

BOY HANDLES SNAKE

Supposed to be Harmless But Proves to be Fatal to Boy

Norman Wyman, aged about thirteen, son of J. A. Wyman, while playing with a poisonous snake early on Wednesday morning, was bitten on the hand, and died on Thursday evening.

On his return before school, the boy again got the snake and exhibited it, despite a protest from the teacher.

The Herald at one time called attention to the fact that in Florida we have the small striped snake which resembles the garter snake in appearance but in reality is the American cobra and is deadly poison.

Appreciates Action of Judge Bell

Joe Favor, a negro of the Montague section, was tried before Judge Joseph Bell of Ocala, for shooting quail out of season, and was fined $100 and costs.

The recent action of Judge Bell, as recorded in the above item which appeared recently in the Times Union, has called forth many expressions of satisfaction from sportsmen, and all interested in game protection, especially the "Bob White."

The Florida Audubon Society, through the medium of the press, desires to publicly acknowledge its thanks to Judge Bell for his timely action.

It is to be hoped that the officials of other counties will follow the example of Judge Bell, and so earn the gratitude of sportsmen and all lovers of the useful Bob White.

The Lend a Hand Club

The Lend a Hand Club held its first meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Wight and made some enthusiastic plans for the season's work.

The Lend a Hand Club is composed of many of the representative young women of the city and was organized primarily for philanthropic purposes.

The Associated Charities received its first donation from this club and at the meeting Friday an additional sum was voted to the relief work of the association.

At the Field Day last February the girls cleared about two hundred dollars by their own work.

All money raised by this club is devoted to civic and philanthropic purposes.

A great deal has been said, first and last, about the lack of recreational facilities of the city of Sanford, so the first work of the club this winter will be the building of a public tennis court for Sanford, and it is for this purpose that the club will give a fancy dress Halloween ball October 31, at the hall, the particulars of which will be in our next issue.

Bridge Club Meets

The Every Week Bridge Club was entertained by Mrs. G. F. Smith on Thursday afternoon. Two tables of bridge were played. The highest score was made by Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin, who won the prize, a pretty little lemon plate of glass with silver deposit.

The Sanford Celery Delta as an agricultural center for the growing of winter vegetables has been advertised in the four quarters of the earth and in the midst of advertising the agricultural resources of this section the city proper has been neglected and our most valuable asset, Sanford as a winter resort, has been relegated to the rear.

The fact that Sanford will occupy the center of the stage this season has aroused interest among the business men, who feel that in the building of the city they will come in for large share of returns. The country is well able to take care of itself for this season at least, and in this idea the farmers themselves will heartily concur and the fact that this policy meets with the approval of the merchants and the farmer is evidenced by the fact that many of them are applying for membership this season, and heretofore they have held themselves aloof.

The campaign of advertising inaugurated several years ago filled the celery delta with new people, and the reputation of this section of Florida as the real vegetable section is assured.

The fact that we wish to impress upon the people of the United States and foreign countries at the present time is that Sanford offers more to the winter resident in the way of hunting, fishing, automobiling, salubrious climate, accommodations, etc., than any other section of the south, and when all of the plans of the Commercial Club have matured the proof of this assertion will be made apparent.

Our work now will be for a Greater Sanford.

The Destructive Small Boy

The other day T. J. Miller, thinking to beautify his theatre planted two very beautiful palms in front of the premises.

At the time it seemed to me that it was a case of love's labor lost, for never yet has anything been allowed to grow on any of the principal streets on account of the destructive small boy.

Now it is simply a question of whether the small boy is more destructive here, or the police are more lax or that the parents of the children do not look after the small boys and keep them off the streets at night.

HIS INTERFERENCE

There Was Only One Way Out of the Engagement.

BY A. MARIA CRAWFORD.

"You've always had all the money you wanted, Theoren, and you wouldn't know how to get along without it," said Betty decidedly.

Theoren Crane looked at the girl wonderingly.

"There is only one way out of this engagement for you, just one," he repeated, "and that is to acknowledge that you don't love me. No other reason will hold with me."

Betty pondered, a tiny pucker showing in her forehead. She spoke with an effort. "You know there has always been Tom."

"Well, what of it? He's a sort of half-forgotten myth."

"Don't these roses look real? He has sent flowers every day for two years." Her retort came quickly. Her pride had been stirred.

"Do you mean to tell me that you—you of all women—would have allowed me to hold you in my arms and kiss you if you had not intended to marry me? Were you thinking of Tom then?"

The girl's defense was being swept away ruthlessly. She felt the hot blood tingle in her face.

"I don't suppose you ever made a mistake and kissed the wrong girl, did you?" she asked slowly.

"Betty! What's the matter? Your father has told you that Uncle Henry drew up his will yesterday and left his money to me provided that I don't marry a so-called society woman. He has always been a crank on the subject of marriage. Thinks that women ought to know how to cook and sew and run a house, you understand. I went to the office and begged your father not to tell you Uncle Henry has been in Australia for twenty years and he didn't know a lawyer nor anybody else in this town. Imagine how I felt when he came in to luncheon today and announced that he had been to Gustave Carter to have his will drawn up! To your father! I don't want his money. I can take care of you. Oh, Betty dear, I've been so happy. Say it's all a mistake. I don't want anything but you."

"How Many Guests?"

Betty swallowed hard and staring in the fire, went over to herself every word her father had said at noon. "Betty, you must give up Theoren Crane," he had urged. "The boy has a future and this old uncle of his has a dozen millions. You mustn't let maudlin sentimentality cheat the boy out of a fortune like that. The old fellow loves Theoren and wants him to marry a quiet, simple girl who is accustomed to do actual work, household work, he said. Yes, I know it's hard on you for you are more than capable and can run this big establishment, but Henry Crane demands that his niece shall not smack of the social world. You're like a beautiful orchid. Betty, don't cry, we'll go abroad for a year. Henry Crane would never believe that you could work. You must not think of yourself in this, but what this fortune will mean to him."

Acts of heroism appeared easy enough to accomplish in the creatures of men's fancies—in books—but when an actual experience came home to an average, normal girl, it seemed too difficult for mortal endurance. Betty wanted to cry out how dear he was—this man she was giving up for love of him. He was so big and strong and capable of caring for her. She would love him so that he would never regret the loss of money under the circumstances, she promised herself, and then the voice of her father, speaking in a cool way of the material things of life, smote her inner consciousness. "You mustn't let maudlin sentimentality cheat the boy out of a fortune like that," and Betty steeled her heart and determined to prove herself equal to her father's expectation and demand.

"If I ever marry, I will marry Tom. Nobody could love a woman any more than he loves me. I am going abroad in ten days, where I hope to study and travel and improve myself. I need it."

"As late as last night, you didn't need nor want anything except my love. Tell me the whole truth, Betty. Why are you talking about Tom now? Isn't it because of Uncle Henry's will? decreed that there should be only one—the one he dominated. There had been those who defied him, and they had come to grief. When he was told that young Campbell was going to try it he sent for him and said:

"A new dally on the carpet, eh?" "Yes."

"Drop it."

"Why so?" "Because I run this town."

"Perhaps so."

"I'll chase you out in a month!" His threat would probably have been carried out but for a circumstance beyond the control of any boss. Miss Kitty Doland and Mr. Charles Campbell met, and it was a case of love at first sight. The new dally had been started and was struggling to live when the girl came to know Boss Kelly's program to kill it.

For the first time since she had held her place she raised her voice in protest. She was answered sneeringly and brutally. Campbell should learn what it meant to defy the boss of Gratton. If there had not already been admiration and love, the attitude of the politician would have awakened them.

Miss Doland quit her place within the hour, laughing at the threat that she and her mother should be made homeless within a week. That evening the Hon. J. Kelly, as his newspaper organ always referred to him, received three callers in a bunch. There was no need of introductions. He was known to Miss Doland, Mr. Campbell and Lawyer Stratton. The lawyer did not belong to "the gang." On the contrary, he had been hot on the trail of the boss for many months.

"What blamed nonsense is this?" gruffly asked the boss as all got seated.

Mr. Kelly, replied Miss Doland, "I am not exactly engaged to Mr. Campbell, but—"

"Tell your mother that I shall turn her out!"

"But we are going into partnership in the newspaper business."

"Humph!"

"You will do your best to kill the enterprise?"

"As dead as a door nail!"

"I wanted to be sure of it. Mr. Kelly, when the new courthouse was erected two years ago your share of the graft was $50,000. I have figures and memoranda to prove it."

"It's a lie!"

"When the land for the new park was acquired it was bought through the real estate ring, of which you are the head. The price was fixed and rushed through, and your share of the graft was over $14,000. I have proofs to go before the jury."

