killed and several persons injured late yesterday, when a violent wind, electrical and hail storm of only ten minutes' duration swept over the Bushwick and East New York section of Brooklyn.

The woman, Miss Bertha Vall, was killed when the wind toppled a 30-foot brick wall enclosing the East New York repair shops of the B. M. T., demolishing an automobile in which she was seated with Mrs. Rose Herring, and Mrs. Herring's divorced husband, David Rosenfeld, both of

PRODUCTION AND SHIPMENT WAS HEAVY

DURING MAY AND THE FIRST HALF OF PRESENT MONTH

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 27.—Production and shipment of general merchandise and manufacturers continued in heavy volume during May and the first half of June according to the summary of general business and financial conditions made public today by the federal reserve board, also revealed that sustained high level of production had been reflected in volume of employment and in many instances advanced wages.

Carswell is Speaker of Georgia Legislature Session Stars Today

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTA, June 27.—Gov. H. Carswell, of Irwinton, was unanimously elected president of the senate at the opening of the session of the Georgia legislature here today. Speaker Neill of Muscogee county, had no opposition as speaker of the house. Gov. Hardwick is to submit his message Friday and inauguration of Gov.-elect Clifford Walker is set for Saturday.

SEMINOLE COUNTY BEHIND IN ITS QUOTA FOR C. M. T. C.

Seminole county is behind in its quota for the Citizen's Military Training Camps. Undoubtedly this fact is due to the lack of interest on the part of the prominent citizens of this fact is due to the lack of interest on the part of the prominent citizens of this county, who have received information and have been requested to acquaint the boys between the ages of 17 and 24 with the possibility of securing a month's physical and military training, combined with recreation and lots of fun, at government expense.

According to B. C. Riley, Civilian Aide to the Secretary of War for the State of Florida, who says: "If the citizens of Seminole County continue in their lack of interest, and if men and women who have been asked to assist in recruiting, do not do their part soon, the county will not be properly represented at the camps this summer. In case of an emergency, the boys of Seminole County will certainly be handicapped as they will not have the training that boys from other counties will get at camp this summer."

The present situation is not the fault of the boys because wherever the prominent men and women of various communities have talked to the boys and acquainted them with the facts, the young men have sent in their applications and have been accepted.

The United States Army officers in charge of the 4th Corps Area have asked Florida to furnish 600 men and a large number of them have already signed up; however, Seminole County is still behind and has been given until July 10 to make good. Surely Seminole County will raise her total. We are depending upon the American Legion, the Woman's Clubs, the Bankers and other citizens to get busy at once.

whom were injured. Workmen extricated them and took them to a hospital, where Miss Vall died.

Mrs. Herring was injured internally and was not expected to recover, and Rosenfeld, though badly hurt, was expected to live.

Police reserves were called to handle a small crowd of angry residents of the vicinity, who recalled yesterday's tragedy on the tracks of the same transportation company.

Fifty of the finest specimens of trees in Prospect Park were felled, some of them more than a hundred years old.

The brief storm was the climax of a scolding day, fraught with tragedy.

NEGLIGENCE WAS CAUSE "L" DISASTER

DISREGARD FOR ESSENTIALS IN SAFETY SAYS ATTORNEY

NEW YORK, June 27.—Monday's elevated railway wreck in Brooklyn in which seven persons were killed and 86 injured, several probably fatally, brought two important developments today.

District Attorney Dodd began presentation to the Kings county grand jury of evidence as to the cause of the disaster, and announced he was going after "higher-ups" of the Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit Company on the theory that disregard for the essentials of safety caused the ancient two cars to plunge from the structure to the street 40 feet below.

Mayor Hylan, in a statement called on Governor Smith for a special session of the legislature, at which "the recalcitrant, traction controlled legislature would be forced to adopt the Walker-Donohue bill providing home rule in transit control in this city."

