

ARMED FORCES

NANCY HILBARD
MAN ANTONIO — Army Nancy J. Hilbard, daughter of retired U.S. Navy Chief Petty Officer and Lt. James O. Hilbard of 118 W. Coleman Circle, Sanford, has been selected for technical training at Keesler AFB, Miss., in the Air Force administrative field. The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex., and studied the Air Force mission, organization and command and received special instruction in human relations. Airman Hilbard is a 1975 graduate of Seminole High School.

RONALD NORMAN
 Navy Lieutenant Commander Ronald W. Norman, 36, son of Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Norman of 777 Hi-Way 17-86, Palm Park, is participating in a six-week NATO maritime exercise: "Team Work '76." He is serving as a crew member and replenishment officer USNS Kalamazoo.

The two-week exercise involves more than 80,000 personnel, 200 surface ships, 40 submarines and 300 aircraft from nine NATO countries and France.

"Team Work '76" units will be operating in the North Atlantic Ocean, English Channel and Baltic Sea. In addition, major combined amphibious landings will be made in Norway, with a secondary amphibious landing in Denmark.

Admiral Isaac C. Kidd Jr., USN, the Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic, is coordinating the overall conduct of the exercise.

Vice Admiral John J. Shanahan, USN, Commander of the Atlantic Fleet, is the tactical commander of all NATO naval forces. The primary objectives of the exercise are to test and improve the combat readiness of the allied forces and to test plans for the defense of Western Europe. Participating units will evaluate increased standardization of doctrines, equipment and armaments among NATO forces, plus test command and control procedures for coordinated action by NATO sea, land and air forces.

A 1987 graduate of Auburn University, Auburn, Ala., with a Bachelor of Science degree, he joined the Navy in February 1960. Norman's ship is homeported at Mayport.

EDWARD ZANDER
 Navy Boiler Technician Edward P. Zander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zander of 510 Second St., Chuluota, participated in the NATO Exercise "Display Determination" in the Mediterranean Sea.

He is a crewmember aboard the guided missile frigate USS Talbot, deployed with the U.S. Sixth Fleet. His command joined with naval forces from Portugal, Italy, Turkey and the United Kingdom for the combined exercise which included convoy operations, amphibious assault landings and anti-submarine warfare maneuvers.

The primary objective of the exercise was to train NATO naval forces in combined sea operations, to refine NATO procedures and ensure that operational plans were current. Participating units evaluated increased standardization of doctrines, equipment and armaments among NATO forces, plus command and control procedures for coordinated action by NATO sea, land and air forces.

The convoy operation tested Allied capabilities to reinforce and resupply ground forces in Southern Europe. Acting as opposing forces, NATO units simulated surface, subsurface and air attacks along the convoy's route.

"Display Determination" was one of a series of annual operations, conducted each fall from Norway to Turkey, designed to provide unified and coordinated training of national and NATO forces within the Allied European Command. A former student of Oriedo High School, Oriedo, he joined the Navy in November 1974.

$50,000 BOAT FIRE

Investigators from the State Fire Marshal's office, Seminole sheriff's and fire early today at Sanford Boat Works, a 35-foot drydocked cruiser destroyed by fire. Sheriff's deputies reported the origin of the blaze is unknown. A neighbor reported the fire was preceded by what sounded like a gunshot. Officers said the boat, valued at $50,000, was completely destroyed. They listed the owner as Mike Casiglio, 1814 Mellenville Ave., Sanford. Above, firemen probe the gutted craft after extinguishing the 4:30 a.m. blaze.

In Student Ridicule Probe

Layer Gets School's Name

Pat Telson, vice-chairman of the Seminole County School Board, said Wednesday night she has investigated recent charges that some public school teachers have used grades to ridicule students and that he has turned the name of the offending school over to Supl. William P. (Bud) Layer for "corrective action."

Mrs. Telson reported her findings to the board in response to criticisms leveled against some Seminole County teachers by George Willis, a member of the Countywide School Advisory Committee at the panel's Oct. 13 meeting.

Willis told board members that he had heard of instances where teachers in county schools had used a poor grade by a student to "ridicule" the youngster "and thereby destroy his self-confidence."

Willis said he had received reports that some teachers in the Seminole school system still used tactics such as holding a student's paper up before the class and saying, "This is John Doe's paper. I want you to look at how he did on this test. Aren't you glad you can't do the same as he did?"

Willis, who said he was speaking as a tax-paying citizen rather than a committee member, told panelists he was especially sensitive on the subject because "I wasn't a very good student myself. And I got back of being embarrassed and ridiculed time after time after time."

"I think I know who the same as he did,"

'Swing' Vihlen Opts For Single Attorney

By ED PRICKETT
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County Commissioner Sid Vihlen Jr., who holds the swing vote on the county attorney issue, today opted for one attorney to fill the new in-house legal department.

Exec. Asst. Roger Neiswender said on Wednesday he feels two attorneys are needed to handle the county's legal work load. But Vihlen, who made the initial motion to switch to an in-house legal staff, said at this point he feels one "top-flight attorney" should be sufficient to do the job.

Neiswender is polling commissioners to determine in which direction they will vote. Both Commissioners Dick Williams and Volm Kimbrough have indicated one attorney would be sufficient, while Democratic Commissioners Harry Kwiatkowski and Mike Hattaway have opted for two full-time lawyers.

However, Vihlen left his option open. He said he will meet with Asst. County Atty. Robert Pierce later this week before voting at a commission meeting — possibly by next Tuesday.

Vihlen said his final vote "is subject" to the meeting with Pierce.

Neiswender said hiring a second attorney, among other things, would make an attorney available for questions from county department chiefs.

After the decision was made to create a legal department, County Atty. Tom Freeman indicated he would not accept the lead attorney's position at $25,000 a year. But Freeman's assistant, Pierce, said he might be interested. Then commissioners said the lead attorney should have five years experience. Pierce has only two.

