Board Agrees To Try To Hold 11 Mill Tax Rate

The County Commission agreed Tuesday to try to retain the 11 mill tax rate for the county in the new fiscal year, but said any further reduction in the millage is unlikely.

"With all these budget requests for increased funds it will be difficult for any cut in millage now," Chairman John Krider said at the first in a series of hearings on the 1960-61 budget.

Krider made the remark after the board agreed to hold the millage and after Commissioner Homer Little said he would like to see the millage cut this year.

The board felt that there would be no reason to hike the millage on the basis of "conservative" figures released by Tax Assessor Mary Earle Walker on non-exempt property valuations on the 1960 tax roll.

Mrs. Walker estimated non-exempt valuations at $175,800,000. Last year's evaluations were $182 million.

Circuit Clerk Arthur Beckwith Jr. said that, based on figures supplied by Mrs. Walker, the county should receive approximately $1,983,800 from taxes.

After almost two and one-half hours of listening to budget requests, the board went over the general operating budget which is expected to be approximately the same as last year — $483,633.13.

Among the major changes in the operating budget will be an increase of janitorial service in the courthouse.

Last year only $2,600 was spent to keep the courthouse clean and this year the board plans to hire additional help.

However, budget requests were the order of the day and the majority of the officers under the jurisdiction of the commission wanted more money.

County Health Director Dr. Clyde Brothers asked the board for an additional $5,000 to employ an extra sanitarian. The current health department budget is $18,000.

Brothers stressed the need for an additional sanitarian by saying that more emphasis must be placed on inspecting restaurants and schools.

"Sanitation in some of the schools is in terrible shape," Brothers said.

Raymond Ball, vice chairman of the County Zoning Commission, asked the commission to raise the budget of the zoning office from $38,449 to $48,100. Included in the budget request was a pay hike for director Robert Brown from $6,300 to $7,800.

The county agent's office also asked for a budget increase of $2,069.70. The 1960-61 request was for $13,669.70. The request includes a raise in pay for County Agent Cecil Tucker from $2,500 to $3,500. The agent also receives $3,600 from the state.

More funds also were asked for the county home, with an increase from $26,000 to $30,000 to take care of needed repairs.

The home demonstration agent's office asked for an increase from $7,920 to $8,665.

The welfare clinic asked for an increase from $9,000 to $12,000. Civil Defense asked for an increase of funds from $6,000 to $9,000.

There were also small increases requested by the circuit judge and county judge's offices to provide more equipment and needed improvements.

The only decrease in funds was from the supervisor of registra-

Ike Says Nikita Trying To Interfere In U. S. Election

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower charged today that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev is making very crude attempts to interfere in the American presidential election.

The President told a news conference, however, that he did not believe the Democrats or Republicans were going to try to take advantage of Khrushchev's intervention.

The chief executive also told reporters he would be ready after the November election to work closely with his successor, regardless of political party, to provide for an orderly transition of government particularly in the field of foreign affairs.

Eisenhower at his first news conference in eight weeks said the degree of consultation with the new president would depend largely on the wishes of his successor. But he said he was prepared to arrange for cooperation not only on the presidential level but between members of his cabinet and appointees of the incoming president.

Eisenhower also made these other high points of news:

He disagreed with New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller that the United States has declined in military, economic and psychological strength as compared with Russia.

He rejected suggestions that the American economy was now in a recession, saying the only dark spot as he saw it was currently low steel production.

He reiterated the friendship between the people of the United States and Cuba, saying that only the inexplicable actions of the government of Fidel Castro was causing trouble between the two nations. He expected to act later today or early Thursday on the bill empowering him to cut Cuba's share of the U. S. sugar market or freeze it out altogether.

He saw no reason for despair because of his canceled trips to Russia and Japan. He predicted that the new president would visit other countries and that his successor would not reflect the feelings of the American people unless he worked to the greatest possible extent for peace.

Eisenhower's conference covered a broad range of developments that have occurred since before his trip to the Far East last month and since his last news conference on May 11.

He was told that Khrushchev might make some radical new proposal on settlement of the Berlin crisis shortly after the elections, and was asked whether he was thinking of a transitional arrangement with the new administration regarding foreign affairs.

New Castro Reprisals Are Feared

HAVANA, Cuba (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro's government prepared today to seize all United States-owned sugar mills in Cuba as a likely first step in reprisal against U. S. cuts in the Cuban sugar quota.

Informed sources believed that confiscation will follow as soon as President Eisenhower signs legislation empowering him to reduce or eliminate Cuba's share of the U. S. sugar market. After that, they believe all other American property here probably will be seized.

Among the most likely targets for immediate seizure are the $300 million Cuban Electric Co., which is half-owned by the American and Foreign Power Co., and the $125 million Cuban Telephone Co., about 85 per cent of whose stock is owned by the U. S. International Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The Commodity Stabilization Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture suspended all Cuban sugar imports Tuesday in a preliminary move. There was no doubt here that Eisenhower is going to make a slash in the remainder of Cuba's 1960 sugar quota.

The sources said that as soon as the President formalizes the import cut, Castro will start a "clean sweep" of American properties here.

The first step will be nationalization of the sugar mills in accordance with the powers granted Castro and President Oswaldo Dorticos at a cabinet session that ended in the early hours this morning.

The most immediate effect of Castro's nationalization powers will be to build a hotter fire under rapidly-deteriorating Cuban-American relations.

It will intensify the latent but increasingly open anti-Americanism by Cubans as the culmination of 16 months of thorough brainwashing by Castro's propaganda machinery. This has been feeding out a steady flow of "down with Yankee imperialism" themes a thousand times over the press, radio, magazines, pamphlets and speeches.

All morning newspapers here gave top billing to Castro's new power, while the U. S. Agriculture Department's action got secondary play.

Sugar union leader Conrad Beequer said Monday that 37 of 101 mills are American-owned, with a value of $23 million.

Taking over of the mills probably will mean complete cessation of sugar imports by the United States, observers believed. Cuba would thus be forced to sell exclusively on the world market. The United States would be forced—and apparently is preparing to do so—to arrange bigger permanent imports from other sugar-producing nations.

Observers doubt that when and if all remaining U. S. property here is nationalized that the United States will continue to maintain diplomatic relations with Cuba.

CD Warnings Termed Inadequate

The Civil defense warning system in the county was termed "inadequate" by CD director A. B. Peterson Sr. Tuesday.

Peterson told the County Commission that he would like the authority to establish 15 small sirens throughout the county to warn citizens in case of any emergency and asked that the board hire a CD deputy on a full time basis.

The board asked Peterson to return next week with a complete study on where the sirens would be placed before reaching any decision. They also postponed action on the hiring of a deputy until that time.

Peterson told the board that he would like sirens placed in Lake Monroe, Longwood, Chuluota, Oviedo and other communities in the county.

He estimated that the cost and installation of the sirens would be approximately $2,500.

However, the board questioned whether these smaller sirens would do any good and asked Peterson if perhaps fewer but larger sirens would do the job.

In other business, the board agreed to open bids for equipment in the new health center on Aug. 16.

North Orlando Told Road Budgeted

The North Orlando Town Council was assured Tuesday night that improvement of the Longwood-Oviedo road is in the 1960-61 county budget.

Commissioner Vernon Dunn told the council that the work is budgeted at $150,000 and includes work on the road all the way from Longwood, where it is known as Molnar Ave., to SR 419.

Plans for a recreational area in North Orlando also were disclosed at the meeting. The plans will be completed Friday for the area in the shopping center section of the town. A baseball diamond, shuffleboard courts and picnic area will be included.

"Construction on the recreation park will start immediately after the plans are approved," Vice Mayor Frank Fasula said.

Tougher Law Asked

Addressing the Manatee County Senior Republican Club, Fisher said Pennsylvania had used such a law to reduce accidents attributable to mechanical failure to a per cent of the total.

Greer Funeral Slated Thursday

Funeral services for A. J. Greer, manager and vice president of the Sanford Gas Co., who died suddenly Tuesday will be held at 2:30 p. m. Thursday.

The funeral will be held in the Presbyterian Church with Rev. Grover C. Sewell Jr. officiating. Mr. Greer came to Sanford in 1919 from Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Greer was a member of the Presbyterian Church, the Presbyterian Mens Club, Kiwanis Club, Delta Sigma Phi, Pan-Atlantic Council, Masons and was a well-known pianist in local civic groups and at one time was an organist in silent movies.

Before coming to Sanford he was manager of the Paramount Theatres in Kansas City, Denver, Toledo, Brooklyn, and New York City. He was also executive assistant manager of the Conrad-Hilton Hotel, in Chicago. He was a graduate of Boston University, Boston, Mass., and attended Ren-seller Polytechnic Institute.

He is survived by his wife Martha, one daughter, Mrs. Charles Rose Sanford, two sisters, Mrs. Phillip Lee, North Adams, Mass., and Miss Doris Greer of Westhaven, N. J. and two grandchildren, Marjorie Lee Rose and James Leonard Rose. Burial will take place at a later date. Gramkow Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Two Are Injured As Car Overturns

A blow-out tire caused a car to swerve out of control and turn over Tuesday, injuring its two occupants and completely demolishing the car.

Brownie Mae Lee, a 64-year-old Sanford Negro, suffered a fractured shoulder and wrist, and James Brown Lee, 6, suffered scalp lacerations when the car overturned at the road, police said. The mishap occurred at the intersection of Geneva Avenue and Brison Avenue. No charges were filed.

Red Missile Shot Misses Mark

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet rocket fired into the Pacific missed the United States' distance mark, but Russian scientists nevertheless were pleased today with the missile's performance.

The rocket, launched Tuesday from a missile pad in Russia, soared 4,078 miles to a target in the Pacific Ocean about 1,000 miles southwest of Hawaii.

