Monroe Gottings

By MRS. H. L. JOHNSON
How does that song sound, something about "What can I say, dear, after I say 'I'm sorry'?" I think that's it, but anyway, that's what I mean because I have sort of slipped lately. But my excuse is a real good one. There's a family plenty of sickness in the family to keep me busy. First the granddaughters that are here with us decided to become ill just about all at the same time. Then others in the family also decided the same thing. Now they are on the mend, I think, I hope. Well I just know that everyone had a real nice Easter. And that is grand. The day was certainly in heaven. I'd like to see you. Hear that one for me, too. Hear that Glen Spivey is now home after being over in Vietnam. Haven't seen him yet, but I wonder if Glenn still gets the Herald? He did. I think he always read this column. How about this? If Glenn's maybe that will jar him up. Anyway, we are really glad that you are home. We had a call yesterday from son Bob who is stationed with the Army Reserve in Louisiana. He was glad to hear from you. He was also tickled that you were home. I saw two "sailors" yesterday in the hospital. Former Riverview Avenue resident Edith (Mrs. Hugg) Gossett entered the hospital, and Charles Baker of Narcissus Avenue has been there a few days. We wish them both a speedy recovery. Speaking of Charles, his small son Allen has a "what's-it?" What's a what's-it? It's a monkey-bird (Howe?). It stands so high and is black all over. Its mama is a burro named Jennifer. That's a nice swap, Allen. Anyway, that's your what's-it very much. Mrs. C. E. Hunter (Oiga) has been taking a much deserved vacation by visiting with relatives in South Florida. I sure am proud of the first and second combination grades at the Paula Wilson School. They have had a 100 percent lunchroom participation since the start of school in September. And they always finish everything on their plates and get a star stamped on their hand. I saw them the other day when I visited them in the lunchroom. They sit at the tables like little angels (?) like are supposed to. Mrs. Trawick has a group to be proud of and so does the principal, Mrs. Grooms, and the lunchroom manager, Mrs. Reed. Keep it up children and the other rooms. They sit at the tables like little angels (?) like are supposed to. # 'Bit Of Ireland' In Deltona

By MILDRED HANEY
A little bit of Ireland dropped down on the Deltona Community Center when the Women's Auxiliary of the Civic Association met for the regular meeting. The colorful luncheon table featured Waldorf Salad, sporting a green cherry atop. All women were a touch of green. The surprise program received a round of applause when the improments "Kitchen Kombs" and performing wearing green aprons and performing on instruments familiar to the kitchen—a rolling pin, pots and pans, etc. Irish singing was fun, the ladies singing Irish songs accompanied by Edna Mayberry at the piano. Several of the members read humorous anecdotes and stories dealing with St. Patrick's Day. A desert party will be held on April 20, 1 p.m. There will be no business meeting at that time. Players are asked to bring their own cards and a card table if possible. Prizes will be awarded to the winner of each table of four with door prizes as an added attraction. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Herbert S. Johnson, 1237 W. Wellington. Also discussed at the meeting was a covered dish picnic luncheon to be held May 19 at the regular meeting.

Top Industry Deal Nears

The first step in a new, "revitalized" industrial program for the Sanford area was unveiled today in a joint statement by industrialist Jeno Paulucci and Chamber of Commerce Executive Director John Kridler. Both leaders confirmed the projected industrial complex, now being finalized for the former Texize

The purchase was completed several days ago. In the statement, Paulucci and Kridler said: "We are only at liberty to state that the deal has been consummated. However several details remain to be finalized, including new releases describing the industrial complex will be delayed for a few weeks."

Both Paulucci and Kridler went on to say that this is the first step in a new, revitalized industrial program for the area. Their joint efforts hope will be between the Seminole County Industrial Commission and the Sanford Industrial Commission—in the direction of developing a productive use of the Naval Air Station and other areas, including the new port on the St. Johns River.

Both men said they were making the statement to "clarify the many and varied rumors concerning this project."

On making the motion, Paul Jenkins, executive director of the Sanford Industrial Commission, said that the deal has been consummated. However several details remain to be finalized, including new releases describing the industrial complex will be delayed for a few weeks.

Humane Unit Starts Hunt For New Shelter

A committee will be named to investigate the possibility of acquiring a site for a new Humane Society shelter for Seminole County at the next meeting of the board of directors, members of the board decided at a special meeting last night.

The board also agreed to seek loans from the national and state organizations to finance the construction of the shelter. It was pointed out, however, the local society will have to purchase the property for the shelter from local funds.

Appreciation was expressed by the board for the recent investigation of the group conducted by the county prosecutor at the request of the County Commission.

The board with only three members present adopted a motion at the meeting held in the society's meeting store on Sanford Avenue at Third Street, detailing its appreciation to the county.

County Sales Shows Major Gross Increase

For the second straight month gross sales in Seminole County showed a substantial rise over the corresponding month in 1966, report from J. E. Straugh, director of the Florida Revenue Commission revealed today.

February sales totaled $8,416,047.00, an 8.1 per cent increase over the February, 1966 total of $7,780,269.43.

Sales of $10,962,686.21 were recorded in January 1967, an increase of seven per cent.

Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Church of God, 22nd Street and Holly Avenue, with Rev. H. L. Henderson officiating. Burial will be in August.

Political observers were surprisingly disappointed at the small turnout—about one-third of the registered voters, both in this district and statewide. Of Seminole's 22,349 registered voters, only 8,764 (including 89 absentee) cast ballots Tuesday.

Volusia County voters divided their interests in the Tuesday legislative election by choosing two Republicans, Ralph Clayton and Patrick O'Grady, to the Senate, and returning three Democrat incumbents to the House of Representatives, William R. Conway, William Gillespie and James H. Sweeney.

Paola GI Killed In Viet Fighting

Sgt. Henry C. Lee, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Lee of Paola, was killed in action in Vietnam, March 21.

Survivors, in addition to his parents, are his wife, Mrs. Rosa Lee of Augusta, Ga.; three children, Wanda, Michael, and Jeffrey, of Sanford; two brothers, Maj. Walter L. Lee, Ft. Gordon, Ga., and Howard P. Lee, Sanford, and one sister, Mrs. Wanda M. Clark, Lexington, Ky.

The body may be viewed at Brison Funeral Home between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m. today.

Crashes Leave 9 Hurt, Damages At $50,000

One person hospitalized and damages to excess of $50,000 were the results of an accident involving a car and truck on I-4 west of the Lake Mary Interchange construction, at 4 a.m. today.

F.H.P. Trooper Jerry Hawthorne, who investigated the accident, reports a semi truck driven by Robert J. Daisy of Georgetown, Delaware, collided with a stalled car driven by Clarence Kuser of Orlando.

Kuser's vehicle was a total wreck and he was admitted to Seminole Memorial Hospital with head, arm and hand injuries.

Estimate of damage to Kuser's truck was $20,000. He was not injured.

Early this morning on 25th St. and Sanford Ave., a car operated by Michael Morton of 136 Banker Lake collided with a vehicle driven by Edgar Tillman of Geneva.

A passenger in the Tillman car, Joe Pickering of Geneva, was taken to the hospital for cuts and bruises. Morton was charged with failure to yield the right of way. Damage to both cars was estimated at $1,000.

Voters Dump Tradition; Elect 2-Party Legislature

Kirk Sees Florida As '2-Party State'

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Florida is now a two-party state, Gov. Claude Kirk declared Tuesday night after his Republican Party scored impressive gains in special legislative elections.

"This is an historic moment for the nation," Kirk said, calling the election results proof of a two-party system.

"This is a great day for Florida, for the south, and for the nation—the people who have spoken," the governor told a news conference.

Smiling, relaxed and obviously pleased, Kirk strode into his office to proclaim a victory that made Florida the first two-party state in the South.

"This is just an example of the people in action," he said. "We're taking our place in the region as a leader of two party states. The proud of the people of Florida."

The governor described the election as an endorsement of the Republican philosophy of leadership rather than a protest against the national administration of President Johnson.

"It is an endorsement of what we have accomplished and what we are trying to accomplish," he said.

"Kirk said he did not see the results as a mandate for his political career.

"However, he added later that he would not know of any legislative candidates who ran against his controversial war on crime or for new taxes.

Kirk, who has repeatedly opposed new taxes, said the new Legislature is created in a positive two-party system and will "do its job as the voice of the people."

Does the Republican victory mean that the Legislature will postpone its regular business and take up constitutional revision first, as Kirk has proposed?

The Legislature is a deliberative body," the governor said. "It will make up recommendations and then they, in their wisdom, will act."

Kirk refused to comment on the defeat of veteran Democrat Sen. Beth Johnson of Orlando. He said he looked on the results as the election of his own party.

"I told you exactly what I felt," the governor replied. "I added a pause he added "in the political career."

MIAMI (AP)—Florida emerged today with the strongest two-party Legislature in the one-solely Democratic South, giving its voters almost unprecedented veto control.

The voters Tuesday abandoned century-old political traditions as a swelling army of GOP faithfuls and disenchanted Democrats went to the polls and gave Republicans strength they have never known in the court-courted election of Florida's first one-man, one-vote Legislature.