"Another lie!" was muttered.

"When the old jail was repaired your divvy was about $7,000."

"It wasn't seven cents!"

"On the paving done last year your ring made a clean steal of over $10,000."

"Hu!"

"Your and your friends have purchased 200 acres of land to unload on the city at three times its value as a reservoir."

"Get out of my house—all of you!" shouted the boss as he sprang up.

"Bottly does it, Mr. Kelly," replied the girl. "I have other things to mention."

"You are a traitor."

"A mistake, Mr. Kelly. Mr. Stratton is here as my lawyer, and cannot take advantage of what is said unless I decide to prosecute and furnish him certain documents. Those documents will be placed in the safe of 'The Daily Star,' to be brought out and published whenever the editor thinks the time is ripe. Is it to be war or peace?"

"Is the new paper goin' to pitch into me?"

"Not for what has happened in the past—not unless you force it. I consider that I did not get that information fairly, but 'The Star' will be on the watch in the future."

"Reform!" he sneered.

"Not at all, Mr. Kelly. It's just an experiment to see how a city can be run without a boss."

FLORIDA LADIES TO AID IN ELECTION OF WILSON

Governor Names The Leaders For Southern Wilson League

FLORIDA NEWS AND VIEWS FROM EVERY SOURCE

Daily Happenings in The Land of Flowers Culled and Tied Into a Nosegay of Brieflets

Tallahassee, Oct. 18.—Governor Gilchrist this morning received a letter from Mrs. Jane Scott Woodruff, of Jackson, Tenn., chairman of the Southern League of the Woman's National Wilson and Marshall campaign, advising that she is gathering forces for an active campaign in the south and requesting that he appoint for her two capable and active women to serve as chairman of their respective sections, and to request that they institute through the press a campaign for dollar contributions to the Women's Wilson and Marshall campaign fund. In consideration of Florida's geographical arrangement, the Governor deemed it advisable to name assistants for Mrs. Woodruff in the cities of Pensacola, Jacksonville and Tampa and accordingly wrote to Mayor Frank Reilly, Hon. W. A. Blount and Hon. Frank L. Mayes of Pensacola, Mayor W. S. Jordan, ex-Gov. W. S. Jennings and Hon. F. P. Flemming of Jacksonville, and Mayor D. B. McKay, Hon. W. F. Stovall and Hon. T. M. Wear of Tampa requesting them to confer and send to him by wire the name of a lady in each of those cities who will take an interest and who will endeavor to give active assistance to the worthy cause which Mrs. Woodruff is representing.

The Commercial Association of Pensacola is sending out invitations to attend the celebration of the running of the first train over the Gulf, Florida & Alabama Railroad on October 30. From four to six hundred people from South Alabama and West Florida are expected to attend this celebration. The interstate fair will be in progress at this time and on the night of the 30th will be held the organization meeting of the West Florida Chamber of Commerce. A record breaking crowd is expected in Pensacola on that date.

Preparations are being made by the Kaufman Metal Company to ship the largest amount of scrap iron that has ever been sent from Jacksonville. This mammoth shipment is the culmination of an eight years' collection. The amount is so great that it will take 500 cars to remove the iron to the north where a market has been found for the entire lot. There are 10,000 tons of the iron awaiting shipment.

Work will soon begin on the erection of a large two-story brick building. There will be two large store-rooms on the first floor, about eight large office rooms in front on the second floor, and a large fraternity hall back of these. The lodge room will be 50x40 and the reception room will be about 10x40. The building will have all modern conveniences.

The city of Titusville has decided to enforce the sidewalk ordinance by laying all sidewalks not already laid by the property owners and take a lien on the property for the expenses, as will be seen by its call for bids for laying approximately 15,083 feet of cement sidewalks.

A large Manatee, measuring about eight feet in length, was washed up on the beach of Biscayne Bay near the foot of First street yesterday morning. It is believed that it was killed in the Miami river last Friday or Saturday during the blasting.

An automobile line may be established between Jacksonville and St. Augustine. It is expected that a magnificent ten-passenger, sixty horse power machine will be put into daily service between these two places the coming winter.

A big religious rally was held in Dunellen last week. About fifty professions of conversion were made at the meeting.

Over seventy-five Greeks left Tarpos Springs the other day for Greece, answering the call of their country to arms.

Bulkheading Lake Front

Commercial Club Will Discuss Question Tonight

FIGURES TO BE PRESENTED

Definite Cost Will Be Given To Commercial Club And Action Will Probably Be Taken

Through the efforts of the Commercial Club and the Sanford Hotel Co., the project of bulkheading the lake front will soon assume definite shape and at the meeting tonight there will be several engineers' reports and one or two experts to give the club a practical idea on starting the great work of reclaiming this valuable land and improving our lake front. The property that will be donated by the Hotel Co. is to be bulkheaded first and from this beginning other parcels of land will be improved until the entire lake front will in a few years present an entirely different aspect and from the slovenly appearance that it now presents our front door will be swept scrupulously clean and the tourist that comes to Sanford by boat will see an unbroken front dotted here and there with club houses, fine rest houses and wholesale business.

The initial work to be done by the Commercial Club and from this small beginning great improvements will spring and the dreams of years will be realized at last. It has been the opinion of the progressive citizens of Sanford and of all our visitors for the past twenty years that if the question of bulkheading and improving the lake front could ever be solved Sanford's future would be made at once. There is no city in the United States that contains a better location than Sanford, resting on the shores of beautiful Lake Monroe, at the head of navigation on the great St. Johns, endowed bountifully by nature and yet unprotected by the hand of the artisan or assisted in any way by the citizens to make it one of the most beautiful cities in the south.

Tonight the great question will be taken up in earnest and the Commercial Club expects to be in shape to grant a contract for improving the lake front at an early date.

Bull Moose on the Job

Attempt Made to Keep Democrats From Ballots

An effort on the part of the Bull Moose managers in Florida to prevent the printing on the ballot to be used in the November election of the names of the Democratic nominees for state officers has caused considerable discussion in circles all over the state.

The constitution of the Florida Bull Moose party provides that the names of state officers to be secretary of state for the year prior to the general election, the names to be certified with the names charged that under the law it was the duty of the canvassing committee of the state Democratic party to certify to the vote of the last primary, following the canvass, but that the canvassing committee, disbanded without performing that duty. Moreover, it is claimed that Chairman Fearnside of the Democratic executive committee has no legal right to certify to the nominees chosen at the Democratic primaries, inasmuch as his official duties did not commence until after the vote was canvassed.

Uncle Sam Alarmed

Washington, Oct. 17. Officials here became thoroughly alarmed today over the imminent danger to Americans in Vera Cruz, Mexico, captured yesterday by rebels, and Beekman Windthrop, acting secretary of the Navy, ordered the cruiser Des Moines, now making her way south, to make all speed to Vera Cruz. Commander Hughes will have full power to exercise his judgment in the arrangements for protection of Americans in the district.

Telegraphic Communications Boiled Down For the Benefit of Busy Herald Readers

Athens, Oct. 18, 2:30 a. m. Greece, not wishing to detach herself from her allies, sent in instructions early this morning to the minister at Constantinople to communicate a declaration of war to the Porte. Greece at the same time sent a formal greeting to the states. Serbia was the first of the three states to declare war tonight. Bulgaria followed with a similar declaration.

Conclusion of peace between Turkey and Italy has caused a feeling of general relief because it removes the grave possibility of complications arising out of the Balkan crisis. It leaves Turkey free to prosecute war with her neighbors and enables Italy to take her place in the concert of the powers. The great European nations, under the leadership of France, are exercising every effort to localize the conflict which momentarily threatens to become general along the frontiers of Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro and Greece. The powers remain firm in their determination not to allow any change in the territorial situation in the Balkans when the war ends, no matter what may be its result. At the same time they call upon Turkey to carry out the promised reforms in her European provinces.

Eastern Star Entertains

Seminole Chapter No. 2 of the Order of Eastern Star was hostess at a very pleasant social Thursday evening at the Robbins Nest in honor of Mrs. Matha-

E. Carter of Holly Hill, State Grand Matron of the Eastern Star, who in her official capacity is making a tour of visits to each chapter in the state. Mrs. J. D. Parker, Worthy Matron of Seminole Chapter No. 2, was mistress of ceremonies. She was assisted by the members of the chapter in entertaining Mrs. Carter and the guests invited to meet the Grand Matron.

The special and most pleasing features of the evening's pleasure were the delightful piano selections and recitations charmingly given by Mrs. C. A. Randall. The fine reading, "The Social Glass," and "When I and My Loved One" by the Eastern Star were also much enjoyed.

