

TWO MORE ARE INDICTED FOR BOND TRICKERY

Charges Of Conspiracy To Defraud Are Contained In Indictments Made Public

STUART, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Charges of conspiracy to defraud in connection with the sale of a $1,000,000 St. Louis industrial bond issue to Brown-Crummer company, bond firm of Wichita, Kan., were contained in indictments against two defendants made public here yesterday.

Seven other defendants were named in similar indictments returned by the county grand jury Saturday.

Those named in the indictments made public yesterday are T. K. Little, an official of the firm of C. A. Stee & Co., principal contractor of West Palm Beach, and J. H. Gerten, former attorney for the bond commission. Little is charged with receiving $2500 of the district funds through legal transfers of ownership, and Gerten was charged with "aiding the conspiracy."

Defendants in the indictment returned Saturday are C. E. Bradley, vice president of Brown-Crummer company, and president of the bond issue; W. H. Lindsay, general manager of the company; George C. Brown, Jacksonville, and Oscar A. Caldwell, Orlando, bond buyers; J. E. Taylor and W. B. Tilton, former commissioners of the St. Louis industrial district, and C. Van Arden, former secretary-treasurer of the district.

Miami Paper Says Gambling Has Been Resumed Over City

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 1.—(AP)—The Miami Herald this morning said that gambling has been resumed in downtown Miami, and that investigators went to the place to see if they had found extensive operations in a room off the roof garden of a downtown hotel and an upstairs floor of a second street building.

Weldon A. Snow, who was detained Friday by the city commission upon failure to resign of the commission's ethics, and all gambling houses in Miami closed Tuesday night. Police reported that the various games of chance operated in the hotel had ceased to operate.

These men's bond at Frank H. Whelan, vice president of St. Paul & Northern Pacific, was set at $100,000 by the commission. He voluntarily bonded $100,000 to the city of Miami, and the bond was returned to him by the city.

Making his first public appearance since his resignation, Whelan was recently reported by H. H. Arnold, who negotiated a similar bond at Alton, Ill.

Gleason Named Head Of Lake Mary Body

At the regular monthly meeting of the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce held last night in the Lake Mary Community building, Homer Gleason was elected president. Robert Fox was chosen secretary and J. H. Allen, treasurer for the ensuing year.

Frank Evans, who has been residing at his home in the North for nearly a year, is in Lake Mary at the present attending to business, and was present at the Chamber of Commerce meeting last night. He told the members that Florida's business outlook for the next two years is "fairly bright," and that he believes the worst is over.

Business Men Of Sanford Back Reorganization Plan For Chamber Of Commerce

With the first reorganization meeting in the Sanford Chamber of Commerce scheduled to take place tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the council chamber of the city hall, several prominent Sanford business men today said they were satisfied to see the movement and in addition to several practical reasons, they considered all other chambers of commerce would benefit from it.

J. H. Spindler, state senator, James H. M. Gannett, president of the city, J. C. Hatcher, an associate with the Sanford Granite Truck Company, J. A. Mackell, of the 22-man team "Hawley" firm, and George D. H. Hatcher, manager of the Crown Paper Company, made it known that they were backing the reorganization program with all of their power.

Mr. Spindler said that he felt that an active chamber of commerce would benefit a city like Sanford, and that it was his duty to back the reorganization plan. He said that he was working for the reorganization of the chamber of commerce, and that he would again be in the city, the chamber of commerce, and the most essential thing for the city.

Taft's Condition French, British Is Very Critical. Limitation Ideas Says His Doctor Are Considered

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The condition of William Howard Taft was described by his physician today as extremely serious.

After an hour's consultation with Dr. Thomas A. Clayton and Dr. H. H. Hatcher, and there was some doubt that the retired chief justice would recover.

The former president arrived in Washington today, accompanied by Mrs. Taft, Dr. Hatcher, and a nurse, Miss Gertrude. Mrs. Taft spent a fairly quiet night, about a half hour after her arrival, and then she was moved from the office to the private quarters of the hotel.

With Mrs. Taft at the bedside, the condition of the chief justice was described as extremely serious. The doctor said that the chief justice was in a very critical condition, and that his recovery was doubtful.

GANG BULLETS DEFY ORDER TO CHICAGO COPS

Another Victim Claimed In Rain Of Shots; Mansion Is Robbed Of Many Valuables

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—(AP)—William Healy crawled from an alley on the South Side at 1 A. M. today, with two bullets in his back. The gang guns were writing with lead their answer to the police and state's attorney that the new outbreak of crime "must be stopped."