That it represented a Democratic revival was obvious. Democrats outnumbered Republicans on the registration books 4-1.

And even though only about one-third of the state's 2.5 million voters cast ballots, the election—with its first Republican governor in 84 years in office—only two months—gave the GOP a better than one-third majority in the legislative branch.

Not since Reconstruction Day has the party of Lincoln held such leverage in a Southern state government.

The current sweep 20 Republicans into the 48-member Senate and 40 into the 19-member House is the largest Republican victory in 84 years in office—only two months—gave the GOP a better than one-third majority in the legislative branch.

"Dead As Dormouse"

The term "dead as a dormouse" stems from the fact that the dormouse, small rodent which inhabits the colder climates, hibernates in its winter nest and often sleeps as long as six months at a time according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Critics Making LBJ Squirm

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators are making President Johnson squirm a bit before handing him a resolution of Latin aid support he wants to take to the Punta del Este hemisphere summit conference April 12.

They already have stalled the measure to the point where Johnson will not have it in his pocket when he entertains Latin American ambassadors at his Texas ranch this weekend.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has scheduled its next hearing on it for April 3.

Johnson has been on the telephone to Senate friends bragging about his record for support of the measure to get action. Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen reported a 30-minute conversation in which Johnson urged him to rally GOP support for the resolution.

As it stands, the resolution passed by the House would have Congress "recommend" that the United States provide financial, educational and economic aid to Latin American nations. It also would put a common market for the area.

Chairman J.W. Fulbright, D Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, raised the point that this was the kind of advance commitment Congress gave the President in the Tank in Gulf resolution in 1964, which Fulbright contends Johnson used to expand the Vietnam war.

Some senators who have seen their protests against intensifying the war bounce off the White House without seeming effect, are skeptical of the measure.

Vertical distance, not height, originally was the object of pole vaulting.

Artists Strike TV, Radio Networks

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Federation of Television and Radio Artists struck the major television and radio networks today, but supervisory personnel kept the networks on the air by taking over such programs as news shows.

In the first national strike to AFTRA's 30-year history, pickets went up shortly after 5 a. m. in front of the Columbia Broadcasting System, the National Broadcasting Co., the American Broadcasting Co., and the Mutual Broadcasting System, their affiliates in New York, in Chicago and in Los Angeles, and at advertising agencies.

The dispute centers around network-owned stations in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles who are seeking a higher base salary and larger returns of commercial fees on sponsored programs on which they appear.

Goldberg Eyes Seat In Senate?

WASHINGTON (AP)—A play-act position man with top experience in the executive and judicial branches of government, Arthur J. Goldberg must be no stranger to complete the triangle by entering the legislative branch.

Now ambassador to the United Nations, Goldberg was secretary of labor in the New Frontier days and later was a member of the Supreme Court.

Now there are reports that he would like to go to the Senate. To get there, he would have to win the Democratic nomination in New York and unseat Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits in 1968.

Goldberg issued a statement Tuesday that did little to quiet speculation, since it dwelt on his present position and said nothing of the future.

Mathews Heads Rules Committee

ST. AUGUSTINE (AP)—Senate President Verle Pope said today he would name veteran Sen. Jack Mathews of Jacksonville chairman of the powerful rules committee.

The Rules chairmanship was left vacant by the death of Sen. Tom Whitaker Jr. of Tampa in Tuesday's election by Republican newcomer Joseph McClain Jr. Mathews is a Democrat as is Pope.

Local Author In Caracas Festivities

By MILDRED HANEY

The very lovely and talented flower expert, Mrs. Kenneth Davis, of Hartley Avenue, Deltona, has returned from a visit to Caracas, Venezuela, where she participated in the Fair, hosted by the Venezuelan government, under the auspices of the Japanese government and JETRO (Japan External Trade Relations Organization).

"Arriving in Caracas, Mrs. Davis and her assistant, Masayasu, found many difficulties to overcome due to the fact that everything came with a stick—still when a carnival takes place and the Japanese in charge of the Fair were most unhappy, for the Venezuelan employees absolutely refused to work until after the festivities. Yet the Fair had to open promptly as scheduled.

"However, they managed to obtain the necessary flowers and materials for their booth where they demonstrated the ancient art of Ikebana. There is much background in the Ikebana school, for not only is flower arranging taught, but the philosophy and history of the Far East also.

"The classes included a course of 16 or eight hours, a certificate being presented to the students who completed the required number of hours. The classes were taught Morihana (flowers arranged en masse), Shoka (formal), Sanbuke (three materials formal), and finally, the Jiyu-bana (free style).

"At the last flower arranging session, a contest was held and prizes awarded to the winners. The arrangements, a few days before the last lesson, the vice president of the Venezuelan Garden Club gave the prizes to lecture and demonstrate Ikebana at their club.

"The meeting took place at the home of the vice president, which was a palatial one, with a beautiful tropical garden of many species of plants and trees. As this was their first introduction to Ikebana, Mrs. Davis gave them a historical sequence of styles, and explained throughout the centuries, and their philosophical significance.

"By the time the program was over, everyone was in a gay and friendly mood and the Venezuelan ladies were invited to the local Japanese ladies to their meetings and afternoon teas. Thus the flowers have brought the two peoples together.

"Mrs. Davis was entertained by many of the Venezuelan people. She was invited to the beautiful home of a prominent architect who represented Venezuela at the Olympic yacht races in Japan.

"They were served an "Andean" dinner, the food being very much like Mexican food except that it was not quite as peppery. The predominant materials used were chicken, corn and cheese. The dessert was that of a fruit custard. An egg wine, a native Venezuelan drink, was served.

"Another appointment was at the home of a friend, where the beautiful garden was kept by the gardeners. It was located on a plateau surrounded by mountains overlooking the entire city of Caracas. In the evening, the long pool of fountains in front of the patio, made of Italian marble, is turned on with multiple colored lights and the ready fairy like scene may be viewed through the mist of the cascading fountains.

"Another home where she visited was an ancient Spanish style home, actually a castle. Many varieties of orchids were growing everywhere. It was a pleasure to be granted an interview with her and to gain insight from her own account of life in a country that is so geographically located so that it can spread in many directions. There are approximately 50 Japanese residents in Caracas who are comparatively well-to-do and well established.

"The Ikebana Institute was invited to participate in this fair, an effort to teach beauty, harmony and good will to these people, through flower arranging and tea ceremony. Attendance for the fair was 200,000 persons and the proceeds from the income are to be donated to charity in Caracas. The attendance far surpassed the original estimate.

"Right now, they are fighting to overcome Communist elements, for the illiterate and the poor have nothing to lose, and since they constitute the largest part of the population, there is a tendency for them to be attracted to Communism.

Mrs. Dora Kelsey Honored

Mrs. Dora Kelsey, of Oviedo, celebrated her 80th birthday Sunday, March 19, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Paul Slavik. Mrs. Slavik and Mrs. John Lundy, of Oviedo and Mrs. Doreen Green, of Oviedo were co-hostesses for the open house reception, from 3 to 6 p.m.

The Slavik home was adorned with arrangements of beautiful spring flowers in pastel shades. The hostesses presented Mrs. Kelsey with an orchid corsage. Mrs. Larry Kelsey of Orlando, kept the guest book.

The refreshment table was overlaid with a beautiful lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered cake, decorated with pineapples. One end of the table held the punch bowl, the other a silver coffee service. Mints and nuts also were served.

Assisting the hostesses in pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Grover Wilson of Orlando; Mrs. Ruby Estes and Mrs. George Means. Approximately 120 friends called during the appointed hours.

Children Enjoy Easter Egg Hunt Staged By CPO Club

By CRECELIA FARMER

THE ANNUAL EASTER EGG HUNT sponsored by the CPO Wives Club was attended by approximately 75 children last Saturday, on the CPO Grounds. The area was roped off into three age group areas and the merry laughter of children carrying their colorful Easter baskets filled the air. Cooling refreshments were served to the youngsters.

Three prizes were awarded in each age group. Categories were most eggs found — boy and girl — and the one who found the golden egg. Winners were one from each age group: Kelly Foy, Tim Stankiewicz, and Jim D. Martin — five to seven age group; Brenda Gaudin, Steve Doug Adams (tied) and Tracey Falch — eight to 12 age group; Nancy Bryant, Jerry Holland (most eggs found) and the golden egg.

A ceramic bunny bank (made by president, Pat Bernall), and a ceramic kitten (made by Sue Coyron) were the prizes won by Nancy and Brenda. Stuffed baby chicks and bunnies emerging from eggs delighted the youngsters. A complete with their own little Sanford BUNNY GIRLS. The wives got together to decorate their own Easter eggs to take to the hunt. They practiced so much that they were able to prepare the magazine for publication.

Congratulations to Ens and Edna Dumez for their recent rival of their new daughter, Wanda Jane. Donna's mother, Mrs. Maurice Norwood of New York, has just returned from a visit and to give a helping hand to the new mother.

THE RVAHS' ENLISTED WIVES welcomed two honored guests at their regular meeting. They were Mrs. D. W. Ryan, wife of the commanding officer and Mrs. Jean Winberg, wife of the executive officer. Ryan presented the club with a box of personalized stationery.