At Mrs. Parker's request Mrs. Carter talked to the chapter and guests on the work of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Carter is a pleasing speaker, with an attractive personality. She is enthusiastic with the grandeur of the order and her work on behalf of the Eastern Star.

After Mrs. Carter's talk Mrs. J. C. Robbins, Past Grand Matron of the state, in a brief and charming speech presented the Grand Matron with a handsome silver spoon, the handle of which represented a kneeling Seminole chief from Seminole Chapter No. 2.

The testimonial was quite a surprise to Mrs. Carter, whose acceptance and appreciation were touchingly expressed. Another surprise had been prepared in a token of appreciation and love from the local chapter to Mrs. Robbins, and which Mrs. J. D. Parker presented in such fitting words. The gift was also a beautiful silver spoon, with the inscription on the handle, "Past Grand Matron, 1911-12. Mrs. Robbins, fourth month, 1912, September, which was also engraved on the spoon.

After the conclusion of this pleasant ceremony, sandwiches, olives, pickles and coffee, with cream and cake were served by Mrs. C. B. Langley, Mrs. M. J. Robertson, Mrs. E. G. Langley and Margaret Robertson.

All of the Home Society members, including Mrs. R. C. Langley, were present, and the evening's pleasure.

Congregational News

Rev. J. D. Langly will preach next Sunday morning and evening at the usual hours.

Sunday school begins now at 9:45 a. m. to give a little more time for the classes. Remember to come, and come on time if you can, but come anyway.

On Friday evening next there will be a church social at the home of C. R. Walker and the whole congregation and their friends are invited. During the summer the ladies of the church have been earning in various ways a little money for church expenses and they will each tell in rhyme how it was done. After this recital which will doubtless be interesting and unique, refreshments will be served.

Had A Narrow Escape

Rev. J. F. McKinnon was here on Monday and speaking of his accident the other day when his auto tried to push a train off the track said it was a narrow escape. His driver rounded a curve in the road and seeing an approaching train seemed to lose his head and shut off the power leaving the car partly on the tracks. In the short space of time allotted them Mr. McKinnon and the chauffeur attempted to push the car off the track but could not do so and the train struck the front part of the auto wrecking the wheels and part of the radiator. It was a very narrow escape, and while Mr. McKinnon regrets the wreck of the car he is thankful it was no worse.

Band Concert

The Sanford Band, I. N. Nash conductor will give a concert in the park pavilion on Thursday night next, Oct. 24th, at 7:30 o'clock. The band has been rehearsing every week during the summer and an attractive program will be rendered. This program will be published in the next Herald.

These concerts are under the auspices of the Sanford City Council.

COHAN SONGS GALORE

"Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway Coming to Sanford

Local theatre-goers will receive with pleasurable anticipation the announcement that Latimore & Leigh will offer at the Imperial Theatre on Nov. 9th their lavishly appointed production of George M. Cohan's popular and unique mixture of melody and comedy "Forty-five minutes from Broadway"

The play is not unlike any of the former efforts of the successful actor author, but it is different in its tone and treatment from any attraction within the memory of the present generation of play lovers and by many it is claimed to be the highest mark of quality that Mr. Cohan has yet attained. While there are a number of typical Cohan song hits introduced during the three acts and made more effective by a well balanced chorus, a well thought out story, replete with several surprises and some very strong dramatic situations, is closely adhered to throughout. The new departure in this direction is due largely to the tremendous vogue the players enjoyed in New York and Chicago, where it ran continuously for over a year with practically the same cast that will be seen here. Miss Hazle Burgess will be seen in the roll of "Mary," a servant in New Rochelle; a town exactly three-quarters of an hour distant by train from New York's main thoroughfare and in which the scene of the play is laid. Bert Leigh will be seen as "Kid Burns," the prize fighter.

Seats ready on Nov. 1th, 1912.

Knott for Comptroller

Tallahassee, Fla., Oct. 18. One of the shrewdest political tricks, apparently, which has developed in this year's political campaign is found in the fact that the Republicans have nominated on their state ticket for the office of Comptroller Mr. George C. Cronin of Florida. For about ten years prior to last February, the Comptroller of the State was Hon. A. C. Cronin of Brookline. Mr. Cronin had thousands of personal friends in Florida. He died last February and Hon. W. A. Knott was appointed by the Comptroller to succeed him. In the Democratic primary of this year Mr. Knott was nominated without opposition for the full term commencing next February. The Republican ticket was evidently taken into consideration by the voters of Mr. Cronin's state in the election of Mr. Cronin, and are trying to do themselves of Mr. Cronin's personal record to get votes for their candidate, the Comptroller. That this is a trick is already had some effect as evidenced by letters received by Mr. Knott from all over parts of the state. All Democrats should bear in mind that the Democratic candidate for Comptroller is Hon. W. A. Knott, and not be deceived by the resemblance of Mr. Cronin's name to the late Mr. Cronin's.

Mr. Knott is making a fine record as Comptroller and his hearty support should be given to the Democrat. Furthermore, the trickery piece of trickery deserves to be rebuked by the voters.

Sligh Was Not Sly

Yesterday's Orlando Reporter says

A warrant was without delay yesterday afternoon issued for the arrest of S. J. Sligh. Sligh was charged with comparing unripe citrus fruit for shipment. "The fact was announced in our yesterday's issue that Mr. Sligh would ship five car loads of Parson Brown oranges today. Yesterday afternoon Inspector DeLaney procured samples of the fruit, and made the necessary analysis, and reported to Mr. Sligh that the fruit was too green to be shipped in compliance with the green fruit law.

"When Mr. Johnson heard of the result of the analysis he swore out the warrant.

Mr. Sligh told a representative of the Reporter-Star today that he purposes to ship the fruit notwithstanding his arrest this afternoon."

Missionary Reading Circle

The Reading Circle of the Missionary Society of the Methodist church was entertained at the charming home of Mrs. J. D. Jinkins on French avenue last Tuesday afternoon.

Quite a number of the circle and four visitors were present.

The meeting was in charge of Mrs. H. A. Perry, mother of Mrs. Jinkins and third vice president of the Missionary Society, who also conducted brief devotional exercises. The circle began reading their new book, "Mormonism, the Islam of America," written by Bruce Kinny, a Baptist minister, who had lived in Utah, and who was in a position to state truths and not fancies, in his effort to show the hideousness of the skeleton in the closet of this so-called Christian country. After the reading Mrs. Mettinger and Mrs. T. A. Newton, accompanied by Mrs. C. S. Randall, sang most delightfully the beautiful duet "Lead Me Gently Home."

The meeting of the circle with Mrs. Jinkins was especially pleasant as it was the occasion of Mrs. Perry's seventieth birthday. When the song was concluded Mrs. Newton read an appropriate and beautiful tribute to Mrs. Perry, in honor of her birthday and presented her with a beautiful spray of flowers. Although the sweet tributes and many pretty and dainty tokens presented by the members of the circle and others were a great surprise to Mrs. Perry, she made a very pleasing and touching acknowledgment of her thanks and appreciation manifested by the circle and other friends. After this pleasant episode, delicious refreshments were served. The circle and visitors were most cordial and enjoyed the evening very much. Mrs. Perry, many happy returns of the day.

Norman R. Field in Sanford

The management informs us that it has been told in several places that Mr. Norman R. Field, who was a favorite here throughout the state last season, was not with the company this time. This is not true, however, as Mr. Field is still in the city and will appear at each performance during the Company's stay here.

Why this report should have been circulated is more than the management can figure out, unless it is because other Stock Companies in this section are jealous of the success of this company and have been trying to injure them in this manner.

Mr. Field is one of the owners of the Maddocks-Field Players and there would be no reason for his being in the city this time as the company are now playing to capacity, business everywhere, and Mr. Field is becoming more of a favorite every day he appears among its players. Therefore the management begs that the patrons will pay no heed to such remarks for Mr. Field is still playing the leading part in the company's success. Most respectfully.

Will Represent Fords

It will be good news to the people of this section that the Sanford Garage & Machine Co. have secured the agency of the celebrated Ford cars and will sell the latest model, and build from the factory. The targeted price is $1,200 for a touring car and every lot of agents. Mr. Higgins is expected to call on the people of this section and respect to the fact that the Ford touring car is not only much better this season in every way, but the price has been reduced despite the fact that all the accessories go with the car and no extra charge is made for the complete cars. When you buy a Ford you buy a complete car. The roadster is $870, Touring car $995, delivery wages $60. Mr. Higgins states that he has been endeavoring to get the Ford agency for some time on account of the frequent calls for this company and he takes great pleasure in announcing to the public that he now has the car for service at the very lowest price.