Healy, probably fatally wounded, was taken to the People's Hospital where Johnny Gienaro, another recent gang gun victim, lies in a critical condition from bullet wounds. It was the same hospital, too, that treated Healy five years ago when he was brought in, suffering from two knife wounds, all in the back.

As was the case five years ago, Healy refused to name his assailants. He maintained his silence even in the face of surgeons' statements that he had only a few hours to live. Mrs. Healy was summoned, and she called a priest, but though the last rites of the church were administered, Healy kept his mouth shut.

Local curies and the roar of an automobile aroused persons living near the scene of the attack. The pistol shots followed, and a motor car sped away.

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—(AP)—Five notorious robbers, called at the E. B. Mallers house in Kenilworth, a North Shore suburb, at 2 o'clock last night, pulled away, and for nine hours, ransacked the house, taking a heavy jewelry departure in the Mallers' automobile at 4 A. M. today with jewelry, silver, watches, clothing and money valued as high as $300,000.

A skyscraper, belittled the robbery and fixed the loot at $16,000 but admitted the loot had yielded his home and left him without an extra cent, shirt or sock. The first report to police said the loot might reach a half million.

Ringling Boat Hits Rock And Sinks But All Are Rescued

SARASOTA, Fla., Feb. 1.—(AP)—Four passengers and a crew of 12 were landed safely when the patrol yacht Zolophus, owned by John Ringling, circus magnate, struck a rock and sank in 12 feet of water two miles south of here early today.

A. Moore, a member of the crew, was the only person injured. His right arm was broken. Captain Albert Rowan said the yacht struck an uncharted rock in South Pass while the party was en route to Gaspari Island, near Fort Myers, on a cruise that started about midnight.

There aboard had sufficient time to take in small motor craft aboard the yacht before it sank. They landed here about daybreak. Only the smoke stack of the craft remained above water.

Samuel Gumpertz, former personal friend of Mr. Ringling, who was a passenger on the yacht and a wrecking crew had been ordered from Tampa to raise the boat, which was built in 1923 at a cost of $200,000.

Besides Mr. Gumpertz, who is connected with developments at Coqui Island, N. Y. the passengers aboard were Mrs. Gumpertz, their niece, Miss Linette Gumpertz and William Grove, president of the Prudential Bond Company of New York.

SANFORD CAGERS BEAT LEESBURG IN EXCITING GAME

Ponder, Capt. Higgins And Aycock Lead Off in 15 to 12 Win

Letton Edenfield

A tall and lively lad by the name of Julian Ponder continued to flash a superior style here Saturday night to lead the Sanford quintet to a 15 to 12 victory over Leesburg High. Ponder played sharp honors with captain Higgins and Aycock. Both played themselves capable in leading the ball from the backcourt, while Aycock was playing an excellent floor game. Higgins was leading Roundtree, the Leesburg star, so much in check that the Leesburg team was unable to get any of their shooting. Higgins and Aycock were shooting for Leesburg. It was the next player to Ponder, having 7 points. Adams played work was noticed by everyone and felt by the locals all during the contest.

Not only was the victory impressive but the manner in which the Celery Feds carried themselves on the court during the encounter was commendable. They were cool, heady basketball, never shooting until they reached the foul line, passing with speed and accuracy, there was nothing fluky at all about their victory.

The first half was seen with more form shown by both teams but the last half turned out to be one of the old fashion games. In the first half Leesburg led for a while, then Sanford jumped to the lead near the end of the half that was never recovered. At the opening of the second period Leesburg led through the Ponder drive, took the lead from out of Adams' hands. In the third quarter, Sanford followed in the lead, and with this lead the Celery Feds were back to back and they played the last quarter very well. The Celery Feds led the game 15 to 12 at the end of the contest, and 8 to 4 at the half.

The Celery Feds scored 15 points in a half, but it was not until the third quarter that they were back to back and they played the last quarter very well. The Celery Feds led the game 15 to 12 at the end of the contest, and 8 to 4 at the half.

DENSMORE SHUTE MORE FISTIC FREAKS!

WINS TEXAS OPEN IN FLASHY STYLE

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Densmore Shute, almost unknown until he won the Los Angeles open less than a month ago, stood forth today as the sensation of the winter month tournaments. He had a cash prize for $1,500 in his pocket, first prize in the Texas open and definitely had removed himself from the "morning glory" class.

The young Columbus, Ohio, star, was popularly believed to have shot slightly above his head when he won the coast event. Those who saw him turn down the Brackenridge Park course here the last three days realize it was a mistaken impression. He was just beginning to fire.