President Menden, of the newly reorganized B. M. T. issued a statement denying the charges of officials that rotten guard rails, which gave way when the train jumped the track, had caused the tragedy.

He said that the guard rails held but that the train toppled over and that the accident was unavoidable. He also denied charges that someone had turned a switch to danger after the wreck to make it appear that the motorman had run past a danger signal and thus was responsible. The switch, he said, was thrown by the train itself.

Queen of Clyde Fleet Breaks Another Record

The steamship Lenape, queen of the Clyde Line fleet, and holder practically of every speed record for coastwise liners on the Atlantic coast, added more laurels to her credit Monday afternoon when she steamed from Charleston to Jacksonville in thirteen hours and five minutes. The time was taken from dock to dock.

E. P. Kennedy is the chief engineer of the Lenape, having been connected with the Clyde Line for many years. The ship is in command of Captain Ingram, who brought his daughter, Miss Dorothy Ingram, to Florida with him on this trip. They will take a trip up the St. Johns river during the stay of the Lenape in port.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

Oklahoma County Under Martial Law, Troops in Charge

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., June 27.—Governor Walton yesterday placed Oklahoma county under martial law, declaring in his proclamation that a state of lawlessness exists. The action was unexpected.

Announcement of the issuance of the proclamation was made by Aldrich Black, the governor's secretary, yesterday afternoon. The proclamation, he said, that a "State of lawlessness and terror exists in Oklahoma county as a result of the neglect of the sheriff to enforce the law."

John Russell, Democrat, is the sheriff. The governor acted, Black said, on the strength of signed statements submitted to him by three well known Oklahoma county citizens, which he said detailed lawlessness in the county. They are, according to Black, the Rev. J. C. Curry, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, at Okmulgee; James Stormont, chief of police and Harriette and W. L. Sullins, Okmulgee automobile dealers.

NEW AND VIOLENT ERUPTION BROKE OUT THIS MORNING SOUTH SIDE OF MT. AETNA

Plainly Visible to the Naked Eye as Far Away as Catania

LONDON, June 27.—New and violent eruption broke out this morning near the summit on the south side of Mount Aetna and was visible to the naked eye in Catania says a Rome dispatch to the Central News. It is feared observatory has been overwhelmed. Professor Carrara reports new flow of lava progressing at the rate of kilometer an hour.

LIQUOR LINERS CONTINUE TODAY IN LIMELIGHT

LIQUOR LINERS 24 SO FRENCH AND BRITISH LINERS COME INTO PORT HEAVILY LADEN

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 27.—Seizure by the United States of foreign vessels bringing liquor in violation of the supreme court decision treasury regulations understood have been considered in series of conferences between treasury and prohibition officials. Thus far there had been no attempt to do more than confiscation of liquor but it is understood more drastic steps are urged. No decision has been announced.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The French liner Paris and the White Star liner Cedric, the third and fourth vessels to defy dry laws in bringing liquors into New York under government seals yesterday lost their excess beer, wine and liquor when customs officials went aboard and seized all but medicinal supplies.

West Florida Naval Stores Company Lets Convicts Go

Were Operating 24 Prisoners But Off It for Life

(By The Associated Press)
TALLAHASSEE, June 27.—West Florida Naval Stores Company has decided to turn off its convicts immediately according to a report made to the prison headquarters here by B. H. Dickson, county supervisor. The company has been operating a convict camp at Wewahatcha in West Florida. Last report showed it had 24 prisoners of whom eleven were white men. The camp is to be abolished and the prisoners turned over to the state road department, according to Dickson's report.

Accident Last Night, Auto Turns Over on Magnolia Avenue

A Ford touring car driven by a negro turned over last night on Magnolia avenue said to have been done by a collision with another car but the straight of the story has not been gleaned yet. He side-swiped another car standing on the wrong side of the street and it is said he had a head-on with a car coming from an opposite direction.

