

School Board hints at taking city to court

Now wants to purchase building

City officials say they will not sell

The Sanford School Board has indicated it may take the city to court over its refusal to sell a building for an alternative school site. The board has voted to buy a building for the facility, but the city has refused to sell it.

City officials say they will not sell the building to the school board. They say the building is needed for other city purposes.

The school board wants to buy the building for an alternative school site. They say the building is in good condition and would be a good use for the school system.

Agreement reached in conference center plan

City and school board agree

The city and school board have reached an agreement on the plan for a new conference center. The agreement includes the location and design of the building.

The agreement also includes the funding for the project. The city will provide the majority of the funds, while the school board will provide the remainder.

The agreement was reached after several months of negotiations. Both parties are satisfied with the final plan.

The new conference center will be a valuable asset to the city and school system. It will provide a place for meetings and conferences.

The agreement was signed by the city and school board officials. The project is expected to be completed in the near future.

Discussion continues on strong mayor government

City officials say they will not sell

The discussion on strong mayor government continues. City officials are weighing the pros and cons of the proposal.

Some officials support the proposal, while others are opposed. They say it would give the mayor more power.

The city council will vote on the proposal in the near future. They say it is a significant decision for the city.

The proposal would change the way the city is run. It would give the mayor more control over the city's affairs.

NOTICE

Due to an error, the regular retail price of the Samsung Digital 350S digital camera advertised on page 14 of today's Target advertising supplement is incorrectly listed at $325.99. The correct regular retail is $299.99. Therefore, the actual savings is over $60, not over $55 as stated. We regret any inconvenience this may cause.