If ever a man shot super-perfect golf, it was Shute in the 72-hole round that closed late yesterday. His total of 277 strokes, including one hole-in-one, was a record for the 68-69-70 over the tricky par 71 layout over a most every imaginable condition. On Saturday, in a misting rain and over a sudden course, he did a 69, and in his final round yesterday, with three opponents right on his heels and a gallery bilious about him all the way, he easily registered par 71. They pay off on that kind of golf.

While Shute's breath-taking game was a thing of beauty to the spectators, it was tough on the other boys, four of his golfing compatriots ended up with par or better for the three-day struggle and found themselves on the fringe of the money. Al Espinosa, Chicago veteran; Ed Dudley, Wilmington, Del., and Neal McIntyre, Indianapolis, all came in with total of 280. Four under par, yet had to be content with $1,700 divided between them. Tony Mancro, Elmsford, N. Y., had a perfect 284, for which he pocketed $200.

Two ruling favorites before the turn began almost were for the vicarage. Wild Bill Mehlhorn, winner two years ago, received less than $100 for his 289. Horton Smith, whose rise to the collier heights last winter was comparable to the present one of Shute, finished with 299 holes and had nothing except a pair of pants.

7-INDICTED FOR BOND TRICKERY IN COAST CITY

an indictment against a competent attorney to investigate the sale of bonds, and against bringing civil suit against the purchaser, was contained in the grand jury report.

"We find that the commission of the crime with George P. Pierce and George A. Richards to sell bonds at a private sale at a price of $100 plus interest," the report stated, "but by appointing said Richards as fiscal agent for the sale of bonds, did then and there pay to Richards $100,000.00, which amount we find was in fact turned over to Brown Company, which was finally purchased by the commission of the crime with George P. Pierce and George A. Richards to sell bonds at a private sale at a price of $100 plus interest."

In handling this matter, an investigation shows that through the entire sale of these bonds there appeared to be a conspiracy on the part of the commission and the fiscal agent and the bond buyer, to sell bonds to Brown Company to defraud the state and the public.

The report recommended that a competent attorney be employed to investigate the sale of the bonds, and to bring a civil suit against the purchaser, and to bring a civil suit against the purchaser.

CROP CHAMPION

Henry, a 14-year-old boy, is the 1935 crop champion of Florida. He raised a 125 bushel crop of sweet potatoes on one acre of land with a net profit of $140.00. He was awarded a tour through several states along with crop champions from the other states.

Henry was well known and well liked in Sanford, where he has a host of friends, one of whom said he had known Henry since he was a boy. He was the son of Charles E. Henry, who was one of Nature's noblest, and the greatest loss will be in the home of his family where he had lived with his mother and father, who was truly a benediction.

WORTHLESS LICENSES Cause New Weddings

MARION, Ark., Feb. 3.—(AP)—Advice which a county clerk issued to "bummers" of persons who had been issued allegedly worthless licenses issued by an Arkansas justice of the peace to be voided with bringing about remarriages in a majority of the cases before the situation became known to the general public.

A report by state Comptroller Howard Reed filed Saturday advised that Justice A. L. Newman had been dispensing marriage licenses for the past 11 months without authority. County Clerk A. B. Carter then disclosed that when the licenses came to him for recording he quietly communicated with the couples and in every case of which he knew remarriage had followed.

CRUCIAL GAMES FACE SOUTHERN CAGE ATHLETES

Leadership Claims Of 3 Undeclared Teams Will Be At Stake

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 3.—(AP)—Leadership claims of each of three undefeated southern inter-collegiate basketball squads will be at stake this week in crucial games listed on the feature. Atlanta is the largest single week-a-program of the season. Games are booked for the six-day period.

Alabama's crimson cagers, who topped the tip of the field last week by trampling Mississippi twice, must defend their crown against Louisiana State and Tennessee. The Tusculooa outfit has five conference victories.

At least one of the other undefeated squads—Sewanee or Washington and Lee—must drop out of the race this Saturday night. Prior to that game, a sequence of encounters Tennessee at Knoxville Wednesday, Virginia Polytechnic at Blacksburg Thursday and Virginia Military at Lexington Friday will Washington and Lee face Maryland at College Park Tuesday, and North Carolina at Lexington Thursday. The game at Lexington will be a William and Mary non-conference game.

Both Kentucky and Georgia were removed from the contest last week. Tennessee beat Kentucky in an extra period game at Knoxville Friday and Kentucky took Georgia's measure in another game requiring an additional session at Athens Saturday night. Georgia previously had beaten Auburn.

Mississippi and Virginia struck a hard luck streak, the Oxford cagers losing four games and Kentucky in an extra period game at Knoxville Friday and Kentucky took Georgia's measure in another game requiring an additional session at Athens Saturday night. Georgia previously had beaten Auburn.