Local Fashions Panorama To Spark Sanforama Show

By DONNA ESTES

THE LURE of the complete costume is brought back alive when Justin McCarty takes a pseudo zebra print. A-line coat (left) with back inverted kick pleat slips over a sliver of jungle color that's belted low on the hip. The elegant casual shift by Donovan-Galanti (center) solves the seasonal problem. In Diaron double knit, the surface is beaded with vertical and horizontal bars. For a member of the wedding or a guest at a gala party, Clifton Whitby of Dallas created the sateen-re-embroidered lace dress (right). Contrived formal flare is achieved by panel folds on the front and back of this elbow-sleeved skimmer.

THE fashion scene, as seen in seven downtown Sanforas, will be presented in an exciting Fashion Show to be presented Thursday, March 30, at 8 p.m., as an added attraction to Sanforama at the Sanford Civic Center.

One designer puts a black-and-white zebra-striped sleeveless coat over a vivid green dress. Another uses a broad irregular zebra print design in white or brown with black for a semi-dressy daytime dress. And there are tiger stripes for evening in a two-piece dress as sleek as a jungle cat. The hunter's garb turns up, too, in the bush jacket as a companion for shorts, pants and swimwear.

Mexico has also influenced Texas fashions this season. There are hand-embroidered cottons from south of the border and American cottons with a hand-loomed look. Hand and machine embroidery are used in collars and handings on vestions, ruffles, ponchos and peon over-shirts.

And the pink, oranges, greens, yellows and reds are vivid and zinging.

Red, white and blue is another theme well-represented here. There are polka-dot shorts in this combination topped with white midis.

Last year's show was reported to be a success and members are planning to have a larger and better one this year. The public is invited to attend and find out if this goal is attained.

Many Wives Too Protected

By MARY LOU LOPER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Husband should lead their wives to become widows.

"Cold? Yes, but was not the fact," said Dorothy Stinson, "Women are too protected."

Dorothy Stinson is an attractive blonde with a friendly smile. She is a stockbroker for her emotional, economic and family security and the love of her husband. Therefore she is less apt to take chances. More generally, she is the long-term investor, and the long-term investor who comes out on the top side.

She advocates that husbands and wives learn about investments together "so that when the time comes for the woman to take over she is prepared."

Mrs. Stinson was 25 when her husband died. "I realized my insurance money had to be put to work. I was led in the right direction."

Mrs. Stinson is at the office about 8 a.m.

She seldom gets home before 7 p.m. and sometimes she makes "house calls" along the way. "It's particularly hard for older ladies to get around and in dealing with husbands and wives I like to talk to them together."

Once home, she said, "I'm like a man. I get blasted with everything that's gone wrong—the vacuum cleaner—and last week, my little Weimaraner died."

Mrs. Stinson holds a BA in speech from Marygrove College in Detroit. "I am a firm advocate of a liberal arts education, because it teaches you to think."

Her eldest boy and girl both are speech majors in college. And all are stockholders—even 10-year-old Jeffrey, who bought two shares of Greyhound Bus stock with Christmas money. "He sees the Greyhound buses every day and occasionally he rides one, so this will be very educational for him."

Mrs. Stinson says her goal is to be a member of the New York Stock Exchange (off limits to women). "I'm not a woman in a man's world. I'm trying to be a woman in an industry that for many years did not have a woman's point of view."

She's doing a pretty good job by Jeffrey Stinson's standards. When he had to tell his class that his daddy was on the first day of kindergarten, he said, "I don't have a dad, but I have a mom and she's a broker and she makes money."

Toastmistresses To Compete In District Speech Contest

Polished oratory dominated the scene at the Sky Anchors Toastmistress Club meeting which will go on March 23, held at Holy Cross church at 11:30 a.m.

The annual Speech Contest of the Toastmistress Club will be held in Tampa. Some of the newest members showed remarkable improvement and will undoubtedly be in the winner's circle during the next speech contest.

Mrs. Betty Kelly and Mrs. Jean Bryan served as the Toastmistress contest chairmen of the event and appointed members to serve as timers and tellers. Each contestant was carefully restricted to a five to seven minute speech on original material and subject to penalty for going over or under time. All speakers were reminded that they were allowed only three three-to-five cards for notes and all put techniques learned from Toastmistress training to full use.

After a short business meeting, the president, Mrs. Jean Bryan, adjourned the meeting and reminded all to be on hand for the important Fall Speech Contest, which will be judged by local professional men and women.

Strikes... Spares

Let's see if the fellows "went to school" and will benefit this weekend during the start of their own two weekends of Annual Tournament time.

Two weeks ago, the lasses held their own tourney and produced lots of thrills and top notch scores, as well. I know the gents will be trying to duplicate the performance.

The girls did it up first class, too, with a special banquet trophy presentation at the Trophy Lounge on Tuesday evening. Almost 50 participants and their guests were on hand.

Tonight, the co-tournament managers Gil Luck and Mac MacLay will be turning the midnight oil making all of the last minute preparations for the start of the team events this Saturday. Doubles and Singles will take place on Sunday afternoons.

We'll be running the complete and official squad times and line assignments for the tournament in tomorrow's sport section.

Good luck to you all and please remember, you're expected to be on hand at least one-half hour prior to your scheduled bowling time to officially check in with the tournament manager.

Let's all give the gents of the Tuesday evening Unprofessional League a big pat on the back, especially to their hard-working secretary, Jim Brewer. Although they didn't win it at the beginning of their season, exactly one week before the entry deadline popped 'em right between the eyeballs, they voted to enter all teams in the tourney.

Congratulations, gentlemen... I only hope that we had so much enthusiasm in more of the leagues, too.

SHS Top Choice In Track Play

Seminole High is favored to take a three-way track meet Thursday at Leesburg under the lights at 6:30 p.m. The Sanford tracksters have defeated both Leesburg and Lyman High Schools in previous meets. Although the presence of state-recognized John Valone of Leesburg and several Lyman stars, Coach Dick Williams feels that his cindermen are ready for a win.

Kenny Martin, who injured his Achilles tendon, will be the only Sanford runner out of the contest.

The team has been working on its form, especially in the relay events, which should have a lot to do with determining who takes home the first place laurels. For Lyman and Leesburg, it will be an Orange Belt Conference meet.

SJC Raiders Aim For Division Title With Top Rated St. Johns

The Seminole Junior College Raiders will travel to Palatka Thursday for a double header with division-leading St. Johns River Junior College at 5 p.m. St. Johns swept the Raiders' inaugural double header at the season's outset, but Coach Jay Bergman is optimistic about his team's chances of pulling-off a double upset. If such an upset were to occur, the SJC horse-hiders would then be back in the running for the division title.

The Seminole nine now has two proven pitchers in Tom Pulling and Steve Simkins, both of whom double with outfield duty when not on the mound. Pulling is slated to lead off the fireworks in the first game and Simkins will be up for the final no-punch.

The Raiders' (2-4) started slowly, but have won two of their past three contests and their final one by a big 16-2 margin. They have displayed awesome power at times and once they become acclimated to playing with each other, they can really go, stated Bergman.

Larry Baker currently is leading the team in hits with nine in 19 games at bat for one of the state's top batting averages, a .474. He also leads the team in assists with 14 and shares in triples with one.

Jacob Wallace, a converted third sacker now playing short, leads the Raiders in home runs with six, has one triple, and leads in home runs with three. Outfielder, now playing second base, Danny Tillis, a Seminole High graduate of 1963, leads the team with one triple and eight RBIs. John Thomas is the top base thief with three to his credit.

Andy from first sacker Thomas' out-out mark at 46. Danny Tillis is the number two man in that category with nine, he also has eight assists.

With Pulling and Simkins hurling, Bobby Talbot will call the shots behind the plate. Steve Shamaker is scheduled for the starting job at short and Donny Anderson at third.

Frank Whigham at short and Donny Anderson at third.

Carl Shamaker has the only set outfielder's position with a strong field of aspirants vying for the starting job.

Oak Ridge beat the Seminole nine Saturday in a night contest in Orlando 3-2 and today's fare is expected to be no less than exciting, stated coach Owen McCarren.

Lyman Blanks Oviedo, 6-0

The Lyman Greyhounds scored their seventh straight victory of the season, topping the Oviedo Lions 6-0. It was anyone's ball game through the first two innings, but the Houma's opened up in the third when Jim Lucas cleared the plate on John Tippie's round-tripper for the lone home run for the Greyhounds.

The fourth inning proved to be the big one for Lyman, picking up three runs. David Unley led off with a single. Three other Houma's followed, netting on base on errors.

Catcher Johnny Smith picked up the Lions lone hit of the contest, rapping a single down the middle, but to no avail.

Bobby Owens scored Lyman's final run in the seventh, leading off with a single, grounding out to a slow grounder. Owens then stole second and third and scored on Mark Dowell's sacrifice.

The Lions retired the Houma's twice on freak plays. In the first, a fly ball to center field was caught by a Houma's in the third. In the second, a fly ball to center field was caught by a Houma's in the third.