The second-in-command would earn from $12,000 to $14,000 a year. Freeman and labor attorneys Alley & Blue earned more than $200,000 last year in legal fees.

Freeman says an in-house legal staff will not in the long run reduce the fees paid for legal services.

Neiswender is urging commissioners to make the decision — one attorney or two.

The reason, Neiswender says, is because Freeman is phasing out his services, and the county could be left without adequate legal coverage unless the department quickly becomes a reality.

Commissioners already have voted to hire the lead attorney. The major remaining decision centers on his assistant. The county attorney issue has been a major one among candidates who are seeking seats on the Seminole County commission this year.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. (AP) — In these days of sex discrimination suits, Lake Superior State College officials weren't taking any chances with their new $10-million physical education complex.

That's why they labeled the locker rooms "1," "2," and "3," instead of the more traditional "men" or "women."

Officials said after wading through volumes of federal regulations governing sex discrimination and equal opportunities that they were afraid labeling the locker rooms by sex might trigger a lawsuit unless the facilities were identical.

"If anybody gets excited we can rotate the rooms monthly or weekly if necessary," said college President Kenneth J. Shandera.

Right now, the women are using No. 1, and the men No. 2. Nobody is sure who is supposed to use No. 3.

Federal $ Sought In Fern Park Fire Station Planned On School Site

By KRIS NASH
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County Supl. William P. (Bud) Layer recommended that the board "tentatively accept" the county's proposal until funds for the project have been granted by Washington and construction is ready to begin.

"Mr. Carlson (Director of Auxiliary Services Hugh) and I discussed this a little bit and we'd like to see the building moved back a little more than what it is on the plans," Layer said. "But Mr. Kaiser said he didn't feel that would be any problem."

Board Chairman Robert G. (Bud) Feather questioned the possible threat of danger to students posed by the close proximity of fire trucks to the elementary school campus, but Layer said this had been weighed and that "with proper signalization on that corner there by the school, I don't see where it would be any real severe problem."

Most fire stations are located on "a major thoroughfare" of some type, Layer said, and vehicles responding to fire calls are faced with traffic problems of varying severity. Should a fire signal come in while students and parents are coming to or leaving the school, said Layer, "They (the fire vehicles) would have more problems than we would."

Vice-chairman Pat Telson asked about the noise factor, but Kaiser said modern fire stations are no longer equipped with sirens atop the building or other outside noise-making devices.

"The equipment moves out and when it hits the street, then we use the sirens," Kaiser explained.

Layer added that since the English Estates school building is air conditioned and has few windows, the sound of fire sirens would have little chance of disrupting classes.

Kaiser showed board members plans of a Jacksonville firehouse from which he said the Fern Park facility would be modeled. The outside appearance of the fire station was exceptionally good, Kaiser said, because it was located in a Jacksonville suburb containing homes valued in the $100,000-$200,000 range.

In other business, the board approved Layer's recommendation to name the Daimwold-Derryberry-Pavelchak Partnership of Casselberry as the architect to handle transformation of the Sanford Naval Academy Junior School building into an administrative office complex for the superintendent and his staff.

Construction on the new office structure, located on a 20-acre tract of land at Celery and Mellenville avenues, is scheduled to begin "sometime in the spring," Layer said.

He Lost His Memory... She Won Her Case

ROSWELL, N.M. (AP) — Aides to Sen. Bob Dole say the Republican vice presidential candidate has suffered a lapse of memory and can't remember telling a national television audience that this century's wars were "Democratic wars."

Dole aides said Wednesday that, despite his use of the phrase as recently as Monday, the candidate has no recollection of using the term during his national television debate with Democratic candidate Walter Mondale 10 days ago.

The Republican vice presidential candidate reportedly had been under pressure from GOP leaders to back off the "Democratic war" remark, which aides privately said was hurting the campaign.

So when the subject came up again in Troy, Ohio, on Tuesday, Dole said, "No, I don't believe" that either World War II or Vietnam were partisan wars.

It was a clear retreat from his characterization of these wars in his televised campaign debate as "Democratic wars."

But Dole denied that he had reversed his position, saying he only brought up the subject in Troy because "I didn't want the media to be confused."

He was then asked, "Are you still calling them Democratic wars?"

"Never did," Dole responded.

He expanded on the theme last week and, asked often if he planned to follow through with his "Democratic war" threat, he replied that he planned "to fight fire with fire."

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — JoAnn Saunders' legal ordeal is over — at least until after the voters of the 5th Congressional District decide on Tuesday whether they want her as their representative.

Mrs. Saunders was assured a berth in the election when U.S. District Judge William Stafford sustained Wednesday his ruling prohibiting the Ethics Commission from possibly removing her from the ballot.

Ethics Chairman Dan Reed said the commission will not appeal the ruling. It prevented a panel hearing before the election on Mrs. Saunders' failure to file a financial disclosure statement on time.

The commission could have recommended that Secretary of State Bruce Sanders remove her from the ballot if it decided she violated the disclosure requirement.

The 2-year-old Orlando Democrat is running against Rep. Richard Kelly, R-Fla., in what has become one of this year's most sharply contested elections.

She charged in a prepared statement read by her husband, George, her campaign manager, that the removal move "was a partisan ploy by the Republicans."

Reed, a former House Republican leader, has denied any political motivation. A majority of commission members are Democrats.

"I have not willfully violated any laws of the state of Florida and the United States of America," Mrs. Saunders said. "My financial disclosure statement is on file in Tallahassee, and I am pleased that my name will remain on the ballot."

NATION IN BRIEF

Ferry Boat Captain Was 'Almost Legally Drunk'

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A coroner says the captain of a Mississippi River commuter ferry was "almost legally drunk" when his craft collided with a tanker last week, killing an estimated 78 persons.

"This guy had been drinking... It is difficult to say how much," said Orleans Parish Coroner Frank Minyard, who released an autopsy Wednesday on Capt. Egidio Auletta, 35.

