

Paychek, Heavyweight Title Aspirant, Fights In Orlando

ORLANDO, Jan. 8.—Johnny Paychek, Dan Mottus, 14, heavyweight who is ranked fifth in line of succession for a title, arrived in Orlando Tuesday to prepare for his 15-round battle Wednesday, Jan. 10, with Pedro Gomez of Los Angeles, Cal.

Paychek, a 190-pounder, will use a classy fight card that will include the new $10,000 American Legion fight arena here, one of the South's best and most modern small fight arenas.

Paychek, a handsome 34-year-old who competes with Billy Conn in "Battle of Profiles" has compiled a record of 30 straight victories, 20 of them by knockout, over such fighters as Maurice Strickland, King Levinsky, Al Exton, etc. His fight here will be the start of a Southern barnstorming tour that he hopes will eventually earn him a shot at Tony Galento, Conn, Lou Nova or Louis Minardi.

Though Galento, Nova and Bob Pastor were rated ahead of him by the National Boxing Association, Paychek is convinced that he deserves a shot at Louie more than anyone else.

"Since those ratings came out last September, Nova and Pastor have been knocked out and Louie took care of Galento. I'm the only man left with a clean record. Galento? Well, we offered Galento more money to fight in Des Moines than he received for fighting Pastor in Chicago. He turned it down. Why? Well, figures it out."

Prices will be scaled from 50 cents to $1.00 in the arena which has no seats to her right of the section. Four, possibly five, other bouts will complete the card.

Kennel Club Heads Into Second Week Of Racing Tonight

ORLANDO, Jan. 8.—The Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club heads into the second full week of its 30-day greyhound racing season tonight at the Longwood track here. At least two records already established as targets for the remainder of the season.

On successive nights, Thursday and Friday, the track paid off the highest daily doubles purse and the largest quinella payment.

Thursday night, $343.50 was returned to the holders of the lucky number double ticket in his race. On Friday night, the quinella purse on the eleventh and final race, totaled $304.20.

The flow of heavy cash back through the mutual window since the track opened has been the rule, rather than the exception.

According to General Manager Walter Connolly, the prime reason for this unusual payoff at the ticket windows is the presence of a record kennel of greyhounds at the track. More than 450 dogs, the largest kennel ever, are at the track now and additional dogs continue to arrive.

The feature race on tonight's 11-race card is the ninth event, which will be staged over the 1/4-mile distance.

"N. A. Stodard's 63-pound brindle, Just Roll On, from New Smyrna Beach, who topped the feature stakes Friday night in his initial start of the season, goes to the post in the ninth tonight with a strong field of greyhounds.

Anti-Lynching Bill Is Again Debated In 76th Congress

New Yorker Would Eliminate Provision To Exempt Violence In Labor Disputes

Navy Defense Is Outlined

Admiral Stark Says 52,000 Ton Battle- ships To Be Built

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Rep. Gayagan (D-N. Y.) announced in the House today that he would move at the "proper time" to eliminate from his anti-lynching bill the provision for exempting violence in connection with labor disputes.

He stated his intention to start a debate measure which would impose penalties on peace officers who permit lynchings and on the political subdivisions in which they occur.

He will probably offer his motion when the bill is opened for amendments tomorrow.

Rep. Wadsworth, (R-N. Y.), one of the few northern opponents of the bill said it could never be enforced. As the opposition's first speaker, he was greeted by applause by Southern members. A debate is expected to start tomorrow and to put participants on record for political use.

The measure is certain of passage in the Senate, where it was introduced in 1937.

In the Senate today, Admiral Stark proposed before the Senate Naval Committee that the Navy build 52,000 ton battle ships, 200 more long range bombers and that the Navy be authorized to spend $4,000,000 for the improvement of the program Pacific Island of Guam.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(AP)—The House committee investigating the labor bill was thrown into an uproar yesterday when its counsel charged that the board employed an attorney who had sold working time to the "CIO."

Committee members fell to quarreling over the fairness of their inquiry and before quiet was restored, Representative Rostenkowski, Republican, Ohio, accused Charles Faly, the labor board's general counsel, of suggesting questions to friendly committee members in "attempts at leading."

After the testimony regarding the attorney, Representative Murdock, Democrat, Utah, protested that Rostenkowski should have asked Rostenkowski's own attorney, Edward M. Tolson.

