PRICES GO UP AS FANS FLOCK INTO THE PIRATES DEN

With Six Dollar Pasteboards Selling For Fifteen Bucks Presence Of Ticket Scandal Appears Imminent Today

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 4.—The Yankees, the Pirates and the October rains all blew into town simultaneously yesterday. So did the double hotel rates—four dollar fllet mignons and sixty cent ham sandwiches. All in all it looks like quite a World Series.

The only thing needed now is a clean stadium and it looks as though that might be on the road. For, despite the fact that Barney Dreyfuss has announced that every ticket has been sold, there are plenty of little side street solicitors who are willing to provide them in numbers up to 20 if the prospective customer is willing to pay the over head, about $15 for a $6 pasteboard Thank you!

And cheap at half the price, if you can believe young Mr. Sammy Dreyfuss, who, when asked the capacity of the park, replied, "forty-three thousand standing up." That Sammy points out proudly is about three thousand more than were able to squeeze in for the 1926 fracas and is a tribute to the financial perspicacity of Mr. Dreyfuss senior.

Starred by Judge Lapidis from erecting seats on the playing field, Barney immediately rented a vacant lot and stalled temporary bleachers outside the left-field wall.

And speaking of left-field walls. There's one carpenter who will swear to the ability of our Mr. Ruth to stock 'em outside the confines of Forbes Field and Allegheny county if necessary. This gentleman in question was engaged yesterday in the frenzied business of furnishing work on the new bleachers when Mr. Ruth came to bat, during the Yankee's short workout.

The Babe adjusted his sights and took a swing at one of Waite Hoyt's fast ones. The ball traveled like a bullet to left, claring the wall and catching the unsuspecting catcher square in the back. Twenty feet or so the boards went hurling over the obnoxious and into the river, and today there's one less carpenter on the job. But a nice question has been answered irrefutably. A baseball can be socked over that left-field wall, and how ???

Today's schedule calls for a short practice session for both teams. That Hoyt and Kremen will be the opposing pitchers in the first game is almost certain. Hoyt has declared himself and Donnie Bush, while he will make no definite statement, opens that Kremen will be his selection. Which is as it should be. Hoyt and Kremen are the "aces" of the opposing clubs—and in this World Series business a guy is a sucker who leads a deuce with an ace up his sleeve.

Daily Letter

By International News
PARIS, Oct. 4.—Curfew is now being in the so-called "Quarter" in Paris at 10:30 P. M. and cabaret owners are very sad about it. Officially, the bell does not toll until 2:00 A. M. but all music and loud noises are prohibited after the earlier hour. The real residents of the "Quarter," those who belong there year in and year out, complained to the police that the racket was unbearable. They don't like the late hours, the students and artists keep—hence the curfew.

New York Is A Six To Five Favorite In Betting But Pittsburg Backs Pirates

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 4.—Waite Hoyt as his pitcher in the opening game and Bush said he would start either Ray Kremer, his great right hander, or Vic Aldridge.

Bush gave the impression that he would send out to the field tomorrow the same lineup that he used in the game with the Yankees. He would mean that Kiki Cuyler, his great outfielder and a star of the 1925 World Series, will sit on the bench and that Clyde Barnhart will hold down the left field position.

There is considerable feeling in Pittsburgh over the Cuyler matter. Many Pittsburgh fans think Bush should play Cuyler. But Bush seems to be adamant. He has been "off" this sensational performer since he was forced to fine him $50 for failing to slide to second in a game nearly two months ago.

The fans, however, are looking to the spectacular Waner brothers, Paul and Lloyd, to more than hold up the outfield strength of the Pirates. They think, in fact, that the Waners will hit as hard in this series as will Ruth and the other New York home run hitters, Lou Gehrig.

No series in baseball history has brought into the limelight heavier hitting clubs than the Pirates and the Yankees and great will be the disappointment if the fences of Forbes Field and the Yankee Stadium are not wrecked by heavy cannoning. It is a striking commentary on the quality of the two clubs that the records show that the Pirates and Yankees both ended the season with identical team batting averages of .307.

ionable up on the Butte. When one goes to a smart restaurant now a photograph is taken while you are eating your soup and a finished proof offered before you have finished your desert. Entertaining flashlight photographers are now making the rounds of the gay night restaurants in Paris and making it possible for every American to go back and show how he looked doing night life in the gay city. There may be a little method in this madness. The photographs may prove useful to the Prefect of Police in keeping track of certain people.