College Enrollment Up 11.7%

WASHINGTON (AP) — Minority enrollment in the nation's colleges and universities rose 11.7 per cent between 1972 and 1974, with major strides in private colleges and universities, the U.S. Office for Civil Rights announced today.

The government survey showed that white enrollment in public institutions actually decreased during the two years, from 3,986,450 to 3,964,292. White enrollment in private schools rose modestly from 1,405,822 to 1,448,363.

Minority students represented 11.9 per cent of the total higher education enrollment in 1972 and 13.1 per cent in 1974.

Freeze Warnings Posted

Frost and freeze warnings were posted today for the first time this year over a wide spread area of the eastern United States, from the lower Great Lakes, across the Appalachians and through most of the Atlantic Coast.

The same oversized high pressure system that brought this very cold air also chilled most of the eastern two-thirds of the nation. Temperatures dropped to unseasonably low levels across the Mississippi valley, through the South and Central Plains into Southwest Texas.

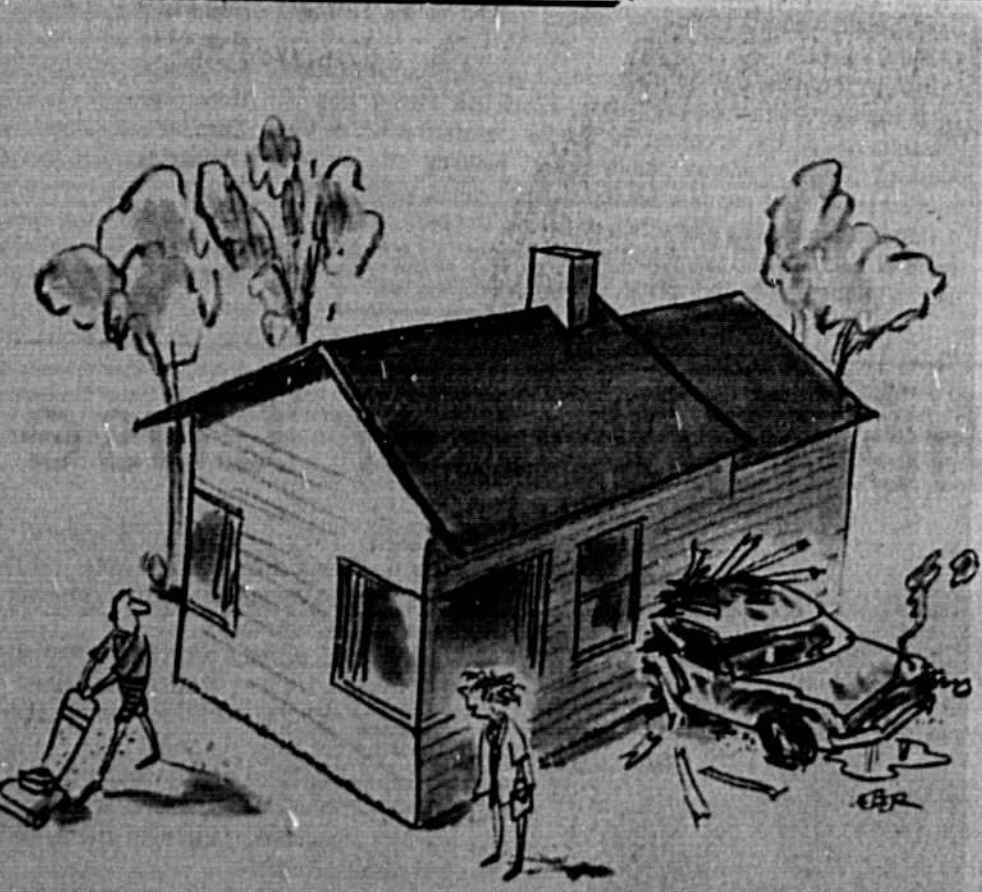

Crosby Benefit To Aid Church

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Crooner Bing Crosby is giving a benefit concert in this glittering gambling town — to help a priest move his congregation out of a saloon.

Crosby, 71, who played a priest in several films, will perform without fee on Nov. 26 to raise money for construction of the Holy Family Catholic Church, producer Bill Loeb announced Wednesday.

Developer Loses Lawsuit

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — The Supreme Court has rejected a developer's argument that the state should be as liable for defense costs as private citizens when it files environmental suits.

The court, in a 6-1 opinion Wednesday, refused to reverse the decision of the 1st District Court of Appeal that the state was not liable for $32,000 in defense costs resulting from an unsuccessful attempt to block construction of a 408-unit condominium in Bay County.

Gurney: 'They Ruined Me Economically'

ORLANDO (AP) — Former Sen. Edward J. Gurney, his name cleared after a long legal battle, blames his ordeal on "vindictive people from the government."

"They destroyed a United States senator, blackened my name, besmirched my character and ruined me economically," Gurney said Wednesday after a jury found him innocent of perjury.

Gurney, 62, was accused of lying to a 1974 Jacksonville grand jury about a major political fund-raising operation. He had been acquitted of five bribery, conspiracy and perjury charges at a trial in Tampa last year, but the government ordered him retried on one perjury charge on which the jury reached no verdict.

"We've been these mean, vicious and vindictive people from the government," said the former Republican senator, who retired because of the scandal.

The grand jury had charged that Gurney "deliberately and willfully lied" when he said he didn't know that his longtime fund raiser, Larry Williams of Orlando, had collected more than $400,000 in illegal contributions. Williams got the money from Florida builders in exchange for promises of favors from Florida officials of the Federal Housing Administration.

The only issue before the jury here when it began deliberations was whether Gurney knew before mid-1973 that Williams used part of his illegal collections to pay Gurney's field-office and staff expenses.

Gurney, a World War II hero who served three terms as a congressman before his 1966 election to the Senate, gained national prominence as the tough-questioning defender of Senator Richard M. Nixon during the televised Senate Watergate hearings in 1972.

Asked whether he thought this had anything to do with the government's prosecution, Gurney said, "I can only conjecture about Watergate... I expect it probably did. But I don't know."