Mr. Faly has been sitting at this table since in the same position on the committee itself, and all the time, the committee has been asking him questions that we have had and the attorney had to answer.

Commissioners Name Committee For Golf Course

Convict Labor Autho- rized For Improve- ment Of Diamond

A committee of local golfers was named at the regular meeting of the City Commission in the City Hall last night to work with the newly-appointed manager of the Sanford Country Club, Allan Stewart, for the development of the course.

The appointments were made by the Commission on the recommendations of Mr. Stewart and are as follows: Mr. F. D. Scott, Miss Dorothy Powell, Andrew Carraway, H. H. Colman, John Ludwig, and G. W. Spencer.

The purchase of a waterworks bond from A. B. Morrison of Orlando was also authorized during the short meeting which was adjourned so that the commissioners might attend the meeting of the American Legion Post at which William C. Brooker, state commander, was the guest speaker. An adjourned meeting will be held in the City Hall Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

The Commissioners also approved the donation of the amount of the City license for the Silas Green building to the WPA colored sewing room project. The amount of the license was $40.

A request of H. J. Lehman, manager of the Sanford State Farmers' Wholesale Market, that the market be moved to French Avenue between north and south of the Market entrance was also given attention of the Commission.

Superintendent of Parks James Moughton was given authority to let a contract for the improvement of the Municipal Athletic Field for the Spring training activities of the local club and for the Nashville Vols which will begin in about two months. The contract will supplement the crews and the equipment employed by President Charlie Bradshaw of the Seminole County Baseball Association for the work.

Longwood Voters Go To Polls In Election Today

Quiet Reigns As Free- holders Decide Fu- ture Of Municipality

Mayor George H. Bridge, Jr. of Longwood said at noon today that in his opinion approximately one-half of the freeholders of Seminole County's third-largest town had voted in the election to decide whether the present municipal government will be abolished and a tax district created to liquidate the affairs of the town.

The town's 131 qualified freeholders are divided on the issue involved in the election and both sides have been free to voice their opinions in the matter since the bill passed by the last session of the Legislature was first proposed.

One faction contends that the large property owner, or grove owner inside the incorporated limits is being unduly taxed for his holdings while the other group admits the taxes may be reduced somewhat but challenges any argument to prove a reduction in taxes for one class of property owner will result in a higher levy for another class, since a certain amount of taxes must be levied.

One faction contends that abolition of the municipality is a step backward rather than forward. Those in favor of abolition contend that the town never should have been incorporated and that the benefits to be derived from incorporation are not sufficient to warrant the payment of the amount of taxes involved.

There were no reports of any clashes between the two factions in today's voting until noon. E. J. Nelson, Sanford attorney representing the faction seeking abolition, was present at the polls throughout the day.

The polls will close at sundown and the final count will be made under supervision of J. H. Menick who is election foreman.

Sanford was chosen as the next meeting place at the session of the group held in Orlando Sunday night. The meeting will be held at the Sanford Hotel.

Dr. L. C. Warner was named president, Dr. E. E. Thomson was vice president and Dr. M. C. Williams was secretary. All three are members of the society.

W. C. Brooker, State Commander, Addresses Sanford Legion Post

William C. Brooker, state commander of the American Legion, last night told Legionnaires of the Campbell-Lossing Post and many prominent public officials of Seminole County assembled at the Legion House of the program of the American Legion and the work that is being accomplished by the Florida department.

"The main work that is being done by the state Legion," Mr. Brooker declared, "is centering on youth activities in order that Americanism will survive as we want it to be."

He explained that when he became department commander he promised that the main work he would concentrate on would be youth activities. In connection with this, he told of the St. Petersburg crippled children's hospital sponsored by the Legion. "It is wonderful," he said, "to go there and watch the number of children admitted and to watch their progress until they are able to be released."

George Weinstein, commander of the local post, had previously told of cases sent there by the Campbell-Lossing post. One little boy was so bow-legged, he pointed out, that whenever he did what little walking he could do, one leg would hook over the other. The boy was sent to the St. Petersburg hospital and his leg broken and set in casts. He added that the boy's legs were straightened out and that there appeared every chance that another terribly deformed body would be made normal again.