Initiating the music halls with their "super-revues," the circuses with their "super-clowns" and the politicians with their "super-state," a novel restaurant-keeper in the capital has recently begun to advertise a delicious dish he calls "super-choucroute," that is all that is superlative of the humble sauerkraut. The chef will not reveal the secrets which go into the making of this wondrous delicacy, but a mere taste proves it is ore to make the late Brillat-Savarin, "super-gourmet," almost turn in his grave.

France's youngest professor of music, Monsieur Andre Sarnette, has just been appointed professor of organ at the French State School of Music. He has pronounced views on music and indeed the violin and does not understand what it is called the "king of instruments." He thinks that music should approximate more and more closely to a purely mathematical expression and looks forward to the time when there will be no more human performers, but when a whole orchestra will be merely one great machine. A wig-maker on the Left Bank has just hung out the following sign: "Coffeur For Women, Hair-cut and Trimming, Shaves."

While waiting for a train at a small junction recently, a French farmer decided to sit on a grassy bank in a nearby field. When he took his seat in the train an hour later he discovered that he had been sitting on an ant-hill and had carried a number of the little insects with him.

GATORS TO FACE AUBURN ELEVEN NEXT SATURDAY

Florida Team In Five Previous Meetings Has Failed To Win Single Time; Game Is Regarded One Most Crucial

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Gainesville, Fla., Oct. 4. (APB)—Next Saturday, October 8, will be Auburn-Florida day in the state of Alabama and Florida.

At Auburn, the "Fighting Gators" of the University of Florida contest Dave Morey's Plainmen in the Auburn "Homecoming Day" classic, while at Jacksonville, Fla., the freshman squads of the two institutions roll up the 1927 gridiron curtain.

In five former battles with Auburn, Florida has scored but once, and has failed to register a single victory. Not since 1917 when Auburn piled up a 68 to 0 triumph, have the two teams met. In 1912 Auburn won from the Gators 27-12, in 1914 by a 20-0 count, in 1915 by a 7-0 margin and the following season by a 20-0 score.

Coach Tom Sebring and his Orange and Blue cohorts are undertaking a tremendous task when Auburn campus and attempt to put the invade the confines of the skills under the Plainmen in the latter's most important home game of the current season. Especially with several of his most dependable men ailing, the assignment seems gruelling for the Florida gridmen.

In the matter of freshmen football, the pendulum has swung the other way, and in three classics of the gridiron, the "Baby Gators" have always piled home in front. In 1922, when freshmen football was introduced in the South, the youthful saurians of Florida in their first game, whipped the Auburn "Rats" 6-0. The following year the Auburn yearlings were trounced 14-0, and after a lapse in relationships for two years, Auburn's first year men came to the Florida campus last fall, and in the "Baby Gators" stiffest battle of the year, were beaten 13-12.

Lowman Is Ordered To Check Reports Student Drinking

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—(INS)—Sweeping orders were issued today by assistant Secretary of the Treasury Seymour Lowman to check student drinking and drunkenness in American's schools and colleges.

All prohibition administrators were notified to cooperate with university, college and seminary presidents in a drive to break up extensive traffic between students and bootleggers.

Lowman said that he has received appeals for assistance from a number of nationally known university heads. The educators informed Lowman that they were making a strenuous effort to protect the students from bootleggers and that the situation is getting worse.

"Reports from university presidents seem to indicate that drinking among students is on the decline," Lowman said. "However, the situation is bad and it is necessary that the federal government take drastic action to protect the students."

Road houses in the neighborhood of college towns appear to Lowman as one of the most serious phases of the traffic. Bootleggers are luring students to these dens both with liquor and women, with the result that many students are getting into trouble, officials said.

The treasury has assigned undercover men to several large college centers. Big shipments of liquor to college towns already have been intercepted and confiscated.

Jordan's True Wife Will Testify For Marrying Preacher

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 4.—(INS)—The "true wife" of Rev. Willis J. Jordan, Methodist clergyman of Columbus, Ga., will testify in his behalf at his trial for bigamy here, which probably will be called in superior court tomorrow, the defense counsel intimated today.

The "amnesia parson," who was found in a Grand Rapids, Mich., hospital following his mysterious disappearance from Columbus, Ga., claims that Mrs. Veasey, wife of W. V. Jordan, of Winding Gulf, W. Va., is his only "true wife."

The minister vehemently maintains that he has committed no crime knowingly and that if he married the other two wives accredited to him, he did so during a lapse of memory. His West Virginia wife has indicated that she will stand by Rev. Jordan through his trial, voicing her belief in his absolute innocence.

