LAKE FRONT PLAYGROUND IS SUGGESTED

BALL PARK, FAIR GROUNDS OTHER AMUSEMENTS THIS WINTER

Now that the bulkhead is almost finished—that is finished as far as the filling in is concerned, some steps should be taken regarding the disposition of the land to the best advantage.

For instance, it has been suggested that the land south of Palmetto avenue, including that of the Clyde Line, Thatcher Realty Co., and F. L. Woodruff and any other owners who have a part of this section could be induced to let the city have this land for a period of five years and this land could be improved by the planting of Bermuda grass and the entire lot made into a county fair ground and ball park, tennis courts, etc.

Cyclone Was Here

Cyclone Mitchell, progressive candidate for Governor of Florida was here on Saturday and made an appeal to the voters at the corner of First street and Park avenue at ten o'clock.

He declared for national and state prohibition, woman suffrage, freedom of religious worship, amendment of the Bryan primary law, protection of labor against capital, cleaner politics, better schools and other propositions of lesser interest.

Mitchell is a pleasing speaker and never lacks for words to express his thoughts—but he has no show for the Governor's chair and he was listened to with mild interest by those present.

A Pretty Home Wedding

At the home of the bride's parents on the West Side, Sanford, there was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the wedding of Miss Stella Byrd and Mr. David R. Thomas.

The attractive bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Byrd, formerly of West Apopka, but who have been living in Sanford for the past two years, Mr. Byrd being one of our substantial truck growers.

Mr. Thomas is a prosperous young farmer of Altoona and has a cozy home already prepared for his bride.

Only a few neighbors and friends were invited, among those present in addition to the family being Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McBride, Mr. and Mrs. Pevehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Knight, Miss Bernice Knight, Mr. S. W. Pevehouse, Mrs. Zittrower, Mr. Oscar Zittrower, Mr. Oglesby, Mr. Jno. D. Jinkins. Out of town guests were Rev. R. J. Gorbet of Altoona, Miss Louise Green of Tavares and Mr. R. Byrd of Tavares.

The decoration scheme was very pretty, consisting of a bank of palms and ferns, entwined with dainty flower blossoms, the bride carried a large bouquet of roses.

After the ceremony delicious refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served, after which the newly married couple were accompanied to the depot and bidden godspeed on their journey through life.

This winter the people of Sanford are again to enjoy Lyceum attractions from the Redpath Bureau. The local committee has already booked a number of the very best attractions. Tickets for the season may be purchased at any time by phoning 209 or calling Miss Adele Rines or Miss Marian Gore.

The tickets for the entire season are as follows: Adults, $1.25; school teachers, $1.00; children, 75c.

Handkerchief Shower

After the meeting on Friday evening Dr. and Mrs. Brownlee invited the C. E. Society to the manse, where they gave a surprise handkerchief shower for Miss Essie Purdon, the C. E. President, whose marriage to Mr. Grovenstein will occur on Wednesday.

The manse parlors were decorated in pink and green vines and cut flowers. When the guests arrived they were given dainty cards tied with white ribbon, on one side of which they were told to write a list of wedding gifts using the letters of the bride's name as initials.

A sheet was then stretched across one end of the parlors and the room darkened. Behind this sheet Miss Annie Whitner and Mr. E. J. Moughton were the principal characters in an amusing little "Shadow Romance," which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

After this, delicious refreshments, consisting of orange ice, colored green, and white cake were served. Mrs. Brownlee was assisted by Mrs. H. McLaulin and Mrs. Wm. McKinnon. Other guests beside the G. E. S. were Mrs. Purdon and Mrs. Peck, mother and sister of Miss Purdon.

St. Johns' county bids fair to jump to the front as a strawberry growing section. It looks as if many counties that have been growing berries for years will be outdistanced from the start as seventy-five acres are assured at this early date, even before the real work of tackling the large farmers has commenced.

Prof. Dewey, botanist, announces that algal hemp can be successfully cultivated in Dade county. Tests have proven the Florida product to be in every way equal to that produced in India. The Florida Fiber Company now has 300 acres under cultivation.

ROUMANIANS ANOTHER AIR RAID ENLARGE IN BIG DRIVE DEATH LIST

LITTLE DOING WITH INVADING ARMIES ON BORDERS

Latest reports regarding the important campaign in the Rumanian province of Dobrudja indicate a lessening in the intensity of the struggle between the invading armies of the Central Powers and the Russians and the Rumanians facing them.

In their invasion of Transylvania the Rumanians report success in an attack at Hermannstadt, where 300 men and five machine guns were captured. Nearly 7,000 prisoners have been taken by the Rumanians in their Transylvanian campaign.

Today's official statement from Petrograd declaring no events of importance have occurred along the Russian or Caucasian fronts is one of the laconic sort customarily issued by the war office when decisive results in pending operations are lacking.

It is probable, however, that adverse weather conditions are playing an important part in shaping events, hampering the activities of the combatants in various fields.

Official reports and private dispatches indicate that the fall rains are interfering with the progress of hostilities on virtually all the battle fronts. In mountainous regions such as the Alpine districts and the Caucasus, cold weather and snow add to the difficulties of the combatants.

Rumanians Gain Some

Bucharest, via London, Sept. 25.—Successes for the Rumanians in both Transylvania and Dobrudja are reported in an official statement issued by the war office. The text of the statement follows:

"North and northwestern fronts—Our advance in the Caliman mountains continues. We captured 73 prisoners and one machine gun. At Hermannstadt we attacked the enemy capturing four officers, 300 men and five machine guns. In the Jiu valley minor actions occurred in which we repulsed the enemy and captured two machine guns. The total number of prisoners taken on this front up to the present time is 48 officers and 6,336 men.