RAFFELD'S TALK MAKES REAL HIT WITH KIWANIS

WELL-ATTENDED, INTERESTING MEETING IN PALM ROOM OF VALDEZ TODAY

Addressing members as "Mr." being "taboo" in the local Kiwanis Club, the Herald is going to conform with the new ruling in the future. President Sharon called the meeting to order and Brownlee asked the blessing. The latter has entirely recovered from the effects of his trips to Atlanta and Daytona Beach, but has not told how he lost his Kiwanis button.

After considerable discussion the plan to beautify the highways leading to this city was deferred for the present, and the support of the local hospital will continue to be the chief aim and object of the club's work.

Forest Lake extended an invitation to the membership to attend the meeting of the "Scrap Iron" class of the Methodist church at the Princess Theatre next Sunday morning, and stated that the inducement offered was a talk by T. L. Dumas. The latter may not be much for looks but he is right there when it comes to wagging a nimble tongue and it is safe to say that many members will be present next Sunday.

Caswell and Carter, the entertainment committee for this week, sprung a very pleasant surprise by introducing Miss Rosmond Radford, a handsome and accomplished young lady who is an eloquent of rare ability, and her efforts in this line were heartily applauded and enjoyed.

Lloyd told of his trip way up in Michigan and other foreign countries and stated that while crop conditions in the sections visited were excellent, he was mighty glad to get back to Sanford, which, he stated, was far ahead of any city of the size visited.

Lane made a motion that the Kiwanis Club challenge the Rotary Club to a game of base ball, the proceeds to be evenly divided. The motion carried with the provision that each member of the club must play at least a part of an inning. The chair appointed Lane, Lloyd and DeCottas the committee in charge of the affair, with strict orders to report at the next meeting.

There had been no provision made for a speaker for the day but Raffeld was so full of the good things of Kiwanis that he took the floor and made one of the very best talks ever listened to by the club. Raffeld may get mixed up a little in the use of the English language, but he is so earnest and understands his subject so thoroughly that he commands the entire attention of his hearers. There have been several talks made recently at these gatherings that the Herald would be glad to print, as they were very inspiring and interesting.

Dr. Tolar was the lucky guy in the weekly drawing contest and won the box of real linen handkerchiefs donated by Connelly. Believing that one good turn deserves another Tolar will donate the prize for next week, while Connelly and Dumas will furnish the entertainment.

VIRGINIAN ON TRIAL ATTEMPTED BLACKMAIL

(By The Associated Press)
ELKINS, W. Va., June 27.—An echo of the whipping of convicts in Florida prison camps was heard in federal court here today when W. H. Austin, alias W. R. Henderson, of Keyser, W. Va., was placed on trial charged with using the mails in an attempt to blackmail. It is charged that Austin wrote a letter to Captain L. M. McIntosh, of Point City, Fla., demanding $1,000 as the price of his silence in connection with the alleged whipping. Austin testified that McIntosh whipped him and he said he wanted the thousand to pay the costs of a damage suit against McIntosh.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Permission given Fort Myers Southern Railway a subsidiary of the Atlantic Coast Line by the Interstate Commerce Commission today to build 46 mile stretch of new road down the western coast of Florida. It will be a southern extension of the present Atlantic Coast Line from near Fort Myers to Marco and open up a new area.

Jury is Completed At Lake City to Try Camp Whipping Boss

(By The Associated Press)
LAKE CITY, June 27.—The trial of Thomas W. Higginbotham, convict whipping boss, charged with murder of Martin Tabert, of North Dakota, was featured again today by more clashes between counsel over naming of commissioner to take deposition of J. T. Hendry, defense witness, now in Atlanta. Counsel for the defense charged assistant State's Attorney Caldwell with "butting in on case" and made motion for continuance which the court overruled. The jury was completed late yesterday.