'Dunk' Shot Outlawed

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The National Basketball Committee has come up with a defense for the dunk shot—a rule prohibiting its use in college or high school games.

The rule makers outlawed the dunk shot at the closing session of their meeting Tuesday and also strengthened a rule already on the books to prohibit stalling tactics.

Although the dunk shot is a favorite among fans, players and some coaches, one of the rule makers believes the long range response will be favorable.

"This has been a dramatic activity," said Clifford Eagan, secretary of the national policy-making group for amateur basketball in the United States and Canada.

"There might be some objection to prohibiting the dunk shot at first, but when they think about it and understand, I think they will feel that the change is good for the game," Eagan said.

Fagan said dunking the ball above the basket and either dropping it or stuffing it through the net would be a foul. A player who is fouled by dunking will be loss of possession.

Fagan said the rule against dunking had no reference to any player but the new rule is certain to affect the style of 7-foot-11 Lew Alcindor, who led UCLA to the NCAA national championship with his dunk shots.

UCLA Coach John Wooden said he was surprised and "a little disappointed" at the new rule.

"I am very much surprised, basically, because there has been no experimentation in this field," Wooden said. "Almost always the committee recommends a year or even two years of experimentation before a rule is changed."

Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp, who doesn't allow his players to use the dunk shot, was pleased with the new rule.

"I think it's a good rule," Rupp said. "I knew it was coming because there's been too much reaction to this show-off stuff. I'm glad to see them do something about this thing. It doesn't belong in basketball."

Fagan said there had been a rule to prevent stalling and a lack of action for about 10 years but the new ruling strengthened it.

Under the old rule, the team behind the responsibility of forcing the action. If an offensive team did not advance forward with the ball after 30 seconds, it was given a warning, and if no action resulted after another 30 seconds, a technical foul was called.

The only change in the new ruling is that the team will be warned after only 10 seconds.

Illini Set To Name 2 Coaches Today

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Jim Valek and Harry Schmidt, a pair of former University of Illinois star athletes, are expected to answer the call of Alms' matter Wednesday.

Valek and Schmidt will be at a press conference scheduled for Wednesday (11:30 a.m. EST) when an announcement will be made to fill the head football and basketball coaching posts.

Valek will succeed Pete Elliott as football coach and Schmidt will fill the basketball position held by Harry Combes.

Elliott, Combes and assistant basketball Coach Horace Braun recently resigned in the wake of the $21,000 slush fund scandal after the Big Ten ruled the three should be fired on Illinois face suspension from the conference.

Valek, 41, is a former Illinois grid captain who played end on the 1947 Rose Bowl champion Varsity, who officially becomes Illinois' athletic director April 1.

Valek was football coach and coach of the Illinois State Varsity Whiz Kids basketball team in the 1940s, was basketball coach.

Valek went to Illinois as an assistant under Ray Elliott in 1958 and served one year under Elliott when Pete moved to Illinois from California in 1960.

Valek then shifted to Army under Dale Hall in 1961 and was retained at West Point when Paul Dietzel took the head job in 1961. When Dietzel went to South Carolina, Valek went along as offensive backfield coach.

Schmidt, 21, was captain and most valuable player on the 1957 Illinois basketball team. He has been serving as assistant to head coach Bob King at New Mexico for the last three years.

Schmidt, a product of Kansas, who coached at Illinois, coached at Davenport Iowa, West and compiled a two-year record of 28-1 before shifting to Moline Ill. High School where he posted a 15-8 mark in the 1963-1964 campaign.

'Early' Baseball Hassle

Free agent Joey Jay hasn't drawn a pay check yet from the Philadelphia Phillies and that makes things somewhat difficult for Warren Giles, president of the National League.

Jay, in the Phillie camp on a look-see, was involved in a baseball incident in Tuesday's 9-7 loss to the New York Mets. He drew a warning from umpire Tom Gorman and that ordinarily calls for an automatic $50 fine.

But if a player isn't under contract, how can he be fined? That does present a problem, admitted Giles, who says Jay free two pitchers behind Bob Shaw in the second inning after Shaw had bounced one off Clay Dalrymple's helmet on a losing earlier. "I'll have to take that into consideration."

Not only isn't Jay under contract, but the way he's been pitching this spring, he's not likely to be offered one either. He's worked 15 innings in four games and allowed 21 earned runs as well as six home runs.

Jay gave up six runs on eight hits in five innings against the Mets and of this stage of training, a performance like that could seal a man's fate. And so, maybe Jay got a freebie in the dustier war Tuesday.

In other games, St. Louis dropped Los Angeles 3-1, Houston downed Pittsburgh 1-2, San Francisco edged the New York Yankees 5-4, San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs 4-1.

Steve Loxford, a defensive back from McLean, Va., will captain Dartmouth's 1967 football team.

Gogolak—Is He Washed Up In Football?

FT. DIX, N.J. (AP)—Pete Gogolak, placekicking star of the New York Giants, shrugged off a thought more painful than his back injury as he lay stretched out in an Army hospital bed.

"I don't want to think about being washed up in football," he said. "My main concern is getting well and getting healthy."

Gogolak, 24, was injured two weeks ago in a fall down six steps in a bar's back for recruits at this sprawling Army post. He was inducted in January.

"At this time I still have trouble walking, but the main thing is that it's very painful," the former Cornell star told an interviewer Tuesday.

It was his only professional defeat and the world junior middleweight crown was at stake.

Said Griffith, the champion, in his Virgin Island camp: "I'm mad at Nino. He sent a message to me through a friend. You don't kid me with my title is at stake."

Griffith has never seen the Italian fight.

Griffith will receive a guarantee of $80,000 or 40 per cent of the live gate and ancillaries. The fight will be televised nationally in color on home screens by Madison Square Garden RKO General Sports Presentations, with New York as the immediate area blacked out.

Griffith has a record of 32 victories and seven losses, with 19 knockouts. He will be defending the middleweight championship for the third time. In both previous efforts he outboxed Joey Archer of the Bronx, N.Y.

This will be Benvenuti's first fight in the United States. He has won 10 out of 20 professional fights with 29 knockouts.

Hull Injured; An End To Records For '67

CHICAGO (AP)— Bobby Hull's record at Bobby Hull's record of 54 goals in one season probably has ended.

Chicago's Golden Jet was one of several victims in Tuesday night's "man mountain" game against the Detroit Red Wings which the National Hockey League champion Black Hawks won with ease, 7-2.

But it was a costly victory. Defenseman Mat Ravlich was lost for the rest of the season because of a fractured left leg in the third period.

Hull, who was responsible for a 31-minute delay in the game when one of his blistering slap shots shattered the "unbreakable" glass behind the nets, had to leave the ice in the third period because of an injured left knee.

Doug Mohs repaired his back in the rough-tough contest after the Hawks kept mumbering to a man what are they trying to prove?"

The national Recreation Department will hold a clinic for the purpose of training official scorers for its summer season. Although the program is for the summer, the clinic will be held at the Civic Center on March 30, 1967. The session will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Sanford Golf Team Loses

Srabreaz took its second win over Seminole High during a rainy match at Mayfair Country Club yesterday as they handed the Sanford golfers their second defeat in eight starts. Srabreaz won 162-174.

Mike Rudd's 41 paced the SHS golfers and he was followed by Don Deeth's 42. Mike Utz, who played his very round of the year came in at 43. Steve Leach, also having a very good day, ended up with a very strong three-putt greens for a 46.

Rudd shot the only Sanford birdie on the eighth hole.

Junior High, Slavia Schools Clash Today

The Sanford Junior High Braves will travel to Slavia today for a contest with the junior high there at 4 p.m. The Braves, 1-21 for the season, are rated as favorites over the smaller Slavia squad.

Glenn Burns, who has a 1-1-1 record, will be on the mound for the Braves. Burns is also the team's captain and pitcher. The outfield, Dana Hogan will be behind the plate.

Paul Bakke, who moved to first base this past week, will again hold down that spot with Tommy Gray on second, Mike

Give or take a couple cubic feet, the VW Squareback Sedan will hold half as much as a big, 34,000 station wagon.

Which isn't half bad considering that big wagons usually run around half empty anyway.

And although you can't roll a piano into the back of a Squareback, you can fold the rear seat down and slide in a couple of full-sized mattresses.

Or bring it back up again to carry full-sized people. Plus all their luggage.

"There's also bonus storage space under the front hood. You know, where everyone else stores their engine."

So if you've been torn between the roominess of a big wagon and the costliness of it all, look at our Squareback this way.

One. It's much cheaper, $2,295*.

And three. Half a station wagon is better than none at all.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My boyfriend is practically perfect. I mean, he really QUALIFIES. But he has the little present that drives me out of my mind. When we dance he sings along with the music. If he doesn't know the lyrics, he hums. It wouldn't be so bad if he could carry a tune, but I swear he's tone deaf. Moreover, he puts his head next to mine and my whole skull vibrates while he sings. If I move my head away, he moves closer. I can't escape him. Don't tell me to quit going to dances with him because he'll ask someone else, and I don't want to lose him.