"Southern front—There has been an exchange of artillery fire on the banks of the Danube in Dobrudja. Our left flank made further progress and captured one officer and 53 men."

Seminole Woodmen of America

Seminole Camp No. 16195 will meet in regular session Thursday evening at 7:30. There is some important business to come before the Camp, also there will be several of the ten applicants now pending, adopted in a class, after which it is the intention of some of our base ball fans to organize a ball team to be known as the "M. W. A. Blue Shirts."

The team will be selected from the members of Seminole Camp and judging from what Harry Walker says it will be a swell team. They will at once challenge the Eagles and Elks for the championship among fraternal orders.

New Barber Shop

Sanford grows every day. A new barber shop has been opened up next to the fire station. George Tomlinson is the proprietor and expects to keep an up to date shop that will accommodate all his customers.

J. O. McMahon delivered a lecture at the Star Theatre last Sunday afternoon on the question of the Catholic religion or truth and justice taking up the present day agitation and political squabble.

ZEPPELINS RAISE CAIN IN THE RAID OVER ENGLAND

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Extensive fires were observed to have been caused by the Zeppelin bombardment of London and the England midland counties on Saturday night, it was announced today in the official report on the air raid. Two of the Zeppelins were lost as a result of the fire of anti aircraft guns in London, the statement adds.

Newport News, Va., Sept. 25.

Twenty-six persons were killed outright, 300 were wounded and a vast amount of property damage was done in London by the Zeppelins which raided the British Isles Saturday night, according to a wireless message picked up by the British steamer Norman Minarch, which arrived in Hampton Roads today. Captain Watson of the Norman Monarch, stated that the wireless message picked up by his ship indicated that the raid was the most destructive yet made by the Germans. Casualties and property damage in other parts of the British Isles were unusually heavy, the message said, but no exact figures were given in the wireless, Captain Watson said.

The Charles Electric Company Incorporated

Is the style of a new corporation recently organized for Sanford. This Company has a charter for doing any and all kinds of electrical contracting, wiring, and for dealing in any fixtures, appliances and other necessary articles of merchandise incident to the electrical world.

This new company is headed by Mr. T. O. Charles, president, who is ably assisted by Mr. W. W. Fry, vice president. These two gentlemen are well known in Sanford, Mr. Charles coming here some ten months past and embarking in the electrical business, while Mr. Fry has been with us for some time, and is known to be a utility man of some experience.

This company will do a general contracting business and handle a general line of fixtures, keeping a full stock on hand at all times.

The company expect to erect and maintain electrical lines on Celery avenues and other avenues adjacent to Celery avenue. This will be a great advantage to the people of that district, and will give them an improvement that has been needed for some time.

Many Truck Diseases Originated in Seedbed

Although some of the important diseases of celery, tomatoes and other truck crops do not show until after the plants have been set in the field, they often have their origin in the seedbed. A clean seedbed is the first step toward producing disease free plants. In the first place a new soil is preferable; otherwise it must be sterilized. After that proper care and cultivation will keep the plants reasonably free of disease.

Dr. C. D. Sherbakoff, associate plant pathologist to the University of Florida Experiment Station, suggests that the young plants be sprayed regularly with 3-3-50 bordeaux mixture. The soil should be thoroughly covered. This will retard the spread of damping off and hold in check some other fungus diseases which might attack the young plants and thus be carried to the field and developed there.

Care, cultivation and not too thick sowing will give the plants a growing chance and create unfavorable conditions for disease.

Condition of the Sinners of Sanford

This was the subject of the sermon at the last of the Special Vespers at the Temple Sunday night.

Dr. Hyman spoke for some time on the condition of the sinners of Sanford, and from the Doctor's words one would consider the sinners of Sanford in a very bad condition sure enough. In his sermon the pastor stated that he believed that there were people in Sanford that were surely going to a burning hell, and that the condition of those people was something terrible.

The Baptist Temple has just completed a series of special Vesper services during the months of August and September and the result of the meeting has been very gratifying to the Vesper committee, who has had charge of the Sunday evening services during the two months mentioned. It should be pleasing for them to know that there has been a wonderful work done at their suggestion and help. The congregations and the people of the church as a whole rise up as in one body and extend a vote of thanks to the committee, to the pastor, to the singers, to the ushers and to those noble business gentlemen that so earnestly and freely gave assistance to the meetings.

Program for County Agents' Meeting Completed

The program for the annual demonstration agents' meeting at the University of Florida, October 2 to 7 has been completed. The six days have been allotted to the following subjects: Organization, staple crops livestock, boys' and girls' clubs, horticulture and vegetable crops. These subjects will be taken up in order and one morning will be devoted to each. Lectures and discussions will be given by agents, Station and Extension workers and representatives from the United States Department of Agriculture. Farmers who care to attend the meetings are urged to do so.

Plans for the afternoons have been changed somewhat from former meetings. The afternoon session for Monday, Oct. 2, will be given to a tour of the Station and College farms and inspection of livestock under the direction of John M. Scott animal industrialist to the Station. A demonstration of farm implements will be held Tuesday afternoon. Livestock judging, dairy cattle, hogs and mules will be given Wednesday afternoon; selection and judging of corn, Thursday afternoon; examination of specimens in exhibit rooms, pruning trees, use of insecticides, Friday afternoon; demonstration of gasoline and other engines, Saturday afternoon.

Noted Organizer to Attend Agents' Meeting

N. T. Frame, state agent for demonstration work in West Virginia will attend the annual meeting of the county agents at the University of Florida, October 2 to 7. Mr. Frame is one of the most widely known authorities on rural and community organizations in the United States and the Extension Division is glad to announce his visit to Florida.

He will lecture Monday, October 2, on organizing the county for agriculture.