Prior to Mr. Brooker's address, members and guests sat down to a sumptuous feast prepared by legion members. All guests were introduced to the program.

Referring to the reasons for the formation of the Legion, Mr. Brooker said the war veterans had three main objectives: 1. To take care of disabled war veterans and the dependents of those American soldiers killed or lost in France during the war. 2. To render service to the community, state and nation. 3. To preserve Americanism for posterity.

Members of the local post were urged by Mr. Brooker to attend the Ocala conference in a few weeks. Its importance was stressed when he told them that it was there that they hoped to find some solution for juvenile delinquency. The law and order committee, of which Floyd Boyle is chairman, was mentioned.

Roosevelt Warns Demos They Must Cling To New Deal To Win In 1940

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, carefully shielding his third-term plans, last night warned Democratic leaders that the party must cling to new deal policies which attracted independent voters in 1932 and 1936 if it is to win in 1940.

Speaking directly to the crowd of the capital's democracy at a $100-a-plate Jackson day dinner and to millions of radio listeners, many of them at similar functions throughout the nation, the President defended the achievements of his Administration and said they must not be "chipped away."

"The American people, he said, recognize two facts today: 1. That the world outside our hemisphere is 'in a really bad shape.' He said that this fact is so big that few people have grasped its meaning and so big that 'our little partisan squabbles are shameful in the light of it.'"

2. That the nation has made 'great gains' in our economic prosperity and in the security of individual citizens. "These gains must not be chipped away; they must be only a foundation on which to build further gains," he said. "Behind us lies accomplished a really big job. It was the creation out of the funk of the early thirties of a new spirit with which we can now face the world."

Although his remarks were good-humored, Roosevelt's warning that the Democratic party must continue to earn the support of liberal Republicans, Progressives and others who flocked to him in 1932 and 1936, was clear and forceful.

He was an unrelenting de-laration that Democrats can not win with a conservative candidate for the White House.

The great public, he said, is interested more in government than in politics and the future lies with wise political leaders who realize it. Every presidential election, he declared, has proved the growing independence of voters and the tendency is on the increase.

Party regulars who want to win must hold their allies and supporters among those independent voters," he said.

He pleaded guilty to the "soft impeachment" that too many persons in his Administration are not active party Democrats, but explained that he believes in party organization only in proportion to its proper place in government. In this, he said, he shares the feelings of most people who are more concerned with getting "the big jobs" done than with the label of the party that does it.

Because they did "the big job," he said, Alexander Hamilton, Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson and Abraham Lincoln were his heroes.

Speculation about his third-term plans may well have prompted the President to observe that "I am supposed to be a self-made riddle—in fact, a cross between a riddle and a riddle." He professed himself "amused" at the refusal of three Republican congressional leaders to attend last night's dinner after being assured that his speech would be non-partisan.

While he guarded his third-term plans and pulled his punches at Republicans and other critics, other Democrats big-

Hoover To Crack Down On Bolita In Orlando District

FBI Chief Implicates Orlando, County Of- ficials In Gambling

ORLANDO, Jan. 9.—(AP) Officials of Orange county and the City of Orlando are involved in the wide-spread corruption centering around the gambling game of bolita, according to a statement issued in Washington by the office of J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Hoover's spokesman, acting on orders of the Commissioner, said that the director has taken personal charge of both the county and city investigations. He limited that several months would be required to bring enough evidence to collect.

The FBI spokesman refused to state which county or city officials are involved in the racket, adding that it was the custom of the agency to have actual names stated in grand jury indictments. "If we have to assign men from the Miami office, or from other offices, we are certainly going to clean up the Orlando area," he said.

LAKELAND, Jan. 9.—(AP) An extension into Polk and Hillsborough counties of the bolita racket probe the Federal Bureau of Investigation reportedly is pursuing in Orlando was indicated in some quarters here today.

Polk gambling activities were slowed down several weeks ago by the slaying Oct. 26 of Henry Hull, reputed Paramount club pay-off man, but now are back in full swing.

The Paramount club itself, located on the new Tampa highway, has been closed by court order, but operations are being carried on in other quarters. The report is that Mulberry is now the county's numbers "capital."