Livestock in Florida

There is only one ailment, with which the human race is afflicted, that is not benefited at least to some extent by sunshine. That one ailment, as you probably know, is sunburn.

Dr. Otto Sieplein, professor of chemistry at the University of Miami and head of the Joseph H. Adams Foundation, recently told the members of the Miami Rotary Club that fifteen minutes of exposure under a tropical sun will benefit a person more than an all day exposure under glass in the North.

His investigations have shown that the sun-gives off sixty percent heat, thirty five percent light and between two and four percent ultra-violet rays.

"New York scientists 18 months ago began to see the connection between the sun's rays and rickets, the most dreaded disease of children," said Dr. Sieplein. "The lime in your blood controls your general health more than any other thing. The best specific against old age is sunshine."

"The sunshine being spilled here will make you more vigorous, give you more life, you know that. I defy anyone to keep you indoors while in Miami. You are bound to get out into the sunshine. It is controlling all life. It is not the light which aids you, but the little bit of ultra-violet ray that does the job."

"The ultra-violet ray, however, is easily lost. It is a short wave. You will receive none of it through plate glass, although the glass is perfectly clear. You receive a little of it through vitra glass for the first few weeks then only two-thirds of the rays, but later, even though the rays strike the glass at direct right angles, you will not be benefited."

The Value Of The Sun's Rays

Florida is recognized as a great resort center, as the playground of the world. It is also famed for its citrus industry, for its celery and other vegetable products, for its car, pitch and turpentine, for its phosphate deposits, and its great sponge fisheries.

But according to a current report of the United States department of agriculture, Florida farmers are doing a thriving business in cattle, sheep, swine and other live stock. Horses and mules are still raised to some extent, but their numbers are rapidly falling off as automobiles, and other motor vehicles and implements take their place.

According to this report, Florida livestock was valued on the first day of the new year at $24,868,000, compared with $24,026,000 on the same day in 1929, which was an increase of $842,000 over last year and nearly $1,000,000 over the estimate for 1928.

Following were other statistics in the report, showing the total number of head of each class of stock in the state for 1929 and 1930 and the total valuation for each:

- Horses and colts, 25,000 head in 1929 valued at $2,164,000 and 24,000 head in 1930 valued at $2,100,000.
- Mules and mule colts, 42,000 head in 1929 valued at $5,200,000 and 41,000 head in 1930 at $5,070,000.
- All cattle and calves, 480,000 head in 1929 valued at $11,245,000 and 480,000 head in 1930 valued at $12,765,000.
- Milk cows and heifers, two years old and over, 71,000 head in 1929 valued at $3,401,000 and 78,000 head in 1930 valued at $4,200,000.
- Heifers, 1 to 2 years for milk, 17,000 head in 1929 and 18,000 head in 1930, with no valuation shown for either year.
- Sheep and lambs, 59,000 head each for 1929 and 1930, with the valuation for 1929 at $251,000 and $236,000 for 1930.
- Swine, included pigs, 516,000 head for 1929, valued at $4,163,000 and 490,000 head for 1930, valued at $3,497,000.
- "All livestock, valuation for 1929 was $24,026,000 and $24,868,000 for 1930."

The Farmer's Advice

By Alford Smith

There may be some people in the world who have a question: Why do YOU hate it?

Why? About your throat? Are they PLEASANT? ABOUT? WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT? One of the most beautiful passages that can happen to you is the passage of your throat.

NERVES SEEMED ALL TO PIECES. Lady Dida's Sheep Well; Was Weak, Suffering Before She Took Cardui.

Cardui. Mrs. John A. Dida, 2301 Commercial Avenue, New York, N. Y., writes: "I had a very bad cold and my nerves were all to pieces, and I did not sleep well. I got so tired that I had to go to bed. I began taking Cardui and found it in every way suited to my need. I began to feel better very quickly, but I continued taking Cardui as I wanted to feel strong and well."

HUGHES NAMED CHIEF JUSTICE OF HIGH COURT

Orlando Citrus Leader Delivers Address To Club

(Continued from page 1) It brought the capital to a state that led him through the left offices of the American government. To the other side of the beginning of a new chapter in a career already brilliant.

While Mr. Taft is the only man in history to have served as president and chief justice, Hughes is the first to have served in both capacities. He is the only man to have served in both capacities.

With Hughes' nomination, the affairs and the affairs of the public know him as a man of letters, a man of letters, a man of letters.

Hughes' career began in New York where he served as chief justice of the state supreme court.

He was appointed to the position of chief justice of the state supreme court in 1916.