On a lecture Monday, October 2, on organizing the county for agriculture. Farmers cannot afford to miss this lecture and they are especially urged to attend the meeting that day. Citrus and truck growers who are interested in various rural organizations could afford to go to Gainesville for this lecture alone. The whole day will be given to organizations and the program contains many widely known authorities. Among them are Bradford Knapp and H. E. Savelly of the United States Department of Agriculture; A. A. Murphree, president of the University; P. H. Rolfs, dean of the College of Agriculture; and C. K. McQuarrie, state agent for the Extension Division.

Mr. Frame will come to Florida several days before the meeting and make a tour of the vegetable and citrus sections of the state with Dean Rolfs. Mr. Frame is especially interested in the growing and shipping organizations of the state and he will make a study of them.

Preparations are going on for the Marion County Fair to be held in Ocala Nov. 28 to Dec. 1st. The success of this fair depends altogether on future fairs and every Marion county farmer, and city and towns people alike should make a greater effort this year to assure a continuance of our annual fairs. Get your exhibits ready and help make the fair the greatest and the grandest ever held.—Summerfield Chronicle.

Work on the new Polk county roads is in progress at three points—Haines City, Fort Meade and Mulberry.

Harry B. Lewis of the Connelly Real Estate Co., has returned from a visit to Alliance, Ohio, and reports the north as being very prosperous and many people will visit Florida this season.

CRITICISM OF COURTS UNWARRANTED

SO CATTS' ATTORNEY SAYS IN HIS STATEMENT TODAY

Tallahassee, Fla., Sept. 26.—When the supreme court opened this morning Attorney Flournoy, who is appearing for S. J. Catts in the recount paid a tribute to the personnel of the supreme court, saying this case was the most fortunate that he has witnessed in sixteen years of practice as it has served as an excellent medium to prove to the people of Florida the perfectness of our judicial machinery.

He said the court had been fair and impartial and had dealt out justice always, saying it was a pleasure to try a case before such impartial umpires. He said he was always willing to abide by the court's rulings.

"My client has criticized this court in the heat of passion and debate," said he. "I don't know whether he is ashamed of it or not but I am."

Catts is here today but has decided not to speak as advertised, feeling that it would be inappropriate for him to deliver a political address in the presence almost of a court. Flournoy recently wrote Catts a long letter advising him not to criticize the supreme court and telling him that the court was treating him fairly.

Attorney Adams demurred this morning to the mandamus calling for a recount of Precinct No. 3 of Alachua county and he and Flournoy argued that this morning.

Adams was given until 2:30 by the court to file a brief showing reasons why a peremptory writ should not issue for a recount of Precinct No. 3.

In the meantime friends of Mr. Knott have secured a recount of the entire vote of Alachua county and the recount is now in progress. It is stated here today that in four precincts a gain of 14 votes for Knott has been recorded. No. 3 which was not counted in the original returns is said to have given Catts a majority of 58.

Nine Marion Precincts Being Re-counted

Ocala, Fla., Sept. 26.—On an order procured from the circuit court by friends of Mr. Knott, a recount of nine precincts in Marion county has been started.

Peanut Hay Equal to Alfalfa

Peanut vines make one of the best native hays available to Florida farmers. A. P. Spencer, district agent for the University of Florida Extension Division says that the analysis shows them equal in feeding value to alfalfa, cowpeas and red clover. The value of the hay, however, depends on good curing and harvesting without loss.

The best hay is made from vines that are not overripe. The best time to cut the vines is about the time the nuts are ripe. The hay must be handled and cured as quickly as possible and every effort should be made to place it under cover without exposure to rain.

Farmers have two general methods of harvesting the hay. Some pull the hills up and allow the nuts to cure on the vine. This practice is detrimental to the hay since it must be exposed to the weather long enough to lose considerable feeding value before the nuts are cured. The best method is to mow the vines and handle them like any other hay. This will avoid loss from shedding leaves and leaching of food elements.

In the vicinity of Spring Hill, near Brookville, 5,000 acres of land are being cleared for Natal hay planting.

B. F. Lester shipped twenty cars of cattle from Kissimmee last week—twelve cars to Alvin, Texas, and eight to Missouri City, Texas.

A number of farmers in the vicinity of Plant City are experimenting with rice culture and report favorable results.

AMONG THE THEATRES

Chit-Chat of the Play Houses in Sanford

At Lyric Tuesday
We are showing for the first time the opening installment of George Kleine's greatest photographic achievement—the most costly, most elaborate, most absorbingly interesting—motion picture novel ever screened—beautiful Billie Burke in Gloria's Romance. In her role of Gloria Stafford, daughter of a millionaire, Billie Burke experiences joy, sorrow, happiness, fear and jealousy—almost every emotion conceivable in fact. Mystery, suspicion and intrigue are all about her. The clever way in which she solves her problems make the story more fascinating week by week.

The Feature at the Star Tonight
"The Reward of Patience"

Girls of the sweetly sympathetic type are ideally suited to screen interpretation by dainty little Louise Huff, who was recently seen on the screen in the Famous Players production, "Destiny's Toy." Miss Huff is now being presented by the same company in "The Reward of Patience" in which she plays a Quaker girl under the direction of Robert G. Vignola. Miss Huff is the typical Quaker girl type and her beauty, appealing personality and really wonderful historic ability add greatly to the effectiveness of the production.

A point of unusual interest in this production is the fact that Lottie Pickford, sister of the celebrated

Louise Huff at the Star Tonight

Mary makes her re-appearance on the screen after a long rest. Miss Pickford plays the so-called "heavy" role of the society wife who deserts her husband and child and finally meets a well-deserved fate.