The bullet-riddled body of Hull was found in the Hillsborough river near Tampa three days after his disappearance from the Paramount club, and the subsequent investigation resulted in arrest of several persons, all of whom later were released. Gambling cases which followed the murder investigation still are to be tried.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Director J. Edgar Hoover of the Federal Bureau of Investigation has doubled his staff in Miami to combat "official corruption" and an influx of Northern hoodlums.

Gambling casinos and houses of prostitution are "crumbling wide open," Hoover said. Reports by his staff show that "a half dozen or more" members of the Miami Beach police department have criminal records.

Charges by FBI investigators against the policemen range from automobile theft to "impersonation of a law officer," Hoover said. He blamed tolerance of "wide open" conditions by public officials for the attraction of racketeers from large Northern cities.

Chamberlain Says Present Warfare Mere Preliminary

Candidates May Pay Filing Fees To Clerk Now

Mrs. Merrill Named State Committee- Woman At Meeting

Qualifying fees of local candidates for public office subject to the priority, may be paid at the office of the County Clerk at any time before the presentation of a receipt from the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee showing that the candidate's assessment has been paid. County Clerk O. P. Herndon said today.

The qualifying fees must be paid at the same time the candidate files a sworn statement of his intention to seek public office. Mr. Herndon said, pointing out that the law provides that the fee shall be 3 percent of the annual salary or compensation of the office sought by the candidate.

At a meeting of the Democratic Committee last night in the Court House, the committee assessment was tentatively set at the same percentage as for the previous elections but the records of the 1938 election show the assessment was 2 percent of the annual salary or compensation and in 1936 a 1 percent assessment was set for each candidate.

Mrs. Newton Merrill of Fern Park was named State Democratic committeewoman at last night's meeting in secret out the unexpected term of Miss Mary Fenell who tendered her resignation to chairman F. W. Bender upon being connected with the Works Progress Administration.

Mrs. Merrill and S. A. B. Wilkinson, State committeeman, will attend a meeting of the State Democratic Committee to be held in St. Petersburg on Jan. 12.

In a discussion of the method of electing presidential electors, it was the consensus of opinion among those present that the names of the electors should be placed on the ballots as in the past to be voted on by the people.

Several of those present declared they favored the poll tax as a prerequisite to voting. It was pointed out that shrewd politicians may take advantage of this condition and count up percentage of voters who have the right to vote for only a short time each year and be elected to office over the objections of the year-around residents.

"The right to vote should be worth $100 per year to every voter," said one of the members of the committee who also cited an instance where a young girl used the "one money" money system in selecting a candidate.

C. W. Wales of Fern Park tendered his resignation as a member of the county committee, but the members at last night's meeting adopted a motion tabling his request.

Chairman Bender stated that he did not know when another meeting of the committee will be held since the committee called only when matters of importance are to be acted upon.

Premier Says British- French Union Is So Close "Neither Can Give It Up"

Finns Promised Strong Support

New Japanese Cabinet Reported To Be Under Consideration

The Associated Press declared the present European land and air warfare was a "mere preliminary," and asserted that British-French union had become so close that "neither of us can give it up."

He said it was only on the sea that England can see the trend of hostilities as the oceans of the world have been swept clean of German shipping.

In a radio address he bitterly attacked Germany's treatment of conquered peoples, and asserted "today it is the turn of Finland." "That valiant people can rest assured that our response to the League of Nations resolution 'will be no mere formality.'"

He did not mention the Horvath matter.

Even as Chamberlain declared England was ready to repel any invader from the air, the ministry announced German planes had attacked five merchant ships, with slight damage incurred. One was dead, and 32 hurt in machine gunning of the ship.

Italy's interest in the Balkans was reported to be leading to reshuffling of Italian diplomats in those countries in an effort to help settle internal disputes. A Japanese cabinet was predicted for Tokyo as soon as the new Japanese-Communist government of Central China is organized because of Ache's failure to improve the United States relations.

English Prime Minister Rytell declared England's national income was "sinking rapidly," and that they must have credits to finance their defenses. The short commencing of the war and there was no important fighting, and indicated the Russian were "temporarily exhausted."

There was little action on the Western Front, and the French and British forces destroyed a German submarine, but gave no details. The French Parliament opened today in fight between rightists and former communist deputies.

Another Night Of Freezing Weather Due For Florida

LAKELAND, Jan. 9.—(AP) Another night of freezing temperatures, and frost then warmer weather was forecast for north and central Florida.