DEAR ELLEN: Borrow one of those "horse collars" from a friend who has already collected on her whip-lash injury, and wear it while dancing with your thrush. That'll keep his head from coming up. And if you're able to keep up a running conversation he won't have time to sing.

DEAR ABBY: How can a neighbor who asks my 10-year-old daughter questions that are none of her business? She has asked, "Where did your parents go last Saturday night when you had a date?"

DEAR ABBY: I have lived in the United States for five years now and have many American friends. Whenever my husband and I are invited to someone's home for dinner, I always take a small gift as a token of appreciation. To have a lovely wedding, send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. I have a 10-year-old daughter who asks me questions that are none of her business. She has asked, "Where did your parents go last Saturday night when you had a date?"

Jacoby On Bridge

Look at the bidding of today's hand. You may wonder about West's raise to two hearts and North's jump to four spades. You will probably decide that North and West just like to bid. You will agree with East's bid of five hearts and you will feel that South was quite conservative when he bid only five spades and was fully justified in going on to six.

When you want your partner to lead the ace of hearts, the answer is that East and West were using a standard convention that has been in use more than 30 years.

Polly's Pointers

DEAR POLLY—I keep a large box of soap powder in each of my closets to absorb the dampness. Some of them have delightful odors and that helps, too, in making the closets smell good. When the powder becomes lumpy and hard from the dampness, I put the box in the sun until it is dry and then put it back in the closet.—RACHIEL

DEAR POLLY—My 15-year-old accidentally got hold of some crayons, so now we have colored walls. I am wondering how I can get this color off of my plaster walls. My 15-year-old says that she can get it off with a rubber strip. I am wondering how I can get this color off of my plaster walls. My 15-year-old says that she can get it off with a rubber strip.

DEAR POLLY—I use a dustpan with a rubber strip attached to the front for a quick and easy way to remove piled up snow from my automobile. I am sure the pan is rubber-tipped so the finish of the car is not marred.—JANET

Horoscope Forecast

THURSDAY, MARCH 26, 1967
GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day and evening when most everyone can get very much out of line by saying and doing things that others resent even though no such result is intended. So be sure you double check whatever you start to write or say and make sure it can cause no offense in any way to anyone about you.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)
Be careful you do not turn your back on tried and true friends and interests just to follow the new trick which could be quite wrong. Keep promises to the letter. Show that you are a person who can be relied upon.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)
You may resent others because you think they are trying to impose upon you, but be more friendly and all is fine. Intelligent handling of others is the key phrase now. Be more concerned with increasing income.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)
Pick up associates and could think enmity between you so that you can be more helpful, cooperative instead. Be sure you do not make changes in contracts right now. Think over how to improve same.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21)
You have made many promises to others that you had better keep, and personal duties should also be handled without fail. Avoid trouble.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23)
Have a smiling countenance and stop trying to pick an argument with others. Mate is annoyed, so be comforting; instead of antagonistic. Avoid going out for recreation that is altogether too expensive.

VIRGO (Sept. 22 to Sept. 23)
The situation at home is quite explosive, so be sure you are of a conciliatory mood and avoid big trouble. Show care in getting after your most vital aims. Tread quietly but in a positive fashion.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23)
Much care must be exercised in driving or walking, handling silver, glass, etc. or there can be much breakage. In some big project could also have to be postponed. Speaking too harshly to others could have dire results, also.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)
Take care of either spend too much to make a false impression on others, or spend too little and give the opposite impression, both of which are bad. Be more stable in monetary matters.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)
Stop complaining and carry through with obligations to the best of your ability. Others will think you have the wrong intentions. Your health could be bettered. Warfare needs sprucing up as well.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)
Although that work may seem dull and dreary, it must be done some time, so get at it right away. Then you clear the decks for more important matters. Accept what is given and avoid the sensible.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)
A blunt pal can certainly get under your skin. Be sure you are not too busy and pay little attention—be, or she, is upset about something. Avoid the social for now. People are under disturbing influences right now.

Longwood Clinic Presented Vision Tester

By JANE CASSELLBERRY
Lions Club of Casselberry has purchased at a cost of $400 a school vision tester to be placed in the health clinic in Longwood for use in South Seminole County by the public health nurses.

Included with the machine are slides and cards for near and far acuity testing. If the preliminary testing by the nurses shows that a problem exists, the Lion Club provides eye examinations by an ophthalmologist and, if needed, buys glasses for the children, whose parents or guardians are unable to do so. Children with sight problems have benefited from this service by the Lions at Lyman, Rosewald, Longwood, South Seminole Junior High, and Bear Lake School.

Casselberry Lions Club has conducted this program for the past 15 years and has furnished approximately 60 pairs of glasses. In addition to the glasses provided to needy school children (and in some instances preschoolers), the club has taken care of the eyes and given glasses to many needy adults, especially senior citizens.

In the past few years the club has financed several eye operations, including the removal of an eye and the installation of an artificial replacement. Just recently an operation to correct crossed eyes was performed on a seven year old girl and the club financed the entire hospital bill and paid half of the surgeon's fee, the other half being donated by an anonymous citizen of Casselberry.

The club has taken a very active part in SHHHA (Seminole Hospital Eye Bank Association) since its inception and has signed up more than 100 citizens who are willing their eyes for corneal transplants. Ben R. Evans, who has been sight conservation chairman for the past 10 years, works very closely with the county health officer and the county school authorities. Public Health Nurses Valerie Humphreys and Edna K. Gray expressed their joy and appreciation in obtaining this machine for the South Seminole area. Previously there has always been a waiting list for the use of the only other machine located in Sanford. The Sanford Herald March 29, 1967—Page 1A

Tommy Estes was winner of the Sprakup Jaycee Contest Monday night at the dinner meeting of the Greater Oviedo Jaycees at the Town House Restaurant. Estes will represent his club at the district contest to be held April 15-16 in Maitland during the district conference.

The topic of Estes' speech was the section of the Jaycee Creed which states "Government should be of laws rather than of men." Judging were Phil Goree, business manager of Florida Technological University; W. H. DeShazo, director of federal programs for Seminole County School System, and Ben Ward, chaplain of the Oviedo club.

The business meeting preceding the program was conducted by Jaycee President Bob Ward and included discussion of ways to stimulate interest in the Jaycee program. Ward also announced that a national director and a district vice president will be elected at the regional meeting in Maitland next month.

The next meeting of the Oviedo group will be a fish fry to be held at Lake Charm, April 16.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Seminole Indians of Florida, who once sent all their messages by runner or smoke signal, will soon become landlord for a plant that will be the world's largest manufacturer of electronic connectors for the telecommunication industry.

The Seminole tribe today took part in dedication ceremonies for the new plant at its reservation here. The facility will be operated by Amphelcor Corporation of Chicago. The 2,500 square foot building is located on a 100-acre tract agreed upon by the Seminoles in an agreement signed last June. About one-half the initial workforce of 200 will be local Indians, the company said.

Deputy Commissioner Theodore W. Taylor, representing the Bureau of Indian Affairs, praised the cooperation of American industry in creating new jobs for Indians.

Unsung Heroes

The Herald thinks it's about time someone paid tribute to some "unsung heroes" — the volunteer firemen.

The volunteer firemen are the backbone of the fire department. They are the ones who go out every time there is a fire. They are the ones who save lives and property. They are the ones who work in the most dangerous conditions. They are the ones who are always ready to help.

They are the unsung heroes of our community. They are the ones who make our lives safer and more secure. They are the ones who are always there when we need them most.

Appeasing The Big GI

An army not only travels on its stomach. The kind of food that goes into it is an all-important element in this thing called morale.

It takes 40 tons of rations daily to feed the 1st Cavalry Division in Vietnam. On a typical day, it gulps down 75 tons of vegetables, seven tons of meat, 15,000 loaves of bread and more than 22,000 eggs. This is supplemented by about 133 cases of Cration. Everything except fresh vegetables is shipped in from the States.

Moving this quantity of food poses quite a logistical problem, especially when the division is in the field. The extent to which the problem has been mastered is indicated by the fact that ice cream is brought from base camp to front lines in about 40 minutes.

"And when you get there, it's not soup either," says the division's food supply officer.

Not only ice cream but ice keeps the troops in some sort of comfort. Fifty tons are produced and distributed daily. When the really hot weather arrives, that will probably be increased to 100 tons.

Analysis Of The News

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy was back in the big time in his 14 months as president. Relations with the press looked good. Europeans loved him and marveled when he died.

It's the opposite with President Johnson. He has been in office 40 months and hasn't grown much. Relations with the press are beginning to look bad. Europeans don't like him and wonder when he will die.

In his first full year in office, 1961, Johnson might have made a big impression. He had a big job to learn. Yet, Kennedy went to Europe in his first year, and...

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York did not wait for an invitation to turn up recently at an important evening reception held by the Democratic National Committee.

He had repair work to do. A good many Democratic politicians around the country, though friendly to his long-range ambitions for higher office, were disturbed at the evident low state of his relations with a Vietnam "peace feeler."

It was a sympathetic who leaked the story that Kennedy was coming home from Paris with a Vietnam "peace feeler."