It was the longest Russian shot to date, breaking a mark set last January when a rocket was fired 7,000 miles into the Pacific.

But Tuesday's firing still fell nearly 1,000 miles short of a super Thor rocket which traveled 9,000 miles from Cape Canaveral, Fla., to a target area just south of the Indian Ocean earlier this year.

Soviet scientists had emphasized however, that the rocket tests scheduled for this month would not attempt to break distance records, but instead would be designed to collect scientific information.

The rocket was the first one to be fired during the announced rocket testing period from July 5 through July 31.

Dixie Spokesman Snubbed On Rights Plank Ervin Says

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A leading southern member of the Democratic platform committee said today that influential spokesmen for his area have been snubbed in pre-convention planning of a civil rights plank for the party.

Sen. Sam Ervin Jr. (N. C.) told newsmen that party leaders apparently have abandoned the 1956 situation in which he said "a committee of persons representing north and southern viewpoints on civil rights was set up by the national committee."

He said this group "tried to devise a platform with which all segments of the party could live. . . . But so far as I know, there has been no effort to do any similar thing this time."

Ervin commented as the platform committee went into a second day of hearings in which testimony was scheduled from a diverse list of witnesses including spokesmen for the National Education Association, Veterans of Foreign Wars, National Association of Manufacturers, Teamster Union and retired teachers.

The North Carolina senator made his statement about lack of consultation when asked about a prediction by National Chairman Paul M. Butler that the 1960 platform will include a "very positive and very clear" civil rights plank. Butler said he did not think it would offend the South.

"We will have the clearest and most concise and most understandable civil rights plank ever written by a political party," Butler said.

Law Expert Says Powers To Be Convicted

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI) — An expert on Soviet law predicted Tuesday night Russia will convict American pilot Francis G. Powers of spying but said there is a possibility the punishment will be deportation from the Soviet Union.

Columbia University law professor John N. Hazard, one of the lawyers who will defend Powers, said the pilot's letters indicate he already is undergoing a preliminary hearing from which an indictment will be drawn.

Hazard said it seems likely the trial will follow "in early August." But he added that "if suspect, if there is a trial, there would be a conviction." He said the time of the trial depends on the wishes of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev "and international developments."

Powers, 31, and his U-2 high altitude plane were shot down near Sverdlovsk, May 1. He could receive the death penalty on conviction under Russia's espionage laws, but Soviet officials have insisted he will be given a fair trial—perhaps in open court.

Hazard and Mrs. Barbara Powers, of Milledgeville, Ga., held a news conference here on the eve of Hazard's departure for Warsaw, Poland, where he will attend a legal conference.

Mrs. Powers, who seemed annoyed at some questions put to her, said only she has received two letters from her husband that indicated he is well treated. She said she could not tell if the letters were censored.

Powers' father, Oliver Powers, a cobbler in Pound, Va., plans to get to Russia soon to see his son.

Two of the three lawyers appointed by the Virginia Bar Association to defend Powers said they have applied for visas, but Hazard said American lawyers might be allowed only to assist a Russian-appointed defense lawyer.

Hazard said it would be to Russia's advantage to give Powers "as complete a hearing as possible" in order to avert world opinion. He said he felt it possible that Powers could be deported rather than imprisoned or sentenced to death.

Navy Hunts Kin Of Dead Pilot

JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—Authorities at Jacksonville Naval Air Station sought today to locate the parents of a pilot who was killed in the crash of his jet plane Tuesday.

A Navy spokesman said the parents had recently left here after visiting their son but it was not known where they were headed. The pilot's name will not be released until the parents are informed, he said.

The plane crashed and burned in a wooded area near Starke while on a practice mission.

Coast Guard Hunts Missing Yachters

MIAMI (UPI) — At least eight Coast Guard aircraft and two cutters searched the Atlantic between Cuba and the Bahamas today for two men and a woman reported on a 65-foot yacht presumed sunk.

The cutters and two airplanes had worked throughout the night seeking signs of the Juanita W, thought to have radioed it was sinking about 250 miles southeast of Miami between Cuba's north coast and off Andros Island.

The search began early Tuesday, when the Coast Guard picked up faint distress signals. The captain of a fishing vessel, the Fish Hawk III, told the Coast Guard he also heard the emergency messages.

A spokesman said the names of the persons aboard or the boat's home port were unknown.

"We've checked the coast from New Hampshire to Miami," the spokesman said, "and all the boats known to be named Juanita are accounted for."

Planes Collide Killing Two

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (UPI) — Two racing pilots from Nashville, Tenn., and Van Wert, Ohio, were killed Monday when their midget racing planes collided during a race.

Charles Elliot Bishop, 45, of Nashville, and J. L. Rice, Van Wert airport manager, died when their planes collided while rounding a pylon at the national championship race.

An eyewitness said the two planes "looked like a match box falling apart" when they hit.

Gravel Refuses To Pay Fine

WEST LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Camille F. Gravel, national Democratic committeewoman from Louisiana, refused Tuesday to pay a $21 fine to settle a drunk charge and posted $31 bail and demanded a trial by jury.

"To pay the fine would be an admission of guilt and I am not guilty," declared the 45-year-old Gravel. He was arrested as he stepped from an airliner at International Airport.

Police accused the party leader of slipping too many martinis during the flight here from Atlanta. Gravel said, however, "this matter is being investigated. It was a mistake. I feel confident that will be shown conclusively at the proper time."

Happiness Through Health

A Normal Spine Is Necessary
(By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

Perhaps you find it difficult to understand why Chiropractors confine their work to the spine, when remote parts of the body are diseased. But you find nothing strange about pushing a button on the wall to light a globe suspended from the ceiling. The procedure is practically the same. Connection is made between the sources of energy, the brain or dynamo and the body or electric globe. It makes no difference whether it be heart, stomach, kidneys, or some other organ. Normal functions of all organs, muscles and tissues of the body depend upon supply of the vital nerve energy conveyed to them over the nervous system from the brain which generates this energy. Nerves emit from between vertebrae, so falls, jars or strains displace a vertebrae, pressure on nerves is pro-

Adjusting misplaced vertebrae is like pushing the button to produce light; its restored flow of vital energy and health is the natural result.

To you, it may seem miraculous that we can adjust vertebrae and regulate blood pressure, relieve constipation, sinus, stomach or kidney trouble, and in fact, most of the ills to which humanity is subjected.

Instead of treating effects, the scientific Chiropractor seeks the cause responsible for effect, known as disease, and by proper adjustments eliminates the cause.

New Plan Would Keep Little Wars From Becoming Big

By HOLMES ALEXANDER
WASHINGTON — Alfred Nobel, dynamite inventor, and Andrew Carnegie, steelmonger, both had attacks of conscience and founded woolly-minded institutions for world peace. Now comes another weapons maker, the Convair Division of General Dynamics Corp., manufacturer of Atlas, our only operational intercontinental missile, with a much more cogent scheme. The objective is not elusive and illusory peace, but a limitation of war.

I am in possession of a galley proof study entitled, "A Doctrine for Limited War," which I have permission to discuss although it is still technically under "security review" at the Pentagon. The work is the product of a Convair-sponsored project by a panel of scholars. They are Doctors Henry Kissinger of Harvard, Oskar Morgenstern of Princeton, Chalmers Sherwin of Princeton University, John Wheeler of Princeton and John Clark of Convair.

The work could be called (probably not by the authors) an informal proposal to return to the good old days before American statesmen thought it intelligent and "internationalistic" to turn small wars into big ones, and local frays into universal conflagrations.

While warfare can't be abolished (men and nations being what they are), it can be intelligently restricted within the self-interest of the opponents. A war remains limited, the authors say, "as long as neither major participant feels that its survival is threatened." Keenly selected examples from history are given, the most recent being the 1966 "flap" when the Red Chinese tried to take Quemoy-Matsu by bombardment, and the National Chinese (with our help) prevented it. Limitation of war refers only to its goals, not to its savagery or intensity. The most intense artillery bombardment in history was not in either World War, but at Pork Chop Hill in the recent Korean conflict.

We cannot always force an enemy to limit his objectives, but we can make it advantageous for him to do so. Neither an aggressor nor a defender would go to strategic, megaton nuclear bombs if the move would cost him the purpose of his fight. By building up a nuclear arsenal and the vehicles to deliver the punch, we are issuing the would-be aggressor what amounts to a command invitation to come on and fight, since fight he must for the goal he seeks, but for nothing beyond that goal.

It is very likely, by the nature of the Communist revolution and the Western alliances, that limited wars will be fought in the 1960's. In order to keep them limited, and to win them with allied troops or our own, we must have what the authors of this work apply call a "spectrum of capabilities." It exists in three general phases:

Nuclear: If we could recover the optimum position of American supremacy in world shattering weapons, we would have the Big Stick. We could threaten a "preemptive" strike at an enemy who was cocking his fist at one of our allies. Of course, we would have to be convincing about these threats. We might have to be (or seem to be) as ruthless and depraved as the Reds have pictured us. Well, why not? We didn't drop any germs on North Korea, but the Communists said we did and millions of people have evidently believed it. So, if we ever again reach the fortunate position of nuclear supremacy, where we could conceivably bomb and not be bombed back, let's not give away the advantage by acting so high.

Conventional: While World War III need not be fought with all-out weapons, it certainly cannot be successfully fought with those weapons of World War II and of the Korean conflict. Vehicles have become speedy and light, personal arms more accurate and deadly, reconnaissance has become ultrasonic and many tactical weapons have become atomic. Armed with the best of modern conventional weapons, we can win any limited war, anywhere. Without the best, we can be beaten.

Bio-chemical: The authors hold that lethal germs and gases have no advantage over nuclear explosives—but future warfare with chemical weapons holds large, unexplored possibilities.