Exceptional efforts were made to get just the proper settings for this picture, the atmosphere of the Quaker village in which the story opens being of the utmost importance in giving the picture charm and especial interest. Those who see "The Reward of Patience" at the Star tonight will realize that the efforts were more than worth while. Particularly charming is the waterfall near which so much of the early part of the action transpires.

The story tells of the love affairs of a little Quaker girl, Patience, whose father has chosen a youth of the village as a husband for her. But the man's backwardness has prevented his even proposing to her when the arrival of a young engineer, Robert Penfield diverts her interest. She falls in love with Penfield but he is engaged and, though attracted to Patience does not make love to the girl. The sudden death of her father leaves Patience penniless and Penfield has his mother employ her as a social secretary. The girl is heart broken when she learns that Penfield is engaged to a society girl whom she realizes to be totally unworthy of him. The wedding day is a terrible ordeal for Patience and as the time passes, the arrival of a small Penfield still further tears at her heart string—as she sees the mother totally neglecting her child. Things go from bad to worse until Mrs. Penfield elopes with another man after discharging Patience and sending her back home penniless.

Of course Penfield finds Patience in time, but it is not until they have both suffered deep sorrows. Among those who appear in support of Miss Huff in this picture are Lottie Pickford, John Bowers, Kate Lester and Adolph Menjou.

their horses," he said. "That's pretty tough, even when you've practiced it and know just how."

As he spoke Director Reginald Barker shouted a signal and a band of Indians charged the stockade, amidst a frightful din. A mounted man close to the camera threw his horse, the pony's legs went into the air and he rolled completely over his rider. The battle went on, and the camera never paused, the man lay still.

The scene was quickly through. The man sat up grinning and to anxious inquiries replied, "Never touched me."

The boy star gave a sigh of relief. "Only good luck saved him—and a light pony," he said with unconscious authority. "Gee! I'll be glad when this part of it is over."

Then he added with equal fervor: "But that will make a bully fall for the picture."

The falls taken by at least a score of the riders who appear in the battle scenes are said to be among the most remarkable ever shown on the screen.

Saturday's Program at the Star

In addition to the Essanay feature in three parts entitled Joyce's Strategy, which is an unusual photoplay well acted and replete with many gripping scenes the program will be strengthened by the addition of a special Vim comedy, Nerve and Gasoline, which is just as funny as the name implies, but this is not all that the patrons of the Star will have the pleasure of seeing, as the popular fun maker, "Ham" will be there in all his glory in a Kalem comedy, "Ham Agrees with Sherman." With old Ham at the helm in this picture you can be assured of a rip-roaring story, full of many a hearty laugh.

The Star Supreme — Miss Billie Burke in Gloria's Romance
Lyric Theatre, Sept. 26th.

During the production Miss Burke will wear some of the most beautiful, elaborate and magnificent gowns ever seen on the screen. Many of them were especially designed for her by Lady Duff Gordon. The story is by those masters of action, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes and is unquestionably the best of their many novels. A notable cast, headed by Henry Kolker, interprets the story, every player being a star of note. Here is surely one photoplay that you cannot afford to miss. Every one will be talking about it. You must see it. It is shown for the first time.

Wonderful Edna Goodrich Monday
The marriage market with all its hollow mockery of love is drastically portrayed and exposed in "The House of Lies."

"The House of Lies," the Morosco Paramount photoplay coming to the Star Monday brings forth this problem:

Edna Coleman is the step daughter of a society matron who candidly explains that she intends to exploit her daughter's beauty in the marriage market. The marriage market with its shallow veneer of modern dress and modern manners but with an amazing similarity of spirit to the old "slave market," only perhaps a little competition.

What will the socially restricted debutante do when she finds it is to the handsome young dramatist that she is to be displayed? To the one she prefers to meet above all others. What will his opinion be of her whom he meets in this manner?

But there is a way that sets all the tangle right and Edna Goodrich playing the starring role finds that only in a great sacrifice is the clear path that leads to happiness.

Gloria Stafford, daughter of Pierpont Stafford, millionaire banker and sister of David Stafford, goes to Palm Beach, Fla., with her family to spend the winter. There they meet Judge Freeman and his daughter, Lois, old friends of the Staffords and Gloria is introduced to Dr. Stephen Royce, a good looking young physician, who is attending Judge Freeman. Gloria resents the tasks set her by her governess, who has cared for her since the death of her mother and welcomes the assistance of Dr. Royce in solving her algebra problems and other lessons. David Stafford grows to admire Lois Freeman, but finds that he has a rival in the person of Richard Freneau, a young broker, who strikes up an acquaintanceship with both the Freeman and Stafford families. One night Gloria slips away from between the watchful eyes of her governess, and goes for a spin along the beach in her brother's big racing car. Suddenly the steering gear goes wrong and the big motor swerves straight out into the Atlantic. Gloria manages to get safely out of the car, her dress wet and bedraggled, and sets off for the hotel afoot. She loses her way, however, and dawn finds her a lonesome, homesick little maid, wandering in the Everglades.

As the days pass, Florida and Orange county, have less and less need for worry as to her crops. She has seen in her time a larger field of some particular one, but there never was a time when she had promise of so much in actual money from her soil.

PRESIDENT GETS BUSY

Will Take the Stump and Warm Up Hughes

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 21.—President Wilson swung into campaign form today. With his plan for discussing public questions before non-partisan organizations instead of touring fully decided upon, he actively took up his political plans after a lull of more than a week caused by the illness and death of his sister, Mrs. Annie E. Howe.

Administration leaders here predict that from now on there will be plenty of activity in the Democratic campaign. The attacks of Charles E. Hughes will be fully met, they say, by the President himself and by members of his cabinet and Democratic leaders who will tour the country.