The cold spell already has started leaving South Florida, for the north, and north central sections. The forecast was fair and continued cold. Low readings of 27.28 were predicted for low spots, and high frost where the temperature falls to 37. Temperatures predicted: New Smyrna 34; Sanford, 34; Ocala 33.

Cold weather continued its siege against a large part of the nation and weather observers said there was scant likelihood of immediate relief.

A snowstorm in the Rocky Mountain area enveloped Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, Montana, and lighter falls were reported in North Dakota, Minnesota, Kansas, and Missouri, extending as far south as Oklahoma.

The upper tier of the middle Atlantic states also had snow. In the south, frost chilled areas as far south as Tampa, and low temperatures prevailed along the Gulf coast.

New England mercury stood below zero in most sections of Maine, northern Vermont, and New Hampshire. One death from exposure was reported at Enterprise, Ala.

LOCAL WEATHER

Fair and continued cold tonight, light frost over north and west central portions; heavy frost in extreme northwest portion; Wednesday partly cloudy and slightly warmer.

EQUALITY

(From Opportunity)
High enough up,
Low enough down,
You find equality,
That which of which America boasts:

High enough up
Where souls are clean
You find equality,
That mingling of man with man
Meeting a better way and That matches with God's plan.

Low enough down
Where souls are drab
You find equality,
That mingling of man with man
Where chain gangs work
Under fire of the jungle plan.

High enough up
Low enough down
You find equality,
That either righteousness or sin
Breaks down the gates of caste
A bit of brotherhood trickles in.

The FBI In Florida

Florida is receiving a good deal of publicity just now in northern newspapers. Not all of it, unfortunately, is favorable. Coming just at this time when what was generally expected to be the biggest tourist season in the history of the state is getting under way, the reports that lottery operations and other forms of racketeering have increased to such proportions in some parts of this state as to necessitate the presence here of J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and a greatly increased staff, are harmful.

Because it was going to be the biggest tourist season in history, and because millionaires and moderately well-to-do people from all over the country were heading for Florida in unprecedented numbers, hoodlums, racketeers and fugitives from justice have also moved in on the local crooks and gangsters whose gambling and vice concessions had expanded beyond their control. The situation is not so different from previous winters except that its proportions are greater.

Among the most interesting of G-Man Hoover's recent disclosures is that at least six men in the Miami Police Department have criminal records. That is something for the self-satisfied and complacent taxpayer, as well as the prospective winter visitor, to contemplate with some emotional misgivings. Imagine having for the men who are supposed to enforce your laws, for the police to whom you are supposed to appeal for protection when burglars enter your house, ex-crooks who have served time for committing crimes themselves!

Another interesting revelation is the report that our sister-city of Orlando is about to be investigated as the bolita headquarters of Florida. That will be news to most of the local "Cuba" enthusiasts who had always thought that this notoriety belonged to Tampa. However that may be, there is probably "honor" enough in this title for both Tampa and Orlando, especially since the killing of one bolita baron down there not long ago and the arrest of another in connection with a $50,000,000 lottery swindle in a nearby town.

The G-Man investigating the situation in Orlando is reported as having said that the Federal Bureau intends to clean up the Orlando area. That might, of course, extend only so far as Winter Park or Longwood. Then again it might reach almost as far as Orange City, or Maitland.
In any event it probably follows that sooner or later any place in Florida which has not set its house in order with respect to these lottery rackets and other types of crime will be given a thorough going over by Federal Bureau of Investigation.

No "Third Term" There

If anyone could find anything resembling a "third term" in last night's Jackson Day dinner in Washington, he would have to pry into it a whole lot closer than most of the correspondents who covered the meeting. When Postmaster Farley addressed himself to his "fellow candidates," he seems to have covered the situation fairly well.

Secretary Wallace and Attorney General Jackson may have had it in mind that Roosevelt could be induced to become a candidate again when they plumped for a third term, but the President seemed to echo his Postmaster General's views when he spoke of "candidates here, and candidates there." Probably he realized only too well that in praising him, both Wallace and Jackson were furthering their own candidacies.

Throughout his speech the President spoke not as a man who is running for office, but as one who has served his time in the public's service and is now content to offer his good advice to others upon whom the mantle of leadership is about to fall. He has apparently gotten so far beyond partisanship and party loyalty, absolute essentials of the successful candidate, as to place the nation's welfare ahead of the party's.

