

Seminole Cagers Win 33 To 16 Over Eustis High Quint

The scrappy basketball cagers of Seminole High School again beat the Eustis quint 33 to 16 yesterday in the high school gym. The game was fairly close up to the half when Feds led 13 to 12, but the Feds turned on the heat in the second half and located the basket. The other victory was made at Eustis (31 to 20) several weeks ago.

On Thursday of this week, the Feds will journey to the Landen High gym at Jacksonville to play Ocala in a regional tournament, according to Coach Leonard McLucas.

Shades of the one-horse shay! Eustis has issued a franchise for the operation of a horse-drawn taxi service.

Mr. R. Tifford disclosed Saturday that he has obtained the franchise and intends to operate the service in two-passenger surreys for sight-seeing.

Tifford said, however, the operation will be delayed—because the surreys will have to be built first.

Rates will be fifty cents a trip, or $1.50 a person for an hour.

Withdrawing Reds Fight Desperately To Hold New Gains

Germans Advance 100
Miles With Fresh
Replacements And
Take 8 Key Cities

(By Associated Press)
Swept back 100 miles with the loss of eight key cities, Russia's armies battled desperately to save the great prize of the winter offensive
as the Germans threw approximately 375,000 troop reinforcements into a counter-drive against Kharkov and the upper Donets River valley.

Soviet dispatches claimed, however, the German rush was being held despite violent attacks, saying the Nazis were forced to retreat in at least one sector.

On the general front, Red Army units within striking distance of the tip of the German salient at Vyasma and farther to the north the Germans were pushed closer into the fortress of Staraya

Russia. The Nazis admitted losses of 600,000 men.

The Germans, after withdrawing from areas of Southern

Russia, launched a giant counteroffensive in the Donets basin and in a 100-mile march have recaptured

eight key cities south and southeast of the big fortress city of Kharkov, the Russians acknowledged early today.

The German offensive was launched in February with 25
army divisions, an approximately 375,000 men, including 15 divisions which had been replenished

after previous action and 12 fresh ones rushed from the west to this vital sector of the long German-

Russian front-line.

The Russians acknowledged

losses of 600,000 men, many killed and wounded, and admitted falling into the northern bank of the

Donets River under the attack of the Nazi Armies, but they said they had driven the enemy with the German

deaths alone amounting to 80,000

officers and men.

Russian losses were not mentioned in the announcement made in the regular midnight communica-

cations broadcast from Moscow and recorded here by the Soviet Monitor.

The Russians acknowledged giving up the cities of Krasnodar,

Letovaya, Pavlograd, Krasno-

grad, Kramatorsk, Dneprovsk, Sloviansk and Luhansk.

A total of these had been taken in the great Soviet Winter offensive, about 65 miles short of the Dnieper River, was the highwater mark of the westward

pump.

"Further attempts of the enemy

to develop his offensive and force

a crossing of the Northern Don-ets River and the Dnieper will be met by firm resistance of our troops and the enemy did not meet any success," the communiqué added.

Fighting French Seal Trap Around Rommel's Troops

Montgomery's Guns Shower Havoc On Nazis, Despite Rain, Sandstorms

(By Associated Press) Secretary of War Stimson said today fighting French troops had made contact with other French legions in a flanking movement around the southern end of Marsh line in Tunisia, thereby sealing the trap on 250,000 Axis troops under Marshal Rommel.

A bitter struggle appeared in the offing as the British eighth army made exploratory attacks at Rommel's Marsh line forces in Tunisia.

Rain and sandstorms prevented large scale operations but General Montgomery's big guns were reported raining havoc on Marsh line sectors.

The fighting French captured Metzou, 25 miles west of Gafsa, apparently clearing out the Nazi garrison to a drive to the Gulf of Gabes behind the Marsh line. An Allied communiqué said Allied troops repelled an attack yesterday west of Sedjenane in the northern sector and patrolling continued in the central sector.

In Washington, Secretary of War Stimson said the Allied Tunisian forces "had much the better of the fighting last week" although losses on both sides "have been substantial." He said more than 1,000 Axis prisoners have been taken.

Gen. Bernard L. Montgomery, British Eighth Army commander, crippléd tank force yesterday prepared to give the enemy a "bloody nose." Now that he is "caught like a rat in a trap," Montgomery's guns were shelling the western flank between Tébessa and Gafsa, and Allied patrols also were on the Axis lines of Col. Gen. Jürgen von Arnim in the north.

Allied patrols also were "extremely active" in Northern Tunisia where the British First Army is stationed, particularly in the Sedjenane area, a high command communiqué said.

U.S. Lend-Lease To Other Nations Is Over Nine Billion

WASHINGTON, Mar. 11. (AP) — Concentration of civilian industries in war areas still will continue, WPB officials are asking other answers to manpower, transportation, power and material shortages, it was revealed today.

Authorities are considering tackling the problem now on a broad basis instead of a nationwide basis by having or creating essential industries where man power is urgently needed for war work. While letting the same kind of civilian plants operate in areas of less severe labor shortages.

However, labor turnover, not absolute man power, seems to be the problem, Dr. William Haber, director of the Bureau of Program Planning and Review of the War Man-Power Commission, said in New York before the American Public Welfare Association at the Hotel New Yorker. The association is one of 300 national organizations represented at the New York regional meeting of the National Conference of Social Work, which opened here Sunday and continues through Friday.

"The labor turnover in war industries varies from 8 to 10 percent monthly," Dr. Haber said. "Labor piracy is the principal cause and we are attempting to stop this practice by setting up employment stabilization agreements between employers and labor."

Under stabilization agreements employers agree to cease poaching workers from other war industries and workers agree to stay with their jobs.

"Absenteeism is an important problem, of course," he said, "but not nearly as dangerous as personnel loss in some firms it is up to 15 percent."

"We must add approximately 6,000,000 persons to the war industries and the armed forces by the end of the year. This means that 2,400,000 men and women will be in the so-called 'civilian utilization' category. Another 1,000,000 men will be inducted into the armed services."

"However, the man-power problem is not going to be solved by adding up totals and citing figures. It will no longer exist only when every essential industry in the country is operating at the right place and the right time to do the necessary job."

Dr. Haber said this problem will be met "by various devices and processes." In December, 1942, only 20 percent of the personnel in the United States Employment Service left switchboard work old and, he said, he said many office and industrial workers may be asked to work on farms during their vacations.

Agriculture, he said, should be classified as a munitions industry."

Commander Boyle served with the First Illinois Field Artillery on the Mexican border in 1916 and with the famous 42nd (Rainbow) Division in France during World War I. He participated in 11 battles and was wounded in March, 1918. Rejoining his regiment in June 1918 he served at the front until the Armistice, after which, then with the Army of Occupation in Germany until April, 1919.

For military merit Commander Boyle was awarded the Purple Heart medal by the United States Government and the Croix de Guerre by the French Government.

Second year ago the 25-year-old records of the University of Florida's early football teams were uncovered, and when Boyle's name was discovered on a roster, he was invited to Gainesville and presented with a service letter, in recognition of the work he did in college and afterwards in behalf of his team. At the same school day, his nickname made his official title.

Commenting up on the Lane-McCormick trophy, Boyle stated that the trophy was set, the purpose of which was to enable as many mothers as possible to engage in war work. The more mothers that work, the more men may be released for the armed services and the more children we take over, the more mothers we can have.

Commenting up on the Lane-McCormick trophy, Boyle stated that it was a good idea to set the purpose of which was to enable as many mothers as possible to engage in war work. The more mothers that work, the more men may be released for the armed services and the more children we take over, the more mothers we can have.