W. Padgett, former guard at the Putnam Lumber Company, where Tabert died was the first witness examined. He testified Tabert pleaded not to be whipped, but "Higginbotham gave him seventy-five lashes with a leather strap." He said the prisoner begged for mercy. Also testified that Tabert was sick the morning after the whipping and became unconscious Sunday night, and remained so until he died the following Tuesday. J. E. Jackson, another former guard, also testified that he had seen Higginbotham whip Tabert.

It required almost ten hours to obtain the jury. The last man entered the box at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after an all-day session of court. Only seven more veniremen were left out of a panel of 84 when the last selection was made.

The jury was ordered locked up for the night and court took a recess until 9 o'clock this morning.

Counsel for the state immediately held a consultation with their witnesses and early last night it was not announced what phases of the flogging case would be taken up first.

Reading newspaper stories based on evidence introduced before a joint legislative committee inquiring into the death of Tabert at the county lease camp of the Putnam Lumber Company at Clara, Fla., where Higginbotham was employed as a whipping boss, caused disqualification of many of the prospective jurors. The majority of those disqualified told the court they had fixed opinions as to the innocence or guilt of the defendant.

In selecting the jury the state raised objection to the manner in which the defense questioned prospective jurors, each prospective member of the body being asked particularly as to whether he had received a pamphlet from Munich, N. D., pertaining to the Higginbotham case. Another question was whether they had talked with Mr. Grimson about the case, the defense referring to the assistant attorney general of North Dakota who is here representing his state in the case.

"Perhaps the budget system would not accomplish so much for taxing and spending divisions smaller than the state, but a resolute commitment to strike at all extravagance and expend public funds as one would for himself in his personal and business affairs will accomplish wonders."

Figures furnished to him by both the Treasury and the Census Bureau, the President stated, "make it perfectly plain that whereas the cost of federal government is being steadily reduced, the cost of state and local

OUTLINES WHAT FEDERAL GOVERNMENT HAS ACCOMPLISHED DECREASED TAXES

And Makes Plea for Similar Action in All States and Municipalities

(By The Associated Press)
ON BOARD PRESIDENT HARDING'S SPECIAL, June 27.—President Harding travelled into southwest Utah today to visit Zion Park, first of three national playgrounds. He plans to see during the trip today. He will retrace his way northward and continue on to Idaho where tomorrow he will make two addresses at Pocatello and Idaho Falls.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 27.—President Harding outlined here last night what the federal government has accomplished in decreasing taxes and the public debt and made a plea for action along similar lines by the states, municipalities and counties.

The executive said the federal government is "diligently seeking to prove itself a helpful example" in removing what he characterized as the menace of mounting taxes and growing public indebtedness, but added that this was not a federal problem, that "the improved order must come into the units of government into which the federal government never intrudes."

Mr. Harding did not take up in his address any contemplated administration program for tax revision in the coming year. He did say, however, that the federal government was working under a program which "involves extinguishing a half billion of the (public) debt each year" and asserted that the payments which the British government will make under the settlement "will correspondingly relieve the burden upon American taxpayers."

The President declared no other country in the world had been able to make such a record in public debt reduction as had the United States. Pointing to a reduction of more than one half in federal taxes during the past two years as compared with the war load paid in 1920, he declared this was the "record of business administration to which the party now in control of the administration feels justified in referring with no small measure of satisfaction."

The British debt settlement, the Executive went on, has been "acclaimed all over the world as one of the most notable and successful fiscal accomplishments ever recorded." He added that aside from reducing the burden of American taxpayers, the settlement had been one of the "most reassuring events since the armistice," coming as it did at a time of "widespread uncertainty and misgiving throughout the world of business everywhere."

To the Budget Bureau Mr. Harding attributed much of the credit for getting government expenditures back to something like normal. Under this plan, he declared, the administration has been able to "awaken a spirit of economy and efficiency in the public service."

"We have introduced business methods in government," he added, "and instead of operating blindly and to suit individual departments which have never visualized the government as a whole, and felt no concern about the raising of funds, we are scrutinizing, justifying, co-ordinating, and not only halting mounting cost, but making long strides in reducing the cost of government activities."