Vance C. McCormick, the chairman of the Democratic national committee, who spent the night at Shadow Lawn, conferred with the President early today before leaving for New York. He will return in a few days to arrange for the speeches to be made by Mr. Wilson.

Meantime the President worked on a speech he will make to a delegation of business men Saturday, and on the address he will deliver Monday before the convention of the National Grain Dealers' Association. In these two speeches he will outline the reason why he thinks farmers and business men should vote the Democratic ticket.

At the Modern Opera.

Patience—"You say you heard Mme. Highsee in vaudeville today?" Patrice—"Yes; first time she's been heard in this country." Patience—"Nonsense! She sang in this country in opera for two years." Patrice—"Yes, she was in opera, but everybody talks at the opera, and nobody heard her."

The Catts fight so far seems to have resulted in a dog fall.

Build that hotel you Sanford business men and get ready for the greatest influx of visitors that Sanford ever experienced.

Sanford men returning from the north report the factories working day and night and the greatest wave of prosperity sweeping the country. This means more visitors to Florida.

Having failed to enlist outside capital in the building of a first class hotel, the Sanford Board of Trade is now selling stock to home people, and will build the hotel themselves. Lucky Sanford.—DeLand News.

Now for that hotel, the inland waterways through the St. Johns river and the drainage of the upper St. Johns river. All good projects and they will place twenty thousand people in Sanford in the next five years.

That bulkhead property looks good to many of us for a county fair grounds, a ball park and general playground for the Sanford people and the winter visitors. This will bear investigation and would solve the question of what to build upon the new land in the next five years.

After editing the sport page for the Sanford Herald during the ball season "Red Davis" made his last appearance in Tuesday's issue, and The Herald will have no more sporting page until next season and not then unless the people want it. Under the able supervision of Red Davis The Herald had one of the best pages of any paper in the state and his efforts are entitled to all the praise that can be bestowed upon it. Some good daily should draft Red Davis, for he is a good one and we can commend him at any time.

Sanford needs a Business Men's League. Every other wide awake city has one and the business man gains much of benefit thereby. The Board of Trade is all right for the general public but the business men have problems of their own that should be met by the merchants and a league would do the trick. The credit system could also be handled by the league and better methods of buying and selling and other projects worked out for the salvation of the retail trade. Get together, you business men of Sanford for in co-operation you will get the best results.

REAL ADVERTISING MEDIUMS
 The so-called "advertourist" was raked over the coals, cut up in strips and the hide hung up to dry at the Chamber of Commerce meeting last night. The liveliest kind of a bunch of business men had come over from Jacksonville to sort of exchange experiences along the line of advertising methods and mediums, and the discussion ran the scale from the value to Florida of county fairs, as so ably set forth by A. P. Anthony, to the plain, ordinary merchandising by advertising, as explained by Mr. Kessler, Mr. Southall and others. But the keynote of the discussion was the benefits to be derived and the money to be saved the merchants by the proper operation of a merchants' protective association. St. Augustine has one in connection with the Chamber of Commerce and so has Jacksonville. The only difference in the method of operation is that the names of the St. Augustine committee are unknown to anybody but the secretary and the members of the committee, while Jacksonville bravely publishes to the world the fact that five prominent business men representing varied interests compose the board of censorship. This committee has saved

Jacksonville merchants more than $60,000 within a year. Here in St. Augustine the saving is estimated at from $3,500 to $5,000.

Jacksonville has put the ban on all kinds of church, lodge, theatre and other programs, desk blotters and other doubtful mediums and is sticking to the newspapers as the only legitimate and the best means of getting in close touch with the consumers of that community. The merchants of St. Augustine have taken advantage of the Chamber of Commerce as an organization of business and professional men for protection and benefit, but there are still some who stand aloof.

It is a pity every store keeper in town could not have heard the discussions of last night; the result would have been more backbone in business methods and the resolve to promptly reject all advertising proposals that are not along legitimate channels and that have for their purpose the compelling of the business men to provide an easy living for some one who wants to spend the winter in Florida. A few concerns and organizations would have the burden of expense of some entertainment by practically presenting these organizations not only with a free program but with a cash bonus thrown in.

It is safe to say that it will be a very difficult thing for any lodge or church or society to "work" the local merchants this coming season for anything of this kind. If all the merchants will take advantage of the rulings of the committee on advertising they will save themselves hundreds of dollars.—St. Augustine Record.

FAVORABLE TO WILSON

The first straw ballot on the Presidential election was taken by The New York Herald a few days ago. It is the preference of The Herald's employes in its composing rooms, and comparison is made of the same employes in 1912. The Herald says:

Following its custom of many years, The Herald started its 1916 nation-wide straw vote canvass of the Presidential situation with a vote taken among the workers in The Herald composing room. The results were as follows:

Total number of votes cast.....	132
Total for Wilson.....	86
Total for Hughes.....	30
Total for Benson.....	12
Socialist labor.....	4
No. of Democrats voting.....	64
No. of Republicans voting.....	31
Progressives.....	16
Politics not stated.....	17
Independents.....	2
Socialists.....	2
Republicans for Wilson.....	16
Progressives for Wilson.....	6
Politics not stated, for Wilson.....	11
Democrats for Hughes.....	3
Progressives for Hughes.....	6
How they voted in 1912:
For Wilson.....	73
For Roosevelt.....	30
For Taft.....	9
For Debs.....	14
Not voting.....	6

If doubt exists in one's mind that there are to be many curious shifts in the drift of the political tide this year it should be wiped out by a study of the vote taken among the Herald composing room employes. Some most interesting things will be noted in the vote.

For instance, Charles E. Hughes received exactly the same number of votes this year that Roosevelt received four years ago. He received, therefore, nine fewer than the total cast for Messrs. Roosevelt and Taft.