Although rarely presented as a fact of future war, the humble Home Guard may become one of the most effective forces. We may have to deal with civil disturbances, with fifth columns and with massive disasters. Even amid many scientific wonders, the keepers of American freedom will be men and women, quite possibly men and women of our own neighborhoods.

Anybody, or any group like these thinkers in the Convair project, who can turn big wars back into little wars will deserve the gratitude of mankind.

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

Jimmy is a jittery boy, tense and frustrated. But a neurotic child indicates there is great likelihood that one or both parents are nagging, irritable and possibly frustrated in the sexual realm. To cure the child, it becomes necessary that we also cure the parents.

CASE F-40: Jimmy K., aged 10, is a neurotic child, partly because he has a neurotic mother.

"Jimmy is simply driving me crazy," his mother exclaimed. "I lose my temper and nag at him. Then I feel terrible for being so petty."

"Next day I resolve to act like a self-sufficient mother should, but he is so full of nerves and seems almost to delight in irritating me."

"Dr. Crane, I want to be a good mother, but I can't seem to control myself. What would you recommend?"

My prescription would have gone backward eight years, and would have involved a baby brother or sister when Jimmy was about two years old.

"Then Jimmy could have played with this younger child and thus have drained off some of his normal energy in that manner."

Now he has nobody at home but his mother, except in the evenings, so he falls back on his mother for ideas and companionship.

Besides, Jimmy would have quarreled and fought with his brother or sister, thus venting some of his ire and nervous tension on the younger sibling.

In lieu of a living sibling, a dog helps divert a child and also furnishes a constant stimulus to romp and play.

When a child runs, his legs carry his full weight, so most energy is expended then in seat work with cranks or scissors.

The child is thus more fatigued and calm. It doesn't show as great an inclination, therefore, to bite his fingers, pick hangnails or develop other neurotic symptoms.

Chewing gum is also a good nervous outlet, for the constant use of the jaws acts as a safety valve. The jaw muscles then drain off some nervous energy that might otherwise be pent up and finally produce more dangerous outbursts.

The usual recess periods in school are just a device by which we let youngsters run and romp for 15 minutes so they will drain off surplus energy and thus be calmed down when they return to their seats.

For seat work, such as writing and reading, doesn't dissipate enough energy in the child. So we grow jittery and explosive.

As he approaches this point where he feels like blowing his top, he may fidget or shoot paper wads or pull the curls of the girl in front.

A stick of chewing gum would be good insurance against such naughty behavior, with its resulting conflict with the teacher.

Indeed, the time may come when our schools will actually furnish the children with a fresh stick of gum, both morning and afternoon, just as an indirect means of keeping the youngsters more calm.

Maybe the teachers will then need some too, at least to help drown out the noise down in front!

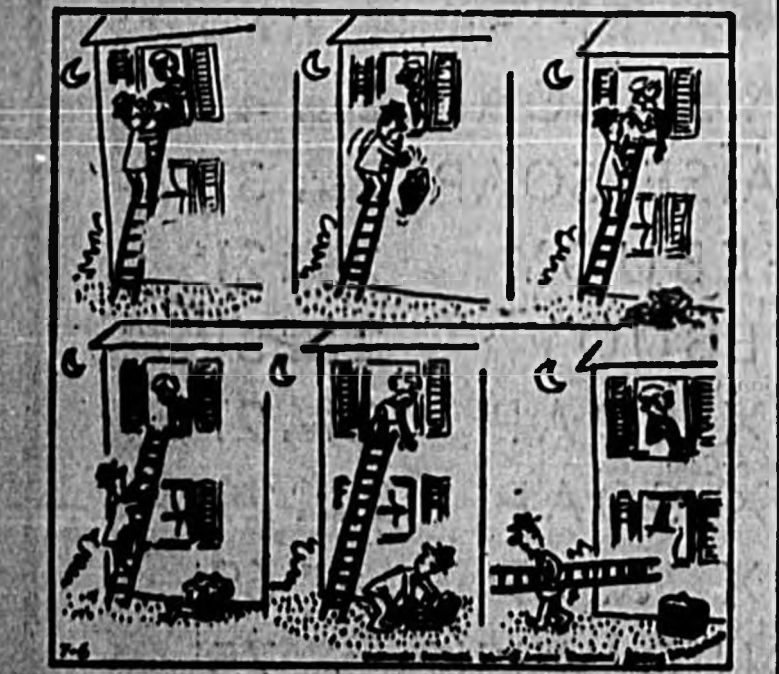

But children spontaneously enjoy chewing gum since it makes them feel less jittery and tense.

Part of Jimmy's nervousness, however, is a result of his mother's tension and unexpended energy. For a wife who is sexually frustrated is inclined to be nagging, irritable and brittle tempered.

My bulletin "Sex Problems in Marriage" shows a husband how to eliminate this nagging, neurotic tendency in his mate.

As Jimmy's mother grew more placid after her husband learned this proper marital technique, her friction with Jimmy grew less and less.

Curing a nervous child usually goes back to its parents. When they part contentedly, then the child also grows calmer.

POSTCARDS by Stan Delaplane

A good many questions have been asked of me about what it is like to judge a beauty contest. (The most searching questions have come from my own household and I imagine that is the national trend.)

"Did you have a good time?" That is one frequent question.

The answer is yes and no. That is the most frequent answer.

"First, as you know," I said, "judging the Miss Nevada contest was just another job as far as I was concerned. If any of you think staying up half the night around plush gambling places and watching million-dollar floor shows is fun, just let me know."

Cocktail parties with a lot of movie stars may appeal to some. But it is just work for me.

The second most frequent question is: "Did you meet a lot of pretty girls?"

The most frequent answer is: "Yes and no."

"I met all the Miss Nevada contestants. They were all pretty. But you must know they are young dolls. Just out of high school, for goodness sake."

"I mean at the cocktail parties. Weren't there a lot of Bessie divorces hanging around?"

"There was some girl sitting next to me at dinner from the movies—Marilyn Monroe and Clark Gable are making a picture up there. I never did get her name."

"Didn't you talk to her?"

"I guess so. I can't remember the conversation. The waiter kept butting in to pour more champagne. It was a dreadful night."

The third most frequent question is: "I guess it must be pretty dull around home after all those gay times."

The most frequent answer to this is: "What a silly idea!"

I was invited to Reno to judge the Miss Nevada contest and it caught me at a most receptive time.

It is the time when we move the garden furniture out of the garage.

I advised everybody to put off moving the furniture until I got back. "But if you decide to move it anyway, be careful you don't scratch the car."

I packed up a dinner jacket and some swimming shorts and caught the Western champagne flight for Reno.

It was a beautiful sunny ride over the High Sierra and the stewardess couldn't have been more attentive. The champagne was bubbly.

The fourth most frequent question: "Ten thousand children will be born this year with cleft lip and palate disorders."

STOP KENNEDY MOVEMENT FAILING AS OLD PROS ACT LIKE AMATEURS

By LYLE WILSON
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The stop-Kennedy movement appears itself to be stopped because the old pros in the Democratic Party are performing like amateurs.

No one knows this better than Harry S. Truman. HST made his big bid last week for the stop-Kennedy operators to get together in the only political strategy with a chance to stop the young man from Massachusetts.

That strategy would be for the old pros — and all others who might be interested — to rally behind one man and to support that man on the first ballot and on all ballots thereafter. The old pros are divided in their allegiance. There is a political axiom which goes like this: You can't stop somebody with nobody. That is, to stop a man, you must offer another man. The old pros are trying to stop Kennedy with a committee of potential Democratic nominees for president of the United States.

HST wants to stop Kennedy with Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri or Sen. Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. In last week's attack on Kennedy, in which Truman accused persons unknown of rigging and fixing the Democratic convention, the former President suggested nine Democrats who he regarded as presidential timber. He preferred all of them to Kennedy.

Truman did not, however, include in his list the name of the Democrat around whom a powerhouse stop-Kennedy movement probably would have developed if his name had been included. The omitted name, of course, was that of Adlai E. Stevenson. Truman does not like Stevenson for reasons long known and long publicized. Stevenson, however, is the candidate of Mrs. Eleanor Roose-

Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) and each as they would be expected to rally to Stevenson with glad cries. Truman missed that opportunity on purpose. Like the Republican elephant and West Virginia feudists, Truman does not forget.

He did, however, offer Johnson as his No. 1 choice, so it seemed, for the Democratic nomination. He might have well asked Mrs. Roosevelt, ADA and the lefties to jump up and holler for Virginia's Sen. Harry F. Byrd. ADA kicked Johnson with a fist several days ago. The kiss was a bill of particulars saying that the left wing feels that Johnson will not do. The headlines on the ADA statement read like this: "ADA warns nomination of Johnson would be mockery of party's platform and would lead to defeat in November."

The ADA pros are not so old, but they are pros, nevertheless. Young and old, the Democratic pros are not actually associated with the Kennedy pro-convention campaign and have scattered their support so greatly that they seem now to be impotent. That is a monumentally good break for Kennedy.

An advertisement for a new model automobile claimed that the manufacturers had eliminated "just about every grunt, squeak, rattle, beat, whang, clink, hiss, howl, rumble, roar, ruff, shudder, whistle and growl."

Despite a customary use of superlatives, most advertisers acknowledge in one way or another that there is always room for improvement.

They also, as in the above claim for the latest product of a leading automobile company, admit past defects with virtual frankness.

Be honest with yourself in regard to your own human weakness and you will have made the first big step towards perfection.

Those who are smugly content with themselves seldom make any progress in mind, heart or soul. They hold back their own development both spiritually and intellectually. God shows a special grace to those who show perseverance in overcoming their shortcomings.

WASHINGTON by Ed Koterba

EL PASO, Tex.—There are only a few days between us and the Democratic convention in Los Angeles. There's something else between us—80 miles of desert, and behind us is a four-ton trailer.

This all would be lunky dory if there weren't something hanging over us—that infernal hall of white fire some people lovingly refer to as the sun.