That episode, plus other factors, including some quite fond of Kennedy, by chief blame upon him.

Kennedy, backed up by his brother Ted, senator from Massachusetts, headed the reception crowd well — while aware, certainly, that these leaders have no intention of abandoning LBJ in 1968 and that they were at least moderately pleased at the President's beginning efforts to put more life in neglected party machinery.

One venerable committee man, speaking of Johnson's new strings, said: "We've been had — and I like it!"

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Dr. Don's Frank advice to parents should be heeded more widely. For our dental surgeons are trying very hard to alert you to the ways by which our teeth can receive a good condition all of our lives, without the need for false teeth. Remember that Number 66.

CASE 6389: Our son Daniel is a skillful dental technician.

"Dad," he began recently, "I wish you would alert all your readers to a few simple dental facts."

"For I have a fairly heavy patronage by child patients. And by three years with the dental division of our state board of health also reinforces these suggestions."

"First, parents need to remember the crucial Number 66. 'It refers to the fact that at the age of six, a child's permanent teeth erupt. They erupt from the middle of the front."

"Since they are one-and-only teeth, not replaced later by a second set, don't let them decay due to carelessness."

"Yet, far too many American parents, even with college education, still don't realize that a first grader has four permanent teeth."

"So warn all parents to inspect their child's mouth, counting at the midline in front."

"The first five teeth on each side of the midline, both above and below, are so-called 'baby' teeth that will drop out and be replaced by second teeth within a few years."

"But that sixth tooth on the midline on both sides, above and below, is a permanent molar."

"Because of the failure of parents to realize this fact, those four molars are often allowed to decay."

"And that is doubly tragic, for those are the front anchors for all the main 'chewers' of life."

Information Booth Opened By Jaycees

By JANE CASSELLBERRY

South Seminole Jaycees have opened an information center at their building located on Highway 17-92 just north of Seminole Plaza in Casselberry.

Mrs. Susan Stangor, of Oakland Estates, is receptionist on duty from 1 until 6 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Maps and Pamphlets of the area are available for those seeking information. Free passes are also available for the thoroughbred season at Seminole Downs.

The Jaycees now have a handsome letterhead on their stationery, thanks to Seminole Downs. It features the head of a Seminole Indian and at the bottom of the page a horse and "The Home of Seminole Downs."

U. S. To Recover Plane Moneys

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government will recover its $13 billion investment in the development of the superjet transport plane by the time the 30th SST has been produced, according to a spokesman for the aircraft industry.

Stuart G. Tipton, president of the Air Transport Association, said in a speech Tuesday to the Aero Club of Washington, that the royalties of $4.3 million to $6.7 million the government will receive on each plane delivered will provide a full return of the $13 billion by the time 300 planes have been turned out.

American Warplanes Continue Heavy Hits

SAIGON (AP) — American carrier planes hurled three raids near the major port of Haiphong Tuesday in the second day of heavy strikes against North Vietnam.

The Communist chief port was a supply point in the Red River delta 12 miles above the city. All weather jets from the 7th Fleet also hit two other large and supply points close by.

Air Force and Navy planes flew 14 missions against North Vietnam. With Monday's strikes, it was the heaviest 48-hour pounding in almost a month.

Nuyen Cao Ky paid tribute to the Navy fliers today with a flight to the nuclear-powered carrier Enterprise, where he watched strikes take off and decorated three score American fliers.

South Vietnam and some were about to take off.

Flying from bases in Thailand and South Vietnam and from the carriers Enterprise, Hancock and Kitty Hawk, U.S. pilots raked supply lines from the Haiphong area south to the 17th Parallel Tuesday. The weather appeared to be breaking after months of fog and rain, but overcast still prevented bombing damage assessments, and many raids were directed with radar.

Although the U.S. military command does not reveal the number of planes in each mission, the air armada over North Vietnam Tuesday numbered close to 400 airplanes.

There was no announcement of any planes lost over the North, but in South Vietnam a Communist ground gunner shot down an American C47 Dragonfly 20 miles southeast of Da Nang, killing seven crewmen.

Accompanying Premier Ky to the Enterprise was Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu and U.S. commander in Vietnam, Gen. William C. Westmoreland.

The trip evidently was planned to emphasize the support of Ky and Westmoreland for the bombing of the North, which both have said they consider vital to lessen infiltration of men and supplies into the South.

A lull in the ground fighting continued, but U.S. troops were making 18 big sweeps through the country and reported significant finds in the biggest — Operation Junction City, near the Cambodian border west of Saigon.

Troops of the 12th Airborne Brigade uncovered two big base camps near in the jungle of Communist War Zone C. The largest camp had 60 underground bunkers and the other hid an underground warehouse with a store of supplies which could not be sorted out immediately because of scattered fighting above ground.

In the skirmishes, two U.S. soldiers were killed and 15 wounded.

Although ground fighting was light, U.S. spokesmen reported a rash of terrorist acts and said that last week Viet Cong terrorists killed 36 Vietnamese civilians, mostly village officials and local government employees.

In the north coastal province of Quang Tin, the Viet Cong abducted 15 villagers, and government troops retaliated by taking even more hostages from a Communist controlled village.

Federal-State System Threatened, Suit Says

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Twenty-six states went to court today with arguments that the federal law threatens to end the federal-state system and could lead to federal control of police departments.

The case raises a question as old as the United States: Where does federal authority end and states' rights begin?

The states which are parties to the suit are: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Hawaii, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Ohio, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Virginia, Vermont, and Wyoming.

Maryland and the other states — their arguments so voluminous that a grocery cart was used to move the file — are attacking 1966 amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act. The amendments brought some employees of states and political subdivisions under coverage of federal wage and hour provisions for the first time.

A three-judge federal panel began today a hearing on the constitutionality of the amendments and on a request by the states for an injunction to prohibit the federal government from enforcing its provisions.

The federal government has filed a motion for dismissal. Atty. Gen. Francis B. Burch of Maryland initiated the suit against the law, which sets minimum wages for employees of schools, hospitals, nursing homes and institutions for the mentally or physically handicapped — public and private.

The law fixes their minimum hourly wage at $1.15 in the first year, $1.30 in the second year, $1.45 in the third and $1.60 in the fourth. Some 1.4 million public employees are affected.

The court action delayed the statute's date of enactment which had been Feb. 2, 1967.

"If hospitals and schools can be the subjects of regulation," Texas said in its complaint, "then the public health department, the police, the highway department, even the legislative branch would be subject to regulation at the whim of Congress."

Defendants are W. Willard Wirtz, secretary of labor; Charles T. Lundquist, administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Division of the Labor Department; and William Harbridge, a regional director of the division.

The AFL-CIO, representing 13.5 million members, and the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, representing more than 100,000 employees of schools, hospitals and other institutions joined on the government side as "friends of the court."

"The greatest single victory in the war on power," the AFL-CIO has called the legislation.

One of a Series THERE ARE SEVERAL KINDS OF SAVINGS ACCOUNTS. PICK THE ONES THAT MATCH YOUR NEEDS.

Banks and savings institutions offer a number of different types of savings accounts. Any of them might be just what you need.

For simplicity, we'll put them in these categories: (1) Regular Savings Accounts — designed to motivate you to save by offering compound interest on the money you deposit. Such accounts are frequently used to accumulate funds to be used in the not distant future. (2) Savings Certificates — designed to prompt you to put money into them and keep it there for a longer period of time without withdrawing it. They earn simple interest at a higher rate than regular savings accounts. (3) Special Savings Accounts — such as the popular Christmas Clubs. These are convenience accounts for those who need to save small amounts on a regular basis for specific short-term needs.

The interest you earn from these various types of savings accounts varies greatly. For this reason, if you pay money to know something about them, their uses, and how they work.

In our Part II we'll discuss Savings Certificates and Special Savings Accounts.

Regular savings accounts at the Florida State Bank of Sanford will earn you 4% per annum, compounded and paid quarterly. Savings Certificates under $1000 earn competitive (or about equal) with interest rates from other institutions. Such changes in interest are usually caused by a shortage or abundance of money available for lending.

For instance, during "tight money" times when banks need more money to lend to ready borrowers, they'll offer higher interest rates to entice you to save. They'll pay you more for the use of your money, and they'll charge those who borrow it a higher interest rate.

LETTERS To The Editor

Editor, The Herald

The enclosed letter I received from Mrs. Olga Hunter belatedly gave me some relief. I am handicapped. When you meet people so warm hearted and one who does something about it.

I feel sure if people understood how much Easter Seal money does for some many that Seminoles County would not be at the bottom of the list in giving. Every one is so nice to me personally, and as Mrs. Hunter says, they just do not understand how much good your Easter Seal Dollars do for those who are less fortunate than I.

Regards to you . . . and thank you again.

Orphan Bops GI And Finds Home For Himself

MALVERNE, N.Y. (AP) — Gary Barone has helped find an American home for a 3-year-old Korean orphan who caught the former U.S. Army sergeant's eye by socking him in the eye.

"He socked me right in the knee and showed that spirit. I used him right away," says Barone.

Barone, 23, who now works for a finance company, met the orphan Lee Yong Sun, when he visited the Chung Duk Won orphanage of Pusan in 1965 while serving with the army.