Justice Department lawyer Edward Barnes, the ninth federal prosecutor assigned to the case over three years, had no comment.

Williams testified for the government in return for a plea-bargained prison sentence of five months. Others serving prison terms in connection with the case were James Groat, once Gurney's administrative assistant; FHA Director William Pelick of Coral Gables; and building contractor John Priest of Miami.

The case against Gurney depended largely on Williams, who went to the Justice Department in 1973 and agreed to tell all about his fund-raising activities in return for a reduced sentence.

Santa's Helpers

Flagship Banks of Seminole help Santa Claus by mailing Christmas Club checks early. Flagship Bank of Sanford today mailed 699 checks totaling $91,674, while Flagship U.S. Bank of Seminole mailed 350 checks totaling $42,817.

Sheriff's Detectives Probing Bar Burglary

Seminole sheriff's detectives today were investigating the Wednesday night burglary of a bar at Sanford in which yeggs reportedly made off with $687 in cash and coins, a .38-caliber revolver and a man's wrist watch.

Deputy John Hawkins said the Chicago Flats bar, 233 W. 18th St., was entered via men's room window and the burglars entered two coin-operated machines.

Meanwhile, James Bradwell, P.O. Box 242, Lake Monroe, told deputies that someone tried a lock off the door to his tollhouse and made off with tools, power saw and drill and a chain saw, total value $468, according to a report filed by Deputy Fred Johnson.

About the same time, on the opposite side of the county, deputies said county firemen extinguished a burning auto on Howard St. in Black Hammock north of Oviedo.

Sheriff's Sgt. Luke Stallworth said the 1972 model sedan, reportedly owned by Annie M. Moore, of Sanford, was destroyed. He said the auto had been reported stolen earlier Wednesday in Orlando.

Stallworth said the car had been stripped of the left door and fender and all four wheels before apparently being set afire.

Ford: I'm Not Like Uh... Uh... Nixon

By The Associated Press President Ford, contending there is a "distinct difference" between his administration and that of Richard Nixon, is working to put distance between himself and his predecessor.

Ford campaigned Wednesday in New Jersey and Pennsylvania and was trying to Ohio and Indiana today.

Democratic nominee Jimmy Carter campaigned Wednesday in New York and Pennsylvania and declared in Pittsburgh that his economic policies would make a tax cut "almost inevitable" in the next four years.

Carter's running mate, Sen. Walter Mondale, was taking today off after a swing through Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and West Virginia.

Ford's willingness to bring up Nixon's name in public marks a departure from his previous strategy of barely admitting to the existence of the resigned former president.

And, Ford said, Carter is "running against Jerry Ford. He's not running against former President Nixon."

Meanwhile, Carter mentioned the possibility of a tax cut in a radio interview in Pittsburgh when he told a questioner that instead of raising taxes there is a "much more likely prospect of tax reduction in the next four years. I believe it is almost inevitable."

Ford replied that "the average guy in the street knows there's a distinct difference" between Nixon and Ford, the President said. He said he does not get large quantities of mail that link him with Nixon, but his mail does "hold me accountable" for the state of the nation in the past two years.

In the past, when Ford was placed in a position where he had to mention Nixon, the former president became "my predecessor." Once or twice,

Nichols Drive: An Up-Hill Climb

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — A predominantly Democratic audience labored with amusement and amazement to the barbs of Mrs. Nichols and Public Service Commissioner Paula Hawkins last night.

Then they voted, 58-42, for Mrs. Nichols, a Republican, in a straw poll that showed the problems Mrs. Nichols, a Democrat, faces in her bid for public office.

With the election less than a week away, Mrs. Nichols stands out as the one Democratic candidate whose prospects are dim.

To begin with, she is running against an incumbent who enjoys good name recognition. She also has a reputation, deserved or not, as a fighter for consumer interests on a panel that has approved many millions of dollars in utility rate increases in the past four years.

Republicans contend there's no way Mrs. Nichols can be beat.

"I think Katie Nichols probably peaked two or three weeks ago," said former state GOP Chairman L.E. "Tommy" Thomas, a close friend of Mrs. Nichols. "I think she's suffering from overexposure."

Democrats counter with a poll, taken last week, which shows Mrs. Nichols holding a 38-57 lead over Mrs. Hawkins. "That's enough to win by," says Mrs. Nichols.

However, the Democratic poll, if accurate, indicates that 58 per cent of the voters, a surprisingly high figure at this point, are undecided.

"It does worry me," admitted Mrs. Nichols. "You've got to worry about that many undecided."

WE BELIEVE OUR LISTING POLICY MAKES SENSE. YOU BE THE JUDGE!

ST. JOHNS REALTY CO. is the oldest real estate firm in continuous operation in Seminole County, and we have maintained a policy for many years concerning the listing of property which we feel is appropriate in a free enterprise system. We feel that we give the listings of our clients the best exposure and the greatest possibility for sale by dealing primarily in open listings in direct competition with other firms. We feel that this competition and the promise of financial reward for successful sales is greater incentive and provides a more personalized presentation than catalog listings as is done by so many firms today. On occasion St. Johns has taken exclusive listings for short periods of time, but the obligation of the broker who is entrusted with the sale of a client's real property, which represents a large investment by the client, should manifest itself in a personal concentration of effort by the broker and his office staff. The fact that a listing is subrogated to every broker does not enhance the possibility of sale, but to a degree lessens it because the incentive of the listing broker and the selling broker has been curtailed by a cut in their financial reward.

If you believe a custom service organization can better do your selling job, contact ST. JOHNS REALTY CO., "The Time-Tested Firm", using the coupon provided.

Auto Prices Up $333

WASHINGTON (AP) — The price of a typically equipped 1977 U.S.-made automobile is up $333 from the 1976 version, but government officials say they foresee no further increases in this year's models.

The Council on Wage and Price Stability, which monitors inflation for the federal government, said Wednesday that manufacturers are expected to stabilize their income by turning out more cars rather than by raising prices again.