When we pulled into this "Sun City" at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the official temperature read 107 degrees. The kid in the back seat sighed. "Daddy," he said, "is this the end of the desert?"

I hadn't known there was so much Texas to the United States and so much desert to Texas until we crossed 500 miles of it—from just west of the LBJ Ranch to this metropolis tucked between the borders of Old and New Mexico.

Two hundred miles back, I caught our eight-year-old rolling up the back windows. "What are you doing?" I yelled, and he replied, "Trying to keep out the hot wind."

He had seen other cars pass us with windows locked up. But they had air conditioning.

When we left home our friends said we were half crazy to pull this rig through the desert country in the middle of summer. Now I realize they were half wrong.

It was so hot by noon that the Texas jackrabbits we happened to see along the road were just walking. Until yesterday, I had never seen a wild rabbit that wasn't either sitting or running. A big Texas jackrabbit walking is a pitiful sight. But the sun plays no favorites.

Before we headed into this Western wilderness we bought two thermometers—one for the car and one for the trailer. There's a sadistic thrill, I guess, in knowing how much you're suffering.

Not only that, we kept watching voraciously for the temperature readings on the radio. The El Paso man seemed exuberant when he said: "Slightly cooler tomorrow—expected high, 106."

Mercifully, our indoor thermometer runs only to 110. At 8 p. m. both had reached the nub on the top of the tube. I could only guess that the temperature inside our aluminum cocoon was 128. Dotty couldn't guess, she had passed out.

It was so hot that the contents of our medicine cabinet ran over the sides. Whatever the temperature was, it was above that which melts vaseline.

We revived the little lady of our mobile household by leading her to the trailer park pool. For a full hour she stood there in the shade in the pool with a funny smile on her face.

In the evening we headed into Old Mexico, figuring this was a prime time to get some hot bargains. The sun had slipped over the mountains, and the sky in the west was breathtakingly beautiful. It looked like the interior of a roaring coke furnace.

We turned on the radio. The announcer gave the 8 p. m. temperature. It was, he said, an even 100 degrees.

Mr. Billopp

When asked his opinion of the latest style in ladies' bathing suits he says he sees nothing wrong with them. After all, he argues, they are not much scarier than those of a year or so ago.

He says all new styles should be approached with an open mind. Otherwise a person can make himself ridiculous. He says the latest style represents a perfectly logical advance in a trend that has been going on for more than half a century.

He recalls the days when grandmas considered it shocking to show an ankle. If it hadn't been for the style makers and the courageous women who backed them up by wearing what they designed, he says we would still be where we were in the reign of Queen Victoria.

He will not hear anything critical said of the women of their acquaintance whom they have seen wearing the new bathing suits. He considers that no reflection on their character. He does not regard them as immodest or overbold.

He thinks it is most attractive to see groups of women so garbed. The bathing suits allow them freedom of action. They encourage the wearers to be graceful. They make women pay more attention to their figures.

He is indignant at people who call the new styles indecent. That he says, merely shows they have evil minds. Or else they are prudish. He will bet that they would have acted the same way twenty years or more ago when bathing suits were as respectable as anybody could have wished. How refreshing to find a man with such breadth of mind who keeps abreast of the times.

Could this be the same man who, when his own women folk dare to appear in the new style bathing suits, charges them with being shameless and orders them to go right back and put on some clothes.

Wide Selection
Of Patio Furniture

If outdoor furniture for your patio, side of the pool, breezeway or porch is on your shopping list, knowing the performance of various types may help you in choosing.

When you shop for outdoor furniture you will find numerous types that are weather resistant, lightweight and adjustable for different positions and fold for storing.

Anodized aluminum tubing which resists salt water pitting is particularly suited to shore areas. Baked-on enamel resist chipping, fading, and peeling. It is portable and tough.

The all-weather type of wrought iron can stay outside the year round. It is strong and substantial but not so easy to move. Some manufacturers guarantee painted and enameled finishes up to 10 years.

Rattan is cool, light, and is long lasting. You will find it combined occasionally with glass or metal. Out of doors, rattan should have some shelter. Prolonged exposure to rain and direct sun is not advised.

Redwood resists rotting and fungus even with staying outdoors. Other woods — pine, oak and birch — are strong, sturdy, and inexpensive. Seats and backs of some pieces are woven of colorful heavy-duty weather-resistant synthetic webbing.

Fabric covers, favored for their coolness, can be found with mildew and fade-resistant qualities.

Day! They got a rather late start on Friday for a holiday in Silver Springs and when they (with children, too) arrived they could find nary a place to lay their heads for the night. Every place they stopped for accommodations pointed to places "down the road" and when they found themselves in Leesburg they gave up and drove home. But the "spirit of the fourth" left them undaunted so they started out again on Saturday—bright and early this time—and returned to Silver Springs.

PEGGY AND BROOKE SMITH are spending their vacation doing some deep sea fishing near Daytona Beach — POLLY (Mrs. Ralph) PEZOLD and children, John and Kathy, are vacationing in Washington, D. C. and in nearby Alexandria, Va.

BACK from Washington, D. C. are Wilma (Mrs. W. M., Jr.) Colbert and son, Billy, who were accompanied by her niece, Gay Ulrey of Oviedo.

Other guests, with their children, were Clayda and Ashby Jones, Elisa and Buck Ferguson, Zona and Art Beckwith and Martha Rowland. Also the Adams' house-guest, Miss Penny Coe of Miami.

A COOK-OUT around the swimming pool of the home of Wagneta (Mrs. Robert) Ramey was held Saturday night. It was a "get-together" for wives of VAH-1 and was planned to say "farewell" to Donny (Mrs. B. B.) Brown who will be leaving for Newport, R. I.—and who was unable to attend the party due to family illness) and to welcome home from Europe Gladys Thom and Tommie Tension. A telegram from a former resident, Fran (Mrs. Gordon) Robertson, arrived to say "fond farewells" to Donny.

Greyhounds Take Two; Build Up Lead In FSL Action

Lakeland Here Tonight

By PETER SCHAAL
If Casey Stengel is expecting any help from the New York Yankees' farm at St. Petersburg, home of the defending Florida State League champions, he can forget it.

Lloyd Brown and his rip-roaring Sanford Greyhounds saw to that before 300 howling fans at Memorial Stadium Tuesday night as they tossed a third-inning doubleheader by scores of 2 to 1 and 11 to 5 to take the league lead and set the stage for what promises to be a highly promising meeting at the stadium tonight against the Lakeland Indians, first half champions.

It was a night of surprises, most of them pleasant for local fans who were sitting in on the hill at the first doubleheader of the season.

Young Ken Sanders became the league's winningest pitcher as he turned in his 12th win against six losses in a simply great first game demonstration in which he allowed only two hits, walked nearly a man, and fanned 10. He retired the side in five of the seven frames he hurled.

The Hounds scored first in their half of the first on a freak turn of events in which even they sympathized with the suffering Ken Dekker, a leftfielder pressed into service as a catcher.

With one away, Willie Dukes slugged into center. Before the count got to three and one on slugger Frank Cipriani, Dukes had reached home on three passed balls. Cipriani walked and got the same treatment, a fourth passed ball putting him on second. Julio Anglada, the Soft hurler, retired the side without further damage however.

The Saints evened it in the third when with one away, shortstop Cepeda tripled past Bolivar Hinojosa in right field, scoring on Anglada's roller toward an incoming Harrelson who was unable to make the play at the plate.

The Hounds went ahead to stay in the fifth when with one away, Pat Sisk, who had forced Ken Sanders at second, went to second on Dekker's fifth passed ball, to third on Dukes' infield out, and scored on Ken Harrelson's dribbler toward third.

Satisfactory as was the Hounds' first game victory, it did not provide the slugging thrills that developed in the second tilt, an affair that produced some of the latest slugging ever done by one man in a debut in a Sanford uniform.

The slugger was lanky Billy Bryan of Morgans, Ga., a giant standing 6 feet four, with an arm anyone could envy. Sent from Alapogus because of his left-handed hitting and catching prowess, he demonstrated for all to see that the stories told about him were not a pre-arranged dream.

To some extent the same justness, but in hurling, was displayed by another newcomer to the Hounds line-up — young Dickie Waz, the Canisus College rightie, until he ran into a fifth inning problem he could not overcome.

The Hounds wasted no time scoring in the second game. Pat Sisk opened with a single, scoring two odds later on Harrelson's hit off the mound. Ken stole second on Dekker and scored when second-bagger Vicente failed to find the handle on Hinojosa's roller before Bryan fled out to right.

Two more Hound runs came over in the second. Ozzie Charvaria, back in the line-up after 10 days back home in Panama, blasted a triple to the left field wall, scoring on Jerry Arroyo's first pitch single past third. Waz' punt was fielded by hurler Droke but shortstop Cepeda didn't have his foot on second when Arroyo pulled up, safe. Sisk bunted to advance the runners, and Arroyo scored on Dukes' sacrifice fly to left.

The Hounds had runners on in the third and fourth but failed to score them. Meanwhile, Waz was going great guns, retiring the first 13 men to face him, allowing a line shot single to right in the first.

He walked Clise to open the fifth but fanned Vicente. At this point, Waz walked toward his dugout and handed the batboy his glasses which perhaps were fogging up on him.

Whether this led to his eventual departure from the mound may never be known but, he walked Kohl, the third batter. Both runners moved up on a passed ball, and Richardson fanned for two out.

Then came one of two "bad" pitches of the fifth frame as Waz hit Cepeda to fill the sacks. Pitcher Droke hit the first pitch into center, scoring a pair. Haptor singled to center to score another, and Regoli doubled to right to score two more and give the Saints the lead, 5 to 4. Young Joe Petrivic came to the mound to be greeted by Dekker's single through the box but Clise fanned to end it.