Our Foot Ball Team

The Sanford High School has a very good football team.

The school represents the community and the citizens are proud of its personnel.

The boys have been trying to keep up an athletic association, but find much difficulty in doing so on account of small resources.

Our team, the Sanford High School football team, has been invited to play at Jacksonville and DeLand. The conditions are to guarantee a return game if the Sanford team will not to guarantee the railroad fare and hotel bills of the team that will visit us. Our boys cannot afford to pay the expenses of visiting teams if left to the resources of the school or the athletic association.

The citizens of Sanford should feel proud of the boys and help them out.

If we are inclined to contribute to this sport it should be done at once and this paper hopes some of our citizens will become interested at once. Look the boys up and consult with them.

SOME IMPRESSIONS AND EXPERIENCES OF A TRIP TO OLD ENGLAND

Any one that keeps up at all with the present day automobile world is familiar with the fame of the Brooklands Track.

When the writer left this country for England, he was determined to see some racing on the famous track if such a thing were possible.

The Brooklands Track is situated in the little suburb of London known as Weybridge.

Reaching Weybridge a short walk led to the great enclosure, miles in length, through whose gates one is admitted for the sum of half a crown.

Many of England's nobility and a large number of the country's best drivers are members of the Brooklands Automobile Racing Club.

For this particular race meet there were no less than one hundred and seventy entries.

The race card showed no less than twelve races, so it will not be possible to say much about each of them.

The first race was for cars of the same make (Zebras, all being exactly alike and having only one cylinder engine of only 45 horse power.

The second event was for cars under 20 horse power and was won by a 125 hp. Stover, which did the 2 1/2 miles at the rate of 60 1/2 m. p. h.

The third event was for motorcycles and there were about twenty-five in the race. To some this was the most interesting part of the meet.

The fourth race, for cars that had done over 10 m. p. h. offered some real excitement, and proved the nerve of one of the drivers.

wreaths of broom, hawthorne and wild flowers torn from the fringe of the track in passing.

The fifth race was for cars that could do a hundred miles per hour or better, and gave an opportunity not only to see some fine speed but one of the most miraculous escapes a driver ever had.

Cambell in a big high powered Darracq, with several others were coming off the high bank and turning into the straight away to the finish line, when Cambell, in order to take advantage of his outside position, was steering his big Darracq rather wide.

It appeared for a moment that Cambell had just cleared this, but appearances were deceptive. His off side front wheel struck it a shivering blow and the next second was hurling itself into fragments.

Another racer, a Mercedes, having crossed the line was checked and resulting the application of the brakes, turned completely around and was traveling backwards when stopped.

The next race was interesting to the writer principally because Lord Exmouth driving his own Spanish built Hispano-Suiza figured in the finish, winning third place at a speed of about 60 miles per hour.

The seventh race would have been won by a big Benz racer but for engine trouble. Another car, a Sunbeam, created a mild sensation by coming along the track with a crowd of flames issuing from the hood.

The next two races were fast and interesting, though nothing happened except that in the first of them a motorcycle racer, a front tire burst, the rider was thrown to the cement surface while going at the rate of about seventy miles an hour and was carried to the track hospital with a fractured skull.

The tenth race was interesting to an American, because it was for Ford cars exclusively, and the Sanfordites that possess these hardy little cars may be proud of the fact that they made a speed of 57 miles an hour, exactly as they came from the Ford factory.

The eleventh race was a runaway for a Calthrop racer, and the twelfth was made up of all the winners of the previous races including the motorcycle, a Ridge, but for his failing to turn in at the straight and continuing around another lap, thus throwing away the race and a valuable purse.

The program was to have been completed by an aeroplane race, but the high wind that prevailed prevented the hard-ner's flying. By this time it was almost dark, for this was rather a long and ambitious program.

One other interesting feature of the whole affair was the procession of the finest cars that England could boast that began to fly around the track as soon as it was vacated by the racers.

By the time the race special pulled

Come to the Opening of Florida's Greatest Department Store

On next Monday—October 21st—the New Cohen Store opens its doors to the people of Florida, and the entire week will long be remembered by those who come.

The new store, occupying an entire city block, is the largest institution of its kind in the South.

Everything in the building is NEW—close to a half million dollars' worth of fresh Fall merchandise is spread out for your selection.

The newest fashions from the Old World, as well as from our own United States, will be shown upon living models.

Music will be rendered each day, thus adding in splendor to this grand Autumn fête.

The store's own electric light plant will pour out perfect light as evening's shadows begin to fall.

A Parcel Room, where you may check luggage or packages, is at your disposal.

Rest Rooms, with big arm chairs, comfortable rockers, writing tables, stationery and current magazines, afford a meeting place for you and your friends.

An Emergency Room, fitted with every known appliance, is at your service—should one become ill or fatigued.

Old Settlers' Meeting

The "Old Settlers," about seventy-five strong, assembled in the Fair Grounds yesterday, where the day was most pleasantly and profitably spent.

This organization is composed of about three hundred members, but owing to the fact that invitation cards had not been sent out, the meeting was rather poorly attended.

This organization is of a historical nature, a family record being made of each member, and these records to be written in a book and filed with the records of the county for perpetual preservation, thus rendering it a historical landmark.

had not been signed yet.

Addresses were delivered by C. E. Howard and J. N. Whitner, both being prominent lines, in which many interesting stories were told of the earlier pioneers of this section.

When the noon hour arrived it was found that the tables were laden with good things to eat.

The meeting was adjourned subject to the call of the executive committee.—Reporter-Star.

O'Neal for President

Rev. J. F. McKinnon of Orlando, county school board superintendent of Orange county, tells a good story to illustrate the general activity of W. R. O'Neal, one of Orlando's leading citizens, and Republican candidate for governor just at present.

Mr. O'Neal is postmaster at Orlando and takes a leading part in many of the city's activities, being prominent in business and society as well as in politics.

"I was making a tour through the city schools recently," said Mr. McKinnon. "To test the knowledge of the children on matters of current comment, I asked who was president of the country in all of the rooms where it might be supposed the children were old enough to read the newspapers.

"In most of the rooms the reply was correct, but in two of them the answer came back quick and sharp:

"Mr. O'Neal." "It was a wonderful tribute to the activity and prominence of Mr. O'Neal."—Tampa Times.

THE ACCEPTED TIME

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the city.

Politics, base ball and all other forms of amusement and recreation should be pushed to the background when the question of doing something for your city is paramount. At no time within the past twenty years has there been such a generous response from every progressive citizen of Sanford to come forward and put his shoulder to the wheel and push forward. The spirit has been spontaneous and The Herald hopes it will not be spasmodic. There is work to do, man's work and every one of us will have to do his share. Not only will it take money, time and energy, but the best there is in every one of us. It will take most of all the real spirit that makes cities, that makes improvements and surmounts difficulties regardless of their height. We need the spirit of encouragement in our efforts. The lagging brother must be stimulated to greater efforts. The stay at home must be aroused to the importance of taking a man's part in the making of a Greater Sanford. Deeds and not words are what will count for something in the next year and each meeting of the Commercial Club should be an outpouring of progressive citizens who come by their own volition and attend the meetings with the determination of not only assisting their friends and neighbors and arousing a more friendly feeling in business and social circles. In other words the Commercial Club should not only be a place for the transaction of business of vital importance, but also a place where all the business men of Sanford can meet on an equal footing and pass pleasant and profitable evenings.

SEE THAT YOU ARE THERE TONIGHT.

—O—

Ye editor and daughter, Miss Alice Bell, visited Monday one of the prettiest cities in the state—Sanford, the noted celery section. The residence portion is especially beautiful. We called on Brother Holly of The Herald, and through his suggestion Mrs. Holly gave us a delightful spin in her auto around and through the beautiful streets. Sanford has a population of about 5,000, situated in one of the richest spots in the state, and must be seen to be appreciated. It is inhabited by a good class of citizens, including Editor Holly, and if W. W. Abernathy, the furniture man is a sample of the business men, Sanford is entitled to the best of both worlds and courteous treatment. —The Herald

Tariff Makes High Cost

That the Beef Trust and other trusts controlling our food supply are enabled by the tariff wall, to charge from 50 to 100 per cent more to the New York consumer than the prices that obtain in London, is made plain from the comparative figures obtained by the Committee on Exhibits of the Democratic National Committee. The Committee has sent an agent to London, to purchase American-made goods for the Tariff Chamber of Horrors. He has sent to the Committee the prices of meats, butter, eggs and sugar in the retail markets at London for a certain date. On the same day, by prearrangement, representatives of the Committee got prices for similar articles in New York. Abram J. Elkus, Chairman of the Committee, made the list public Sunday. The difference in price is particularly apparent in beef. The London prices were obtained from high class shops on Bedford street and Tottenham Court Road. The New York prices were averaged from the figures of several moderate-priced butchers and grocers.