"Perhaps the budget system would not accomplish so much for taxing and spending divisions smaller than the state, but a resolute commitment to strike at all extravagance and expend public funds as one would for himself in his personal and business affairs will accomplish wonders."

Figures furnished to him by both the Treasury and the Census Bureau, the President stated, "make it perfectly plain that whereas the cost of federal government is being steadily reduced, the cost of state and local

MINISTERS ADOPT RESOLUTIONS AGAINST REPEALING DRY LAW

ATLANTA, Ga., June 26.—Resolutions protesting against any movement to repeal the state prohibition law were adopted today by the Methodist and Baptist ministers of Atlanta as the vanguard of the legislators reached the city for the opening session of the 1923 general assembly on Wednesday. This action followed the adoption of similar resolutions Sunday morning by the congregations of several Atlanta churches.
It was expected that nearly one-third of the lawmakers would be here by tonight. Campaign headquarters of four members of the upper and lower houses who are candidates for office have been opened.

THE RED CROSS CALLS YOU.

The local chapter of the Red Cross will hold a course of instruction in Home Hygiene, Home Nursing and the Care of Infants.
Will the women of Sanford respond to this call and take advantage of the splendid opportunity offered under the direction of a trained nurse sent out by our National Red Cross to better capable communities to care for the sick of their home during epidemics of fevers and in fact all illnesses in homes where for any reason a trained nurse may not be obtainable.
The course will open July 2, in the Welaka Building, enrollment to be made with Mrs. W. E. Watson, phone this week, any day, between the hours of 12 and 2, or 5 and 7, by phone 397-J, or by mail. Women of every age and grade are needed, wanted, and urged to join. There will be a nominal fee, about $1.00, for this instruction, however, the local chapter stands ready to sponsor any woman who earnestly wishes this course and feels she can not meet the financial call. The chapter wants to be of as great a service to the community as it is possible to be. In explanation the chapter wishes to explain the fee is to meet the cost of materials for the course and expenses that naturally accompany such a course, but with 2 1/2 hours instruction—is this not a splendid opportunity and can we spend a dollar to better advantage for ourselves and our community. Please get in touch with Mrs. W. E. Watson some how, as soon as possible and place your name on the roll.

A TRIBUTE

Born October 12, 1921. Died June 16, 1923.
Such is the brief record of our darling baby's life. For a year and a half our home was gladdened by her presence, but now we are so lonely!
Little Coe was not only dear to her own family, but was a favorite with all her friends. Her pretty baby ways, her sweet smile, her sunny disposition endeared her to all who knew her.
We miss her sorely, but bow in submission to the Divine Will, knowing that "of such is the kingdom of heaven."

MODELS FOR COTTON CREPE

There are many ways of using the beautiful cotton crepes found in such abundance this season, but none more effective than in these two models. Although it is not illustrated, the frock to the left has a sleeveless jacket with open front, which may be fashioned in contrasting color and fabric, if desired. The each is of soft satin. Medium size requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch material.
The neckpiece of blue fox is one of the sensations of summer and every woman of style either has one or is planning to get one to wear with this frock. Pharaoh blue voile trimmed with blue ribbon in a darker shade makes up the dress to the right and the simplicity of the model is so irresistible that it is sure to be a universal favorite. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36-inch voile.
First Model: Vicorial Review Dress No. 1558. Sizes, 14 to 20 years. Price, 35 cents.
Second Model: Dress No. 1568. Sizes, 14 to 20 years. Price, 35 cents.