The council, after studying confidential data from the four largest auto manufacturers, reported a 1.1-per-cent hike in the price of 1977 subcompacts, a 6.8-per-cent increase in mid-sized cars and an over-all average boost of 3.9 per cent.

In other economic developments:

—General Motors reported record-shattering profits in the third quarter, reflecting improvement in the national economy.

—The Labor Department announced that output per hour of work was up at an annual rate of 3.8 per cent last quarter, a leveling off. Hourly compensation of workers, adjusted for inflation, rose 1.2 per cent, the smallest gain in five quarters.

—Liberal economists said the Ford administration's sharp cutback in federal spending during the last quarter must share the blame for lagging economic growth. Spending was $7.6 billion below the budget, but administration spokesmen denied any direct connection to the slump. But the size of the spending cutback took them by surprise.

Bellwether Towns Signal Differences

Emmetsburg Iowa

EMMETTSBURG, Iowa (AP) — Rural Palo Alto County, which prides itself on having voted with the winner in every presidential election since 1868, favors Gerald Ford this time, according to a local poll.

"Mostly I think it comes down to why they wouldn't vote for the others," said Jane Whitmore, who is handling the poll here.

Whitmore, "seem to think it's time for a change ... and they were mad about the grain embargo."

Ford may have lost some support by firing former Agriculture Secretary Earl Butte, Hofstad said. "The farmers here thought Butte was doing a good job for them."

Carter's controversial Playboy magazine interview seemed not to change many opinions in the county, Hofstad said, "but I understand that some (October) was a sellout here."

came in 1902, when it went for Democrat Adlai Stevenson over Dwight D. Eisenhower, and in 1968, when county voters chose Richard M. Nixon, who lost to John F. Kennedy.

Local Republican leaders are calling the election "a hill a horse race," but Mike Templeman, a state Democratic official, said he agreed that if Bracken goes for Carter, Kentucky and the nation will, too.

He said registered Democrats outnumber Republicans 1,150, 629 to 600,368 in Kentucky.

The newspaper poll shows Ford with support from 58.8 per cent of those answering, to 46.7 per cent for Jimmy Carter and 2.9 per cent for independent Eugene McCarthy.

Since ballots first appeared in the paper on Sept. 30, 274 have been returned in this northwest Iowa county of 13,200 residents. Most of its towns exist mainly as retail trade centers and commodity marketing points for farmers.

Editor Jerry Hofstad said the poll confirms his impression of how the election will go. He said many residents oppose Carter "because he wants to give everything away, and they're full of it — welfare, food stamps and crop like that."

"They also like some of the things Ford has done, like the veto of the big spending bills," Carter backers, said Ms.

Brooksville Kentucky

BROOKSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The sheriff says Bracken County has a habit of voting for the winner in presidential elections, and he figures this year Jimmy Carter is a shoe-in.

"I predict Carter will be the next president, and a lot of the people here think that, too," said Sheriff Roy Allen Jett.

"We're traditionally Democratic, but we're traditionally right, too."

Jett said in all but two presidential elections in the past three decades, residents of this northern Kentucky county have voted for the winning candidate.

Needle Beetle To Hold Exhibition WOMEN

Evening Herald, Sanford, Fla. Thursday, Oct. 28, 1976—18

Here's news for nimble-fingered ladies and gents! The Second Annual Needlework Exhibit sponsored by The Needle Beetle, Sanford is scheduled for Friday through Sunday at the Sanford Woman's Club, Oak Avenue, between Second and Third Streets.

The exhibit will be open to the public Friday from 6-8 p.m.; Saturday from noon-4 p.m.; Sunday from 1-4 p.m. Admission is fifty cents.

The exhibit is open to all area needleworkers. Entries must be the work of the exhibitor and must not have been previously exhibited in public. There is no restriction on sources of materials or designs, and there will be a special category for original designs.

The list of categories is long and varied. Entries may be obtained from The Needle Beetle, 2547 S. Sanford Ave. Ribbons will be awarded.

There is fifty cent entry fee per article, and twenty five cents for each entry over four. Special categories include children's work by a child 13 or under when completed; senior citizens group A, for persons 65 or older; senior citizens group B, for persons 75 or older; beginner project, the first needlework project entrant over attempted; special interest, such as antique needlework or novelty item (not eligible for ribbons).

Articles to be entered must be brought to the Women's Club between 2-4 p.m. today, or until noon Friday. Judging will be done before the show opens Friday evening.

No article may be picked up until after 8 p.m. Sunday, or by noon on Monday.

The greatest care will be taken of needlework entries, but all entries are at the needleworker's own risk.

The original design category will be subject to rigorous eligibility rules. Articles must be original work by the participant, designed either by the Money is raised through the Pink Ladies' projects: the hospitality shop, coffee shop, television rental, portraits of newborn babies and donations.

Doing Her Own Thing

Stitch In Time For Greyhound Singers

Virginia DeVillaggio deep in process of making choral uniforms

By ELDA NICHOLES
Bernad Cervone

Bols of bright red and green tartan plaid almost fill one room of Virginia DeVillaggio's home.

In the midst of all this she is smiling and happily doing what she loves to do — sew.

"These uniforms will be worn by the Greyhound Singers of Lyman High School," she explained. "It will be the first time they've had a really outstanding uniform, and it will be worn for the first time at the December concert."

The three-piece suit will consist of bright green trousers for boys, with a red shirt and green tartan vest. Girls will wear red pants, green blouses and tartan vest. Singers are paying for their own uniforms and Virginia at the sewing machine, they will be put together to last a while!

The Greyhound Singers are a total performing group, doing choreographed show tunes, and directed by Ms. Karen Nelson. Becky Connert is the student pianist and Scott Wachman plays drums for the group's specialty numbers. Virginia is president of the Choral Boosters (her son, Pat, sings with the Greyhounds), so her interest is highly personal.