Senator Cole Blease Says Democrats Must Get New Leaders And Reorganize

By William K. Hutchinson, In-Formalist News Service Staff Correspondent. WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The Democratic party must get rid of its present leaders and reorganize its rank and file before it can elect any Democrat to the presidency of the United States, Senator Cole Blease, (D) of S. C., stormy petrel of the senate declared here today.

Blease called on the party to re-dedicate itself to Jeffersonian principles, choose new leaders and adopt a new platform of Democratic issues, if it fails to do so, he warned, the Democrats will never put one of their number in the White House.

The South Carolinian touched on Republican politics by predicting the nomination and re-election of President Coolidge.

"I still believe Coolidge will be nominated by the Republicans and there is very little likelihood of him being defeated in 1928 with the Democratic party in the condition it now boasts," said Blease. "I believe the Democrats with their present leaders and present organization and intra-party strife will never elect a president. They must change their leaders and change their organization before they can expect to win a presidential election."

"There is one man who could win the Democrats next year if he were nominated," Blease said. That man is Senator William E. Borah, the Idaho Republican Independent.

Gomez is the "strong man" of the central government to dialogue him or his followers in that state have fallen. Mexican embassy officials declared that the situation in Mexico City proper is well in hand and contended that the military revolt has proved abortive.

They asserted that the three regiments which left their barracks to join the insurrection have also returned to their former loyalty to the Calles regime.

It was further admitted that a consular has been established in Mexico City, but no comment was made on the report that the Mexican capital is under martial law.

He asked to have his name withdrawn from a committee appointed to assist in the arrangements for the Legions' affair at the City Hall. "I am not in sympathy with the decision of the Legions," said Mr. Trotter.

Mr. Davison's remarks drew a spirited reply from Mr. Herring who said, "I have been a member of this party since it was organized and there is but one action that I had taken that I shall always regret. I refer to resolutions that were adopted on August 6 at a special meeting when certain reprehensible persons sought to whitewash themselves under the guise of the American Legion. Such action was extremely out of place, uncalled for and without cause."

TRIAL OF KEY SET TOMORROW BY JUDGE ROWE

(Continued From Page 1) per accounts of the bank. The indictment specifically mentioned that the cashier had placed figures on the bank's books to show that the deposits on August 5 were approximately $694,000, when it was changed that records of that day's business showed that the actual deposits had amounted to approximately $230,000.

Prior to the arraignment of Mr. Key, Attorney Tom Palmer, chief of the defense counsel, had filed a for the presidency and is opposed to the Calles candidate, General Obregon, the former president. A warrant for Gomez' arrest has been issued by president Calles.

Yankees Versus Pirates

On paper the victory of the Yankees in the American League is decidedly more impressive than that of their opponents. The proteges of Miller Huggins won 110 games and lost only 44 to set a new league record...

Withal the figuring and comparisons of the dopsters, there is always that element of uncertainty which must be considered as a factor in deciding the World's champions. In 1906 the Cubs won 116 games and yet the White Sox, known as the hitless wonders, captured the series...

They Are Beginning To Arrive

The report emanating from Daytona yesterday that an agent of the Florida Power and Light Company had been subjected to the acid test and robbed of something like fifteen hundred dollars is ample indication that the tourist season is already upon us.

We do not know the details of this "misappropriation," as only the most meager accounts have come to us, but it seems that the cashier of the light company had started to the banks with every intention of making the daily deposit. He had progressed but a few blocks when someone, supposedly of northern climes, and not one of the local robbers, threw a strong acid in the agent's face temporarily blinding him.

Florida people have become so accustomed to this sort of thing that they think little or nothing of it. They have been robbed of so much so many times that a little matter like a thousand or fifteen hundred dollars is so insignificant as to be almost unworthy of any consideration at all.

The only possible conclusion that can be drawn from the incident is that the tourists are coming to Florida this year earlier than usual. These northern bandits usually arrive about two weeks before the beginning of the season, but the Daytona case is complete evidence that some of them are already here.

Consequently we feel perfectly safe in assuring the people of Sanford that they may confidently expect a long and prosperous tourist season this year.

When the able Mr. Mitchell, head of a big Chicago trust company, said Wall Street was going too fast, and held up a warning finger, this column asked how much he would charge for a year's "call" on 10,000 shares of General Motors.

Yesterday, General Motors went to 27 1/2, one new "high" for all time, and it climbed in good company. New York Central broke its price record, also Canadian Pacific, Louisville and Nashville, Northern Pacific, Chicago and Northwestern and the big DuPont company.