BOYS ARE NATION'S GREATEST ASSETS

ST. LOUIS, June 26.—Conserving the nation's greatest natural resource—the boy—to the end that he will grow up with the idea that "he profits most who serves best," is the idea underlying the boys' work of Rotary International as outlined by Chairman Everett Hill of the International Boys' Work Committee, during session of the Rotary International Convention here.
Rotarian Frank D. Slutz of Dayton, Ohio, and Eddie Guest, the newspaper poet of Detroit, also spoke.
The supreme challenge of each generation is the next generation, Mr. Slutz told the convention. The supreme challenge of Rotary—an organization of men—is the boys, he said.
"Boys are history and civilization at the source," Mr. Slutz continued. "A fraction of the time spent upon the influencing of adults—of men—if spent upon boys will establish boys their loyalties and their ideals. Every consideration of business efficiency demands that Rotary train boys in the new ideals."
"Rotary can teach the boys of the world that service must be above self. If the game of living is to be played in a man's way. With service above self, public responsibility will be placed before business smugness and satisfaction. Wealth will be regarded as a nonpossibility for service."
"The boys can be taught that human personality is the most sacred creation of the universe. Not property, but persons must be first in the eye of the law."
"Truth must be honored above opinion. Let every man have his opinion where the facts can not be obtained. Let every man be tolerant of every man's opinion. Let every man label his opinion as an opinion and not as a truth. Men can understand one another in terms of truth. They fight each other over opinion."
"The boys can be taught how to build a world of peace. Nobody but boys can ever do this."
"How can we do these things? By example! Every Rotarian must believe and practice these things himself; by co-operation with the organization now existing for boys; by arranging international conventions of boys and by a Rotary school of leadership."

According to Jacksonville code of law prohibition officers can have liquor in their house and it is not an infraction of the law—any other poor devil goes to jail.

And the question of booze in the home of an officer in Jacksonville brings to mind similar cases in other parts of the state.

This is to notify Bob Holly that unless we get three issues of his paper weekly, we are going to enter suit for mental anguish, which will put him out of business.

Sanford has at last organized a Florida vegetable corporation which is expected to do great things for that fertile and productive region.

HOME MONEY—HOME INVESTMENT.

The best investment in the world is an investment in your own home town. This is especially true of Sanford today for there is no city in the south that shows any greater growth in one year's time than Sanford taking every item into consideration.

Appreciation and gratitude is due to those residents of West Palm Beach by whose efforts the financing of building construction has been aided.

EUSTIS IS ALWAYS THERE

PRIZE FIGHTERS GET THE MONEY.

It is a difficult problem these days talking higher education to the youngsters when prize fighting, baseball, moving pictures and other lines of work promises so much more money than a professional career.

For a brief period of time it appeared that the pummeling exhibition to be given by Messrs. Dempsey and Gibbons in honor of Uncle Sam's birthday might be called off.

The law round-trip excursion fares announced in our Friday issue showed how reasonably one can hie away, via the Atlantic Coast Lines to numerous celebrated summer resorts.

OUR HEAVY REVENUE TAXES

President Harding boasts that, under his administration, the expenses of government are not only being kept within the budget but that he has accumulated two hundred million dollars to be applied on our war debts.

LAWYERS MAY SEEM STRANGE

Many folks are discussing the latest wrinkle in the prohibition laws as they apply to the foreign ships and especially the British ships.

SCALE OF SALARIES ESTABLISHED FOR VOCATIONAL TEACHERS THAT WOULD MAKE THEM STAY Rather Than Move Around From Year to Year Says Philips