He praised the accomplishments of his Administration but warned the Democrats that they could not win another election without the help of independent Republican voters and he strongly recommended the selection of leaders with good motives—good New Dealish motives, undoubtedly—and good manners. "If leaders have good motives," he said, "you can be fairly safe in assuming they won't wreck your government."

That sounds a great deal more like a suggestion as to the kind of a man the Democrats should nominate for president in the coming convention, than as a bid by the President for a "third term." And as further indication of his aloofness from party politics, Mr. Roosevelt paid tribute to certain former presidents, Democratic and Republican alike. "The great common denominator of our great men in public life has not been mere party allegiance to one political party," he said, "but the disinterested devotion with which they have tried to serve the whole country."

All this may not mean that Roosevelt would not run again under any circumstances, but it certainly indicates that his present intentions are not headed in that direction.
And Florida Democrats, as well as other Democrats throughout the nation, might as well be making up their minds, not as to whether they want Mr. Roosevelt for a third term, but as to whom they want to succeed him.

Roosevelt Warns Demos They Must Cling To New Deal

Cummings.

Although he ignored the con-earlier that he did not believe Roosevelt would seek a third nominated by the President could tradition, that he believes in it himself, and would be a candid date only if the United States went to war.

Gorgi Arrives In Orlando For Workout Before Meeting Paychek

ORLANDO, Jan. 9. — Pietro Gorgi, adversary of Johnny Paychek, heavyweight title contender, tomorrow night, arrived here at noon today to go through a public workout at this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Pioneer Athletic Club.

The tough Los Angeles, Calif., fighter, veteran of eleven years in the ring but only 25 years old, will go through a light training routine at the gym this afternoon, to which the public is invited, as his final bit of work before the fight.

He and his manager, the veteran Bill Gore, arrived here from West Palm Beach sometime about noon. Promoter Turner Scott said last night.

While Gorgi concludes his work this afternoon, Paychek ended his preparatory work yesterday afternoon with a light but brisk session at the gymnasium. He will rest today.

Johnny is in the pink of condition now. He had a check-up yesterday following the final workout. Although Paychek naturally rates as the eventual winner of the ten-round struggle with Gorgi tomorrow night, the fight that breaks the dedication ice for the new American Legion arena—the tough West Coast lad is rated as the eventual winner.

The insistence by Harold Steinman, Paychek's pilot, that an outside referee be named for the fight indicates that even he, who took Paychek to an arena bet for the fight, is concerned over the fight and taking no chances. The reason is to be explained. Although Johnny has probably won five around Gorgi, the Italian rates as a hard puncher with other fighters. Paychek's cause might catch a glimpse of the danger signal.

Further, Billy Conn said yesterday in New York that he would like to see what Paychek does in Spring should he and Paychek both win their fights tomorrow night. Conn, light-heavyweight champion, rates as another outstanding heavyweight title contender.

Gorgi is a veteran of 145 fights. He has won 79 and fought to a draw on 25 occasions. He has five times been the loser by a technical knockout and has been knocked out but twice. Since Armistice Day, he has fought and won four fights, Bill Gore, his manager, reported. The four round fight that will open tomorrow night's card will be announced today, Scott said last night.

The four-round and a pair of promising eight round fights will comprise the psychological features. The opener gets under way at 8:30 o'clock.

Tickets for the fight will be on sale today and tomorrow at the Angelika club floor, and at the Pioneer Athletic Club at 21 West Pine Street. The new Legion arena will seat approximately 3,000 spectators.

Big Ick, Jappy, Glenford Red To Be Challenged In Feature

ORLANDO, Jan. 9. — The record to establish them as distinct threats tonight.

Glided Princess and Smoky Mountain combine with the Big Three—Big Ick, Jappy and Glenford Red—and Lady at Arms, Sam Coin and Fanny Fay to round out the field that will go to the post tonight in the ninth race.

With the all-around threats to the dogs normally favored, track observers predict a well diverted parade of bettors to the metal windows for this feature race.