INVEST WISELY. WITHIN your means, and never gamble. For gambling will break you, as surely as many other stock are going to break their records. Whatever you do, don't sell short. And don't let old-fashioned conservatism scare you to death.

Republicans Likely To Draft Coolidge If Deadlock Occurs

 One man, long prominent in the business of naming Republican presidents, outlined the situation as follows:
 "Lowden will go into the first ballot with perhaps as many as 200 votes. Hoover will have a block—not so many as his supporters now hope for. Dawes, who will not permit his name to be used in advance of the convention, will have a few. The rest will be scattered among such favorite sons as Senator Curtis, of Kansas, Hughes, of New York, and Senator Watson, of Indiana. There will be no majority. The convention will go through three or four ballots with some trading. Dawes will reach his maximum strength. If that is a majority, we will have our nominee."
 "But if Dawes fails to reach that mark—or even any other man—within a comparatively few ballots, the desire to draft President Coolidge can not be held back. It is true that most of the party leaders do not like the president personally, but they are practical men, looking for the biggest vote-getter. They want a man who can carry state, county and municipal tickets with him. They know Mr. Coolidge's past record for bringing in a majority and they will favor anything even savoring of the disastrous deadlock the Democrats staged in New York in 1924."
 "It will be Dawes, or it must be Coolidge."
 This particular Republican leader explained carefully that the President's sincerity in wanting to withdraw was not to be doubted. He admitted that those who favored the draft were fearful lest something be done openly to further Mr. Coolidge's candidacy in such a way as to bring forth another statement from the white house.
 "One more little above," he said, "and we couldn't nominate the president if we wanted. If anything is done publicly in his behalf he will issue an amplification of his chance will be lost. We will sit Rapid City statement and our fight, saying nothing and work for delegations either uninterested or pledged to favorite sons. If we can get a nominee in the early ballots, we will go. If not, place a little bet on Calvin Coolidge."
 The Republican leaders had breakfasted at the White House this morning. Attached said it was an informal gathering and no political significance was attached to it.

Rebellious Mexican General Captured Going To Vera Cruz
 De La Huerta threatened to overthrow President Obregon.
 LAREDO, Tex., Oct. 5 (INS)—Further repression by the Mexican government launched through out the public last Sunday night continued today with federal troops searching for General Arnulfo Gomez in the state of Coahuila. Gomez is charged in a presidential warrant with revolutionary activities in Mexico City and Vera Cruz.
 According to reports from the Mexican capital if he is caught Gomez faces immediate court martial and probable execution unless he escapes to the United States. It is regarded probable that the president set by the government in the execution of General Serrano and his followers will not be altered in Gomez's case.
 Gomez, with Serrano, was a candidate for the presidency on the "no re-election" ticket. They both opposed General Alvaro Obregon, former president, who is a candidate on a platform that calls for a continuation of the policies of the Calles administration. Both Gehrig scored when he and Lazzeri engineered a double steal, Smith dropping Kremer's return and Gehrig slid in safely. —Dogan flied to Barnhart. Three runs, one hit, two errors, one left.

 The Pittsburgh pitcher steps up, knocking one against the right field wall. L. Waner flied to Meusel. Barnhart was safe at first when Meusel dropped his line drive to center. P. Waner singled to center and Kremer scored. Wright grounded to Lazzeri. Barnhart took third, Traynor forced Wright at second, Koenig to Lazzeri. One run, two hits, one error, two left.
 Fourth Inning:
 Collins flied out to L. Waner. Hoyt flied out to P. Waner. Combs was out on a fly to Barnhart. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.
 Pittsburgh came to bat with Gehrig on the first ball pitched. Harris was out, Koenig to Gehrig with a wonderful one handed ston. Smith was out on a high fly to Collins. No runs, no hits, none left.
 Fifth Inning:
 Koenig doubled sharply to right beating the throwing by inches. Ruth went out to Joe Harris unassisted. Koenig taking third in the play. Koenig scored on Gehrig's sacrifice fly to P. Waner. Gehrig hit the first ball pitched. Meusel was out on a pop fly to Wright. One run, one hit, no errors, none left.
 Kremer led for Pittsburgh in this game, and promptly struck out. L. Waner hit the first ball pitched and grounded over third. He later scored on Barnhart's single past Wright. The crowd began another clamor for a rally. Barnhart was safe at second and P. Waner safe at first on the latter's hit to Lazzeri. Barnhart safe at third on Wright's long sacrifice fly to Combs. P. Waner holding first. Traynor flied out to Combs. One run, three hits, no errors, two left.
 Sixth Inning:
 Lazzeri tried to hunt the first one and it was called foul. Later he doubled against the left field fence. At this point Kremer was taken out of the box and Miljus substituted. Lazzeri took third on Dogan's sacrifice, Smith to Harris. After four balls Collins walked. Collins and Hoyt went out one double play, Wright to Grantham to Harris. No runs, no hits, no errors.
 It was Pittsburgh's turn. Grantham was out when he grounded to Gehrig. Harris knocked one a mile high for Ruth to catch. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left. Ruth was given a big hand as he walked to the bench.
 Seventh Inning:
 Combs immediately struck out. Koenig went out, Harris to Miljus. The men are said to have prevailed upon high army officers to desert the Calles government and swing the troops under them to the banner of the revolution.
 While the government at Mexico City contended that the revolt amounted only to an uprising of small garrisons, reports given out by anti-Calles refugees in Laredo were that more than 3,000 troops had revolted in the capital and that President Calles is practically a prisoner. These reports were received here with great reserve.
 Reports here were that General Gomez might be attempting to reach Vera Cruz where he was formerly military governor and strong follower. It is regarded possible that if he reached there he may be able to muster sufficient force to hold the government troops in check for many weeks and may be able to set up a provisional government.