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, June 27.—A scale of salaries for vocational teachers that would be an incentive for them to stay in one place rather than move around from year to year, is the recommendation of Shelton Philips, director of vocational education, submitted to the board for the coming year. Under Mr. Philips' plan the salary paid by the state would remain stationary at $1,500 a year for white teachers of agricultural schools. The counties would be asked to supplement the salaries as follows: For the first year teacher $300, making a total of $1,800; for the second year teacher $500, making a total of $2,000; for the third year teacher $700, making the total $2,200 and for the fourth year teacher $900, giving him a total of $2,400. Should any of the counties fail to abide by this schedule the state, under Mr. Philips' plan would withdraw its support. The arrangement carried out further would provide that a teacher removing to another place would start all over on the first year's salary. Mr. Philips recommends that state aid be withdrawn from the Agricultural department of the Wauchula county school for the next ensuing year, and that aid be allowed to the Barberaville school in Volusia county and Alachua school in Alachua county, and if funds are available, to the negro school in Leesburg, Lake county. Mr. Philips believes that his salary plan would encourage teachers to remain in the same school and "the presumption is that the second term in the same school is evidence of a first year's success." "Where teachers willfully remove to another school," Mr. Philips report says, "there should be removed the salary incentive, and this is to be accomplished by placing them in a lower scale of salary. "The salary from the state and federal funds will at all times guarantee a comfortable living wage, and their reward for peculiar success may be found in the increase of salary from local funds." Other recommendations submitted by Mr. Philips follow: "That a minimum amount of equipment for agricultural schools be adopted by the State Board and each county board be furnished a list of said equipment with current cost of items on the list; and the state supervisor be requested to require the county board to purchase only those articles which are to be used in the work of the class for the ensuing year's program, and this demand upon the county board be made each succeeding year for the next year's program. "That, if the resident teacher-trainer at the University of Florida and state supervisor exchange duties for the purpose of allowing the teacher-trainer to visit any of the agricultural schools of the state, such visits by the resident teacher-trainer be confined largely to schools where those teachers who have but recently graduated from his department are employed, for the express purpose of supplementing the work he may have done in class room training. "That, in all white schools where two full time agricultural teachers are employed, the state board will allow $750 for salary of the second teacher on a 12 months employment. "That regulations be adopted restricting the vacation period of agricultural teachers in purposes of professional improvement and limited to not more than two weeks during the year, except in special cases that have the approval of the state supervisor. "That, in order to encourage cities to work up a Department of Vocational Education under one head as director, I recommend the use of liberal appropriations to each of the six or eight of our larger cities, and that, as a result of all possible liberal appropriations will organized, the State Board gradually lessen the appropriations.

THE COMMUNITY CHEST.

Other Florida cities are becoming tired of the endless drives, too, and are thinking of adopting the sensible Community Chest solution that so many northern cities have adopted with such fine success, and speaking for Jacksonville, the Times-Union says:

"The Salvation Army drive comes to an end in Jacksonville today. Six months of the year have passed and there have been already seven different kinds of drives for funds, not counting the special efforts put forth by the different churches. The people have responded each time, and should there be as many more calls during the next six months it is probable that persons appealed to would respond.

"The response to this call bears testimony to the goodness the love for his fellow man and the generosity of the average individual. It is good for each person to give—to give until he feels it. However, there are many who think the drive for funds for charitable purposes is overdue.

"Each of the charitable institutions is organized by persons with unselfish motives and high ideals and as a rule they are managed and controlled by persons of the same character. Their one idea is to help suffering humanity. Very frequently, however, their efforts are misdirected. Those whom they would help, they oftentimes injure.

"There are very few people in the world who need charity. The only way to help a person is to help him help himself. If a person is blind, that is no excuse for him to become a pauper. The charitable organization which really does most for that man is the one that refuses to GIVE him a penny but makes him a loan, to allow him to equip himself for service, and then holds him to strict account for repayment.

"There are many positions that a lame man may fill. The fact that a person has lost one or two limbs should not make him a charge for society. A community not so long ago allowed a young man who had the misfortune to lose a leg to beg on the streets for money with which to buy an artificial leg. That community paperized the young man. "This is not meant as a criticism of those noble and self-sacrificing per-persons who devote their lives to the office of charity. We contend, however, that entirely too much is done for the average 'down and out', and not enough to help him do for himself or to force him to do.