Grand Man, the youngest greyhound quartered at the kennels, won the feature futurity last night for his third straight win of the current meeting. ## House Group Okeys Defense Funds Asked By Chief Executive

Committee Proposes That Congress Provide $267,197,908 For Army, Navy

Appropriation To Last Until June

Navy Reveals Plans To Spend More Than Million In Florida

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(AP)—The House appropriations committee today approved, in general, Roosevelt's recommendations for immediate emergency defense and neutrality outlays, and proposed that Congress provide $267,197,908 for the army, navy, coast guard and FBI.

The money would go for work already started or expected to be undertaken during the remainder of the fiscal year ending June 30 in connection with neutrality patrols, increases and training military personnel, and counter espionage.

Reporting the emergency appropriation bill in the House, the committee cut $4,801,616 from the $271,000,000 the President recommended. Subsequent bills later are expected to reflect better part of committee sentiment toward economy.

Appropriations recommended: Army, $116,218,245; Navy $146,082,238; Coast Guard $1,148,325; FBI $1,478,000.

The committee disclosed the navy plan to spend $1,465,000 on emergency construction in Florida, mostly in Jacksonville and Key West. Ed. G. Brown, a member of the committee in a request for appropriations, that the FBI had received 78,000 complaints of sabotage and espionage in the last year.

A hot issue in the 1932 Congressional session bobbed up yesterday at a hearing on the navy's $1,200,000,000 expansion program when the chief admiral unexpectedly revealed projected plans to make the far away Pacific island of Guam an "outlying lookout post" for the fleet.

Admiral Harold R. Stark chief of operations, told the House Naval Committee that the navy had included in this year's budget a $4,000,000 item for the Guam project, which in critical times might be a source of trouble with Japan.

This testimony momentarily overshadowed Stark's assertion that present studies by the navy "indicated" that 25,000 or 35,000-ton battleships might be an early development, but that bigger, super-battleships such as the 80,000-toners mentioned recently in Congressional circles were not strictly favored by the experts.

A barrage of critical questions probed the information about Guam. Stark declared that while the item had been included in the budget for the 14th (Hawainian) naval district because no Congressional authorization was needed, there was no intention of covering it up.

"You gentlemen may laugh," he told the Legislature who were grinning broadly, "but we want you to know exactly why we did that."

He went on to explain that the money, $1,000,000 less than was requested last year, but much less than the $200,000,000 required for the "fully equipped advanced fleet base" recommended for Guam by a special naval board, would pay for dredging underwater runways and construction of trestles. He told reporters it would make the harbor of Guam available for use by the navy's long-range patrol planes.

Chairman Vinson, who sought to head off another row over establishment of military facilities on Guam, said that the navy had only about $20 million from Tokyo and other sources which would move to permit any attempt to slip the project through "by subterfuge."

Vinson declared for the first time that the new battleships for which President Roosevelt asked initial funds last week would be operationally ready ships for the fleet.

JAPAN GAINS LITTLE IN YEAR

After making little progress in China last year, Japan soldier armies surging into south China early in 1940, driving from Canton and Nanning (heavy arrows). ## Kiwanis Told World's Fair Was Success

Nina Dean Says Joy, And Inspiration Given 25,840,000

From a monetary standpoint the New York World's Fair may not be considered a success but from every other point of view it was, for it gave joy and inspiration to 25,840,000 persons, Nina Dean, a member of the publicity committee for the Florida Exhibit told members of the Kiwanis Club at its weekly luncheon in the Valdes Hotel today.

The World's Fair showed that business can have imagination and that art can have showmanship, Mrs. Dean said, "and most of all here was a place where the nations of the world can work and play in peace."

"There is no question about Florida's participation being a success," Mrs. Dean, who was introduced by Julius Dingfelder, publicity chairman of the committee, stated. She pointed out that the increased tourist travel to this state this winter is being attributed as much to the Florida Exhibit as to the war in Europe by leading travel agencies. By actual count there were more than 25,840,000 visitors.

Permanent Franco-British Union Is Spectre To Nazi Empire Dreams

By KIRKE L. RIMPSON Associated Press Staff Writer

A new spectre in haunt Nazi dreams of world empire has been conjured up by Britain's prime minister, Neville Chamberlain.

It is that of a permanent Franco-British union, patterned on the two nations' collaboration in the "military, political, financial and economic" fields. Chamberlain also speaks of its possible "extension" not only to "other nations in Europe," but perhaps to those of the "whole world."