"These are a great bunch of kids," said Virginia. "There's no school credit for this class, and they voluntarily practice two afternoons a week." In demand all over the area, the singers also compete in district and state contests.

Virginia's sewing ability just seems to come naturally, and includes everything from a complete formal wedding gown to just about any casual wear you can name.

"Sometimes it's a little nerve wracking," she admitted, "but it's also good mental therapy. When I take a piece of material, cut it out and then stitch it up, there's something to show, and it makes me feel good!"

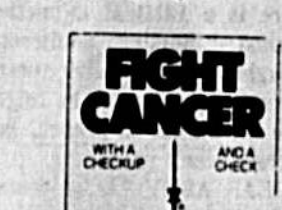

Chorale Sets Plans; Starts To Travel

They did it last year, and now they hope to do it again next year.

The Central Florida Chorale after frantic fund raising efforts and endless practice, made it to Poland for a summer singing tour in 1975.

Now the group of local women hopes to organize another tour next summer, destination still to be finalized.

The Chorale will kick off its travel fund drive Saturday with a rummage sale from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. in the former Singer store, Sanford Plaza. A lot of new items, as well as used items, baked goods, crafts and Hallmark treats will be on sale.

Howe Campaigns Despite Odds Against Chances

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The polls show him far behind. His party isn't supporting him, and most of his leaders rate his chances zero. But still Rep. Allan T. Howe doggedly campaigns on and insists he may still win re-election to his congressional seat.

Howe, a Democrat and a 49-year-old father of five, was convicted in 1974 of embezzling $1 million from two police deputy prosecutors. He resigned post office to drop out of the race.

"The people are sticking with me," he says. "I'm very hopeful and surely it's possible for me to win."

Hardly any Democratic politician shares this view, and many feel Howe's presence on the ticket is hurting other Democratic contenders.

The latest poll showed Howe trailing Republican Don Marriott by 50 to 27 per cent. Veteran Sen. Frank E. Moss trails Republican newcomer Orrin Hatch in a bid for a fourth term, and Democrat Scott Matheson, a railroad lawyer supported by retiring Gov. Calvin L. Rampton, holds a narrow and shaky lead over Republican Atty. Gen. Vernon B. Roromey in the governor's race.

"In the early part of the campaign, the Democrats had a very hard time really getting off the ground because every place they went somebody wanted to talk about Mr. Howe's problems rather than the issues of the campaign," Rampton says.

Howe maintains he's encountered few difficulties.

"The campaign is just rolling along," he says. "I've been getting excellent response from the people. We're walking in the neighborhoods several hours every day ringing doorbells and shaking hands."

He said his staff reports that campaign contributions fell off last summer, but that money coming in since his conviction "is in the form of $10, $20 and $50 donations."

Howe has put his family to work on the campaign, which contends with the party-endorsed, write-in candidacy of Daryl McCarty, who trails Howe in the polls.

Howe's wife, Marlene, accompanies him wherever he goes. Sons and daughters deliver handbills, answer telephones and perform other duties.

The freshman congressman says there's been little feedback about his conviction from the people, although his family reported several weeks ago that a pipe bomb blew apart their mailbox, and a caller yelled obscenities to him over the telephone during a radio talk show.

"Most people are very understanding," Howe said. "There's a feeling of outrage by some about the way the matter was handled by the press. They feel they've had enough and let's get on with it."

degree from Northeast Louisiana University.

The participants spent 15 hours of their own time learning about modern creative art education and some of its materials and tools. They learned by doing, rolling up their sleeves and trying out the techniques presented by Ms. Durham.

These techniques include some of the uses of crayons, water colors, poster paints, finger paints, colored chalks and modeling clay. Simple craft techniques were also shown, giving the teachers and volunteers an opportunity to work with paper, paste, and other materials to gain three-dimensional effects. All of the Art Workshop activities were experienced by each teacher can relate to classroom teaching.

School officials responsible for the Workshop made arrangements, in addition to School Supt. William P. Layer, include Charles Swagerty, executive director; James Neville, principal at Red Bus and Mrs. Viola McLoughlin, administrative assistant.

Recipe Correction

There was an error in Wednesday's Cook of the Week recipe for Wheat Germ Bread where "two-thirds cup flour" should have read "two and three quarters cup flour." The correct recipe follows:

WHEAT GERM BREAD

2 1/2 cup all purpose flour
1 pkg. yeast
1 cup wheat germ
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup warm water (115-118 degrees)
1 cup molasses or sugar
2 tbs. margarine
1 egg

Combine half the flour, yeast, wheat germ and salt; mix well. Add water, egg, margarine and molasses. Beat three minutes with electric beater. Add rest of flour gradually, mixing by hand. Cover, let rise one hour or until light. Spoon into two quart casserole or two small loaf pans. Cover, let rise 30 minutes or until light. Bake at 375 degrees 30 minutes or until golden brown. Turn out on cake rack to cool.

Wife Upset With Prescription For Better Sex Life

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I wish you would please stop sending people to doctors just because they aren't sex maniacs.

My husband, at 58, mind you, started listening to all those sex-crazy men at work and decided that something must be wrong with him because he lost interest in sex. Then he went to his doctor who told him that some sex expert named Kinsey took a vote and found out that most men NEVER wear out.

Now, probably I wonder who he asked? Really a lot of men who were ashamed to tell the truth.

Well, anyhow, this doctor told

Dear Abby

I'm a God-fearing, church-going woman, Abby, and I think that doctor should lose his license for handing out immoral advice. Your opinion, please.

DISGUSTED IN ATLANTA

DEAR DISGUSTED: Although fantasies are a part of every normal person's life, there is a Biblical injunction against "thinking adulterous thoughts." If such advice were given by a preacher, he might lose his license to preach, but doctors aren't preachers.

DEAR ABBY: A handsome little fellow in our neighborhood has been pretending that he is a with me!

dog ever since he was a toddler, and now he is nearly kindergarten age.

He doesn't just "pretend" he's a dog, he actually ACTS like one. He makes barking and whining sounds just like his dog. I think he would eat and sleep with his dog if he were allowed to do so.