"Our figures are absolutely unanswerable," declared Mr. Elkus. "They prove how the high tariff multiplies at every meal."

Congressman William C. Redfield, the Democratic Tariff expert, in commenting on the prices and explaining them, said:

"The cold facts concerning the difference in the prices of food on the same day in New York and London ought to open the eyes of every working man, indeed, of every consumer but especially those of modest means to current conditions. When a city household goes to market in New York, she pays 24 cents per pound for the same roast beef that her London sister buys at 14 cents. If she wishes to provide her husband with a sirloin steak she can only do it by paying more than double the price at which on that day it is sold in England. It is interesting to note that on ham the difference in price is almost exactly the amount of the duty with which we tax that food of 4 cents a pound, and that the cost of eggs is lower in Great Britain by rather more than the duty of 5 cents a dozen. We impose also a duty on butter and cheese of 6 cents per pound.

When will our working people learn the error of taxing their ordinary articles of food? It would seem as if this exposition taken under such striking conditions and with such exact and careful comparisons should destroy once and for all the illusion of prosperity rising from the tariff.

Will Advertise Sanford

Through the efforts of the local advertising committee the city of Sanford will be advertised as never before and the advertising matter will not as formerly be confined to any one part of the Sanford section but will embrace all of our resources. The city proper will come in for a more generous share and the advantages of Sanford as a tourist and health resort will be exploited in every manner possible. The advertising committee is hard at work on compiling good matter and will obtain the best results if experience counts for anything. There will be no lavish display but solid facts embellished by beautiful cuts and our city will be the most talked about in the next few months of any city in the south. We have the advantages and by systematic advertising expect to place these advantages before the people.

Hastings Rice Mill
Hastings, Oct. 17.—The city is to soon have the distinction of an erected and operated rice plant. A combined number of the rice planters have ordered a rice plant shipped in, and for the time being it will be operated in the old Flagler barn, now owned by T. R. Byrd. This plant will be equipped with a thrasher, chaff blower, huller and polisher and will turn out the finished product. It will be located right on the railroad, and convenient for rice growers outside to ship their paddy to the mill. The finished product will be placed on the market as soon as possible to test its selling quality or grade as compared to the standard grades now bought and sold. The mill will be in operation in a few days, and it is firmly believed that the tests will prove satisfactory in every way.

Geneva Party Here
Mrs. J. Q. Adams, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Curlett and Mrs. Pattinall, under the chaperonage of J. P. Musselwhite formed a merry party from Geneva today and were pleasant callers at The Herald office.

The Lawyer Detective
Among the plays to be presented by the Maddocks-Field Players during their engagement at the Imperial is one which has proven a winner in all the surrounding cities, and one in which the old favorite, Happy Jack Kearney plays his title role.

The Lawyer Detective is full of comedy, at the same time having a neat love story interwoven and a good plot. The part of the lawyer is especially suited to Mr. Kearney and is one of the best parts he has been cast for during his many visits here. This is a play which will appeal to the masses and one which is a tried success in all the larger cities. It has also proved a successful starring vehicle for a number of comedians. The Maddocks-Field Players have the entire southern rights for this play and will produce it in all its entirety during their engagement at the Imperial.

Names Not on Ballot
Most of the Democratic papers of the state are now printing what purports to be the list of Democratic candidates for state offices, which will appear on the official ballot at the November election. It has been noticed that practically all of the papers are including in such a list the Democratic nominees for adjutant general, Hon. J. R. C. Foster, and the Democratic nominee for state chemist, Hon. R. E. Rose. The adjutant general and the state chemist are appointive officers and their names will not be printed on the official ballot for the November election. No board of county commissioners in making up the ballots for their county, should include the adjutant general and the state chemist. Such names on the ticket might invalidate the ballots. The newspapers should also eliminate these offices from the list of candidates which they are printing to be voted for at the November election. The continued publication of the names of these nominees may have a tendency to confuse the voters.

The Naval Review
Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Papworth, formerly of Sanford, have an apartment at Hotel Newton, New York City, the upper stories of which present a good view of the Hudson River. Mrs. Papworth writes her father, M. F. Robinson, as follows:
"Harry and I have just returned from Riverside Drive where we went to see the fleet illuminated. Enclosed find a map of the ships as they are anchored in the river. The Utah is opposite us and we can see her from our windows. Each ship is as long as a city block and you cannot possibly conceive how beautiful they are outlined in electricity masts and all. The Drive is also festooned with electric lights and flags. The spectacle is gorgeous. Automobiles and pedestrians throng the way, and over all the long shearing search lights from the torpedo boats appeared like long arms in the sky.

Yesterday Saturday all the officers, sailors and marines from all the ships paraded by here. Seven thousand men. We asked our friends, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, to view the parade from our windows. We had regular "box seats" all right. The men came off the boats just above here at 96th street, and were just in good marching form with all the bands playing when they went by here.

After the parade was over we played bridge and I served tea and things. Mrs. Campbell said I had furnished the most expensive private entertainment she had ever attended. Even Mrs. Astor, though she could hire a whole opera troupe to entertain her guests at Newport never was ambitious enough to engage seven thousand magnificently drilled performers and several dozen brass bands."

Notice to the Public
The habit of children and irresponsible people of coming out to our property and picking oranges by the bushel and selling them, breaking down trees and otherwise making such proceedings a nuisance and crime by trespass and the Sanford Heights property having been properly posted according to law all parties caught on any of this property from this date without written permission from the owners will be summarily dealt with according to law. This action becomes necessary because of the wanton destruction of property and stealing of oranges, which according to a law recently enacted, is a crime and punishable by law.

SANFORD THE BOSTON FLORIDA

Peabody Memorial

There occurred an event at Macon, Ga., today, tinged both with sadness and gratification and pride to many friends in Sanford, and especially to the family of E. Prentice Peabody, in the laying of the cornerstone of the "Peabody Memorial," a testimonial to the memory of E. Prentice Peabody of the great esteem, respect and love of his fellow workers in the State Epworth League of Georgia, of which he was president for three years and at the time of his tragic death at Waveross, Ga., several years ago, he was the secretary. The memorial will be a school for the orphans of Georgia and the inmates of the Orphans' Home which is located there.

The future benefits and results which may be accomplished through the instrumentality of this school will be a fadeless and deathless tribute to the memory of a good man, whose works will live after him.

The second son of the late E. W. Peabody and Mrs. S. M. Peabody of this city, Prentice was well known and loved.

... to the fact that they were together for a long time, and that they were married. He was the son of Mr. H. Peabody, who succeeded him as secretary of the State Epworth League of Georgia, and with their three children still residing in Waveross.

Not a Poisoned Bullet

Milwaukee, Oct. 17. All fear that the bullet with which the Colonel was shot had been poisoned against him today were set at rest by Prof. E. W. Summer, an analytical chemist, who stated that a chemical analysis of the bullet which John Schrank shot Colonel Roosevelt Monday night. A solution made by Prof. Summer from scrapings from the bullet and the empty shell, was innocuous.

... to safety, toward the mental condition of the prisoner and as the first step in the preparation of his case. At the time General Zuel has engaged the services of three advocates to examine Schrank.

... been made public. Sheriff Arnold said Schrank has not attempted to pass anything that has been written, out of his cell. Until he does this the sheriff will not avail himself of the privilege of substituting any other man for him. The letters found on Schrank after he had started for Richmond, Roosevelt said, were innocuous.

Another Richmond

Mexico City, Oct. 17. Gen. Diaz, brother of General Porfirio Diaz, the deposed President of Mexico, raised the banner of rebellion at Vera Cruz today. He entered the city with 500 men and seized the arsenal and garrison. Col. Diaz Ordaz was in command of the garrison, which comprised 500 of the Twenty-first infantry and one six gun battery.

Diaz then placed men in charge of the two gun boats Tampico and Bravo, lying in the harbor. Mexicans here appeared generally elated at the uprising. Later reports are that General Diaz found many adherents when he entered Vera Cruz. The government has been informed that the nineteenth infantry and the artillery remain loyal. The two forces are now in the city of Vera Cruz and street fighting is imminent. President Madero has ordered the mobilizing of 3,000 regulars to proceed against Gen. Diaz.