Enter Billy Bryan, and how. The Hounds opened their half of the fifth with a real break as catcher Dekker, throwing to first to get Cipriani who had fanned, hurled the ball into the dirt, Cipriani got the right center fence nearly 300 feet away. The Hounds taking the lead, 6 to 5. Rookie Ron Jacobson relieved Droke and got the Hounds out without further trouble.

Lake Monroe Inn Takes Bowling Play

In the "Match of the Week" of the Sanford City Bowling League at the Jet Lakes last Wednesday evening, Lake Monroe Inn moved into contention by taking the top dog, Lance, Inc., for a sweep of four points to become second in the league. At the same time, second place Buddy's Auto Service lost all four to fall to fifth place behind Gene's Seminars Cleaners and Mather of Sanford who are tied for third.

Garry Fox led the Lake Monroe team in their sweep over Lance with a 617 series, while Tommy Brown and Phil Roche both had 511's for Lance. Buddy's Auto Service fell before the onslaught of George's Tavern, led by Ed Herning's 534. Gene's Seminars Cleaners used the 547 of George Swana to take three points from Buker Music Shop, in spite of the 540 rolled by Henry Tamm. Mather of Sanford also took three points from Jet Inn, with Dan Brown's 523 leading the Furluremen, while Joe Carley's 499 topped the Jet Inn crew.

Nelson Making So-Called Experts Change Their Tune On His Batting

United Press International

Pittsburgh's pennant-bound Pirates would love to know what suddenly happened to all those experts who agreed Rocky Nelson would never hit major league piling.

The tobacco-chewing, 35-year-old Nelson was stamped "slightly minor league hitter" for the past 18 years, most of which he spent kicking around the bushes.

Nelson had been given brief trials with five different major league clubs but the Pirates still felt he could help them when they drafted him from Toronto of the International League in December of 1958.

Rocky batted a respectable .281 for the Pirates last year but he staged perhaps his finest performance for them Tuesday night when he socked successive homers in the ninth and 10th innings to produce a 5-4 victory over the Braves and increase Pittsburgh's lead to 4½ games in the National League race.

Midweek starter Carlton Wiley took a 2-0 lead into the ninth when he suddenly was tagged for Nelson's first homer plus a two-run homer by Don Hoak. The Braves battled back to tie the score again in the last of the ninth.

But Bob Skinner singled in the 10th and trotted around the bases when Nelson deposited his fifth homer of the year into the right field bleachers off loser Joey Jay. Paul Giel, the winner, yielded the Braves' final run in the 10th before Bob Friend came on to nail down the final out.

The Dodgers blatted the Giants, 8-0, the Phillies beat the Reds, 3-0, and the Cardinals defeated the Cubs, 3-2, in other NL games.

In the American League, the Senators came from behind to top the first-place Yankees, 5-3, in the only other scheduled game. Southpaw Johnny Podres held the slumping Giants to four hits in scoring his eighth victory for the Dodgers. Los Angeles collected 11 hits off four San Francisco pitchers with Mike McCormick suffering the loss.

A wild pitch by McCormick gave the Dodgers their first run in the fourth and they added three more in the sixth on four singles and two walks. Podres, who struck out seven, also halted Willie Mays' 18-game hitting streak.

Robin Roberts hurled his first shutout of the season for the Phils while limiting the Reds to four hits. The victory brought Roberts' record to 5-1. Loner Don Newcombe was tagged for a run in the sixth on a single, a sacrifice and a double by Tony Gonzalez, and then yielded another in the seventh on four singles.

Bill White tripled home the winning run with two out in the eighth inning for the Cardinals as the Cubs had tied the score at 2-2 with a pair of runs in the sixth. Lundy McDaniel, who relieved starter Curt Simmons in the seventh, was the winning pitcher and Don Cardwell the loser. Cardwell pitched a no-hitter against the Cards the last time he faced them on May 15.

Bob Allison's first home run in nearly three weeks was the blow that gave the Senators their victory over the Yankees. Allison hit his 10th homer of the season in the 10th off loser Art Ditmar following a two-out single by Reno Berrier.

Starter Ralph Terry led 3-0 until the seventh but the Senators scored single runs in the seventh, eighth and ninth. Pedro Ramos was tagged for Roger Maris' 28th homer with one on in the first inning and then gave up only one more hit before yielding to winner Chuck Stobbs in the ninth. The loss cut the Yankees' lead to one game over the idle second-place Indians.

Rookie Chuck Estrada of the Orioles fired a five-hitter at the Red Sox for his ninth victory of the year. Among the hits Estrada allowed were two-run homers by Vic Wertz and Pumpsie Green. The Orioles got to loser Tom Brewer for five runs and seven hits in 3 1/3 innings and then raked Ted Willis for seven more hits and four runs. Jackie Brandt drove in three runs with three hits and rookie Marv Breeding also had three hits. The victory boosted the third-place Orioles within two games of the top.

Greenberg Cites Need To Expand Major Leagues

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Hank Greenberg, vice president of the Chicago White Sox, today described expansion of the major leagues and inter-league play as two steps to combat "fan apathy."

Greenberg, one of the American League's top sluggers at his peak, said it was "highly possible" both American and National leagues would be expanded by the start of next season.

But he emphasized "expansion must be a joint effort by the two leagues and should be gradual. I'd like to start off with two nine-club leagues."

Greenberg is a member of the American League Expansion Committee.

He explained that some wanted two leagues of 10 teams each. "But I don't believe we have the players to stock four teams," he said.

The possibility of inter-league play played a semi-serious round to speculate on future possibilities which made no mention of the Continental League. He said there was an apathy on the part of fans. "I believe inter-league play is imperative. People want to be entertained and that's the challenge we face today. I find more support every time I bring up the idea of inter-league play."

What about the Continental League?

"I don't think the Continental League will ever get off the ground," he said on a visit here to watch the ball club's farm hands at work with San Diego's Padres.

Ford, Sanders Favored In Play

TORONTO (UPI) — Doug Ford and Doug Sanders, a pair of former winners in the Canadian Open golf championship, were rated excellent choices to repeat in the 51st national championship, which opens today.

Ford, the Mahopar, N. Y., pro who shot a 216 at Montreal last year to win, shot a first-round practice round of 67 Tuesday, finishing birdie-eagle. Playing in a foursome with Ted Kroll, Joe Longo and Canada's madcap maverick of the fairways, Max Norman, Ford played a semi-serious round in which there was constant joking but many fine golf shots.

Sanders, who became the first and last amateur ever to win the Canadian Open four years ago at Montreal when he beat Dow Finsterwald on the first extra hole of a sudden death playoff, fired an even better six-under 66 Tuesday. Gay Brewer Jr., had a 68 and veteran Ted Kroll a two-under 70.

Minor Loop Club Finds Manager

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Ted Beard, veteran minor league outfielder who's been pining for a chance to manage, took over the Indianapolis Indians today in place of fired Johnny Hutchings.

Beard it was the chance to "find out if I can do the job" he has always wanted. For Hutchings, hard-luck minor league manager and former major leaguer, it was the move he had dreamed.

Hutchings, 43, was fired by club president Owen J. Bush Tuesday after refusing to resign at Bush's request. The American Association team has been in the cellar most of this season.

Oilers, Bankers Take LL Play

Standard Oil defeated First Federal 15-0 in Little League play Tuesday. In other Little League action, Florida State Bank toppled Chase, 20-10.

In the Babe Ruth League, Ovidio blanked Shrine, 5-0.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Leo Durocher, formerly of the Brooklyn Dodgers, might become the manager of the San Francisco Giants next season, but meanwhile interim pilot Tom Sheehan will remain on the job.

Giants owner Horace Stoneham hinted at handing the helm of the club over to "Lippy" Durocher Tuesday night when he replied to questions of the club's 1961 manager with the remark: "Leo Durocher and I are still very good friends, but we'll have to see about next season."

Stoneham made Sheehan interim manager last month when he fired Bill Rigney after the Giants went into a slump in June.

Welter Contender, Aikens Mix Tonight

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — Unbeaten Luis Rodriguez, No. 1 contender for the world welterweight title, meets former champion Virgil Aikens tonight in a partial benefit match.

The fight, with 35 percent of the gross gate receipts, going to the widow and six children of the late Louisville welterweight Rudolph Stutch, will be nationally televised.

Stutch was drowned last month in an unsuccessful attempt to save the life of a friend who had fallen into the Ohio River from a dam while fishing here.

The match is important to both the 23-year-old Rodriguez, who has a 28-0 record, and to Aikens, who is attempting a comeback.

Rodriguez's trainer, Angelo Dundee, said, "All he wants to do is get a shot at the title. He's been promised a fight against Bernardo Farot if he wins. He's boxed 70 rounds getting ready for this fight," he added.

Three Rookies On AL All-Stars

BOSTON (UPI) — Three rookies — two of them from the Baltimore "whiz kids" team — are among the 32 players named to complete the 1960 American League All-Star team.

The freshmen, righthander Chuck Estrada, 22, and first baseman Jim Gentile, 26, of the Orioles and relief pitcher Dick Stigman, 24, of the Cleveland Indians, were named Tuesday by Manager Al Lopez. The announcement came here through the American League office.

The league-leading New York Yankees and the defending champion Chicago White Sox each placed seven players on the squad which will meet its National League counterpart at Kansas City July 11 and at New York July 13.