"In putting on all these drives, men and women are called on to leave their business and contribute their time and their energy to go among the people soliciting. The business people of the city are continually harassed by visits from various committees in the interest of the several organizations. Each of the seven that has collected funds since Christmas is worthy. The people generally desire to give through these agencies. There is a lack of efficiency and a duplication of effort that should be eliminated.

"Is the community chest to which every person contributes what he can at the beginning of the year for a much more feasible plan than the everlasting soliciting and drives? The average business man, and woman, whether employer or employee, makes out a budget at the beginning of the year knows definitely what can be spared during the year. Could a plan not be worked out by which each person would contribute to the community chest just as much as he possibly could in January? Then, could this not be apportioned out to the various organizations dispensing charity in the city? Individuals might stipulate exactly what amount was to go to each organization. Of course, there will be a great many who throw cold water on this proposition and say that it can not be done. We sincerely believe that the business people will welcome the idea and that if this plan were put into practice, there would be more money for each organization than there is now, for the cost attendant on each campaign would be eliminated. Some people might be left without jobs, however."

ALABAMA GOES AFTER $600,000 FOR PUBLICITY

NATION-WIDE DRIVE IS PLANNED; FLORIDIANS MEET IN ORLANDO

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 27.—At a recent meeting here called by the secretaries of the Chambers of Commerce of the state, steps were taken for raising from $400,000 to $600,000 to be used in a national advertising campaign of Alabama, details now being worked out by the executive committee of the Greater Alabama Association. This action is an outgrowth of the meeting, when sanction and promise of support of the movement was given by more than 200 leading manufacturers, industrial and business men from all sections of the state. With the endorsement of the plan as outlined, definite action will soon be taken to advertise Alabama in every state of the union. Members of the executive committee of the Association met in Mobile June 16 to appoint an advisory committee of 97 members, one from each county of the state, which will act in connection with the executive committee in handling the affairs of the association. A meeting will then be held in Montgomery to perfect the organization. Later a joint meeting of the advisory and executive committees will outline a definite program of action for raising the advertising fund. Members of the executive committee include O. L. Bunn, of Birmingham, chairman; J. E. Addicks, Mobile; W. F. Black, Montgomery; J. B. Drossalou, Tuscaloosa; J. G. Scherr, Andalusia; W. C. Watson, Anniston, and R. N. Jones, Florence.

Florida to Be Topic of Orlando Meet Florida's needs, past and present, will be discussed at the get-together meeting of representatives from various parts of the state interested in a Greater Florida which will be held in Orlando July 10. A state-wide program of activities to be carried on during the next two years will be agreed upon, according to Jules M. Burgulieres, president of the Florida Development Board, and those in attendance will represent the chambers of commerce, banks and land interests, hotels, jobbing and wholesale houses, railroads, newspapers and other organizations that play a part in the general development of the state. It is estimated that at least 100 men will be present. The meeting will only last one day.

Explaining Origin of Coal

Tree and Vegetable Matter, Carbonized by Hot Lava, the Foundation, According to Professor.
The origin of coal has been discovered, says Prof. Barton Scammell, president of the Radium Institute at Dover, England. He has been engaged in research work with lava from Mount Vesuvius, which is being used as fertilizer, and says this led to the discovery that the layers of binds—the mysterious substances found on the top and bottom of all coal seams—are identical in analysis with lava.

Sanford Independents to Play DeLand Here

The Sanford Independent team will play the DeLand Independents here tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at the local diamond. The game is scheduled to start at 3:30. Everyone who wants to see a real base ball game is urged to attend this one. The team needs encouragement and that is the only way to get it.

DOG RESCUED PLAYMATE

A German police dog, while running along the edge of this ice covering part of the Connecticut river near Hartford, fell into the water. Although several persons saw the dog's plight, they were unable to help, and it seemed as though the animal would be drowned, but another large dog, a playmate of the police dog, went to the rescue. It ran down the river to the nearest clear water, and when the police dog came to the surface the comrades celebrated by running up and down the river bank, barking joyously.