"Two weeks after we landed in Korea in August 1965, I went to the orphanage," Barone recalled in an interview today. "Another GI was holding Lee in his arms. I approached the boy and said, 'That's a cute one.' He socked me in the eye."

"He had spunk. He was cute," Barone continued in explaining why he chose Lee as his favorite out of more than 100 orphans at the home. "He was a tough little guy, a man's man, a little man. I just fell in love with him."

Last April, Barone wrote to his mother, Mrs. Frank Barone, asking her to try to find a family to adopt Lee. Mrs. Barone telephoned the wife of the president of the Parents for Overseas Adoption, a group of Long Island parents who have adopted children.

The wife of the president said Mrs. and Mrs. Harold Koch of Lindenbush might be interested since they had adopted a Korean girl three years ago. Mrs. Barone got in touch with the Kochs and they were enthusiastic.

The boy is scheduled to join the Kochs on April 3, thanks to arrangements made by the Welcome House of Doylestown, Pa., founded by author Pearl Buck.

Mrs. Koch said she and her husband, an aircraft engineer, adopted the Korean girl, named Krista, because they were someone after their own three children, ranging in age from 20 to 23, went off to college. Krista is 3 now.

"We wanted a little brother for our Krista," Mrs. Koch explained. "We couldn't get young ones in this country because they would think we were too old." Mrs. Koch declined to give her age.

The Kochs are going to name the boy Gary Lee, the first name for Barone and the middle name after the boy's Korean surname.

Barone will be on hand at Kennedy International Airport in New York when Lee arrives from Seoul to join his new family.

"I'll be there," said Barone. "I got special permission from the Army to wear my uniform for 24 hours. I don't think he'd recognize me in civilian clothes. I don't look the same."

Anna Clara Shelton Goes To Youth Meet

By MRS. R. B. THOMAS JR., 322-5736
 Anna Clara Shelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Shelton, Altamonte, has been selected as Seminole County representative to the Governor's Youth Conference on Education to be held in Tallahassee, Fla., April 10-12.

Teacher sponsors were Mrs. Freddie Mobley, remedial reading and Mrs. Jackie Grace, science.

The Hopper pre-school "Round-Up" will be held Thursday, April 6, from 9 a. m. to 12 noon.

Your child will need his birth certificate. If you do not have one, please get it as soon as possible. You may obtain the application form from the county health department or the school office.

You are urged to have your child present, accompanied by you, or a responsible adult, so that he or she may take the physical examination which will be given on that day. The examination will be free.

It is a must that your child have a birth certificate, a physical examination and a choice of school form, before he can be properly registered for the school term next year, according to Principal C. C. Roberts.

The CHS National Honor Society sponsored its annual Induction Ceremony assembly March 23.

The induction ceremony was presented in the form of a "Trial by Jury," in which the eight new members were found guilty of possessing those qualities stated in the N.H.S.'s platform: Scholarship, Character, Leadership and Service. The inductees were sentenced to become full-plledged members for 1967.

A student wishing to hold membership in the Society must maintain a "B" average and must meet the above mentioned qualifications.

Officers of the Society are: President, Gail Montgomery; vice president, Anna Shelton; secretary, Harriet Bush, and treasurer, Lucy Tennell.

Newly inducted members are Glenda Carr, David Black, Diane Calhoun, Lillie Banks, Ruby McDonald, Lorene Fields, Joseph Overstreet, and Louvina Wynn. Mrs. D. F. Humphrey and E. E. Minott are sponsors.

The annual convention of the Florida State Student Council Association will convene in Jacksonville March 30-April 1 at the Eugene Butler High School.

Students attending from Cocca are Brenda Lanier.

After a near tragic start years ago, Ted Johnson, a graduate student at Northern Arizona University, will pass the second milestone of his college career when he receives his master's in teaching English at the end of this year's summer school.

Presently, Johnson teaches freshmen writing labs in English while attending NAU on a graduate assistantship scholarship.

The Johnsons have wanted to live out West for several years, and that opportunity will come this fall when he will teach in the Redlands (Calif.) School District.

"Teaching is a very rewarding profession through it a person is able to serve society and humanity," remarked Johnson.

Congratulations Ted, Gwen, Angel and Juan.

The Crooms High Band Parent Association is sponsoring a dance Friday night, March 31 at the Deluxe Club. You will dance from 10 p. m. until the music of "The Lancers" from Cocca. For advanced tickets, call Mrs. Barbara Jackson. 322-

Miniskirt Ban Brings About Greek Crisis

ATHENS (AP) — Little did health and social welfare Minister Ioannis Chrysoskos suspect what an uproar he would cause by banning miniskirts among his personnel.

"The display distracts the attention of male employees and leads to less work being done," he said in an order banning the short skirt from his ministry.

There was a loud outcry from the newspapers. One printed a cartoon showing the minister measuring the length of his secretary's skirt.

"Imagine," said an unhappy secretary, "a circular on miniskirts."

Some of Chrysoskos' cabinet colleagues turned against the 66-year-old minister.

Parliament President Dimitrios Papanastasiou, 66, also dissented: "I fully approve of the short dress, as short as it can be."

Said a disgusted citizen: "If women should lengthen their skirts, then our Exzones (Greece's famous mountain industry and royal guards) should lengthen their above-the-knee pleated skirts."

After two days, Chrysoskos withdrew his order.

Herald Bridge Columnist Captures Trophy

CLEVELAND (NEA) — Jim Jacoby, 33, co-author of the "Win at Bridge" column carried regularly in The Sanford Herald, won the cherished Vanderbilt trophy in Seattle after a week of torrid team play at contract bridge.

The victory was the second for young Jacoby, who two years ago teamed with his father and column co-author, Oswald Jacoby, won the prestigious cup at the spring nationals in Cleveland. The competition is sponsored annually by the American Contract Bridge League. The ACBL Bulletin terms the Vanderbilt "the most coveted team championship play."

In the quarter-finals, Jim Jacoby's team defeated Oswald's team, much to the elder Jacoby's chagrin.

"That's his goal and I'm proud of him. He's improving his position all the time, and now ranks approximately 20th nationally."

Oswald Jacoby, who has won the Vanderbilt a total of seven times, and who has been called "the winniness bridge champion in America" by his first Vanderbilt Cup in 1931, before Jim was born. He wrote the popular "Win at Bridge" a number of years before being joined by Jim as co-author two years ago. The column now is carried by nearly 50 metropolitan newspapers with a combined circulation of more than 11 million.

Jim Jacoby is a partner in a bridge studio a lecturer, author and instructor. His most recent book, also titled "Win at Bridge," was co-authored with his father and was published late in 1966 by G. P. Putnam.

The younger Jacoby lives in a suburb of Seattle with his wife and young son. Captain of his Vanderbilt trophy team was Lewis Mathe, Los Angeles. Other members were Iva Von Der Porten, San Francisco; Mike Lawrence, Berkeley; Lou Stansky, Oakland and Robert Vail, Houston.

The Florida State Bank didn't stay in the hotel business very long. They picked up (better make it "got stuck") with the Valley Hotel at 11:23 a.m. Monday and turned it back over to L. C. Boyce this morning... He made good on that $53,800. That should make those seven renters happy.

Seminole County Food Assn. kicked in a nice sum for David Deke.

A CONVERSATION WITH SANTARIAN VAL ROBBINS REPORTER — How's everything at the county dump?
ROBBINS — There seems to be less burning since you gave it all that publicity.
REPORTER — Eh?
ROBBINS — I said less — not none.

Not too long ago the body of a Sanford boy killed in Vietnam was returned home. His mother wanted him buried at the city cemetery on 25th St. The funeral home refused to open the grave until the mother handed over $150. I don't think I have to add anything to that.

Sony Raborn is beginning to impress me more and more. We carried a story of the "Ramey Field" marker at SNAS. Raborn asked what would be done with the plaque when the base closes???? Understand the Navy is working on idea of presenting plaque to the Widow Ramey, now a Mrs. Hopkings of other parts unknown.

I TOLD YOU SO DEPARTMENT — Our legislative delegation has hired an Orlando attorney to check all our local bills.
Who's gonna pay for his services?
Anyone wants let Seminole, Sanford and the other municipalities will have to foot part of the bill?
Yeah, it was nice of Orange County to let us know about it.

City Manager W. E. Knowles is meeting today with an ACL official about fixing up all those rail crossings.

Holiday Inn plans now at city hall... L shape building... 25 x 50 swim pool... 100 rooms and 134 parking stalls... Construction on the $620,000 facility will start "soon" says the city manager.

City Park and Recreation director made a tour of 13th St. recently on a recreation center site... He ran into a blank wall.

A couple of teenagers picked up for possession of alcoholic beverages... Their fines... $3 or three minutes in jail.

Florida law requires that women register with the clerk of the court requesting jury duty... There have been several such registrations. So how come only one woman has been called in 10 years... a commissioner's wife.