Pity The Poor South: They Have The Worse Seats At Convention

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — If the southern delegations to the Democratic national convention want to walk out, they won't have any trouble. Most of their seats are conveniently located close to the exits. National Committee Chairman Paul M. Butler has stuck to his promise to assign back-of-the-hall seats to the states which lagged on meeting the fund quotas. The southern states, many of which have been reluctant to contribute anything to the Democratic offers as long as Butler was running the show, have the sections farthest from the platform and closest to the walls. One redeeming feature for the Dixie delegates is that the convention arena is shaped in such a fashion that even the worst seats are not too bad. Of the 10 southern states, four received what would be considered good, if not the very best, seating facilities. North Carolina, which has been a faithful contributor, is just to the side of the platform in an excellent position. Arkansas is in the same section, separated from the Tar Heels only by Delaware and Texas. Florida and Virginia occupy almost similar sections, somewhat to the rear of the best-paying ticket holders at the head of their respective areas and in a good position to be seen. The rest of the South is spaced pretty well around the back of the arena. In fact, only Mississippi and South Carolina, off by themselves in two sections at the rear of the room could give Louisiana a contest for the worst seats in the house. Tennessee is a delegate's length from Mississippi and Alabama, also a slow contributor to the party, is stuck at the rear of the same section which Virginia leads. Georgia is another state which was placed at the rear of the room, as close to an exit as a delegation can get. To Butler's credit, the back row is not taken up completely by the Southern states. Joining the Dixie delegations at the rear are such diverse states as Arizona, Montana, Kentucky, North Dakota and the Canal Zone and Puerto Rico.

Pentagon Honors Navajo Indian

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Pentagon today honored a Navajo Indian who once served as an aide to Gen. John J. Pershing and who is now more than 100 years old. Jeff King, who speaks only Navajo, was being presented the Indian War Campaign Medal. He served under Pershing at Ft. Wingate, N. M., when he was a member of Troop L, 2nd Cavalry, and participated in the campaign leading to the capture of the famous Apache, Geronimo.

First Federal Shows Asset Growth

First Federal Savings and Loan Assn.'s mid-year statement shows total assets of $10,821,692 representing a substantial growth over the June 30, 1959 reports that reflected a comparable figure of $9,009,536. In the same period the savings account total moved from $7,830,564 to $9,495,112, a jump of 21 percent. For the past six month period dividends amounting to $174,469 were paid at the rate of four percent a year on 4,142 savings accounts, according to George Touhy, executive vice president. Loans totaling $1,258,000 were made in the six months, January through June, Touhy said, and added that this is about the same sum extended in the first half of 1959. This reflects a slow-down from the last half of 1959, it was pointed out, reflecting the tight money

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I never thought I'd see the day when I'd write to a newspaper for advice, but here I am. Our problem is our 16-year-old son. He has become so addicted to cigarettes that if he doesn't have one he gets jittery and his hands shake.

We have explained the dangers of smoking and have had our doctor explain it to him. He says he knows all those things, but he can't stop now. We've taken away his privileges and punished him in every way possible, but it hasn't helped. He's gone without lunches to buy cigarettes, and if he has no money to buy them, he'll beg one. Now what can we do?

PARENTAL FAILURES

DEAR PARENTS: If a 16-year-old boy is to overcome the cigarette habit, he must do it the same way other cigarette slaves do. First, the boy himself must sincerely WANT to stop smoking. If he wants to badly enough, his own determination will create the inner strength it requires. Without it—all else is futile.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for four months. A baby is on the way. My husband and I were not meant for each other and divorce is the only way out. Believe me, I am certain this marriage cannot last for reasons I would rather not mention here.

My parents tell me that I shouldn't consider divorcing my husband until after the baby is born. I am living with him only for appearances, but I am definitely going to get rid of him as soon as I have this baby. What I want to know is, can I get my maiden name back?

MATTER OF TIME

DEAR MATTER: This is a matter for a lawyer. Under the circumstances, the court (or judge) usually tries to dissuade a mother from resuming her maiden name because it could reflect on the child. Think it over.

DEAR ABBY: The man I am going to marry has been married and divorced. I am 24 and he is 34. He has two daughters, 7 and 9, and his ex-wife uses them for all they are worth to keep in close touch with their Daddy.

She coached the girls to ask him if they could be flower girls at our wedding. When he suggested it, I hit the ceiling.

I feel that his daughters and their mother do not belong in the wedding party. Some of my friends think I am being small and narrow-minded. My fiancé says it is up to me. May I have your opinion?

BEA-WILDERED

DEAR BEA-WILDERED: I am in your corner. Your fiancé's children do not belong in your wedding party. Furthermore, it is very poor taste for a discarded mate (and/or the children) to attend an "ex" second wedding.

CONFIDENTIAL TO BILL F.: If the nickel has no "mint mark," it is a counterfeit.

If you want a personal reply from Abby, write to her in care of this paper and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. She answers ALL letters.

Beauty after Forty
EDYTH THORNTON MCLEOD

The film, "Song Without End," the story of Franz Liszt, is the most beautiful and elegant picture I have ever seen. Presented by Columbia Pictures, this remarkable film will be coming your way again and if you enjoy beautiful music, gorgeous color and looking at beautifully gowned women, go. You will have a great experience.

The picture introduces the new sensation, "Capucine," a truly elegant woman. This sounds like the movie's press agent's idea, but I mean every word and, although I went to the Broadway preview, I am taking several friends to the regular showing. It was that fascinating.

green. The sheer brown tones of these are wonderful to wear with all browns and the beige tones are for wear with the "all one color" fashion idea.

Tulip Sleeve Is Attractive

If you have a fox cape in black, which is very smart for summer wear, have a huge bow of black organza with which to tie your cape.

The all-black look will arrive by August first and everyone will blossom forth in black with black velvet hats and accessories. It happens every season—and that's Fashion!

Bridge And Medical Writers Taking Over Well Used Advice Columns

In recent years, however, the professional heart balmers have been getting some tough competition from experts in two other lines of journalistic advice-giving — bridge and medicine.

My services. I just happen to have some old letters here with which to get the ball rolling:

TV Tonight

NBC's "Wagon Train" repeat is "The Greenhorn Story" in which Mickey Rooney plays a passenger who arouses suspicion by his reckless buying of supplies for the trek West.

ABC's "Music for a Summer Night" hour is entitled "The Sounds of Home" and tells the story in song and dance of an old Georgia dwelling. Dorothy Collins, James Hurst, Shannon Bolin, Carol Brice, Bruce McKay and Patty Lee are on the roster.

This might be the one time you'd want to see a rerun on NBC's "This Is Your Life" program. It is the headline-making show of last winter on which Lowell Thomas was the subject. CBS' "Armstrong Circle Theatre" begins its reruns with the excellent "Full Disclosure," dramatization of fraudulent securities operations.

The Channel Swim: NBC-TV has altered plans for its filmed-in-Rome series, "The Barbarians," starring Jack Palance. In stead of being a regularly scheduled series next season, it will be a one-shot special.

Jeff Chandler, star of ABC-TV's projected two-hour Biblical special based on King David's outlaw years, has arrived in Israel to start filming.

A dramatization of Rudyard Kipling's story about life in India, "Kim," will be one of the presentations on "The Shirley Temple Show," the new NBC-TV Sunday evening series that begins next fall.

Forthcoming Political Conventions To Knock Night-Time TV For Loop

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI)—The two political conventions will knock at least 162 night-time TV shows off the air in the weeks ahead.

While this is all right with me, experience has shown that such whole pre-emptions invariably anger a portion of the electorate. Not everyone is happy when, say, Maynard Krebs is pre-empted by Thurston Morton, or Ozlie Nelson is bumped by Paul Butler.

Therefore, I advise the successful nominees to put together an acceptance speech that registers, above all, a deep awareness of the hardships created by the TV schedule changes for some distasteful.

These speeches might sound like this: "My fellow viewers, 'To tell the truth, as I face the nation tonight and prepare to meet the press tomorrow, I am humbled by the thought that the man and the challenge are now cast together for some fateful adventures in paradise. As I embark on this political tightrope, I promise that my campaign wagon train will visit every video village, from 77 Sunset Strip to 21 Beacon Street, from Bourbon Street beat to the Alaskan. We'll travel the station breaks full circle, by riverboat or whirlbird, and be seen by Hawaiian eyes and other Americans of all ages, be they December brides or the romper room set. My person-to-person bold journey travels the high road and we are Ruff and Reddy to give all issues an open hearing."

UPI Foreign Editor
From the foreign editor's notebook:
Summit aftermath: The middle-range U. S. Polaris missile, requiring a minimum of launching site, made a deep impression on West German Defense Minister Franz-Josef Strauss who believes it is just the thing to reinforce NATO's shield in depth. However, Strauss is unwilling to give Moscow further fuel for its anti-German campaign and believes that NATO or some other member of the alliance should make the proposal adding Polaris to the list of NATO weapons.

MISSILE ADDS A STING TO HELICOPTER — A Marine Corps helicopter carries a Bullpup missile (top) during a firing test at Patuxent River, Md. At bottom, the radio-controlled missile leaves the Sikorsky HUS-1 with a tail of flame to hit a target in Chesapeake Bay. The successful test demonstrated a new military capability of the already indispensable helicopter.

Explorer Post Receives Charter

Capt. Robert W. Slye, Commanding Officer of the Sanford Naval Air Station presented Explorer Post 302 their initial charter in impressive ceremonies conducted in the NAS Ballroom recently.

In addition, Joe Welsh, son of Chief Petty Officer and Mrs. Joseph Welsh was advanced to Life Scout, which is an honor second only to that of Eagle Scout.

In presenting the charter, Capt. Slye congratulated the members of the post and emphasized the importance of working diligently so that their organization will grow and provide this important scouting activity for many more young men.

Capt. Slye also reminded the group that the U. S. Navy had always cooperated fully with the scouting programs and NAS can be counted on to do its part in assisting whenever possible.

Attending, in addition to members of the new post and their parents, were: Jim Hay, commissioner; Lt. (j.g.) Sheets, Ron Scribner, post advisor, and CPO Fred McMurray, committeeman.

4 Seminole Teachers To Join In Health Education Plan

As health education is the foundation of all tuberculosis control programs, the Seminole County Tuberculosis and Health Assn. has contributed $80 to help assist with the tuition for four teachers from Seminole County. They will participate in a Teacher's Project in Health Education in a summer school program, planned for selected teachers.