Palatka the Place

Palatka, Oct. 17. Secretary W. B. Royster and Charles Burt, members of the committee appointed by the board of trade of Palatka to attend the Atlantic to Mississippi waterways convention at Albany, Ga., wired the Times-Union representative late this afternoon as follows: "Palatka wins next convention over all competitors unanimously." The capture of this big gathering of deep water advocates is a signal distinction for Palatka and one in which all Palatkans will take great pride. To the indefatigable efforts of the board of trade representatives this very desirable consummation was brought about.

Plan to ship your truck early

HOW to get it out early is no secret, for those truckers who have been in the business longest agree that it is almost wholly a matter of supplying quickly available fertilizers.

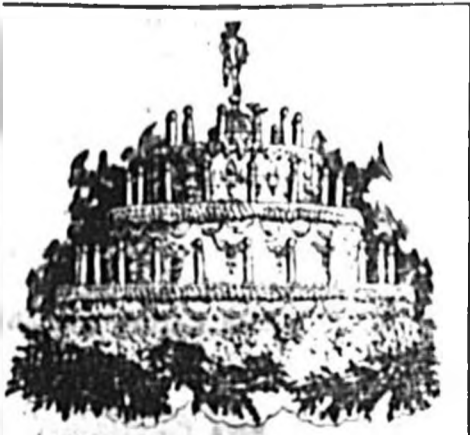

BRADLEY'S FERTILIZERS

are this sort of fertilizer. They supply quickly available plant food in the best forms, not only to start off the crop quickly and keep it growing vigorously, but to back it up through the season, and to ripen and harden off the product. It is this sort of combination that has brought success to many Florida truckers in the past thirty years and for this reason they swear by

MOORE'S STATION

Sunday, the 20th, is the day, Rev. C. H. Summers will preach here again. Mr. Summers expects to spend a few days calling and visiting among the people in the near future.

The Farmers' Progressive Club debate on Woman's Suffrage last Friday evening was well attended and the debate was fine, to quote what those in attendance said of it. From the points given by the speakers the judges decided for the negative side. The question was well and ably discussed on both sides and showed much careful research and thought. Mrs. Edward Repp sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Ella Greenland, and the quilt drawing took place. The Ladies' Aid realized the sum of $10.00 for the quilt, which money will go into the fund towards painting the new church.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. J. C. Vaughn this week at her home on Celery avenue. Miss Alice's birthday occurred on the same date and a number of young friends were entertained and dainty refreshments were served to all. E. A. Gilbert and family have moved into the Avins house, now owned by the Florida Gardens Co.

Duncan Mitchell and Fred Cowan, Jr., are at home after spending several months at Norwalk.

We were misinformed in regard to the relatives of the Hasty family, recently arrived from North Carolina. Instead of remaining here they are now residing in Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Worthington are preparing to move to Tampa this week to make their home. Mr. Worthington will return here again shortly to finish up some business before leaving permanently.

The duck hunters' guns make a great banging these mornings, Sundays included.

PAOLA POINTS

Mrs. A. T. Lipford returned Friday after spending a few weeks in Tampa with her daughter, Mrs. Oliver.

Frank A. W. Brown, who spent a winter here several years ago, and is well remembered by his many friends, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Buchanan. The big Wild West Show in Orlando next Tuesday is causing quite a lot of excitement here and a few expect to take it in.

Miss Lola Gresham made a flying trip to Sanford Saturday and came back happier for seeing quite a number of her Geneva friends.

Miss Florence Thompson, now of Sanford was out over Sunday to cheer up the old folks at home.

Repair work seems to be going on in some of our houses and we are in hopes they will all be full this winter.

Charley Chilson has returned to resume his work at the Bothamly mill, after staying the summer with his people at Knights.

GENEVA JOTTINGS

Mrs. G. A. Nicholson and grandson, Ira Tills are visiting in Sanford.

Regular services conducted at the Methodist church Sunday conducted by the pastor, Rev. D. A. Cole.

Last Monday evening the sad news went forth that God had called to Himself our beloved young friend, Mildred Rehinder. While lying sick in the hospital this gentle young girl gave her heart to God, was baptized and received into the Presbyterian church. We who always knew and loved her feel that her innocent, unassuming ways were always those of a Christian. We all loved gentle "Millie" and we will miss her greatly. We mingle our tears with those of her grief stricken parents and brother and extend to them our great sympathy in their sorrow. Comfort can only come from One who said, "Blessed are they that mourn." The funeral services were held at Geneva cemetery Tuesday morning, conducted by Rev. C. A. Saunders. The casket was covered with beautiful flowers, loving tributes of friends. The choir sang, Asleep in Jesus, Sweet By and By and In the Hour of Trial. We leave dear little Millie in God's keeping, knowing that she is free from all troubles in His tender care, and that we have one more friend on the other side.

Miss Sallie Taylor, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. W. L. Taylor, returned to Orlando Saturday.

We are very sorry to learn that Miss Mayme McLain is quite sick.

Cards have been received by friends at Geneva, announcing the birth of another little son to Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Baxter of Gainesville. Mrs. Baxter was formerly Miss Ruth Huddleston.

Mrs. Charles Harrison was the hostess of the M. M. S. society last Thursday afternoon. As usual a very pleasant time was spent. Mrs. Harrison served ice cream and cake for refreshments. She was assisted by Miss Belle Eichner and Miss Blanche Pattishall.

Horace Raulerson, who was seriously ill with tonsillitis last week is much better, and is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George Mattheux.

Buda school opened Monday. The children all seem glad to resume their studies again.

Mrs. Claude Raulerson, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Geo. Peters, Mrs. Victor Peters and Mrs. Adams were dinner guests of Mrs. T. D. Peters last Friday.

Miss Belle Eichner is visiting Miss Mamie Harris of Winter Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Hart had a few friends for dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Rehinder and Leo Rehinder take this means of expressing their thanks for the many kindnesses and loving sympathy shown them by their kind neighbors and friends during the recent illness and death of their beloved daughter and sister.

LAKE MARY NEWS

J. G. Martin had the misfortune to have a snake bite his hand one day last week, while tearing out a rat's nest. The snake evidently was hunting something to eat and resented the intrusion. No bad results followed, except Mr. Martin had a sore finger for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Erickson and son, Mrs. Bartelson and Mrs. Magnuson, all from Upsala, spent the day here last week visiting friends.

Miss Vivian Brown and Miss Gibbons from Tampa, who have been spending several days with the former's aunt, Mrs. J. G. Martin, have gone to Jacksonville to visit friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Keely have returned from a pleasant trip in the southern part of the state.

Mrs. Julia Martin and Miss Mittie Bray spent the day shopping in Sanford last Saturday.

Rev. Samuel McBride has just closed a series of successful revival meetings over at Upsala.

OVIDEO OCCURRENCES

Messrs. Findley and Dan Hodges of Sanford were the guests of Rev. Smith last Wednesday. They had spent some days at their old home in Christmas and were en route to Sanford with their auto freighted with chickens and beautiful box flowers. Miss Martha King has resumed her school work in the high school in Kissimmee. She has recently been given more difficult work in that department, but will, we are sure, make a success of it, as she is a very efficient teacher.

Miss Agnes Fox of Sanford has been visiting relatives in town the past week.

Mrs. R. G. Smith is enjoying a hard some new Kimball piano.

G. G. Coward of Christmas was in town last Wednesday.

Rev. E. Lee Smith preached at Winter Garden Sunday to an attentive audience.

Wm. Cushman and wife of Callahan are the guests of his brother, T. L. Cushman and wife. He has recently returned from Canada, where he went for his charming bride, who is an accomplished lady. Mr. and Mrs. Cushman are negotiating and it is thought they will locate in Orange county.

Mr. Pendrel, representing the Clyde Lane is in town looking after the fruit shipments. Captain Brannon returned from Clayton, Ga., where he had his daughters, who spent some time enjoying the salubrious climate of the mountains. They are very fond of their twins which have grown a great deal during their absence, and all are glad to have them at home again. Mr. Duffey of Jacksonville is in charge of Capt. Brannon's train during his absence.

Dedication of Olustee Monument

on E. M. Law, chairman, D. W. Fletcher, secretary, and the committee of the Olustee Monument Commission, visited the battlefield last Thursday the 10th inst., and completed the arrangements for the dedication of the monument on Wednesday, the 14th inst. heretofore announced, at which time the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans of Florida will be in session at Lake City, about ten miles from the site of the monument. ### A Modern Hero Albert E. Martin, Colonel Roosevelt's stenographer, whose quick attention in fringing on the Colonel's assailant at Milwaukee and preventing him in firing a second shot, was a former football player and Schrank was no match for him. He tried desperately to pull the trigger of his weapon, but Martin held the barrel pointed harmlessly toward the sky. Cochems and a special policeman wrenched the gun away from Schrank and then the angry crowd surged forward.