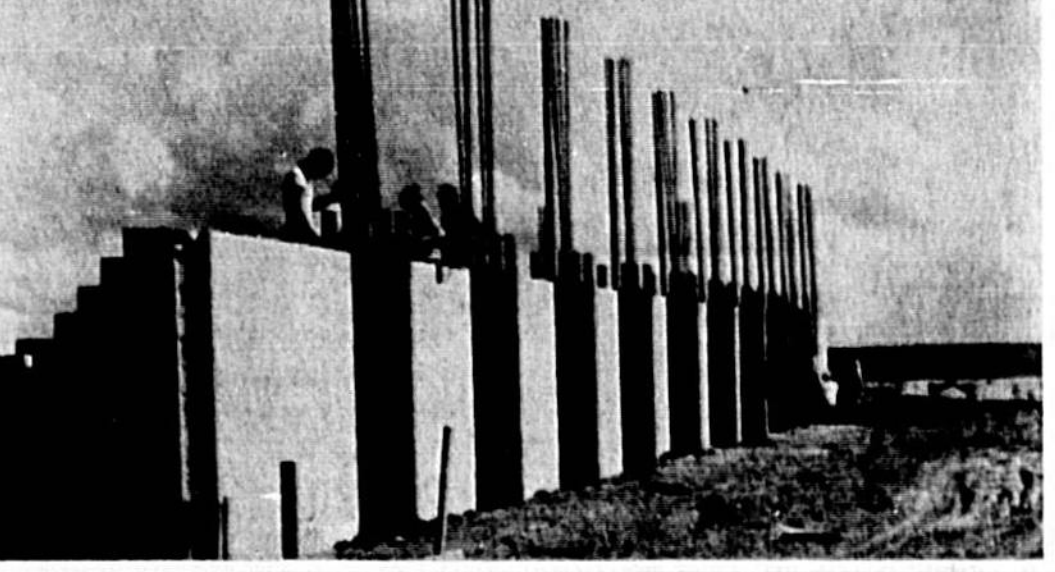

State auditor checking the county books packed up and went home the other day... His major recommendation... central purchasing?

One way to start the Democratic Party again. A purge of the executive committee. Get rid of those who are too busy to attend sessions.

If Community Action wants Action let them go a few miles south of Lake Mary. There are a bunch of people living in tar paper homes... In the swamps... If there's running water there I'd be very much surprised.

The Industrial Board budget of $25,722 will come under some discussion soon by the city fathers... The City Manager sent each commissioner a memo telling them he felt it was "too high"... especially the $2,600 needed for office furniture.

It's Full Steam Ahead For Sanford's Lakefront

We got underway this week on two facilities as part of Sanford's massive lakefront complex. Bulldozers started clearing the property (see photo on right) for the public launching ramps as part of the Community Facility Building. Cost of the building has been set at $128,000. Work also started on the dry storage building (see photo on left). Construction costs have been set at $100,000. Both projects are being done by the Shoemaker Construction Co. of Sanford. Another phase of the program — The Holiday Inn complex will start "soon." The R. G. Construction Co. of Orlando is handling the project at a cost of $650,000.

Seminole Schools Comply With New Court Ruling

The public schools of Seminole County will be completely complying with the new Orleans Court Ruling starting on Page 2.
Richey said the county is already operating under freedom of choice where parents may choose the schools they wish to attend.
"The teaching staffs of the schools have been integrated and we have eliminated dual transportation," Richey stated.
Freedom of choice forms were to be returned by students or parents during the period of Feb. 15 to March 10.
"Other schools where Negro children have chosen to go are Lyman, Oviedo High, Sanford Junior High, Seminole High and South Seminole Junior High."
"While no Negro student has requested to attend Lake Mary Elementary, the teaching staff there is integrated," Richey remarked.
Richey further revealed order of the 4th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, affirming a previous opinion ordering complete desegregation of schools, will apparently have no effect in Seminole County since the school system here is already complying with the law.

'Action' Purges Membership Roll

John Alexander, Judge Housholder, James Avery, Mason Wharton.
"Community Action," the county's anti-poverty organization, has started purging its membership roll of inactive members. Director E. D. Kirchhoff told the executive board meeting yesterday.
Kirchhoff told members that some 20 persons were taken off the membership list after they failed to show any interest in the organization.
Among those members taken off the list were: Mrs. Robert Bennett, Mrs. E. Bluff Johnson, Brown Mack Cleveland Jr., Mrs. Francis L. Collins, Judge Karlisle Housholder, Rev. Robert Jenkins, T. L. Lingo Jr., Dewitt Mathews, Henry McAllister, Dr. George Starke, Mason Wharton, Percy White and A. L. Wilson. Those who resigned recently were John Alexander, James Avery, Lee Black, Warren Carmeta Ray and Mrs. Mary Knowles, Marvin Meltzer, B. L. Perkins, William Stepper, Mrs. Earlier in the year, in an effort to get quorums at general membership meetings, the board had agreed to strike off inactive members from the rolls.

How An Uninvited Guest Got On The Navy Base

Even though Saturday is April Fool's Day the following story is no joke.
A U.S. Marine, despite the outstanding security given by the U.S. Marines, had an uninvited guest.
An Arabian-quarter horse, wearing no deal of any sort, and obviously an escapee, successfully entered the main gate during the morning rush hour traffic. The Marine on duty, Lance Cpl. James T. Hart, called over the intercom for assistance.
The men in the security shack could hardly believe their ears when they received the call for someone to come capture a horse for illegal entry. Chief Boatwain Mate T. C. Bridges and Second Class Electrician's Mate C. O. Brazg rushed to the scene.
The shifty-eyed horse galloped off in the direction of Capt. Herbert N. Hook's quarters but was finally caught by the halter and brought back to the main gate for interrogation.
The suspected spy wouldn't talk. In fact, he didn't even give his name, rank or serial number. The ground safety officer, Wes Giles, a well known horse intelligence man, was brought in to identify the intruder. Giles discovered the horse belonged to John A. Burton IV and had fled from Lake Silver where he had been tied.
The horse was returned to his owner, but as of this moment intelligence has not been able to discover why the fore-legal foreigner entered the station or what devastatingly direful plot he was up to.

Sanfordite Hospitalized After Knifing

A 24-year-old Sanford man is reported in fair condition today at Seminole Memorial Hospital after sustaining a 14-inch cut in the lower abdomen in a fracas at 12:15 a. m. at the Sun Shine Club in Volusia County just across the Lake Monroe Bridge.
Victim is identified as Larry Joe Holcomb of 712 Osceola Drive.
According to report by the investigating deputies, Ronald Veino and Howard McBride, the cutting was result of an argument stemming from one car being backed into another in the club parking area. The assailant, whose identity is being withheld until he is taken into custody, fled the scene before the officers arrived.
Today's observation of Doctor's Day will be observed at 7:30 p.m. when the Seminole County Medical Auxiliary is hostess to a dinner honoring doctors, active and retired, and their wives in the auditorium at Seminole Memorial Hospital.
Guest speaker will be Joe McLawley or Orlando, ethical hypnotist.
Other activities of the day have included presentation of awards to a dinner honoring arrangements of red carnations and roses of appreciation to the widows of seven local doctors.

Swofford Predicts Pay Hikes

County Commissioner W. Lawrence Swofford today predicted the State Road Department will continue allocating approximately $1 million a year for primary roads in Seminole County.
"The million dollars each year will probably be allocated if the county can acquire the rights of way," Swofford said. He further revealed the decision of the SRD will be made public following adoption of its tentative budget on April 13. Swofford also predicted provisions will be made in the county budget for the next fiscal year to raise salaries of 58 of the county employees to bring them within the minimum rate of pay recommended by the recent job classification and pay plan.
"Because people are public servants is no reason why they should not receive pay equal to that of surrounding industry," Swofford remarked.
"I think they are entitled to a fair living."

Grab Teens On Forgery

Two Sanford teenagers were turned over to juvenile authorities this week, charged with 10 counts of forgery, Police Chief Ben Butler reported today.
The boys called in checks from the St. John's Baptist Church on Cypress Ave. Two of the checks were cashed in Deland, one in Orlando and the rest in Sanford. Checks totaled over $200.

CHAMBER SET TO AIR HOLY LAND PROJECT
Will creation of a third dimensional topographic and geographic map of ancient Palestine including an actual size replica of Jerusalem become a major factor in the development of tourism in Seminole County? A long step towards the answer to this prospect takes place tonight when a public meeting followed by a board of directors session of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce is held.
Explanation of this proposal comes from Stephen A. Hanson, Golden Gate City, California by adoption, in the form of words and pictures at the public showing at 7:30 A. large attendance is looked for as the promotion of this grand project is considered a vital and progressive part of the drive for tourism in this area by Chamber officials. And those who have seen and heard the plans find them exhilarating.
Hanson said this recreation area one-half a mile long and one-quarter a mile wide showing the mountains, hills, valleys, rivers, seas, villages and cities as they appeared during the days of Jesus' ministry. In this new-old Palestine, Jerusalem would feature "the 36 acre temple of King Solomon... and on the east of Via Dolorosa with its 14 stations of the cross, the church of the resurrection and the empty tomb." Miniatures would be erected of the Mount of Olives and the Garden of Gethsemane.