Doyle Signs
BOSTON (UPI) — The Boston Patriots have signed former Ohio State and Pittsburgh Steeler star Skip Doyle to a 1960 contract. The Patriots will use Doyle at halfback.

The National Science Foundation sponsors annual surveys of industrial research and development.

Teachers participating in this project, from Seminole County are Mrs. Helen Stephenson, Mrs. Jose Allen, Mrs. Jeanette McDaniel and Mrs. Pearl Williams.

The project is sponsored by the State Department of Education, the State Board of Health, the County Health Department and local Board of Public Instruction. Cooperating universities are the University of Florida, Florida State University, University of Miami and Bethune-Cookman College.

For two weeks, teachers enrolled in the course at the university of their choice, work in the county in which they will teach, learning at first hand of the multitude of health and welfare resources available to them, their students and families of the community. They meet with representatives of official and voluntary health and welfare agencies to learn of programs which they may utilize to improve the school health program.

Nixon Repudiates
Rockwell Support
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon has repudiated the support of George Lincoln Rockwell, the head of the American Nazi Party, "and the evil he represents."

Nixon, the probable Republican presidential nominee, took the stand in a telegram Tuesday to Bernard Abrams, national commander of the Jewish War Veterans. Abrams had told Nixon that Rockwell was supporting him for the White House.

Nixon wired back that "no American who remembers the horrors of Nazi beastiality can react to Rockwell's words with anything but complete and utter repugnance."

Space Animals

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet scientists were jubilant Tuesday over the disclosure that a rabbit and two dogs safely returned to earth from a rocket fired 125 miles into the upper atmosphere.

The high altitude rocket shot was closely linked to the forthcoming Pacific rocket tests which have been announced for this month.

On America's Independence Day, Soviet officials announced they successfully fired a 4,400-pound rocket last month with the animals aboard.

Russian scientists said the rocket shot collected valuable information on conditions of weightlessness in space flight and other significant subjects.

U.S. Entrants In Miss Universe Contest 'Nervous'

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Foreign entrants in the Miss Universe contest slept late today but the tension that has already shown itself gripped the United States entrants as they prepared for preliminary judging.

Judges will select 15 of the 43 entrants from the 24 tonight as finalists in the Miss U. S. A. contest. The winning American girl will be chosen Thursday night and will compete with the foreign beauties for the Miss Universe title.

At Tuesday's rehearsals before the girls were led at a formal dinner at the Brazilian consulate, imperious few short and the pace of nearly a week of hard partying was apparent.

Miss Switzerland and Miss Louisiana were confined to their hotel rooms because of minor illnesses.

Miss Florida, Nancy Wakefield, was sent back to her room after she fainted on stage twice. The blonde charmer had undergone a rigorous three days at a local health resort to lose weight. Miss Brazil, Gina McPherson, slept through half the proceedings leaning on her chaperone's shoulder. She, too, was sent to her hotel.

Miss Kansas, Peggy Sue Peterson, fell asleep sitting on the stage of convention hall but managed to make it through the run-through.

Moments after newsmen had interviewed Miss Sweden, Birgitta Oefling, she burst into tears and asked, "Why can't we go back to New York?"

"We had so much fun there," she whispered. "We haven't had time to meet anyone here and they keep us going all the time. I'm so tired."

A pageant official said, "She's just homesick, homesick and scared. Birgitta is one of the more high-strung girls and she's feeling the pressure a little earlier than many."

The girls hurried to the beauty parlor after rehearsals ended.

"We've been so busy that I have been unable to have my hair done yet," said Miss England, Joan Boardman. "And I so wanted to get a suntan."

Contest officials have forbidden the girls to sunbathe because of possible sunburn and also because one of the main sponsors makes suntan lotion.

Gray Resting After Operation

JALAHASSEE (UPI)—Secretary of State B. A. Gray, 77, dean of Florida's Cabinet, was reported resting comfortably today after prostate gland surgery Tuesday.

Gray was operated on by Dr. Lawrence Smith and Robert Webster. Smith said that the retiring secretary had had an enlarged prostate gland for several years.

Gray has said heart trouble will force him to retire in January. Heart specialist Dr. Fred Butler was on hand during the operation.

SHS Rooms Ready By Fall

Architect John Burton told the County School Board today that rooms at the new Seminole High School will be ready by the fall term.

With Burton's announcement, Supl. of Schools R. T. Milwee told board members that "at this time there is no indication of double sessions being held at the new school to be located on Lake Jennie.

Rumors had circulated throughout the county that the classrooms wouldn't be ready by fall and that the board would be forced to hold double sessions until the rooms were completed.

However, Burton reported that there is a possibility that work on the cafeteria, gym and auditorium may not be completed in time for the school's opening the first week in September.

The new school is expected to house 1,050 students. Work on the school started last November.

Khrushchev Tones Down After Protest

VIENNA (UPI)—A sharp U. S. protest to the Austrian government apparently caused Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev to tone down his anti-American diatribes, diplomatic sources said today.

U. S. Ambassador H. Freeman Matthews protested verbally Wednesday afternoon that Khrushchev had been allowed to attack "friendly nations" in the presence of Austrian government officials.

In the presence of Austrian Chancellor Julius Raab Saturday Khrushchev had termed U. S. foreign policy "sheer piracy." Sunday night he told Austrians not to rely on the United States because it "wastes no pains on small nations."

Wednesday night, in a speech at Klagenfurt after the U. S. protest, Khrushchev dropped from his prepared text a remark about "influential Americans who wrecked the Paris summit."

He changed a reference to "American rocket bases in Italy" to "foreign bases."

It was obvious that the Austrian foreign ministry had acted on the complaint.

Collins To Speak At School Opening

Governor LeRoy Collins will be the principal speaker at the opening ceremony of the University of South Florida, next fall.

The opening ceremonies of the new university will be held on September 12, at a ceremony in the presence of the school located in Tampa, announced.

Congo Mutiny Spreads To Prison

LEOPOLDVILLE, Congo (UPI)—Violence flared again today in the newly-independent Congo republic when prisoners at the Stanleyville central prison revolted, broke through the prison gates and raced through the town.

The prison break came on the heels of a mutiny by the one-loyal "Force Publique," the Congolese national army, which revolted against European and 10-day-old government.

The mutiny, which spread through the country, was marked by demands for better pay, combined with a system of promotions within the force and the discharge of Europeans holding commands.

Reports of the prison-break reached police headquarters in Leopoldville, which is approximately 831 miles southwest of Stanleyville, the capital of the eastern province.

There were no details on how many prisoners were involved. Reports said the prisoners ran out shouting "independence" and headed for the provincial government building.

In Leopoldville, Belgian paratroopers stood guard to protect Europeans.

Outside the capital Europeans were banding together in groups for common defense against the possibility of widespread violence.

They were thrown into near panic by a statement by Prime Minister Patrice Lumumba that European officers and non-coms of the "Force Publique" were responsible for the trouble and would be punished severely.

Lumumba and President Joseph Kasu Vubu left the capital by road Wednesday night to try to quiet mutineers at Thyville, about 80 miles away, where 1,000 armed rebel troops sealed off the town.

A radio appeal from Lumumba for the rebels to lay down their arms and a promise that they would get better pay and ranks failed to improve the situation.

The 100 Belgian officers at Thyville were reported to have taken refuge on two hillsides inside the camp along with their families and 300 native troops who remained loyal to them.

In Leopoldville, several hundred African troops demanded that Maj. Gen. Emile Janssens, commander in chief of the 30,000-man Force Publique, leave the country. Janssens announced his resignation and several of his top aides followed suit.

Seaside Rest

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower flies to Newport, R. I., today to begin a seaside vacation which he will interrupt July 26 for a trip to Chicago to address the Republican national convention.

Legal Action Nears

ATLANTA (UPI)—An official of Northwest Airlines indicated his company may take legal action to recover its pilots from taking part in a possible tie-up of airline passenger service in eight southeastern states. The Air Line Pilots Association announced Wednesday its members have voted 293-3 to honor picket lines of Southern Airways pilots, who have been on strike since June 8.

Kennedy's Bodyguard

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A burly former policeman who has fought gun battles with hoodlums resigned today as a Senate investigator to take the job of guarding Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) of the Democratic national convention. James P. McLaughlin, 36, said he would be an "appointments aide."

Stone Sober

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A bipartisan pair of passengers said today that Louisiana's national committee was stone sober and not drunk, as charged, when he arrived in Los Angeles aboard an airliner last Friday night. One of Camille Gravel's fellow passengers, a Republican, even reminded the be, and not Gravel, was the mysterious Martin pilot of Delta-American Flight 981.

Ready For Attack

BENSON, Ariz. (UPI)—About 100 members of a small religious sect remained hidden today in bomb shelters and cellars of their sealed homes, fearful of a Russian nuclear attack within two days. Two men, women and children went underground Monday night and refused to answer their telephones or open their doors to visitors or newsmen because: "We're afraid the Soviet Union is going to attack the United States by Saturday."

Murder Charge

WETUMPKA, Ala. (UPI)—A would-be lawyer who kept powerful German rifle at his lake-side cabin was charged with murder Wednesday night in the mysterious death of a 9-year-old girl. Yanks Ready To Pull Out Of Cuba; Castro Says Fight Just Beginning HAVANA, Cuba (UPI)—A growing number of Americans were reported preparing to pull out of Cuba today in the face of probable seizure of all remaining U. S.-owned property and the possibility of increasing anti-Americanism.

Cuban Premier Fidel Castro underscored the deteriorating situation with another wild-eyed denunciation of the United States for slashing Cuba's sugar quota Wednesday.