Martin is 29 years old and a native of Manchester, Vt., now living at 644 West 143rd street, New York. He joined the Roosevelt staff Aug. 11 by the simple process of walking into Progressive headquarters and asking for a job. He was given it and soon after was made the Colonel's personal stenographer. Col. Roosevelt likes aggressive men around him. "That young man looks as if he had the punch," he said of Martin, and how the stenographer made good was shown the other night. Martin was married this summer. He not only is an expert stenographer, having graduated in the class of 1912 from Detroit college. He was admitted to the bar in Lansing, Mich.

TAXING POOR MAN'S COAT OFF HIS BACK

Concrete Illustration of What a Republican Tariff Really Means Causes Workers to Think.

Concrete examples of how a protective tariff operates are causing the working man, the "poor man," to do a lot of thinking nowadays. He is beginning to understand whether it is not about time to call a halt on the Republican practice of taxing the coat off his back and threatening him with the loss of his shirt and his socks if he does not submit.

All through the present tariff law, passed by a Republican congress and endorsed by a Republican President as THE BEST TARIFF BILL EVER PASSED, are to be found discriminations, the higher duty on the cheaper article, the lower on the shoulders of those least able to bear it the greater burden of the protective system. Here are some illustrations:

- The cheapest wool blankets bear a duty of 165.42 per cent.; the dearest, 104.55 per cent.
- Flannels, not more than 40 cents a pound, are taxed at 143.67 per cent.; over 70 cents a pound, 76.37 per cent.
- Wool plushes, cheapest, 141.75 per cent.; dearest, 95.33 per cent.
- Knit fabrics, cheapest, 141 per cent.; dearest, 95.53 per cent.
- Stockings, worth from $1 to $1.50 a dozen, 76.37 per cent.; from $2 to $3, 59 per cent.
- Hats and bonnets, worth not over $5 a dozen, 62 per cent.; over $20 a dozen, 35 per cent.
- Carpets, highest priced, 50 per cent.; that used for mats and rugs, 126.88 per cent.
- Women's gloves, unlined, 49 per cent.; lined, 34 per cent.; longest gloves, unlined, 42 per cent.; lined, 29 per cent.
- Men's gloves, worth less than $3 a dozen, 66.23 per cent.; costliest gloves 14.45 per cent.; leather unlined, 44.58 per cent.; lined, 29.50 per cent.
- Buckles, cheapest, 77.48 per cent.; dearest, 26.3 per cent.
- Uncut diamonds bear a 10 per cent duty, imitation diamonds, 20 per cent.
- The humble firecracker bears a 97.03 per cent duty while elaborate fireworks bear but 70 per cent.
- Mattings, smaller and cheaper grades, 43 per cent.; costlier, 34 per cent.
- Watch movements, seven jewels, 66.02 per cent.; 11 jewels, 40.41 per cent.; 17 jewels, 34.45 per cent.
- Underwear, cheapest, 56.90 per cent.; dearest, 50 per cent.
- Dress goods of wool, cheapest, 106.42 per cent.; dearest, 94.13 per cent.
- Velvets, cheapest, 106.22 per cent.; dearest, 49.55 per cent.
- Silk handkerchiefs cheapest, 77.44 per cent.; dearest, 59 per cent.
- Scissors, worth 50 cents a dozen, 51.21 per cent.; worth $1.75 a dozen, 44 per cent.
- Table knives, fancy grades, 57.40 per cent.; bone handled, 69.43 per cent.
- Butcher knives best grades 12.10 per cent.; cheapest grades, 93.55 per cent.
- Files, smallest, 81.39 per cent.; longest, 36.81 per cent.
- Shot guns, worth from $5 to $10, 47.67 per cent.; worth over $10, 45.46 per cent.

These are only a part of the discriminations gleaned from a swift conning of some of the schedules. Reduced to simplest terms they mean that the poor man is taxed higher than the rich man.

The Third Term candidate's favor his reply to the telling unanswerable arguments of Gov. Wilson is that the latter's opinions are based "not on actual knowledge and experience but by reading musty books on political economy." The Colonel himself at a tender age was put at hard labor! It is not often that a man whose whole life has been given up to politics and office-holding gets as horny handed as Mr. Roosevelt in the ranks of labor and high finance!

State Closes Case

New York, Oct. 17.—The state rested its case today in the trial of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker on a charge of conspiracy to murder Rosenthal. Becker is the gambler. The case against the defense will begin tomorrow when John Hart, Becker's counsel, will make his opening address. If Becker has his way, Hart said, he will go on the stand in his own behalf. Whether his counsel will attempt to dissuade him has not been determined tonight.

The defense has indicated it will endeavor to prove a clique of gamblers inspired the murder of Rosenthal and Becker is the victim of a conspiracy. Former District Attorney Jerome will be one of a dozen or more witnesses whom the defense plans to call. Mr. Jerome is expected by Becker's counsel to break down a portion of the testimony of Jack Rose in connection with an alleged telephone communication with Becker introduced by the state to show that Becker had guilty knowledge of the crime.

FLORIDA IS THE MECCA FOR NORTHERN FOLKS

Papers Are Devoting Space To State's Many Attractions

FLORIDA NEWS AND VIEWS FROM EVERY SOURCE

Daily Happenings in The Land of Flowers Culled and Tied Into a Nosegay of Brieflets

Nothing is so indicative of the future prosperity of Florida than the wide notice this state is receiving from the newspapers. Nearly every large daily in the north is devoting space to extolling the virtues of this state and the opportunities for commercial success. As an example an editorial in the Cincinnati Inquirer of the 27th inst. may be cited. The editorial, in part, is as follows:

"Already throughout the northern states there is discernible the commencement of a great tide of travel to the Gulf states of the south, particularly in the state of Florida. Real estate dealers in the states of the northwest report constant inquiries from their patrons for southern lands, while those of the south are being visited by many persons who are already upon the ground, desirous of purchasing tracts of land in those states which they believe are to be speedily benefited by the opening of the Panama Canal.

In St. Petersburg the Woman's Town Improvement Association is having plans made for a children's playground. The place selected for the grounds is at the beach, near the American Woman's League building, and it is proposed to have the place so arranged that children can play there at any time. Apparatus for physical exercise and games will be established and the place kept in order. The money necessary for the work is to be contributed by business people and the woman's association does not apprehend any trouble in securing the funds needed. The idea is certainly a good one and the women should succeed.

Bradford county will hold its fair November 7 and 8 in Starke and in connection therewith will be held the contests of the Boys' Corn Club and the Girls' Tomato Club. Committees have been at work since June endeavoring to secure premiums and exhibits for the fair and have been successful in arousing the interest of many contestants.

J. R. Sewell is planting an acre and a half of strawberries north of the Methodist church on sub-irrigated land. He is planting Klondike and Excelsior varieties and they are doing nicely. There is no reason why Winter Garden should not grow as fine strawberries as Lakeland and there are hundreds of acres about here that are suitable for garden culture.

A new company has applied for a charter for the mining of phosphate rock in Hernando and Citrus counties. The new concern will be known as the American Hardrock Phosphate Company and will be capitalized at $300,000. Tampa will be the home of the company and the rock will be shipped from that point.

News comes from St. Petersburg that the Sunbline City is to have a real white way. More than 100 poles have been received and some of them are in place. Most of the illumination will be on Central avenue.

Mrs. J. S. Tinder has had on display in her office window this past week a small branch from a grape fruit tree. What has attracted attention is that this small branch holds 24 well formed and matured grapefruit. It was taken from a grove south of town.—Delray Progress.

Trip Around the World

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a trip around the world next Tuesday, Oct. 29. The trip will be by automobile and will leave America (Abernathy's) from 7 to 9 p. m. Ireland will be L. R. Phillips' residence. Japan (Mrs. J. D. Roberts), Cuba (Mrs. Shinholser's), Iceland, (Mrs. F. W. Miller's).

Single tickets around the world 50 cents, includes refreshments and entertainment in each country. On account of the war there will be no trips to Turkey or Greece.

WILL ADVERTISE SANFORD

Commercial Club Will Start an Active Campaign at Once

Sanford will start an active advertising campaign at once, despite the fact that the season is late. There are so many inquiries coming in every day from people who wish to learn about Florida that our literature has given out long ago and the club decided at their meeting last Friday night to start a campaign at once. The opinion of the majority present seemed to be that the season was too late now to advertise on a large scale, but that 500 copies of The Herald would be taken in three months' subscriptions and sent out to people who wish to locate in Florida, giving them a good idea of our every day life and the many improvements being made here and a history of the growing of vegetables during the winter season, the building of the new hotel, brick paving of country roads, health conditions and every thing and anything that will be of interest to a prospective homeseeker or tourist. Booklets, pamphlets and post cards will follow and the money will be used judiciously and wisely, and in connection with this advertising the real estate men will show stereopticon views in the principal cities of Florida and other states.