Woodrow Wilson received in this year's vote 13 more than were cast for him in 1912. He received 22 more votes than there were Democrats voting. Mr. Hughes received one vote less than the number of Republicans voting.

The trend of the Progressive is likewise interesting. Six Progressives voted for the President and the same number of Mr. Hughes. Mr. Benson, Socialist, nominee, falls two short of the vote for Mr. Debs in 1912.

First Game in Tampa
 The combination Tampa Stars-Knight and Wall team beat Sanford in the first game of the three game series at Plant Field yesterday afternoon, 5-4. Many fans credited the game to Sanford. It was the closest ten inning match Plant Field has seen in many a day.

Each team had 39 men at bat, each had 10 safe hits and a stolen base while L'Hommedieu struck out 5 men and long legged Wilson fanned 8 with one pass. It was nip and tuck all the way over the course. Both pitchers did fine work, holding well in the tight places but everybody found the ball except Cobb, a brother to the famous "Tyros" and W. Brown and Alvarez for Tampa. Brown sacrificed in the first and got to first on an error.

A big crowd was on hand for the event but the fact the game was called for 3 o'clock kept others away from the field.

The individual work of C. Alvarez at short, with his wonderful stops and pegs to first with the splendid performance of Brack in center who covered the entire field with a speed seldom seen away from the big league diamonds, were easily the features of the game.

Culbreath, who couldn't hit a house in the early part of the season, continues with his fine swatting and yesterday took a walk—a couple of singles and then made a sacrifice fly that scored the winning run.

Crow and Purcell for Sanford were the heavy hitters on the visitors' list. Cobb proved himself a brother of the famous Tiger man in name only. As a baseball player he does not belong to the same family. No hits, no assists and two errors were his record for the afternoon, though he scored a run after reaching first on an error.

Both catchers were fast and but two stolen bases went down for the session, though Lourcey headed for home in the sixth and was called out at the plate. Culbreath admitted he didn't even have time to touch him but the decision went. The fans in their hearts, as well as the Tampa players, gave the visitors the run. L'Hommedieu, Culbreath and Brack, who is winning his laurels, got two hits each. For steadiness L'Hommedieu was perfection.

Cobb, first base man of the Celery City celery diggers, has a heck of a long ways to go to catch up to that Tigerish brother of his, whom the fans call Ty. Come to think of it, he was the only gink on the visiting list yesterday who failed to get a hit and right on top of that he performs two most ungracious errors and then again he claims to be a brother of Tyros. Well, that's hard on Ty, that's all.—Tampa Times.

Dance Honoring Visitor

Miss Reba Gilbert was hostess at an informal dance Tuesday evening at her home, 816 May street, Springfield, in honor of Miss Vera Terheun of Jacksonville.

The rooms were opened en suite, and converted into an improvised ball room for the occasion, the decorations consisting of roses and other cut flowers, with ferns and palms.

Dancing was indulged in until a late hour to the strains of piano music, and at a late hour, during the intermission refreshments were served, fruit punch being served throughout the evening.

The young people were chaperoned by Mrs. J. W. Dodge, Mrs. F. E. Gilbert and Mrs. Carr.

Miss Terheun has frequently visited in Jacksonville, and is always delightfully entertained while here. A number of affairs are being arranged in her honor.

Enjoying the dance were Misses Coralie Simmons, Marian Carr, Carmen Baya, Elizabeth Reasoner, Louise Dodge, Mae Sedding, Vera Terheun of Sanford, and Messrs. Leonard Carr, I. Sedding, V. Smith, S. Wise, J. Olney, G. White, E. V. E. Larsen and others.—Times-Union.

Shoe manufacturers who are now figuring the cost of next spring's samples are said to be "up against it" good and hard. Certain leathers continue hard to get, which may mean still higher prices. Every manufacturer wants early business in order to keep the cutting well ahead of the making. In normal times the manufacturer could contract for a certain quantity of leather a little under the market price, which enabled him to figure certain samples at prices that brought the large orders early. Now the only inducement for trade is to tell the customer to buy early, before prices get a chance to advance any further.

The Working Man's Bank Account

MEN who are employed by the day or week rarely have very much notice before they are laid off. This means that the working man of all men should have a little money saved up and have it deposited safely in the bank. The Peoples Bank invites the accounts of working men and their families. Interest is paid on savings accounts, compounded twice a year. Your money will help you earn money, if deposited with this Bank.

BRICK ROADS TO BE REPAIRED AT LAST

SANFORD ORLANDO ROAD BEING TAKEN UP BY CONTRACTORS

After years of waiting the brick road between Sanford and Robinson Springs will be taken up and placed in first class condition and best of all is the news that the work has actually started. This road caused more talk and criticism than any road in the county on account of the poor quality of brick and the laying of same and in places the road has been in bad condition.

Hankinson & Haigler, the brick manufacturers were under bond for the faithful performance of their contract and were waiting until they could be assured they had the brick that would meet specifications. Now under the supervision of Engineer Ramsey we can look for results and this road laid properly and with the right kind of brick should settle all controversy about the construction.

Progress in Southeast

Columbus, Ga., Sept. 20.—The Industrial Index says in its issue for this week:

"The pockets of the south are jingling.

"One hundred dollars for a bale of cotton—including the amount received for the seed—is a fine business proposition. It brings an immense sum of money, though the yield of the staple is not so large. It means literally millions of dollars.

"And that which is of much importance is the fact that more cotton money is being kept at home this year than in any year since before the Civil War, when practically every southern farm home had its smoke house and corn crib as surely as it had a well for water.

"Factories in the southeast are running on full time. Many of them are running overtime and some of them are being operated night and day.