There has been a big exodus of American residents from Cuba in the past year, reducing from 6,000 to about 3,000 the number left here. But in the face of worsening relations, the exodus is being stepped up, with private companies getting their employees and families out of the country. The U. S. embassy is not urging Americans to leave.

In an angry post-midnight two-hour speech before the closing session of the metal workers union congress, Castro said the United States slashed the Cuban sugar quota in a "frenzy of hate."

This was his first public reaction to President Eisenhower's action. Castro declared that the "real fight" is just starting with the United States. He charged that Washington was trying to run Cuba and ruin its economy.

But Castro surprised some observers by failing to announce specific reprisals for the sugar cut. It was believed that he may wait until a scheduled television address Friday night, or a monster protest rally Sunday afternoon.

Castro did not go into any details on what plans he has for seizing U. S.-owned property in Cuba. His cabinet gave him and President Osvaldo Dorticos authorization late Tuesday night to appropriate such property by decree.

Addressing himself to the United States government, the young revolutionary leader declared: "We will resist your aggressions."

We now understand that the real fight is just beginning. How many years we may have to suffer your aggressions! But how heroic our people is and how geared to meet this long moving and heroic struggle!"

Castro appeared for his midnight speaking stint at CTC Labor Federation headquarters in fine spirits. He showed no sign of the strain brought by weeks of cold war with the United States and recent stunning defections within the ranks of the Cuban foreign service.

Although he was fully prepared for the cut in the sugar quota, observers believed the size of slash came as a shock to him.

Eisenhower lopped off 86,000 tons from the amount of Cuban sugar that was to have been assigned for American domestic consumption during the remainder of this year. Experts estimated this would cost Cuba more than 70 million unless it could find other markets.

Castro, in an obvious appeal for world sympathy, condemned those who "in a frenzy of hate want to sink a people in hunger and ruin." He maintained that Cuba's "reason" made it stronger than the United States, with all its "physical strength."

The president's decree cutting Cuba's sugar quota threatened today to bring new seizure of American property by Castro's government.

It sent the United States shopping around the world for some 900,000 tons of raw sugar to meet domestic needs in the next six months.

It brought a sudden boom to other sugar producing nations.

And it raised doubts that Cuba, even with a change of heart in its "little cold war" against this country, could ever fully regain its preferential spot in the U. S. sugar market.

Spy Ring 'Brains' Named As New Red Ambassador To Cuba

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sergei Kudryavtsev, who masterminded a widespread Soviet spy ring in Canada during World War II, was named today as Russian ambassador to Cuba.

That news agency reported in Moscow that Kudryavtsev, now minister counselor of the Russian embassy in Paris, had been appointed to the Havana post by the Supreme Soviet Presidium.

His new assignment was viewed here as a move to set up a Soviet espionage net at the doorstep of the big U. S. Guantanamo Bay naval base and less than 100 miles from the Florida coast.

The appointment was sure to put a new strain on deteriorating U. S.-Cuban relations and add support to the view of some congressmen that Fidel Castro's anti-American regime is rapidly becoming a Communist satellite.

As first secretary of the Soviet legation in Canada between 1942 and 1945, Kudryavtsev was one of the early bosses of the espionage ring in that country.

The operation was exposed when Igor Gouzenko, a code clerk, defected to the West on Sept. 5, 1945.

The Canadian royal commission that studied the spy ring, said Kudryavtsev was "the first head of the military intelligence espionage system in Canada" after the Soviet Union opened a diplomatic mission in Ottawa in 1942.

One of the spies who fed the Russian secret information was Dr. Allan Nunn May, a British nuclear scientist who worked on the U. S. project that developed the A-bomb and Canada's atomic energy project.

In June 1947 Kudryavtsev came to the United States as an advisor to the Soviet delegation to the United Nations. His presence in this country in the wake of the Canadian spy disclosures stirred up such a storm of press and public opposition that he was recalled four months later.

Clue To Mystery?

SANTA ANA, Calif. (UPI)—Word was awaited today on whether a generator found in the bay of Salpan was from the airplane in which aviatrix Amelia Earhart disappeared in 1937.

Paul Mantz, a Santa Ana air service operator who outfitted Miss Earhart's plane for an around-the-world flight 23 years ago, Wednesday positively identified a coral-encrusted generator as identical to one he ordered for the missing craft.

He refused to definitely say it was from the plane, however, pending a check of the serial numbers with the Bendix Corp. in New Jersey, maker of the generator.

Mantz said the generator returned here from Salpan was taken apart and showed discernible numbers on the back. He said there was no doubt it was the model E5 Bendix Eclipse generator, the kind he ordered for the Earhart-Fred Noonan flight.

Possible solution of the 23-year-old mystery of what happened to Miss Earhart and her navigator, Noonan, was offered last week when a radio newsmen said he believed the aviatrix and Noonan crashed in the bay of Salpan, opposite a Japanese naval base, and were executed as spies.

Extensive Search On For Blimp Victims

BARNEGAT LIGHT, N. J. (UPI)—Frogmen were sped today to the wreckage of the giant Navy blimp ZPG-3W in a desperate effort to retrieve bodies of 17 men presumed dead in its gondola before heavy seas break up the crashed airship's remains.

The cause of the crash Wednesday during a mercy mission off the New Jersey coast remained a mystery. One of the three survivors denied any explosion occurred.

Navy authorities feared the gondola might break up within hours and the bodies of the trapped men might be claimed forever by the sea, along with clues to what brought the disaster.

Even as investigations were begun into the cause of collapse and sinking of the lighter-than-air ship, a long-time veteran of such flights charged the tragedy was "undoubtedly related to the questionable wisdom of building such large airships on the non-compartmented or blimp principle."

Retired Adm. C. E. Rosendahl said in New York: "This is not just another airship accident to be swept under the rug with another condemnation of airships in general."

Rosendahl blamed the tragedy partly on "the Navy's continued blind refusal to properly evaluate, admit and benefit from the right airship lessons of the past and so build compartmented structural airships." He demanded a congressional or other "neutral" investigation.

The Reliance class airship collapsed and went down 18 miles off the Jersey Coast, south of Barnegat Light on Long Beach Island. One man who escaped from the wreckage and was picked up, died. There were three known survivors. Eight officers and 13 enlisted men had been aboard.

The eyewitness account of one of the survivors, aviation electrician 3C Antonio Contreras of Germantown, Tex., said: "We were cruising at about 300 feet. I heard a loud noise, but it was not an explosion. We hit the water within seconds at about a 45-degree nosedown angle. No ditching alarm was sounded. I exited through an aft door.

The blimp had taken off from the Lakehurst Naval Air Station on the Jersey shore Wednesday morning to search for two vessels reported overdue in the Newport, R. I.-to-Bermuda yacht race. Both yachts turned up safe.

Two lines attached to the gondola by rescue craft snapped Wednesday night and the passenger-carrying section of the blimp sank in 86 feet of water. One of the rescued crewmen said the gondola sank almost on impact.

A fleet of surface craft searched the area for possible survivors until darkness hampered operations.

Strong Rights Plank Demanded

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Negro spokesmen and southern student "sit-in" leaders demanded today that the Democratic Party write front-line civil rights guarantees into its 1960 platform and expel segregationists from party ranks.

They placed their demands before the 108-member Democratic platform committee as liberals on that group declared intentions to press for a plank supporting the southern sit-ins and calling for further federal action in the civil rights field.

The explosive issue was the main one before the committee in its third day of public hearings leading to actual drafting of the platform on which the Democratic national convention will meet next Tuesday.

However, a variety of other issues was scheduled for presentation by witnesses ranging from Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union, to a representative of the World Population Emergency Campaign Committee.

The American Council on Judaism, a non-Zionist group, asked for a statement saying Israel does not speak for American Jews. Alaska's Committee-woman Helen M. Fisher, urged a plank recognizing the 4th state's great hydroelectric power potential. And the textile industry asked for support of its efforts to curb imports.

Key Italian Cities Hit By Red Strikes

ROME (UPI)—Communist-led unions called general strikes in key Italian cities today in a campaign to crush the neo-Fascist resurgence and topple the government of Premier Fernando Tambroni.

Italy, torn by strikes and demonstrations, is having its worst trouble with the Communists since the violent days of 1948.

Police kept riot squads on the alert in Rome following a massive street fight Wednesday night in which more than 90 persons were injured. The area around the ancient gate of St. Paul's was littered with cobblestones and debris used by the angry mob against police.

Korean Policemen Sentenced To Die

SEOUL, Korea (UPI)—The Seoul district court today imposed death sentences on two of the policemen who fired at student demonstrators during the April revolution that toppled Syngman Rhee's government.

The sentences were the first handed down in a series of trials of former high officials, politicians and policemen charged with committing a long list of crimes under the Rhee regime.

Congo Troops Block Mutineers

Stanleyville, the capital of the eastern province.

There were no details on how many prisoners were involved. Reports said the prisoners ran out shouting "independence" and headed for the provincial government building.

In Leopoldville, Belgian paratroopers stood guard to protect Europeans.

Outside the capital Europeans were banding together in groups for common defense against the possibility of widespread violence.

They were thrown into near panic by a statement by Prime Minister Patrice Lumumba that European officers and non-coms of the "Force Publique" were responsible for the trouble and would be punished severely.

Lumumba and President Joseph Kasu Vubu left the capital by road Wednesday night to try to quiet mutineers at Thyville, about 80 miles away, where 1,000 armed rebel troops sealed off the town.

A radio appeal from Lumumba for the rebels to lay down their arms and a promise that they would get better pay and ranks failed to improve the situation.

The 100 Belgian officers at Thyville were reported to have taken refuge on two hillsides inside the camp along with their families and 300 native troops who remained loyal to them.

In Leopoldville, several hundred African troops demanded that Maj. Gen. Emile Janssens, commander in chief of the 30,000-man Force Publique, leave the country. Janssens announced his resignation and several of his top aides followed suit.