In all our city will come in for a large share of advertising and back Sanford will again become the household word that it was a few years ago and our city will soon be filled with an army of homeseekers and tourists.

Hallowe'en Masquerade

The young people of Sanford are evincing much enthusiasm over the plans for the Hallowe'en Dance and the members of the Lend-a-Hand Club are encouraged over the sale of the tickets.

It has been decided to give prizes for the most effective costumes, a gentleman and a lady's prize. The judges will be Mrs. M. Martin, Mrs. Geo. H. Fernald and Mr. B. F. Whitner. Mr. Karnatz of the Imperial will rent costumes for any gentleman applying to him by Wednesday night of this week.

The sale of tickets is not confined to the dancing people, but many others will go as spectators.

An excellent supper will be served during the intermission, the price of which will be included in the ticket.

Resolutions

Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to visit the family of our beloved brother, J. M. McCorkle and take from him his wife, whom we all knew to be a devoted wife and loving mother, and who is missed very much by all who knew her. But we know God does all things well. Therefore,

Be it resolved, that Sanford Lodge, No. 27, I. O. E. F., extend to the brother our heartfelt sympathy, and be it resolved that we set aside a page in the minutes of our lodge, upon which shall be inscribed the memorial.

Resolved, further, That as an evidence of our sympathy with the stricken family an engraved copy of this memorial be sent the family and a copy to the Sanford Herald for publication.

G. E. TARATUS,
J. H. FERGUSON,
W. S. BALDWIN,
Committee.

More Street Paving

The city council has ordered the clerk to write for prices on vitrified brick for the paving of Ninth street from Park avenue to the new depot. This means that Ninth street will become one of the principal thoroughfares and will be paved with brick as soon as the city council can arrange for the brick. If possible the work will be done by home people, keeping the money at home and saving considerable of the cost. With Ninth street paved with brick Sanford will have almost five miles of brick paved streets, which is the record for interior cities in the south.

THE CITY WILL BULKHEAD

This Great Work to Be Fostered By Municipality

ORDER PLANS AND MEANS

If the Project Can Be Accomplished By the City Same Will Be Done at Early Date

Now that the city council is taking up the matter of bulkheading the lake front and giving the matter their earnest attention there is no doubt about this great improvement being done in a short time. The committee recently appointed by President Lake of the Commercial Club to meet and confer with the city council lost no time in doing so, and with the chairman, D. L. Thrasher, were all present at the meeting of council last night and laid their petition for bulkheading before the members. The matter was most favorably received and it was the sense of the council that the matter would be taken up at once. Wishing to be within their rights and the law in the matter the committee was informed that the matter would be discussed with the city attorney and after the committee left the council took up the matter of the city fostering the idea and the city attorney, Hon. Geo. A. Detottis was instructed to look into the legal status and with the city engineer to confer with government experts and in a few days the matter will be adjusted satisfactorily. If the city can take up this matter and make it a municipal enterprise the solution of the affair is in sight. According to estimates already furnished the work will not cost much when the great benefits to be derived are considered and in early start on the work means the hotel and the Commercial Club front are another season rolls regard.

The city council is to be congratulated upon their good work in this respect and it demonstrates that they are willing and anxious to start all these great improvements at once and far from being reactionary they are a bunch of progressives and expect to give the people a good report of their stewardship.

Walker-Douglass

Last night at eight thirty at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Goodhue, Miss Mary Walker and Mr. Vasco Douglass were united in matrimony.

Rev. C. H. Summers of the Methodist church officiated and only the immediate family and a few friends were present at the ceremony. After the solemn words were pronounced that made them man and wife and congratulations showered upon them, the guests were served refreshments in the dining room and made merry until a late hour as the bride and groom were to wait at midnight on their wedding journey.

They will visit Atlanta, Augusta and several points in Georgia and after Nov. 1st will be at home to their many friends at the Goodhue home on Park avenue.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. C. L. Goodhue and has been a resident of Sanford since early childhood and by her friendly spirit and gracious manner has endeared herself to a large circle of friends in this city, in Winter Park where she attended Rollins College and in other cities where she has visited.

Mr. Douglass formerly resided in Orlando and is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Douglass. He has been a resident of Sanford for a year or more and in that time has won the respect and esteem of business associates and friends. He is a young man of excellent character and business ability and at present is engaged in the store of the Sanford Shoe & Clothing Co., as bookkeeper and salesman and is most popular with everyone.

The many friends of the young couple wish them long life and happiness on their embarkation upon the sea of life in which the Herald heartily joins.

Miami's board of trade has received a communication from the canal zone in which parties are discussing the proposition to raise coconuts for market. The inquirer asks for information regarding the possibility of raising coconuts at Miami, and the answer will be that the trees grow well and while they are slow to reach maturity it would appear that when a grove reached the bearing age the greatest expense would be in harvesting and marketing the fruit.

Forty-five Minutes From Broadway

One characteristic of "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway," George M. Cohan's "from Broadway," George M. Cohan's wonderfully successful musical drama which Latimore & Leigh present at the Imperial Theatre on Nov. 9th, is the careful attention of detail throughout. Not only has an admirable pair of players been secured for the most important roles as proven by the presence of Miss Hazle Burgess and Bert Leigh at the head of the company, but an excellent dancing and singing chorus back them up too. Then the scenic phase has been made of more than secondary importance. The three sets used are massive and rich, being convincing in their correctness and adding materially to the impressiveness and appeal of the play. New scenery has been especially made for this year's tour, so that it will be a virtually new production in the matter of scenery and costuming, and not as so often happens with a touring company, the wornout, bedraggled and decrepit accessories that should long since have been cast in the discard. The role of "Kid Burns" will be portrayed by Bert Leigh.

Governor Wilson's determination to make no more political speeches unless Col. Roosevelt again takes the stump, is not accepted as final by Democratic national managers. The fact that Madison Square Garden has been rented for the night of October 31 is being urged upon the Governor as a reason why he should yield to the demands of his managers and speak in New York on that date. Chairman McCombs of the national committee still hopes to induce the candidate also to speak in Philadelphia Oct. 26. Governor Wilson has agreed to send out a "message" to be read throughout the country November 2, on Wilson-Marshall day, but has not consented as yet to the plans for his personal appearance again on the stump.

George W. Perkins of New York testified today before the Clapp senate committee investigating campaign contributions that his total contributions to Col. Roosevelt's pre-convention campaign were $124,000.

Preparations for Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's departure from Mercy hospital to the train at Union station, which takes him to Oyster Bay, were completed early today, and he was placed in an ambulance at 7:15 for the short trip through the city. His train left the station at 8:05 o'clock. The Colonel's last night at the hospital was rather a restless one. He slept only four hours in the aggregate from the time he first fell asleep at 11:14 p. m. He awoke frequently and seemed nervous. It was said by Night Nurse Fitzgerald that this was chiefly due to the excitement of his coming departure and not to any untoward symptoms that had developed in the course of the night.

One hundred and sixty-seven students twelve per cent of the entire undergraduate body at Princeton University, either partially or wholly supported themselves during the past college year, according to the first annual report of the bureau of self help. Of this number six came to college with no funds at all while nearly fifty reported at the opening of the term with less than $200.

A Serbian column commanded by Gen. Jaukovitch, captured the Turkish entrenchments at the village of Podujevo, near Mitrovitza, on the road to Prishtina during the night. The Turks with their Arnaut auxiliary retired toward the south, leaving their colors, several cases of ammunition, eighty oxen and a large quantity of forage.

Hands on Your Pocket Book

Reports come to The Herald office that a smooth gent is working this district, offering a famous brand of flour and a set of dishes at a ridiculously low price, if money is paid in advance. He states that your local dealer will supply you and the local grocers have no orders to supply any one unless the money is forthcoming for the same. Waiting an unreasonable length of time for their dishes the easy marks are becoming alarmed lest the stranger has their dollars for keeps and he probably has. The majority of the people like to be flimflamed and what is the use of warning them to keep their money at home?

Big Sweet Potato

N. Swanson of Upsala opened the champion potato race this season by bringing to The Herald office a sweet potato weighing eight pounds.

The farmer who brings in the largest sweet potato before January 1 will get a year's subscription to the Herald free.

Coming With Bert Leigh

One of the biggest attractions coming to the Imperial Theatre this season will be the appearance on Nov. 9th, 1912, of George M. Cohan's musical play, "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway." Hazle Burgess and Bert Leigh are the chief fun makers.