"It is a busy time as well as a harvest time. It is a time of building, and of the voting of more and more bonds for municipal and county improvements.

"Not solely because it is receiving $100 a bale for cotton or with the added reason that the factories are running on full time and overtime is the southeast prosperous and its pockets jingling. An important reason is that it is keeping much of the money that in previous years it has been sending away. The money will go to the upbuilding of the southeast rather than of other parts of the country.

"Twenty-nine corporations were formed during the week with minimum capital stocks aggregating $1,510,000.

"Five additional electric steel furnaces will be established in Anniston, Ala., at a cost of $1,000,000.

"A contract for the construction of roads at a cost of $145,000 has been awarded by Holmes county, Mississippi.

"A store building to cost $100,000 will be erected in Macon, Ga.

"Among the items of construction work to be done as reported this week are:

"Apartment houses, Atlanta, Decatur and Savannah, Ga.; bank building, New Smyrna, Fla.; church building, Locust Grove, Ga., and remodeling and enlarging, Madison and Monroe, Ga.; dormitory, Carrollton, Ga.; factory building, Montgomery, Ala.; fraternal building, New Smyrna, Fla.; garage building, Chipley, Fla.; library building, Gulfport, Miss.; 50 miles of roads, Grenada Mounty, Miss.; school building Gaffney, S. C., and Newnan and Rockmart, Ga. Construction contracts have been awarded as follows: Apartment houses, Atlanta, Ga., and Miami, Fla.; bridges, Cherokee county, S. C., and Cleburne and Mobile counties, Ala.; crematory, Cordele, Ga.; factory building, Albany, Ga.; school building, Judson, S. C.

"Industrial plants will be established as follows:

"Bottling plant, Birmingham, Ala., cap factory, Rome, Ga.; flour and feed mill, Opelika, Ala.; hosiery mill, Shelby, N. C.; guncotton plant, Columbus, Miss."

Roper Buys Store

Frank Roper has purchased the Goldsboro branch store of the Seminole Co-operative Mercantile Co., of which he has been the manager since the branch was established several months ago.

Although the store has been a paying investment for the Seminole Company, they find that they can best conserve their interests by giving their undivided attention to the growing business of the original store at the corner of Park and Second street.

Mr. Roper is an experienced grocery salesman and his many friends in the city bespeak for him the success to which he is entitled.

Not content with dynamiting the safe and taking $150 therefrom, burglars who broke into a general store at Montverde, near Winter Garden, set fire to the building and stock, totally destroying both at a loss of over $5,000. Such wicked and wanton destruction shows what a wretchedly decadent and worthless type of creature the common burglar is. The punishment to fit the crime in this case will be hard to determine should the miscreant ever be caught.—St. Augustine Record.

"BIG CROP BILL"

SAYS: "Used to have so many drops in my grove that the picking crew could hardly get in to gather the real money crop. Fooled around a lot before I thought of trying Blowers Ground Limestone. Takes a sharp eye to find drops in my grove now."

Blowers Ground Limestone is good for orange groves. If you've used it, you know. If you haven't, you should. Send for booklet.

FOR THE RETAIL TRADE

Florida Co-operative Shipping League Representative in Sanford

C. W. Wimpy, representing the newly organized Florida Co-operative Shipping League is in the city and expects to spend several days interviewing the growers regarding the workings of the new league. The idea is to organize the Florida growers into a league to market their products in the north selling to the retail trade only. The league was conceived by Ray R. Flynt who was the presiding genius in the organization of the Farmers Elevator League that marketed the wheat and corn of the western states several years ago in a most satisfactory manner. Since that time Mr. Flynt has moved to Florida and purchased a farm near Bushnell expecting to retire from active business but his friends were anxious to have him take a hand in the marketing of Florida products and the new organization is the result.

The objects of the league are to sell the produce and fruit for its members direct to the retailer, thus saving for the grower the profits of the middle man. To organize so that no more marketing will be done through the middle man and to handle all the products direct from the farm to the consumer.

The organization will also investigate the canning factory idea of using the culls and over ripe products.

Rollins to Open Sept. 27 Interest in the approaching opening of the thirty-second school year of Rollins College Sept. 27 is increasing as the opening date draws to hand. In the past Rollins, although not the largest institution of its kind in the state has occupied an enviable place among her sister institutions. The outlook for the coming year is exceptionally good and without doubt this will be by far the most successful in the history of the college.

EVERYONE IN SUNDAY SCHOOL Baptist State Wide Go-To-Sunday-School Day

On Sunday, September 24th, the Baptists throughout all the southern states will unite in a great denominational effort to increase their attendance by 25 per cent. This day comes just after the return of thousands from their summer vacations and just before the beginning of a new quarter of Sunday school work. Not only is the purpose of the day to increase the attendance twenty-five per cent but a great effort is to be made to get into Sunday school thousands of adult church members who are not connected with the great teaching force of the church. Especially will all the great adult classes make an effort to rally to the cause and bring in a host of young men and young women. In the eighteen states comprising the Southern Baptist Convention the statistics of 1915 give 24,500 Baptist churches with 2,686,000 members; there are 19,000 Sunday schools in these churches with an enrollment of 1,761,000 pupils. And should all these reach their aim of an increase in attendance of 25 per cent there would be in these Baptist Sunday schools on September 24th something like 2,201,000 pupils, an increase of 440,000. To bring this large number of new scholars into these Sunday schools would greatly tax the 135,000 teachers and would give them an average of 16 in each class.

In Florida there are 674 Baptist churches, with something like 55,000 members. In these churches there are 460 Sunday schools, with an enrollment of 36,000 pupils, and 3,000 teachers. It is the hope of the Florida Baptist Sunday schools that on September 24th there will be an increase of attendance of twenty-five per cent, which would make the attendance near 44,000.