It was this thought, expressed by the prime minister in an accounting of his stewardship during the year and a half months of war, which caught wider attention than his declaration that at the only active battle front, the immense pressure of war power was wearing down Germany's "ability to carry on the war."

The idea of an international union was voiced rather as a personal hope than a definite plan or program, said the minister, but its inclusion in what may prove to be the most important public utterance of British war-time leadership.

C Of C Directors Urge Elimination Of Road Hazards

Invitation Extended Citrus Growers For Meeting In March

The Board of Directors of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce joined the Board of County Commissioners and other interested parties in petitioning the State Road Department to take immediate steps toward elimination of the traffic hazard in "Death Valley" on State Road No. 3, where several automobile fatalities have occurred in recent years.

The dangerous condition of the highway and the hazard caused by the abutments of the bridge across Soldier Creek and also the dangerous condition of the cut just farther south near Rattlesnake Lake and near the junction of the road to the Sanford-Vienna Road Club were brought to the attention of the board of directors by Fred T. Williams, local engineer.

The road department will also be requested to place reflectors on the abutments of the bridge over Soldier Creek on the Sanford-Vienna Highway at the suggestion of T. W. Lawson.

The work beginning Feb. 5 was decided upon for the annual meeting of the board.

Longwood Is 48-31 Against Abolishment

Quiet And Orderly Referendum Is Held; Mayor Urges Co-Operation For Progress

The freeholders of the Town of Longwood voted against the abolishment of the municipality by a 48-31 majority in the referendum yesterday.

A total of 82 of the town's 88 freeholders cast ballots in the election but three ballots were nullified. The count disclosed that 48 voted against abolishment of the municipality and 31 in favor of the proposal to create a district to liquidate the affairs of the town as provided in a bill passed by the last session of the legislature.

The voting was unusually "quiet and orderly" according to reports from Seminole County's third-largest municipality, marked only by the challenge of eight of four persons to cast ballots in the election on the grounds that they were not qualified electors of Longwood.

The election board, however, granted them the right to vote since they were registered as property owners.

Mayor George H. Bridge commended the orderly manner in which the election was conducted and declared he had no hard feelings toward the progress of the town which has for many years been known as the "Town of Opportunity."

Mr. Bridge pledged that the municipal taxes would be reduced by the town council as rapidly as revenue would permit. The point of contention, however, of an amount must be levied by the municipality for the retirement of its outstanding obligations.

"Since a majority of the residents of Longwood have voted against abolishment of the town, let's all cooperate 100 percent for the development of the community," Mr. Bridge declared.

"Longwood stands for the prospect of development never brighter," he said pointing out that the town this year has its largest number of winter visitors in history.

Mr. Bridge declared that the town council would be glad to cooperate 100 percent for the development of the community.

Mr. Bridge pledged that the municipal taxes would be reduced by the town council as rapidly as revenue would permit. The point of contention, however, of an amount must be levied by the municipality for the retirement of its outstanding obligations.

Such the same opinion was expressed in the annual report of James H. Perkins, chairman of the National City bank.

Big Increase Is Shown In Deposits Of Atlantic Bank

A substantial increase in the number of new deposits and increased activity in the loan and deposit departments were reported by S. O. Shindler, president of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank, at the annual meeting of the stockholders held at the bank yesterday afternoon.

A detailed report presented by J. L. Inghly, executive vice president, showed 1,000 new loans were made during 1939, representing over $3,000,000 which went into the loan department of Sanford and Seminole County.

Mr. Shindler is further quoted as saying that the amount of deposits handled in the bank during 1939 totaled over $23,000,000, an increase of over $800,000 over the previous year, and that the statements of condition during the year showed a steady increase in individual deposits, pointing toward an encouraging outlook for 1940.

In commenting upon the number of new loans, President Shindler stated, "This indicates a general increase in business in our community and that we are co-operating with the public in advancing funds wherever it is consistent with sound banking." He also stated, "For the bank, the year as a whole was very successful."

The following were elected by the stockholders to serve as directors of the bank for the year 1940: Geo. D. Bishop, Joe Cameron, Geo. W. Frazier, L. I. Frazier, J. L. Inghly, R. A. Newman and S. O. Shindler.