It is not the normal love of a boy for his dog, Abby. I asked him why he likes to pretend he's a dog, and he said, "Because it's more fun to be a dog!" He cannot talk plainly but he seems intelligent otherwise.

Shouldn't his mother be told that her child may need special guidance or treatment?

Sometimes parents are so close to a situation they can't see it. How can I tell her? We are just nodding neighbors.

CONCERNED

DEAR CONCERNED: It's awkward to go from a nodding acquaintance with your neighbor to a heart-to-heart discussion about her child's development. If you're truly concerned, initiate a closer friendship with her. (P.S. When the child goes to kindergarten, his teacher will surely recognize the problem, if there is one.)

DEAR ABBY: Seems like many of your female readers are fascinated with silicone.

What are they trying to prove? I live in a city that thinks it needs to be bigger. They put up large, cheap buildings that make the city look bigger. But it's still the same old city — only its troubles are magnified.

In other words, bigger isn't necessarily better. A gentle, modest curve beneath a sweater remains alluring, and realism in personality and everything else is more appealing than affectations.

ADMIRING OBSERVER

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby: Box No. 6799, L.A., Calif. 90009. Enclose stamp, self-addressed envelope, please.

Club Dinner: Lot Of Laughs

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Conrad, far left, share a laugh as they welcome Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson to Sanford Woman's Club annual fall dinner party at Mayfair Country Club.

Other hostesses with Mrs. Conrad and Mrs. Wilson were Mrs. Grady Duncan, Mrs. Joe Davis, Mrs. William P. Lyster, Mrs. Donald Flamm and Mrs. M. R. Strickland.

Sisters Mrs. A. C. McReynolds, right, and Mrs. Ned Wancey provided lively entertainment while conducting bingo.

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BRIDE OGOL

For Friday, October 29, 1976

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Don't lean on your friends too heavily today. You could cause a serious repercussion and a mishap that would be tough to unravel.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) The goals you set will be difficult to achieve today without the support of key people. Don't assume necessary allies.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Be very careful working today. You have a tendency to do things the hard way. What's more, your methods could unsettle co-workers.

CANCER (June 21-July 21) Mind your own business today. Butting in could earn you a rebuff in no uncertain terms, if not a fat lip.

LEO (July 22-Aug. 22) Decision-making could be taken out of your hands today by more assertive associates. Better speak up if you sense they're leading you astray.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Normally you plan work in an orderly way. Today, you're likely to be haphazard, and so will the results be.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) This is not a good day for you to take financial risks. If you do, you decide to bet on the if-comes, at least be aware of the odds.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Do nothing of which you're uncertain today. Even if you have to swallow your pride, figure ways to back down gracefully.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Someone you put his confidence in you will be disappointed when he learns you broadcast his secret. Have excuses ready.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) A friend who has never repaid you in the past may try to put the bite on you again today. Think about how to handle this poor risk.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) People in high places are not about to grant you favors today. Think about how to handle this poor risk.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Your hunches today aren't reliable, but they will have a strong influence on your outlook. Think twice before heading that inner voice.

Oct. 29, 1976

You are likely to make several important changes this year. The results will be fruitful provided you think through before acting.

Those North players who use Stayman heard their partners play two spades and raised to four spades. The jack of diamonds was always opened and after winning declarer would knock out the ace of spades.

A couple of West players made the brilliant shift to the king of clubs and continued with a small club to East's ace and a club ruff to set the hand. Others continued diamonds and four spades wheeled in.

Obviously, the notrump bidders score more match points than the Staymanists did this time.

When your partner opens one club and you want to show a bad hand with a lot of clubs, our Stayman players have a problem.

The Jacobys have a simple solution. Just forget about it and pass when you have a bad hand with clubs. Of course, if your partner gets doubled, you run out to two clubs to give him the message loud and clear.

One important feature of Stayman is that you don't have to use it when you don't want to.

Today's hand played in a master's pairs tournament is a case in point. Most North players decided that with 4-3

Campaign Donations Well In Wake Of Reform Acts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Big money, driven from the presidential election by post-Watergate reforms, is rushing in unprecedented volume into congressional campaigns with the potential for greater impact than ever.

The Federal Election Commission says there are at least 150 political committees which have given some $60,000 each. With the figures for some committees in the $1 million range, the total could be as high as $1 billion.

Cheshire Is Best

election '76
TODAY Recommends

NO PLEA BARGAINING FOR 2nd OFFENDERS

The office of state attorney is one of the most powerful and responsible positions in our system of government, for not only is it the prosecutor of all criminal offenses, it is also a watchdog over other public institutions within the circuit.

In this important role, the character, motivation and aggressiveness of the state attorney are of nearly equal importance with his legal and administrative abilities.

We believe that 39-year-old Democrat Douglas Cheshire scores well in all respects and would give the 18th Circuit (Brevard and Seminole Counties) the kind of firm and effective prosecutor the people want.

The incumbent, Republican Abbott Herring, has served two terms. The eight-year period has been marred on a number of occasions by controversies. A grand jury cited numerous criticisms of his office. The office does not enjoy the respect of lawyers in the community.

We believe the public will be better served by a change in the office and we are confident Cheshire has the capacity and desire to carry out this responsibility.

We recommend Douglas Cheshire for the post of state attorney.

Cheshire is a sensible, mature attorney with sound experience as a trial lawyer, both as a prosecutor and as a defense counsel. He has a solid reputation in his community and he has pledged a firm but fair approach to prosecution.

CHESHIRE'S opponent, State Atty. Abbott Herring, has demonstrated beyond a reasonable doubt that he does not deserve re-election. His tenure in office has been marked by controversy, by inefficiency, and by poor judgment. Even now, Gov. Reubin Askew is considering action as a result of Herring prematurely releasing information which the governor contends has damaged an investigation. Indictment after indictment, drawn by Herring's office, has been thrown out of court for defects. We think it is not too much to ask of a prosecutor that he at least know how to draw up a correct indictment.

