'Avoid Nuclear War,' Says HHH NEW YORK (AP) - Vice

President Hubert H. Humphrey says the course of the United States in the Viet Nam war "seeks to avoid, if possible, nuclear holocaust." Humphrey made the statement Thursday night in speech before more than 1,00 persons at the convention of the Disabled American Veterans. Departing from his text Humphrey said: "I have been with your Presi dent today. We had a Cabinet meeting. The needs of the armed forces and Gen. Wil liam C. Westmoreland in Vie Nam will be met. Friend and foe alike have to know that our country will meet those needs.'