An added feature of this Baptist Rally Day will be an especially interesting program arranged for every Sunday school in the state. State Sunday School Secretary W. W. Williams, has mailed to each school in the state a big package of literature, intended to help the teachers and officers in each school to make the program intensely interesting for the regular attendants and for the new ones. For some weeks the schools have been making preparation for this big day, and if indications are to be relied upon this will be the biggest day the Baptist Sunday schools ever had in Florida and the entire south.

The Charge of Feminism

Club women all over the country are up in arms over an article recently published, in a Chicago newspaper wherein the Chicago Women's Club was criticized because this powerful organization had purchased ground for the building of a great woman's building at a cost of half a million dollars. This paper expresses the hope that the "Movement toward feminism will in time forget the sex distinction and signify femininity." also adds: "We trust that in another decade the Chicago Woman's Club will be as anxious to erase from its new building the word 'woman' as they are now anxious to label it." The article undoubtedly called for comment and Grace Julian Clark, one of the General Federation secretaries has responded in this way:

"It is absurd to accuse women of fostering 'sex distinction.' On the other hand, the so called feminist movement is a protest against the 'sex distinction' that denies to women the same pay given to me for the same work, that refuses to them that equal right to their own children, that persists in regarding them as primarily the slaves of man's appetite. It is a plea, earnest, eloquent and heart rending, for the privilege of extending the home influence into school and community. It would take the inspiration and the spirit of home into the court room, the hospital, the poor farm, the insane asylum and the prison. That is why women ask for the ballot—simply to enable them to perform duties that this miserably unjust 'sex distinction' prevents their doing.

"Clubs are largely responsible for the wonderful achievements of women all over the land. Through clubs women have come to the realization of themselves and of other women, also the conditions of life around them. They see many ways in which they could help bring about wholesome changes, but for this same 'sex distinction,' which the granting of equal suffrage will go far toward wiping out. The time will doubtless come when there will be no longer any needs of women's clubs and they will then cease to exist. But I doubt very much if the millennium is quite as near as 1926. Women must go forward on gait, not just as men or any set of men prescribe. They have many things to learn, things that men cannot teach them, and it seems to me that they must work out some problems by themselves, in clubs and federations. Their long journey along a road beset with every conceivable difficulty and discouragement has sharpened their wits and will make them peculiarly apt in some directions. Gradually they will take their places alongside of men in all departments of life, but for some time to come there will be plenty of work for clubs of women. The name of the Chicago Woman's Club will not be a misnomer for many years and we all rejoice that this fine organization is to have an adequate home of its own.

"ALWAYS AT YOUR SERVICE"

And the bread baking pans that were once sold with the cook stove—where are they?

Gone into the scrap heap along with the ash hopper and such like for the women of the present generation haven't time for bread baking. They are uplifting, social centering, tangoing, bridging, regulating charities, dipping into politics and discussing eugenics.

Of course we are for all of these things that the women are doing in the present generation; far be it from us to stand still on the road of progress which the women have marked out for themselves.

Do you remember when sometimes you went to the neighbor's house to get a small piece of yeast?

Do you remember the mystery of the yeast setting?

And do you remember also on the evening of baking day how there was a pan of hot rolls for you and for me, and for all of us? And do you remember that those rolls were from top to bottom about four inches?

The women have forgotten the art of bread making, and have given up this part of the household economy, the business of supplying bread has become a duty of men. The baker shop was enlarged. Baking became one of the giant industries of this country.

Did the women by abandoning baking show their inefficiency, and did the men by taking up baking as a business improve their efficiency?

No household should be at the mercy of a bread trust, if there is such a thing.

It is the easiest thing in the world to make bread. It is easy to make good bread. It is also easy to make bad bread.

So if the price of bread goes higher than it should, the women can take a week off from the work of uplifting, re-learn the ancient art and begin again to make bread.

There is no waste in home bread-making; flour by the sack can be bought about as cheaply as flour by the barrel.

The fact is bread making ought to have remained a home art and a home duty just as much as roasting a piece of meat.

It is not up to the women to abuse the bakers for raising the price of bread. The price of bread is, as a matter of fact, almost automatically controlled by the price of flour.

If the baker's margin of profit is too great, the housekeepers have a quick remedy. They can buy a sack of flour, a can of lard and begin to make biscuit. If they are not on to the gentle art of biscuit making they can make batter cakes for breakfast. And after a few days they can buy a cake of yeast, set the dough (we think that is the right term) and begin modestly to re-learn the art of making light bread.

Witness Held for Jury
Tallahassee, Fla., Sept. 20.—Today's sensation in the Catts-Knott gubernatorial proceedings, which have taken the form of an attempt to force the state canvassing board to re-canvass the returns of the primary June 6, was the arrest on a charge of perjury of J. C. Barton of Jasper, Hamilton county, who swore yesterday that on the night of June 17th, between 10 and 11 o'clock, he saw W. S. Murrow and M. P. Hunter in the court house at Jasper, making changes, as he supposed, in the vote of June 6. Murrow is auditor of the county finances, employed in the office of State Comptroller Knott and Hunter is clerk of the court of Hamilton county.

Neither Mr. Knott nor his attorneys are connected with the case against Barton, who is charged with perjury. The charge is made by Messrs. Murrow and Hunter. Barton was released on $500 bond which was made up by four Jasper men, and Barton waived a preliminary examination this morning and his case will come up in circuit court of this county on Nov. 27th.

A Mr. Knowles from Jasper testified yesterday to much the same state of facts as did Barton with the exception that he thought the date was the 24th. However, he swore that he did not know and could not tell whether the two men he saw in the court house were working on ballot boxes or something else. No warrant was made against him today warrant was made against him today.