Cheshire has pledged to keep the state attorney's office out of politics, to work closely with law enforcement agencies, and to eliminate plea-bargaining in cases involving habitual criminals. We think Cheshire's record is a good indication he will keep his promises and Herring's record is more than enough reason to give Cheshire the opportunity.

Missing Woman Found Dead Under Debris

By BOB LLOYD
 Herald Staff Writer

The body of a 70-year-old woman, missing since Thursday morning, was found today underneath a pile of tree limbs and debris at a Lake Hodge construction site, Casselberry police said.

Mrs. Margaret Woodward, 70, of 830 N. Winter Park Dr., Casselberry, was reported missing Thursday afternoon by her husband after she failed to return from a walk to pick oranges from tree limbs on the pile of debris at Occoila Trail and Creeks Lane, Lake Hodge subdivision.

Police Chief George Karcher said Mrs. Woodward and a neighbor had picked oranges from the debris near home construction sites Thursday morning and returned home.

Officers said Mrs. Woodward picked up another paper bag to pick more fruit at the debris pile alongside the roadway at the intersection.

Karcher said construction workers, concerned that eight-to-ten-foot pile of debris was too close to the roadway, used a front-end loader Thursday afternoon to move the debris back from the roadway.

Karcher said the woman's death was tentatively been termed "accidental" pending an autopsy and further investigation. He said the autopsy, to be made Saturday by the Seminole County Medical Examiner, hopefully will pinpoint time and cause of death.

"Her husband told us that she took regular walks because of a circulatory condition and that she had occasional fainting spells," Karcher said. "We don't know... she may have been bending over picking oranges that were found with the body or she may have fainted before the pile of debris was moved. The construction workers said there were no oranges or anything when they moved the debris with the front-end loader."

Karcher said Mrs. Woodward's body was found about 8:30 this morning.

SAINTS GO MARCHIN' IN

Ab, but the thrill of victory! Trinity Prep fans revel to the tune of a 22-21 victory last week over Boca Raton St. Andrews, and will be hoping for a repeat Saturday at 2 in the homecoming game against Florida A&R. At left is Trinity tackle Doug Magruder, 7-9, throwing a block, while the Saints' Brent Matthews gets a first down after being halted. Details on this weekend's games, Page 8-A.

Bedsole To Lobby For Workers

130 CETA Jobs Hinge On Parley

By ED PRICKETT
 Herald Staff Writer

A top-level meeting in Atlanta last December will determine the fate of 130 Seminole County workers employed under a federal job program.

Jim Bedsole, director of the county's Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) program, said today he's optimistic that jobs slated for phaseout Jan. 31 will be saved.

"From information I've received, I think it is going to be funded," Bedsole said.

He will meet with federal officials to discuss the amount of funding Seminole will receive from a $4-billion public works bill that was enacted last month.

As it stands, a total 180 CETA workers were slated to be reduced to 50 by Jan. 31. All the workers were employed under CETA's Title 6, which was phased out last July. Title 6 was funded with about $1-million in federal dollars.

In Seminole, about 1300 to 1500 workers are paid out of CETA funds. Last year's total was about $4-million.

County officials were told in July that the federal government was attempting to phase down all CETA programs beginning with Title 6. But then Congress overrode a veto by President Ford to provide additional funds because some charges were in the nation are still hard hit with unemployment.

Ex-Citrus Man Bradford Dies

Former Seminole Memorial Hospital trustee and retired citrus man Robert Bradford, 71, of Boston Avenue, Altamonte Springs, died this morning at Dr. Lamb Hospital North.

Having just returned from North Carolina with his wife, Grace, he was taken to the hospital Sunday night after suffering a heart attack.

Born in Florida, he came to Central Florida in the early 30's. He retired two years ago from the citrus business. He was a member and elder in the Rolling Hills Moravian Church, Longwood. He served on the hospital board of trustees from 1952 to 1971.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a son, Robert S. Bradford Jr. of Winter Springs; a sister, Miss Mary M. Bradford, Athens, Ga., and two grandsons.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete. Baldwin-McNair Funeral Home, Altamonte Springs is in charge.

EX-OVIEDO ATHLETE KILLED

Former Oviedo High School basketball star Carlton Brundidge, 28, of Oviedo, was killed Thursday afternoon when the auto he was driving (above) turned left in front of a tractor-trailer loaded with eggs at U.S. 17-92 and SR-419 at Five Points south of Sanford. Florida Highway Patrol trooper Lamar Smith said Brundidge died at Florida Hospital North from head and internal injuries. No charges were filed, Smith said. He said the driver of the leased truck, (in background), Otis Wimberly, 34, of DeLand, was treated for a leg injury and released from the hospital. Brundidge was a 1974 graduate at Oviedo High and was a student at Florida Technological University south of Oviedo.

'Thanks To You, It Worked'

United Way of Seminole County has soared over the top. Unofficial total: $198,244.64, more than $12,000 over its goal of $186,275. Campaign chairman Joseph J. Hartwig broke the news to a jubilant crowd at the victory dinner at the Holiday Inn, Sanford, Thursday night.

Hartwig (right) met earlier with colleagues while the totals were still coming in. When they learned the news, it was smiles and V signs all over. (From left) Eddie Rose, Jim Robinson, Shella Brown, Dan Holley.

'PROGRESS'

Readers of The Evening and Sunday Herald have a special treat in store for them this weekend: our annual Progress Edition.

Theme of this year's Progress Edition is "Horizons—Third Century America," as the Herald focuses not only on past achievements of our area, but on what lies ahead.

Topics are: Recreation; Family, Home, and Church; Seminole County; Delona-DeBarry; City of Sanford; and a special section on Industry.

Inside these sections (each of which is enhanced by a plethora of color photos), Herald writers take an in-depth look at what our area has to offer now, and the exciting vistas on the horizon.

It's the sitting-back, propping-feet-up type of reading.