 stranger that sojourneth among you. For on this day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse from all your sins shall ye be clean before the Lord. It is a Sabbath of solemn rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls; it is a statute for you."
 Spend Day in Synagogue.
 The entire Day of Atonement is spent by the devout in the synagogue. As a token of sorrow for the sins committed in the past and as an evidence of contriteness and the affliction of the soul the worshippers not only abstain from all manner of food but also don white mantles, reminiscent of the shrouds of the dead, and go unshod, in the Oriental manner of mourning.
 During the services the entire congregation kneels and prostrates itself several times in homage and respect to the Almighty. Despite the solemn and sorrowful strain which characterize the Day of Atonement it also has a joyous element based on the hope of divine forgiveness and expressed by prayer and psalms set to happy and joyous music.
 The Yom Kippur services are opened with the famous Kol Nidrey prayer with its beautiful and quaint melody. This prayer had its origin in the dark Middle Ages when many Jews through fear of the inquisition tortures openly confessed Christianity but secretly remained loyal to Judaism and on Yom Kippur could not restrain themselves and the risk of their lives joined their brethren in worship at the synagogue. The Kol Nidrey prayer gives the sanction for admitting into the congregation all who by their outward acts may have entangled themselves from it, who by their outward acts may have

Two Negro Youths Admit Theft Of $20 From Fruit Stand

Isiah Hurston and Henry Stevenson, negro youths, were arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of stealing about $20 from the cash register of Sam Kenif, who conducts a fruit store at 310 Sanford Avenue. Chief of Police J. V. Martin and Special Officer Sam Gardner of the Atlantic Coast Line handled the case. The boys were grilled, confessed to the theft, and were released from the city jail about 11 o'clock last night, it was announced.
 The two negroes had been working for a few days in the store. The money was stolen Monday. It was found by the officers, separated into two piles, on a sill under a negro house across from the store. The boys had spent several dollars of the money. They bought two bright-hued shirts and a belt which was also found under the table.
 Mr. Kenif told the police he did not wish to prosecute. The money was in small change and had been removed from the drawer in the rack containing it. It was not missed until yesterday.
 Mr. Kenif in reciting his account of the affair to the police, said he thought when he missed the money Monday night, his partner had deposited it in the bank. On Tuesday he inquired and found the money had been stolen. He suspected the little negroes and notified the City Police Department.

Was Suffering Dreadfully, Just "Wasting Away," Took Cardui, and Says It Helped Her.
 Arlington, Texas.—A resident of this town for many years, Mrs. J. H. Jackson, says:
 "I had suffered dreadfully with an aching all over my body. At times my head would give me so much trouble I could hardly stand it. I had been in bed for weeks and it looked like I was just wasting away. I took 9 bottles of Cardui and my strength began to slowly return."
 "Since that time I have used this medicine a good many times and it has always helped me."
 "At one time I took Cardui for several months regularly. I would be afflicted with sudden spells of dizziness when I could not stand on my feet. Everything would turn black before my eyes and I would feel as if I were going to faint. At times I would be quite nauseated. I turned at once to Cardui and took it till I was safely through."
 Cardui is a mild, medicinal tonic made from purely vegetable ingredients. It has been in use for over 50 years, and in that time thousands of women have written that Cardui helped them back to good health.
